

10-1-2012

Football Press Releases October 2012

Wofford College. Sports Information Office

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.wofford.edu/sportspr>

Recommended Citation

Wofford College. Sports Information Office, "Football Press Releases October 2012" (2012). Sports Press Releases. 3.
<http://digitalcommons.wofford.edu/sportspr/3>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Athletics at Digital Commons @ Wofford. It has been accepted for inclusion in Sports Press Releases by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Wofford. For more information, please contact stonerp@wofford.edu.

From: Williamson, D Brent
Subject: Eric Breitenstein Named SoCon Offensive Player of the Week
Date: Monday, October 1, 2012 1:27:45 PM

Monday, October 1, 2012

Eric Breitenstein Named SoCon Offensive Player of the Week

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – The Southern Conference named its football players of the week today for games played Saturday, Oct. 1. Wofford’s Eric Breitenstein has been named the Offensive Player of the Week, while Chattanooga’s Kadeem Wise was named the Defensive Player of the Week. Appalachian State’s Sean Price was selected as the Freshman of the Week, while Furman’s Jerodis Williams was tabbed the Special Teams Player of the Week. The players of the week are selected by the conference office.

Eric Breitenstein, a senior fullback from Valle Crucis, North Carolina, set a new Southern Conference record with 321 rushing yards in the Terriers’ 49-24 win at Elon. He eclipsed the previous mark of 313 set by Appalachian State’s Armanti Edwards on Dec. 7, 2007, against Richmond. Breitenstein carried 27 times, scored two touchdowns in the win and became just the third player in the league’s 91-year history to rush for more than 300 yards in a game. He scored on a 90-yard run on his opening carry of the game. He finished the first half with 228 yards on the ground, four yards shy of the league’s record for a single half. It also was the 23rd time he has rushed for more than 100 yards in a game.

It is the fifth SoCon Player of the Week honor for Breitenstein in his career and his second this season. He was also named the National Running Back of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards and a College Sporting News National All-Star.

The Terriers will host Furman on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. at Gibbs Stadium in a key Southern Conference contest.

From: Williamson, D Brent
Subject: Wofford Football Downs Furman 20-17
Date: Saturday, October 6, 2012 5:44:41 PM
Attachments: WOF-FUR box 10-6.pdf

Saturday, October 6, 2012

Wofford Football Downs Furman 20-17

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – The Wofford football team used a big performance by the defense to come away with a 20-17 win over Furman on Saturday afternoon at Gibbs Stadium. The Terrier defense had three interceptions, including two in the fourth quarter, to earn a hard fought victory.

The Terriers open the season 5-0 and 3-0 in the SoCon. Furman is 2-4 overall and 1-2 in conference play. For Wofford, Eric Breitenstein had 158 yards on 21 carries. Cam Flowers and Brian Kass each had rushing touchdowns, while Jeff Ashley had a 52-yard touchdown reception. Furman was led by Jarodis Williams with 121 rushing yards and two touchdowns. “In the second half we came up with some huge plays,” said head coach Mike Ayers. “I can’t say enough about the way we hung together. We are 3-0 in the conference and that is where we wanted to be at the end of the game. You are going to get penalties because you are playing hard, but we are going to correct the ones from today and move on. The great thing about this team is five weeks in a row we have gotten better. We have had to because the hill that we are climbing is getting steeper and steeper.”

The teams both punted on their opening possessions of the game. On the next drive by the Paladins, they converted three straight third downs before scoring on a 27 yard run by Jerodis Williams. Furman had a 7-0 lead at the 4:17 mark of the first quarter. Wofford drove the ball down the field on their next possession, but Will Irwin fumbled after making a first down catch and the ball was recovered at the 19-yard line by Cortez Johnson.

Furman picked up two first downs before Phillip LeGrande hit Reese Hannon as he threw a pass and the ball was intercepted by Tarek Odom at the line of scrimmage. After two first downs, Cam Flowers scored from ten yards out to make it a 7-7 game with 11:09 on the clock in the second quarter.

