The Journal of Proceedings
SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
The United Methodist Church
Organized 1972
Continuing the South Carolina Conference (1785) and the South Carolina Conference (1866)
Sunday, June 10, 2012 – Wednesday, June 13, 2012
Florence Civic Center
Florence, South Carolina
Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor, Presiding
*CONFERENCE THEME: “Invitation To A Changed Life”

The First Day – Sunday Evening
June 10, 2012

Clergy Session: The Clergy Session was called to order by Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor at 5:00 PM in the Exhibit Hall. Bishop Taylor opened the meeting with a word of prayer. The Reverend Kenneth Nelson, chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, reviewed the work of the Board since the last session of Annual Conference.

The Reverend Anthony Hodge presented the Business Questions on behalf of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Clergy members were presented with a full written report for the questions. Business questions 37, 38, 40, 41, 46e, 47 and 49 were presented as information and moved to record, as no vote was required. The Consent Calendar, which included Questions 25, 26, 29, 34, 36, 43, 44, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, and 57-59 (statistical data questions calculated after clergy session) was presented on behalf of the Board of Ordained Ministry by Rev. Hodge as Motion 1 of the Clergy Session Memorandum. It was approved by more than two-thirds vote of the Clergy Session. Motion 2, authorizing the Registrar and Office of Clergy Services to make editorial changes where necessary for the Annual Conference Journal, was also approved.

The Clergy Session acted to approve each of the following Business Questions separately: 18b, 21, 27, 28, 30, 31, 32, 33, 35, 39, 42, 45, 46, 48, 50 and 76. Questions 32, 33, and 50 were approved by more than a two-thirds majority. Question 76 was approved by more than a three-fourths majority. Following the reading of the names of clergy who had died during the past year, as listed under question 48, Bishop Taylor offered prayer in remembrance and appreciation of their service to Annual Conference. There being no further business, several announcements were made, Bishop Taylor reminded the members of the evening worship session, thanked them for their presence and participation, and declared the clergy session adjourned.

Lay Orientation: An Orientation Session was conducted for the Lay Members of the Annual Conference by the Board of Laity at 5:00 PM in the Arena of the Florence Civic Center. The session began with a welcome by Dr. Joseph E. Heyward, Conference Lay Leader. All lay members present were provided information and instruction by the Conference Lay Leader and others concerning the agenda, movement, procedures and parliamentary process of the 2012 Annual Conference. Announcements were made concerning the ordination service, the Laity Luncheon, the conference worship services, additional hand-outs, and the Laity Convocation schedule for later in the summer. Opening and closing hymns were sung.

The Opening Service of Worship began at 7:30 PM in the Civic Center with the Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor presiding. The Bishop's sermon entitled "Invitation to a Changed Life" was based on Luke 5:27-32. Gathering music was provided by the South Carolina United Methodist Native American Committee. The drum groups participating were Rocky Swamp, Keepers of the Word and Southern Fireflies.

The Second Day – Monday Morning
June 11, 2012

At 9:00 AM, the conference began in the Civic Center with Morning Prayer and Holy Communion.

Following the Communion Service, the conference was called to order by Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor. The Reverend Timothy J. Rogers, Secretary of the Annual Conference, offered various organizational motions for the conference.

The first motion was that the tellers nominated by their District Superintendents for the 2012 Annual Conference session be elected as nominated without reading and their names be published in the 2012 Conference Journal. The following clergy tellers were nominated and elected: The Reverends Tony Adams, Henri A. Altman, W. Webb Belangia, V, Peter K. Bernston, John A. Bolin, Don Boshell, R.T. Bowling, III, Ollie M. Boyd, Scott Bratton, Walter Cantwell, Jacqueline Carter-Harris, Jonathan W. Donald, John W. Evans, Wade Everett, Pattie E. Gordon, Walter Harley, Judith A. Knox, James W. Lewis, Sr., William H. McCown, III, Ken Nelson, Marie Nuckles, George Olive, Richard H. Reams, Tony Richardson, Karen Richmond, George W. Scott, Arthur Vick, Merritt R. Wentz, Laura Whitt, John M. Williams, III, and William Wrighten. The following lay tellers were nominated and elected: Gary Ayers, Karen Ayers, Doreatha Bailey, Bill Brock, Larry Campsen, Michael Chapman, Linda Ferguson, John W. Gaither, Emily Ghassenmzadeh, Tommy Glenn, Sylvia Harris-Greene, Francis Hipp, Cindy Jolly, Sylvia Landrum, Nancy Lee, Christine McCoy, Ray McCoy, Jessica Morris, Carlie McKain, Myra Nutall, Bernetha Orr, Deborah Orvin, Donald Parrish, Pam Ridgeway, Kim Sanders, Ida Smith, and Jean Thomas.

The other organizational motions were: that the attendance registers signed at the time of registration be designated the official roll and record of attendance for the 2012 Annual Conference Session; and that the Conference program printed and distributed in the pre-conference materials along with such scheduling adjustments and additions which the President and the Secretary have since made be adopted as the Agenda for the 2012 Annual Conference Session, provided that the President may further adjust the schedule as necessary to expedite the business of the Session. These organizational amendments were approved.

Another organizational amendment was offered to make the seating areas on the floor of the Civic Center Arena, the seating in sections 209, 210, 211, 212, 313, 314, 315, and 316, together with any wheelchairs present on the floor or in the handicap area immediately behind sections 313 to 316, the platform and area surrounding the platform be designated the "bar of the conference" for all business sessions of the 2012 Annual Conference Session. All of these organizational motions were approved. C. Gordon of the Jefferson Charge, offered an amendment to the motion that all of the burgundy seats in the Civic Center be considered as the bar of the conference. The amendment was seconded but was not approved. The original organizational amendment to set the bar of the conference was approved.

The Reverend Patty Mayfield then presented the report of the Committee on Standing Rules. She first offered a motion to change Rule 20 (concerning the election of boards, councils, commissions and committees) to state "no sooner than the next business day." The bishop called for a vote on Rule 20 and the change was approved. Mayfield presented a change for Rule 30 (concerning Annual Conference positions elected quadrennially) to strike the language requiring a conference recorder. The bishop called for a vote and the change was approved. Rev. Mayfield next moved to amend Rule 36 (concerning the term of office for those elected to all non-quadrennial boards) to read "first regular meeting." The bishop called for a vote on changing Rule 36 and it was approved.

Rev. Mayfield next presented a change in Rule 48 (concerning the Conference Connectional Ministries) to correct a deficiency relating to Conference Connectional Ministries. The bishop called for a vote and the change was supported. Then, Rev. Mayfield requested the deletion of Rule 60 (concerning the board of directors of the United Methodist Relief Center, Inc.) since the United Methodist Relief Center, Inc., had filed for bankruptcy and the rule is no longer necessary. The bishop called for a vote and deletion of Rule 60 was supported. It was moved to adopt the standing rules as a whole to govern the proceedings of the Annual Conference. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported.

Marilyn Murphy, chairperson of the Board of The Advocate, made a presentation on the paper's 175 years of continuous publication. A new book titled "In the World, Not of the World" details the history of the newspaper. Delegates watched a video featuring interviews with the current and former editors of The Advocate.

John Holler, president and CEO of Epworth Children's Home, shared information on the home's ministry. He invited delegates to register for an Epworth Sundae which includes a presentation and peanut butter ice cream.

Flo Johnson and Martha Thompson presented information on Killingsworth Home which is celebrating its 65th birthday and delegates were invited to share in birthday cake.

The Reverend Ken Nelson asked for continued prayer for the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry and invited the delegates to join together in celebration in the board's work. Rev. Nelson encouraged the Annual Conference to be in prayer for God to raise up future clergy for the church and to pray for those who are being licensed, ordained and commissioned. He urged pursuing a goal of moving toward excellence and that accountability is for all including clergy and churches.

He noted the Board's report and urged continued assistance in the cost of seminary education through the Ministerial Education Fund.

He then announced those who will be commissioned as provisional members in the Annual Conference, as provisional deacon, Angela Renee Johnson; as provisional elders, Heather Stewart Baird, Joshua Lee Blackwelder, Benjamin Olsen Burt, Daniel Walker Chamblee, Michael Terrance Fleming, Mallory Jean Forte, Andrew Charles Martin, Henry Lee Ravenel, Sr., David Jeffrey Roper, Redonia McKnight Thomas, Jeri Katherine Warden Sipes, Suzanne Byrum Walker, Charles Bryson Williams, Jr., Thurmond Williams, and Andrew Roy Wolfe; and as associate member, James Edward Elder.

He then presented those to be ordained in the Annual Conference as ordained deacon, Angela Halter Marshall; as ordained elder, Brian James Arant, Edward Rossiter Chellis, Joseph Christopher Greene, Linda McDaniels Gutherie, Jerry Harrison, Jr., Willis Everette Haselden, IV, Kathy Priest Hudson, Tarnisha Varnarda Jenkins-Jackson, Stewart Dean Lollis, Genova McFadden, Millie Nelson, Luke MoonTaeg Rhyee, Terry Abner Roof, Murray Arthur Snow, Julie Dawn Songer Belman, Emily Scales Sutton, and Keith Robert Taylor.

Rev. Nelson recognized three who will be commissioned during Annual Conference who participated in the board's ministerial internship program during their time in seminary: Angela Renee Johnson, Josh Blackwelder and Ben Burt.

He then recognized those who were to be licensed as local pastors. Those are: Patricia Bundrick Amick, Scott Ray Bramlett, Henry Mat Brewington, Anne Gregory Bridgers, Kanny Angelica Bright, Henry Lee Brown, Wallace Michael Burgess, Kenneth Campbell Burr, Sr., James Derrick Cattenhead, Meredith Marie Dark, Donna Stone Eidson, Rebecca Lewis Forrest, Deborah Copley Gibson, Michael Eugene Goldston, Matthew Elliott Greer, Adrienne Jeana Hamm, Jon August Hoin, Elizabeth McKay Timms Hudson, Charles Brian Humphries, Laura-Allen Kerlin, Sheila Burrell Koger, Ann deRosset Kovan, Kevin Bruce Lindley, Otis Dewitt Livingston, Darrell Christopher McNeill, Colin Alfred Moore, Brian S. Mungo, Travis Aaron Pearson, Lynn Griggs Pennington, Louis Otto Perez, Justin Lee Ritter, Matthew Kirk Snelgrove, Frances Hillary Taylor, Steven Matthew Turner, Sylvia Freeman Watson, Carly Kirsten Wicklund, Charles Lionel Wilbanks, James Williams, Michael David Wood, and LaShelia Mack Wyatt.

He then recognized Terry Abner Roof who is transferring from deacon to elder in full connection and Mark Fulton Williams who was received as a provisional member from another Christian denomination. In addition, he recognized Coleman Lane Glaze and Valerie Knox Mireb who have been received by transfer from another annual conference of the United Methodist Church.

Rev. Nelson also reported that the School of Pastoral Ministry now includes two 16-hour weekend session for those attending Local Pastors' School.

Rev. Nelson then presented a change to XXI. Financial aid through the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF). The change would delete the language directly relating to Duke and Candler. The bishop called for a vote and it was approved. In another change, Rev. Nelson presented a change to MEF Policy 2 (striking the language concerning full-time students) and MEF Policy 4 (striking the language concerning a needs formula). The bishop called for a vote and the changes were approved.

Following these presentations, Rev. Nelson recognized Rev. Timothy Rogers and Bonnie Speas for their work with the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Delegates then heard a presentation from the Black College Fund with students and representatives talking about their experiences at Claflin University.

Following the presentation, at 11:15 a.m., delegates elected the Quadrennial Conference officers. The Reverend Timothy McClendon was elected to serve as parliamentarian; Kay G. Crowe was elected to serve as Conference Chancellor; the Reverend Karen Radcliffe was elected to serve as Secretary of the Conference; the Reverend Dean Lollis, the Reverend J.C. Lane and the Reverend Jeri Katherine Warden Sipes were elected to serve as assistant secretaries.

Following the elections, the Reverend Mike Bowers, chair of the Committee on Nominations, presented its report. Rev. Bowers offered several additions and modifications to the list of nominees. Valerie D. Brooks was nominated to a second term on the Council of Finance and Administration. The Reverend Jeremy Lawton Howell was nominated to serve as chairperson of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. Mary Johnson was nominated to serve on the Committee on Congregational Development. Jennifer Pettit was nominated to serve as the Bishop's lay nominee on the Committee on the Episcopacy. Rev. Bowers asked for the Annual Conference to suspend Rule 68 to allow the Reverend Curtis James Young to serve as the chair of the Committee on Nominations. The bishop asked for a vote and it was approved.

William McLary Wrighton, Skyler Nimmons and R. Phillip Stone were nominated to serve on the Advocate Trustees. Arch Yeager was nominated to the Belin Property Trustees. On the Committee on Investigation, Rev. Robert Wayne Horne was removed from the nominees, Rev. Clarence Earl Kanipe was listed as a clergy nominee and Rev. Hazel Bennett was nominated as a clergy alternate.

The Reverend Ed McDowell and Mr. Tony Prestipino then presented the report of the Council on Finance and Administration. The budget presented for 2013 represents a 1.8 percent decrease from 2012. Then, Rev. McDowell presented Mr. Prestipino for re-election as the Conference Treasurer. The Bishop called for a vote and Mr. Prestipino was reelected.

Ms. Betty Walker, chair of the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals, called attention to two resolutions found in the preconference package: "A Resolution to Encourage Companies That do Business with the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church to Change Their Policy on Outsourcing Jobs" and "A Resolution to Recognize Fifty Years of Service by the Alston Wilkes Society." A third resolution titled, "Resolution for Tobacco Free Places of Worship", was made available at the tables.

Ms. Walker reminded the body that any additional resolutions must be submitted to the Committee when it met that afternoon following the close of the business session, and copies must be provided by the author by next day's business session. Action on the resolutions was scheduled for Tuesday.

The Reverend Timothy Rogers presented the Consent Calendar as found in the pre-conference materials and directed the attention of the body to the Petition to Remove items from the Consent Calendar. He stated that 15 signatures are needed to remove an item from the Consent Calendar. He reminded the body that the items on the Consent Calendar were scheduled to be voted on during the Tuesday business session.

The Reverend Paul Harmon presented the Report of the District Study Task Force. He stated that the committee had met for the past year, had spent time in prayer, reviewed information on the districts and interviewed pastors from across the state. He said that with all of the data in the hand that the committee did not yet have a redistricting plan to present. The committee did not know what actions would be taken by General Conference and how those would impact the task, and, he said, the committee is still receiving information from General Conference action. In addition, the District Offices are connected to the Conference connectional structure. In light of this information, the Task Force offered additional recommendations:

- That the Annual Conference authorize the Task Force to continue its study for the 2012-2013 conference year.
- That the Task Force be authorized to expand the study to include all conference and district staff positions, offices and the conference organizational structure, particularly in light of new legislation coming out of General Conference.

- That unexpended funds authorized by the 2011 conference for the work of the Task Force be carried over, and that an additional $5,000 be budgeted for the Task Force for the 2012-2013 conference year.
- That the Task Force provide the next annual conference a comprehensive report on its findings and its recommendations for action.

The bishop called for a vote and the motion from the Task Force was supported.

The Second Day – Monday Afternoon June 11, 2012

At 2:00 PM, the Annual Conference Memorial Service was held. Dr. Charles Johnson, Greenville District Superintendent, preached the sermon for the service. Liturgist for the service was Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor. The opening hymn was "Sing with All the Saints in Glory" and the closing Hymn was "When We All Get to Heaven." Special music was provided by the Mass Choir of the Pee Dee.

The following deceased ministers, spouses and others were remembered during the Memorial Service. Active Ministers remembered were Marian Ruthe Woodle Dyer and Sandra Hardin Hatchell. Retired Ministers remembered were Lemuel Corydon "Brother" Carter, George Summers Duffie, Jr., Donald Franklin Funderburk, Vincent Francis Halter, Jr., John Gerald Hipp, Joseph McAllister, Sr., John Winifred Robinson, and Oscar Allan Rogers, Jr. Retired Diaconal Minister remembered was William Brant Mills. Spouses remembered were Nancy Lois Reese Cleasby, Patricia Campbell Cribb, Barbara Huggins Dean and Margaret "Margie" Gibson Williams. Surviving Spouses remembered were Virginia Piper Claytor, Ellen V. Richburg Croker, Dorothy Johns Crouch, Beulah Maye "Billie" Chapman Davis, Nadeen Williams Dickert, Vera Allison Garris, Vivian Etheridge Gregg, Margaret Ormond Hardin, Roberta Clark Horne, Margaret Miller Jenkins, Ruby Louise Jones, Blanche Allen Mirse, Gertrude O'Neal Patrick, Eugenia Cleo Wescoat Sandlin, Carrie Louise Baily Singletary, and Lillian Lewis Wilson. Others remembered included G. Walter "Walt" Forrester.

At the close of the service, the session was in recess until Dr. Gil Rendle presented a teaching session. Following the teaching session, the afternoon business session resumed at 4:30 PM.

The Reverend Sara White presented the Report of the Cabinet. She noted that when the South Carolina Census data was reported in 2011, less than five of the state's 46 counties did not experience an increase in those living in poverty. In contrast, she noted that Charleston is the eighth fastest growing city in the United States. "These are realities that will transform the work of the conference," she said. "Every local congregation is going to have to look within itself and see where its lives are able to come into the lives of the people around it."

She said that congregations must continue to stay focused on connection and continue to work to build bridges. One of those bridges, she said, was Vital Congregations and many found within this work the language to discuss what is meant by ministry. This past year has represented a time of transition, she said. Changes have come in the Cabinet. Dr. Joe Heyward is completing his service as Conference Lay Leader, the Reverend Timothy Rogers is completing his term as Secretary of the Conference. The Reverend Willie Teague and the Reverend Charles Johnson are retiring, and the Reverend Ernest Etheridge has completed his term as district superintendent.

Rev. White presented the report of the Cabinet for approval. The bishop called for a vote and it was approved.

Mr. Herman Lightsey and the Reverend David Anderson presented the Report of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits. Mr. Lightsey presented information on the new Clergy Retirement Security Plan. In this plan, he said, defined benefits and defined contributions have not changed. He reported that General Conference had realigned the CRSP to make it more financially viable for the future and to encourage clergy to participate in saving for their retirement beginning in 2014. Mr. Lightsey said that mandatory participation by part-time clergy will be decided at the annual conference level in 2014 and beyond.

In addition, Mr. Lightsey reported that insurance rates for active clergy and retirees will increase by one percent in 2013 and an optional, consumer-driven plan will continue to be offered for 2013. He stated that the Board of Pension and Health Benefits will look into options for retiree healthcare in the future including consumer-driven plans, market-based plans and market insurance exchanges.

Rev. Anderson presented Report One which sets $705 per service year as the rate for annuity payments to retired ministers. In addition, the report contained a resolution relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired or disabled clergypersons in the S.C. Annual Conference. The bishop called for a vote and the report was approved.

Then, Rev. Anderson presented Report Two (2013 Pension and Welfare Operating Budget) and moved it for adoption. The bishop called for a vote and the report was supported. Next, Report Three (South Carolina Annual Conference Funding Plan for Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program) was presented and moved for adoption. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported.

Rev. Anderson then moved to the Group Insurance Section of the report. Report One was presented and moved for adoption. The bishop called for a vote and it was approved. Rev. Anderson presented Report Two (Major Medical Insurance Benefits) and moved for its adoption. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported. Next, Rev. Anderson presented Report Three (Medicare Benefits) and moved for its adoption. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported.

Rev. Anderson then presented Report Four (Administrative Procedures) and noted that if participants want to enroll in the Flexible Spending Account, they must do so during the open enrollment period. He then moved for adoption. The bishop called for a vote and it was approved. Next was the presentation of Report Five (Group Health Insurance Operating Budget). Rev. Anderson moved for its adoption. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported.

Rev. Anderson then presented Report Six (2013 Group Health Care Costs) and stated that there would be one percent increase in active premiums. He moved the report for adoption. The Reverend John Hipp, Orangeburg District Superintendent, asked for some information on the impact of unpaid direct billing. Rev. Anderson stated that the conference receives approximately 95 percent of the payments for direct billing and that options are being explored that could offer more insurance options. After the questions, the Bishop called for a vote and the motion was supported. Rev. Anderson then made the motion to adopt the report of the Board of Pensions and Benefits as a whole. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported.

Dr. Joe Heyward, Conference Lay Leader, then offered a report from the Annual Conference's delegation to General Conference. He stated that he was proud of the delegation and the ways in which they carried out their responsibilities. He highlighted some of the work of the General Conference including the Plan UMC restructuring effort that was ruled unconstitutional. In addition, he said there are no changes in the language on issues of homosexuality and the effort to create a set-aside bishop failed. In addition, Dr. Heyward talked about the proposal to end guaranteed appointments for clergy which passed on the consent calendar and a judicial decision on the vote is pending. General Conference approved a budget of $600.3 million which is a reduction from the previous quadrennium. The numbers, he said, include $5 million for theological education in the central conferences and more funding for the recruitment of young clergy. In addition, he said, the United Methodist Women now has independent status. In other business:

- The majority of the general boards reduced the number of board members.
- The name of Lay Speaking Ministries changed to Lay Servant Ministries.
- A new clergy trial process was approved.
- Future delegations from the US will be reduced because of increased membership in Central Conference.
- The UMC entered into full communion with AME, AME Zion, CME, and Union American Episcopal Church.
- The UMC held an act of repentance.

Dr. Heyward presented a list of nominations for the jurisdictional pool. He moved for adoption of this list and the bishop called for a vote. It was approved. Dr. Heyward then reported that members of the 2012 delegation have nominated the Reverend Tim McClendon as the conference's Episcopal Candidate. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported.

Dr. Heyward moved for the approval of the entire report. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported.

Following the report and announcements from the conference, The Reverend Cathy Jamieson-Ogg asked for a point of personal privilege. She asked that the conference send greetings and appreciation to Dr. Carolyn Whitson who is retiring from Columbia College.

The bishop reported that attendance at the Annual Conference was 1,622 so far. In addition, $18,607 was collected in the offering for "Imagine No Malaria."

The annual conference went into recess at 5:35 PM for a dinner break.

The Second Day – Monday Evening June 11, 2012

Following the dinner break, Dr. Gil Rendle preached for the evening worship service. An offering was collected for Imagine No Malaria. The Reverend Emily Sutton served as the liturgist, and IGNITED of Mt. Hebron UMC in West Columbia provided the worship music.

The Third Day – Tuesday Morning June 12, 2012

The day started with a teaching session from Dr. Gil Rendle at 8:30 AM in the Civic Center.

After a short recess, the session resumed with Awards, Presentations and Recognitions of the various boards and agencies. The Reverend Kristen Richardson-Frick announced the award recipients, and they were greeted by Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor. The Denman Evangelism Award was given to the Reverend Robert Lee and Mr. Michael Cheatham. The T. Dennis Smith Scholarship recipients were Brian Edward Preveaux and Martha Ann Nichols. The Seminary Students Scholarships recipients were William Wallace Culp, Rhonda Penelope Jones and Elizabeth Adams Murray. Dr. Steven Morgan received the Barbara Boultinghouse Bridgebuilders Award. Bette Ann Hedden received the Bessie Bellamy Parker Scholarship. This year's Students in Mission workers are: Camp Providence (Anderson) – Dustin Simon, Pamela Cooper and Victoria Spurlock; La Puerta de Esperanza: Salina Reinhardt and Nolan Moore; and Rural Mission, Inc. (John's Island): Deontez Wimbley, Alyssa David and Jennifer Hall. Herbert Hucks Awards were given to Pisgah (Aynor), Broad Street (Clinton), Mountain View (Taylors), Tabernacle (Lancaster), St. James/Burgess Community (Myrtle Beach), and Campobello (Spartanburg). The 2012 Publication Award Recipient was the Reverend Roger M. Grambling, author of John Wesley and the Beginnings of Methodism. Friendship of the Liberty Chapel-Friendship Church in Florence was honored as Bicentennial Church. Honored as Centennial Churches were Lawrence Chapel (Anderson District), Lewis Memorial (Greenwood District), Lowell Street (Greenwood District), Bethel (Hartsville District), New Providence (Hartsville District), Aynor (Marion District), Main Street (Orangeburg District), Chesnee (Spartanburg District) and El Bethel (Spartanburg District).

The Michael C. Watson Volunteer in Mission Award was presented to the Reverend Alonza Jones, clergy recipient, and Lee McMillan, lay recipient. 2012 Bishop's Awards of Excellence for Scouting were presented to Boy Scout Troup 750 (Stallsville, Charleston District), Cub Scout Pack 397 (Asbury Memorial, Columbia District), Girl Scout Daisy Troop 2323 (Red Bank, Columbia District), Girl Scout Brownie Troop 2378 (Red Bank, Columbia District), Girl Scout Junior Troop 2316 (Red Bank, Columbia District), Cub Scout Pack 518 (Red Bank, Columbia District), Boy Scout Troop 518 (Red Bank, Columbia District), Cub Scout Pack 190 (Trinity, Orangeburg District), and Boy Scout Troop 190 (Trinity, Orangeburg District). The South Carolina Annual Conference United Methodist Men presented James Awards to Dr. Charles Johnson, Sr., Dr. Tim McClendon and Dr. Joseph Heyward.

Recipients of the Bishop's Five-Star Award of Excellence were: Antioch (Easley), Asbury (Lynchburg), Bethel (Columbia), Bethel/St. Stephen (Wando), Bluffton (Bluffton), Boone (Summerville), Chapin (Chapin), Cherokee Springs (Spartanburg), Clemson (Clemson), Ebenezer (Longs), Greater St. Paul (Cross), Grove Hall (Summerville), India Hook (Rock Hill), Landrum (Landrum), Lebanon (Eastover), Little River (Little River), Mt. Beulah (Sumter), Mountain View (Greer), Mt. Zion (Bishopville), New Hope (Sumter), St. Mark (Seneca), St. John (Lynchburg), St. Luke/Walhalla (Walhalla), St. Mark (Greenwood), Suber-Marshall Memorial (Columbia), Surfside (Surfside Beach), Trenton (Trenton), Wampee (Little River), Wesley (Hartsville), Wesley/Pinopolis (Moncks Corner), Wightman (Prosperity).

Following the awards presentation, the body went into a brief recess before the business session resumed.

Then, Mrs. Betty Moss McGuirt offered a report on the Publishing House. She highlighted the GROW curriculum for children and reported that the Cokesbury Store in Columbia has been remodeled and will have a grand re-opening in September.

Following this report, the delegates watched a video on Lake Junaluska and appreciation was expressed to the board members of Lake Junaluska.

The Reverend Roger Grambling requested a point of personal privilege to reflect on the end of the 1785 and 1866 Conferences and the formation of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Point of Personal Privilege – Roger M. Gramling

Bishop Taylor and Members of the Conference, forty years ago last week I was admitted “on trial” in the South Carolina Conference (1785). While that was a most significant event in my own life, it was insignificant when compared to what was happening in the life of Methodism in South Carolina forty years ago last week.

On Monday morning June 5, 1972, the South Carolina Conference (1866) convened at 11:00 am in Leonard Auditorium on the campus of Wofford College for the one hundred seventh and last session of that Conference. Bishop Paul Hardin, Jr., presided. The Reverend John D. Boone, Jr., was the Secretary. That session conducted all the necessary and concluding business of the conference and adopted a “Resolution of Transfer” to a new South Carolina Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church. Special words of appreciation were expressed for the Reverend John W. Curry, Sr., who had served twenty years as Treasurer of that Conference. Dr. Curry read an historical statement remembering the 106 years of the Conference’s history.

On Monday afternoon June 5, 1972, the South Carolina Conference (1785) convened at 2:30 pm in the Spartanburg Memorial Auditorium for the one hundred eighty-seventh and last session of that Conference. Bishop Paul Hardin, Jr., presided. The Reverend Dr. Allan R. Broome was the Secretary. That session conducted all the necessary and concluding business of the conference and adopted a “Resolution of Transfer” to a new South Carolina Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church. Bishop Hardin made a statement regarding the new conference, after which the Conference was permanent adjourned.

Then, on Monday evening, June 5, 1972, forty years ago last week, Bishop Paul Hardin, Jr., convened the membership of the two South Carolina Conference, 1785 and 1866, at 7:30 pm in Spartanburg Memorial Auditorium for an Order of Worship uniting the two conferences into a new South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

The processional for that Service was led by Colonel Roy C. Moore and the Reverend Omega F. Newman who had chaired the Committees on Merger of the respective conferences. Representatives of various groups of the two Conferences (laity, clergy, youth, and the Women’s Society of Christian Service) along with the Executive Officers of the two conferences and the two cabinets formed the procession. Joining Bishop Hardin in the procession, was Bishop James S. Thomas, then resident bishop of the Iowa Area, who was a native son of South Carolina and had been a member of the 1866 Conference at the time of his election in 1964. Bishop Thomas had been invited to be the preacher for the evening. The service opened with the singing of “O For A Thousand Tongues to Sing.” Following Bishop Thomas’s sermon, the readiness for union was declared by Mr. Moore and Mr. Newman; then the representatives of each group affirmed their unity in the United Methodist Church and in the South Carolina Conference. Then, Bishop Hardin led all members of the two conferences in the words: “We are united in Christ. We are united in the United Methodist Church. Now we are united in the South Carolina Annual Conference.” Then, Bishop Hardin spoke the “Declaration of Union” after which the now one conference sang the Doxology. There followed prayers for the Church, and the service concluded with the Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper.

June 5, 1972 – the day had begun with two South Carolina Conferences of the United Methodist Church. The day ended with one South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. As Dr. A. V. Huff, Jr., our Conference Historian, has noted the day was a day of “much sentiment and some uncertainty.” While much remained to be done to effect merger, this was at the very least the end of the beginning. Today we would remember the fortieth anniversary of that beginning and many faithful servants of the church, most of whom are now gone, who labored to bring that day to reality.

Bishop Taylor, I would ask that these brief remarks be entered into the Journal of Proceedings, and I would encourage the Conference to look toward an appropriate recognition of the fiftieth anniversary of the creation of the South Carolina Conference (1972) as the 2022 session is being planned. I would also ask that any here today, lay and clergy, who were present for the 1972 Sessions of the South Carolina Conference in Spartanburg be invited to stand and be recognized.

The conference then heard a report on Hatcliffe UMC in Harare, Zimbabwe and watched a video on the work that is going on there. A work team from the conference is travelling there in July and there will be a dedication of the church’s new worship space.

It was reported that donations for the Imagine No Malaria offering now total more than $29,000.

Following a brief recess, the conference held a service for the Recognition for Retiring Ministers and the “Passing of the Mantle.” Bishop Taylor presided and a video message of interviews with retiring ministers provided the message for the service. Those retiring included: Howard Donald Addis, John M. Bauknight, William Harleston Bynum, John Scott Cloninger, Jr., Kenneth Roy Correll, Frederick Ronald Davis, Jimmy Wayne Dillard, Lowry Tresslar Drennen, Roger Charles Goupil, Lawrence Foy Hays, Arthur Hardin Holt, Charles Luther Johnson, Sr., William Alfred Jones, Patrick Hamilton Kelly, Roye Lynn Kulik, William Morgan Lewis, Jr., Patricia Caldwell McCain, George Alfred McClennan, William Terry Mitchell, Roger Wayne Pearce, Cyrus Dawsey Rogers, Bobbie Opal Taylor, Willie Senn Teague, Elizabeth Ann Thompson, Jack Christopher Washington, Lloyd Earl White, William Thomas Wicker, and David Walker Williamson. The Reverends George A. McClennan (Retiring) and Ross Chellis (Entering) represented the classes in the service of the “Passing of the Mantle.”

The Third Day – Tuesday Afternoon June 12, 2012

Following a recess for lunch, Dr. Gil Rendle held a teaching time at 2:00 PM in the Civic Center. Following a brief recess, the business session began at 3:20 pm with announcements from the Reverend Timothy Rogers.

Rev. Rogers then presented the Consent Calendar for adoption. He announced the report of Camps and Retreat Ministries had been removed from the Consent Calendar. He then moved the Consent Calendar for adoption. Bishop Taylor called for a vote and it was supported.

The Reverend Smoke Kanipe and Mr. Arthur Spriggs offered the report of the Committee for Camps and Retreat Ministries. Rev. Kanipe reported that the mission statement of the committee is that “We exist for Christian birth, growth and renewal.” Rev. Kanipe reported that Asbury Hills, which is celebrating its 50th anniversary as a camp, has seen a 15 percent increase in registrations for the year. The report included a video on the camp program. Mr. Spriggs reported that there are three options for the Sewee site: (1) developing it into a year-round retreat center for $8 million; (2) trading the Sewee property for something that will work out better for the conference; or (3) Sell the Sewee property.

The Reverend Tommy Wilkes asked questions about the high price of developing Sewee and asked if there was an interest in building this into an affordable retreat center. Rev. Wilkes asked to propose a motion but the bishop said that this falls under the work of the Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries. After more questions about the Sewee property, it was moved to accept the report of the Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries. The bishop called for a vote and it was approved.

The Reverend John Holler of Epworth announced that Carol Stackhouse Hall, Debra Williams and David Lupo were the winners of Epworth Sundaes Sundays.

Mrs. Cynthia Williams presented the report of the Conference Connectional Ministries. In her opening remarks, Mrs. Williams described the current situation for United Methodist Church as being in the wilderness. "We can together affirm that God does his best work in the wilderness," she said. "We can trust God to reform us and make us new." She stated that our Connectional Ministries can frame our ministry in Scripture and prayer and that God can recycle and renew.

The Reverend Willie Teague praised the work of Ms. Earline Ulmer for Connectional Ministries. He stated that Ms. Ulmer brought prayer, spiritual discernment and reflection in the process of changes for Connectional Ministries. He stated, "Whatever success we've had as a result of reshaping Connectional Ministries comes with Earline's prayers and leadership."

Rev. Teague stated that the restructuring of South Carolina's Connectional Ministries was presented to the Judicial Council and the council ruled that, while the majority of effort was in compliance, there were five places that were not in compliance. According to Rev. Teague, actions on the first day of conference were designed to bring the restructuring effort into compliance. South Carolina will prepare a report to the Judicial Council and the council will review the actions and rule on compliance in October, according to Rev. Teague.

He moved that the conference receive the report of Connectional Ministries. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported.

Mr. James Salley, member of Edisto Fork UMC, made a presentation on Africa University and its 20th anniversary. Salley reported that 382 students graduated the previous Saturday and this class represented 19 countries in Africa. So far, he said, 4,862 students have graduated from Africa University. He presented a video featuring some of those whose lives have been changed by the school. He moved that the report be accepted by the conference. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported.

Dr. Ken Mufuka then presented the report of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and talked about the committee's work. He presented Report 1 and moved for its acceptance. The Bishop called for a vote and it was supported. The Reverend Jeremy Howell presented Report 2, A.1, with a change reducing the request from $583,400 to $556,000. He stated that this reduction was a result of new church starts that did not happen. The bishop called for a vote and the report was approved.

Rev. Howell presented Report 2, A2 with no changes. The bishop called for a vote and the report was approved. He stated the rate for mileage in Report 2, N, is set at 55.5 cents per mile and the Continuing Education level in Report 2, O, is set at $750 in 2013. Rev. Howell then moved that the entire report be approved. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported.

Dr. Susan Henry Crow presented the Report of the United Methodist Theological Schools. The presentation included a video presentation about Candler.

Then, Rev. Mike Bowers presented the slate of nominations from the Committee on Nominations. He moved that the nominations be accepted. There were no questions from the floor and Bishop Taylor called for a vote. The nominations were accepted.

Rev. Bowers asked for a point of personal privilege and described the nomination process and how input is sought to fill positions. He described the process as an ongoing conversation of how to find the best people to serve in the right places.

Ms. Betty Walker, chairperson of the Committee on Resolutions, presented the resolutions for consideration by the annual conference. Ms. Walker first presented "A Resolution to Recognize 50 Years of Service by the Alston Wilkes Society" and reported that the committee concurred with this resolution. The bishop called for a vote and this resolution was approved as follows:

A RESOLUTION TO RECOGNIZE FIFTY YEARS OF SERVICE
BY THE ALSTON WILKES SOCIETY

Whereas, Reverend Eli Alston Wilkes, Jr., a United Methodist Minister, founded The South Carolina Therapeutic Association in 1962 to provide rehabilitative services to adults released from correctional facilities in South Carolina; and

Whereas, Reverend Wilkes and volunteers ran the agency for a year and a half before his death; and

Whereas, upon the death of Reverend Wilkes, the agency was renamed the Alston Wilkes Society in recognition and appreciation for his extraordinary vision and leadership; and

Whereas, volunteers ran the agency for the next two and a half years until Parker Evatt was named the first Executive Director, a position he held for 21 years before being named Director of the South Carolina Department of Corrections, and

Whereas, Anne Walker was subsequently named Executive Director, a position she has held for 25 years; and

Whereas, throughout the years of outstanding leadership by Reverend Wilkes, Parker Evatt, and Anne Walker, all United Methodists, the Society has expanded the scope of its service to now provide offenders, former offenders, the homeless, at-risk youth, veterans, and their families the tools they need to become productive citizens; and

Whereas, the assistance and guidance provided by the Alston Wilkes Society since its beginning has helped more than 300,000 clients rebuild their lives for a safer community;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the 2012 Annual Conference of the South Carolina United Methodist Church offers its heartfelt congratulations and gratitude to the Alston Wilkes Society on the Fiftieth Anniversary of its service to the community and State; and

And Be It Further Resolved, That the 2012 Annual Conference urges its churches and members to continue their support of the Alston Wilkes Society with financial contributions, volunteer hours, and other gifts deemed essential by the agency.

Virginia Wingard Memorial United Methodist Church*

Ms. Walker then presented “A Resolution to Encourage Companies that Do Business with the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church to Change Their Policy of Outsourcing Jobs.” Ms. Walker reported that the committee concurred with the resolution. The bishop called for a vote and it was approved by the body as follows:

A RESOLUTION TO ENCOURAGE COMPANIES THAT DO BUSINESS WITH THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
TO CHANGE THEIR POLICY OF OUTSOURCING JOBS

Whereas, The unemployment rate in the United States is currently over 8%, which is equivalent to over 13 million residents, and

Whereas, The unemployment rate in South Carolina is currently over 9%, which is equivalent to over 200,000 residents, and

Whereas, Outsourcing is designed to employ cheap foreign labor without benefits for the purpose of increasing profits, and

Whereas, The family structure is severely challenged with the loss of income, becoming dependent upon support from government agencies, food banks, and faith-based institutions which are becoming more drained of resources and the ever increased numbers of homeless fill the streets, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church stands in strong opposition to the companies that are outsourcing jobs and are headquartered in the United States and that the South Carolina Conference does business with, and be it further

Resolved, That the CEOs and Board of Directors of all companies with which the South Carolina Conference does business be contacted by the Bishop to state our opposition and to encourage policy changes.

Respectively Submitted by Rev. J. Robert Huggins, St. John UMC, Sumter

Ms. Walker then presented a “Resolution for Tobacco Free Places of Worship” and she reported that the committee concurred with the resolution. Billy Martin, a lay delegate from Enoree, spoke in opposition to the resolution. Charlotte Black, a lay delegate from Honea Path, asked a question concerning the resolution and its proposed reach. The Reverend Amari Hooker, the author of the resolution, stated that the intention is to encourage members to begin the education process in regards to tobacco products and this was not an effort to limit personal choice. The bishop called for a vote and the resolution was supported as follows:

RESOLUTION FOR TOBACCO-FREE PLACES OF WORSHIP

Whereas, The 2012 Surgeons General Report and the 2009 SC Youth Tobacco Survey reveal tobacco use is the single leading preventable cause of death, annually killing more people than alcohol, car accidents, AIDS, murder, suicide, and illegal drugs combined; and no amount of secondhand smoke is safe;

Whereas, Each year in South Carolina an estimated 6,100 adults die from their own smoking, and about 790 adults, children and infants die from others' smoking (secondhand smoke and pregnancy smoking);

Whereas, The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) estimates that 80% of tobacco users initiate use before they are 18; and in South Carolina, more than 6,300 youth under age 18 become new daily smokers each year;

Whereas, If current smoking patterns are not reduced, an estimated 103,000 S.C. children who are living today will die prematurely as adults from a smoking-related illness;

Whereas, Secondhand smoke contains poisons and causes heart disease, lung cancer, Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS), low birth weight and lung problems in infants and children, and may cause disease in other parts of your body;

Whereas, Tobacco and/or secondhand smoke disables and kills, the United Methodist Churches (UMC) sees the responsibility for protecting all congregational members and community residents in their charge from dangerous products;

Whereas, The official position of the United Methodist Church on the use and misuse of Alcohol and Tobacco, as well as other drugs, can be found in the Social Principles of the UMC, which state:

“The use of tobacco is another form of drug abuse, even though it is legal. Overwhelming evidence links cigarette smoking with lung cancer, cardiovascular diseases, emphysema, and chronic bronchitis. In addition, cigarette smoking can negatively affect a developing fetus, and secondary smoke is a known carcinogen. The United Methodist Church discourages all persons, particularly children, youths and young adults, from using any form of tobacco.” (2004 Book of Resolutions, “Drug and Alcohol Concerns: Tobacco,” ¶83 II) Scriptural Reference: 1 Corinthians 6:13-20

Whereas, The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church acknowledges that tobacco is a sacred plant among Native Americans and used in some sacred ceremonies. We acknowledge Native Americans believe that if a sacred plant is abused, we risk spiritual disconnection and thus Native Americans support that any use of tobacco that occurs outside of sacred ceremony is an affront to the Creator;

Whereas, The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church believes that tobacco misuse use and exposure to secondhand smoke (environmental tobacco smoke) are hazardous to the health of human beings, especially children, it affirms that one of the best places of worship is one that is provided within a 100% tobacco product-free environment;

Be it resolved, The Advocacy Team of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church will work with Mothers Eliminating Secondhand Smoke (M.E.S.S.) – a collaborative effort of Hold Out the Lifeline: A Mission to Families, DHEC and the South Carolina Tobacco Collaborative- which promotes the adoption and enforcement of 100% tobacco – and smoke-free policies in homes, vehicles, schools, recreational facilities and faith-based organizations;

Be it also resolved, That the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church encourage congregations to adopt a Model Tobacco Use Policy for Faith Based Organizations that address preventing tobacco use other than during sacred ceremonies within faith-based settings which encompasses prohibiting tobacco misuse in the entire facility, all vehicles, parking lots, and at any of its sponsored events and functions on or off its property, by all people (pastors, employees, members, visitors, contractors, delivery drivers, etc.);

Be it further resolved, That the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church encourage its leadership to develop policies supporting stricter regulation of tobacco, an increase in tobacco prevention programs, a ban on all fruit or candy-flavored tobacco products and work to stop tobacco advertising, especially that which targets young people and minorities.

