County of Worcester

June 10th 1784

In the Court of General Sessions of the Peace
The Committee Appointed to View the Jail
In said County & report whether it is necessary to build a new Jail.

They leave to report as their Opinion that the Present Jail is Very inconvenient & insufficient
For the safety of the County Comfort of the Prisoners & that it is Expedient to build a new Jail on a new Plot of Ground as soon as it can be done with Convenience.

& in the Mean Time that such Repairs be Made to the Present Jail as are necessary For the safe keeping the Prisoners
