

12-9-1818

Caesar Rodney letter to his son John Rodney, dated 1818, Wilmington, Delaware.

Caesar Augustus Rodney

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.wofford.edu/littlejohnmss>

Part of the Social History Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Rodney, Caesar Augustus, "Caesar Rodney letter to his son John Rodney, dated 1818, Wilmington, Delaware." (1818). The Broadus R. Littlejohn, Jr. Manuscript Collection. Book 138.

<http://digitalcommons.wofford.edu/littlejohnmss/138>

This Manuscript is brought to you for free and open access by the Sandor Teszler Library at Digital Commons @ Wofford. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Broadus R. Littlejohn, Jr. Manuscript Collection by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Wofford. For more information, please contact stonerp@wofford.edu.

Atty Genl Jefferson
u Madison

Wilmington Dec 9. 1818

My Dear Sir,

On my return from Phila. & where I have been for a few days past, I received your letters.

I regret extremely the unpleasant circumstances at the Point, & am very sorry to hear of the treatment received by the son of my late much respected friend Judge Mitchell. I do not wish you to resign at this particular moment tho' I shall not object to it ultimately if you desire it. As of this with a little attention to your former with Mr. Downing, you would be content to go on with the law could study it at the same time you were acquiring the language from a teacher. & thus

A. Rodney