Conference Connectional Ministries Advocacy Area
Convener Rev. Amiri B. Hooker

The Reverend Ed McDowell and Mr. Tony Prestipino then presented the report of the Council on Finance and Administration. Bishop Taylor asked if the body was willing to suspend house rule 21 to complete the business of this report. The Reverend Charles Johnson made the motion to suspend the rule, the bishop called for a vote and it was supported. Rev. McDowell and Mr. Prestipino moved that the report of the Council on Finance and Administration be adopted in total. The bishop called for a vote and it was approved.

Dr. Joe Heyward followed with the report of the Conference Lay Leader. Dr. Heyward reported there are continuing efforts to provide opportunities for laity to improve their skills and to learn how to do their jobs more effectively within the local church. He stated that the church must continue to take growth seriously and that what we learn on the inside of the church must be taken outside the church. Dr. Heyward said that the lay leadership of the church remains concerned about the economic situation in the United States and church leadership needs to provide ways to support churches that are seeking to grow in giving. Dr. Heyward stated that his term is concluding, and Carolyn Briscoe made a motion to accept Barbara Ware as Conference Lay Leader, Jenny Rawlings as Secretary and Donald Love as Associate Conference Lay Leader. The bishop called for a vote and it was approved.

Following the vote, Barbara Ware was presented with a Certificate of Appreciation for her service as lay leader of the Greenville District. Dr. Heyward then presented the list of nominees for District Lay Leaders. The bishop called for a vote and they were approved.

The Reverend Tim McClendon then presented the resolutions to discontinue or abandon churches. The first resolution was to authorize the conveyance of the property of the discontinued Sharon UMC in the Anderson District. Before the vote, Rev. McClendon was asked to address the steps that were taken to keep churches from closing. Rev. McClendon reviewed the procedure and stated that churches are discontinued by their own action. "As long as there are members who want to be a church and to serve God faithfully, the annual conference does not have a plan to close those churches," Rev. McClendon said. The bishop called for a vote on the resolution to convey the property and it was approved as follows:

A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE CONVEYANCE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE DISCONTINUED
SHARON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Anderson County, South Carolina
Anderson District, South Carolina Conference

Whereas, During its annual session in June 2011, the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church ("South Carolina Conference") adopted a resolution ("Discontinuation Resolution") declaring Sharon United Methodist Church ("Sharon UMC") discontinued; and

Whereas, The Discontinuation Resolution directed the District Superintendent of the Anderson District ("Anderson District Superintendent") to attempt to locate a suitable caretaker church for the real property of the discontinued Sharon UMC ("Property"), which includes a cemetery, from within the South Carolina Conference or within a denomination represented in the Commission on Pan-Methodist Cooperation and Union; and

Whereas, The Anderson District Superintendent was unable to locate a caretaker church within the South Carolina Conference, but she has determined that the religious denomination known as The Christian Methodist Episcopal Church ("CME Church") (a Pan-Methodist denomination) is interested in the Property; and

Whereas, The Carolina Annual Conference of the CME Church has expressed an intention to use the Property in furtherance of its ministry efforts in upstate South Carolina; and

Whereas, The Anderson District Superintendent recommends that the Property be conveyed to the Carolina Annual Conference, Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, Incorporated, a North Carolina nonprofit corporation; and

Whereas, The Presiding Bishop of the South Carolina Conference and a majority of the District Superintendents concur with the recommendation of the Anderson District Superintendent; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the South Carolina Conference hereby authorizes the conveyance of the Property to the Carolina Annual Conference, Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, Incorporated, or any other entity of the CME Church designated by that denomination; and be it further

Resolved, That, if any funds remain from the discontinuation of Sharon UMC, those funds shall be distributed to Kairos Prison Ministries and to the conference Committee on Congregational Development for the redevelopment of local churches within the South Carolina Conference in accordance with the wishes expressed by the former congregation of the discontinued Sharon UMC; and be it further

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina Conference are authorized to take all actions necessary to convey the Property in accordance with this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That any two officers of the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina Conference are authorized to execute any and all documents necessary to effectuate the conveyance and transfer of the Property in accordance with this resolution.

Next, Rev. McClendon presented a resolution to discontinue Orrville UMC in the Anderson District. The bishop called for a vote and it was supported. The Reverend Karen Upson who served Orrville described the church as having faithful servants and a beautiful building. Bishop Taylor offered a prayer for Orrville UMC and its ministry. The resolution

A RESOLUTION TO DISCONTINUE
ORRVILLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Anderson County, South Carolina
Anderson District, South Carolina Conference

Whereas, The Church Local Conference of Orrville United Methodist Church ("Orrville UMC"), South Anderson Charge, Anderson District, South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, consents to the discontinuation of the church effective June 27, 2012; and

Whereas, Orrville UMC is incorporated as a religious nonprofit corporation under the laws of the State of South Carolina; and

Whereas, The Reverend Susan Leonard-Ray, District Superintendent of the Anderson District, has recommended that Orrville UMC be discontinued; and

Whereas, The Anderson District Board of Church Location and Building has consented to the discontinuation of Orrville UMC; and

Whereas, The Presiding Bishop of the South Carolina Conference and a majority of the District Superintendents thereof have consented to the discontinuation of Orrville UMC; and

Whereas, Marshall Memorial United Methodist Church ("Marshall Memorial UMC") has agreed to minister to the members of Orrville UMC; and

Whereas, Orrville UMC has nurtured the faith of many people and served the community in which it is located since its founding; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the South Carolina Conference hereby declares Orrville UMC discontinued, effective June 27, 2011, pursuant to Paragraph 2548, The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (2008 ed.); and be it further

Resolved, That the South Carolina Conference expresses thanksgiving to God for the Christian ministry rendered across the years by the members and pastors of Orrville UMC; and be it further

Resolved, That the membership of Orrville UMC shall be transferred to Marshall Memorial UMC; and be it further

Resolved, That the District Superintendent of the Anderson District shall have the authority to authorize the disposition of the tangible personal property items belonging to Orrville UMC; and be it further

Resolved, That the church building property of Orrville UMC, located at 2408 South Main Street, Anderson, South Carolina, shall be conveyed and transferred to the South Carolina Conference pending permanent disposition of the property; and be it further

Resolved, That the Bishop and Cabinet are authorized to determine the ministry uses of the property pending permanent disposition thereof; and be it further

Resolved, That if the Bishop and Cabinet determine that there are no practical future ministry uses for this property, they shall be authorized to notify the Conference Board of Trustees that they are authorized to dispose of the property; and be it further

Resolved, that the Bishop and Cabinet are directed to present to the annual conference, at such time as may be appropriate, recommendations for the permanent disposition of the church building property located at 2408 South Main Street, Anderson, South Carolina; and be it further

Resolved, That the parsonage property of Orrville UMC, located at 311 Dixie Drive, Anderson, South Carolina, including any remaining tangible personal property items located therein, shall be conveyed and transferred to the South Carolina Conference to be overseen and disposed of in the discretion of the Conference Board of Trustees; and be it further

Resolved, That any funds of Orrville UMC held in bank accounts or otherwise, shall be transferred to the South Carolina Conference, that the Conference Treasurer is authorized to expend any undesignated funds to reimburse the South Carolina Conference for any costs incurred related to the discontinuation of Orrville UMC; and be it further

Resolved, That any remaining undesignated funds shall be transferred to the Conference Board of Trustees; and be it further

Resolved, That, as part of the winding up of the business affairs of the church, any two officers of the church corporation of Orrville UMC are authorized to execute any and all documents and to take all other actions necessary to convey and transfer the real and personal property consistent with this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the South Carolina Conference requests that the officers of the church corporation of Orrville UMC take all actions necessary under South Carolina law to dissolve the church corporation as part of the winding up of the business affairs of the church; and be it further

Resolved, That the District Superintendent of the Anderson District shall oversee the transfer of membership and the conveyance of the real and personal property to ensure completion; and be it further

Resolved, That the District Superintendent of the Anderson District shall ensure that all records and other official and legal papers are collected and deposited for permanent safekeeping with the Commission on Archives and History of the South Carolina Conference.

I. Annual Conference Rules of Order & Parliamentary Procedure	1-28
II. Annual Conference Rules of Organization	29-74
III. District Rules & Organization	75-82
IV. Miscellaneous Rules	83-91

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER AND PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

1. The procedure of the Annual Conference shall be governed by the following in the order listed: The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference, The Rules of Order of the preceding General Conference and the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised. For the purpose of transacting business, the quorum shall be those present and eligible to vote.
2. The official roll call of the Annual Conference shall be the roll signed by the clerical and lay members present. The record of attendance shall be made from this roll.
3. Lay members of boards, councils, commissions and committees; lay members of the Conference Staff; and lay persons who are heads of Conference institutions supported by the Conference, who are not members of the Annual Conference, shall have the privilege of the floor without vote.
4. In order to secure the floor a member desiring to speak to the Conference shall stand at his or her seat, if able, with one arm raised, but shall not move to a microphone until recognized by the chair. At the microphone the member shall first state his or her name and the charge or appointment represented.
5. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a point of order, a misrepresentation, a parliamentary inquiry, a point of information, or to call attention that the time has arrived for a special order.
6. A member of the Conference may not speak more than once on a question before the Conference until every member who wishes to speak has spoken, subject to rules limiting debate. A member shall not speak for more than three (3) minutes at any time, except by permission of the Conference.
7. When the report of a board, council, commission, or committee is under consideration, the chair shall ascertain, when recognizing a member of the Conference, to which side the member desires to speak: the chair shall not give the floor to any member to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak to the other side. Except for undebatable motions, but not including the undebatable motion calling for the previous question, no report shall be acted upon or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two speeches against the said proposal. After three speeches for and three against, the question shall be put automatically. However, the chairperson or designated member presenting the report shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right shall prevail in like manner to a limit of three minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, to lay on the table, or any other motion whose adoption is pertinent to the report under consideration.
8. A copy of any motion made on the Conference floor shall be sent to the secretary's desk as soon as the person making the motion returns to his or her seat.

9. The report of a board, council, commission or committee duly presented to the Conference for its action shall be deemed properly before the Conference without the necessity of a motion to adopt and a second thereto.
10. A member rising to a point of order shall state the point as briefly and concisely as possible citing the rule or disciplinary provision invoked in the point of order. A point of order shall be decided by the chair without debate unless the chair submits the question to the body for advice or decision. When the chair rules on a point, debate is closed; but the decision may be appealed to a vote of the body.
11. When a motion is made and seconded and stated by the chair, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or an agency report is made or is published in the Pre-Conference report(s), it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference and may not be altered except by action of the Conference.
12. The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions: to adopt, to commit, to substitute, to postpone, and to reconsider.
13. If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:
 1. To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment, or it may be laid on the table.)
 2. To adjourn.
 3. To take a recess.
 4. To raise a question of privilege.
 5. To call for the orders of the day.
 6. To lay on the table.
 7. To order the previous question.
 8. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
 9. To postpone to a given time.
 10. To refer.
 11. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment.)
14. Motions that are to be acted upon without debate:
 1. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the Conference finally.
 2. To suspend a rule or rules or any provision of the Standing Rules.
 3. To lay on the table.
 4. To take from the table.
 5. To call for the previous question.
 6. To reconsider a non-debatable motion.
 7. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
 8. To call for the orders of the day.
15. When a member moves the previous question, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediate pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate, and a two-thirds vote of those present and voting shall be required for its adoption. If adopted, the vote shall be taken on the motion to which it applies without further debate.
16. After discussing a pending question and before relinquishing the floor, a member may make a motion, but not one whose adoption would limit or stop debate.
17. A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion proposed for reconsideration is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

18. The report of the Committee on Standing Rules shall be made as a part of the organization of the Conference and as often during the session as necessary.
 - a. All proposed changes in the Standing Rules shall be submitted in writing for referral to the Committee on Standing Rules and then reported out with recommendations after twelve (12) hours.
 - b. It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote to suspend the rules.
 - c. When the rules are to be suspended, only that specific portion of the rules under consideration shall be suspended.
 - d. The Annual Conference by a majority vote can amend or alter the Standing Rules with or without the concurrence of the Committee on Standing Rules, provided that any change or alteration not originating in the committee on Standing Rules may be voted on after the lapse of twelve (12) hours from the time of its submission to the Conference.

19. It shall be an Order of the Day on the first full day of Annual Conference that the floor shall be opened for additional nominations to all boards, councils, commissions and committees to which the Committee on Nominations and parent boards are prepared to make nominations.
20. It shall be an Order of the Day to have the election of boards, councils, commissions, and committees no sooner than the next business day following the initial report of the Committee on Nominations. If additional nominations have been made per rule 19, and if requested by the Annual Conference, ballots shall be prepared by the Conference Secretary for use in the election.
21. The report of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be placed on the Conference Program for information on the first full day of the Conference and for action on the last day of the Conference. When a motion for an increase in Conference Benevolences arises from anyone other than the Council on Finance and Administration and is approved by the Annual Conference, that motion shall be held a minimum of twelve (12) hours and shall require an affirmative vote at a second reading for final approval. If such a motion arises from the Conference floor on the last day of Annual Conference, a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote shall be required for approval.
22. There shall be a Consent Calendar for the session of the Annual Conference composed of items to be "moved to the record without reading" and such other items which do not necessarily require deliberation by the Conference in open session. The Executive Committee of the Committee on Annual Conference shall determine items to be placed on the Consent Calendar and shall distribute a list of those items in the pre-conference materials. Items placed on the Consent Calendar shall be limited to items requiring no more than a simple majority vote for adoption. Prior to the adoption of the Consent Calendar by the session, any fifteen members of the Conference may request that an item be removed from the Consent Calendar, and it shall be removed and considered at an appropriate time as determined by the President and the Secretary. The Consent Calendar shall be adopted by a majority vote of the session.

Voting Procedure

23. At any session of the Annual Conference there shall be a Board of Tellers which shall conduct elections as the Annual Conference may direct. The Board of Tellers shall be nominated and organized by the Conference Secretary and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that this include at least one (1) minister and at least one (1) lay person from each district.
24. Voting shall be by voice or by show of hands or otherwise as ordered by the chair of the Conference. A standing or written count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one third of the members present and voting.
25. The Conference shall fix the voting area, also known as the bar of the Conference, at the opening business session and voting on all Conference matters must take place within the prescribed area. The voting area of the Conference shall be distinguished from other areas of the meeting site. Voting shall be by official badge only. When a vote is taken on any question, only those members within the voting bar of the Conference shall be entitled to vote. No member may enter the voting bar after the question is put.
26. Chairs of Annual Conference program boards, councils, commissions and committees and their subcommittees may authorize mail ballots on administrative matters arising between regular meetings of these bodies.
27. Election of Lay Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences System of Nomination: The following system of nomination and selection shall be followed in the election of lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences:
 - a. District Nominations
 1. Each local Church may submit nominations to the district superintendent. The district superintendent and the District Board of the Laity will be responsible for requesting a list of nominees from each local church. These nominees shall be

- selected by the Church Council, certified by the Council chairperson and pastor. Only nominations from local churches, prepared on proper forms and received on scheduled time (on or before January 10th), shall be considered for election. Elections shall be conducted at a meeting, called by the District Superintendent between January 11 and January 30, of all district lay members of the succeeding Annual Conference.
2. A training session shall be held in each district no later than January 30 of the year in which delegates are elected to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. The purpose of this session is to prepare lay members of the Annual Conference elected from the charges of each district for this highly important quadrennial process of the United Methodist Church. The training session, which would precede the district nominations for the pool of possible delegates, would include the following:
 1. The important role of Annual Conference lay members
 2. Connectionalism / Representative system.
 3. Functions of General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference.
 4. Commitment and involvement of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
 5. Process for selection of Bishops.
 3. This training session shall be planned by the District Superintendent, the District Lay Leader, and a committee of no less than five (5) persons; and include all persons in the district who have served as delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
- b. Conference Procedure
1. A maximum of 120 names selected by the Districts shall be listed and presented to the Conference United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, the Conference Board of the Laity, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministry. Each of these may select up to five (5) additional names.
 2. The biographical format shall be consistent for all nominees and shall be submitted on a form prepared by the Board of Laity. It shall be submitted to the Conference Secretary by the District Superintendent no later than March 1st. It shall include prior years elected to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference; sex; race; age level and a summary of qualifications up to fifty (50) words in length submitted by the nominee. If a biographical sketch does not adhere to specifications of this resolution, the name and sketch shall be omitted from publication in the Pre-Conference Journal.
 3. Provision shall be made for write-in ballots. The Conference Secretary in preparing the balloting for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates is authorized to utilize computerization for both lay and clerical ballots.
28. The following system of nomination and selection shall be followed in the election of clergy delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences:
- a. The Conference Secretary shall inform all eligible clergy members of their eligibility (pursuant to the provisions of The Book of Discipline) by November 1 of the year preceding the election of delegates. Clergy delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences shall be elected from the ordained ministerial members in full connection, (2008 Book of Discipline ¶35) except for clergy on Involuntary Leave of Absence (¶355).
 - b. All eligible clergy members shall be listed on the ballot prepared by the Secretary of the Annual Conference, except clergy members that request in writing that their name be omitted from the ballot. Clergy members requesting omission from the ballot do not lose eligibility for election. Clergy receiving twelve or more write-in votes on any ballot shall be assigned a number and added to the ballot.
 - c. All clergy who allow their names to be printed on the ballot have expressed their willingness to be a nominee, to attend and participate in the conferences if elected, and to attend meetings of the delegation.

II. ANNUAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORGANIZATION

29. The Boards, Councils, Commissions, and Committees of the Annual Conference shall submit their reports and any recommendations requiring Conference consideration to the Conference Secretary no later than March 1st of each year for printing in the preconference materials. Reports and recommendations shall be submitted in a format acceptable to the Conference Secretary. The Board of Ordained Ministry, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, the Committee on Nominations, the Committee on Standing Rules, and the Council on Finance and Administration shall be excluded from the March 1st deadline but are requested to submit their reports and recommendations as soon as possible in consultation with the Conference Secretary.

30. The following positions shall be elected quadrennially by the Annual Conference preceding the beginning of the quadrennium:
 - a. The chancellor, upon nomination by the Bishop.
 - b. The parliamentarian, upon nomination by the Bishop.
 - c. The secretary, upon nomination by the Bishop and the Cabinet, or upon nomination from the floor.
 - d. Assistant secretaries as required, upon nomination by the Secretary of the Annual Conference.
 - e. Deleted by Conference action 2012.
 - f. The treasurer-statistician, who shall be elected on nomination of the Council on Finance and Administration.
 - g. The Conference Lay Leader, the Associate Conference Lay Leader, and the Secretary of the Conference Board of Laity shall be elected by the Annual Conference on nomination by a nominating committee composed of the representative on the Conference Board of Laity from the Conference United Methodist Men, the Conference United Methodist Women, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministry; three (3) District Lay Leaders to be elected to this nominating committee by the Board of Laity; and three (3) at-large members elected by the Board of Laity, to insure inclusiveness. This nominating committee shall make its report to Annual Conference as Report No. 2 of the report of the Board of Laity without endorsement by the Board of Laity. The Conference Lay Leader, the Associate Conference Lay Leader, and the Secretary of the Conference Board of Laity shall be elected each quadrennium and the tenure shall not exceed eight consecutive years. The Associate Conference Lay Leader and the Secretary of the Conference Board of Laity shall have voice without vote in the annual conference, if not otherwise a member of the annual conference.
31. Compensation for the officers of the Annual Conference shall be determined by the Council on Finance and Administration subject to the approval of the Annual Conference. The Conference Treasurer shall pay those persons from the appropriate fund(s).
32. The number of additional lay members required to equalize lay and clergy representation in the Annual Conference shall be implemented on the basis of the membership reported to the last Annual Conference as follows:

Charge Membership	Number of Lay Members
452 - 711	one additional Lay Member
712 - 1,067	two additional Lay Members
1,068 - 1,423	three additional Lay Members
1,424 - 1,779	four additional Lay Members
1,780 - 2,135	five additional Lay Members
2,136 - 2,491	six additional Lay Members
2,492 - 2,847	seven additional Lay Members
2,848 and up	eight additional Lay Members

The Secretary of the Annual Conference shall be authorized to adjust this base up or down so as to provide the needed number of additional lay members. The Secretary shall notify the pastors of each charge qualifying for additional lay members by August 15th of each year. Local charges shall be responsible for the expenses of such members.

33. The Conference Treasurer shall be the custodian of all funds collected unless otherwise specifically designated. He/she shall be custodian of the funds held by the Annual Conference Trustees. (The Trustees shall administer these funds.) He/she shall be the custodian of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits funds. (The Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall administer these funds.) He/she shall be custodian of all district funds. These and all funds allocated to the various boards, councils, commissions and committees by the Council on Finance and Administration shall be credited by the Conference Treasurer in separate accounts to the boards, councils, commissions and committees. Disbursement of funds to Conference agencies shall be made by the Conference Treasurer upon order by voucher drawn by the secretary or other signer designated by the board, council, commission or committee requesting funds. Vouchers must be accompanied by adequate supporting data (receipts, bill, contemporaneous travel log, et.). The expenses of ex-officio members on Conference boards and agencies shall be charged to the boards, councils, commissions or committees on which they serve as ex-officio members, except district superintendents, whose expenses will be reimbursed by the district.

34. Membership resulting from election by the Annual Conference on all boards, councils, commissions and committees which are considered quadrennial shall be for a quadrennium, and shall not exceed two quadrennia. Vacancies shall be elected to complete the quadrennium. In accordance with The Book of Discipline, members of the Board of Ordained Ministry may serve a maximum of three (3) consecutive four year terms. After this period of service that member shall be ineligible for re-election to that same agency until a lapse of two (2) years.
35. Membership resulting from election by the Annual Conference shall be limited to one quadrennial agency and one non-quadrennial agency, except ex-officio members as provided. The Committee on Investigation and the Committee on Petitions to the General Conference shall be considered neither quadrennial nor non-quadrennial.
36. All Annual Conference boards, councils, commissions and committees are considered quadrennial except the following: The Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries; The Board of Pension and Health Benefits; boards of trust for, The South Carolina United Methodist Advocate; Belin Property; Claflin University; Columbia College; Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry, Epworth Children's Home; Wesley Commons; The Methodist Oaks; The United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee; Spartanburg Methodist College; Trustees of the Annual Conference; Wofford College; and The United Methodist Center.
Within sixty days of the adjournment of Annual Conference, the Conference Secretary shall notify the non-quadrennial boards, councils, commissions, and committees of the names and addresses of those elected.
The term of office for persons elected to all non-quadrennial boards, councils, commissions, and committees shall begin with the first regular meeting of that body after Annual Conference unless otherwise specified by the Discipline or by written policies of that board, council, commission, or committee.
37. The Chairperson of the Conference Committee on Nominations shall notify the Annual Conference Secretary and the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries within ten days following Annual Conference of the names, addresses, local churches, and districts of those elected. Within ten days of notification, the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries will notify the elected individuals of their election. The secretaries of the board, commission, committee or agency will also be notified of those elected by the Director of Connectional Ministries, except at the beginning of a quadrennium.
 - a. The term of office of all quadrennial boards, councils, commissions and committees shall begin with the organization of that board, council, commission or committee and continue until their successors are elected and organized. Board, council, commission and committee members may continue to serve on program implementing task groups through the program year in which their term of office ends.
 - b. At the beginning of a quadrennium all quadrennial boards, councils, commissions and committees shall be convened within sixty (60) days upon the close of the Annual Conference session for organization of the boards, councils, commissions and committees, excepting the Conference Nominating Committee. The out-going chairpersons, except where the Annual Conference has elected a chairperson, shall convene and preside over the organizational meeting. Thirty (30) days prior to the organizational meetings, the outgoing chairpersons, or the newly elected chairpersons, shall send the following to the members:
 1. Notice of meeting date and place.
 2. Copies of General and Annual Conference mandates for the boards, councils, commissions and committees.
 3. Outline of present organizational structures of the boards, councils, commissions and committees.
 4. Roster of present and newly elected members showing names, addresses, telephone numbers.
38. Members of general church agencies, who serve as ex-officio members of the related Conference agencies, shall be ineligible to hold office.
39. Members of the Annual Conference Council on Connectional Ministries staff, when appointed as representatives to various Conference agencies, shall be ex-officio members without vote.
40. Ex-officio members (excluding Conference staff) of all Conference boards, councils, commissions and committees shall have vote (unless prohibited by the Discipline or the Standing Rules), but shall be ineligible to hold office.

41. No trustee, member of the faculty, manager of any interest, or staff person shall at the same time be a member of the parent or supervising board, council, commission or committee, unless otherwise required by the Discipline or the Standing Rules.
42. Parent boards may not nominate their own members to any board of trust until said member has been off that parent board for at least one (1) year.
43. Every corporation related to the Conference shall provide and maintain on file with the Conference Chancellor its current bylaws and articles of incorporation. Notification of proposed amendments to the bylaws and articles of incorporation shall be filed with the Conference Chancellor no less than thirty (30) days prior to adoption.
44. Any member of a quadrennial board, council, commission or committee who is absent from two (2) consecutive meetings of the same, without rendering an acceptable excuse to the chairperson, shall forfeit membership on such board, council, commission or committee and the chairperson shall notify the person of this action. The chairperson shall notify the Committee on Nominations of such forfeiture. The Committee on Nominations shall nominate for election replacements at the next session of the Annual Conference.
45. When a minister is appointed as District Superintendent, membership on any quadrennial board, council, commission or committee shall automatically cease: provided, that this shall not apply to ex-officio membership on any board, council, commission or committee as required by the Discipline or the Standing Rules.
46. There shall be an Annual Conference Ministry Advisory Team to facilitate conversation and interaction between Program Services, Administrative Services and Clergy Services. The membership shall consist of: The Resident Bishop, as convener; the Conference Lay Leader; the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries Chairperson; the Conference Director of Connectional Ministries; the Treasurer/Statistician; the President of the Council on Finance and Administration; the Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry; the Coordinator of Clergy Services; the Cabinet President; and the Conference Benefits Officer.

Conference Boards

47. In making nominations for Boards of Trustees, it is recommended that parent boards or agencies (CCOCM, BHECM, EDUCATION, BHW, GLOBAL MINISTRIES) within the framework of the institution's charter (if applicable) maintain at least 25% ethnic minority representation; and when vacancies are filled, at least 25% ethnic minority representation be maintained in the total number of members. It is further recommended that until this representation is achieved, if from one to four members are to be elected, at least one be an ethnic minority person; if five to eight members are to be elected, at least two be ethnic minority persons. Nominations from the floor of the session shall comply with the recommended representation. Further, in presenting nominations for Boards of Trustees, parent boards or agencies shall identify any nominee who is a member of The United Methodist Church.

48. TRANSITION PLAN FOR THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE COUNCIL, BOARDS, COMMISSIONS, COMMITTEES AND EQUIVALENT STRUCTURE INTRODUCTION

I. THE ORGANIZATION, STRUCTURE AND PURPOSE OF PROGRAM-RELATED AGENCIES

The organization with chairs and membership of program-related conference councils, boards, commissions, committees and equivalent structure shall coordinate functions under four Ministry Areas of Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership and Outreach. These conference agencies shall be constituted by the established annual conference procedures for nomination, election and inclusiveness (See The Book of Discipline 2008 Par. 610.5, Par. 605.3 and Program Structure Plan Sections II. A and III. B and 2011 Conference Standing Rules 34-80).

The structure, as mandated in The Book of Discipline 2008, is inclusive of specific ex-officio members for unique function and/or connectional link. (See Par. 610.5, Par 710.6 and Section IX The Annual Conference of The Book of Discipline 2008 on paragraphs for program-related conference agencies.)

The foregoing structure encompasses the process in paragraph 610 of The Book of Discipline 2008.

The primary purpose of this structure plan shall uphold the defined purpose of an annual conference as stated in Par. 601 of The Book of Discipline 2008, which is "...to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God."

First, to these ends the following design establishes that there shall be organized in each district of the annual conference a District Connectional Ministries (DCM).

Secondly, there shall be a Conference Connectional Ministries (CCM) consistent with the disciplinary requirements in composition, election, membership terms, reporting methods, lines of accountability, ministry, mission, and structure under four Ministry Areas (See Judicial Decision 1147). This structure of the CCM shall provide for the membership, function, and connectional relationship of the local church, district, and conference with general agencies as prescribed in Par. 610 of The Book of Discipline 2008.

II. DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES (DCM)

A. Functions & Connections of DCM

The DCM shall be composed of four Ministry Areas: Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership, and Outreach. The focus of the four Ministry Areas shall be to enhance the connectional relationship with equivalent local church officers through relevant programs and ministries designed for local church implementation and/or participation. In addition, the four Ministry Areas shall put into practice connections with CCM and relevant program-related/advocacy general agencies. In order to coordinate with CCM, the scheduled meetings to facilitate DCM work shall be set for January, March, May, September, November. The assigned District Congregational Specialist shall work with the DCM to establish agenda guidelines for planning, setting due dates and reporting to the CCM. With input from local churches through each DCM, the CCM meetings in February and October shall focus on planning, coordinating, implementing and evaluating for the mission and ministries of the connection. Each DCM shall report annually in writing to the CCM by November 30.

B. Membership and Organization of DCM

The DCM membership shall be at least twenty-four (24) persons composed of at least six members of each district ministry area. These persons shall be appointed for a quadrennial term by the district superintendent, the district lay leader and the district congregational specialist. At the time of appointment, it is recommended that Ministry Area members be one-half laity and one-half clergy. Each Ministry Area at their DCM quadrennial organization meeting in January may elect up to four (4) additional members to insure inclusiveness (See Par 610.5). Also, a District Communicator appointed by the District Superintendent, in consultation with the district lay leader and the assigned district congregational specialist, shall be an ex-officio member of DCM. The DCM shall coordinate the election process of DCM officers. No person may serve at the same time on more than one Ministry Area.

District Ministry Area members shall be elected for a quadrennial term. The term limit shall be two consecutive quadrennia, except to permit exceeding this limit for completing an interim vacancy term of less than twenty-four (24) months. After this period of service that member shall be ineligible for reelection to that same district agency until a lapse of two (2) years. Interim vacancies for DCM shall be appointed by the district superintendent in consultation with the district lay leader and the district congregational specialist. The District Superintendent (DS), District Lay Leader, and the assigned District Congregational Specialist shall be ex-officio members of the DCM.

C. Funding of DCM

The primary source of funding for the program and administrative budget of each DCM shall be provided from the respective district program budget and from CCM Program and Administrative Budgets as annually recommended to CCFA for adoption by the annual conference.

III. CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES (CCM)
(Previously Conference Council on Connectional Ministries)

A. Function & Connections

The CCM shall be composed of the program councils, boards, commissions, committees, and task forces under four Ministry Areas (Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership, and Outreach) with twenty-four (24) members in each Ministry Area. In addition, each Ministry Area at their quadrennial organization (See SR 37b) may elect up to six (6) additional members to insure inclusiveness. No person may serve at the same time on more than one Ministry Area. The CCM shall encompass the functions and connectional relationships of disciplinary program-related agencies of the annual conference. (See conference agency functions in the Discipline paragraphs 629, 630, 631, 632, 634, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 654, and 655 of The Book of Discipline 2008) These program councils, boards, commissions, and committees shall be directly related to the Conference Connectional Ministries. The chair and members of program councils, boards, commissions, committees, and task forces designated under each Ministry Area shall have oversight for representing the functions of their respective conference agency in the CCM. The chair of each agency shall designate one of its members to function as Coordinator of Witness (See function in Par. 610).

The CCM is connected directly with program-related/advocacy general agencies. Also, CCM is linked with general agencies by the annual conference members (with vote) who serve on that corresponding program-related conference agency. (See Par. 710.6) (See SR 38 & 39) Accountability of the CCM with the Annual Conference shall be through the annual CCM reports and implementation of conference adopted CCM programs and ministries utilizing the connectional relationship with DCM and local churches for implementation along with general agencies. The CCM Chair and the Chairs of four Ministry Areas shall submit their annual reports and any recommendations requiring Conference consideration to the Conference Secretary no later than March 1 of each year for printing in the pre-conference materials. Reports and recommendations shall be submitted in a format acceptable to the Conference Secretary. CCM may recommend additional committees to the annual conference for the work and approval of the prescribed membership, powers, and duties (See Par. 610.2).

Scheduled meetings to facilitate CCM work shall be set for February and October. The CCM Director and Chair of CCM shall establish the CCM agenda for planning, coordinating (including agency functions), implementing and evaluating for the mission and ministries of the connection within and beyond the annual conference.

B. Membership and Organization of CCM

Each CCM Ministry Area of Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership, and Outreach shall organize their twenty-four (24) members from two nominees for each Ministry Area by each DCM following their election by the annual conference session at the beginning of the quadrennium. At the time of election, it is recommended that Ministry Area members be one-half laity and one-half clergy. At the beginning of a quadrennium all quadrennial CCM agencies shall be convened within sixty (60) days upon the close of the Annual Conference session for organization. (See SR 37b) In addition, it is recommended that each Ministry Area at their quadrennial organization may elect up to six (6) additional members to insure inclusiveness (See Par 610.5). Also, annual conference members serving on general agencies (ex-officio with vote) are included on their corresponding conference agencies. (See 710.6 of The Book of Discipline 2008) Other ex-officio representatives in the connection shall be assigned by the CCM Chair to serve on the appropriate conference agency.

By February 1 prior to the beginning of each quadrennium, each DS shall submit the list of nominees for CCM Ministry Areas to be elected by the annual conference to the Director of Conference Connectional Ministries for inclusion in the report of the Conference Committee on Nominations. The Director of CCM shall provide each District office with nominee forms, which shall include biographical data, local church experience, etc. and shall include the nominee's signature indicating willingness to serve. (See SR 34)

Conference Ministry Area members shall be elected for a quadrennial term. The term limit shall be two consecutive quadrennia, except to permit exceeding this limit for completing an interim vacancy term of less than twenty-four (24) months. After this period of service that member shall be ineligible for re-election to that same CCM agency until a lapse of two (2) years. Interim vacancies shall be appointed to the CCM by the respective district superintendent in consultation with the district lay leader and the district congregational specialist. Interim vacancies which exceed twenty-four (24) months of the quadrennium shall be considered as a full quadrennial term of service (See SR 34).

IV. CCM OFFICERS

CCM Officers shall be chairperson, vice chairperson and secretary. These officers shall be elected from the CCM members upon nomination by a CCM Nominating Committee. The CCM Nominating Committee shall be appointed at the end of the quadrennium by the outgoing CCM chairperson. The resulting CCM member vacancy created by the election of a new chairperson of CCM shall be filled as prescribed by the annual conference in Structure Plan Section III.B.

A. Executive Committee for CCM

The Executive Committee shall be the CCM chairperson, CCM Vice-Chair, CCM Secretary and the four chairpersons of the Ministry Areas (Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership, Outreach) nominated by the appointed CCM Committee on Nomination and elected by the CCM at the quadrennial organizational meeting. The CCM Director shall be an ex-officio member without vote.

The executive committee may act on behalf of CCM to deal with program, missional needs, and emerging ministries to facilitate the work and functions represented in a Ministry Area of the CCM. Any executive committee actions shall be reported to the CCM at the next regularly scheduled meeting. Funding for such interim action by the Executive Committee shall be within the budgeted amounts recommended by Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CCFA) and adopted by the annual conference.

B. Funding for CCM

In accordance with The Book of Discipline 2008, the CCM annually submits the program and administrative budgets to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CCFA) for adoption by the annual conference. This adopted budget funds conference and district ministry programming and administration. This budget process provides a specific amount to each program council, board, commission, and committee in each Ministry Area which is recorded in line items of the CCFA Report submitted to annual conference for adoptions (See Par. 614.3 of The Book of Discipline 2008).

The CCM function in the budgeting process is prescribed in Par. 614.3a(2) which states: It is the responsibility of the conference council on ministries (CCM) to study the budget requests of the conference program agencies and to recommend to the conference council on finance and administration amounts to be allocated from the conference benevolences budget to each such agency, within the total established by the conference council on finance and administration. (See Judicial Decisions 521, 551)

By November 1 funding requests from each chair of the program council, board, commission or committee in the four Ministry Areas shall be submitted to CCM. Budget requests shall be based upon program and ministry designs finalized during the October CCM meeting. The Ministry Area Chairs present their budget requests to CCM at the February meeting. The CCM program and administrative budget requests are presented to CCFA at the March CCFA meeting.

FOUR MINISTRY AREAS

The Conference Advocacy Ministries Area shall be organized, funded as prescribed (See Par. 614.3), and function as mandated for the program-related conference agencies, which are described in The Book of Discipline 2008. 3. United Methodist Women (UMW) - Coordinator for social action (Church & Society)
4. Designated Peace with Justice Coordinator (Church & Society)
5. UMW- (Status & Role of Women)
6. Chair of Short term task force as determined by the Ministry Area

The Conference Discipleship Ministries shall be organized, funded as prescribed (Par. 614.3), and function as mandated for the program-related conference agencies, which are described in The Book of Discipline 2008.

The Discipleship Ministries shall be constituted to include, but not be limited to the following: Youth Ministry (See functions Par. 649), Education (See functions Par. 630.2), Evangelism (See functions Par. 630.3), Higher Education and Campus Ministries (See functions Par. 634), Worship (See functions Par. 630.4), Board of Camps and Retreats (SR 52), Age Level Councils (Children and Older Adults) and emerging community ministries.

Each Discipleship Ministry Area shall identify and monitor implementation of the respective disciplinary functions for reporting to the CCM. Additional members for short term committees and task forces may be assigned by the CCM for the implementation of the Discipleship Ministries.

Members of Discipleship Ministries from each district shall be assigned to that Ministry Area along with mandated ex-officio members and other representatives. Each board, commission or committee in the Ministry Area shall elect a chairperson. This Ministry Area shall include:

- a. Board of Education (Par. 630.2) (chairperson plus up to 3 members)
- b. Board of Evangelism (Par. 630.3) (chairperson plus up to 3 members)
- c. Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries (Par. 634) (chairperson plus up to 3 members)
- d. Commission on Worship (Par. 630.4) (chairperson plus up to 3 members)
- e. Council on Youth (Par.649) (chairperson plus up to 3 members) The Council on Youth, as all board and agencies, is directly related to CCM and all of its members are members of CCM.
- f. Age-Level on Children (Par 630.2) (chairperson plus up to 3 members)
- g. Age-Level on Older Adult (Par 630.2) (chairperson plus up to 3 members)
- h. Council on Young Adult Ministries (Par. 650.1)

Discipleship ex-officio members mandated by the Discipline and other representatives:

1. Conference Members to corresponding general agencies or their equivalent structures. (Par. 710.6)

(General Board of Higher Education & Ministry (GBHEM), General Board of Discipleship (GBOD)

2. Cabinet Liaison may be appointed by the Bishop

3. Board of Camps and Retreats representative (SR 52)
4. United Methodist Men (UMM) representative (Par. 648)
5. Chair of short term task force as determined by the Ministry Area
6. Chairperson of Archives and History

The Conference Lay Leadership Ministries is organized (Par. 631) and funded as prescribed (Par. 614.3), and functions as mandated for the program-related conference agencies, which are described in The Book of Discipline 2008. The Lay Leadership Ministries is constituted to include, but not be limited to the following: Lay Leadership (Par. 631), Lay Speakers (Par. 631), Stewardship (Par. 631), Spiritual Formation (Par. 631).

Each Conference Lay Leadership Ministry Area shall identify and monitor implementation of the respective disciplinary functions for reporting to the CCM. Additional members for short term committees and task forces may be assigned by the CCM in the implementation of the Lay Leadership Ministries.

Members of Lay Leadership from each district shall be assigned to that Ministry Area along with mandated ex-officio members and other representatives. Each committee in the Ministry Area shall elect a chairperson. In accordance with The Book of Discipline 2008, the Conference Lay Leader, elected by the annual conference, serves as the Chairperson of the Lay Leadership Ministry Area (See Par 607.3). This Ministry Area shall include:

- a. Committee on Lay Leadership (Par. 631)
- b. Committee on Lay Speakers (Par. 631)
- c. Committee on Stewardship (Par. 631)
- d. Committee on Spiritual Formation (Par. 631)

2. Cabinet Liaison may be appointed by the Bishop
3. UMW- Mission Coordinator of Education & Interpretation
4. Chair of Short term task force as determined by the Ministry Area
5. Conference secretary of global ministries

For legal purposes it is hereby specified that upon adoption of this Transition Plan, the newly adopted CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES (CCM) is successor to South Carolina Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, and as such holds any and all rights and responsibilities. Further, all named boards, commissions, committees and task force coordinated under the four Ministry Areas, having been reduced in size of membership (See Par 610.3), continue to function in accordance with the prescribed mandates of the Book of Discipline and as authorized by the South Carolina Annual Conference.

APPENDICES A-E

APPENDIX A: Introductory Preface

DCM/CCM Structure

The DCM/CCM design will effectively equip local churches for ministry and strengthen the connections for ministry among local churches, districts, annual conference and general church agencies. The initial assigning of annual conference staff into the districts (District Congregational Specialists) has produced concrete results of building ministry programs around needs identified by local churches. The connection design is strengthened by having selected laity and clergy persons from the DCM make up the CCM along with representatives from general agencies and others to insure inclusive membership. By streamlining the organizational structure, the connectional response to the needs of the local churches will be timely and efficient. Also this structure will facilitate a more direct connection between general agencies and local churches.

APPENDIX B: Transition Time Line

September 21, 2010 Transition Team convened to clarify purpose, review initial proposals and organize their work.

October 2010 Subcommittee met several times to prepare working draft.

November 1, 2010 Transition Team met to review, discuss and make recommendations of revision in first draft of proposal.

November 29, 2010 Transition Team met to approve final Structure draft with Appendices A-D

December 2, 2010 Draft proposal posted to conference website for online comment and questions until January 15, 2011

February 7, 2011 Transition Teams met to review online input and consider changes to the structure document

March 5, 2011 Structure proposal presented to CCM for their input

March 8, 2011 Transition Team met to consider final changes and post document to conference website as "Transition Team Report to 2011 Annual Conference"

March 8-May 1, 2011 Structure document presented in district pre-conference training events

June 2011 Structure proposal presented to the annual conference for perfecting and adoption.

Motion following Annual Conference adoption of the New Structure: "Under Par. 2610.2(f) of The Book of Discipline 2008, the SC Annual Conference petitions the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision on the constitutionality, meaning, application, and effect of the Discipline in regard to Par. 610, Par. 614.3 and Judicial Decision 1147 on the SC Conference Structure Plan adopted in session June 9, 2011 and to become effective June 2011".

June-August 2011 Organize the new Conference Connectional Ministries (CCM) as prescribed.

August-November 2011 Train and assimilate the members of the new CCM

October 2011 Judicial Council meeting to consider docket.