The Paladins gained two first downs, including one on a facemask penalty, to drive into Wofford territory. The drive stalled and Furman punted, with the Terriers taking over on the 22-yard line. Wofford was unable to gain a first down and punted. Furman was able to move down the field and scored on a one-yard touchdown run by Jerodis Williams. The Paladins had a 14-7 lead with only 54 seconds left in the first half.

To open the second half, Wofford used a 33-yard run by Eric Breitenstein to get inside the ten-yard line and Brian Kass scored from one-yard out on fourth-and-one. The score was 14-13 in favor of Furman after the extra point hit the right upright with 11:15 on the clock in the third quarter. The Paladins used a 40-yard completion to Colin Anderson to set up a 24-yard field goal by Ray Early. Furman had a 17-13 advantage with 9:23 left in the third quarter.

On the next drive for the Terriers, Brian Kass ran for two first downs. Kass then found Jeff Ashley for a 52-yard touchdown pass when Ashley beat the cornerback and was open on the near sideline. Wofford had a 20-17 lead with 6:49 left in the third quarter. Furman picked up one first down before two penalties backed up the Paladins. Ray Early punted 82-yards and Wofford started their drive on the two-yard line. The Terriers gained one first down before punting.

Furman drove deep inside Wofford territory, but Reese Hannon was intercepted by Mike McCrimon at the nine-yard line. He returned it 25 yards before fumbling, however James Zotto was there to recover the ball. Wofford used runs of 18 yards and 32 yards by Eric Breitenstein to move the ball inside the ten. On fourth-and-two, the pass was incomplete and the ball was turned over on downs with 11:06 left in the game. Furman converted a fourth-and-one from their 35-yard line to keep the drive alive, but had to punt.

Wofford started their next drive on the three-yard line with 5:55 remaining on the clock. The Terriers had a run of 18 yards by Eric Breitenstein and a 24 yard run by Will Irwin to move the ball into Furman territory, but the drive stalled and Wofford punted. Furman got the ball back with 1:19 left in the game and Reese Hannon was sacked by Alvin Scioneaux on the first play. On the second play, Blake Wylie picked off a pass from Hannon to seal the victory for the Terriers.

Wofford had 364 total yards, with 303 on the ground. Furman had 319 total yards, 170 of which were passing. The Terriers had 17 first downs to 20 for the Paladins. Wofford was 5-of-12 on third downs. Furman was 8-of-15 on third down. Wofford had seven penalties, while Furman had only three. Furman had the time of possession by a 30:01 to 29:59 margin.

Next week, the Terriers begin a tough two-game road trip with a visit to Georgia Southern at 6:00 p.m. followed by a trip to Appalachian State on October 20.

Wofford vs. Furman Post-Game Notes

Wofford has opened the season 5-0 for the first time since 1991.

The Wofford defense had three interceptions in the game, a season high and the most since at Chattanooga (11/19/2011). Interceptions were by Mike McCrimon (second career), Blake Wylie (seventh career), and Tarek Odom (first career).

Eric Breitenstein marked his 24th career 100+ rushing game with 158 yards on 21 carries. Eric Breitenstein stands at 4,588 career rushing yards, currently 540 yards behind Shawn Graves at 5,128 yards in the school record book.

Injuries have begun to pile up for the Terriers. Mike Niam (knee), Donovan Johnson (foot), Allen Smith (concussion) and Stephon Shelton (concussion) missed the contest due to injury. Anthony Carden (hip), Zach Bobb (knee), and Josh Roseborough (ankle) were hurt in the game.

Game captains were CJ Turner and Josef Grommer.

Attendance was 9,170 at Gibbs Stadium.

