Senior Exhibition.

An exhibition of the Senior Class of Wofford College came off in the Chapel, on the 15th inst., which closed the first session of the present collegiate year.

Although the day was unfavorable, there was a very respectable audience in attendance. Indeed, the young men should feel themselves complimented in having so many—especially of the fair sex—present, despite the inclemency of the weather, to witness their oratorical efforts. Our citizens, however, always manifest a commendable interest in the public exercises of the College, never failing to attend in respectable numbers all the exhibitions, and thus encourage the young speakers who may take part in them.

All the speakers acquitted themselves very creditably. We might particularize and speak of several, with whose manner of delivery or with whose speeches we were more especially pleased; but, in doing this, we should do injustice to others. We will content ourselves, therefore, in speaking thus generally of the exhibition, especially as we cannot now undertake to notice the speeches separately and give each due praise. We give below the names of the speakers, with their subjects:

Mutability and Glory of Literature—H. S. Beaty, Union, S. C.

The Progress of Intellect—J. D. Dunlap, Camden, S. C.

A Corrupt Literature—J. W. Holmes, Shelby, N. C.

Footprints of Eighteen Hundred and Fifty Eight—J. W. Humbert, Laurens, S. C.

Ancient and Modern Patriotism Contrasted—R. R. King, Clarendon, S. C.

"No Cross, No Crown"—S. E. A. Lewis, Burke Co., Ga.

Imagination—J. H. McCollum, Marlboro', S. C.

The Printing Press—E. H. Miller, Shelby, N. C.

Literary Attractions of the Bible—A. J. Stafford, Rutherford, N. C.

The Soul—A. J. Stokes, Barnwell, S. C.

Development of the Mental Faculties—J. A. Townsend, Abbeville, S. C.

Trifles in Life—L. C. Weaver, Spartanburg, S. C.

Aggressive Tendency of Christianity—S. A. Weber, Shelby, N. C.

Of the above-named speakers, Messrs. S. E. A. Lewis and A. J. Stokes were necessarily absent, and were, therefore, excused from performing their parts in the exercises of the day.

In the intervals between the speeches, the audience was enlivened by excellent music, vocal and instrumental, by Messrs. Blaisdell and Saunier, assisted by several other gentlemen. All the pieces were good, and several of the songs were really beautiful. The class was very fortunate in securing the consent of these gentlemen to contribute the music for the occasion. We hope the

COURSE OF STUDIES.

FOR ADMISSION TO THE FRESHMAN CLASS.

WE would impress upon Parents and Teachers the necessity of a thorough preparation in the following requisites. It is known to every Teacher, that a Pupil may read over the entire Preparatory course and yet be totally unfit to begin the College studies. Very great care should be taken to insure accuracy in the elementary studies—the Grammar, Prosody, Ancient Geography, &c. The Student who is compelled, in addition to the College course, to make up the deficiencies existing in his Academical course, has a very difficult task. It is perhaps not absolutely impossible, but very few young men have the patient industry necessary to accomplish it.

A candidate is required to be at least fourteen years of age, to have studied carefully the English, Latin and Greek Grammars, including Prosody ;

- Ancient and Modern Geography ;
- Arithmetic ;
- Algebra, through Equations of Second Degree ;
- Cæsar's Commentaries, four books ;
- Virgil's Æneid, six books ;
- All of Sallust ;
- Four of Cicero's Orations ;
- All of Jacobs' Greek Reader ;
- Xenophon's Anabasis, six books.

Candidates, for a more advanced Class, will be examined on all the studies already pursued by the Class they wish to join.