APPENDIX C: Procedures DCM/CCM

Meetings:

The DCM shall meet at least five times a year in January, March, May, September and November.

The CCM shall meet at least twice a year in February and October.

The meetings shall include a gathering/worship time followed by a session with all ministry area members for the purpose of evaluation of ongoing ministries and discussion of emerging needs. During a much larger block of time, ministry areas will gather separately for more detailed work with input related to functions of each conference program-related agency. The meeting will conclude with the entire CCM gathering to make decisions and coordinate work.

CCM Ministry Areas:

Each CCM Ministry Area may establish task forces to plan and implement ministry programs or events. The task force members may include persons selected by the ministry area but not members of the CCM. Funding for the task force will come from the budget of the respective ministry area, council, board, commission, or committee. The council, board, commission, or committee may add additional persons, without vote, to assist in carrying out their ministry.

Implementing Issues:

Prior service on conference agencies will not preclude a person from serving in the new structure.

In order to nominate officers of the first CCM, the chairperson of the current Council on Connectional Ministries will name the nominating committee from members of the four Ministry Areas of CCM.

During the last year of the quadrennium (2016) there shall be a review of the new structure and any needed changes shall be recommended to the next session of the annual conference.

APPENDIX D: CCM Budgeting Process

October: The councils, boards, commissions, and committees of the ministry areas build their budget request and submit to their ministry area chairperson.

November 1: Deadline for council, board, commission and committee chairs to submit funding requests to CCM.

February: The ministry area chairpersons present the conference program agencies' budget requests to the CCM.

March: The CCM studies the budget requests of the conference program agencies and recommends to CCFA amounts to be allocated from the conference benevolences budget to each such agency, within the total established by CCFA (Par. 614.3b(2)). The results are reported to the Ministry Area chairpersons and the councils, boards, commissions and committees. Agency chairs have opportunity to address any budget concerns they have with CCFA.

June: CCFA presents the budget to the annual conference for perfection and adoption.

APPENDIX E: Standing Rules Amended

Upon perfection of this transition plan and adoption by the Annual Conference, several current Standing Rules will have been incorporated into the plan. The document containing the transition plan, together with all appendices, is hereby substituted for current Standing Rule 48.

The following current Standing Rules have been incorporated within the transition plan and are therefore no longer needed as individual rules: 49, 62, 63, 65, 67, 72, 73, 83, 84, and 91.

To comport with the transition plan, the terminology of current Standing Rule 74.a, concerning representation of district laity members on the Conference Committee on Nominations, is hereby amended to read: "It is recommended that there be one (1) lay person nominated and elected by each District Ministry Area on Lay Leadership."

To maintain consistent terminology between the transition plan and the Standing Rules, references in the current Standing Rules to Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, CCCOM, District Council on Ministries, or DCOM shall be amended to read, respectively, Conference Connectional Ministries, CCM, District Connectional Ministries, or DCM. The Conference Secretary shall be authorized to make such editorial changes in the amended Standing Rules.

If a conflict should arise between this transition plan and any other current Standing Rule not cited in this appendix, the Committee on Standing Rules is authorized to make the necessary adjustments in dialogue with the affected agency and subsequently will report same to the next Annual Conference.

49. The Board of Ordained Ministry shall be composed of fifty-seven (57) members. In accordance with The Discipline, no less than one-fifth (1/5) and no more than one-third (1/3) of the total membership shall be lay persons. The Annual Conference Coordinator of Clergy Services shall be an ex-officio member, with voice, but without vote. If the Psychological Assessment Vendor is United Methodist, the vendor may serve as an ex-officio member of the Board with voice but without vote, in accordance with the nominating process of The Book of Discipline.
50. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall be composed of eighteen (18) members nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that six (6) be lay men, six (6) be lay women, and six (6) be clergy persons who are active participants in the pension and group insurance plans in which the Annual Conference is the Plan Sponsor. In addition to fulfilling the responsibilities mandated by the Book of Discipline, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall supervise the Annual Conference group insurance program. The Conference Benefits Officer shall be nominated by the Board of Pension and Health Benefits and elected by the Conference Staff Relations Committee. The chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be an ex-officio member with voice but without vote.

Boards of Trust

51. There shall be a Board of Trustees of South Carolina United Methodist Camps and Retreat Ministries, Inc., an inclusive body consisting of eighteen (18) members. It is recommended that: nine (9) shall be lay persons of whom at least four (4) shall be women; and nine (9) shall be clergy, of whom at least two (2) shall be women.

 - a. The Bishop shall serve as the chairperson of the Committee.
 - b. The Committee shall prepare a proposed agenda for adoption by the Annual Conference, giving due regard to any special orders required by the Discipline or as ordered by the Annual Conference. The Committee shall determine the compensation and expenses to be paid speakers invited by this Committee, and the Treasurer shall make such payments from the Conference expense funds.
 - c. The Committee shall receive all invitations to host the Annual Conference. It shall recommend to the Annual Conference the place for the entertainment of the Annual Conference at least two (2) years in advance.
 - d. The Committee shall conduct all matters of courtesy and make such introductions as are necessary during the sessions of Annual Conference.
 - e. The Committee shall arrange for an appropriate Memorial Service to be held annually and shall select the speaker.
65. There shall be a Committee on the Conference Journal composed of nine (9) persons nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that three (3) be clerical members and six (6) lay members. The following shall be ex-officio members: the Conference Secretary; the First Assistant Conference Secretary; the Editor of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate; and the Statistician.
 - a. The Committee shall cooperate with the Conference Secretary in the publication of the pre-conference reports.
 1. The Conference Secretary shall inform the boards, councils, commissions and committees when reports shall be due in order to maintain the printing schedule for the pre-conference reports.
 2. No report by any board, council, commission or committee shall be considered by the Annual Conference that has not been distributed to the members of the Annual Conference at least four weeks prior to the Conference session. Excluded from this requirement are the reports of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Committee on Nominations, and the Committee on Standing Rules.
 - b. The Committee shall determine the accuracy of the Journal of Proceedings where differences exist.
 - c. The Committee and the Conference Secretary shall be responsible for the publication annually of the South Carolina Conference Journal (see The Book of Discipline, Para. 606.3) and shall have the Journal ready for the printer at least by October 1st following the close of Annual Conference. The Journal shall include the informational reports included in the pre-conference reports, the proceedings and actions of the Annual Conference, and the Statistical Reports.
 1. The Secretary of the Annual Conference shall edit the Conference Journal.
 2. The Committee and the Conference Secretary shall annually request of the Council on Finance & Administration the funds needed to publish and distribute the pre-conference reports and the Conference Journal, and shall provide for the printing at least one year in advance.

3. The required number of copies will be sent to those mandated by The Discipline. Other copies may be ordered by subscription at a cost to be set by the Committee.
 - d. The Committee shall be responsible for the publication every ten years (cycle beginning in 1991) of the volume entitled United Methodist Ministers in South Carolina, which shall feature biographical sketches and photographs of the ministers of the South Carolina Conference.
 - e. The memoirs of the ministers and ministers' spouses who have died during the conference year shall be printed in the Conference Journal; those of the ministers shall not exceed 600 words and those of the spouses shall not exceed 250 words.
66. There shall be a Committee on Congregational Development (CCD) composed of eight (8) at large members, nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference; one representative from each District Board for Congregational Development; and one representative from each of the following: the Board of Global Ministries, Board of Evangelism, Board of Laity and the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The purpose of the CCD shall be to work with the Bishop and Cabinet to provide long term planning and provide the framework for all the efforts of the Annual Conference related to new church development, church redevelopment and congregational revitalization.
 67. The Joint Committee on Incapacity shall be composed of two (2) members of the Board of Ordained Ministry (to be named by the chairperson of the Board), the chairperson and secretary of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits and a district superintendent appointed by the Bishop.
 68. There shall be a Conference Committee on Nominations of twenty-four (24) members composed of two representatives nominated and elected by each district. It is recommended that these be one clergy and one lay representative from each district. The additional members shall include: the resident Bishop; a youth and young adult nominated by the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries; up to six (6) at large members, who may be nominated by the Bishop to ensure adequate representation; and the following members: the Conference Lay Leader, an elected representative of United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, a retired member of the Annual Conference selected by the retired ministers, and two superintendents named by the Bishop. The Chairperson of the Committee on Nominations shall be elected by the Annual Conference. A nominee shall be presented by the Committee on Nominations for consideration at the beginning of each quadrennium. The Conference Committee on Nominations shall elect additional officers at its first regular meeting in the new quadrennium. The following shall be ex-officio members without vote: the chairperson of the Committee on Standing Rules, the chairperson of the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, the chairperson of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, the chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race, and the chairperson of the Conference Missional Priority Coordinating Committee.
 - a. It is recommended that there be one (1) lay person nominated and elected by each District Board of the Laity of each of the twelve (12) districts. Where there is no District Board of the Laity, the one (1) lay person shall be nominated and elected by the church lay leaders of that district.
 - b. It is recommended that there be one (1) clergy person nominated and elected from each district by the ministers of each of the twelve (12) districts.
 - c. These nominations, both lay and clergy, shall be elected by secret ballot in each district after at least three (3) persons shall have been nominated from the floor of each of the electing bodies. Election shall be by simple majority.
 - d. If a member of the Committee on Nominations, who has been nominated by the District moves beyond the boundaries of the District in which he/she was nominated, his/her membership on the Committee shall be terminated, except for the chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary, who should continue to serve as members-at-large on the Conference Committee on Nominations until the end of the quadrennium.
 - e. When district vacancies occur on the Committee, replacements shall be nominated as per rule 74.c to serve the remainder of the quadrennium. In the event that the elected chairperson of the Nominating Committee is one of the two elected representatives of a district, that chairperson shall become an additional member-at-large - and the respective district shall elect another representative for that district, both of whom shall serve until the end of the quadrennium.

- f. Current members of the Committee on Nominations shall not be nominated for membership on any board, council, commission or committee whose membership arises from nominations from this committee.
 - g. Ex-officio members of the Nominating Committee shall be excluded from rule 74.f.
 - h. The Committee shall make all nominations needed by the Annual Conference except as provided elsewhere by the Discipline or Standing Rules of the Annual Conference. When the Discipline or Standing Rules require nominations be made by other agencies of the Annual Conference, those nominations shall be reported to the Committee no later than March 15 of each year for information only. These nominations will not be submitted to the Annual Conference through the Committee on Nominations.
 - i. Nominations of chairpersons of all quadrennial boards, councils, commissions and committees, whose election is not prescribed by the Discipline or other sections of these Standing Rules shall be a nominated member of that board, council, commission or committee and shall be submitted by the Committee on Nominations to the Annual Conference for election.
 - j. When nominations are made, the persons nominated shall be consulted and their consent to serve received; whether nominated by parent boards, the Committee on Nominations or from the floor of the Annual Conference.
 - k. The Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall make nominations so that approximately one half (1/2) of the membership of all boards, councils, commissions and committees shall be rotated each quadrennium.
 - l. The report of the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall include the full name, current address and phone number(s) of each nominee. When a nomination is to a Board of Trust, the report shall identify any nominee who is a member of The United Methodist Church.
 - m. It is recommended that the Nominating Committee nominate at least 25% ethnic minority representation to all Conference Boards and Agencies where such nominees originate with the Conference Committee on Nominations. When vacancies are filled and nominations from the floor are offered it is recommended that at least 25% ethnic minority membership be maintained. It is also recommended that until this representation is achieved, if from one to four members are to be elected, at least one be an ethnic minority; if five to eight are to be elected, at least two be ethnic minority persons.
 - n. Unless otherwise provided in the Book of Discipline, a vacancy in the membership of a board, council, commission or committee may be filled, ad-interim, by the board, council, commission or committee for the remainder of the Conference year in which the vacancy occurs. At its next session the Annual Conference shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term. The respective board, council, commission or committee shall inform the Committee on Nominations of the vacancy and its action.
69. There shall be a Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling composed of twelve (12) persons named by and amenable to the Board of Ordained Ministry. It is recommended that eight (8) be clergy persons and four (4) be lay persons.
 70. There shall be a Committee on Petitions to the General Conference (see The Book of Discipline, Para. 507) composed of six (6) members nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that three (3) be lay persons and three (3) be clergy persons, at least half having been delegates to General Conference previously. This committee shall be considered a task force and neither a quadrennial committee nor a non-quadrennial committee.
 71. There shall be a Committee on Resolutions and Appeals composed of nine (9) members nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that six (6) be lay persons and three (3) be clergy persons.
 - a. Resolutions initiated by a constituted board, council, commission or committee are properly before the Annual Conference without the necessity of referral. Resolutions not initiated by a constituted board, council, commission or committee may be referred to those agencies. Any such resolution not referred to a constituted board, council, commission or committee shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals, and shall be reported by this Committee to the Annual Conference with a recommendation of concurrence or non-concurrence with rationale.

- b. Resolutions delivered to the Conference Secretary no later than March 15 of each Conference year shall be published in the Pre-Conference Journal.
 - c. Additional resolutions should be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals by the end of the afternoon session on the first full business day of the Annual Conference. The group, individual or cluster presenting a resolution must be responsible for printing their resolution for all members of the Annual Conference session. The resolutions considered by the Committee on the first full day of the session shall be distributed by the close of the morning session of the second full business day of the Conference. The Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals will be an 'Order of the Day' the morning of the third full business day of Annual Conference.
 - d. The Committee on Resolutions and Appeals shall on the first full business day of Annual Conference provide time for persons offering resolutions to come before the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals to define and talk about their resolutions.
72. There shall be a Committee on Standing Rules composed of nine (9) members nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that six (6) be lay persons and three (3) be clergy persons. The following shall be ex-officio members with vote: the President of the Conference United Methodist Women, the President of the Conference United Methodist Men, the President of the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, the Conference Secretary, the Conference Lay leader, the chairperson of the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, at least one district superintendent and the Conference Parliamentarian.
73. The Conference Committee on Episcopacy shall be composed of fifteen (15) members. In accordance with the Discipline (Para. 637), membership shall consist of the following: one-fifth (1/5) appointed by the Bishop, and the balance nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that one-third (1/3) be clergy persons, one-third (1/3) laywomen, and one-third (1/3) laymen, provided that one layperson shall be the Conference Lay Leader. Ex-officio members with vote shall be the lay and clergy members of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy.
74. In order to provide for consistent Annual Conference staff personnel decisions, management, policy and collegiality, there shall be a Conference Staff Relations Committee composed of the following members, nominated by the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference: three (3) lay persons, one of whom has professional experience in personnel/human resource management; one (1) elder in full connection, serving a local church at the time of election; one (1) deacon in full connection, employed by a local church at the time of election; one (1) full time local pastor; and two members-at-large, to insure inclusiveness. The Resident Bishop shall serve as chairperson without vote. Ex-officio members, with voice and vote, shall include the Conference Lay Leader, who shall serve as vice-chairperson of the Committee; the Chairperson of the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries; and the President of the Council on Finance and Administration. No staff member or immediate family member of a staff member may serve on the committee.

III. DISTRICT RULES AND ORGANIZATION

75. There shall be twelve (12) districts in the South Carolina Annual Conference.
76. 77. There shall be a Committee on Nominations in each district. This committee shall make nominations to be forwarded by the two district representatives to the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations for election by the Annual Conference.
- a. The District Committee on Nominations shall be composed of: the District Superinten-

- dent as chairperson; the District Lay Leader or his/her designated Associate Lay Leader; the District Director of Lay Speaking Ministries; the Presidents of the District United Methodist Men, the District United Methodist Women, the District Youth Council and one other representative of each selected by the respective organization's executive committee. Where there is no District Youth Council, the district superintendent shall appoint two (2) youth members. It is recommended that gender and racial balance be considered in selection. The two (2) Conference Nominating Committee members from the district shall also serve.
- b. The District Committee on Nominations shall request of each local pastor, lay leader, Council on Ministries chairperson, United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, and United Methodist Youth Fellowship president possible nominees to serve. Forms designed by the Conference Nominating Committee will be provided each District Committee, which in turn, shall make them available to each local church. These forms shall include biographical data, local church experience, etc., and shall include a space for the possible nominee's signature indicating willingness to serve.
 - c. The District Committee on Nominations shall review all forms submitted and will forward these recommendations through the two (2) district representatives to the Annual Conference Nominating Committee after signatures indicating willingness to serve have been secured. District Nominating Committees shall be encouraged to be inclusive of the constituency of the district in their nominations.
78. The District Lay Leader and two (2) Associate Lay Leaders, the District Director of Lay Speaking Ministries, and the Associate District Director of Lay Speaking Ministries shall be nominated by the laity on the District Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference. They shall be nominated and elected quadrennially and may serve no more than eight (8) consecutive years.
 79. Persons elected by the annual conference to membership on district boards and committees shall begin their terms of service at the conclusion of the annual conference session at which they are elected. Between sessions of annual conference, vacancies on district boards and committees may be filled upon nomination by the District Committee on Nominations. Such vacancies shall be subject to election by the next annual conference and reported by the Conference Committee on Nominations.
 80. In accordance with the Discipline (Para. 668.2) the eight (8) elected members of the Committee on the District Superintendency shall be nominated by the District Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference or by the District Conference where it exists.
 81. There shall be in each district a District Board for Congregational Development (DBCD). The DBCD shall be elected quadrennially by the Annual Conference, upon nomination by the District Committee on Nominations. Vacancies shall be filled annually by election by the Annual Conference. The DBCD shall be composed of not fewer than five (5) or more than nine (9) elected members, plus the district representatives appointed by the District Superintendent to the Conference Committee for Congregational Development. The District Superintendent or the District Superintendent's designee shall preside over the work of the Board.
 - a. The purpose of the DBCD shall be to promote long term planning and provide a coordinating framework for all the efforts of the district related to new church development, church redevelopment and congregational revitalization.
 - b. The responsibilities shall be:
 1. Update population statistics and informational data of the district.
 2. Review facility conditions and congregational vitality.
 3. Develop district strategies and priorities for new church development, church redevelopment and congregational revitalization.
 4. Administer all funds raised at the district level and received from all Conference sources for congregational development.
 5. Submit proposals to Annual Conference boards and agencies (Equitable Compensation, Congregational Development, Trustees of the Annual Conference, Council on Finance and Administration, etc.) for funding of congregational development within the district.
 6. Locally held accounts held by the DBCD shall be audited annually, with copy filed to the Council on Finance and Administration. Funds received and disbursed through the office of the Conference Treasurer do not require audits but are managed by voucher only.

82. Each district superintendent shall transmit the complete list of lay members to the Annual Conference from the district in triplicate to the Secretary of the Annual Conference at least five (5) months prior to the opening date of the Annual Conference.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS RULES

83. All lay persons employed by the agencies of the Conference shall conform to the compulsory retirement age set for the ministers of the church. Such retired lay persons may be employed on a part-time basis without executive administrative responsibility.
84. All monies to be credited to the accounts of local churches for the fiscal year shall be in the hands of the Conference Treasurer no later than fifteen (15) days after the end of the fiscal year.
85. "Moving Day" for the ministers shall be the Wednesday preceding the 1st of July beginning in 2009.
 - a. Where special circumstances dictate any alteration of this moving date, the affected persons and the district superintendent involved shall be permitted to make the necessary adjustments.
 - b. Ministers shall be paid during the month of June by the charge from which they are moving. Ministers will be paid during the month of July by the charge to which they are moved.
 - c. The moving expenses of the pastor shall be paid by the charge to which he/she is moved, not to include more than $350.00 in verified packing expenses.
86. Pastor's reports to Annual Conference shall cover the calendar year (January 1- December 31) and shall be sent to the Conference Treasurer-Statistician so as to reach that office not later than January 15 of the year immediately following.
87. All support ministries or agencies which receive funds from the South Carolina Annual Conference, but which are not directly responsible to the Conference, shall submit an annual program and an audit including a management letter to the sponsoring Conference agency.
88. No requests shall be made for the services of the Conference Chancellor except by the Episcopal Office.
89. Persons applying for Sabbatical shall apply to the Board of the Ordained Ministry prior to February 1st preceding the Annual Conference session.
90. When a leave of absence is granted, and upon the recommendation of the Bishop and the Cabinet, the Council on Finance and Administration shall make a sustentation grant from the Conference contingency funds not to exceed forty percent of the denominational average compensation paid on a monthly basis. All interim sustentation grants shall be reported to the Annual Conference at its next session. Upon the recommendation of the Bishop and Cabinet and the approval of the Annual Conference, the Commission on Equitable Compensation shall continue to fund the sustentation grants in the same monthly percentage for a period not to exceed one additional Conference year. No claim may be made on the sustentation fund when disability benefits are granted from the Board of Pension and Health Benefits.
91. All persons at the Annual Conference level who are officially involved in the trial process, including the members of the trial court, the witness at the trial, the counsel for the church, the counsel for the respondent, and the respondent shall receive only reimbursement for vouchered travel, meals, and lodging expenses from the Annual Conference Contingency Fund according to the schedule of payments adopted by the Annual Conference for those involved in the official business of the Annual Conference.

Report No. 4

- A. In 2011 CF&A reviewed the formula used to calculate the district superintendent's salary and determined to abandon the formula that called for the salary to be set at 140% of the Conference Average Compensation ("CAC"). Instead, CF&A decided to use the 2012 salary of 91,200 as a base and future changes will be determined by the percent change in CAC. For 2013 that is a .03% increase.
- B. The compensation for the District Superintendents for the year 2013 will be set at $91,473. (DS compensation for 2010 was $88,200, and for 2011/2012 is 91,200.)
- C. The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15% ($13,721) of the district superintendent's salary for the year 2013 as allocated for parsonage utilities and maintenance, not including maid service and such expenses as paid by the district.
- D. The District Administration Fund will be handled as follows:
 - 1) The item "Office Expense" in the District Administration Fund will be for the operation of the District Office to pay such items as secretary, postage, and supplies and will be set at $21,000 per district.
 - 2) Exceptions: Inasmuch as the Columbia District Office must be in The United Methodist Center, one-half of that office rent will be paid from the Conference Expense Fund. Inasmuch as the Columbia District superintendent is designated as the Cabinet secretary, one-half of the salary and benefits of the secretary in that office will be paid from the Conference Expense Fund.
 - 3) The funds for program in each district are based on the membership of the district, beginning with a base of $3,500 for the smallest membership district and adding $100 for each one thousand (1,000) members, or major fraction thereof, above 15,000. The schedule for 2012 will be as follows (Final amounts will be reflected in the 2012 Journal):

District	2011 Membership	Amount
Anderson	14,693	$ 3,500
Charleston	24,755	4,500
Columbia	33,198	5,300
Florence	18,346	3,800
Greenville	20,900	4,100
Greenwood	16,359	3,600
Hartsville	18,911	3,900
Marion	22,449	4,200
Orangeburg	18,668	3,900
Rock Hill	16,774	3,700
Spartanburg	16,009	3,600
Walterboro	14,427	3,500
Totals	235,489	$47,600

- 4) Travel (in and out-of-district) is set at $144,000 for the total of all districts, plus $6,000 for the common lodging and meal expenses of retreats. This will be set at $12,000 per district or an allocated amount set by the Cabinet not to exceed a total of $144,000. In addition, insurance & pensions is set at $313,200 ($26,100 per district), and continuing education at $700 per superintendent.
- 5) Vouchers for continuing education must be approved by the District Committee on Continuing Education prior to payment. The unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance may be carried forward from year to year during a district superintendent's tenure, not to exceed a total amounting to three year's Continuing Education allocation. Not more than fifty percent of accumulated funds shall be used for travel expenses. The accumulation is cancelled in full when a district superintendent leaves the superintendency. It does not carry forward to the new district superintendent. However, by application to the CF&A in advance of leaving the superintendency, the district superintendent may within a reasonable length of time use the unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance to take training that would assist in his/her return to the parish ministry or other appointment. For the year in which there is a move, one-half of the Continuing Education allowance will be available for each superintendent.

- E. Each District Board of Trustees shall administer all funds for the District Parsonage Fund, which provides funds for parsonage payments, repairs, insurance and furnishings (not to include parsonage utility payments). The moving expenses of an in-coming district superintendent may also be paid from the District Parsonage Fund, not to include more than $350 packing expenses. Each district office shall provide its trustees with regular reports of all receipts and expenditures of the District Parsonage Fund.
- F. Below are the percentages of average net funds that each church is asked to pay to its respective District Parsonage/Office Fund:

District	Parsonage	Office	Total	Avg. Net Funds
Anderson	$ 15,000	$ 37,000	$ 52,000	.0083
Charleston	23,000	46,000	69,000	.0069
Columbia	10,000	45,000	55,000	.0028
Florence	25,000	45,000	70,000	.0096
Greenville	26,000	30,000	56,000	.0053
Greenwood	20,000	15,000	35,000	.0048
Hartsville	17,000	32,000	49,000	.0064
Marion	50,000	25,000	75,000	.0073
Orangeburg	25,000	40,000	65,000	.0010
Rock Hill	10,000	22,000	32,000	.0054
Spartanburg	22,000	25,000	47,000	.0057

Report No. 5

- A. We recommend that the following special observances be a part of the program of each local church and that appropriate free-will offerings be received.
- Human Relations Day – January 20, 2013
 - Golden Cross Sunday – February 3, 2013
 - One Great Hour of Sharing – March 10, 2013
 - Native American Awareness Sunday – April 14, 2013
 - Peace with Justice Sunday – May 26, 2013
 - Epworth Children's Home
 - Mothers' Day – May 12, 2013
 - Work Day – September 8, 2013
 - Church school offering first Sunday each month
 - Aldersgate Special Needs Sunday – August 11, 2013
 - Youth Service Fund Sunday – September 15, 2013 (youth offering)
 - World Communion Sunday – October 6, 2013
 - Conference Advance Specials Sunday – November 3, 2013
 - United Methodist Student Day – November 24, 2013
- B. An offering may be taken to support the Bessie Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund as a part of the observance of Women in the Pulpit Sunday, March 3, 2013.
- C. We offer the following:
1. That all boards, commissions and committees receiving funds from the conference treasurer shall submit with each voucher adequate supporting data (receipts, bills, contemporaneous travel log, etc.). Payments in excess of $1,000 should be approved by the Conference Treasurer in advance.
 2. That boards, agencies and conference institutions which are allowed to withdraw lump sums from the conference treasurer shall submit an annual audit (with management letter) by a certified public accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration, along with evidence of fidelity insurance coverage and compliance with payroll tax laws.
 3. That all boards, commissions and agencies of the conference reimburse persons at a rate of 24 cents per mile when traveling on conference business. In order to encourage car pooling, we recommend that if a car contains two persons traveling on church business, the mileage rate be increased to 32 cents; if a car contains three or more persons all traveling on church business, the rate be increased to 40 cents per mile. Pastors who are members of such agencies should submit reimbursement requests to their appointed church or charge for the difference between their conference reimbursement and the approved IRS mileage rate, since participation in the ministries of the district and conference is an expected responsibility of all appointed pastors. Conference employees will be reimbursed at the approved IRS mileage rate for 2013 when traveling on church business. We recommend that other expenses for travel on church business be paid. We also recommend that the guideline amount paid to a person for meals shall be $6.00 for breakfast, $12.00 for lunch and $20.00 for the evening meal.

4. That the balance held for each board, commission, committee or agency on the books of the conference treasurer shall be carried forward from one year to the next and that this shall be taken into consideration in the subsequent budget request.
5. That conference boards and agencies may not spend in excess of funds received on budget for the given conference year, except that funds carried forward may be spent in addition to funds received in the current year if such carryover funds were included in the budget presented to CFA. Any expenses beyond the combination of anticipated receipts (based on previous-year percentage of payment) plus budgeted carryover funds will not be paid by the treasurer.
6. That "average net funds" as used in the calculation of 2013 apportionments shall mean for each church the four-year average of net funds in the years 2008, 2009, 2010, and 2011. When a church has declined for two consecutive years in "net funds," the term "average net funds" shall mean the average of the last two years only; the first year net funds increases, a three-year average will be used, and the following year the normal four-year average. Newly organized churches will be treated in the same manner as other churches of the conference. A four-year average of net funds will be used, but for the years prior to the organization of the new church, the net funds figure will be zero. Churches that provide a housing allowance in lieu of a parsonage may exclude the lesser of the actual housing allowance or 25% of the minister's compensation.
7. That "net funds" be defined as the total of figures reported on lines 53 through 62 (inclusive) of Table 2.
8. That once the apportionments are calculated from Table 2 statistics for any given year, those apportionments cannot be altered. Needed corrections can be made on Table 2 reports for use in future year calculations.
9. That the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Homes Residents' Assistance (item 12, Report No. 1) be divided 50% to Methodist Oaks (Orangeburg), 35% to Wesley Commons (Greenwood), 15% to Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee (Florence); that the funds received on the apportionment for Senior College Scholarship Fund (item 9, Report No. 1) be divided in three equal parts, one-third each going to Wofford College, Columbia College and Claflin College; that the funds received on the apportionment for Camps and Retreat Ministries (item 7, Report No. 1) be distributed to the various Camps and Retreat Ministries as determined by the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina United Methodist Camps and Retreat Ministries.
10. That the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to grant amounts up to $7,500 from the Conference Contingency Fund to meet any individual emergency or unanticipated need.
11. That the salaries and fixed essential expenses of Conference Connectional Ministries (section A-4 of the Conference Benevolences budget) be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund; the remainder of that budget will be funded at the percentage paid on the line item.
12. That the salaries and benefits portion of the Campus Ministry budget be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund; the remainder of that budget will be funded at the percentage paid on the line item.
13. That the budgets of the District Superintendent Salaries, Director of Administrative Services, the Conference Archivist Contract and the Coordinator of Clergy Services be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund.
14. The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15% of the salary for each conference clergy staff for the year 2013, exclusive of a designated housing allowance as allocated for utilities and maintenance, not including maid service.
15. That local churches of the conference incorporate. (See ¶¶ 2506, 2507, 2528.1 of the 2008 Book of Discipline.) An informational pamphlet prepared by the Conference Chancellor and the Cabinet is available at www.umcsc.org. After incorporation, churches should take care to maintain with the Secretary of State, an accurate, up-to-date record of the name and address of their registered agent.

Report No. 6

The recommended apportioned budgets for the Senior College Scholarship Fund, Spartanburg Methodist College, and Methodist Homes Residents' Assistance Fund have been reduced. These causes are significant ministries. Therefore, we ask those churches with sufficient resources to continue in 2012 to contribute what was apportioned for these funds in 2009. In addition, $13,200 will be included in the asking for campus ministry. This combined request will be calculated for churches based on the apportionment formula and included on the bottom of the apportionment statement as a voluntary asking.

Report No. 7

An inspection of the Episcopal residence was conducted in the late spring of 2012. The house is in good general condition and no major items are currently present outside of normal wear and tear on a 13 year old house. All furniture owned by the conference was accounted for and in good condition. A majority of the furniture currently in the residence, however, belongs to the Bishop.

Work Done To Residence Since 2011 Annual Conference:

The conference had some work done on the roof to stop leaks and to extend the roof life. Some interior repairs were completed to address minor water damage from the roof leaks. The conference also replaced some common household fixtures.

Items That We Anticipate Addressing Shortly:

- The refrigerator will need to be replaced due to a broken freezer
- Pressure washing of the exterior and some small paint touch ups
- Minor electrical and plumbing work

Items that we will likely need to complete in the event of a new Bishop:

- Repainting of the living room
- Replace the carpet in the first floor bedroom
- Stretch the carpet on the second floor

The Episcopal Office budget request presented to CF&A for 2011 was $10,000 and for 2012 was $10,000.

CF&A anticipates that there will be approximately $20,000 available through the Episcopal Residence Operations and Episcopal Residence Maintenance Reserve Funds for future projects through 2013.

CF&A request that an additional $20,000 be released from the Trustees of The Annual Conference's undesignated funds in the event we are assigned a new Bishop and the funds are needed.

The Conference will likely need to place in the 2014 budget funds for the eventual replacement of the roof.

Report No. 8

While clearly understanding the Book of Discipline's requirement that no Annual Conference session can bind another session in its decision making, the Council on Finance and Administration has approved a goal of moving toward a reduced total Annual Conference budget at or near 15% of total Conference Average Net Funds by Budget Year 2015. The proposed budget for 2013 moves the Annual Conference toward this targeted goal.

Report No. 9

Following is a listing of the 2011 Average Net Funds for each district for the total Conference. These are the figures used in the calculation of the 2012 apportionments.

District	2011	District	2011

CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

South Carolina Annual Conference through Conference Connectional Ministries has an opportunity to embrace all of God's people with a spirit of celebration for the many gifts, graces, and talents of every member, every congregation, and every community. We are a community of believers thinking together about our faith and our discipleship. We recognize this great connection works because we are stronger together.

Conference Connectional Ministries is accepting challenges being placed before us to enter into a season of intentional prayer, examination and reflection. This past conference year, the district connectional ministries met to discern needs of the local churches. Dialogue began on the Conference level sharing those concerns from the local churches to the district levels and on to the Conference Connectional Ministries.

The examination of the beliefs we hold as a church lead our conversations to include what we do well, what can we do better, how will we know what to change, and what are we willing to change?

"Verily, I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren; ye have done it unto me." Matthew 25:40.

This scripture opened the doors of our hearts and minds to be intentional about the works of grace, and works of piety. The Holy Spirit, guiding our work areas of Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership, and Outreach will meet the needs of the local churches. We are renewed in our faith, our dedication and our commitment to the ministry of the church.

*Cynthia Williams
Convener Connectional Ministries*

Note: The Conference Connectional ministries' report reflects our transition to the new structure. A new and major part of the report is reports from each District Connectional Ministries (DCM). This is followed by reports from the four Ministry Areas of Connectional Ministries.

ANDERSON and GREENVILLE DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

The decision was made in both Anderson and Greenville districts that the congregational specialist would model what DCM meetings would look like for the first year and have a discernment process for who would be the convener for the next. In Anderson District, we have had listening sessions with four clear areas of emphasis: we reach out, we communicate, we worship and we train. We met on January 26 and spent three hours deciding what the goals in these areas would be. It was a holy and energetic time together. Rev. Susan Leonard-Ray has agreed to talk with a member of our DCM and ask if he will serve as convener. We both feel confident about the work of the Anderson District Connectional Ministries.

The Greenville district has been very intentional about listening and about how to go about the ministries. We have worked on 2 projects. One is the Lay Leadership Orientation which will look different next year. Second is the Great Day of Service. Stop Hunger Now came from our youth in our district and we as a DCM have decided to follow and support them. We do have another and that is VBS. A small group is providing VBS training in both Anderson and Greenville districts. I look forward to hearing evaluation in this area. For these three areas we have brought in people who are not on the DCM team but who have passions in this area. Our goal is to develop those groups that have a fire in their belly for particular ministries. The Greenville District is holding cluster listening sessions in 4 clusters with trained facilitators on February 12. This will help us determine the future needs more effectively.

I must say that both districts have people who desire to be faithful to the structure change and to God. They are engaged, energetic and hopeful toward the future.

Rev. Cathy Joens

CHARLESTON DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

The Charleston District is making progress under the Leadership of Judson King, Congregational Specialist and Patricia Parrish, District Superintendent.

Our meetings are held on the 3rd Thursday of January, March, May, July, September and November at 6:00 P.M. Meetings are held in the Conference Room at the District Office. Our format is: Call to Order; Devotions; Minutes. We then break into our Table groups for a time of discernment and prayer. After which we spend one hour in our groups working on plans for the coming months. After that we come back together for a time of sharing from our Table groups.

The following has been accomplished during the past year:

Training events for Lay Leadership include: Vacation Bible School Training; Four focus areas of the UMC; Disciple Bible Study Training and the District Lay Leadership Training. These have been well attended. Coming up in our plans we have: District Lay Speaking Training VBS Training from the Conference, and A Gifts Discernment workshop.

Plans are in the making from our Outreach group to have flood buckets and hygiene kits available in our District to send out as needed in the event of a major disaster. Plans are underway for an International Mission Trip to Ecuador in late August and for a Change the World Weekend-Mission Project.

Discipleship is working on Young Adults at present. They have discussed what local churches are doing and what is successful. They are also discussing and reviewing a needs assessment sent to local churches. A program has been started at Wesley on Johns Island. A member of the Discipleship Table group is meeting with them.

Advocacy is planning a Social Principles Training Event for the District. Specific plans for this will be upcoming.

The Connectional Table has been issuing pleas for Advocate subscriptions.

We always have a time for Judson King and Patricia Parrish to address the group.

June Willson, Convener

COLUMBIA DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

The Columbia District Connectional Ministries is excited about the new focus on our Ministry Areas and the opportunities that need to be addressed as a district. As a committee, we had a lot of discussion on Passionate Spirituality and Worship, Lay Leadership, Advocacy, Outreach, and Discipleship. We began our new journey with discussions on

- 1.) What are the common needs among the churches in our district?
- 2.) What can we do as a district to meet those needs?
- 3.) What are the priorities?

During a period of discernment, our group shared opportunities and riches we receive from our own local congregation. From the long list that was developed, these four priorities were the 'common thread.'

Fellowship

Love/Joy/Means of Grace

Evangelism

Hospitality & Serving

Stephen Ministry

Spiritual Formation

Small Groups, Bible Study, Healing, Worship

Missional Outreach

Openness to Community

After much discussion, the Columbia District will offer a full day workshop on "Lead Like Jesus" in the fall.

FLORENCE DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

The Florence District Connectional Ministries (DCM) has dealt with the issue of establishing an ongoing flow of information from local churches concerning their needs and how the DCM might help meet those needs. We are still living into this process, but we have begun to see some results in discerning the needs of churches in the district as well as representing those needs to the Conference Connectional Ministries. In the Florence District the four areas of ministry have identified and set the following goals for 2012.

Lay Leadership—establish a task force of lay speakers to determine how they might be engaged in service that will benefit the district through the use of their gifts and abilities. In other words, we have begun to identify what resources we have already and how we might mobilize them. Lay speakers are not always afforded the opportunity to fully employ their spiritual gifts in their local church. How might they be utilized on a district level?

Outreach—has already done some disaster response training as a result of this group's work. Other trainings are established in the district—one which includes a partnership with Walmart to give each local church completing the training a first-aid kit. This ministry area also is seeking opportunities to provide training areas of Health and Wellness with an emphasis on women's health. Also, there is a goal to provide models of outreach ministries to help local churches see some best practices and fruitful outreach ministries.

Advocacy—is seeking to begin with the DCM and ensure inclusivity of young people at every level of the local church. This process will begin by asking each church to determine the number of young people involved in the decision-making and planning process of local churches now. This is expected to be in by Charge Conference 2012.

Discipleship—has a goal of hosting a district-wide youth event in August/September 2012 featuring dynamic speakers. There is also a goal of focusing on children's ministries by holding a meeting to determine what resources already exist and how churches might share their resources. The timeline for this is late Spring around May 2012. An emphasis on training in the Vacation Bible School curricula will also be initiated as two people in the district have received training to provide training to churches in the district. The Discipleship ministry area is also working with the Francis Marion Wesley Foundation to determine how fruitful connections with young adults might be made by local churches to help build their ministries with young people.

GREENWOOD DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

The Greenwood District Connectional Ministries has been busy ascertaining the needs of local congregations and finding ways to address these needs. Thus far, we have offered several workshops/training events with good response from the district:

Basic Leadership Skills, a 3-hour seminar led by Jim Arant in 3 separate locations across the district in September and October. 66 persons attended.

Transforming Worship Workshop, November 4-5 was held at St. Mark UMC, Rivers Street Campus. Presenters from the Upper Room Ministries focused on the needs of smaller membership churches in the areas of music, preaching, and worship. 114 people attended.

The annual Job Function Workshop was held on January 8th at St. Paul UMC in Saluda, with more than 120 participants from all across the district. Topics covered were S/PPRC, Worship, Church Council, Trustees, Children's Ministries, Small Group Ministries, and Evangelism. More than 120 attended.

Future programs in the works include:

Lay listening sessions modeled on the clergy listening session that was done last year to be held on January 26 in 4 locations across the district (Horsecreek Valley, Greenwood/Clinton/Laurens, Edgefield/Johnston, Prosperity/Newberry.) Leaders for each listening session will be members of the DCM. We will then compare laity responses to those from the clergy to find areas of commonality as we set our course for the future as a DCM.

An Adult Education Training Event will be offered on May 6 at St. Paul UMC in Saluda to help local churches with curriculum needs (one of the areas of need from the clergy listening session.) Flo Martin, Alice MacKeil, Robert Cox, and Steve King will be the presenters.

A joint program with the Greenwood and Orangeburg Districts to fill the gap left by suspension of the Laity Convocation. A Design Team has been determined to work on putting this event together, and will meet initially on February 1.

Compilation of a resource manual/dvd for clergy identifying basic referral resources in the areas of outreach and advocacy (ie. Food pantries, help with medicine, shelters, counselors, etc.) to be available for inclusion in packets to be distributed at the set-up meeting in 2012.

We continue to chart our course as we live into the new Connectional Ministries structure. With God's help, our efforts will strengthen the connection and give our local churches the opportunity to give of their best for the Kingdom.

Rev. Sandra Smith King, Convener

HARTSVILLE DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

The Hartsville DCM has conducted "Church Hall Meetings" in the four clusters of the District. At those meetings, we invited pastors and laity to attend and participate in a dialogue and express what they thought were the needs of the local church.

SUMMARY of the concerns:

- Direct communication. More Spirituality, Bible Study
- Pastor selection: Provide PPRC with a DVD of the pastor's sermons before appointment

- Outreach between the church and the community
- Evangelism
- Open doors
- Call absentees
- Use more audio-visuals
- Change some regulations? Make it simple!
- Reevaluate apportionments
- Hard to explain the church to the Youth
- Need to know what is available
- More localization, not bigger districts
- Information to the churches from the Pastors' meetings. What are they talking about?
- Want to hear from conference staff people.
- Come to the local church for training opportunities
- More training, more frequently, more specifically
- Help in retaining youth and young adults
- Cooperative ministry
- More listening and making adjustments more quickly
- More fellowship opportunities with other races and cultures
- New order of worship and style of worship
- Intense training of persons with no cost to them
- More ongoing presence from specialists
- System to connect members with local ministry opportunities
- Lack of money to involve youth in new activities
- Establish district or cluster youth ministries
- Communication with district to small churches
- Link up with other churches to share the cost of common ministries
- Better summation of e-mails and information
- RACE
- Youth camp or ongoing summer VBS connection with other churches
- Larger churches with a staff to assist (or adopt) a smaller church to help with shared youth ministries
- Emphasize Spiritual Gifts
- Encourage churches to be involved with Charge events and District events
- More children's sermons and youth activities
- Community calendar that is available to the laity of the district as to the events in the district
- Facebook page
- Youth programs
- Software
- Training on faith sharing, how to witness, training classes online

AS A RESULT of the Church Hall meetings:

We decided that communication and training were the two most important things that we should address as the district.

