

7-17-1834

Abstract of laws and regulations at Harvard University for parents or guardians of Nathan Hale, Jr., a member of the freshman class. Signed by Josiah Quincy, Cambridge, July 17, 1834.

Josiah Quincy
Harvard University

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.wofford.edu/littlejohnmss>

 Part of the Higher Education Commons, Legal Commons, Social History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation

Quincy, Josiah, "Abstract of laws and regulations at Harvard University for parents or guardians of Nathan Hale, Jr., a member of the freshman class. Signed by Josiah Quincy, Cambridge, July 17, 1834." (1834). The Broadus R. Littlejohn, Jr. Manuscript Collection. Book 239.

<http://digitalcommons.wofford.edu/littlejohnmss/239>

This Manuscript is brought to you for free and open access by the Sandor Teszler Library at Digital Commons @ Wofford. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Broadus R. Littlejohn, Jr. Manuscript Collection by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Wofford. For more information, please contact stonerp@wofford.edu.

HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

Abstract of Laws and Regulations of the University in Cambridge, for the Information of Parents and Guardians of Students accepted on Examination.

Of Admission and Matriculation.

I. THE Parents or Guardians of those Students who have been accepted on examination, or some other person for them, must give a bond to the President and Fellows, with surety or sureties, one of which must belong to this Commonwealth, to the satisfaction of the Steward, in the sum of four hundred dollars, to pay all charges accruing in conformity to the laws and customs of the University; and said bond is to be lodged with the Steward.

II. Every one, who has been accepted on examination, shall, on the first day of the Term, or as soon after as may be, exhibit to the President a certificate, that the bond has been given, agreeably to the foregoing law. He shall then sign an acknowledgment that he is a member of Harvard University and subject to its Laws; upon which the President will deliver him a printed copy of the Laws, and admit him to the privileges of the Institution. He may then take possession of a chamber, if any be assigned to him, and receive the instruction of the University. But he will be considered on probation, and will not be admitted to full standing as a matriculated student, till after a probation of one Term. If he be not qualified for matriculation at that time, he may be considered on probation for a further period not exceeding a year from his acceptance.

Dress.

On Sabbaths and Exhibition days, and on all public occasions, each Student, in public, shall wear a black or black-mixed coat, with buttons of the same color.

Term Bills.

The bills for college charges and expenses shall be made out three times a year, at the end of each term; and if any Student shall neglect to pay to the Steward, on or before the seventh day of every Term each Term bill due from him to the University, he shall not be permitted to occupy his chamber, join his class, or continue at the University; until he shall produce to the Faculty a certificate from the Steward of his having made the required payment; and in the mean time he shall be subject to the common charges in the Term bill. If any Student shall be absent for non-payment of a bill, for more than one month after the beginning of the Term when payment ought to have been made by this law, his chamber shall be assigned to another, nor shall he be admitted to the privileges of the University till he has produced a certificate from some respectable gentleman in his neighbourhood, testifying to his good behavior in his absence, nor till he has passed a satisfactory examination in his studies.

Nathan Hale jr

Harvard University, July 17 1834

is admitted a member of the Freshman Class on ~~probation and on condition of his passing a satisfactory examination in the following studies at the end of the next vacation, viz.~~

*Jonathan Quincy
P. M. C.*

the end of the next week.

probation and on condition of his having a certain amount of money in the college savings bank

is admitted a member of the Freshman Class on

Harvard University, Sept 1884

John G. ...

his presence, and till he has received a certificate of admission in his stead.

has produced a certificate from some respectable person in his neighborhood, and shall be permitted to the privilege of the University till the payment of a bill for more than one month after the opening of the year when payment ought to have been made the next time he shall be subject to the common charges in the year bill. If any student shall be absent for more than the usual number of the Faculty or otherwise in the absence of the Faculty, he shall be subject to the University. The bills for college charges and expenses shall be made on the first of each month, and if must not derive from the retained notes.

COLLEGE RULES.

ment of the Freshman Class, however, after the end of the second term, may confer with the Faculty of the year, and ornament from those whose attendance, except that in cases of mourning, he may not be removed from the class. Men- pling or writing, if not of the proper and good mark.

rest on the Sabbath and on holidays, save on other occasions when on such as would be improper. A scholar in ex-

ment of the Freshman Class, however, after the end of the second term, may confer with the Faculty of the year, and ornament from those whose attendance, except that in cases of mourning, he may not be removed from the class. Men- pling or writing, if not of the proper and good mark.

rest on the Sabbath and on holidays, save on other occasions when on such as would be improper. A scholar in ex-

Certificate of Admission to Harvard University

has produced a certificate from some respectable person in his neighborhood, and shall be permitted to the privilege of the University till the payment of a bill for more than one month after the opening of the year when payment ought to have been made the next time he shall be subject to the common charges in the year bill. If any student shall be absent for more than the usual number of the Faculty or otherwise in the absence of the Faculty, he shall be subject to the University. The bills for college charges and expenses shall be made on the first of each month, and if must not derive from the retained notes.

OF EXAMINATIONS AND EXERCISES.

ments and examinations of students are regulated on Examination. The Faculty of the University in Cambridge for the preparation of the

HARVARD UNIVERSITY.