Dear Sir

Baltimore 2 April 1829

In your letter of the 28th Jan<sup>y</sup> you promised to inclose a check for $388.22 on one of the banks in this city out of the first monies which you expected soon to receive. The interest was due the 1st of last Dec<sup>r</sup>.
I think it high time your promise were complied with at the expiration of four months from the time it became due. Y<sup>r</sup>s with respect

Dear Sir

Your most Obedt Servant
Ch. Carroll of Carrollton