###

From: Williamson, D Brent
Subject: Wofford Football Falls 17-9 At Georgia Southern
Date: Saturday, October 13, 2012 9:30:46 PM
Attachments: WOF-GSU box 10-13.pdf

Saturday, October 13, 2012

Wofford Football Falls 17-9 At Georgia Southern

STATESBORO, Ga. – In a defensive battle, the Wofford football team fell 17-9 to Georgia Southern on Saturday evening at Paulson Stadium. Both teams kept the ball on the ground, as the Eagles had 265 rushing yards to 221 for the Terriers.

The Terriers are 5-1 on the season and 3-1 in the SoCon. Georgia Southern is 5-1 overall and 4-1 in conference play. For Wofford, Eric Breitenstein had 102 yards on 13 carries and Cam Flowers had 26 yards. Georgia Southern was led by Dominique Swope with 25 carries for 137 yards and the game's only two touchdowns.

“We knew they were going to do what they did,” said head coach Mike Ayers. “For us defensively we did a great job of stopping an explosive offense, but we have to do a better job offensively. We had opportunities but we just have to coach them better. We will do everything we can do to get them ready for next week. It is not going to be easy because there is no easy in the Southern Conference.”

To open the game, Georgia Southern fumbled and the ball was recovered by E.J. Speller at the 28-yard line. Wofford was stopped and made a 39-yard field goal, but the Eagles were offsides and the Terriers got the first down. After a pass interference call in the endzone, Wofford got on the board with a 19-yard field goal by Christian Reed for a 3-0 lead with 9:26 on the clock in the first quarter.

On the next drive for the Eagles, they were forced three-and-out and punted. Wofford gained one first down before a tackle for loss and sack made the Terriers punt. Georgia Southern picked up one first down before punting. Wofford used a 65-yard run by Eric Breitenstein to move the ball inside the 15-yard line and took a 6-0 lead after a 30-yard field goal by Christian Reed with 14:56 on the clock in the second quarter.

The Eagles had a 33-yard run by Jerrick McKinnon to set up a 48-yard field goal by Alex Hanks to make it a 6-3 game at 11:52 in the second quarter. On the ensuing drive the Terriers gained one first down before punting, which was matched by the Eagles on their next drive. Wofford then went three-and-out and punted and Darreion Robinson returned it 46 yards inside the 30-yard line. Georgia Southern took advantage of the short field and scored a touchdown on a four-yard run by Dominique Swope. The Eagles had a 10-6 lead with 46 seconds left in the first half.

To start the second half, Wofford gained one first down before two incomplete passes forced a punt. After a sack by Alvin Scioneaux, Georgia Southern went three-and-out and punted. After picking up two first downs, Eric Breitenstein converted a fourth-and-one. However the drive stalled and Wofford punted.

The Eagles gained two first downs on their next drive before punting with 1:23 on the clock in the third quarter. Wofford then was able to pick up three first downs, but after a fumble the Terriers were forced to punt with 12:12 left in the fourth quarter.

Georgia Southern used four rushing first downs to get to the 11-yard line. Dominique Swope then scored from three yards out to give the Eagles a 17-6 lead with 8:36 on the clock in the fourth quarter. With the ball back, Wofford was able to drive inside the 10-yard line, but once again were kept out of the endzone and Christian Reed kicked a 23-yard field goal. The score was 17-9 with 3:38 left in the game. The Eagles got the ball back and were able to gain three first downs and run out the clock for the win.

Wofford had 248 total yards, with 221 on the ground. Georgia Southern had 265 total yards, all of which were rushing. Each team had 15 first downs. Wofford was 4-of-15 on third downs. Georgia Southern was 3-of-10 on third down. Wofford had two penalties, while Georgia Southern had five. Wofford had the time of possession by a 33:40 to 26:20 margin. Next week, the Terriers travel to Appalachian State on October 20 for a 3:30 p.m. contest before returning home on October 27 against The Citadel.

Wofford vs. Georgia Southern Post-Game Notes

The win by Georgia Southern ends a streak of road team wins in the series at seven.

After Wofford allowed just three sacks in the first five games of the season, the Eagles had three sacks on the night.