Training:

We will plan to offer training closer to the local church. This will be in Clusters or even smaller units like parishes or in the local church. To do this, we are seeking to include the Lay Speaking ministry into being instructors, and to organize them into areas of ministry. In some cases, clergy with certain expertise will also be part of this ministry.

When this is organized, a directory of topics and the names of qualified instructors in specific geographic areas will be given to the district office, and upon request for assistance by the local church, the District office will make an assignment.

Training will be in the standard form of job descriptions, assistance in conducting assessments like Vital Congregations, or whatever the local church determines that they need help.

Some of these needs that have been identified are: worship, discovering spiritual gifts, evangelism and witness, youth ministry training, use of audio-visuals, covenant discipleship and class leaders, training in financial matters, and the use of computers and websites.

Communication:

We are assembling from among the clergy in the district persons who are willing to help setup and run our district website. We want to set up a website with pages that address each of the individual ministries in the DCM with links to other UMC and other websites that will help address the needs of the local church.

As an example, the UMC has many sites that have training and information that the local church can use. However, it is spread out over many different sites. We would consolidate this information by providing links to the specific areas of need.

What is important at any website is to always be up-to-date. For this reason we are seeking many persons to serve as page-editors for designated pages and ministries, as well as an overall webmaster.

Youth:

We realize that the attracting, training, and keeping youth is a priority of not only the local church, but for the annual conference and the general church. We will give special attention the programs to train youth leaders and to develop ministries for youth. As part of our communications ministries, we will be training the local churches to be involved with the social media which will be key to sustaining youth in the church.

MARION DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

The Marion District Connectional Ministries Team met on the following dates:

- January 24, 2012
- October 11, 2011
- May 31, 2011
- February 26, 2011
- Attendance has waned somewhat, but we have decided to continue meeting on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 PM for the foreseeable future. Our next meeting will be held on March 27.

We have wrestled with issues such as the following:

1. What are the most crucial and most prevalent needs of the churches in our district?
 - As we met in our 4 ministry areas, we discussed needs in our churches and communities.
 - We asked each of the 4 groups to create surveys to be distributed at the set-up meeting on August 18, 2011.
 - Rather than asking churches to complete four more-detailed surveys, we decided to utilize a consolidated survey.
2. What are the best ways pastors and churches can communicate those needs to us?
 - We received input from small group discussions at a Small Church Network meeting in the Marion District on July 21, 2011.
 - We distributed Connectional Ministry survey forms at the set-up meeting and asked churches to return the surveys by September 12, 2011.
 - Millie Nelson categorized the needs listed on the survey which were returned to us.
3. Which of the needs forwarded to us should we make a priority?
 - The four ministry teams have discussed this issue each time we have met.
 - We realize we are limited in our ability to respond to local church needs in terms of time, money, personnel, resources, etc.
 - We would prefer to address the needs which will be of the greatest benefit to the greatest number of churches.
 - We need to determine the context in which needs can be most effectively addressed. Contexts include local church, community, cluster, district and conference.
4. What are the best ways to address the needs of the congregations?
 - We could have workshops and special events at a host church and invite churches from our District to participate.
 - We can train people to work with individuals and small groups.

- We can place resources and web links on the District website.
 - At our most recent meeting on January 24, three of the four ministry areas discussed the feasibility of activating the clusters and addressing issues on a sub-district level.
 - Since our district encompasses a five-county area (Dillon, Georgetown, Horry, Marion and Marlboro), travel distance for special events and workshops is an important issue.
5. How can we keep pastors and churches informed about the work of the Marion District Connectional Ministries Team?
 - We can publicize events at our monthly clergy gatherings.
 - We cannot afford to mail a large volume of communications.
 - We can communicate via e-mail with pastors and church leaders.
 - We have been placing minutes from our meetings on the Marion District website and have posted announcements on the district calendar.
 6. What issues should we refer to the Conference Connectional Ministries Team?
 - The Advocacy Team believes it would be wise for the Conference Connectional Ministries Team to offer a workshop (1) explaining what it means to be an advocate, (2) highlighting its importance to the church and community and (3) recommending some issues and organizations for which we could consider being advocates.
 - Well-aware that our ministry area covers a broad variety of subjects, the Discipleship Team has not yet agreed upon what our priorities will be.
 - The Lay Leadership and Outreach Teams have made plenty of helpful suggestions, but I am not aware of any issue to be referred to the Conference Connectional Ministries.

I would be remiss if I did not express my sincere appreciation to the Rev. Dickie Knight, our District Superintendent, and Millie Nelson, our Congregational Specialist, for their inspiration, guidance and support. They have been instrumental in the ongoing work of the Marion District Connectional Ministries Team. We are excited about the opportunities we have to assist churches in our mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

William F. Heustess, Convener

ORANGEBURG DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

The District Connectional Ministries has been meeting every two months to serve the churches in the District. St Mark UMC in North, SC has been our host.

The four task groups have been carrying out their charge as follows:

Lay Leadership

The Lay Leadership Task Group planned and executed a Laity Leadership Function Workshop for district local church committee leaders. It was held at St. Andrews UMC in Orangeburg on January 15, 2012. The attendance was good and the sessions well done.

The Lay Leadership Task Group is currently discussing a joint Lay Rally with the Greenwood District to be held in late spring 2012. The initial idea is to have an informal gathering time, a dinner/cookout, and an inspirational speaker. Thoughts also include a separate youth program (concert, maybe) and a separate children's event. The group will discuss this further when we get feedback from the Greenwood District DCCM.

Mr. Bob Barrett, Orangeburg District Lay Leader, coordinated plans for The Great Day of Sharing and Service in the Orangeburg District held Saturday, October 29, 2011. This was the third annual Great Day of Sharing and Service for the Orangeburg District. A number of individual churches lead projects specifically in their communities. A presentation was made at the DS Setup meeting asking ministers to encourage their members to participate and to provide suggestions for work projects. There were District sponsored activities that included a knitting group preparing blankets, Bingo games at the Oaks, a luncheon for the needy, and a Habitat for Humanity project and others.

Discipleship

On October 6, 2011 Dr. Larry C Cospers presented a class on Conflict Management. Dr. Cospers remains available to help mediate conflicts in churches. The seminar was well attended and very successful.

The next event being discussed centers on inviting Bill Bouknight, nationally known preacher and teacher to conduct a workshop, "Inviting People to Christ", for the Orangeburg District during the 2012 fall season. This would be a workshop for laity and clergy.

Outreach

The Outreach Task Group has focused on serving the hungry by partnering with the Society of St. Andrew (SoSA). This much-needed ministry will put nutritious vegetables and fruit on the tables of food-insecure families in the Orangeburg District.

Rev. Ashley McCoy-Bruce from the SoSA has agreed to provide us with training on Sunday, March 4, 2012, at Saint Mark UMC in North, SC. In addition to training the connectional table has been asked to:

- Pray that the Lord's work will be done and needy people will be fed.
- Begin to talk to farmers and identify farmers who will let us glean their fields.
- Share the SoSA message with church groups, civic organizations, and others to identify gleaners.
- Identify soup kitchens, food banks, and homeless shelters throughout the Orangeburg District that should receive fresh vegetables and fruit.
- Continue to pray and always thank God for blessing this ministry...the farmers for their generosity, the gleaners for their work in the fields, and the people who receive the food and are blessed in a wonderful way.

Advocacy

The Advocacy Task Group has focused on the need to identify women at risk to improve pregnancy and child health outcomes. Plans are being developed for utilizing agencies/programs such as Low Country Healthy Start, a program designed to reduce infant mortality and improve pregnancy outcomes in Allendale, Bamberg, Hampton and Orangeburg Counties.

ROCK HILL DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

The Rock Hill District Connectional Ministries began preliminary formation in late 2010 to prepare for the structural changes coming from the Conference Council on Ministries. Regular meetings began to take place beginning in January 2010. Formation of the team took a period of several months due to clergy moving in June.

The initial impetus of the Connectional Ministries team for Rock Hill was to find a way to more closely identify with the local church and her needs. We believed the best way would be to make use of the cluster structure already in place. Each of the four areas – Advocacy, Discipleship, Lay Leadership, and Outreach took one of the four clusters and began a series of table conversations to identify needs as well as celebrations. Each cluster brought forth a variety of needs/goals that the areas have been working with. These regular listening sessions have allowed us to meet with both clergy and laity as well as to be in direct contact with the many churches of the district.

The following include initiatives, plans, and programs we have focused on...

- Cluster Listening sessions.
- Job Function Workshop held on January 22, 2012 in Rock Hill and again on January 29, 2012 in Lancaster focusing on Administrative areas as well as a panel session for both small and medium size churches
- District-wide worship service and ministry workshops to coincide with the Vital Congregations Study on March 4 at Woodland UMC in Rock Hill. This event will feature keynote speaker, the Rev. Lynne Alley-Grant as worship leader as well as a workshop leader in conjunction with ten ministry-focused workshops. In addition to the congregational goals being brought forth, a collection and assembly of food buckets will occur.
- Spiritual gifts workshop is being planned.
- The Rock Hill newsletter has resumed along with a district Facebook page.
- We are working on a district mission event to take place later in 2012.

The change in structure with the newly formed team has empowered us to seriously look at how we can better assist the local church in carrying out our mission of making disciples.

Rev. Kyle D. Randle, Convener

SPARTANBURG DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

Advocacy Team

The Advocacy Team along with the whole of the DCMT celebrates the initial vision and work that has transformed our annual leadership training event into an event planned by the DCMT as a whole which will be an opportunity for entire congregations to participate and be empowered.

M.A.D. - Making A Difference: A Methodism to Our Madness will be held February 12th from 3:00-5:30 PM at Bethel UMC Spartanburg. Areas of focus will be: The Ministry of Teaching; Missions for Everyone; Computer Help for Methodist Resources; What It Means to be a Methodist; and, Connecting Churches in Ministry. A Commissioning Service which was planned by the DCMT Executive Committee will end the afternoon.

Challenges we face going forward include understanding more clearly what the DCMT is called to do and how the Advocacy Team is a part of that mission, how we can make our personal advocacy interests more universal, and raising awareness of injustices using the Social Principles as a guideline for thought and instruction.

Discipleship Team

The Discipleship Team along with the whole of the DCMT celebrates the first of our scheduled quarterly District-Wide Worship Service which was held in August following our Lay Leader Training at Central UMC Spartanburg. Around 150 individuals from churches across the district came and took part in this beautiful expression of Methodist worship and we look forward to the next service, hoping interest will grow and even more churches will be represented in such services and programs offered to the District as a whole.

We have had very well attended meetings of the Discipleship Team and of the DCMT as a whole. We find that we are slowly developing organization and understanding our purpose distinctively and as a part of the larger whole of the Connectional Ministries Team.

Challenges we face going forward include continually understanding our purpose, encouraging broader participation at district-wide worship and events, building lines of effective communications, and having visible youth participation on the DCMT.

Lay Leadership Team

The Lay Leadership Team along with the whole of the DCMT celebrates our Lay Leader/Clergy Training Gathering event held in August. Rev. Ken Nelson, Congregational Specialist, presented a power point presentation on the role of the Lay Leader. There were 80 lay leaders and clergy persons in attendance. The first of our quarterly district-wide worship services followed.

Challenges we face going forward include figuring out our function and what the churches need, establishing method(s) of effective communication, and finding ways to personalize invitations to participate in ministry.

Outreach Team

The Outreach Team along with the whole of the DCMT celebrates developing a statement of mission and successfully offering an inspiring and encouraging Vacation Bible School at the Bethlehem Center for those who are living in that community. Laypersons and Pastors that helped in conducting this ministry include St. James (Sptbg), Trinity (Sptbg), St. Paul (Sptbg), Cannons Campground, Chesnee, Bethlehem (Union) and Foster's Chapel (Jonesville).

Challenges we face in the coming year will centrally focus on the issue of communications - how to effectively communicate information between the District Connectional Ministries Team and our local churches.

Executive Committee

An Executive Committee was formed at our January 2012 meeting of the DCMT. This committee will focus on specific planning of events and/or issues passed down to them by the DCMT that need closer attention than can be afforded typically by the DCMT as a whole. The Commissioning Service following our M.A.D. event (mentioned above) is an example.

We look forward to strengthening our ministries as we seek vitality within all of the local churches of Spartanburg District and beyond. We have been blessed so much as we have begun to see how we are a part of our collective mission to Make Disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. We await all the blessings God has to bestow upon our Church as we seek to actively follow the lead of the Holy Spirit, continuing the service and ministry of Jesus Christ, and empowering others to do so as well!

Rev. Christopher Greene, Convener

WALTERBORO DISTRICT CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

District Connectional Ministries

The Walterboro District Connectional Ministries (DCM) has held all regularly bimonthly meetings and one additional meeting in February to welcome our new members. The members of the Walterboro District Connectional Ministries are: Advocacy- Rev. Dwight Nelson, Sabrina Singleton, Rev. Bruce Sayre (Co-Convener), Rev. Bob Lee, Becky Hogan, Lexie Aiken and Dr. DaNine Fleming; Lay Leadership- Alvin Glenn, Jackie Jenkins, Pamela Goodwine-Glover, John Allgood, Kimberly Link, Rev. Michael Leonhardt, and Beth Brittan; Discipleship- Rev. Ross Chellis, Rev. Jerry Harrison, Thelma Hudson, Deborah Daniels, Connie Borgianini, Daniel Griswold and Dr. Kenneth Jenkins; Outreach- Rev. Fadetra Harrington, Judy Lee, Betsy Baker, Daniel Green, Rev. Curtis Young, Benita Free, Rev. Sheri White and Rhonda Jones (Convener).

The DCM met and shared what we thought were areas that needed attention in late summer of 2011. We decided to utilize the cluster system to provide training in multiple locations so that local churches can choose to attend the training/event closer to them hopefully increasing churches and individuals being trained. We then held two listening sessions across the district at which 32 churches were represented. This time of sharing was extremely insightful as members of the DCM heard the strengths, the effective ministries taking place across our district as well as the concerns, areas that needed to be revitalized, connections that needed to be made and trainings that would better equip or local churches for ministry.

Outreach Ministry Area

The Outreach Ministry area responded by planning a Ministry Fair on Saturday April 21, at Hardeeville UMC and Sandhill UMC which served as a time of sharing congregational stories of Christian experience, faith and service and education. Our local churches connected with Outreach Ministries of the SC Annual Conference, the Board of Global Ministries, Committee on Disaster Relief, Board of Health and Welfare and Commission on Communication and other Low Country Organizations who had representatives at each location to inform and partner with local churches in their ministry endeavors.

We have improved our communication by establishing a laity database of persons willing to serve as a conduit for their local churches and share information both from the district to their local congregations and vice versa. The District Communicator also informs the district of the DCM resources and events via the website, www.wadistumcsc.org

Lay Leadership Ministry Area

Our Lay Speaking Ministries is still going strong and has further equipped 186 persons for ministry in the life of our local churches in the Fall 2011 and Winter 2012 schools held at St. George UMC and Carteret Street UMC respectively. We adopted the LeadershipNext program at our August meeting of 2011 and plan for the next training to begin in January, 2013.

To date we have held four Lay Leadership Orientations (formerly Job Function Workshops), in the four clusters of the district at which 205 persons were trained to prepare local church elected officers for the 2012 Ministry Year. We had 24 instructors who led the orientation sessions. The workshops offered were all based on the Guidelines for Leading Your Congregation 2008- 2012 series and covered the following areas: Trustees, Church Council, Lay Leader, Nominations and Leader Development, SPPRC, Missions, Evangelism, Christian Education, Youth, Children, Finance and Communications. The host churches for this series were, New Life UMC, Walterboro, Hampton UMC, Hampton, Sandhill UMC, Ridgeville and Carteret Street UMC, Beaufort.

To address the ongoing need for training the DCM formed an Instructional Design Team (IDT) of both clergy and laity who have covenanted to providing instruction in needed areas across the district. The intent is to identify instructors in each cluster who would serve churches within their cluster which we hope would foster stronger networks and more healthy connections between local churches and the district. Current members of the Instructional Design Team are, Rev. Michael Leonhardt, Rev. Ross Chellis, Rev. Otis Scott, Rev. Bruce Sayre, Rev. Fadetra Harrington, Rev. Anne Bridgers, Rev. Ernest C. Etheredge, Ann Bell and Rhonda Jones. The IDT members attend Instructor Training Sessions prior to their presenting to the local churches to ensure that all churches are receiving the same information. We are in need of more instructors, if interested please contact Rev. Bruce Sayre.

Discipleship Ministry Area

The Discipleship Area planned a Vacation Bible School Workshop on Feb. 12, 2012 held at Carteret Street UMC, Beaufort showcasing the Operations Overboard: Dare to Go Deep with God and No Friend Like Jesus: Get Connected Curricula. These workshops were led by Connie Borgianini and Rhonda Jones, respectively.

We have offered additional support training in the areas of Children's Ministries, Older Adult Ministries, Stewardship and Finance in the first quarter of the year to further assist local churches in developing and/or enhancing their ministries in these areas. These four trainings were held on March 10, 2012 at St. Paul UMC, Ridgeland and on March 31, 2012 at Canaan UMC, Ridgeville.

Advocacy Ministry Area

The Advocacy Area encouraged all churches to attend the African American Listening Session held at Shady Grove UMC on March 29th, 2012. We are giving careful attention to the concerns for ecumenical fellowship and are planning resources to foster that spirit among our local churches.

Looking Ahead – "Commit your work to the LORD, and your plans will be established." (Proverbs 16:3, NRSV)

We will continue to offer Cluster Listening Session to get feedback from local churches as to the effectiveness of our endeavors as a district. Representatives from each ministry area will be in attendance in these times of sharing.

In the second and third quarter the DCM will focus on providing support, resources and training for the local church in ministering to the un-churched and unsaved, focusing on developing discipleship. We will also have our Fall Great Days of Service on August 11, 2012 and November 10, 2012.

We plan to keep the lines of communication open with our local churches and listen to their stories as they live into the Vital Congregations Project. If there are any additional supports needed we will use the Vital Congregations resources available to assist in the process.

We realize that the work of the District Connectional Ministries to connect and resource the local churches for effective ministry is a great task. We confess that at times the task seems daunting and we become overwhelmed. Instead of giving up though, we pray, we pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit that we will be able to work from our giftedness and not in our own strength. We have been able to implement some training opportunities that have helped our local churches but we do know that our work is not complete and that this support system is not the answer to all our district concerns. So as we continue to engage in Christian conferencing with our local churches and with each other at our connectional table we listen intently for the voice of God. We listen to discern how best we as a district can meet the needs of our local churches to become or remain vital congregations engaged in "Making Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World".

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not to your own understanding. In all your ways submit to Him, and he will make your paths straight." (Proverbs 3:5-6, NIV)

We will continue to be in prayer and open to what God is doing in our district and our role as spiritual leaders in His plan. "Thank God for the Disciples."

Rhonda Jones, Convener

CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES ADVOCACY AREA REPORT

The South Carolina Advocacy Ministry Area is leading the theological work that arises from human experience of the reign of God which contends against the sufferings of the human condition. "Of crucial importance are concerns generated by great human struggles for dignity, liberation, and fulfillment—aspirations that are inherent elements in God's design for creation. The advocacy ministry speaks for biblical values: peacemaking, racial harmonies, hospitality to strangers, care for creation, and concern for people living in poverty and struggling with hunger and disease. These concerns are borne by theologies that express the heart cries of the down-trodden and the aroused indignation of the compassionate." (Book of Discipline ¶104).

Our area has set priorities in the area of leadership and district advocacy training, use of current communication technology, women's issues, religion and race. Our hopes are to create an Advocacy 101 module and provide training for hands-on advocacy at the local church level. To further supplement this effort we are hoping to create a conference resource for doing advocacy with a cumulative listing of resources to include General Church, S.C. Conference, denominations, non-profits, and church resources.

Our Advocacy Ministry Area is teamed with the following committees and boards and ex-officio members:

Church & Society, COSROW, CUIIC, ELCC, Native American, Hispanic/Latino, Religion & Race, Peace with Justice Coordinator.

Rev. Amiri B. Hooker, Convener

CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES DISCIPLESHIP AREA REPORT

The Discipleship Area organized at the Connectional Ministries meeting held in February, gathering to discuss the areas of ministry needs related to our discipleship areas in our districts, and in the conference as a whole. There was much discussion about the varied needs that relate to our area, and the group is in the process of seeking God's guidance on prioritization and effectiveness in our area as a whole. Meanwhile, the individual committees that make up the discipleship area are in various stages of organization and work. The Division on Ministries with Young People (Youth Council), the Older Adult Council, and the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry have some clear focus and, with the help of conference personnel, are continuing and/or building upon work that has been done by previous groups. The Young Adult Council is recruiting additional members, and will then discern direction and focus. The Children's Council is actively discerning how they may best minister to through conference events and initiatives. The Board of Education, the Board of Evangelism and the Commission on Worship are in a stage of discernment. We are all open to the movement of the Holy Spirit through our new structure and operation.

Rev. Kristen R. Richardson-Frick, Convener

CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES OUTREACH AREA REPORT

The Outreach Ministry Area met on February 11, 2012 at Virginia Wingard UMC, twenty-two members were present. We began our time together reflecting on what God might be calling us as Outreach Ministries to do. Our discussion illuminated that we are called to come out of our comfort zones and discern what the needs are for the overall Outreach Area in each ministry context, Board of Health and Welfare, Board of Global Ministries, Committee on Disaster Relief, and the Commission on Communications. We shared our concerns individually concerning the communication practices of the conference and districts in getting vital information to the local churches and vice versa. We acknowledged that we needed to do a better job of sharing amongst each other and across the conference. Accessibility to already gleaned information through the Charge Conference forms was a spirited point of discussion and the Commission on Communication, the Director of Communications, Matt Brodie and the Conference Informational Technology Director, Jim Crews committed to giving this issue due attention. We all agreed that our network is only as good as the persons in it; we must all be willing to put our information in the system so it can be accessed easily.

We spent a great deal of time hearing the concerns and needs of each district represented.

The ministry areas of Outreach will continue to work throughout the year to address the concerns brought from the local churches through the districts. We are excited about the challenges we face and know that with God leading the way all things are possible. It is our aim that at the fall meeting of 2012 we would have made significant gains in connecting local churches with the ministries of Outreach, providing relevant educational opportunities for them to learn what we are and how they can become involved and equipping them with accessible, practical and relevant resources to help them be more effective in ministry in and through their local church as it relates to the contexts of ministry.

CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES LAY LEADERSHIP AREA REPORT

The Conference Lay Leadership Ministries organized its work during the two meetings held by the newly created Conference Connectional Ministries of which it is a part. Program agencies as prescribed in the Book of Discipline have been included and the work of each has been organized. The organization included leadership of each, program ideas and funding proposals for the 2013 conference year.

Included, as a part of Lay Leadership Ministries, are the work of the Committee on Lay Speakers, Committee on Stewardship and the Committee on Spiritual Formation. The Lay Leadership Ministries has also considered the work of the Task Group for Laity Convocation and that of the Task Group for LeadershipNext. Each of these Task Groups, once a part of the Board of Laity, will be closely reviewed. A survey was done to assist in making a decision regarding the continuation of Laity Convocation.

Lay Leadership members discussed the idea of lay rallies on a district level as opposed to a conference-wide level. In addition, the group discussed empowering laity to embrace the Holy Spirit, helping laity to realize their spiritual gifts and discipline, communications, creativity in how we train youth in mission and their opportunity to serve in the church.

The Stewardship Committee will publish the CD that promotes stewardship and will recruit additional members. The Spiritual Formation Committee continued its work on the 5-Day Academy for 2012. Lay Speaking Ministries continues its work on Instructor's Training Academy, supplies & books.

Mrs. Jackie Jenkins was named to chair the Committee on Lay Speakers. A great deal of thanks is given to Mr. Michael Cheatham for years of service in providing leadership in that position on the conference level as well as the jurisdictional level.

Joseph E. Heyward, Conference Lay Leader

THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE ADVANCE SPECIAL MINISTRIES 2013

Alston Wilkes Society: Since 1962, the Society has been in the business of rebuilding lives and providing second chances. It creates and supports opportunities statewide to help adult and juvenile offenders and ex-offenders, homeless veterans and other homeless people, emotionally- and behaviorally-disturbed children, and the families of these groups of people to become responsible and productive through employment, mediation, life skills, rehabilitation, prevention, volunteerism, and transitional housing services.

Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Cooperative Ministry: The Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Cooperative Ministry (BCACM) is a specialized ministry of the South Carolina Conference that was established in 1966 to help facilitate the needs of persons living in Marlboro & Chesterfield counties of South Carolina in a shared ministry and vision. The churches that are affiliated with this ministry are Aaron Temple United Methodist Church, Bethel United Methodist Church, Ebenezer United Methodist Church, Level Green United Methodist Church, Mount Zion United Methodist Church, Old Galilee United Methodist Church, Shiloh United Methodist Church, Smyrna United Methodist Church, Saint Michael United Methodist Church, and Trinity United Methodist Church. The churches that are affiliated with the BCACM have a combined membership less than 2500. In the initial development of the BCACM, the churches had a vision that ministry could be enhanced through shared efforts. Thus, under the direction of the Sixty-Six Conference Board of Mission, and the leadership of Dr. John H. Graham, J.W. Curry, Jasper Smith, a team of conference ministers and a committee from the aforementioned churches, formed the BCACM.

The overall mission of the BCACM is to respond to the increasing call in our communities to continue to light the flame of hope by striving to build and sustain communities of character with youth, young adults, adults, and older adults who have high morality, integrity, and commitment to be leaders for the sake of the present and future generation. The BCACM seeks to minister to the family by educating and nurturing the whole person—physically, spiritually, mentally, morally, and ethically.

BCACM aims to be a beacon of light in a dismal world. We seek to spread HOPE for families in search of healing. The opportunities in which we provide by the grace of God are to strengthen, educate, guide, and enhance the whole family—an individual, a couple, or a family.

As the BCACM, our agency embraces the tenets of the United Methodist Church of making disciples for the transformation of the world by coordinating and developing workshops and seminars to empower our laity and clergy. The ministry continues to fulfill its mission by strengthening these churches in the areas of outreach, Christian education, and leadership development. Our programs and ministries focus on meeting the holistic needs of families. We strive to meet these needs via weekly bible study, prayer, workshops and seminars, school enrichment by partnering with Blenheim Elementary & Middle School, Clio Elementary & Middle School, and Bennettsville Middle School. In addition, we sponsor the Sacred Saturday (focusing on children & youth ages 5-11) and Tea Time with Teens (focusing on abstinence with 12-18 girls), VBS picnic and Back-to-School Bash, quarterly leadership trainings, health screenings, soup kitchen, food distribution, summer day camps, and flood buckets.

The BCACM also partners with the communities of Shalom to address inadequate home improvements, medical emergency, hunger and other social needs.

It is our belief that the BCACM is truly embodied in the principles and tenets of the connectional ministry of the South Carolina Conference and the United Methodist Church.

Bethlehem Community Center – Columbia: The Columbia Bethlehem Community Center is an historic multi-service agency now serving residents of the Riverview Terrace and Broad River Terrace communities in Columbia, South Carolina. VISION STATEMENT: We envision that the Columbia Bethlehem Community Center will be the premiere community center for children and families in the Midlands. MISSION STATEMENT: To educate and enrich the lives of individuals and families in the Midlands to help them achieve their own success. PROGRAMS: Afterschool: currently a partnership program with Riverside Apartment Community (Lucius Road) Summer Soapbox Derby: Summer Camp 2012; Introduction to mini -film production for children (Spring/Summer 2012).

Bethlehem Community Center – Spartanburg: The Center is a multi-service agency providing an array of programs to residents in Spartanburg County. The Center's day care facility has the capacity to serve 130 children between the ages of two and five. The outreach department facilitates client-centered referrals, provides emergency assistance with food, electrical, heating and rental payments as well as coordinates self-improvement focused programming and remedial academic GED preparation classes. The community services department provides numerous programs related to afterschool tutorial services, fine arts (dance, drama, piano lessons and art), sports and recreational activities, scouting, seasonal camping, primary prevention and leadership programs for community youth. Programming for adults includes Bible studies and fellowship, nutritional programs, sewing and craft classes. A computer lab is maintained for all program participants and community residents. The health clinic provides emergency, routine and preventive medical services to community residents.

The facility also is available to host other agency sponsored programs to serve the community. Financial and volunteer support for the program and services are needed.

Church and Community Workers Field Share: A salary support grant for Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Cooperative Ministries – Church and Community Workers are approved by the National Division, Board of Global Ministries.

Coastal Samaritan Counseling Center: Provides counseling, pastoral psychotherapy, education and consultation to individuals and families who are facing mental health crises. The agency works hand-in-hand with local churches to reach out to people in need. Fees for services are adjusted according to a client's income and the Center is dependent upon generous donations and grants to supplement these low-fee or indigent clients.

Interfaith Community Services, Inc.: Improving Child Nutrition, Safety and Literacy Interfaith Community Services works with faith and community partners to meet the needs of struggling families. We were founded 42 years ago by six downtown Columbia churches to be Columbia's first urban service center. Interfaith has been an Advanced Special Ministry for four decades. Our offices are located in St. Mark UMC in the Earlwood neighborhood of Columbia. We are partnering with St. Mark to work toward improving the lives of Section 8 residents in a nearby complex called Riverside Apartments. Our Mission is to convene, educate and coordinate faith and other community partners to build strong families and strong communities. Our Vision is a united faith community improving the quality of life in South Carolina by working together to build strong families and healthy thriving children. Our Guiding Principles: The faith traditions at the heart of Interfaith Community Services call us to love our neighbors as ourselves. This calls us to share the gifts and resources of this life justly, to work in partnership for the common good, and to provide an environment that promotes the development of everyone's strengths and skills. We practice honest and integrity in everything we do. We provide service in the spirit of unity and sincerity. These principles guide our work and inspire our mission Killingsworth Inc.: Killingsworth is a transition home for women in crisis. Our ministry is to support, empower, and advocate for women recovering from crisis within a safe, nurturing Christian environment. In addition to room and board, we offer counseling and education, spiritual development, job development and work support, life-skills training, and community re-orientation.

Rural Mission, Inc.: This is an ecumenical organization that provides human, spiritual and social services to low-income Sea Island residents and migrant workers. Through education, advocacy and outreach, Rural Mission provides a lifting hand – spiritually, emotionally, physically, and economically – whatever the need, ministering to anyone on the S.C. Sea Islands. To better meet the needs of our migrant children and families, the mission collaborates with outside agencies by networking their local migrant task force, schools, health and social services, and governmental agencies, as well as farm workers' organizations and local churches.

The Cooperative Ministry: Founded in 1982 The Cooperative Ministry is a unique ministry of the Midlands community created to serve as an instrument of God's love by providing a coordinated charitable response to assist those in need. We work hard to improve the quality of life for our clients by providing short-term assistance, counseling, prayer, and guidance to other available community resources. With a focus on cultural literacy and an ultimate goal of self-sufficiency, we work to address many of the root causes of poverty.

The Tracy Jackson Program of G.I.F.T. (General Instruction for Tomorrow): This is an ecumenical Christian mission providing children with food for the body, mind and spirit. It serves children during the summer months at sites located in Abbeville and Anderson Counties. All services are free. For the children's bodies it provides SCDSS approved lunch's weekdays and physical activities at each site. For the mind it provides games, activities, speakers and field trips that the children would not experience without the program. It also provides back-to-school supplies to program children. For the spirit the sites are led by caring Christian people. Some sites have Bible Study and all sites say grace.

United Methodist Volunteers in Mission: Its mission is to provide opportunities for South Carolinians to get personally involved in short-term mission projects at home and abroad. Its services include construction, medical care, education, agriculture and supportive services.

United Ministries of Greenville: The United Ministries is an extension of the servant ministry of cooperating congregations in Greenville County. United Ministries assists poor people in emerging from hurting situations by providing for basic needs and by creating environments that allow people to make positive changes. United Ministries has developed a process for helping people move from basic survival to self-reliance. The process includes: Survival (Emergency Assistance – help with rent, utilities, food, heat, medicine; Place of Hope – a day shelter for homeless people; and Travelers Aid), Stabilization (Transitions – helping families access public services; and Adopt-A-House – rehabilitation for low/moderate income homeowners), and Barrier Removal (Employment Readiness – helping find, get and keep jobs; Magdalene Project – working with women who are homeless, addicts, pregnant or prostitutes; and Life Skills – teaching basic skills for health and responsible living.)

Wallace Family Life Center: This is a family-oriented facility whose mission is to provide educational, cultural, recreational, and religious programs to enrich the lives of the people in the Wallace community.

CONFERENCE HOMES

ALDERSGATE SPECIAL NEEDS MINISTRY

“My People will live in peaceful dwelling places, in secure homes, in undisturbed places of rest.” Isaiah 32:18

Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry, a ministry established and supported by the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, continues to grow stronger as it develops additional ways to care for adult persons with special needs. The homes provide a place where residents live in a loving Christian environment, overseen by a dedicated professional staff. Our mission is to provide the highest quality of life with the greatest level of independence, within the context of a faith-based residential setting. These homes provide life skills training and work experiences along with daily living skills, cooking, laundry, self-help, social and recreational experiences and Sunday connections to worshipping communities.

The two homes already in operation are Aldersgate Builders Care Home, 731 Sims Avenue, near the campus of Epworth Children’s Home in Columbia and Aldersgate at The Oaks, 921 Methodist Oaks Drive, Orangeburg. The Columbia Home is “home” for six young women. There is a waiting list. Aldersgate at The Oaks is “home” for four young men with space for two additional residents.

During the fall of 2011 the Columbia Home suffered extensive damage due to flooding from torrential rains. We thank the volunteers who gave time and expertise to help restore the residence, to churches and individuals who contributed monetary gifts and to all who continue to pray for this ministry. The house is restored and the young women are enjoying being “back at home”!

As there is a growing need for homes in South Carolina, our vision is to expand ALDERSGATE to meet this need. Help this vision come into reality with your prayers and your gifts to build and maintain additional homes and to provide a residents assistance fund.

For more information or to refer persons who may need our services you may visit Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry at the Conference website: www.umcsc.org

August 12, 2012 is designated by our Conference as Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry Sunday. We encourage every church to celebrate ASNM by receiving an offering. Information and brochures are available from the Conference office. Persons are ready to come to your church or group meeting to help you know more about ALDERSGATE. We thank the churches, organizations, classes and individuals for their generous gifts during the past year.

We thank all volunteers who help to carry out the work of ALDERSGATE, the Board of Trustees, the staff in each home, and the Parents and Guardians of our residents. Their tireless efforts enable the men and women of ALDERSGATE to “live in peaceful dwelling places, secure homes and undisturbed places of rest.”

EPWORTH CHILDREN’S HOME

Epworth Children’s Home has completed 116 years of providing residential care for children from South Carolina who cannot remain in their own homes.

The primary goal of this annual conference mission is to provide a safe, nurturing, faith centered residential environment, where children who are not able to remain in their homes, receive the best possible care and are prepared to lead wholesome and productive lives.

During this conference year Epworth Children's Home:

- I. Continued to implement the CARE (Children and Residential Experience: creating conditions for change) model developed by the Cornell University Residential Care Project. This research based curriculum is based upon six underlying principles that form good residential group care. The Cornell University Residential Care team continues to train and observe our staff members at regular intervals.

The CARE research and implementation team from Cornell University once again visited the Epworth campus and during that visit commended Epworth for being a "star" CARE program, and congratulated staff members for excellent work with the CARE model.
- II. Completed Phase III of the Residential Services outcomes project. The Residential Services Outcomes Project is a research project that is sponsored by the Duke Endowment and implemented by researchers from the University of North Carolina – Charlotte. The goal of this research is to implement a successful outcomes strategy in selected agencies in North and South Carolina in order to strengthen the system of care for children and youth, and to enhance the quality of programs and services.
- III. Averaged 76 children per day in the residential population plus had a record number of 10 college students who live off campus. In addition, the Epworth Early Intervention Program averaged 18 children per week in a preschool program. This program serves children who experience developmental delays. The EEIC program also served 46 families on a regular basis through its home based component. This is a total of 150 children served at any given time.
- IV. Began year five of a Funds Development Plan that includes the goal of increasing per church member giving to a minimum of $6.00 per member. Church giving decreased by $142,357 in 2010 and then increased by 72,868 in 2011. The number of churches that failed to respond to Epworth's financial appeals for children increased remained at 248. 325 churches met or exceeded the minimum of six dollars per member average. This is an increase of 3 from 2010. A complete report can be located at www.epworthchildreshome.org.
- V. Changed the fiscal year from an October through September year to a January through December calendar year. Adopted a budget of $4,755,656 for the fiscal year 1-1-12 through 12-31-12. This includes $90,000 in Title I funds, and a grant from Richland County of $45,000 for the Independent Living Initiative.
- VI. Continued the work of the Early Intervention Funds Committee that is charged with raising the amount of money each year that will enable the EEIC to operate at its current capacity. The amount raised as of March 1, 2012 was $279,270 which insures the programs operation through December of 2012.
- VII. The Epworth Board of Trustees continued the policy of reducing the amount drawn from the endowment and transferred to budget expenditures by $200,000 each year until the maximum draw is 5% per year. The difference in the amount drawn from the endowment and operating costs has to date been covered by a combination of reducing operating costs and by increasing revenue and donations. The endowment draw has been reduced by $1,100,000 per year.
- VIII. Epworth Children's Home continues to be accredited by EAGLE Accreditation Commission of the United Methodist Association. The EAGLE accreditation is effective for the period of five (5) years, July 2010 through July 2015.

The United Methodist Association serves more than 380 health and human service organizations and professionals nationwide. The Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading toward Excellence or EAGLE accreditation involves meeting a set of high standards that are designed to enhance the governance of and the quality of services provided by an institution.
- IX. Continued to expand the Higher Education Program by adding resources to the Supervised Independent Living Initiative. This new program is designed to serve youth between the ages of seventeen (17) and twenty-one (21) who are "aging out" of child care, yet need limited supervision, guidance and a home as they learn job skills and transition into the adult world.
- X. The annual independent audit was conducted by the firm of DeLoach and Williamson, LLP. The auditors reported to the Epworth Board of Trustees that the audit was an unqualified or "clean" audit which is the highest level of reporting assurance an organization can receive from its independent auditors. The audit was unlimited in scope which signifies the auditors had full access to Epworth's books and records.

The audit reflected: there was an increase in net assets of $538,012. Overall revenues increased slightly from 2010 totals. Investment income decreased and legacies and bequests increased. Expenses decreased by $100,000 when compared to 2010 figures.

- XI. Emphasized witness and service through church school, worship, retreats, UMYF, the Good News Bible Club, cottage devotionals and service projects. Residents of Epworth are expected to give as well as receive therefore they participate not only in campus services but also in off campus projects such as Salkahatchie Summer Service, Harvest Hope Food Bank, Washington Street UMC Soup Kitchen and Homeworks.
- XII. Opened a new mastery based online charter school on campus for high school students. This is a small supervised school where students who may be in danger of not completing high school have the opportunity to earn a diploma through individualized instruction and self paced learning.

23% of Epworth's income is generated from a combination of state and federal money, and fees for service payments. This is far lower than most other homes. It is largely through the generosity of South Carolina United Methodist that once again Epworth has been able to provide over four million dollars in fully subsidized services to children and families in South Carolina.

THE METHODIST OAKS

Mission Statement

Our mission is to provide superior retirement living Continuing Care and a working environment that nourishes the human spirit and preserves personal dignity by addressing the whole person in an atmosphere which witnesses Christian Values and love.

The Oaks was established in 1953 and opened with the first ten residents in 1954 at its main campus just south of Orangeburg, SC. Today, the Oaks serves more than 500 residents and clients on its main campus, at its PACE facility in Orangeburg and in the greater Orangeburg community. On the main campus, the Oaks provides several active Independent Living options, Assisted Living and Skilled Nursing Care as well as Rehabilitative Services. As the retirement environment has changed, The Oaks has expanded its services and where and how it provides them.

The Program of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) provides holistic medical and health-related care to poor, frail, elderly clients in the greater Orangeburg community and is operated in a modern day facility located at 153 Founders Court, Orangeburg, SC. Senior Solutions and Live at Home Technologies provide services that improve quality of life and allow clients to stay in their homes and communities longer and more independently than they would be able to on their own.

On campus, The Oaks offers many activities that nourish residents and clients physically, mentally and spiritually. These activities are now available to the community through the Passport to The Oaks, which allows these clients to participate in activities and use facilities such as the swimming pool and fitness center. Senior Solutions and Live at Home Technologies are also available on campus, allowing residents to stay in the Independent Living and Assisted Living options longer. As part of the Oaks broader Christian mission, space and support have been provided for the first Aldersgate Home in South Carolina. Aldersgate Special Needs Ministry is a ministry of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church that provides residence and support for adults with developmental disabilities. The Oaks site provides for 6 male residents.

The Oaks is a 501 (c) (3) corporation, which is a not for profit charitable and religious organization. It is directed by the Oaks Board of Trustees which is a twenty-one member board consisting mainly of South Carolina United Methodist clergy and laity. Each board member is qualified before being asked to serve, resulting in each member bringing particular skills to benefit The Oaks. The Board of Trustees is committed to the mission of The Oaks and works closely with the Chief Executive Officer and his staff to look strategically at The Oaks' future. The Board of Trustees, Executive Committee and Finance Committee meet at least quarterly to monitor the status and review the direction of The Oaks. There are sub-committees of the board that meet regularly throughout the year ranging from committees that consider services offered to board governance issues. In addition, annual planning sessions are held with the Board of Trustees and executive and senior staff to determine the future direction of The Oaks.

As the retirement environment and the needs of those individuals who are served continue to change, The Oaks will remain committed to its ministry and mission and provide new and innovative services to do so. If you are not already familiar with The Oaks, we invite you to contact us, visit our facilities and find out more about our services.

Andy Cox, Chairman of Board of Trustees

WESLEY COMMONS

Thank you for your interest in our wonderful mission at Wesley Commons.

Fiscal Year ending 2011 marked another year of continued accomplishment for Wesley Commons during very difficult times. We are proud to report that our Ministry of CARE and Vision of the Future remains as vibrant and solid as ever before. Our continued success is built on the solid foundation of our mission which is to enrich lives by providing innovative living opportunities in accord with Christian principles. That is only possible through the support of our wonderful employees who live and breathe that charge every day at Wesley Commons.

Even in these turbulent times, Wesley Commons continues to be a blessed organization as evidenced by the stability of our programs, stewardship and support. For the past several years, Wesley Commons has been involved in a cycle of planning, building and growing our campus into a regionally recognized leader in retirement living. While we are very proud of our accomplishments, we find ourselves, once again, on the precipice of a new journey. One that sees a future radically different due to significant economic, regulatory and consumer shifts.

