My dear Wife

1864

Your of Sept 20th was received on the 19th. you can well imagine my joy when getting it: write often on one page of foolscap paper & close tell me the casualties in my co & regt. I am very well but having a hard time of it. we are fed upon rations that we said to be the same the Federal officers in Charleston yet & which are of a very inferior quality of insufficient quantity. I am being by all the time particularly at night. but can stand it very well send me boxes of food at regular intervals & send me in the next my black overcoat or any other good one except my military one. one good blanket. my tack Hammer. 1 flat file. 1 half round file. 1 hand saw file & 2 of my smallest files & my Pliers & small hand vice. Make every effort to send me money I have received none yet but hope to get some by next flag of truce. I am bearing this imprisonment in the proper spirit. & would like to express myself more fully to you but think it best to say but little you can write us fully as you please & I hope will do so