Eric Breitenstein marked his 25th career 100+ rushing game (tied for first in school history) with 102 yards on 13 carries. Eric Breitenstein stands at 4,690 career rushing yards, currently 438 yards behind Shawn Graves at 5,128 yards in the school record book. Breitenstein has 995 rushing yards this season.

Mike Niam (knee) and Zach Bobb (knee) missed the contest due to injury. Calvin Cantrell (concussion) was hurt in the game.

Game captains were Stephon Shelton and Bryan Youman.

Attendance was 20,983 at Paulson Stadium.

From: Williamson, D Brent
Subject: Wofford Football Wins 38-28 At Appalachian State
Date: Saturday, October 20, 2012 7:39:56 PM
Attachments: WOF-ASU box 10-20.pdf

Saturday, October 20, 2012

Wofford Football Wins 38-28 At Appalachian State

BOONE, N.C. – On a cool Saturday afternoon, the Wofford football team scored twice in the fourth quarter to win 38-28 over Appalachian State at Kidd Brewer Stadium. After the Mountaineers took the lead in the third quarter, a touchdown run by Eric Breitenstein and a fumble return for a touchdown by Tarek Odom secured the victory.

The Terriers are 6-1 on the season and 4-1 in the SoCon. Appalachian State is 5-3 overall and 3-2 in conference play. For Wofford, Eric Breitenstein had 123 yards and two touchdowns, while Michael Weimer added 77 rushing yards and Brian Kass had a 38 yard completion and 71 rushing yards. The Mountaineers were led by Jamal Jackson with 257 passing yards on 29-of-46 passing and 32 rushing yards.

“It was a great win for us and a tough Southern Conference road football game,” said head coach Mike Ayers. “The great thing about our guys is that once that clock starts, we do not stop until the last tick. They got after it and Appalachian got after it and it was a great football game.”

To open the game, Wofford went three-and-out and punted. Appalachian State quarterback Jamal Jackson was intercepted on his first pass attempt of the game by Mike McCrimon at the 40-yard line. The Terriers could not take advantage of the turnover and punted after gaining only five yards. Appalachian State picked up a first down, but a sack by Alvin Scioneaux forced a punt.

Wofford used a 57-yard run by Eric Breitenstein to set up a one-yard touchdown run by Brian Kass with 4:20 left in the first quarter and a 7-0 lead. The Mountaineers were three-and-out on their next possession and punted. Wofford converted a fourth-and-one by Eric Breitenstein on the way to a 29-yard field goal by Kasey Redfern for a 10-0 lead with 11:39 on the clock in the second quarter.

Appalachian State gained three first downs before failing to convert a pass on fourth-and-four. Wofford gained a first down, but then fumbled and Joel Ross returned it 47-yards for a touchdown. The Wofford lead was 10-7 with 7:39 left in the second quarter. The Terriers took advantage of a short field after a kickoff out of bounds and with big plays by Will Irwin and Donovan Johnson had the ball inside the five-yard line. Eric Breitenstein punched it in with a one-yard touchdown run for a 17-7 lead with 5:25 left in the first half.

The Mountaineers picked up three first downs before facing a fourth-and-two at the 23-yard line. Appalachian State ran for the first down and then scored on a 12-yard touchdown run by Steven Miller to make it a 17-14 game with 54 seconds on the clock. Wofford used a 35-yard run by Michael Weimer and a first down by Donovan Johnson to move inside the red-zone, but the ball was not spotted in time for a field goal attempt at the end of the half.

In the second half, each team was three-and-out and punted on the opening possessions. Appalachian State converted a fourth-and-two during a nine-play drive that was capped by a one-yard touchdown run by Jamal Jackson. The Mountaineers took a 21-17 lead with 9:15 on the clock in the third quarter.