This year has been laden with many challenges which have tested our resolve. Yet, through determination, ingenuity, and keeping our focus on our core Mission, we have stayed the course. The negative indicators of our economy in both the financial and housing markets have had an impact on our Future Residents. In some cases individuals had to pass up their available position on our waiting list to move into Wesley Commons as a result of such issues. This challenge did result in negative pressure with campus occupancy. The reduction in occupancy was offset through continued retooling of our offerings and increased efficiencies of our operations. To assist our Future Residents and to enable better protection from the pain of this turn down, we continue to design new options to enable them to make the right choice.

As our consumer demand and expectations have continued to evolve, we have also adapted our offerings. As the economy has ebbed and flowed, we have fine-tuned our operations. Wesley Commons is known to be a community of great value and superb offerings. We strive every day to keep that balance and market awareness.

Wesley Commons has remained true to our vision of value in our field of service. We remain focused on our goal to be desired by many and affordable to most. This very difficult target takes great and constant efforts by management to ensure our offerings are of greater value as compared to our competitors across the Southeast. We validate our value offerings continuously through direct comparisons to several communities across the region. Pricing and affordability to those we serve remains a solid element of our success. We are able to maintain this position in the market through our ongoing focus of strong stewardship.

This effort has positioned Wesley Commons in an extremely favorable position as occupancy improves relative to the Southeast's real estate position. This stewardship has not only positioned Wesley Commons on more stable footing than others, it has also allowed our 40 year history of supporting those in need to continue.

We remain humbled and honored to be reminded of our most important asset and blessing; our employees. God is good and has provided Wesley Commons with a wonderful team of dedicated and Mission oriented individuals, who pleasantly and compassionately serve our residents day in and day out.

Currently, we have begun an awesome task of preparing our employees for our next major advancement in our Mission. Our leadership team is poised to redesign how we deliver exceptional services to both our current and future customers. We envision a campus which is based upon delivering much more individually focused service and support in a residential setting, as opposed to the current institutional standard prevalent in our Country.

We recognize the fact and accept the charge to lead Wesley Commons into a new day of advanced services and offerings which remain highly regarded and conservatively priced. In doing so, we hope for a day which our vision of care and service can spread to others seeking a better way. We acknowledge and appreciate the support that the Conference provides to our ministry.

In the service of others,

David B. Buckshorn, President/CEO*

CONFERENCE RELATED COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

CLAFLIN UNIVERSITY

In its 142nd year, Claflin University launched the 2011-2012 academic year with a record enrollment and the prospect of another highly successful year of collaborative and strategic efforts to move the University to higher levels of recognition and distinction from a global perspective.

Undergirded by the triumvirate of teaching, research and service, the University's enrollment reached an all-time high of 1961 students from 29 states and Washington, D.C. and 16 foreign countries. These students are engaged with a faculty and staff devoted and determined to ensure their success in their chosen field of study.

Led by the dynamic leadership of its eighth president Dr. Henry N. Tisdale, Claflin University had reasons to celebrate significant achievements during the year. Claflin received reaffirmation of accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. A key component of the reaffirmation process was the institution's presentation of its Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) titled "Panther STEPS: Students In Transition Engaged and Preparing for Success." The plan targets students in their initial year of matriculation and furnishes them with a strong foundation of skills and competencies necessary to complete their college degrees and be productive, successful citizens competing in a global society.

Claflin continued to be recognized by U.S. News and World Report as one of the "Best Liberal Arts Colleges" in the nation. In its 2012 edition, the publication ranked Claflin number one in annual alumni giving. Claflin's rate of 43 percent topped the nation's historically black colleges and universities. In that same report, Claflin was reclassified from the South Region and all its rankings are now based nationally. Only four other institutions in South Carolina are ranked national liberal arts colleges by the publication.

Claflin University continued to gain national recognition for advancements in research. Claflin biology professor, Dr. Nicholas Panasik, was awarded the prestigious National Science Foundation Faculty Early Career Development Award, which includes a grant of $750,000.

International exposure was achieved for the University on the Fox News Channel, New York. In his "Beyond the Dream" segment featured on the "America's News Headquarters" newscast, reporter Kelly Wright, over the course of the year, aired segments on the University. The segments ranged from the visionary leadership of President Tisdale to the University's Leadership Development Center and Honor's College and to the national accomplishments of distinguished alumni photographer and civil rights activist Cecil Williams and artist Dr. Leo Twiggs.

The spiritual life of the University remained vigorous. Claflin continued to hold weekly one-hour worship services on Sunday mornings. The worship service consists of music from the Claflin University Gospel Choir and inspirational messages delivered by members of the ministerial staff from area United Methodist Churches as well as other denominations.

As Claflin continues to value and preserve its connection to the United Methodist Church, the University held the 20th Anniversary of the Granville Hicks Leadership Academy for Laity and Clergy. The theme for this special University two-day event was "The Church as a Model for Ethical Leadership for Our Nation." The Rev. Granville Hicks, after whom the academy is named, delivered the keynote message at one of the luncheons. Another keynote speaker was Dr. Walter E. Fluker, Boston University professor, lecturer, and author who also was the founding executive director of the Leadership Center and the Coca-Cola Professor of Leadership Studies at Morehouse College in Atlanta, Ga.

As the leadership of Claflin University works to make a strong university stronger, the public phase of the University's most ambitious Capital Campaign was launched. With a goal of $96.4 million, "The Campaign for Claflin University: Imagine the Possibilities" focuses on areas most critical to the institution's future advancement, including financial aid and scholarships for outstanding students, facilities enhancements, and support for building nationally accredited academic programs.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

Throughout 2011 Columbia College continued to honor our United Methodist Heritage through academic programs, outreach, and chapel.

A new academic program established through a pilot last year and included as a requirement going forward from this fall is the R. Wright Spears C2lt sophomore experience. C2lt builds on Columbia College's highly successful First Year Experience and strengthens college-wide efforts to integrate leadership into the curriculum. Our leadership developmental model is a four-year plan built upon the Four C's: Courage, Commitment, Confidence, and Competence.

At Columbia College, leadership is described as the difference each person can make in the world so, we call our second year experience, C2lt . We believe that our students can “see to it” that they can make such a difference through a sense of social responsibility, service experiences, and rigorous academic and community discourse.

The second year is dedicated to the ideal that as students “see to it,” they are prepared to access issues of social justice, cooperate in bringing about change, celebrate community, and prepare for making life choices and life commitments. The major components of the second year plan are:

- Second Year Course: Incorporating service-learning in LA 201 (an existing course targeted for second year students entitled Liberal Arts 201: Diversity, Gender, and Social Justice).
- Second Year Launch: The day before classes begin in the fall, second year students meet for a rally and activity day. They meet with their LA 201 classmates and instructors (called navigators), visit their service sites, and begin the group identity process.
- SpearsFest: A celebration held in the spring semester in cooperation with existing Fun Day showcasing the commitment of the second year class and service learning on campus.
- Monthly Vocation Seminars: Second year students will be targeted for attendance at a series of seminars given on a regular basis each month during which students begin building a commitment to lifelong study and dedication to a life of service and professional development.

The C2lt year connects students to our mission via service-learning and vocational discourse. Faculty navigators serve as instructors of the course, guides for the service project, and mentors of vocational decision making. Our plan is named for a past president of the College, Dr. R. Wright Spears, whose integrity and vision led the college through integration and a catastrophic fire which destroyed a significant part of the campus.

Outreach to the South Carolina Conference has continued with the Reverend Roy Mitchell, chaplain and director of church relations, filling pulpits across the state numerous times and supporting many Conference and congregational events. A schedule of spring chapel services and a description of religious life from the Columbia College webpage are attached to this report.

The spring semester of 2011 included a visit by our SACS accreditation team. On campus for the 10-year review of the college’s academic programs, financial condition, and governance structures, the team was clearly pleased with what they found since Columbia College received a full ten-year continuation of accreditation with no follow up visits or reports required.

The college continued to celebrate awards and recognition by our students, faculty, staff, and alumnae. Last spring as a result of Professor Lynne Noble’s having been named a Fulbright Scholar Columbia College signed an agreement with the Mongolian State University of Education for a five-year term of cooperation, shared research, and exchange of both faculty and students. This means that, among other activities, six Mongolian educators will travel to Columbia in June for two weeks filled with English practice, teaching collaboration and cultural exchange. In the spring of 2011 several Columbia College visitors joined Dr. Noble at different times in Mongolia, including education majors Nicole Hill and Laura Miller, who completed a practicum at the American School of Ulaanbaatar. In addition, Dr. Mary Steppling, who heads the education division at Columbia College, and Susanne Brown, director of the teacher education program, and President Caroline Whitson made the trip to meet Mongolian colleagues and take steps toward coordinating the exchange agreement.

In March Dr. Jason Munsell and three Communication students attended the Southern States Communication Association conference in Little Rock, Arkansas. The three students, Diana Lynde, Juliette Brown, and Donna Tillis presented papers at the Theodore Clevenger Undergraduate Honors Conference associated with SSCA. Diana Lynde received the Top Paper award of over 150 submissions from around the country.

Also in March five students, three faculty members, and one alumna attended the Sigma Tau Delta English Honor Society Conference in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Columbia College was recognized as having submitted the most books to the Sigma Tau Delta/Better World Books book drive. In addition, Lateshia Beachum, an alumna, was recognized for her paper “Uncle Ruckus, Black-White Supremacy, Self-Hatred, and The Boondocks,” which won the top prize in the category of papers on popular culture.

This fall Professor Kyle Love was honored at the 2011 National Communication Association’s annual conference in New Orleans, LA, with the Hobgood Distinguished Service to Communication Centers Award. The award is presented to the person who has made the greatest contribution to the support and/or promotion of communication centers, the Communication Centers section of the National Communication Association, and the profession during her or his career. Professor Love is also a past recipient of the Preston Leadership Award. She has served as head of the National Association of Communication Centers, and as chair of the Communication Centers section of NCA. She is director of oral communication for Columbia College's Pearce Communication Center, where she directs the Pearce Communication Lab. Professor Love also won the top panel award for the Communication Centers section of NCA; she has won this award three of the last four years.

During the summer we continued facility upgrades with significant renovations to Asbury Hall, the first-year residence for all Columbia College students. In the spring of 2011 the college began a major transformation of the hall into a first-year living and learning center. Renovation thus far has included beautification of the main entry, formal lounge, and two residential wings. Still to be accomplished are renovation of the north wing and of the lower lounge.

Finally, in October I announced my plan to retire effective June 30, 2012, following 11 years at the college. A search committee has been formed and their expectation is to recommend a candidate to the Board of Trustees by early April.

SPARTANBURG METHODIST COLLEGE

SMC started this academic year with its centennial birthday celebration on September 5, 2011!!! 100 years ago, Rev. David English Camak, in partnership with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South and later with the General Board of Global Ministries and the South Carolina Annual Conference began the Textile Industrial Institute on the corner of Farley and Brawley Streets in Spartanburg. From there, SMC moved to the west side of Spartanburg and grew into one of the strongest two-year liberal arts colleges in the nation. That status has not changed in 100 years. We are pleased to share with you the following updates that will serve to underscore our strength:

- Fundraising Campaign: "Pioneering the Future: The Centennial Campaign for Spartanburg Methodist College" continues in its quiet phase and is nearing the half-way mark toward its $15 million goal. The centerpiece of the campaign is the College's newest academic building in nearly 50 years: Edgar H. Ellis, Jr. Hall, named in honor of SMC Alumni Rev. Dr. Edgar H. Ellis (SJC). Ellis Hall will open in October 2012. The cost of the building is $12 million.
- Enrollment: SMC continued its record high enrollment in Fall 2011, welcoming 803 students to campus. We continue to venture into the on-line world, including the use of social media, and have added more new approaches in our recruitment efforts. As a result, we have realized a record 5,462 (and rising every week) inquiries for Fall 2012 admission. This compares to 2,793 for all of the Fall 2011 recruitment season.
- Success Rate: Our success rate, defined as students who begin their college career at SMC and then continue on beyond SMC, continues to exceed that of other two-year colleges at 84.7%. Even more impressive is the outstanding work we do with two different minority populations: African-American students (success rate = 79%) and Hispanic student (success rate = 91%).
- Academic Program: SMC launched two new degree programs this year: the Associate of Business degree and the Associate of Fine Arts degree. This brings the total number of degree programs up to six. We continue to maintain very strong articulation agreements with a long list of 4-year colleges and are proud of the seamless transfer opportunities our students have.
- Athletics: Pioneer athletics never disappoints our fans! Our cross-country program went to its national competition this year and is currently ranked 10th in the nation! Our soccer program (both women's and men's) won their regional competitions. We are looking for outstanding performance in our Winter and Springs sports as well this year. Over 350 student-athletes attend SMC, and in the past three years, a student-athlete has been named the Outstanding Graduate at the College's annual commencement.
- Commitment to Service and Worship: Under the continued leadership of Rev. Candice Sloan, Chaplain of the College and Director of Church Relations, weekly daytime chapel services are both creative and well-attended. Rev. Sloan also offers tremendous support and direction for our very popular Thursday evening service called "Overflow," which is a student-led service. In addition, Rev. Sloan spearheads the College's service opportunities, beginning with a Freshman Day of Service in August. The SMC campus community provides over 5,000 hours of service to the greater Spartanburg community every year.

- Centennial Celebration: In celebration of our 100th birthday, SMC held a campus-wide birthday party complete with a replica of the campus in cake form! The birthday party was preceded earlier in the day by the Fall Convocation, which featured SMC entrepreneur, philanthropist and business leader Mr. Jimmy I. Gibbs as the featured speaker.

We offer you, the members of the Annual Conference, our continued gratitude for your faithful support. For 100 years, as evidenced by our success, we know that the hand of God has been visible in our work. We are pleased to be in the second century of a blessed partnership with you.

Respectfully submitted,

Colleen Perry Keith, Ph.D. President of the College

WOFFORD COLLEGE

Wofford College usually gets its share of time in the national spotlight, but we are particularly proud this year of such distinctions as a listing in the Princeton Review “Best Value Colleges for 2012;” a selection as one of 40 “Great Schools, Great Prices” in U.S. News & World Report; and recognition as one of Kiplinger’s “Best Values in Private Colleges.”

Value is not always an easy concept to measure, but here are some reasons that Wofford scores high in this kind of benchmarking:

- A focused mission statement “to be a liberal arts college of superior quality,” and cost-effective programming that makes sense. For example, The Center for Community and Global Engagement (administered by our Perkins-Prothro Chaplain, Dr. Ron Robinson) emphasizes (1) Educational Opportunity; (2) Energy and the Environment; (3) Health and Healthy Living; (4) Poverty Reduction and Alleviation; and (5) Diversity and Pluralism.
- We have an effective enrollment management and advising strategy. Wofford’s most recent six-year graduation rate exceeded 83 percent, compared to the national average of 57 percent.
- We have one of the most robust learning outcomes “assessment for improvement” programs in the nation, and there is daily emphasis on conscientious budget management.
- As a nationally recognized “great college to work for,” we cultivate long-term relationships with faculty and staff who are passionate about student learning and who relate comfortably to others in the campus community.
- We take pride in an effective, individualized financial aid program that keeps the college accessible to a wide range of deserving students.

United Methodists remain the largest denominational group in the Wofford student body. Considering our average financial aid package last year was $27,149, Methodist students received more than $7 million through the financial aid office in 2011-2012. Support from the Senior College Scholarship Fund is a cornerstone of that effort. We appreciate that support and put it to good use as part of financial aid packages for United Methodist leaders of the future.

Katy Tamblyn is a junior at Wofford from Charleston, S.C., where she and her parents, Tommy and Leigh Tamblyn, are members of Grace United Methodist Church. A certified Lay Speaker, she was active in youth and musical groups in high school, and made two mission trips. She is active in several student organizations at Wofford, but her focus is on her major in religion and her pre-ministerial interests. “I definitely feel a higher calling,” Tamblyn says. “I am looking at Methodist seminaries — Duke and Candler at Emory — and I’d like to start out in youth ministry. Wofford has been a great fit for me. It has helped me to foster my love for my faith community and my interest in a Christian vocation.”

Another Methodist pre-ministerial student, sophomore Rob Levin of Mount Pleasant, S.C., is the son of Greg and Jenni Levin. “Wofford is a good fit for me because of the small class sizes,” Levin says. “Most of my classes here are capped at around 15 students. This gives me the opportunity to discuss class topics every day rather than having only an opportunity to listen. Dialogue is vitally important to a student of religion, and Methodists always have treasured human experience and rational thinking along with scripture.”

Young men and women like Katy Tamblyn and Rob Levin are the reasons that I believe the world is a better place because of Wofford College, past, present and future. Our vocation is to do good in this world without making any special fuss, sharing what we have with others and finding joy in doing so every day.

CONFERENCE WESLEY FOUNDATIONS AND FELLOWSHIPS

THE CHARLESTON WESLEY FOUNDATION

Charleston Wesley Foundation was reminded this fall that we serve a wounded healer. We lost one of our Citadel members in November. It was the faithful prayers of those who love us that got us through that dark valley. It was the well-wishes, calls and emails from our sister Wesley Foundation directors, members and alumni across the state that held us up when we were too shocked and grief-ridden to stand. It was the gift of presence of our Charleston Wesley Foundation board members that gave us the strength to carry on through darkness and back into the light. The Wounded Healer through our campus ministry family held us tight as we watched the storm of life go by. Praise God! Josh, we miss you but we know beyond a shadow of a doubt that you have found the peace you so desperately sought. As we enter into our eleventh year of ministry our prayers remain with our troops and their families as the conflict in Iraq and Afghanistan continue. We are especially mindful of our alumni who serve in the military, Jonathon Lance, Matthew Williams, Anthony Reynolds, Christopher Waldrop, Jeff Throckmorton, Rachel Rogers, Ben Risher and Bill Houpt. May God continue to keep you and your families!

Our alumni in the ministry continue to make us so proud, Aaron Meadows, Mallory Forte and Justin Ritter. Aaron Meadows, an elder in full connection of this conference is serving Aldersgate UMC in the Charleston district and as a chaplain on the Charleston Air Force base. Aaron, also, serves as Vice chairperson of the Charleston Wesley Foundation Board. Mallory Forte is now a certified candidate serving First UMC and as an associate of Lancaster UMC in Rock Hill district. Justin Ritter has been accepted at Candler School of Theology, Emory University for the fall of 2012 class.

Our four campuses here in Charleston continue to thrive. Bethel UMC-Charleston continues to be the home of our College of Charleston programming. Thank you for your awesome support and faith in us. The CSU group continues to be in transition as we build a new family faith there.

Our ministry at MUSC is now as a conduit for connecting those adults to the various young adult ministries at our local churches. Citadel continues to be our largest group with a weekly average between 20–50 members at the gathering.

Charleston Wesley Foundation in Mission had another busy year. We sponsored an adolescent in the Halos holiday-giving event. The College of Charleston and the Citadel prepared and sent 17 Operation Christmas Child boxes in November. Our Mission weekend with Winthrop Wesley Foundation at Rural Mission was a blessed time of Christian love in action. Charleston Wesley Foundation was one of the organizing groups for the Charleston area Crop Walk in November. We created signs, paced the walking path and assisted with the giveaways. Justin Ritter, College of Charleston, attend Exploration where he was both inspired and blessed. In January of 2012 Charleston Wesley Foundation spearheaded the SC student delegation attending the Holston Conference College event called Divine Rhythm. Students from Furman and Winthrop joined us as we crossed conference lines to worship, learn and serve with our brothers and sisters from the Wesley fellowships/foundations of Tennessee. Participating in the Stop Hunger Now event was an eye-opening, informative and rewarding experience. Charleston Wesley Foundation and Bethel UMC co-sponsor the Beware of Christian group in October. It was well-attended and received. Thank you, John and Paula Altman for your vision and leadership.

To the beloved churches of the Charleston district, thank you for another year of unwavering support in gifts of food, time, finances but most of all prayer. Trinity UMC - Charleston, thank you for yet another year of selflessly giving us physical space and office support. As our college students say, "you rock"! Much gratitude goes to the Charleston Wesley Foundation Board of Directors for your endless support and faithful giving of your time and talents. As always we are so grateful to all of the prayerful, generous churches of the Charleston District and of the South Carolina Conference for your unceasing prayers and continuing support. We thank God for you daily.

Lisa C. Hawkins, Campus minister

CLEMSON WESLEY FOUNDATION

My years at Clemson UMC (CUMC) and Clemson Wesley (CW) have been exciting, challenging, and very rewarding. I continue to be inspired by the members of CUMC and their deep love for students, and my wife, Anne, and I continue to be amazed by the spiritual maturity of those students who call CW and/or CUMC "home."

All ministries of CW are initiated and executed through our 24-person Joel Team, a student leadership team and sets the larger vision and direction for the overall ministry. Our programming typically falls into one of five different categories: Worship, Small Groups, Retreats, Mission and Social.

Worship

Because of our belief in the power of the Word and sacrament to transform lives and build Christian community, worship is the central focus for student ministry. Every week through phone calls, emails, and visits students are encouraged to participate in weekly worship. This year we have averaged 94 students at CW's main gathering of the week, Evensong, which is held on Sunday nights. In addition, an average of 60 students have attended one of CUMC's two weekly services on Sunday morning. In total we see an estimated average of 137 different students at one of the three Sunday worship services at CUMC each week.

This spring we have added a new mid-week worship opportunity in the hopes of reaching a new group of students. Eventide is held on Wednesday nights at our Student Center in downtown Clemson and involves 90 minutes of music and Bible study. We are excited about the evolution of Eventide as we look forward to the fall of 2012.

Small Groups

In the spirit of John Wesley and the early Methodists, small groups play a vital role in the overall life of CW. This academic year CW has sponsored 8 student-led Bible study groups, with over 80 different students meeting weekly for study, prayer, accountability and encouragement. In addition to these groups, other short-term groups were offered, including a Couples Discussion group for students dating seriously or talking about marriage. It is apparent from comments made by students that the time spent in these groups is essential and a highlight of their college experience and spiritual growth.

Retreats

Retreats continue to play an important role in reaching new students and helping others to grow in their faith. This fall a group of 60 students went rafting on the first weekend of school, and our Mountain Weekend to Asbury Hills this winter involved 45 participants. Typically, more than 150 different students participate in one of the three to four retreats that CW sponsors each academic year.

Mission

Missions – locally, regionally, and globally – continue to play an important role in helping students put their faith into action. Highlights this past year include a fall mission trip to Tuscaloosa, AL (45 participants), and two spring break trips to Los Angeles and Joplin, MO (20 and 45 participants, respectively). In early May, CW anticipates sending another strong group to New Orleans as we collaborate with other Wesley groups across the Conference.

While these mission trips and short-term missionary experiences tell much of the story, CW has also been in mission in other ways. Students continue to serve God and their neighbor through assisting local ministries like Habitat for Humanity, Crop Walk, Dance Marathon and Clemson Community Care and doing volunteer work for the elderly and homeless throughout our campuses and greater community.

Social

One final key component to the overall student ministry is the social and fellowship opportunities that are offered. Every year a number of opportunities for students are offered including Welcome Back Luncheons, Pre- or Post-game Tailgates, Thursdays Men's Breakfast, Welcome Back Cookout, Trick or Treat for Canned goods, Christmas Drop In and College Graduate Recognition Dinner.

Other Reflections

In total, the combined efforts of CW and CUMC will result in connections with over 900 different students this academic year, with well over one-half of these students being active in either CW, CUMC or both. With nearly 24,000 students in the area (representing Clemson University, Tri-County and Southern Wesleyan University), our goal remains to reach at least 5% of this population, or approximately 1,200 different students each year.

I continue to be inspired by the number of students who have made the decision to serve God with their lives, both in ordained, full-time and lay capacities. Over the last ten years 15 alums have entered the ordained ministry and dozens of others are serving God, the Church and the world in other full-time ways.

I give thanks to God for the opportunity to serve the Church through the ministry of CW and CUMC and for the gift of wonderful colleagues and lay members throughout the area and Conference who have been so supportive of our efforts over the years.

Rev. C. Lane Glaze, Director, Campus Minister

COLUMBIA WESLEY FOUNDATION- METHODIST STUDENT NETWORK

The reign of God is breaking in upon us, even now, Jesus proclaimed. As people are healed, the good news proclaimed, the captives set free and the blind made to see, the reality of God's healing, reconciling and transforming power is manifest in our midst. The reign of God is breaking into the lives of students at the University of South Carolina and into the campus ministry called the Methodist Student Network (Wesley Foundation) as we worship, serve each other and especially the "least of these", learn about the mysteries of faith, offer hospitality, work for justice and work for the full realization of God's rule. The Methodist Student Network is a Pentecost community of faith comprised of students from many faith traditions, ethnicities, nationalities, socio-economic backgrounds. It is a community striving to be hospitable to all regardless of background, language, sexual orientation or maturity of faith. We are young, very imperfect but passionate about the spiritual life and are intentional about living it out in practical and faithful ways. These are some of the signs of the reign of God breaking in among us.

We serve on eight occasions as a ministry each week. We go daily to the Washington Street Soup Cellar to pour tea, serve food, entertain through music and offer words of encouragement. We tutor and mentor each week after school at St. Lawrence Place, a program for at risk, latch key children. We work particularly with Hispanic children at BC Grammar School to help them with their English and general studies and we weekly assist West Metro Hispanic Ministry with ESL for adults and caring for the children. Additionally we serve on many other occasions and contexts such as Epworth's Children's' Home, the Tucker Center, the Winter Shelter and Transitions.

We are in mission a number of times each year. This past year we took five different mission trips to demonstrate and share the gospel in word and deed. We took groups to serve on these occasions for various lengths of time to Harlem (New York City), Tuscaloosa (Alabama) and Guntersville (Alabama) doing tornado relief work, Rural Mission on John's Island and Pastocalle, Ecuador.

About 55 students gather in small groups throughout the week support one another and to learn more about their faith. This year Shane Claiborne's "Irresistible Revolution" and Henri Nouwen's "Reaching Out" have focused our study and faith growth. This year we held four retreats to allow students more time for building the community and intentionally connecting with God.

We worship Sunday evening in a lively and joyous manner utilizing the various gifts of students and a diversity of traditions from the global church. Afterwards we eat together a meal donated by a local United Methodist church or prepared by our students. Weekly we gather for contemplative prayer believing that silence is fertile soil for cultivating God's presence.

The Campus Ministry Center is a place of hospitality where many students gather to socialize, eat, study and meet to talk. It is also home to other groups and ministries.

Sincere thanks to all the people and churches that support this connectional ministry. This ministry would not be possible without it. Thanks to the Board members, local churches, Sunday school classes, UM Men's and Women's groups. We are grateful that they are so helpful. And, of course, thanks to my students and staff. They are what make us as vital and dynamic as we are. Thanks be to God for all of you.

Tom Wall, Director

THE FRANCIS MARION WESLEY FOUNDATION

I once preached a sermon entitled, "Expect the Expected," essentially encouraging my congregation to approach prayer (and life in general) with unwavering faith and a positive attitude. In God's Word God promises to love, care, support, and provide for us- hence how we pray and how we live should reflect expectations of God to make good on God's promises. The Fall, 2011 semester at The Francis Marion Wesley Foundation has shown me that I still need to work at practicing what I preach.

This school year at FMU Wesley has been one of surprising, explosive growth and subsequent adaptation. The average attendance at our weekly meetings has more than doubled (sometimes tripled), and the number of students served by this ministry has increased dramatically. Our students are excited about what God is doing in and through the group and they regularly invite others to share the blessings. Such an influx of new students has required an unexpected adjustment to our "small group" format, but has also opened the door for the reintroduction of Worship into the program for the first time in years. Through the generosity of local churches and the know-how of student volunteers, we have introduced new technology that has greatly increased the quality of our Bible study and group discussion components. While the sudden boom in attendance initially caught us off guard, FMU Wesley continues to provide a safe, comfortable environment for students to encounter God in powerful ways and to grow in faith together.

Although our growth in the Fall has necessitated a shift in focus to more group-building and fellowship activities, FMU Wesley still provides opportunities for students to live out the love of Christ through mission and service projects. The group continued its annual traditions of Trick-or-Treating for food items (to support Florence's Harvest Hope Food Bank) and volunteering at FMU's Bike MS event (to raise awareness and money for the fight against Multiple Sclerosis), and also sponsored a new campus-wide event called "Dunk-A-Palooza." Brave professors volunteered to sit in a dunk tank, affording students (and a few faculty and staff members) the opportunity to dunk the professors for the price of a small donation to McLeod Regional Medical Center's branch of the Children's Miracle Network. Plans for the Spring, 2012 semester include hosting a campus-wide Christian concert, partnering with other groups on campus to raise awareness for social justice issues, and once again serving the surrounding community through our annual Week of Service over Spring Break.

If there is anything I have learned this school year as Director of the Francis Marion Wesley Foundation it is that when we ask God to provide growth we need to be prepared for God's answer. God has undoubtedly blessed FMU Wesley, but an increase in students served has also meant an increase in necessary expenses. We are sincerely grateful to all of the churches, groups, and individuals who have supported this ministry, but we are also greatly in need of new partners and additional financial support. Please continue to pray for the future of our program and for the students who are affected by its ministry, and please consider becoming a part of this vital ministry as God leads you.

Blessings and Peace,

Rev. Ricky Howell, Campus Minister

FURMAN WESLEY FELLOWSHIP

I love the Bible story Jesus tells about the parable of the sower. In this story, Jesus is discussing the different places that the seed will fall. One of the things I glean from this passage is the fruitful soil and the growth that occurs in these places. I have been blessed to be in ministry with this wonderful group of young adults and see the growth that has occurred in their lives – I have been blessed to plant seeds, cultivate the soil, and even reap what others have sown.

This year we have focused on the question, "Who Am I?" We know that the college years are a very formative time in the life of an individual, and a time in which we begin to live out our calling as disciples of Jesus Christ. Often times, however, we get stuck in our ideas of who we should be, or who the world or others want us to be, without really giving heartfelt thought to who GOD is calling us to be. Hopefully through our dialogue and journeying together we have begun to strip away these false "identities" and live into the people that God created. This is a very special year in the life of our students [and me] as it marks the graduation my first class of students. They have lived into the true spirit of Furman Wesley and allowed us to live into the call of God.

In addition to our weekly Tuesday night meetings [Wesley Night], in which we share a snack, worship/program, prayers, and announcements, this year we also have:

- During the first month of classes, we visiting five local UMC churches – designed to give students an introduction to local churches in the hopes that they may find a home of worship while at Furman.
- Weekly Freshmen Small Group Meetings – designed to help new students assimilate into college life.
- Monthly Sophomore/Junior Group Meeting – designed to help the students deal with issues of being a full-time student and the changes that happen in our lives as we get older and more involved in campus life.
- Monthly Senior Group Meetings – designed to provide graduating seniors a place to wrestle with issues of life after college.
- Weekly Lunch in the Dining Hall
- Weekly Office Hours for campus minister – my office is off-campus.
- Retreats – i.e., Mountain Getaway, Fall Retreat, Divine Rhythm, Spring Retreat

- Missional Outreach – i.e., Fall Spring Break Mission, Spring Break Mission Trip to New York City, Habitat for Humanity, Greenville District Great Day of Service, Relay for Life
- Fellowship Opportunities – i.e., Lake Day, Football Tailgates, Christmas Party, Progressive Dinner, Movie Nights, Senior Luau
- Sent 3 Furman Wesley students to Exploration 2009 [for young adults considering professional ministry]

It is our belief that as students get more involved in their classes and other campus events, their time becomes precious; as a result, it is our desire to provide the students many opportunities to be in fellowship, study, worship, and service. I think often times we sell our students short in their desire for a genuine relationship with God and other travelers on this journey of faith. However, I truly believe that if we are going to be in relationship with the Almighty, then it will begin during these formative years in the lives of students, and their faith will form the foundation of EVERYTHING else they encounter in college. They should approach their lives through the lens of their faith.

Furman, Greenville, and the UMC are blessed to have such a dedicated group of young leaders who are passionate about their faith and living out that faith in their everyday life. We are truly blessed, and thankful, for all of the love, support, and prayers that we have been afforded by the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Rev. Edward L. McCutcheon, Campus Minister

LANDER WESLEY FELLOWSHIP

Lander Wesley Fellowship experienced a transitional year in 2011 with many of the group student leaders moving forward in their lives in graduation or student teaching assignment. The program concentrated primarily on student Bible studies and small group ministry. The emphasis of Lander Wesley Fellowship remained on relationship building.

In 2011, Lander Wesley held three worship services at St. Mark UMC (Greenwood). These services, with the name “Ignite,” featured live music, a message and communion. Three students participated in a mission trip to New York. Two students worked as youth ministry interns in a local church.

In addition, Lander Wesley was a sponsor of Transform, a worship event for students in the Greenwood community. The event, held at St. Mark UMC’s Rivers Street Campus, featured the music of Casey Darnell and a message for the students.

Rev. Dean Lollis, Director

THE ORANGEBURG WESLEY FOUNDATION

“And again he said, ‘To what should I compare the kingdom of God? It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.’”

Luke 13: 20-21 (NRSV)

This parable, in which Jesus compares the Kingdom of God with the yeast that leavens bread, speaks to the possibility of great things arising from small beginnings. It is a parable that characterizes the present ministry of the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation. At times, I and loyal supporters of the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation felt overwhelmed with “three measures” of insurmountable odds in our ongoing efforts to fashion a vital ministry for those we seek to serve. Shrinking or non-existent finances, tight budgets, declining revenues, vision and commitment- challenged governance, and ubiquitous competition for the attention of students are just some of the stumbling blocks the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation faced even as we work diligently to build and grow this ministry.

How do you maintain a vision of a flourishing ministry when beset by obstacles all around? In this parable, Jesus helps us to see that the Kingdom of God cannot be contained or restrained from spreading despite small or seeming inconsequential beginnings; likewise, we hold fast to a vision of ministry anchored in trust that a sovereign God always acts to provide for our every need.

The Orangeburg Wesley Foundation (sometimes lovingly referred to as the “O”) provides full-time Campus Ministry at Claflin University and South Carolina State University. Our aim is to provide holistic, ecumenical, Biblically, theologically and spiritually based ministries and programs to engage and meet the needs of students, faculty, staff and administrators in the Claflin South Carolina Sate campus communities. We seek to fulfill these aspirations by cultivating a spiritual community – sacred, safe, gracious and caring – a “Jesus Ministry” characterized by Christ like love, service, compassion and emphasizing faith and belief in action - living and practicing their core beliefs and values for the world to see.

Report of Activities

Our efforts continue to be concentrated in three areas: 1) being the presence of God to students in the Claflin and South Carolina State University campus communities; 2) sustaining community and relationship building efforts on both campuses and in the greater Orangeburg area, and 3) strengthening the O’s Board of Directors and instituting a viable administrative and fiscal infrastructure of the ministry.

Significant ministries and activities include, but are not limited to the following:

Messengers in Mission: In partnership with the Community Service Program at Claflin University, the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation offers biblically and theologically grounded sessions designed to help students learn and grow spiritually in the context of a community of care. Called “Messengers in Mission”, students who participate in this ministry will learn what it means to be true Servant Leaders: those dedicated to serving God by serving others and who demonstrate a willingness to go “out on the margins” in service to God’s people. Sessions are mission focused, characterized by a relational and ecumenical approach to teaching and learning. This partnership also led to the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation’s participation in The President’s Interfaith Initiative at Claflin.

Establishment of the Orangeburg Wesley Leadership Team: Through the diligence of building relationships, one student at a time, we have been able to reach and develop a core group of interested, gifted students to form a Leadership Team at the “O”. This group advises and assists with ministry and program planning, and is in the process of working to develop a vision and “branding” for the “O” which will have relevance and meaning for students in a 21st century context.

Ongoing Programs/Ministries and Student Involvement: Other significant activities and accomplishments include a growing ministry of counseling and care; establishment of the OWF Face Book Page, participation and or collaboration in a variety of campus and programs and activities, for example:

- Breast Cancer Awareness (“Coins for Cancer”);
- Forums: “Why Wait?” (on abstinence); “Straight vs. Natural; Black Church History.
- Basic Sewing Seminar (An intergenerational ministry where adult women who are skilled crafts persons in sewing taught students basic sewing skills. This was originated by students who had a genuine desire to learn these skills.) World Day of Prayer – Prayer Walk; Annual Holiday Christmas Party; “Study Hall” Night during exams week; Welcome Back Ice Cream Social; Games Night; “Let’s Eat!” Baking session; Freshman Orientation and Student Day at South Carolina State University, and
- Continued participation in Worship Services at Claflin (Speaker on several occasions)

Administrative Functions: With gratitude I am pleased to report that our endeavors in fundraising and interpretation continue with tangible results. Members of the Board of Directors, local churches and other supporters of the “O” made cash donations as well as gave of their gifts and skills to advance the ministry. We are pleased to have the support of our District Superintendent and that of the clergy in the Orangeburg District. With the addition of new Board members, gains are being made in building and strengthening governing organization and functioning. We are now ready to begin the work necessary for the Board to have a larger vision of the ministry and an accurate understanding of their role as a governing board.

From small beginnings come great things. So we forge ahead, with resolute faith and trust in God’s unrestrained benevolence, fixed in knowing that God will grow this ministry, just as the yeast leavens even “three measures” of flour! Here’s our faith, expressed in these words: “... the parable of the yeast reminds us that even small beginnings are powerful and eventually, change the character of the whole. Can one believe that what began with just a handful of followers in Galilee would eventually change the whole world?” (R. Allen Culpepper, The New Interpreter’s Bible.)

How then, could we fail or falter at the “O”?

Reverend Genova McFadden , Director/Campus Minister

WINTHROP WESLEY FOUNDATION

When I have writer's block I turn on Pandora Radio or I go sit in our "comfy couch" room and talk to students for a little while. There's something about both music and the checking in and shooting the breeze with the smorgasbord of students here that gets my brain buzzing and ready to begin or complete any project. In campus ministry we have the unique gift of working with college students all the time. They're not all the same age, they don't all believe the same things, and they've come to this place from near and far, but they're each facing a critical point in their lives where they're forming significant parts of their identity as they continue on a vocational and faith journey and engage both their minds and their hearts. I love it. I love the intersection of "real life" and faith that seems to flow so easily over lines here.

Winthrop Wesley did many of our usual things this year – mission trips to Nicaragua, Harlem, Charleston, Asheville, as well as service in the community with various agencies, speakers coming in to educate the campus, and the York County CROP Hunger Walk which we host and coordinate, raising over $26,000 for the hungry here in our community and around the world. We enjoyed spiritual life retreats, cheering on our teams at sporting events, studying in discipleship groups, sharing in worship and Communion together, and offering the love of Christ through both words and actions. We took more seriously the call to be community with one another, again lifting up the Irish saying that "In the shelter of each other is where the people live." In this we began not to just look at who was already part of the group, but at those that would never walk into a campus ministry. What about the student who is afraid to walk into a large already formed group or the one that's been burned by the traditional church?

Focusing on the "other" among us and looking for ways that we can meet needs on campus and in the community has shaped and guided our ministry this year in sometimes unexpected ways. We have reached out to our typical United Methodist students but we've also been intentional in being open to all people that God brings into our ministry. I hear a lot about metrics and vital congregations and the graying of our denomination and I know this is a way for us to bring awareness to our decline and a way to try to curb it. What excites me and our students is not wringing hands over what used to be, but looking towards a future of Christ's followers coming together in transformative ways both in our personal journeys and our living out our faith in real and tangible ways in all of the communities and mission fields that God gives us.

You, the South Carolina Annual Conference, are the accountability for our campus ministries so here are a few metrics for you. In a campus of 5800 undergraduate and graduate students, this year Winthrop Wesley had over 450 students participate in our missions and outreach on campus, on mission trips, and in service hours. This year our weekly gatherings averaged over 75 individual students, not including special lectures, events, or fellowship activities. We celebrate several of our students currently in youth and children's ministry in the conference, four currently in seminary, one just approved for commissioning as a Deacon at this Annual Conference, and another who was just certified as a candidate through the Wesley Foundation and will be attending seminary in the Fall. We have been blessed with a full Wesley House with nine students living in Christian community and living right beside our Foundation. What those metrics don't tell you is the countless hours spent in one-on-one or pre-marital counseling, the amount of student groups that use our building, the students and faculty/staff that find a welcoming home here, or the joys in sharing life together with such an assorted cast of characters.

Often I write that you are a partner in our ministry and that we couldn't do this ministry without you. It's true. Our district churches and individuals from around the conference have stepped up in mighty ways since program and building funding was cut in 2010. Y'all have kept our doors open and ministry flowing in new and beautiful ways. Each of you in giving your apportionments have made it possible for a full-time pastor to be here to support, nurture and minister to our college students. WE are your apportionments and we thank you for giving them! As we all plan and dream about vital congregations, may we remember that some of our vital congregations aren't just in traditional churches, but that vibrant and critical ministry is happening all over the place as the people of God go and make disciples of all the world!

Grace and Peace,

Rev. Narcie M. Jeter, Campus Minister and Director

THE BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

For a number of years, I sat where you sit and questioned the wisdom of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Sometimes I wondered if they had a hidden agenda. I thought a district committee on ministry was out to get me. I wondered if the questions asked had been trick questions. I wondered if they had an axe to grind. I wondered if they were looking for conformity or honesty. There have also been times over the years when I couldn't understand why the board delayed a friend. I couldn't understand why the board passed along someone else and delayed the one whom I thought they should send forth. I also found myself from time to time agreeing with friends when they were delayed saying the problem was not them, the problem was the board. For years, I confess that I judged the board, but I do not remember a time I ever prayed for the board! Then, I was asked to serve on the district committee on ministry and then the conference board of ordained ministry. I became the chair of the board of ministry. The foolishness of God!

So this morning, I am here to ask you to pray for your board of ministry. The work of the board is far harder than I ever imagined. It is hours, and hours, and hours of preparation before interviews. There are days and days of interviews, there are meetings between meetings. Time away from family, time away from the church, time that is often difficult to recoup. Yes, the board enjoys one another, there are times when we find great collegiality with one another, but there are also days that are filled with anguish and hard decisions. And hard decisions they are! Decisions to approve, delay, or discontinue candidates are never, ever made quickly or lightly. Many of time have I gone home from meetings of the Board of Ordained Ministry with a sad and a heavy heart. The board of ministry does not look for reasons to say no. We look for reasons to say yes to those who feel called to ordained ministry. Because we take seriously the responsibility that has been entrusted to us, we make prayerful decisions, decisions that we believe are in the best interest of the church as well as the candidate. We trust that we do all of this in accordance with God's will and in light of the Holy Spirit.

It is clear that we do not serve the church well when we recommend people for commissioning in whom we have not found evidences of readiness for ministry. Nor do we serve the church well when we recommend persons for full connection in whom we have not found evidences of fruitfulness. No doubt it is harder for the candidate to see that their delay is also in their best interest. We do not serve the candidates well when we recommend them despite identifiable deficiencies. In every case the board seeks to name the areas of concerns and invites the candidates to address those concerns before returning the board. The words are often hard to hear. Many candidates are grateful for our willingness to talk honestly with them, but some are not. Many address the concerns that have been raised, work on those issues, and grow. Unfortunately, some do not. Some go home and spend a year complaining about the unfairness of the process and blaming the board. That grieves us greatly. So I ask to you to do what I failed to do in the early years of my ministry: to pray for the board. I invite you to celebrate with those who are recommended and help those who were not grow in patience and humility to things that serves all of us well.

I have three things that I want to invite our laity and clergy to do. I ask you first, are you praying for God to raise up in your church future clergy for the church? When was the last time you asked God to stir up in some young person in your church a call to ordained ministry? I ask you, are you encouraging those in your church in whom you see the gifts for ministry? When the last time you told someone in your church that you see in them the gifts for ordained ministry? My clergy colleagues, I ask myself and you, are we being faithful witness' to the sacred privilege and the joy that comes with serving our Lord as ministers of the gospel, or do the people in our church say, "I wouldn't have that job!" Are we faithful in our witness or do the laity say, "what has become of our clergy?" Who has been inspired or deterred from ministry by the witness of your ministry?

I ask you to pray for the discernment of the board, to celebrate with those who will be licensed, commissioned or ordained this week, to encourage those who are delayed, and pray that God will raise up out of our congregations faithful and gifted persons to lead the church for the 21st century.

As we enter a new quadriennium, perhaps the greatest challenge facing the church is the issue of clergy effectiveness. The vast numbers of our clergy are faithful servants of God who offer the best of themselves and their gifts to God and the church. In my heart of hearts, I do not believe that any of our clergy wake up saying, "today I choose to be ineffective!" Nor do I believe it healthy or true to depict to the laity that our clergy, in large numbers, are ineffective. But even one ineffective clergy member is one too many! Every congregation deserves to be served by a competent clergy member be he or she licensed, commissioned, or ordained!

Security of appointment commonly referred to as “guaranteed appointments” was created out of a desire to ensure that prophetic pulpits, gender and racial diversity became a hallmark of our identity as United Methodist. The time has come to admit however that security of appointment has morphed into a means of perpetuating ineffective clergy who do harm to local congregations. That my friends, has nothing to do with race or gender! There are clergy who through benign or willful neglect or habits that are not conducive to a disciplined life the of body, mind, and spirit, no longer demonstrate the knowledge, skills, abilities, and personal characteristics that contribute to effective performance. The time for accountability is now! Our goal is help our clergy take the corrective actions needed to become effective or to help these persons gracefully exit licensed, commissioned, or ordained ministry.

Accountability must be for all and not just the clergy! Calls for the elimination of the guaranteed appointment are based in part on a false assumption that the ineffective pastor is the sole problem. Our itinerant system also suffers from dysfunctional local churches. How will we hold local churches accountable for being “clergy killers” or bishops and cabinets accountable for repeatedly making poor choices? Too often we have been seduced into thinking that a single solution will solve what is often a complex set of interrelated problems. Tinkering with the machinery or playing the blame game won’t make a single disciple for Jesus Christ or transform the world! In working together, however, we can conquer this challenge!

In conjunction with the actions taken by 2012 General Conference to end security of appointments, Boards of Ordained Ministry have been charged with establishing a set of guidelines that seeks to describe and define effectiveness in each annual conference. These guidelines will be brought back to the annual conference for consideration and action. Our goal is to pursue “a still more excellent way” a standard that exceeds mere effectiveness and moves us toward excellence! When competency is lacking in our clergy, all aspects of the work of ministry are compromised, low morale grows, and our focus on making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world is diverted. Our concern must be for both the well-being of local congregations and our clergy. When excellence is the standard, then we will produce leaders and congregations who will bear fruit and join with Jesus Christ in transforming the world.

Because of the faithfulness and generosity of local churches in paying apportionments in 2011, the board has been able to assist no fewer than 101 persons at 10 different university senate approved seminaries with the cost of funding their theological education in the amount $151,320! We further rejoice that the recipients of these resources are local pastors and seminarians. We have been able to offer these resources through the Ministerial Education Fund.

Beginning in the fall of 2012, certified candidates who are full time student attending University Senate approved United Methodist seminaries will receive an increase of $500/year for a total of $5,500. Certified candidates who are full time students attending University Senate approved non-United Methodist seminaries will receive an increase of $250/per year for a total of $3,250.

In response to a motion offered by the Rev. Terry Fleming and referred to the board by Rev Joseph James, all certified candidates who are part time students attending University senate approved seminaries will receive $200 per course in the fall and winter terms. As we are better able to determine the needs and numbers of part time students, our hope is to increase what we are able to offer.

We are pleased to recommend 15 candidates for provisional membership and commissioning, 1 candidate for associate membership, and 18 candidates for full membership and ordination. These persons have been nurtured through the candidacy process and have shown themselves ready and effective for a life of commissioned and ordained servant ministry. We are elated to recognize that three of the persons who will be commissioned on this week, were participants in the board’s ministerial internship program during their time in seminary. Angela Renee Johnson will be commissioned as a Deacon and Josh Blackwelder and Ben Burt will be commissioned as provisional elders. This reflects the board’s commitment to increased emphasis on recruitment and retention of young clergy.

We also celebrate the journey of persons called to serve the church through the process of licensed ministry at this particular moment in their journey. Today, we recognize those persons who have participated in the 2012 School of Pastoral Ministry and who now offer themselves for service in Christ holy church as first time licensed local pastors. As these persons, along with the Bishop, our conference Lay Leader, Dr. Joe Heyward, and our District Lay Leaders gather here at the stage, allow me to recognize those persons who have completed the five years Basic Course of Study and those who have completed the Advanced Course of Study: Donald Boshell, Arthur Vick, Francis Edward Traxler, Jr., Glenn Williams Ribelin, Raymond F. Cook, Jr., Jim Elder, and David Fields.

Through the recruitment and enlistment committee, the Board of Ordained Ministry continues to cultivate and strengthen the relationships between the annual conference and our seminarians through on going visits to the seminaries by representatives from both the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Cabinet. We have continued to support seminarian through our summer ministerial internship initiative. This summer, three interns and three partner congregations will participate in this ministry: Wallace Culp, Kayla Hawar, and Zachary Dillard.

Beginning this summer, the Board of Ordained Ministry has added two additional weekends (16 hours each weekend) to our basic one week School of Pastoral Ministry (48 hours) offered in May. The addition of these hours will bring our School of Pastoral Ministry into compliance with the requirements of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry which establishes guidelines for Board of Ordained Ministry.

Policy Guidelines Proposed Amendments for 2012

Each year, the Board reviews its policy guidelines of the Board of Ordained Ministry and offers to the Annual Conference recommendations for review, action, and adoption. Pending there adoption by the annual conference, these changes will be posted on the conference website on the Clergy Services page under Board of Ordained Ministry Policy Guidelines. The following changes are presented to the annual conference for its consideration and action:

XXI. Financial aid through the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF)

Course of Study schools. ~~The scholarship is paid directly to Duke or Candler.~~ Local Pastors enrolled in the Advanced Course of Study who are working towards Full Membership as an Elder in the South Carolina Annual Conference may apply for ME Funds for a maximum of three full seminary courses per year. The scholarship funds for Course of Study and Advanced Course of Study classes are to be paid directly to the ~~seminary student~~. Grades lower than "C" in the Course of Study will not be credited toward completion of the Course of Study program. Scholarships will only be awarded once for each course. (Scholarships will not be awarded to re-take a course.)

D. MEF Policies and Procedures:

2. Completed application must be reviewed and signed by the District Superintendent; then mailed to the accredited higher educational institution to confirm enrollment as ~~full-time student for minimum of 12 semester hours or equivalent~~; and returned to Chairperson of MEF prior to deadline.

....

4. Completed applications signed by the candidate, District Superintendent, and institutional representative must reach the Chairperson of MEF by the deadline. Loan-grants are based on availability of MEF ~~and on needs formula related to marital status, number and ages of children, auto travel for ministry, and reported expenditures.~~

....

The members of the conference board along with members of the district committees have exhibited great leadership, integrity, and character throughout the last four years. I am grateful for their commitment and dedication to this important work. Their work is so important to the life and ministry of this annual conference. It takes so many persons who are deeply committed to this work. I ask them to stand. In this year in particular, we pause and in remembrance and thanksgivings for life and work of Dr. Rudolph Gordon, an active and vital lay member of board, who joined the church triumphant on February 2012.

Alas, the work of this Board would be impossible without the outstanding support that we receive from the Rev. Tim Rogers, Coordinator of Clergy Services, and Mrs. Bonnie Speas, the administrative assistant to that office. For the last seven years in particular, the Rev. Tim Rogers has gone above and beyond the call of duty in making effective the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry and deserve our gratitude.

Bishop Taylor in response to business question 17 or ¶ 604.4, 605.6- Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration? The answer is yes with the exceptions which have been noted or acted upon in the clergy session held on Sunday, June 10, 2012.

Respectfully submitted,

Kenneth L. Nelson, Chair

THE BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

PENSION SECTION

Report Number One

- A. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits requests that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix $705 per service year as the rate for annuity payments to retired ministers for 2013. (This rate was $691 for the year 2012.) This shall include service annuity credits approved prior to January 1, 1982. An eligible surviving spouse shall receive 75% of the formula benefit upon the death of the participant.
- B. The Board of Pensions requests that direct billings to salary paying units be made to give the Board of Pension and Health Benefits (The Pension Fund), $6,529,930 for the pension program of the South Carolina Annual Conference for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2013, and that this sum be apportioned or billed to the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

C. Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Active, Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the South Carolina Annual Conference

The South Carolina Annual Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons"); and

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation; and

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits ("GBOPHB"), during the year 2011, 2012, and 2013 by each active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy person to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

- D. For 2013, each institution, organization or district to which a minister is appointed and enrolled shall pay to the South Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits an amount equal to $578 per month for Full Time Equivalent for the Defined Benefit portion of the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP) for clergy (including deacons) who are under Episcopal appointment (receiving compensation) at a local church, charge, conference or conference-responsible unit or entity related to the South Carolina Annual Conference. (This rate was $578 per month for the year 2012.) An amount equal to 3.0% of the appointed participant's Plan Compensation shall be paid for the defined contribution portion of the CRSP. An amount equal to 3.0% of the appointed participant's Plan Compensation, limited by 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation shall be paid for Comprehensive Protection Plan funding or other benefit plan. Such payments shall be made for each minister so appointed, and paid monthly in equal payments each month during the year 2013, or in advance for monthly crediting in twelve equal installments from deposits made in the Deposit Account of the South Carolina Annual Conference with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, by the treasurer of the South Carolina Annual Conference. In the event that monthly credits to the minister in appointment's Church Account exceed the funds deposited for the minister in special appointment, an interest charge made at 12% per annum shall be made. This interest payment is due the following month with interest charges on a daily factor until the institutional account of the minister under appointment is current.
- E. The fiscal year of the Board of Pensions shall be the same as that of the South Carolina Annual Conference.
- F. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits authorizes one time moving expense reimbursement grants, not to exceed $1,500, and including up to $350 in verified packing expenses, for newly incapacitated ministers receiving CPP Incapacity Benefits, surviving spouses of ministers or newly retired ministers in benefit, moving from the parsonage provided by the charge. Persons moving must file for the one time reimbursement grant not later than 90 days after first reception of pension or disability benefits and may use the funds for moving expenses and/or for connection/tap on or hook up fees in the new residence.

South Carolina Annual Conference Funding Plan
For Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program

The 2013 Past Service Rate (PSR) is $705, or 1.01% of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC). We expect future Past Service Rates to increase by an average of little less than 2% per year.

As of January 1, 2011 for 2013, assuming 2% annual Past Service Rate increase, the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits actuarial valuation of the plan for the Conference shows more assets than benefit obligations. This Projection of fund values is done on a Market Value basis as opposed to the use of funding values in the past to more accurately reflect the funding of the plan.

The funding plan is shown below in a Funding Plan Values and a Market Values Perspective:

RE: 2013 Funding Plan for the South Carolina Annual Conference

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Attached is a copy of the funding plan for 2013 submitted for the portion of Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program attributable to the South Carolina Annual Conference.

The total liability as of January 1, 2011, for 2013 is $63,283,445 based on the following key actuarial assumptions:

- 7.0% interest
- RP-2000 mortality table, unprojected
- Past service Rate of $705 and
- 2.0% increase in the Past Service Rate

In the opinion of The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church, the attached funding plan meets the funding requirements of Paragraph 1506.8 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2008. This opinion applies only to the attached funding plan.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Featherstone

GROUP INSURANCE SECTION

Report Number One

The insurance program of the South Carolina Conference is designed to provide its eligible employees (as defined herein), and their eligible dependents, with a comprehensive plan for major medical benefits and a Medicare supplement. The following are eligible for coverage under the program:

1. Those fully employed and funded by a local church either as Elders in Full Connection, Deacons in Full Connection, Associate Members, Full Time Local Pastors, Provisional Elders, Provisional Deacons, Provisional Deacons/1992, Diaconal ministers related to and serving a local church within the South Carolina Annual Conference and included in the Hospitalization and Medical Expense Program Adoption Agreement.
2. Ministers who are full time employees of and funded by the Annual Conference boards, councils or agencies.
3. District Superintendents.

4. Students appointed as full time local pastors appointed to and funded by a charge within the boundaries of the Annual Conference and actively at work.
5. Lay persons who are full time employees of and funded by the Annual Conference.
6. Retired clergy who have been under full time appointment to a local church with pension responsibility by the South Carolina Annual Conference, and who are immediately eligible to receive pension or incapacity benefits, and who have participation in the active group health plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the last ten (10) years of which were continuous and consecutive, shall be eligible for participation in the retiree health care program of the Annual Conference.
7. Retired lay employees who have attained age 62 and have been full time employees of the South Carolina Annual Conference or a local church of the South Carolina Annual Conference, and who are immediately eligible to receive United Methodist pension or incapacity benefits, and who have participation in the active group health plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the last ten (10) years of which were continuous and consecutive, shall be eligible for participation in the retiree health care program of the Annual Conference.
8. Those retired clergy or incapacitated employees, referred to herein as lay persons, immediately eligible to receive pension or disability benefits from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits at the beginning of the month following the month in which the retired relation or disability leave with disability benefits takes place, and who had a minimum of ten (10) continuous and consecutive years of active participation in the South Carolina Annual Conference group health plan at the time of retirement or the granting of Basic Protection Plan incapacity benefits by the General Board of Pensions, and their respective spouses.
9. Ordained ministers from other United Methodist Annual Conferences and ordained ministers from other Methodist denominations, and other denominations, under Episcopal appointment fully employed and funded by a local church or charge of the South Carolina Annual Conference under the provisions of Paragraphs 346.1 and 346.2 of the 2008 Book of Discipline.
10. Full-time employees, and their eligible dependents, enrolled and funded by a local church of the South Carolina Annual Conference currently meeting the underwriting guidelines of the South Carolina Annual Conference group insurance plan. The salary-paying unit must establish the funding basis with the Annual Conference on the current advanced premium.
11. Funding for the group insurance plans upon retirement in benefit from the South Carolina Annual Conference shall be based on full time employment by the Annual Conference, full time appointment to a local church or eligible extension ministry with pension responsibility by the South Carolina Annual Conference, and shall be based on the following schedule:

10 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	0%
11 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	10%
12 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	20%
13 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	30%
14 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	40%
15 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	50%
16 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	60%
17 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	70%
18 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	80%
19 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	90%
20 continuous years of appointment and participation in the active plan	100%

The categories of eligibility 1–11 listed above are categories of access to the group insurance plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference. Funding of persons, other than those appointed as pastors or with pension funding responsibility by the South Carolina Annual Conference, is the responsibility of the salary-paying unit.

Report Number Two Major Medical Insurance Benefits

During the year 2012, the South Carolina Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits (the Board) has reviewed options for providing health benefits for both eligible lay employees and clergy and current and future retirees under the health plan. After review of these options, the Board recommends the following:

The South Carolina Annual Conference has elected to participate in Health Flex, the managed health care plan of the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church.

The South Carolina Annual Conference has elected for active HealthFlex BlueCross/BlueShield – Option B750 HealthFlex Pharmacy Plan P2 (percentage copay) as the Standard Health Care Plan. The yearly health plan deductible is $750 individual and $1,500 for family. And as an option the Consumer Driven Health Plan (CDHP). The yearly CDHP deductible is $2,000 individual and $4,000 family, but a Health Reimbursement account is funded at a $1,000 individual and $2,000 family level.

The South Carolina Annual Conference will participate in the Healthflex incentive program in 2012 and 2013. Details of this plan are available on the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits website under the Healthflex tab which describes the current incentive program. An active participant and covered spouse could earn incentives up to $300 under this plan.

Some of the highlights of these incentives for 2012 are as follows:

- Ø Blueprint for Wellness Screening earns $100 HealthCash through Virgin Healthmiles program. This must be accomplished during these dates; April 1-July 31, 2012.
- Ø Completion of the HealthQuotient™ (health risk assessment) must be accomplished to avoid a higher deductible ($250/$500) during the dates of August 1–September 30, 2012.
- Ø Walking and meeting quarterly activity targets earn $150 in HealthCash through the Virgin Healthmiles program. These quarterly deadlines are March, June, September, December

The incentive plan for 2013 is expected to continue to emphasize Completion of the HealthQuotient™ during April to September, Blueprint for Wellness Screenings during the period April to July, and participation in wellness activities year round.

Additional information on the major medical expense plan is available from the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Post Office Box 3787, Columbia, SC 29230.

Report Number Three Medicare Benefits

The South Carolina Annual Conference has elected HealthFlex Medicare Plan 2 and HealthFlex Pharmacy Plan P2 (percentage copay) as the Medicare Supplement Plan Option.

Eligible retired participants and their eligible dependents as well as active participants and their eligible dependents that have attained age 65 shall have benefits calculated by the Medicare Companion approach. This assumes eligible participants and dependents shall be enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B immediately prior to reaching the age and status for Medicare eligibility.

A handbook explaining the provisions of Medicare is available from any district office of the Social Security Administration.

Report Number Four Administrative Procedures

Enrollment in HealthFlex, the group insurance plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference, must be made within the first thirty days of eligibility or the first day actively at work. Late enrollment or enrollment for January 1st of any year must be completed with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits during open enrollment which is prior to November 30th of the preceding year. It should be noted that any changes or initiation of Flexible Spending Accounts (Medical Reimbursement or dependent care accounts) must be done during this time through the open enrollment process and not on the ministerial support form.

Eligibility requirements are also set forth in the HealthFlex Administrative Manual published by the Health Care Division of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church, 1201 Davis Street, Evanston, IL 60201.

Billing: At the first of each month, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits will send premium statements to the participants enrolled in the Conference Insurance Program and to participants with Flexible Spending Accounts. Payments for group health premiums and Flexible Spending Accounts premiums shall be made on a monthly basis. At the first of each month, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits will send direct billing for the salary paying units share of premiums relating to the participants enrolled in the Conference Insurance Program. These payments should be made on a monthly basis.

Cancellation of Coverage: It is imperative that each participant in the Conference Insurance Program keeps his/her premium payments current. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits has instructed the benefits administrator to cancel the insurance coverage or the Flexible Spending Account of any participant who does not pay his/her premium by the end of the month for which he/she has been billed.

Ministers Serving in Eligible Extension Ministries: It is required that all Conference Boards and Agencies, served by ministers and others eligible for group insurance participation, pay for the "institutional share" of the insured's premium. This provision shall apply to the District Superintendents, Conference Staff and those serving United Methodist agencies for whom the South Carolina Annual Conference has pension responsibility. In every case the full cost of the group health premium must be paid by the insured, the employer, or through the combined payments of the insured and the employer. Premium payments shall be made in accordance with the instructions printed on the quarterly "Statement of Account". Premium payments are due at the first of the month for which the participant is billed.

Applications for enrollment in the Conference Insurance Program are available from the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, P.O. Box 3787, Columbia, SC 29230. The change enrollment form must be completed and in the hands of the benefits administrator within 30 days from the date of eligibility. If not, the applicant will be ineligible until the next following enrollment period.

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits is charged with oversight of the group insurance program of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the benefits of which program are outlined in the reports of the Board submitted to the Annual Conference. The Annual Conference approves the group insurance budget of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Board is authorized to negotiate and contract with carriers or the Hospitalization and Medical Expense Program Administrator to maintain the level of benefits for the eligible participants, as defined by the Annual Conference.

The group health plan of the South Carolina Annual Conference (Conference Plan) shall be the plan of first refusal for covering dependents of clergy appointed to local churches in the Conference. Where covered clergy wish to cover their dependents, the local church will seek to cover such dependents through the Conference Plan, rather than purchasing outside health insurance. Local churches may be excused from this requirement in cases where such dependents may be covered through the employer of a covered clergyperson's spouse, or through a governmental plan, such as an SCHIP, and in cases of demonstrable financial hardship.

HUCKS AWARDS

Time and space do not permit us to go into detail about the works of these devoted local church historians, so these represent only a small percentage of their work on behalf of our connectional ministry of memory this year. Many of these churches celebrated anniversaries, and we note especially that many of the churches that have worked hardest to celebrate their history are younger churches.

Local Church Awards

Pisgah UMC, Aynor – 6th consecutive award

Pisgah Church continues to preserve its heritage with much enthusiasm. Their archival collection continues to grow, their efforts to promote their history have never been stronger, and they appear to have made promotion and interpretation of their history a central part of their church's mission.

Broad Street UMC, Clinton

The church and its records and history committee have worked hard this year to promote their history in the newsletter and in events, have worked to build their archives room collections, held Heritage Sunday events, interviewed members of the congregation, and submitted some records to the conference archives.

Mountain View UMC, Taylors

Mountain View has yet again done an excellent job of preserving and promoting its history. They operate with the goals of preserving the past to make others aware of their heritage, the present to catalog and store information to make sure that it will always be available, and the future to insure that future generations will be able to have access to these records. The committee has continued to research the church's history, added new materials to the collection, and been present at many church events.

Tabernacle UMC, Lancaster

This church undertook a unique project – a cemetery survey – and managed to make it part of the life of the congregation. The committee undertook considerable research, created a new survey, and added the records to the church's archives. The church combined Heritage and All Saint's Sundays to remember some of the young children buried in the cemetery.

St. James UMC, Burgess Community, Myrtle Beach

Their historian is active in the life of the church, records are kept in a secure and safe manner, and their role as the only historically black Methodist congregation in Horry County gives them ample opportunity to promote their history and heritage. They believe that every Sunday is Heritage Sunday, though they did have a special anniversary celebration. They have involved their youth in collecting reminiscences.

Campobello UMC, Spartanburg District

Their historian, Carolyn Thompson, has been active in the life of the church, has collected documents, undertaken research, collected memories of church members, maintains the historical collection, and helps promote the church's history. They celebrated several Heritage Sundays in 2011. They were also invited to be on Campobello's Christmas Candlelight tour.

Publication Award

The recipient of the 2012 Herbert Hucks Award for Publications is: John Wesley and the Beginnings of Methodism by Rev. Roger M. Gramling.

2013 Award Application and Criteria

2013 Herbert Hucks, Jr. Awards

The S.C. Conference Commission on Archives and History is pleased to receive applications for the 2013 Herbert Hucks, Jr., Award for Historical Preservation and Interpretation. This award will be presented to all qualified churches and one individual at the 2013 Conference Session. If your church qualifies or if you know of someone who has furthered the interpretation and preservation of United Methodist Heritage in South Carolina, please send the name with answers to the questions below. Please include your name, the name of the church and how to contact the pastor by name. Mail your application to: Phillip Stone, Wofford College, 429 North Church Street, Spartanburg, SC 29303-3663.

APPLICATION DEADLINE is February 1, 2013

Local Church Qualifications

As many churches as have fulfilled the qualifications during the past year will be recognized. Churches may qualify any number of times in a period of years. The purpose of this award is to encourage ongoing efforts to maintain awareness of the heritage celebrated in all churches of the Conference and to create research materials for the future.

1. Describe how the church historian has been active in the local church: projects, publications, collection and preservation of objects/data.
2. What steps have been taken to organize and preserve records or artifacts or what additions have been made to the church's archives in the last year? What is the overall quality of the current collection?
3. In what ways has Methodist heritage, conference or local church history been interpreted for people in the local church in the past year as part of the Sunday school or confirmation class curriculum; UMW, UMM or UMYF program; worship experience; or general interest display?
4. Has Heritage Sunday been celebrated in some form in the past year?
5. Has a record been made on paper or video/audio tape in the past year of recollections of members who witnessed aspects of the church's story?
6. Have copies of published documents been sent to the Archives at Wofford College and/or Claflin University? (May be included with this application.)
7. Please include appropriate documentation for responses to questions above.

Individual Qualifications

Nominees for this singular recognition should be someone who during his or her life, or in some special way recently, has contributed significantly to the preservation or interpretation of United Methodist history/heritage beyond the local church. Please describe in a few paragraphs the contributions made by this person.

An individual recognition may be awarded annually; re-nominations are welcome any time.

Publication Qualifications

Along with awards for individuals and local churches, the Commission will consider nominations of books or other publications for the Herbert Hucks Award for Publications.

To be eligible, a book or publication must contribute to the knowledge, preservation, or understanding of United Methodist history or heritage beyond the local church. The commission will consider the quality of the publication's writing, research, and its contribution to the history of South Carolina Methodism.

As with the individual award, one book or publication may be recognized annually. Nominators are asked to assess the publication's qualities in a few paragraphs. A publication is eligible for consideration during the year it was published and in the subsequent year.

Deadline: February 1, 2013 The Commission regrets that no extensions to the deadline are possible; the Commission meets to finalize all actions on February 9, 2013.

Respectfully submitted,

Lisa C. Hawkins, Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

Report Number 1

A. The Mission and Changing Focus of the Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation

Historically, the Commission on Equitable Compensation has served for the support of fulltime clergy in the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference. Through the years, the Commission has been guided by the United Methodist Book of Discipline; the latest version states the following: "It is the purpose of the commission on equitable compensation to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations." (The Book of Discipline, 2008, Paragraph 625.2) The Commission on Equitable Compensation supports the overall ministry of the local church, especially in transitional situations.

B. Total Compensation for Clergy

1. The commission on equitable compensation reminds churches and charges that salary is only one portion of total compensation. Churches and charges are urged to consider dispersing compensation in ways that will assist clergy and their families to retain as great a portion of their income as is legally possible. Churches and charges are reminded to consider total compensation and not just think of salary when thinking of clergy family needs. Likewise, clergy are reminded that they are supported in a variety of ways, and total compensation most often exceeds salary.
2. Churches and pastors are urged to keep informed of their income tax responsibilities and rights. Pastors are advised to seek qualified assistance in making decisions that will affect their income tax liabilities.

A.1. Budget Request for 2013

The Commission on Equitable Compensation requests that a line item apportionment of $556,000 be made to fund the estimated $530,500 Commission on Equitable Compensation operational budget for 2013. These funds will be used for base compensation supplements, salary support for clergy in new church starts, special situations, and Hispanic Ministries, as well as support required and/or provided under these recommendations.

A.2. Schedule of Total Minimum Compensation for Clergy Serving in the South Carolina Annual Conference

In accord with the mandate of The Book of Discipline, the Commission recommends that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix the following as its minimum base compensation scale, effective January 1, 2013, and continuing until changed by the Annual Conference.

FOR FULL-TIME APPOINTMENTS AS CLERGY IN THE LOCAL CHURCH:

Category	Amount
a. Clergy in full connection	$40,500
b. Probationary, Commissioned and Associate Members	$36,800
c. Local Pastors	$34,150

The recommendations are unchanged from the 2012 conference schedule for total minimum compensation.

[Please note that the Commission on Equitable Compensation strongly encourages churches to pay the pastor's business expense through an accountable reimbursement plan which is a part of the administrative budget of the church, not part of salary. Please see sections "O," "P," and "Q" below, entitled "O. Reimbursement for Travel and Professional Expenses," "P. Continuing Education," and "Q. Reimbursement as Administrative Cost."]

B. For Deacons in Full Connection

Those persons who have responded to God's call to lead in service and to equip others for ministry through teaching, proclamation, and worship and who assist elders in the administration of the sacraments and are full-time ordained deacons in accordance with Paragraph 330 of The Book of Discipline 2008, shall be compensated by the local church not less than the minimum amount for an ordained elder of the annual conference. (See Paragraph 331.14(b) of The Book of Discipline 2008.) Deacons who are employed by the congregation, charge, or cooperative parish less than full time shall be compensated proportional to the percentage of time being served. (Half time would receive not less than half the minimum salary.) Deacons not employed by a congregation, charge, cooperative ministry, or who are appointed under Paragraph 331.14(c) are not affected.

C. Experience Merit

A clergy person, who has served for 5 or more year's full time service or the equivalent thereof in the South Carolina Annual Conference, shall receive in addition to the minimum base, a supplement of $175.00 per year of service for up to 10 years of service.

Example:

Year 6	Equitable compensation base plus	$875.00
Year 7	Equitable compensation base plus	$1050.00
Year 8	Equitable compensation base plus	$1225.00
Year 9	Equitable compensation base plus	$1400.00
Year 10	Equitable compensation base plus	$1575.00
Year 11+	Equitable compensation base plus	$1750.00

D. Housing Allowances

The Commission recommends that all money given to the pastor for housing by the charge he/she serves be considered income if the pastor is not a resident in the charge which he/she serves.

E. Application for Equitable Compensation Support for Base Compensation Assistance

The District Superintendent shall request the base compensation assistance required by each charge twice each year (by May 15 for the July through December compensation assistance period and by December 15 for the January through June compensation assistance period); these requests must be approved by the Commission before payment can be made. This request from the District Superintendent shall be accompanied by an application form provided by the Commission and completed by the pastor, the pastor-parish relations committee, and the District Superintendent indicating income from all sources.

F. Cross Racial Appointments

If the Bishop and Cabinet, in making a cross-racial appointment, find it necessary to request an equitable compensation supplement, special consideration will be given on an individual basis. Guidelines listed under Report 3 will apply.

G. Cooperative Parish Ministries

Directors or coordinators of cooperative parish ministries which have been approved by the Board of Global Ministries, and application made by the District Superintendent to the commission by January 1 preceding the appointment in June of the same year may be eligible for funds not to exceed $7,000.00. No pastor shall be eligible to receive funds unless the charge he/she serves agrees in writing to release him/her for these added duties. Assistance will be provided over a 4-1/2 year period and will decrease by 25% each year after the first year and a half.

H. Disbursement of Supplements

All compensation supplements from the Commission shall be paid to the local church involved for disbursement to the pastor or clergyperson, and shall be disbursed monthly. In the case of new mission situations or churches, monies will be dispersed directly to the pastor until there is a church treasurer. Equitable compensation funds will not be used for moving expenses, businesses expenses, or church administration.

I. Utilities Allowance

The Commission requests that the South Carolina Annual Conference designate 15% (or estimate of actual expenses as requested by recipient) of base compensation support funded by this Commission as parsonage utilities allowance. This request is made to satisfy the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service. Under IRS Guidelines, this money may be used for household expenses including mortgage or rent payments.

J. Investment of Reserve Fund

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that all funds held in "reserve" be invested and the interest used in the Commission's operating account. In accordance with guidelines established with CF&A in 2010 and presented to the 2010 Annual Conference, the "floor" of the reserve is to be set at $200,000 in order to meet general projection shortfalls, to allow for the unanticipated start of a new church or missional situation, or to deal with an unexpected disaster.

K. Interpretation

The commission recommends that an interpretation of its task and policy procedures be given as a part of the District Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee Workshops. It is further recommended that this interpretation be done by a member of the Commission upon invitation by the District Superintendent.

L. Compensation Guidance

The Commission recommends that District Superintendents assist churches and charges in setting appropriate compensation and work load packages in accordance with Paragraph 423.3 of The Book of Discipline 2008.

M. Ineligibility

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the following not be eligible for Equitable Compensation support:

- Retired supply pastors
- Part-time local pastors
- Pastors on leave of absence except as provided in Standing Rule 99
 - Special appointment categories within the itinerancy of the United Methodist Church as defined in Paragraph 344.1 a, b, c of The Book of Discipline 2008.
 - Deacons as defined in Paragraphs 329 and 330 of The Book of Discipline 2008 (except as appointed under Report 3 of this report and Paragraph 625.4 of The Book of Discipline 2008).

N. Reimbursement for Travel and Professional Expenses

The Commission recommends that each church set up a reimbursement account for travel and professional expenses incurred by the pastor in performing pastoral duties. Reimbursement for non-commuting church-related travel shall be at the IRS rate (currently 55.5 cents per mile.) The pastor(s) shall submit a voucher and a log each month for reimbursement. For reimbursement for actual professional expenses (books, subscriptions, periodicals, etc.) the pastor(s) shall submit a voucher with supporting documentation for reimbursement. The amount set by the charge as reimbursement for travel and professional expenses should be determined after consultation with pastor(s) (and the District Superintendent, if desired or needed) by the Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee. Each charge should annually evaluate the local needs and expectations of its pastors and set an amount for reimbursement accordingly. Also, the procedures for reimbursement should be clearly stated.

O. Continuing Education

Each charge shall place in its budget an amount of $750 or more per year to be used by the pastor as a continuing education fund. If the full amount is not used in a given year, the unused portion may be carried forward from year to year during the tenure of a pastor, not to exceed a total amounting to three year's continuing education allowance inclusive of the current year's amount.

P. Reimbursement as Administrative Cost

The Commission recommends that the reimbursement for travel and professional expenses be a part of the administrative cost of each local church and not considered or reported as part of the pastor's compensation.

Q. Vacation Policy

The Commission reminds churches and ministers that vacation time plus time for renewal and reflection are an expected part of compensation. Time away is necessary for personal, spiritual, and family health. It is recommended that all clergy and diaconal ministers be granted, as a minimum, annual vacation and days of renewal according to the following schedule:

Total Years of Service	Number of Weeks
Less than 5 years	a minimum of 2(including Sundays)
5 years -10 years	a minimum of 3 (including Sundays)
More than 10 years	a minimum of 4 (including Sundays)

In addition to the above, it is recommended that the minister, regardless of years of service, be granted one day of retreat a month for prayer and reflection. Also, it is expected that the minister will have at least one day off a week. "Years of Service" reflect number of years under appointment in the ministry of the United Methodist Church, and not the number of years of service on a given charge. "Vacation" is meant as freedom from any responsibility in the local church or charge, district, conference area, jurisdiction, or general conference. Vacation should be a time of rest, recreation, and renewal. It should not be interpreted to mean time the pastor works at a church camp, is on a mission trip, a meeting of a general board, an agency of the conference, or a district retreat.

Time away from the charge for annual conference and continuing education events shall not be considered vacation time. The charge shall make available as necessary the funds for pulpit supply while the pastor is on vacation.

It is asked that the Lay Member of the Annual Conference communicate this information to the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee and to the local church.

Report Number 3 Mission Situations

A. Definition

Mission situations are new churches and existing churches in transitional circumstances that are in areas that demand an effective ministry but are incapable of providing such ministry without equitable compensation assistance. Mission situations may also include intentional ministry to persons of low income.

B. Eligibility

To be eligible for equitable compensation assistance in mission situations the following procedures must be followed:

1. The District Board for Congregational Development shall be the authorizing body to project a transitional situation and the Conference Committee on Congregational Development will project all new church starts.
2. The District Board for Congregational Development will refer this to the Conference Committee on Congregational Development for verification as a transitional situation, and its priority rank among conference needs.
3. The potential new mission situation will then be referred to the Cabinet for approval. The Cabinet will strive to inform the Commission of potential new mission situations two years ahead of the time the appointment is to start. The Commission will budget for new mission situations after Cabinet approval.
4. At the time of appointment, the Cabinet will then designate a pastor or clergy person with at least 4 years experience and request an appropriate base compensation for that particular mission situation.
5. In all cases where a new mission situation is to be launched, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation by December 15th preceding the Annual Conference at which an appointment is to be made providing, at that time, the projected base compensation cost to be incurred in July.

Note 1. The local church's share of this base compensation schedule is interpreted to mean all sources of income from the local church or from any other source.

Note 2. In all cases where a mission situation is attached to an existing charge, these become charge figures.

Note 3. The District Superintendent may apply to the Commission for a compensation that is more in keeping with the amount received by this pastor in his or her previous appointment.

C. Continuation of Supplements and Annual Evaluation

1. If the ministry being served is unable to meet the schedule below for two years in a row, support from Equitable Compensation will cease after the next year following.
2. An evaluation shall be done annually on each mission situation. The Conference Director of Congregational Development shall provide a report of this evaluation to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1st.

D. Payment of Direct Billing Costs for Pensions and Health Benefits in Mission Situations Only

The Commission on Equitable Compensation will pay only the direct billing costs of persons in mission situations according to the compensation schedules listed below. The Commission will send its proportional share directly to the conference office of Pensions and Health Benefits.

E. Compensation Schedules for Mission Situations

Part 1. Schedule for New Church Starts Begun in 2008 and Thereafter

Equitable Compensation for new church starts that were initiated after December 31, 2007 shall be as follows:

Year 1 and 2: The Commission on Equitable Compensation will pay the minimum compensation base according to the minister's category and half of the payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

Year 3: Support from Equitable Compensation will not exceed 67% of the minimum base compensation amount. The Commission will pay half of the payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

Year 4: Support from Equitable Compensation will not exceed 33% of the minimum base compensation amount. The Commission will pay half of the payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

Year 5: Support from Equitable Compensation will cease for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

New Church Travel: Upon request and appropriate documentation, the Commission on Equitable Compensation will provide travel allowance for new church pastors at the following rates:

First year and a half:	up to $4,000.00 annually
Second full year:	up to $3,000.00 annually
Third full year:	up to $2,000.00 annually
Fourth full year:	up to $1,000.00 annually

Part 2. Schedule for Ministry with Persons of Low Income

Equitable Compensation assistance in ministries with persons of low income will be provided for a pastor or clergy person, when requested by the Cabinet, over a ten and a half year period decreasing as follows:

First Year and a Half: The amount of Equitable Compensation support will be according to the pastor's category. As the sole salary paying unit in this mission situation, the Commission of Equitable Compensation will pay 100% of the clergyperson's direct bill for pensions and health benefits.

After One and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Two and Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Three and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Four and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Five and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Six and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Seven and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Eight and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 15% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Nine and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 15% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

After Ten and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will cease for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.

Travel for persons in ministry with persons of low income will be provided by the Districts or Districts in which the ministry is located.

F. Ministry with Hispanic/Latino People

The Commission on Equitable Compensation will operate in light of the Annual Conference's decision to make ministry with the Hispanic/Latino population a priority. Support for clergy working in ministry with Hispanic/Latino people shall be made in accordance with the Schedule for Ministry with Persons of Low Income (Report Number 3e, Part 2). The Commission recognizes that adjustments may be necessary on a case by case basis. The District Superintendent, after consultation with the Cabinet and the Conference Hispanic Committee may request adjustments in the following areas:

1. An extension of the initial time period from 1-1/2 years up to 2-1/2 years in which Equitable Compensation shall pay 100% of the clergyperson's salary and direct bill for pensions and health benefits. In no case shall this period extend beyond 2-1/2 years. After the extension expires, support will decrease as follows:
 - After Two and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.
 - After Three and Half Years: Support from Equitable compensation will decrease by another 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.
 - After Four and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 5% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.
 - After Five and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.
 - After Six and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.
 - After Seven and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.
 - After Eight and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 10% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.
 - After Nine and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 15% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.
 - After Ten and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will decrease by another 15% for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.
 - After Eleven and a Half Years: Support from Equitable Compensation will cease for both the base compensation supplement and for payment of the direct billing for pensions and health benefits.
2. A salary supplement for clergy living in areas where the cost of living is high. The maximum yearly supplement shall be $2,400.
3. Assistance with travel expenses. In limited circumstances, Equitable Compensation shall provide up to a yearly maximum of $4,000 to supplement the support provided by the district. When assistance with travel expenses is requested, the District Superintendent shall certify that the district will spend at least $15,000 in the current year to provide housing and travel for the clergyperson.
4. A salary supplement for experience in ministry with Hispanic/Latino people. This supplement will be in addition to any experience merit that a clergyperson receives on the basis of the policy set forth in Report 2, Section D. A clergyperson who has served 5 or more years fulltime service in United Methodist ministry with Hispanic/Latino people shall receive a supplement of $175.00 per year of service for up to fourteen years of service.

Example:

Year 6:	$875 in addition to Equitable Compensation base and experience merit
Year 7:	$1,050 in addition to Equitable Compensation base and experience merit
Year 8:	$1,225 in addition to Equitable Compensation base and experience merit
Year 9:	$1,400 in addition to Equitable Compensation base and experience merit
Year 10:	$1,575 in addition to Equitable Compensation base and experience merit

Year 11: $1,750 in addition to Equitable Compensation base and experience merit
 Year 12: $1,925 in addition to Equitable Compensation base and experience merit
 Year 13: $2,100 in addition to Equitable Compensation base and experience merit
 Year 14: $2,275 in addition to Equitable Compensation base and experience merit
 Year 15+: $2,450 in addition to Equitable Compensation base and experience merit
 All requests for adjustments shall be made in writing. Requests must be approved by the Commission before payment can be made.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Committee on the Annual Conference met on Tuesday, October 18, 2011, to evaluate the 2011 Annual Conference and to begin planning for the 2012 Annual Conference. The Executive Committee met on Monday, February 6, 2012, to complete the work of the committee in preparing for the 2012 Annual Conference. This report includes actions taken at both meetings.

The members of the committee reviewed the experience of the 2012 Annual Conference and the results of the post-conference evaluations that were returned. The committee considered various ways that pre-conference materials might be distributed. It was decided that pre-conference materials will be mailed to all members this year, and that the mailing will include a dvd that includes all pre-conference materials. Pre-conference materials are already provided on-line each year. The Committee is requesting that the Charge Conference forms be altered to allow those elected as lay members of annual conference, as well as clergy members, to designate how they would like to receive pre-conference materials: print, dvd, or downloaded from the conference web site.

Pre-conference informational meetings will be at the discretion of the districts this year. The dvd included in each packet will include video presentations on major reports, and contact information will be provided so that those with questions will be able to contact the appropriate persons directly.

The Ordination Service will be held on Wednesday morning as the closing service of annual conference. The Committee felt that the experience last year, when the conference concluded with this service, was a positive experience that should be continued this year, even though the last day of conference falls on Wednesday instead of Sunday.

In light of the continued favorable experience in Florence, the Committee recommends that the 2013 Annual Conference be held at the Florence Civic Center in Florence.

Finally, the Committee expresses its gratitude to St. Paul United Methodist Church and to the Florence District for their work as hosts for the 2011 Session. Their gracious spirit of hospitality was highly instrumental in producing a successful Annual Conference.