The Terriers used a 38-yard pass completion from Brian Kass to Bryan Youman on a drive in which Cam Flowers scored a touchdown from five-yards out. Wofford regained the lead at 24-21 with 5:08 remaining in the third quarter. Appalachian State’s Tony Washington took the ensuing kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown and a 28-24 lead with 4:54 on the clock.

Wofford used a 44-yard run by Brian Kass down the far sideline to move the ball to the five-yard line. Eric Breitenstein capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown to take a 31-28 lead with 14:58 in the fourth quarter. After Appalachian State gained a first down by penalty, Jamal Jackson fumbled and Tarek Odom picked it up and ran 41 yards for a touchdown for a 38-28 lead at 13:48.

The Mountaineers went three-and-out and punted, but then stopped Wofford three-and-out. Appalachian State used a series of short passes down the middle to set-up a 24-yard field goal attempt that was wide left with 5:05 left in the game. The Terriers gained one first down before punting back to the Mountaineers with 2:46 remaining. Appalachian State moved down the field but time expired with the ball at the six yard line.

Wofford had 440 total yards, with 393 on the ground. Appalachian State had 363 total yards, 257 of which were passing. Appalachian State had 26 first downs to 17 for Wofford. Wofford was 4-of-14 on third downs. Appalachian State was 7-of-16 on third down. Wofford had five penalties, while Appalachian State had four. Wofford had the time of possession by a 32:01 to 27:59 margin.

Next week, the Terriers returning home against The Citadel on October 27. The homecoming game will kick off at 1:30 p.m. and be available on ESPN3.

Wofford vs. Appalachian State Post-Game Notes

The game was the 1,000th in the history of Wofford football. The all-time record is now 487-477-36 since the first game in 1889.

Eric Breitenstein marked his 26th career 100+ rushing game with 123 yards on 24 carries to set a new school record, topping the 25 by Shawn Graves.

Eric Breitenstein stands at 4,813 career rushing yards, currently 315 yards behind Shawn Graves at 5,128 yards in the school record book.

Eric Breitenstein reached 1,000 rushing yards on the season on his second carry of the day. It is the 18th 1,000 yard rushing season by a Terrier and the third by Breitenstein. He is only the second player in school history to have three 1,000 yard seasons, joining Shawn Graves.

Calvin Cantrell (concussion) and Christian Reed (quad) missed the contest due to injury.

Injuries in the game included Kevin Thomas (knee), Phillip LeGrande (shoulder), Donovan Johnson (knee) and Michael Weimer (knee).

Game captains were Eric Breitenstein, Kendall Bratcher, Mike Niam, and T.J. White.

Attendance was 27,115 at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

###

From: Williamson, D Brent
Subject: Wofford's Tarek Odom Named SoCon Defensive Player of the Week
Date: Monday, October 22, 2012 1:48:12 PM

Monday, October 22, 2012

Tarek Odom Named SoCon Defensive Player of the Week

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – The Southern Conference named its football players of the week today for games played Saturday, Oct. 20. Elon's Thomas Wilson has been named the Offensive Player of the Week, while Wofford's Tarek Odom was named the Defensive Player of the Week. Western Carolina's Troy Mitchell was selected as the Freshman of the Week, while Appalachian State's Tony Washington was tabbed the Special Teams Player of the Week. The players of the week are selected by the conference office.

Tarek Odom, a sophomore defensive lineman from St. Augustine, Florida, picked up a fumble and returned it 40 yards for a score to give the Terriers a 38-28 advantage in the fourth quarter. He added two tackles on the day as Wofford limited the Mountaineers to 363 yards of total offense, their lowest output of the year and 101 yards below their season average.

The Terriers will host The Citadel on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. at Gibbs Stadium in a key Southern Conference contest. The game will be available on ESPN3.

From: Williamson, D Brent
Subject: SoCon Announces Football Wild Card Matchup
Date: Wednesday, October 24, 2012 2:45:11 PM

Wednesday, October 24, 2012

SoCon Announces Football Wild Card Matchup

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – The Southern Conference announced the first of two Wild Card selections for the league’s football broadcast package. The November 10 game between Chattanooga and Wofford will be added to the league’s broadcast schedule and will be available on ESPN3. The game is scheduled for a 1:30 p.m. kickoff at Gibbs Stadium in Spartanburg, S.C.