*Mary Virginia Taylor, Chairperson
Timothy J. Rogers, Secretary*

THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

The Committee has continued to reduce the number of copies printed each year in an attempt to match the demand that exists for printed copies of the Journal. In 2011, 175 copies of the Journal were produced, and as of this writing, only two copies remain unsold. The Committee now produces dvd copies of the Journal as well, and 100 were produced in 2011. As of this writing, 38 copies of the dvd version were unsold. The printed copies of the Journal cost $20.00 each, and the dvd copies cost $5.00 each. The Committee intends to continue to be intentional about matching the number of copies produced to the demand.

Copies of the Journal that are more than two years old are given away at no charge. The Committee has preserved two Journals from each year in hard back bindings, and plans to give away all other copies. The Committee also intends to give away all extra copies of the 2001 Ministers' Book.

As of this writing the 2011 edition of the Ministers' Book is in production, and it is our hope to have them available for purchase at the 2012 Annual Conference. The cost will be $20.00 per book, and a $5.00 charge for shipping and handling will be added for those copies ordered by mail.

The members of the Committee look forward to continued service to the Annual Conference.
Rebecca W. Eleazer, Chair

THE COMMITTEE ON CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The work of the Annual Conference carried out through the Office of Congregational Development is both exciting and rewarding. The new congregations that have come into existence over the past six years are growing and fruitful. We continue to support some of our earlier church starts and the faithfulness of these churches is a story of perseverance. We currently list ten churches on our new church accounts, and because of your support we are reaching people that we otherwise would not have the opportunity to serve.

Our newest project will begin on July 1, 2012 with the appointment of an associate pastor to develop a second campus of St. Andrew by the Sea in Hilton Head. This will be the model for most of our new church starts in the future. Sponsoring churches who want to multiply themselves by either birthing new churches or extension campuses represents the best opportunities for the Annual Conference to grow our ministry across South Carolina.

The other strategy will be assisting current congregations in high growth areas to reinvent themselves. This means that a congregation is willing to give up its old life in order to find a new life. I believe that Jesus meant to apply this principle to both individuals and congregations.

Part of our work is to assist existing churches in developing a vision for the future. Through grants given for expansion of both personnel and property the Annual Conference is able to make a positive impact on some of our churches. This year we were able to make three grants for a total of $130,000. We had received 9 requests that totaled $641,572. The highest priority was given to being good stewards of the resources the Annual Conference has given for Congregational Development.

It is my privilege to share in this important part of the ministry of our Conference. The Conference Committee is led by the Rev. Ken Owens and I am blessed by those from the 12 districts who serve on this committee. It is also a blessing to work with Laura Hill, the administrative assistant in our office. She is a true servant of the church.

Yours and His,

THE COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

The Committee on Episcopacy met on October 26, 2011, to complete the work required for Jurisdictional Conference 2012. This meeting was the culmination of a three-month process required by the SEJ Committee on Episcopacy. The process was three-faceted, involving:

1. The completion of a comprehensive assessment of our Episcopal leadership,
2. The completion of a comprehensive "Episcopal Area Quadrennial Profile," and
3. The bishop's completion of a "Bishop's Quadrennial Profile."

The first facet of the process was completed by first distributing the "Episcopal Assessment" evaluative tool designed and required by the SEJ Episcopacy Committee. This assessment was sent to ninety-two (92), and returned anonymously by eighty-one (81), lay and clergy leaders of our annual conference, including the members of both the Committee on Episcopacy and the Board of Laity, as well as the members of the cabinet, the conference program staff, and the chairs of the conference boards and agencies. The contents of the completed assessments were compiled and presented to the Committee for discussion and evaluative purposes during the October meeting. They, along with a narrative summary of the SC Committee's evaluative discussion with Bishop Taylor, were then sent to the Reverend John Ed Mathison, Chairperson of the SEJ Episcopacy Committee for their purposes.

Also at the October meeting, the committee completed the second facet of the process required by the SEJ Committee, the "Episcopal Area Quadrennial Profile," in which the particular character of the SC Annual Conference was detailed, as was the conference's Episcopacy office operation. With the evaluation tools, the profile was sent to the SEJ Committee Chairperson.

Separately, Bishop Taylor completed her "Bishop's Quadrennial Profile" for the SEJ Committee. The committee will gather again in the summer months, if a transition in our Episcopacy leadership for 2012-2016 is anticipated.

Current members of the SC Committee on Episcopacy are:

THE OFFICE OF CLERGY SERVICES

The primary purpose of the Office of Clergy Services is to serve as a support for and liaison between the Bishop and Cabinet and the Board of Ordained Ministry in areas related to clergy licensing, ordination and status and to serve as a member of the Ministry Advisory Team.

Mrs. Bonnie Speas, the Administrative Assistant for Clergy Services, continues to provide excellent support to district offices and candidates with patience and good humor. She maintains our database and oversees the process of requesting and receiving the many annual reports this office is responsible for. The work of this office literally would not happen without her. It is a pleasure to work with our Bishop and Superintendents on many matters related to our clergy, and to support them as they continue the vital and demanding work necessary to identify, nurture, instruct and supervise the clergy of our Conference.

The members of the Board of Ordained Ministry, under the leadership of Rev. Ken Nelson, continue to offer excellent service to the annual conference. As the repository for personnel files for the Conference, Clergy Services continues the work of transferring records from paper to digital form. The space available for storage of paper files has already been exceeded. By transferring information from paper to disc form, the retention of this important information is made more orderly, and the need for increased space is eliminated.

This office has continued with its normal, annual work by helping to organize the June orientation session for those seeking commissioning or ordination; assisting in organizing and holding the Bishop's School of Ministry; and providing support for three meetings of the full Board of Ordained Ministry and meetings of the Board of Ordained Ministry Executive Committee. Without trying to list every event or undertaking of the past year, I continue to respond to requests by phone, email, and correspondence related to licensing, ordination, and all matters related to clergy and their status within the conference, and have met with individuals seeking personal guidance in these areas.

It is a pleasure to serve in this area of ministry.

THE MINISTRY ADVISORY TEAM

The Ministry Advisory Team brings together the leadership of Connectional Ministries, the Council on Finance and Administration, Ordained Ministry, the Board of the Laity, and the Cabinet. During this past year the Ministry Advisory Team has met once. The discussions of the meeting focused on leadership development to meet the needs of the South Carolina Conference.

The MAT continues to oversee the investment of the Bobo Estate Funds. As of January 1, 2012, the two Certificates of Deposit earned $4,000.87 interest in 2011. The income was divided as directed in the endowment document (25% to programming and 75% added to principal), leaving $38,167.78 available for programming and $552,727.26 as the total principal.

The MAT approved a total of $4,700.00 for the 2012 Holy Land trip for ordinands: $2,700.00 was approved to help defray the cost of the trip, and $2,000.00 was approved to pay for workshops and educational programming on the trip. This funding enabled the group to have an extended meeting at the Mar Elias Educational Institute, with over 3,000 Muslim, Christian, and Jewish students, at Ibillin in the West Bank with Archbishop Elias Chacour of the Melkite Greek Catholic Church, a peace advocate and 3 time nominee for the Nobel Peace Prize.

Final plans were approved to carry out the instructions of the 2010 Annual Conference in the Resolution on Racism adopted by the conference. The General Commission on Religion and Race is scheduled to coordinate a 2 day training event to be held in May of 2012. Up to $4,000.00 was approved to fund the training. Part 1 of the training will be focused on anti-racism training. The purpose will be to equip persons to meet with local congregations to lead them in confronting these issues. Part 2 of the training will focus on cultural competency, and will be designed primarily for those involved in the appointment process.

Respectfully submitted,

*Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor
Chairperson, Ministry Advisory Team*

THE TRUSTEES OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The primary work of the Board of Trustees ("Board") is to oversee the maintenance and ultimate disposition of the property of discontinued and abandoned churches. These issues normally come to the Board from one of two major sources. One source of properties to be overseen is the churches being discontinued currently. In these instances every effort is made to transfer the property to other United Methodist churches, or other appropriate entities. Only when such a transfer cannot be negotiated ahead of time is the property of a discontinued church transferred to the Board. The other major group of properties overseen by the Board is those properties of churches discontinued some years ago, but which have never been properly transferred or disposed of. These properties come to the attention of the Board primarily through inquiries or requests of third parties.

The Board received title to two pieces of property as part of the discontinuation of two churches: Broomfield UMC in the Walterboro District, and Sharon UMC in the Anderson District. The Board will hold the title to these properties until an appropriate disposition can be determined and approved by the Annual Conference.

The Board transferred out the title to four pieces of property since its last report. The remaining property of the Asbury Clark property in the Anderson District was transferred to Pendleton UMC, along with the endowment fund created to maintain the cemetery on that property. The property of the discontinued Woodside UMC in the Greenville District was sold. The property of the discontinued Pisgah UMC was transferred to the Columbia Society of Friends. And the property of the discontinued Glenn Chapel in the Marion District was transferred to the Town of Sellers in keeping with the intent of the Annual Conference at the time the church was originally discontinued.

As noted above, from time to time the Board receives third-party inquiries regarding properties located around the state. In three instances during the past year, the Board investigated and confirmed that the Conference had no claim to title to the properties being inquired about, and no further action was taken.

The Board receives no apportionment money. Rather, it operates from reserves and from money generated from the occasional sale of properties. Most properties that the Board deals with do not generate extra funds, as the Board frequently deals with properties that have no natural market. It can be especially difficult to maintain and transfer cemeteries in a responsible manner. But since it is highly impractical for the Board to actually oversee and maintain properties spread across the state, the ultimate intent of the Board is to transfer the title to all properties under its care as quickly and responsibly as possible.

Attached to this report and incorporated by reference herein is an accounting of the funds of the Board of Trustees for this past year, along with a listing of all real property being overseen by the Board, as required by paragraph 2512.6 of the 2008 Book of Discipline.

THE BOARD OF CAMPS AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

The South Carolina Annual Conference continues to be blessed with a vibrant camping and retreat ministry. It is a joy to work together with you to fulfill our mission statement of "Serving all people for Christian birth, growth, and renewal."

The Conference year 2011-2012 has been sparked with much enthusiasm and excitement, as we had the privilege to celebrate Asbury Hills's 50th year in operation. It was a fabulous weekend – with all the past directors in attendance from down through the years, along with a host of past campers, counselors, friends, and family.

Asbury Hills has continued to grow its summer camp and groups conference ministry even in the face of a tough economy, and we believe the strong programming, strong staff leadership, and continued improvement in facilities have really made the difference.

The staff has begun measuring specific outcomes at Asbury Hills as a way of strengthening our campers' human and spiritual development. Thanks to all of you who took the time to fill out the surveys and send them back to us. Here are a few of your responses:

- Of the surveys returned 91.4% of you rated your child's stay to be an 8, 9, or 10, on a scale of 1 – 10, with 10 being excellent. 53.1% selected excellent (10).
- When your child was asked if they felt they had learned more about God during their week at camp, 97% responded YES.
- 94% of the campers when asked stated that the staff at camp helped them feel good about themselves.
- Asked if they felt that their relationship with Christ had grown during their time at camp, 97% of campers responded YES.

In 2011 a new 50ft Alpine Climbing Tower was added, along with a 32ft climbing wall, allowing the adventure programs at Asbury Hills to soar to new heights. Phase I of the new Lake Chapel has been completed, and we have high hopes for the completion of the project by the 1st session of summer camp 2012. Accessible for adult retreat guests as well as summer campers, this outdoor chapel will greatly enhance our opportunities for worship at Asbury Hills. Gifts to the new Lake Chapel will be a wonderful way for individuals or congregations to honor a loved one's memory and enhance the ministry of the camp.

Our Board continues to assess the demand for and feasibility of future development of Sewee Coastal Retreat Center as an adult retreat center. For a number of years, Clemson University conducted marine biology camps at Sewee during the summer. Currently the Board has expanded that relationship by leasing Sewee to Clemson year-round for a variety of community youth outreach programs.

The Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries is honored to lead our Annual Conference in the work of "making disciple of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world" through camping and retreat experiences.

THE JAMES L. BELIN BOARD OF TRUST

According to the rendering of his will, the Reverend James L. Belin stated it was “the long fixed and settled purpose of my life, to devote all that I possess to the promotion of the Glory of God, in advancement of the Missionary Cause.” The James L. Belin Board of Trustees protects the corpus of the trust and utilizes its income for the benefit of missions within the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

With Morgan Keegan & Company, Inc. as financial management consultant, investments are made in conformity to the Board’s socially responsible management philosophy. A portion of earned income is allocated each year to the Conference Board of Global Ministries for new mission projects.

At the May 13, 2011 meeting the annual audit report by Webster Rogers LLP was received and approved.

In 2011 the Board made available $90,000 for mission grants. $52,080 was paid in the calendar year and additional grants totaling $27,920 were approved.

The following officers were elected for 2012: Chairperson, Joe N. Long, Jr.; Vice-Chairperson, Stuart Ford; Secretary, Frank Sanders; and Treasurer, Marty Nason.

Gratitude is extended to those who reach out in fresh ways to help others in the name of Jesus Christ, to the Conference Board of Global Ministries who awards grants according to the Board’s directives, members of the Board for their service and wisdom, and to the Reverend Belin who before his death in 1859 created the means for the church to continue his love of glorifying God and advancing Christian missions.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST ADVOCATE BOARD OF TRUST

This year at Annual Conference, the Advocate will be celebrating its 175th Anniversary as the longest published periodical in United Methodism.

The Board of Trust has spent the past 2 years in preparation with the publication of a history book about the Advocate’s continuous journey.

Historian and writer, The Rev. Dr. Michael Wolfe, a South Carolina elder in the United Methodist Church, was chosen as the author of In the World Not of the World. The hardback book covers the rich and tumultuous history of the Advocate through the Civil War, two World Wars, temperance and civil right causes as well as issues of today.

Current living editors were interviewed and their stories are told.

The award winning Advocate continues its winning ways under the writing and editorship of Jessica Connor. At the 2011 United Methodist Association of Communicators annual meeting in Albuquerque, NM, our editor’s article on “Spirit Singers” was chosen Best in its Class; eight other articles were granted Awards of Excellence, and a Certificate of Merit, for the “Fighting Goliath” article on a South Carolina turkey farm. The Advocate overall was given an Award of Excellence.

At the 2011 South Carolina Press Association Award Ceremony, the Advocate garnered 4 awards, including First Place for Best Featured Story, “Feeding Mouths, Feeding Souls”, written by the Advocate editor.

Awards on the state and national level are welcomed and appreciated but the Advocate recognizes that what happens on the local level with our churches and is reported in the Advocate is the heart of the matter.

A 2011 survey showed that the Advocate is meeting the needs of its readers. Our readers are informed and connected; they read the paper cover to cover and like the articles, viewpoints, and conference and district news the most. As one reader stated, “Just keep doing what you are doing; you are doing a fantastic job. I have always appreciated the fact that one can speak his or her mind about any issue in the Advocate.”

Marilyn Murphy, Chairperson

THE UNITED METHODIST CENTER BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Routine maintenance and operations have been carried out during the year. This specifically included replacement of various parts to extend the lives of several HVAC units. Tenants of the Conference Center of the Methodist Center include Annual Conference Offices and the Advocate. For 2013 rent will not increase. However, a 4.5% increase may be needed in 2014.

THE UNITED METHODIST MEN

In 2011 we were delighted to share with you some time with our General Secretary, Gil Hanke. Gil spoke from the Annual Conference floor and continued his theme "Men Matter" at the United Methodist Men's Luncheon. We were proud to have him here in South Carolina. Also at Annual Conference Rev. Geneva Stafford was awarded the G. Ross Freeman Leadership Award for her advocacy for ministry to men. We have since learned that this will be one of the last G. Ross Freeman awards given. With Brother Freeman's health failing, the family and the foundation have decided to no longer offer this award. The Southeastern Jurisdiction is considering the development of an award that we may continue to honor those ministers that are proponents for Men's Ministry.

Dick Strachen, one of the developers of the "Understanding Men's Ministry" training course, led a train the trainer's event for us in August. We now have 18 men certified to lead this course. Bill Smith, former U.M.M.S.C. President, has led two classes in the Greenville district. One class has been held as an advanced Lay Speaking class in the Rock Hill District. On March 23-24, 2012, a class offering accreditation of the "No Man Left Behind" requirements for potential Men's Ministry Specialist was held. Men from several districts in S.C. and a couple from N.C. were certified.

Our Spiritual Retreat was held at Springmaid Beach this year. The move back there from Columbia was determined by the wishes of the attendees. Our participation was increased by more than thirty percent. Workshops included Basic Computer/Email, Promoting your Men's Ministry, Local Church Prayer groups, Scouting, Young Men's Ministry, and Foundation Building for the Men's Ministry at the local church level. The ministry theme Homecoming, Revival and Renewal was conveyed with a "Step out of the Boat" message. Keynote Speakers were Rev. Randy Madsen and Rev. George Ashford.

The "Twelve" evangelism booklet finally came to fruition at our retreat. The first formal roll-out was blessed with acceptance and we look forward to building on the concept throughout this year. This tool is designed to help men track and develop relationships being built with personal witness for Christ being the goal.

We face a continued challenge to establish district leadership in our vacant districts. We now have two districts in organizing stages. The goal is to establish solid leadership TEAMS in at least 3 districts before the August annual meeting. If you are interested in serving your district please contact me using the contact information below.

In closing please allow us to share this good news. At the National Association of Conference Presidents in Nashville, it was revealed that the South Carolina Conference led the nation last year for increase in chartering. Our local churches were second to none in chartering or re-chartering UMM organizations. This is a giant step toward getting us in compliance with The Book of Discipline. It states that all churches will have a United Methodist Men's unit. We are extremely proud of the men in South Carolina for their recognition of the need to be connected.

Thank You, South Carolina United Methodist Men!

Respectfully,

*Dale H. Sherrin Sr., Conference President

THE UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

There is a cliché that states: "Time flies when you are having fun!" and this year has really flown! 2011 has been a full and active year for South Carolina Conference United Methodist Women. We have studied, sung and celebrated and we have rolled up our sleeves and worked for the furthering of God's Kingdom here on earth. As United Methodist Women we pledge ourselves to be a supportive group of women...a community of women who nurture and encourage one another in our spiritual growth, personal leadership and transformation. We are challenged to love our neighbors and to understand that "neighbor" does not mean only those who live within a mile or so of our homes...many of them do not even have homes, they don't dress like us or talk like us or go to our Church. Often, God nudges us out of our comfort zones and we respond by reaching out to others and experiencing the freedom that only living in Christ can give to us.

The Conference leadership team has worked hard to plan programs and events that support our Purpose, undergird our Mission Projects, educate and involve our membership and expand the concepts of Mission through participation in the global Ministries of the church.

In February, Legislative Advocacy Day was held at Epworth Children's Home in Columbia. 306 United Methodist Women attended and were joined by Members of the League of Women Voters of SC, The American Association of University Women, and the School Improvement Council for a total of over 400 in attendance. The theme: Coming Together for South Carolina's Future: Our Children. Some of us went to the Statehouse, others stayed at Epworth for workshops. It was an exciting, invigorating day and a wonderful chance to showcase Epworth to our members and others. Susie Johnson, Social Action Coordinator for Women's Division was with us for the day.

March 4th was World Day of prayer and members of United Methodist Women across South Carolina joined in an Ecumenical celebration of prayer and its importance in our daily lives. Throughout the spring our Districts held Days Apart at various locations around the state and our various Conference Committees met at the Conference center to evaluate and confirm plans for the activities for the remainder of 2011.

The Spiritual Growth Retreat at Lake Junaluska was held April 29th, 30th and May 1st with Angella Current Felder of Nashville, TN as the speaker. The theme was "Worshiping God in the Midst of It All". Total attendance was 672. Lake Junaluska is a wonderful place to worship God in early Spring.

May was a busy month for United Methodist Women. We welcomed Harriett Jane Olsen, Executive Director of Women's Division, as our Special Guest Speaker for the very first Conference wide "Mission Extravaganza!" It was held on May 17th at Trenholm Road UMC in Columbia and Units from across the state brought a tremendous outpouring of love-gifts for our 5 Mission Projects. It truly was "All About Mission" and women from across South Carolina went back to their units renewed, refreshed and invigorated about what we can do for mission when we work together. On May 21st, 17 women from across SC departed Columbia for Sager Brown in Baldwin Louisiana, the UMCOR depot for our region. We filled flood buckets, made school bags, worked on home repairs in the neighborhood, repackaged hygiene kits and helped with food distribution for the elderly. It was hands on Mission work, truly a labor of love in action.

"Come Together Be Together" was held on Saturday, June 4th at Francis Burns UMC in Columbia where we laughed, learned, prayed, read, sang, and just enjoyed being together! It was a wonderful day, inspiring many of us to go back to our own units and just do something fun! Also in June, many of us attended Annual Conference in Florence and several United Methodist Women were elected as delegates to General Conference. President Linda DuRant was elected as a Delegate to Jurisdictional Conference where she will participate in the election of Bishops for the South Eastern Jurisdiction in July of 2012.

Conference Officers and Study Leaders attended Regional School of Christian Mission at Ferrum College in Virginia June 25th-27th to learn and plan for the SC School of Christian Mission. Ann Alexander of St. James UMC in Clover was named Dean of the Regional School for 2012. The Conference was awarded a certificate signifying that we had met and exceeded our pledge to Mission for 2010 by more than 20%. The conference also was honored with a gold seal certificate of excellence in forming more than 5 new Units.

The 2011 SC Conference School of Christian Mission was held at Spartanburg Methodist College, July 21-24. The theme was "All Things Made New." Studies included a Spiritual Growth study: "The Journey: Forgiveness, Restorative Justice and Reconciliation," the Global study was on Haiti, and the general interest study "Joy to the World: Mission in the Age of Globalization." The year was rounded off nicely by the Youth Mission Event held in 3 different areas across the state on August 13th. About 130 girls and their chaperones and other helpers worked on little dresses & bracelets that have been sent to Haiti and to the Fairfield Orphanage in Zimbabwe and to the Orphanage at Old Mutare. We were blessed and were able to be a blessing.

The Conference Annual Meeting was held at St. John's UMC in Aiken and was hosted by the Orangeburg District. The program book was dedicated to Reverend Lillian Washington the Cabinet Representative to United Methodist Women. The Keynote Speaker was Reverend Robin Dease from John Wesley UMC in Greenville. Retiring Officers were Janice Eaddy, Chairman of the Committee on Nominations; Jean Elmore, Treasurer; Doris Freeman, Member of the Committee on Nominations. Replacing these officers are Maureen Thomas, Treasurer; Sharon McTeer, Chairman Committee on Nominations and Doris Sullivan and Kasandra Graham as members of the class of 2015 on the Committee on Nominations. Attendance of 470 was announced for the Annual Meeting.

As the year wound down we held our Statewide Officers Training at Mount Hebron UMC in West Columbia and began plans for 2012 which will include a trip to Birmingham for South Eastern Jurisdiction. At this meeting elections will be held for Women's Division Directors and for Officers for the South Eastern Jurisdiction.

The South Carolina Conference United Methodist Women continue to be a vital arm of the United Methodist Church in our commitment to Missions. As we study, learn and grow we act out our conversion in our actions of Faith, Hope and Love in Action!

Grace and Peace,

Linda DuRant, President

THE DISTRICT STUDY TASK FORCE REPORT

In response to "A Resolution to Develop a Task Force to Evaluate the Current Number of Districts in the South Carolina Annual Conference" passed at the 2011 session, Bishop Taylor recruited sixteen persons from around the state to form the District Study Task Force, including representation from every district and balanced between clergy and laity, male and female, and ethnic minority and majority members.

In accordance with the resolution the District Study Task Force has

- Examined data from other annual conferences which have undergone substantial changes in the makeup of the number of districts,
- Gathered the South Carolina Conference's financial and statistical data,
- Gathered financial and statistical data from other conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction,
- Examined demographic data from the present 12 districts in SC,
- Reviewed the duties of District Superintendents in the United Methodist Discipline,
- Conducted interviews and surveys concerning South Carolina District Superintendents' time structuring from all 12 districts as well as a number of clergy and laity from each district,
- Reviewed literature from a variety of sources pertinent to the areas of inquiry, and
- Contacted a number of individuals in other conferences to obtain feedback on the effects of redistricting.

Data from other annual conferences indicates that sweeping changes are taking place in the United Methodist Church with restructuring plans being undertaken in dozens of annual conferences in the U.S. There is little uniformity in the forms of the new structures being implemented in a number of conferences in the SEJ and beyond. For example, because a reduction in the number of districts results in an increase in the number of churches per district, some conferences have found it necessary to add additional staff such as Assistant District Superintendents to handle various duties previously managed by one person. Other conferences have moved toward centralizing certain functions of district offices by hiring additional conference staff to handle those functions for all districts. In addition, some of the proposed plans from other conferences seem to be in conflict with provisions of the Discipline related to the duties of district superintendents and may have to be revisited accordingly.

Of the conferences in the SEJ that have reduced the number of districts we found no noticeable impact on the vital statistics of the churches in the conference. Conferences, for example, in which professions of faith and worship attendance had been declining before redistricting have continued to experience a similar rate of decline after redistricting. Also, even though redistricting in some cases has resulted in a slightly lower conference budget, the support from churches through apportionment giving has not thereby improved.

In view of the data we have examined we do not recommend a change in the number of districts in the South Carolina Annual Conference at this time.

In addition, information we have gathered with regard to the workload of individual superintendents indicates that there is no substantial difference between the districts. Those who have larger geographical areas and more congregations tend to have a higher percentage of multiple-point charges, and the discrepancy in the number of pastors per district is not as great as the discrepancy in the number of churches per district. The workload is also evened out by assigning superintendents of larger areas fewer responsibilities beyond the district, such as attending meetings of conference boards and committees.

In view of the data we have gathered with regard to the relative workload of the twelve district offices we do not recommend changes in district lines other than those which are proposed by the Cabinet and approved by the Annual Conference from time to time to accommodate changes in charge lines.

However, we do not believe that our work is finished. The world has changed. The Church must change if we are to be effective in the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. For years now we have depended on fewer and fewer people to give more and more. Substantial structural changes in the organization of the Annual Conference are going to be unavoidable because of the coming dramatic increase in the number of retirements and deaths among those in the "Baby Boomer" generation, the segment of the population that provides most of the church's leadership and financial support. If we are to meet that challenge, substantial changes must be instituted soon.

It is crucial, however, that the motivation for such changes must be on increasing our effectiveness in pursuing the church's mission. Drastic structural changes implemented for the sole purpose of relieving budgetary pressures may, in the end, result in even less effectiveness in pursuing our mission of making disciples. We believe that a large part of our focus should therefore be on identifying those churches and locales where the involvement of district superintendents and others will produce the greatest results.

It is important to consider that some crucial information is missing. For example, it is difficult to imagine what direction we can take until we know what legislation has been enacted at General Conference this year. We note as well that in September we may have a change in episcopal leadership, as the SEJ Conference in July will elect new bishops and assign or reassign all the bishops in the jurisdiction to their areas. If there is a change in our conference leadership, it would be prudent to consult with that new leadership before proceeding with a restructuring plan. Finally, it is important that we continue to monitor the success or lack of success resulting from changes being experimented with in other conferences.

In conclusion, we believe that focusing exclusively on the arrangement of districts in the annual conference will result in a truncated plan of action because district offices are inextricably part of the larger administrative system of the annual conference.

In light of these considerations we make the following additional recommendations:

- That the Annual Conference authorize the Task Force to continue its study for the 2012-2013 conference year;
- That the Task Force be authorized to expand the study to include all conference and district staff positions, offices and the conference organizational structure, particularly in light of any new legislation coming out of General Conference;
- That unexpended funds authorized by the 2011 conference for the work of the Task Force be carried over, and that an additional $5000 be budgeted for the Task Force for the 2012-2013 conference year; and
- That the Task Force provide the next annual conference a comprehensive report on its findings and its recommendations for action.

Respectfully submitted,

THE CABINET REPORT

The Cabinet is a part of the Annual Conference's charge to equip and connect the local church for its work in "making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." This work of equipping and connecting is both joyful and fearful. It is a joyous moment to be a part of the Greenville District's youth led project "Stop Hunger Now" where literally thousands came together in common cause. It is fearful to hear a local church member tearfully remember the days when they choose not to reach out to their community and to hear the words of regret, "I think that we should have invited the children to our church after football games". Both celebration and lament are witness to our relationships with one another and with our sovereign God.

In 2012, the cabinet chose to focus on questions of connection. It was a choice motivated out of our and local churches desire to be involved in ministry that made a difference. Realities of finance, availability of work force, and value of cooperation came together and created a momentum for conversation and action. With the adoption of the new Connectional Ministries model helping to form ideas and possibilities, many districts began to actually respond to community need with shared ministry. At first, the turn felt forced – and perhaps it was – but as clergy and laity have talked and then moved an appreciation has been created for this work. Many possibilities are created when congregations are focused on stretching the walls of the church and sharing the community as the mission field.

Fewer people trying to do the same things is a common reality for many congregations. It is also a "church killer". Questions of what to do and who will do have become driving forces of change in many congregations. Increasingly, these forces are calling congregations to burrow deeper in how and why they have chosen to value some areas of ministry and some persons more than others. These are hard conversations and a congregation needs trust and appreciation of each person to carry them through. Many congregations lacking the necessary trust and appreciation are trying to avoid the conversation. Superintendents increasingly are called to speak to the conflict that ensues.

One of the most helpful questions of the last year for superintendents has been, "How much time do you spend with healthy churches and how much with unhealthy?" And intentionally the Cabinet has worked to increase time and energy spent with those churches who have chosen to work toward a vitality and an excellence in their ministry. The emphasis on Vital Congregations in 2011 and 2012 uses the tangible evidence of worship attendance, small groups, dollars and people who are involved in mission, and professions of faith to bring into focus the intangible measurement of the gifts of the Spirit. Numbers are not and cannot be our identity but we cannot in good faith leave them out of the conversation.

The financial connections of the Annual Conference are at one and the same time obvious and perplexing. The Cabinet has worked to increase understanding of the budget of the South Carolina Annual Conference and the apportioned items of the General Conference and has joined with the Council on Finance and Administration to curb spending. In addition, the superintendents have worked with local congregations in planning futures that address the reality of new giving habits, more sporadic worship attendance and the unpredictability of contemporary incomes.

Questions of connection also often take us away from our comfort zones. "Building God's Beloved Community" asked members of the Cabinet and other conference leaders to enter into new conversations about the intentionality of shared ministries in diverse settings. Our diversity of the South Carolina Annual Conference moves across geographical, economic and demographic lines but the greatest prize and is the diversity of race within the annual conference. How we will value and live out this prize is a spiritual matter for us. We fall short if we do not only appreciate that diversity but also utilize it for the growing of the Kingdom of God.

In focusing on connection, the Cabinet chose to address the strengths of the United Methodist way. And, like most strengths it can without care and attention become weaker and weaker until it has all the weight of importance without the fluidity of new life. To choose connection is: to take up the life of both our own congregations and the congregations of our brothers and sisters; to maintain an awareness that God is greater than our own vision; to value the shared life of the disciple and to trust that in the midst of the great chaos of connection God is still creating.

2012 is a year of transition for the Cabinet as membership and assignments change. South Carolina Annual Conference Lay Leader, Dr. Joseph Heyward concludes his service on the Extended Cabinet. Director of Connectional Ministries, the Rev. Willie Teague and Director of Clergy Services, the Rev. Tim Rogers also move off the Extended Cabinet. Walterboro and Greenville District Superintendents, the Rev. Dr. Ernest Etheridge and the Rev. Dr. Charles Johnson, leave the Cabinet after eight years of continuous service. Their presence and wisdom have been generous sharing to the Annual Conference and we are grateful.

Finally, a word of appreciation is due to Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor for her leadership and to the churches of the South Carolina Annual Conference for the shared life of the connection.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sara A. White, Dean of the Cabinet

LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY, INC.

As Lake Junaluska prepares to celebrate our 100th anniversary in 2013 we find ourselves proud of our rich past, energized by the present challenges, and excited about the bright future.

We cannot thank you enough for the generous support you have provided to us over the years. We are a part of you and you will forever be a part of us. We fully understand that the Southeastern Jurisdiction is facing significant challenges resulting in a reduction in the financial support provided to traditional partners, including Lake Junaluska. We want to assure you that we are preparing well for a different form of partnership with the Jurisdiction and you, the annual conferences, but do want to strongly affirm our desire to be in true partnership with each of you.

We are making some important improvements with the goal of serving you more effectively. In 2012 we will spend over $1,000,000 on capital improvements to our facilities including $300,000 from the NC Energy Office for the replacement of inefficient heating and cooling systems. Being more “green” is one of our goals for the future. We will use the remainder of the capital improvement funds to get a jump start on a campus master plan which is a part of the overall strategic plan approved by our Board of Directors in October. Included in the plan are the interior and exterior renovations of the Terrace Hotel and Lambuth Inn, the replacement of the Harrell Center and Jones Cafeteria, and the updating of Stuart Auditorium. These changes will be taking place over the course of the next several years but there should be noticeable changes the next time you come to visit us.

The success of every organization is directly dependent on having the right people in the right positions doing the right things. It is also important to have the right number of people in place. There are fewer people employed at Lake Junaluska than there were a year ago at this time, a necessary change given our financial realities. The remaining staff have willingly taken on additional responsibilities and are doing them very well.

Hosting the 2012 SEJ Conference will be a very important event for us. We are doing all we can to prepare for this conference with the hope that every delegate leaves here knowing that we have been good stewards of the resources that have been given to us.

Our mission statement for Lake Junaluska is to be a place of Christian hospitality where lives are transformed through renewal of soul, mind, and body. The significance of having a clear mission statement that people remember and refer to has been impactful. Continuing to create a culture of excellence and fabulous Christian hospitality will be our primary focus in 2012.

The future of Lake Junaluska is indeed very Bright! Thank you for your incredible support as we have begun to live more fully into the potential of this place we call Lake Junaluska.

Jack Ewing, Executive Director

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

“When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you.
When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned;
the flames will not set you ablaze.” – Isaiah 43:2

At its inception, many doubted that the dream could be realized. Yet, in February 2012, Africa University launched a year-long celebration of its 20th anniversary. It has quite a story to tell.

“We serve a faithful God,” says Dr. Fanuel Tagwira, vice chancellor. “As we now celebrate 20 years of existence, we can say ‘Ebenezer’, for this far the Lord has taken us. He will surely take us further because we serve a God who finishes what he starts.”

Recalling the challenges the University faced during Zimbabwe’s economic crisis in 2008-2009, Tagwira noted that “God was on our side...other universities, primary and secondary schools, and hospitals closed, but Africa University students never lost a day of classes.” For this, Tagwira offered his thanks to The United Methodist Church for its responsiveness and unwavering support.

In 2011, twenty-seven annual conferences met 100 percent of their apportionments for the Africa University Fund—up from twenty-one in the previous year. These and all contributions from local congregations are deeply appreciated by the University community as they enable our ministry. Africa University is profoundly grateful for the support.

Enrollment at Africa University is at an all-time high. The current total population of 1634 students is 42% higher than it was for the 2010-11 academic year. There are 23 African countries represented in the student body. At Africa University, male and female students are almost evenly balanced—something that bodes well for increasing the participation of women in decision-making and leadership roles in Africa.

New programs are helping Africa University to grow and remain relevant to community needs across the continent. New academic offerings include undergraduate degree programs in Computer Science and Laboratory Science as well as graduate degree programs in Child and Family Studies, and Public Policy and Governance.

The University is preparing to launch online distance learning. Online training options will focus on areas such as practical theology, health, and business. The initial target countries for Africa University's online distance learning outreach are Angola, Côte d'Ivoire, Democratic Republic of Congo, Liberia, Mozambique, Nigeria, and Sierra Leone.

In June 2011, 349 students from 19 African countries graduated. The graduating class was comprised of 69 graduate students receiving master's degrees, and 280 undergraduate students receiving bachelor's degrees. The Class of 2011 swelled the ranks of Africa University graduates to more than 4,000 since first opening its doors in March 1992.

In their home countries, graduates are addressing critical issues of hunger, poverty, disease, lack of knowledge, and conflict, all of which prevent millions of people in Africa from enjoying God's promise of abundance (John 10:10; Jeremiah 29:11).

At 20, Africa University is part of a crucial feeder system for nurturing a new generation of principled leaders in Africa as evidenced by the number of graduates who are evangelists, pastors, lecturers and administrators of schools, seminaries and universities.

"Many believe that Africa University, voted into being by the 1988 General Conference, is the most exciting ministry that The United Methodist Church has ever founded," says Tagwira. "It is a model of connection; shared responsibility; and best of all, it is a tangible witness to how United Methodists live out the Word of God in a chaotic and self-centered world."

This year, encourage your church to give 100 percent of its Africa University Fund apportionment. The Africa University Fund supports day-to-day operations. Your support helps young people acquire the tools and skills to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ, heal communities, enable dignified living, and foster hope. Thank you for believing in and supporting Africa University.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Candler School of Theology prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world. Our commitment to authentic discipleship and relevant ministry enables us to develop uniquely well-rounded leaders who are challenged academically, encouraged spiritually, and immersed in Christian service from the first day they arrive on campus.

As one of the 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition of evangelical piety, ecumenical openness, and social concern. As one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, Candler provides a rich context for learning and formation supported by the extensive resources of a top-tier research university. As a school located in the major metropolitan area of Atlanta, Candler offers students a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of our 21st century world. There is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. Our enrollment stands at 479, with 372 seeking the Master of Divinity, 64 the Master of Theological Studies, 19 the Master of Theology, 17 the Doctor of Theology, and 7 enrolled as Special, Non-Degree students. The total student population is 22% U.S. ethnic minority, 8% international, and 50% women. Forty-four denominations are represented, with 52% of MDiv students being United Methodist. The median age of our entering class of MDiv students is 26, with 50% of total enrollment under thirty.

An extraordinary gift of $15 million from the O. Wayne Rollins Foundation will make possible the construction of the second phase of the school's new building. In recognition of this gift, the first building—a 65,000-square-foot facility completed in 2008—will be named in memory of the late Rita Anne Rollins, the first grandchild of the foundation's namesake. The new building will house the Pitts Theology Library, additional classrooms and offices, group study areas, and the Wesley Teaching Chapel.

Candler and The General Theological Seminary (GTS) in New York have formed an innovative partnership that includes the sharing of library resources, collaborative educational programs, and the exchange of both students and faculty members. The partnership began this fall with the transfer of 90,000 volumes from GTS to Candler's Pitts Theology Library, and will continue to expand this year via student/faculty exchanges and continuing education programs.

Candler has introduced two new ways to make theological education more accessible. First, we launched a Tuesday-Thursday format for core courses for our incoming students in order to lessen the burden of commuting. Second, we began offering certain courses in an online or hybrid format. Two courses were piloted in January term and spring semester. We remain deeply committed to the highest quality education for our clergy and will offer only those hybrid and online courses that meet a gold standard of excellence in teaching and learning outcomes. Faculty members undergo rigorous training in order to translate their courses to an online format.

Candler continues to emphasize preparing our students for leadership in an increasingly global context. We now offer 17 academic exchanges with theology schools across five continents and 15 countries, including many related to The United Methodist Church. In addition to our ongoing summer internship program with the Methodist Church in the Bahamas, this year's travel seminars included the Middle East Travel Seminar in May-June and World Methodist Evangelism Institute evangelism seminars to Colombia, Indonesia, and Israel.

A hallmark of the Candler MDiv experience, the two-year Contextual Education program shapes our students' pastoral identities by interweaving service at ministry sites with academic analysis in the classroom and spiritual reflection in pastor-led small groups. In any given week, Candler deploys more than 250 ConEd students throughout the region to minister to people in congregations, hospitals, and social service agencies. This year we have continued Candler Advantage, a program designed to pay rising third-year MDiv students for summer internships in congregations so they can further hone their pastoral skills beyond the first two years of ConEd.

Candler's Lifelong Learning events strengthen the church by providing opportunities for clergy and lay leaders to learn more about the practice of ministry. Our Fall Conference, "The Art of Preaching in the 21st Century," brought to campus some of the most respected names in preaching, including Otis Moss Jr. and James Howell. The Spring Conference, "The Singing Church," gathered experts to lead an exploration of the best practices and emerging trends of congregational song.

In addition to our Lifelong Learning events, Candler oversees the educational process of more than 900 people each year through the Course of Study regional school and our five extension schools in the Southeast.

Despite today's challenging economic climate, Candler remains steadfastly committed to making theological education financially feasible. Although our operating budget essentially remained flat this year, we dedicated $4.5 million to financial aid. Seventy-seven percent of eligible students received Candler-based financial aid, with the average award covering more than two-thirds of tuition.

Our widely respected faculty continues to distinguish itself, both in academia and in churches and denominational bodies at local, national, and international levels. This year, faculty members garnered prestigious grants and fellowships from the Guggenheim Foundation, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the Louisville Institute, among others. Dr. Carol Newsom recently completed a term as president of the Society of Biblical Literature. In Fall 2011 we welcomed two new faculty members: Jennifer Ayres in religious education and Anthony Briggman in the history of early Christianity. In Fall 2012 we welcome Neil Alexander, current bishop of the Episcopal Archdiocese of Atlanta, as director of our Anglican Studies Program and Ted Smith as assistant professor of homiletics and ethics. Our UM faculty presence remains strong, with 36 percent of our full-time faculty being United Methodist.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us in person in Atlanta or online at www.candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

The academic year 2011–2012 has been a year of strengthening the foundation of our mission and vision for Duke Divinity School. After completing his initial two-year appointment as dean, Richard Hays has accepted a full-term appointment by the President and Provost of Duke University to continue in the role as Dean of Duke Divinity School. Lacey Warner, who has served as associate dean for academic formation and programs and associate professor of the practice of evangelism, has accepted the position of Executive Vice-Dean. She will oversee the day-to-day operations of the school, including oversight of academic programs, centers, and initiatives. We are thankful to have in place two exceptionally qualified leaders.

The school's highly successful existing degree programs (M.Div., M.T.S., Th.M., and Th.D.) continue to attract some of the most talented and committed men and women who desire to be trained for ministry at Duke Divinity School. The M.Div. program remains at the heart of the school's mission, serving as the basic program for the formation of students called to ordained ministry.

We were very pleased to welcome a diverse, energetic, and academically strong group of new students in the fall of 2011, our largest. Of the 151 entering students seeking the three-year M.Div. degree (bringing our total M.Div. enrollment to 443), 52 percent are United Methodist, 15 percent are Baptist, 8 percent are Anglican or Episcopal, and 4 percent are Presbyterian. Forty-six other denominations round out the M.Div. class.