The Terriers are currently 6-1 on the season and 4-1 in league play. Wofford is ranked No. 7 in the FCS Sports Network Poll and is eighth in the FCS Coaches Poll. Wofford hosts The Citadel this weekend at 1:30 p.m. in a game that can be seen on ESPN3.

Chattanooga (4-3, 3-1 SoCon) has won three straight games and four of its last five outings.

The Mocs host Georgia Southern Saturday evening at 6:00 p.m. Chattanooga controls its own destiny in the conference race entering this weekend’s matchup with the Eagles.

Wofford has won the last two matchups between the two teams, including a 28-27 victory in Chattanooga last year.

A second Wild Card matchup scheduled for November 17 will be announced at a later date.

From: Williamson, D Brent
Subject: Wofford Football Holds On For 24-21 Win Over The Citadel
Date: Saturday, October 27, 2012 5:50:40 PM
Attachments: WOF-CIT_box 10-27.pdf

Saturday, October 27, 2012

Wofford Football Holds On For 24-21 Win Over The Citadel

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – On Saturday afternoon, the Wofford football team used a defensive stand in the fourth quarter to hold on for a 24-21 win over The Citadel at Gibbs Stadium. The Terriers had a 24-7 lead at the half, but the Bulldogs scored two unanswered touchdowns in the second half.

The Terriers are 7-1 on the season and 5-1 in the SoCon. The Citadel is 4-4 overall and 3-3 in conference play. For Wofford, Eric Breitenstein had 110 rushing yards and two touchdowns. Bryan Youman added 64 rushing yards, while Brian Kass had 36 rushing yards and 43 passing yards. The Citadel was led by Darien Robinson with 85 rushing yards and a touchdown, while Domonic Jones had four catches for 58 yards and a touchdown.

“There is no doubt that the game came down to defense,” said head coach Mike Ayers. “The scary thing is that you have a team that can move the football, you have a team that is exactly the same minded as we are. They have quality players and two quarterbacks who are tough kids to tackle. Schematically they understand what they want to do. Hats off to our defensive staff for getting our guys ready. Some of their biggest plays were when we tackled them and thought they were down but they rolled out of it and kept going. I am glad this one is over. We had an opportunity to take it down the field on the first drive of the second half and I knew when we did not do that the focus went away. We started having penalties and dropped passes. You name is we had it. I did a bad job of getting them ready and I will do a better job next week of getting them ready.”

The Citadel had the ball to open the game and after gaining three first downs Ben Dupree found Domonic Jones for a 23-yard touchdown. The Bulldogs led 7-0 at 11:25 in the first quarter. Wofford had a 41-yard run by Bryan Youman and capped the drive with an eight yard touchdown run by Eric Breitenstein. The game was tied at 7-7 at 9:02.

After forcing the Bulldogs three-and-out, the Terriers were able to take a 14-7 lead on a 13-yard touchdown run by Will Gay with 1:53 left in the first quarter. The Citadel moved the ball down the field with four first downs, but a 39-yard field goal attempt was wide left. Wofford then went three-and-out and punted.

On the next drive by the Bulldogs, they gained a first down but then failed to convert on fourth-and-six and turned it over on downs. Wofford was able to take a 21-7 lead with a four-yard touchdown run by Eric Breitenstein with 57 seconds left in the half. The kickoff was fumbled by the Bulldogs and Wofford recovered. After a first down, Kasey Redfern kicked a 42-yard field goal that was tipped at the line, but went over the cross bar for a 24-7 advantage at the break.

Wofford opened the second half with the ball and gained two first downs, but did not convert a fourth-and-two. The Bulldogs scored on a 44-yard touchdown run by Darien Robinson to cut the lead to 24-14 with 8:49 on the clock in the third quarter.

With the ball back, the Terriers moved across midfield but were forced to punt. The Bulldogs put together a 91-yard drive that was capped by a five-yard touchdown run by Vandyke Jones. The score was 24-21 with 14:54 on the clock in the fourth quarter.

The Terriers went three-and-out and punted. The Citadel converted a fourth-and-one, but had to punt. Wofford then went three-and-out and punted back to the Bulldogs. With another fourth-and-one, the Bulldogs converted at their own 30-yard line. The Wofford defense held and the Bulldogs punted with 3:34 remaining in the fourth quarter. Wofford was unable to gain a first down and punted with 2:28 left. The Bulldogs gained one first down, but an incomplete pass on fourth-and-nine turned the ball back over to Wofford. The Terriers were able to run out the final 1:25 on the clock for the victory.

Wofford had 326 total yards, with 283 on the ground. The Citadel had 355 total yards, 271 of which were rushing. The Citadel had 22 first downs to 15 for Wofford. Wofford was 8-of-15 on third downs. The Citadel was 7-of-14 on third down and 2-of-4 on fourth down. Wofford had a season-high eight penalties, while The Citadel had two. Wofford had the time of possession by a 30:35 to 29:25 margin.

Next week, the Terriers are on the road at Samford. Wofford returns home on Saturday, November 10 against Chattanooga.

Wofford vs. The Citadel Post-Game Notes

The game was the 67th Homecoming game at Wofford. The Terriers are 43-21-2 all-time in Homecoming games.

In the series against the Bulldogs, Wofford has won 14 straight dating back to 1999.

Freshman Will Gay scored his first career touchdown in the first quarter.

Wofford did not score in the second half for the first time since October 15, 2011 against UVa.-Wise.

Eric Breitenstein had his sixth multiple touchdown game of the season. He now has 59 career touchdowns, second most in school history.

Eric Breitenstein marked his 27th career 100+ rushing game with 110 yards on 23 carries. He is fourth in SoCon history in 100+ rushing games.

Eric Breitenstein stands at 4,923 career rushing yards, currently 205 yards behind Shawn Graves at 5,128 yards in the school record book.

Calvin Cantrell (concussion), Christian Reed (quad), Kevin Thomas (knee), Phillip LeGrande (shoulder), Donovan Johnson (knee), Bernard Williams (ankle), and Michael Weimer (knee) missed the game due to injuries. Allen Smith (knee) was hurt in the contest.

Game captains were Kenny Barnes, Josh Hillard, and Allen Smith.

Attendance was 9,658 at Gibbs Stadium.

###

From: Williamson, D Brent
Subject: Kasey Redfern Named SoCon Special Teams Player of the Week
Date: Monday, October 29, 2012 1:31:47 PM

Monday, October 29, 2012

Kasey Redfern Named SoCon Special Teams Player of the Week

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – The Southern Conference named its football players of the week today for games played Saturday, Oct. 27. Appalachian State’s Steven Miller has been named the Offensive Player of the Week, while Furman’s Marcus McMorris was named the Defensive Player of the Week. Chattanooga’s Jacob Huesman was selected as the Freshman of the Week, while Wofford’s Kasey Redfern was tabbed the Special Teams Player of the Week. The players of the week are selected by the conference office.

Kasey Redfern, a junior from Jamestown, N.C., handled all of Wofford’s kicking duties in a 24-21 victory over The Citadel. He kicked a 42-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter to give Wofford a 24-7 advantage at the break. The kick, which proved to be the game-winner, was partially blocked but still sailed through the uprights. Redfern averaged 42.0 yards on four punts, including a career-best 54 yard boot in the fourth quarter. He kicked off four times and averaged 60.0 yards per kick with three touchbacks.

The Terriers will travel to Samford on Saturday, November 3 for a key Southern Conference contest with kickoff at 3:00 pm ET.

###