At the same time, the Divinity School has expanded in recent years to include new degree programs, centers and initiatives, houses of study, and a Leadership Education program. During the past year we have sought to articulate the ways that all of these efforts are integrally connected to the mission of the school. These various components of Duke Divinity School are not separate silos of ministry or learning. Instead, they all work together to embody our vision for the future of the church. The Center for Reconciliation, Leadership Education, Duke Initiatives in Theology and the Arts, and Christianity and Healthcare all build bridges to meet needs in the church, academy, and the world.

Our three new degree programs, which formally launched in 2011, are off to a successful start:

- The Master of Arts in Christian Studies (M.A.C.S) welcomed 18 students to this one-year, residential program. This degree provides theological reflection for people called to non-ordained ministry or service to the church or for students seeking an introductory exploration of theological studies
- The Master of Arts in Christian Practice (M.A.C.P.) began this summer with a cohort of 13 students in the Youth Ministry track. Their first intensive week of classes in residence coincided with our Duke Youth Academy in June 2011. The program uses web-based distance learning in coordination with one-week intensive classes in residence so that people can remain in their place of ministry and still receive quality training in theology and Christian practice.
- The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) is a professional doctorate providing advanced study for ordained clergy seeking to deepen and enhance their practice of ministry. Twenty-four students began the program this year. The focus of this first cohort is Leadership in the Christian Tradition.

The quality of the faculty at Duke Divinity School continues to set the standard for theological education. Three professors were awarded prestigious recognition for their books. Willie Jennings, associate professor of theology and black church studies received an award from the American Academy of Religion (AAR) for his book, The Christian Imagination: Theology and the Origins of Race. Norman Wirzba, research professor of theology, ecology, and rural life, won "Book of the Year" honors from The Englewood Review of Books for his book Food and Faith: A Theology of Eating. And American Religion: Contemporary Trends by Mark Chaves, professor of sociology, religion, and divinity at Duke, was named "Book of the Year" by Christianity Today.

In addition to our core mission of academic and spiritual formation, Duke Divinity School experienced exciting developments in our centers and initiatives.

The Center for Reconciliation was given a $300,000 challenge grant from the Stewardship Foundation to explore and expand global reconciliation efforts. Director Chris Rice has made exploratory trips to central Europe and East Asia to gather information about how to best deploy the influence of the Center and the Divinity School. The Center continued its existing programs: the Summer Institute at Duke Divinity School, which equips Christian leaders for the task of reconciliation; formation in reconciliation for students, including summer field education placements; and support for the Africa Great Lakes Institute, which brings together Christian leaders from east Africa to focus on reconciliation.

The Duke Initiatives in Theology and the Arts, led by Professor Jeremy Begbie, continues to develop a robust series of theological and artistic engagements. The 2011 Convocation & Pastors' School was devoted to this theme: Jeremy Begbie delivered the Gray Lectures, Duke University music professor Anthony Kelley performed with the BLAK Ensemble, novelist Marilynne Robinson gave a reading and interview, and the Rev. Lillian Daniel preached the Convocation sermons.

Leadership Education at Duke Divinity oversees programs for the United Methodist Church, including Clergy Health Initiative, a $12 million, 7-year program to improve the health of United Methodist clergy; Thriving Rural Communities; and Study Leave for Ministry Professionals. The Duke Youth Academy for Christian Formation attracts dozens of high-school students each summer. Finally, Faith & Leadership, the online magazine of Leadership Education, continues to extend the reach of Duke Divinity School to provide deeper reflection on Christian leadership through video interviews with transformative leaders, theological reflections, and in-depth articles. See <http://faithandleadership.com/>

We remain deeply grateful for the relationships among the United Methodist Church, this Annual Conference, and Duke Divinity School. We look forward to working cooperatively with you in the task of preparing men and women for Christian ministry. GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, GA, is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of six historically African American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a co-educational, professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world's premier resource for black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socio-economic challenges confronting the African American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church and with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of the United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African American higher education. It is also a member of The University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Religious Education, the Master of Arts in Church Music, the Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) in Pastoral Counseling, and the Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.). There are also a number of dual degree programs offered in cooperation with seminaries and schools in the Atlanta Theological Association. Admission is open to qualified men and women of the United Methodist Church.

Because of the support of this Annual Conference, Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support and educate pastors and leaders for the United Methodist Church. There are at least three significant ways that we have lived out our mission and furthered our vision:

- 1) Enrolled one of the largest entering classes on record for our institution. This entering class is comprised of young persons (average age of 25) called by God to be prophetic leaders for the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

- 2) Instituted the Merit Scholars Program, which is a scholarship for incredibly bright and called students, that covers full tuition and fees. Gammon/ITC is able to attract these students because of your contributions to the Ministerial Education Fund.
- 3) Launched the Center for the Study of Religion and Race. Gammon/ITC's historic commitment to producing public theologians – men and women who are spiritually astute, intellectually keen, politically sophisticated, and culturally sensitive – is advanced with the establishment of this Center. With assistance from the General Commission on Religion and Race, it is Gammon/ITC's desire to continue the great work of addressing issues of cultural competency, advocacy and education in areas that further racial justice and equity.

Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this Annual Conference for your support of theological education, and for your commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead us forward.

Dr. Albert Mosley, President-Dean

MARIAN RUTHE WOODLE DYER

February 11, 1959 - March 29, 2012

Marian Ruthe Woodle Dyer, the daughter of Clarence Marion and Hattie Ruthe Woodle, was born in Chester, South Carolina, February 11, 1959. She passed from this earth peacefully on March 29, 2012, and moved into her heavenly Father's presence. Her life spanned fifty-three years, with five as a Minister in the South Carolina Conference. Introduced at a blind date ten months prior, Marian married a young sailor, Mikell D. Dyer, February 16, 1980. They shared their immense love by providing life to a beautiful daughter on December 10, 1993 and using her ancestral heritage named her Adrian Ruthe. She is a very active member and Youth Leader of Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church, Pomaria.

At the age of thirty-five, in 1994, Marian received her calling into the ministry of the church. Within a span of fourteen years of her academic life, being a wife, mother, and college student she attended Macon State College and Columbia College obtaining a Bachelor of Arts Degree, in 2004, graduating with honors.

Pressing on in her calling from her Lord, Marian attended Erskine Theological Seminary and obtained her Master of Divinity Degree in 2008, again with honors.

At the age of forty-eight, in 2007, Marian began her pastorate at Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church. Always with a welcome smile and compassionate spirit she considered it a blessing to have been at this church at this time of her adult life. She was not only loved and respected by the members of Mt. Pleasant Church, but also by several other denominations of clergy as she served her community within the Newberry County Ministerial Association.

An evangelist from birth, Marian loved The Lord and lived by example never wavering from His guidance.

SANDRA HARDIN HATCHELL

February 29, 1956 – April 5, 2012

The Rev. Dr. Sandra Hardin Hatchell, 56, wife of Ralph Eugene Hatchell, Jr. of Pawley's Island, S.C., went home to be with the Lord and join her waiting loved ones on Thursday, April 5, 2012, at Georgetown Memorial Hospital. Rev. Dr. Hatchell was born the daughter of Delmer Elsworth Hardin and Aileen Yoakum Hardin on February 29, 1956, in Wichita, Kansas.

She was a United States Army Veteran and an Ordained Minister of the United Methodist Church. Though words could never fully describe all her life, she committed her life to acts of selfless giving, extensive Biblical Studies, and fervent prayer. She gave her devotion and unconditional love to her family to earn her the distinguished title - Beloved Mother.

Sandra and Ralph were married March 9, 1985, and celebrated 27 years together. From their blessed union was a daughter Alexandria Hatchell Newton and step daughter, Laura Hatchell Morris. She leaves behind daughters, a granddaughter Ashley M. Calcutt; and two great grandchildren, Carter Calcutt and Zileigh Calcutt. She also leaves behind a sister, Sherry Thomas; and a brother, Alan Hardin.

During her 16 years as a full Elder with the United Methodist Church of South Carolina she wrote "Spiritual Warfare: A How To Guide for Defeating Satan". Sandra was a pastor at the following churches: Cumberland UMC (Assistant pastor in Florence), Hebron UMC, Pergamos UMC (Cades Hebron), Target UMC, Gerizim UMC (Holly Hill), Mt Dearborn UMC, Heath Chapel UMC (Great Falls), Cottageville UMC, Rehoboth UMC (Cottageville), St. Paul UMC, Republican UMC (McCormick), Suttons UMC, Trio UMC, and Earles UMC (Andrews). The Rev. Dr. Hatchell received multiple degrees during her life. Of those were a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from Limestone College; a Masters of Divinity from Lutheran Seminary; and finally a Doctorate from Therapon University in Biblical Counseling. Sandra had been very active in the Native American Task Force in South Carolina. She worked closely with her daughter, Alexandria Hatchell Newton, in the American Indian Scouting Association and spent her share of time in soup kitchens, helping the poor and hungry during holidays. While at Cumberland UMC, Sandra spent a great deal of time working with at risk teens and starting a youth center for them.

Even though she held multiple church charges at every move, Sandra always found time to help in the community. Whether it was playing softball, working with horses, donating her time at soup kitchens, working with at risk youth, she also crocheted blankets that she would pray over to give to those members of the church and community who were ill or just needed to know they were being prayed for.

Sandra was diagnosed with stage IV breast cancer in October of 2010. God had great plans for Rev. Hatchell. Her time as a minister was short but she touched every person she came in contact with. She was a fighter as a minister, a fighter as a wife and mother, and a fighter as a cancer patient. Her favorite scripture was Psalms 27 and it describes her well. "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid?...In this I will be confident. Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart; Wait, I say, on the Lord!" On April 5th 2012, she was rewarded for service and faith by going peacefully to be with the Lord our Father. As it says in Matthew 25:23: "His Master replied, well done good and faithful servant".

RETIRED MINISTERS

LEMUEL CORYDON CARTER

October 19, 1938 – December 18, 2011

In a phrase he described himself as "thankful for rich blessings". The son of Doris Coffey Carter and Lemuel Corydon Carter, Sr., Lem Carter spent his young years in the Daytona Beach, Florida area. Friends there knew him as "Corydon". At the age of 12 he moved to Manning, South Carolina with his mother and sister, Cean Carter Norris. She called him "Brother". Soon everybody else did, too. His mother was a long-time Methodist. It was in Manning at the Manning United Methodist Church that his relationship with the SC United Methodist Conference began.

Lem graduated from Wofford College in 1960, served in the U.S. Army Adjutant General Corps and then attended seminary at Emory University. He received a doctorate from the Lutheran Seminary in 1990 and an Honorary Doctorate from Wofford College in 1997. His service in ministry spans 39 years. Lem served as a local church pastor, a district superintendent and the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries. Lem was a strong advocate for the status and the role of women, single parent concerns, ethnic local church inclusivity and raising the quality of life for all people. He was especially happy to have played a major role in bringing together more than 10,000 people for the Vision 2000 Evangelistic Launch event in 1994. In 1988 he received the Order of The Palmetto, the highest honor given by the state of SC to a person exemplifying outstanding service to the state and her people.

"Brother" lived by love and faith. He married Mary Harriet Wiggins Carter. In a writer's notebook that he kept for a few years prior to his death he said "Mary Harriet loves me more than life itself.....I love her more." They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on November 25, 2011. After retiring in 2003, Brother and Mary Harriet moved to Chapin, SC. He could endure anything with his faith in God and Mary Harriet by his side. He loved spending time with his family. His children, Leila Carter, Alice and Larry White and his grandsons Carter and Caleb White all live in the Chapin area. His daughter Susan Fischer and her husband Joey live with their children Lauren, Katie and Matt, in Mount Pleasant, SC.

Daddy accomplished great things. But those are not what stands out to me most. He spent seven amazing years fighting a terrible disease but always made something positive out of his situation. Taking care of his yard, watching tennis matches, eating ice cream and watching football with his grandsons made him happy. Traveling to the Grand Canyon, New York and New Orleans invigorated him. Spending time in his cabin at Lake Junaluska with Mary Harriet and extended family gave him laughter. A day at Flagler Beach took him back to his childhood and playing with Aunt Cean in the ocean. Hanging out with Lemuel and Woody Wiggins gave him fun. Loving and appreciating people energized him. In his writer's notebook he said "I am happy for... being at peace in spite of cancer. I am a very happy person. I have the best soul mate, a happy home, a comfortable home which Mary Harriet and I enjoy very much. Thank you, God." His love for Mary Harriet, his gratitude, his positive energy, his gift for making people feel good about themselves, his laughter and his peace.....his legacy.

GEORGE SUMMERS DUFFIE, JR.

June 3, 1935 – June 18, 2011

George S. Duffie, Jr. was born in Rock Hill, SC, to the Rev. George S. Duffie, Sr. and Audrey Midyette Duffie and spent 40 years of ministry in South Carolina. He graduated from Wofford College in 1957, having been elected to the Senior Order of Gnomes and Blue Key. He Received a Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1960 and an Ed.D. in Higher Education Administration from the University of South Carolina in 1982, during which time he was awarded the Bishop James C. Baker Award from the General Board of Higher Education, given to a campus minister, pursuing a doctoral degree.

George married Mary Elise Watson of Florence, SC, in 1958 and served the following appointments: Lake View Charge; Trinity, Conway; Trinity, West Columbia; Bethel, Bethune; Hibben, Mt. Pleasant; and St. John's, Aiken. Some of the most rewarding days of ministry were when he was appointed to be the United Methodist Chaplain at the University of South Carolina from 1969-1983. In 1983 Bishop Roy Clarke appointed him as the district superintendent of the Greenville District, 1983-1988.

In addition to his wife, Mary, he is survived by a wonderful, loving family of two sons and a daughter, their spouses and eight grandchildren: Summers and Sharon Duffie, and their children, Audrey, George III, and Sam; Luther and Jackie Duffie, and their children, Christina, Traywick and Kathryn and Alyson and Jeff Price, and their children, Brittany and Austin. He is also survived by one sister, June (Sandie) Griffeth of Mt. Pleasant, and one brother, Traywick Duffie and his wife, Carol, five nieces and several cousins.

During his years at The University of South Carolina, while registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry, he designed and for three years, administered a program for ministers in their first appointment called Residence in Ordained Ministry. Michael Henderson, pastor at Cayce UMC, was a part of the first residency class and said, "George's care for the future and for his fellow clergy was seen best in his creation of the residency program."

Rev. Bob Clyburn, a friend from early childhood spoke of George with these words, "George was a lifelong friend, as close and dear as a brother, whose brilliance of mind and spirit enlightened us all so much, and at his leaving us, a light was taken from our lives that shall never be replaced."

His concern for social justice was summed up by Rev. Bill Kinnett who spoke of George with these words, "His courage helped us stand firm when we were tempted to compromise the truth of the gospel for convenience or popularity."

After forty years of ministry in SC, George and Mary retired to Oriental, NC. An avid sailor, George earned the US Coast Guard Master 100 Ton License. He was an active member and past commodore of the Sailing Club of Oriental and volunteered in many other activities in the community, including being active at the Oriental UMC. He enjoyed sailing with family and friends but one of his greatest joys was fishing with his grandchildren along the banks of the Neuse River.

DONALD FRANKLIN FUNDERBURK

November 20, 1933 - October 7, 2011

The Reverend Donald Franklin Funderburk, born November 20, 1933, entered Life Eternal October 7, 2011. A native of Lancaster, South Carolina, he was a son of the late Wade Hampton Funderburk and Estelle Williams (Funderburk) Plyler. He was a 1951 graduate of Buford High School in Lancaster. He served in the U.S. Navy for four years as a Dental Assistant and Lab Technician. Upon his discharge from military service, in January, 1956, Don entered Wofford College, where he received the Bachelor of Arts degree in May, 1959. In 1963 he received the Master of Divinity degree from Duke University.

Mr. Funderburk entered the SC United Methodist Conference on trial in 1960, was ordained Deacon in 1961 and Elder in 1963. He spent a total of 38 years serving as pastor of United Methodist Churches. Student appointments were Campobello, Gillburg Charge (Henderson, NC), and Jerusalem and Zion (Norlina, NC) Full time appointments were: Plum Branch Charge; Epting Memorial (Newberry); Pageland; Jackson Charge (Bethel and Wesley Chapel); St. Paul (New Ellenton); Lake City; Main Street (Abbeville); Bethel Park (Denmark); St. Mark (Columbia); and St. George. He retired in 1996.

Don Funderburk loved life and was active his entire life, even to his last day, in spite of declining health. He loved his Lord and was faithful to Him all his days. He was an excellent preacher and theologian, as well as a beloved pastor to his congregations and to the communities in which he lived. He loved his family and always wanted the best for them. At retirement, Don and Mary moved to their home at Lake Junaluska, and became part of First United Methodist Church in Waynesville and of Lake Junaluska Assembly. In retirement they enjoyed traveling.

He loved to tell stories of growing up on a farm in rural Lancaster County and stories of his Navy days, where he received his "call to ministry." He worked hard at being a good student at both Wofford and Duke. He enjoyed serving on several Conference Boards and Agencies.

Don enjoyed construction and renovation projects in several pastorates: building a parsonage at Troy, and a Fellowship Hall at both Republican (McCormick) and Bethel (Jackson). Renovations included: the Fellowship Hall at Epting and the sanctuaries at St. Paul, Lake City, and St. George.

Mr. Funderburk was preceded in death by his brother, Charles Wade Funderburk, of Asheville and a grandson, Thomas Funderburk Brown, of Summerville. He is survived by his wife of 53 years, Mary Amick Funderburk; a son Marc Lindsay Funderburk (Betts Hagood) of North Augusta; and a daughter, Celeste Funderburk Brown (Arthur E., Jr.) of Summerville. He is also survived by five granddaughters: Dr. Jennie E. Halthcock (Judson) of Summerville, Anne L. Funderburk and Kate L. Funderburk of Charleston, Caroline M. Brown and Julia E. Brown of Summerville; a sister, Mary Elizabeth F. Phillips (W.A.) of Lancaster; a sister-in-law, Opal Buchanan Funderburk of Asheville; a sister-in-law, Jean Amick Bobo and brother-in-law The Rev. Kenneth Gordon Bobo, of Spartanburg, in addition to several nieces and nephews.

A Service of Celebration for the life of Donald Franklin Funderburk was held on Sunday, October 9, 2011 at First United Methodist Church of Waynesville, NC. The Rev. Sanford Giles, The Rev. Wilson Strickhausen, Dr. A.V. Huff, Jr., and The Rev. Norwood P. Montgomery were the officiating ministers for the service. Interment was at Garrett-Hillcrest Memorial Park in Waynesville. Active pallbearers were: Allen B. Aiken, Kevin G. Bobo, Austin R. Bobo, Rev. Brian Gilmer, Dr. Keith Grant, and Rev. Morris Thompson.

"Well done, good and faithful servant!" We love you now and always will!

VINCENT F. HALTER JR.
April 19, 1932 – May 22, 2012

By the time Pastor Vincent F. Halter Jr. (Ret. Col. USAF) of Lake Wateree heard his Creator say, "Well done good and faithful servant," he may have lived enough for four people. During his 80 years on this earth, Vince was a minor league baseball pitcher, a Citadel graduate, a United States Air Force Colonel, a college administrator, a United Methodist Local Pastor, a husband, a father, and a friend.

Vince was born on April 19, 1932 in Jacksonville, Florida to Vincent Francis Halter and Louise Huff Halter. In the early 1950's, Vince's dream of becoming a professional baseball player became a reality as he signed with the Detroit Tigers and began pitching in the minor leagues. His desire for higher education trumped his love of baseball, so Vince traded in his baseball uniform for a Citadel cadet uniform. After graduating from the Citadel in 1954, Vince entered the United States Air Force. This was the start of a 27-year career that led him from fighter pilot and instructor of F-102, F-4 and F-15's, to Base Commander at Holloman Air Force Base in New Mexico, and introduced him to his future wife. Vince and Nancy were married in March of 1969 and, not long after, were deployed overseas on assignment with NATO. Upon returning to the United States, Vince retired from the United States Air Force as a Colonel in 1981 and immediately began his new job at USC-Sumter where he served as an Associate Dean, while teaching American Government and Public Administration. After 18 years at the University, Vince retired once again, but this time it was to answer God's call into the ministry as a United Methodist Local Pastor in 1998. Vince served God as a Local Pastor with the congregations of the Rembert-St. John United Methodist Church Charge where he preached three sermons every Sunday. He retired from congregational ministry in 2011 but continued to minister to and with everyone he encountered.

Vince was surrounded by his wife, his three children, their spouses, and a dear friend in ministry when his heart gave its final beat on May 22, 2012. Even though he was known and loved by many, he was known and loved best by his wife of 44 years, Nancy Halter; his son and daughter-in-law, Michael and Kathleen Halter; his daughter Lisa Halter; his daughter and son-in-law Angela and Lee Marshall.

A Celebration of Life was held for Vince on Friday, May 25, 2012 at Aldersgate United Methodist Church in Sumter where the Reverend Michael Henderson and Reverend Larry Brown officiated a beautiful home-going for a man who was "larger than life".

JOHN G. HIPPI

September 29, 1914 – September 20, 2011

After John graduated from Emory Seminary, he was appointed to serve the Cross Anchor Charge.

It was during the World War II era, and then he was transferred to Pickens. A number of ministers were serving as Chaplains at that time. This transfer was made during the conference year, due to the shortage of ministers.

After serving Pickens for two years, John decided to volunteer as a Chaplain. He served in the European area until he was entitled to return to the States and to retire from military service.

During his service in the S.C. Conference, he served churches in Belton, Startex, Central, Providence, Graniteville, Edgefield, North Columbia area, West Columbia, Newberry and Greenwood.

John gave himself and his time to ministering to others with various needs. He also served in several conference areas as Chairman of Board of Pensions, Board of Hospitals and Homes, and Board of Ordained Ministry in Greenwood.

After suffering a heart attack, he retired from the ministry, but later continued to serve as a retired minister wherever he was needed for a number of years.

After he retired completely, he spent much time gardening at his homeplace near Saluda. When he was about 85 years old he did backyard gardening until he was in his mid-90's. He became disabled to work as he had for many years. At the age of 96 he died with a joy in his heart that "something glorious was about to transpire".

JOSEPH McALLISTER, SR.

April 19, 1918 – September 29, 2011

Reverend Joseph McAllister, Sr., faithful Servant of the Most High God, was quietly called by God to his Heavenly home from his earthly residence on Thursday, September 29, 2011. God gently whispered in his ear, "Joseph, come home."

Reverend McAllister was born in the Syracuse Community, Darlington, South Carolina, to the late Julius and Carrie Mack McAllister. He was the elder of two children.

Reverend McAllister attended the public schools of Darlington County. He completed the Conference Course of Study at Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, GA, where he graduated number one in his class. He believed that a call to preach was a call to prepare.

At the tender age of nine years of age, Rev. McAllister wanted to go to the "Mourner's Bench." He asked his Mama what to say. His Mama's response was, "Joseph, you are too little." According to his Mama, he replied, "Tell me what to say," Again—according to his Mama—she told him to say, "O, Lord, save my soul." He said just that and got up singing, "Satan, I'm Gonna Tear Your Kingdom Down." Rev. McAllister confessed and received Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and Savior, and joined Shiloh United Methodist Church. He acknowledged and accepted his call to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ at nine years of age. Even at that young age, Rev. McAllister was active in the church. He was invited to sit with the Pastor in the pulpit at that age.

Reverend McAllister was married to his beloved "Gladys", the late Mrs. Gladys Marks McAllister for almost 62 years, who he loved, honored, cherished and respected. Their union was blessed by God with six daughters and eleven sons. Rev. McAllister was extremely devoted to his wife and children. He was a good husband and father. He always took care of home first with love and devotion. He was a strict compassionate disciplinarian because he wanted to prepare his children for the world that he knew that they would encounter outside of the home. He was a God fearing man who LOVED the Lord and he instilled that reverence and love in his children and grandchildren. He had a strong faith that he imparted into his children and grandchildren by example. He loved the church and instilled that love in his children and grandchildren.

Rev. McAllister was a retired United Methodist Pastor. He was an Itinerate Elder in the United Methodist Church of the South Carolina Conference. After retiring as an active Pastor in 1988, Rev. McAllister was immediately called back as a Supply Pastor during the same Annual Conference. After four Supply Pastor Appointments, Rev. McAllister returned to his home church, Shiloh United Methodist Church. He continued to be called upon frequently to preach.

Rev. McAllister was blessed and favored by God with the gift of exceptional and effective pastoral skills. His pastorates included: 1961 Glenn Chapel; 1962 Beulah and Shiloh; 1971 Kingstree East, 1972 Bennettsville Circuit, 1979 Little Rock Parish. His Supply Pastorates included: The Jefferson Parish twice; Bethel on the Cheraw Parish and Mt. Beulah of the Mt. Beulah-Hopewell Charges. Denominational Service: District Board of Church Location and Building 1980-1984; Community Action Agency 1975-1980. He always talked about how God blessed and favored him to pastor 29 churches.

Rev. McAllister was preceded in death by: his mother; his wife, Mrs. Gladys Marks McAllister; four adult sons, Rev. Joseph, Jr., Rev. John, Charles and Howard McAllister; two infant sons, Francis Paul and Franklin Timothy.

Daddy, your memory will live on forever within our hearts. Your love—our love—will never die.

JOHN WINIFRED ROBINSON

October 2, 1910 – September 1, 2011

John Winifred Robinson was born in Greer, South Carolina to the Reverend Thomas John Robinson, a second generation Methodist pastor, and Mrs. Rebecca Spann Robinson, a mid-wife. After completing his formative education in Kingstree, he dreamed of playing professional baseball with the Negro League. He attended Claflin College where he accepted his call to ministry and met a beautiful, young aspiring teacher, Earnestine W. Williams. Their union lasted seventy-five years.

After graduating from Claflin, he attended Gammon Theological Seminary. From his first appointment, when he “thumbed a ride” with truck drivers from Orangeburg to North Charleston, to visit the sick on Saturday, and preach on Sunday, he was committed to servant leadership and a genuine love for God’s people. Throughout his life, Rev. Robinson loved to preach. His melodious voice lifted souls who hungered to hear the word of God. A master storyteller, he could recite most of the Psalms. He earned a reputation as an organizer for leading several churches through building projects. In each appointment he met people where they were, cast a vision, led them to take ownership of it, and to live it out. Each church met 100% of their conference benevolence and apportionments every year.

Rev. Robinson inspired youth in the communities he served. He encouraged scores to his beloved Claflin, and others, whom he mentored in ministry, to his beloved Gammon. He also inspired his family: John W., Jr., a chemist; Annette, a US2 Missionary; and William Thomas, an Elder in the UMC. Rev. Robinson lived to witness his oldest grandson ordained an Elder in the UMC, and his youngest grandson preach his first sermon Father’s Day 2011. He was always an active member of the Democratic Party, the NAACP, and the SCLC because he believed that the church should shape policy to make life better for the people it was called to serve. While in Saint George, he and his wife brought the federal program Head Start to Dorchester, Allendale, and Berkley Counties. During the 1940’s, when it was not safe for blacks to fight racist systems of the South and black youth had no place to socialize in rural areas, Robinson worked publically for change. He purchased a movie projector and a jukebox to show Negro movies and to open the fellowship space as a dance hall for the community’s youth. Many highlights marked his journey: In the Civil Rights Movement, he fought for voters’ rights. He took the voters’ rights struggle to a conference at the White House during President Johnson’s administration. In the church, he fought racial injustice in the segregated Central Jurisdiction. He participated in the national BMCR organizing conference in Cincinnati, Ohio. After Rev. Robinson retired, Governor Riley appointed him to serve eight years on the Commission to Human Right’s Affairs Committee from the suggestion of Representative Clyburn. One of his life’s most momentous events was receiving an Honorary Doctorate from his beloved Claflin University where five generations of Robinsons received their undergraduate degrees. To God Be the Glory!

In his last years, Rev. Robinson’s health began to decline. His wife, daughter, and his grandson Andrew provided for his total care. In the midst of his struggles, he felt his family and friends’ love, laughter and deep faith. Although he grew weak, his handshake remained firm. His gentle presence and warm love came through to all who visited. After more than fifty years of ministerial service, he remained a man of deep faith and unwavering courage. Surrounded by family, he left this realm at 101 years of age. Rest in peace, good and faithful servant. The battle is over; the victory is won!

His record of service: 1936 North Charleston Circuit; 1937 Georgetown-Andrews; 1940 Williamston Circuit; 1946 Pendleton Circuit; 1950 Appleton; 1951 Ruffin Circuit; 1954 Bamberg Circuit; 1956 Dillon Circuit; 1964 St. George-Shady Grove; 1969 St. George Charge; 1972 Francis Burns, 1976 Centenary-Alcot; 1978 Bethesda-St. Mary.

OSCAR ALLAN ROGERS JR.
September 10, 1928 – July 28, 2011

Dr. Oscar Allan Rogers Jr. departed this life on Thursday, July 28, 2011 after a period of declining health. Born in Natchez, Mississippi on September 10, 1928, Oscar was the older of two children born to the union of Oscar Rogers Sr. and Maria “Pinkie” Tillman.

After graduating from Brumfield High School he enlisted in the Navy and after a tour of duty he entered Tougaloo College where he completed his undergraduate work with honors, Class of 1950, a History and English major. He acquired a Bachelor of Sacred Theology degree from Harvard Divinity School in 1953. He then went on to receive a Master’s degree in education from Harvard and a doctorate in education from the University of Arkansas. He was Dean and Registrar of Natchez Junior College from 1954 to 1956. He served as President of Arkansas Baptist College, Little Rock, Arkansas from 1956 to 1959. Dr. Rogers was a post-doctoral fellow at the University of Washington, Seattle, Washington.

In 1960, Dr. Rogers came to Jackson State College as Dean of Students. Dr. Rogers spent 24 years at Jackson State University in several different positions, including Professor of Social Science Education and Dean of Graduate School. He especially dedicated to increasing graduate education opportunities for African Americans in the South, after his own experience of being forced to get his initial graduate education in the North.

During his career, Dr. Rogers was a minister and educator. While serving as a full-time administrator, he served as a minister to mostly small, rural congregations in Kentucky, Arkansas, and Mississippi. For twenty-two years, he served as pastor of Asbury United Methodist and Kingsley Chapel United Methodist Church located in Bolton and Edwards respectively (1962-1984). After his retirement from Claflin University, he returned to Jackson where he served as pastor at Christian Banner United Methodist Church and Ebenezer United Methodist Church in Morton, Mississippi. He also assisted at Aldersgate United Methodist Church where he was a faithful servant until his death.

Active in community life, he held memberships in Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. (life membership); South Carolina Educational Association; National Education Association; NAACP (life member); Orangeburg County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors; Board of Directors of the United Negro College Fund Pre-Alumni Council; president of the South Carolina Association of Colleges and Universities; Commissioner of the South Carolina State Tuition Grant Council; the Boy Scouts Troup Committee; Mississippi Teacher's Association; President, Conference of Deans of Black Graduate Schools (1975-1976); Founder of the Utica Chapter, Phi Delta Kappa; Member, Mississippi Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (1962-1984); Member, South Carolina Annual Conference (1984-1994).

For his dedicated service and contributions, Dr. Rogers received numerous awards and honors during his remarkable life, including the Rotary Paul-Harris Fellow (1994). He was the 2003 alumni recipient of the Rabbi Martin Zatzenstein Award, an award established in 1979 to recognize a Harvard Divinity graduate "who exhibits a passionate and helpful interest in the lives of other people, an informed and realistic faithfulness, an embodiment of the idea that love is not so much a way of feeling as a way of acting, and a reliable sense of humor."

Dr. Rogers was preceded in death by his parents and his son, Christopher Allan Rogers. He leaves to cherish his memory, Ethel Lewis Rogers, his loving wife of 62 years; his children, Christian Shawn (Brenda) Rogers and Christoff Ian Rogers; grandchildren, Shekeka Johnson, Christie D. Rogers, Jamaal Lee Rogers, Julius Myles Rogers, and Tramarcus Foster; sister Carolyn Rogers (Jimmy) Robinson and other extended family.

RETIRED DIACONAL MINISTER

WILLIAM BRANT MILLS

August 16, 1943 – February 18, 2012

In the song "I Cannot Sing Tonight", Stephen Foster speaks of having a sorrow too great to sing. That was the feeling of many on February 18th, 2012, when William B. Mills passed away at the age of 68 after a hard fought battle with cancer. Stephen Foster is the only musician from the Suwanee River Valley that most people know of.

Another musician, more familiar to the people of Florence, SC, reigned from that valley – my father, William B. Mills. In Live Oak, Florida, where he was born on August 16th, 1943, they called him "Billy". In Florence, SC, where he served as Diaconal Minister at Central United Methodist Church for over 40 years, he was known as "Bill". To me, of course, he was and will always be "Daddy".

Bill Mills was one of the fortunate few who know how to listen. He listened to his heart. He found his calling. And, he spent his entire life serving God and the Methodist community; turning worship services into worship experiences. Members of the congregation, who also knew how to listen, were lifted up in song, experiencing the liturgy in ways that few are able to. The music at Central United Methodist Church was a part of the worship service, in that it was woven with the sermon and order of service to form a tapestry, a complete picture.

He spent his years at Central taking part in a transformation of the organ, creating an instrument that would assist in worship in ways that only an instrument of its size and depth could. Today, Central's organ contains 64 ranks of pipes totaling nearly 4,000 pipes.

You would be hard pressed to find a life in the community of Florence, SC that hasn't been touched by Bill Mills; whether he played for a wedding or a funeral, he became a part of people's life experience during some of the most important and intimate moments. Just as in a formal worship service, he understood the importance of music to these occasions. He could put the joy people were feeling at a wedding into song. Likewise, he could help people feel what they needed to feel at a funeral.

My father was somewhat iconic in the community. I knew that growing up. I knew that everyone knew who my father was and that that was not the case with the fathers of most of my friends. So for me, despite all of the amazing things he did, he is just "Daddy". Despite having a talent that was clearly apart from the rest, he was just "Daddy". In the last years of his life, he became "Grandfather" to my son Liam; as well as to my brother's children Elliana and William. Six weeks after his passing, his fourth grandchild, Miriam, was born. He wanted so badly to meet her, but the cancer didn't allow for that.

The only thing I ever saw light a passion in his eyes the way music did was these Grandchildren. The love he felt for them was so clear. Watching him love them, showed me how much he had always loved my brother and me. I realized too that the passion I always saw in my father wasn't just for God and music. His passion was for life...for living. In that way, he was always serving and praising God. He transcended being a musician. He became an instrument.

He planned his funeral service while lying in a hospital bed. Although, as Stephen Foster so eloquently expressed, none of us felt like singing after his death, he wanted us to. He wanted us to sing him to heaven. One of the anthems he chose for the choir to sing said:

If you would comfort me, sing me a lullaby
If you would win my heart, sing me a love song
If you would mourn me and bring me to God, sing me a requiem, sing me to Heaven

We were blessed to have had him as a part of our lives...to know someone who could sing us to heaven while our feet were still grounded solidly on Earth.

SPOUSES

NANCY LOIS REESE CLEASBY

November 22, 1933 – February, 22, 2012

Nancy Lois (Reese) Cleasby, 78, wife of J. Bruce Cleasby, left this earthly life on February, 22, 2012 for the eternal life promised to her by her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Nancy was born on November 22, 1933 in Wilkes-Barre, PA to Herman B. and Elizabeth T. Reese.

Nancy and Bruce were married October 10, 1953 and were blessed with four daughters. Bonnie L. East (Keith) of Easley, SC; Barbara L Hansen (Bruce) of Titusville, FL; Sandra L. Cleasby-Zuleger (Duane) of Monroe, NC; and N. Jean MacRae (Jim) of Pineville, NC. Eight Grandsons came along to light up her life and bring more joy into her heart. Nick, Adam, and Ryan East; Joe, Rob, and Tom Hansen; Bruce Phillips and Alex Lyons. All held special places in her heart. She is also survived by her sister, Bonnie Turner of Mountainside, NJ, and numerous nieces and nephews who all loved her kind spirit.

Nancy truly was the consummate wife, mother, and grandmother.

Nancy was an Air Force wife for twenty three years, oftentimes having to be both mother and dad while Bruce was away. After the Air Force she assumed the role of a pastor's wife and parsonage "First Lady" in various United Methodist Churches in PA, NY, and SC. She was a Christian in every way. She lived her faith, loved the Lord and walked daily in His Presence. Her quiet, gentle presence will be sorely missed by all who knew her.

PATRICIA CAMPBELL CRIBB

October 5, 1939 – March 7, 2012

Patricia Campbell Cribb, born October 5, 1939 in Kings Mountain, NC, died March 7, 2012 in Union, SC of complications from pulmonary disease.

In 1944, the Campbell family settled in Georgetown, SC where Patricia graduated from Winyah High School (1957) and served as captain of the Color Guard. She was Beauty Queen with many titles including Miss Georgetown and Miss South Carolina Timber Festival.

Patricia wanted to be most remembered for the outstanding wife and mother she was, but she also was an accomplished business woman. After marrying in 1957, she and husband John established a retail clothing store in Georgetown which she managed. They moved to Dallas, TX in 1966, where she worked for Dallas Power & Light and Dillard's. Upon returning to Georgetown, SC in 1994 she started Miss Emma Jane's, a tea room and gift shop that is still remembered as a local favorite today. She was an active, caring pastor's wife, and a Realtor with Keller Williams, Spartanburg at the time of her death.

Patricia is survived by husband Rev. John Cribb of Union, SC; son John Cribb of San Luis Obispo, CA and family Mike and Jamie; son Wesley Cribb and family Eileen, Joshua, Zeny, Emma Grace and Presley of Keller, TX; sisters Betty Megard of Denver, NC; Peggy Lewis of Palm Harbor, FL and Helen Wynn of Georgetown and brother Lamar Campbell of Georgetown and several nieces and nephews.

BARBARA HUGGINS DEAN

May 16, 1932 – January 13, 2012

Barbara Huggins and Dewey Dean were married on June 13, 1954 in the parsonage of the Spring Hill Charge in Lee County by his cousin, Rev. Charles Kirkley. From this marriage came one son, Dewey, Jr.; daughter-in-law, Robin; and grandchildren, Kyle and Halley.

Dewey entered the full-time ministry at the 1960 Session of The South Carolina Annual Conference. During their thirty-five years in the conference, they served the Ruby Charge; St. Matthew Charge, Bishopville; Zion-Zoar Charge, Pageland; the Ruffin Charge; St. John, Blacksburg; First Church, Harleyville; St. Mark, Charleston; Shiloh-Zoar Charge, Chesterfield.

She was a devoted wife, loving mother and grandmother. Barbara made a strong Christian witness everywhere she went. She had a great compassion for all people and was always willing to listen, sympathize and empathize with others.

God took her home on January 13, 2012 after a long and difficult battle with cancer. All who knew her were inspired by her faith and courage during her illness.

She continues to dwell in and bless the hearts of those who love her.

MARGARET ANN "MARGIE" GIBSON WILLIAMS

May 27, 1939 – May 5, 2012

²² But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³ gentleness and self-control. Galatians

⁴ Love is patient, love is kind, it isn't jealous, it doesn't brag, it isn't arrogant, ⁵ it isn't rude, it doesn't seek its own advantage, it isn't irritable, it doesn't keep a record of complaints, ⁶ it isn't happy with injustice, but it is happy with the truth. ⁷ Love puts up with all things, trusts in all things, hopes for all things, endures all things. (1 Corinthians 13)

Margie entered the Kingdom of Heaven on Saturday, May 5, 2012. Born on May 27, 1939 in Egan, TN, she was a daughter of the late Arthur and Artie White Gibson. She attended Bryan College in Dayton, TN where she met her future husband and began their 52 year journey together. She lived her life in service to her Lord, her family, and to those she met through her varied careers as a house mother at Bachman Memorial Children's Home in Cleveland, TN; Church Secretary at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Chattanooga, TN; Secretary and Church Hostess at Eastminster Presbyterian Church and Trenholm Road United Methodist Church.

She loved cooking, entertaining, reading, going to the beach and painting with water colors. Margie's gift for ministry was shared in her love of cooking and hospitality. All were welcome in her home where she raised not only her four daughters, but at various times, other children as well. She exemplified the fruits of the spirit as well as 1 Corinthians 13. She modeled a life of love, prayer, and forgiveness for her family.

SURVIVING SPOUSES

VIRGINIA PIPER CLAYTOR

July 21, 1924 - December 4, 2011

Virginia Piper Claytor, widow of Rev. William R. Claytor, Jr., was born July 21, 1924 in Tallulah, LA. She lived in various locations in Louisiana, Mississippi, and Tennessee before coming to South Carolina to continue her education. She married Bill Claytor in 1951 and became his soul mate and lifelong partner in ministry in the South Carolina United Methodist Conference. Together they served Ebenezer in Greenville, Poe Mill in Greenville, Slater, Enoree, Pelzer, Lynwood-Trinity in Lancaster, Rehoboth in Columbia, Bethel in Simpsonville, St. John-Laurens Road Greenville, Zoar in Greer, and Buncombe Street in Greenville.

Ginny was by nature shy and quiet, but with a tender heart and a keen wit she developed the "gift of gab" required of a Minister's wife. She was actively involved in the life of the churches they served, and especially at Buncombe Street since 1979.

She is survived by her children, Judy Snow (Don) of Nashville, TN; Pam Evans (Doug) of Greenville; Barbara Masemore (Chip) of Cape May, NJ; Steve Claytor (Sandi) of Williamston; 9 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

Her life was active, full, and joyful through the morning of her injury. She touched many lives and will be lovingly remembered for her selflessness, strength, humor, playful spirit, and kindness.

A celebration of Ginny's life was held at Buncombe Street United Methodist Church in Greenville on Thursday, December 8, 2011.

ELLEN V. RICHBURG CROKER

January 29, 1912 – September 15, 2011

Mrs. Ellen V. Croker was born January 29, 1912 in Manning, S.C, and departed this life on September 15, 2011 in Moncks Corner, S.C. The wife of the late Rev. James Alton Croker, Sr., Ellen was preceded in death by her daughter Carol, and left behind a son J. Alton, Jr., 4 grandchildren, 1 great grandchild, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Ellen began her Christian journey at Elizabeth Baptist Church in Manning, SC. Upon uniting in marriage to Rev. Croker in 1940, she affiliated with the United Methodist Church, and served in various capacities as a Pastor's wife. After the death of her husband, Ellen joined Zion UMC (now known as New Light), where she served on the Trustee Board and Missions Committee. Ellen was also active at the national level with the United Methodist Women.

Ellen's life was characterized by service to her community, with an emphasis on education. A graduate of S.C. State College, Ellen committed over 30 years to teaching in public education in Cross and St. Stephen schools, was a longtime volunteer in area literacy programs, and was active in numerous social and community organizations. She stood on the vanguard of the Civil Rights Movement in Berkeley County, serving as one of the first black teachers in formerly segregated schools. Ellen lived her life with integrity and rested in the grace of the Lord. She is greatly missed.

DOROTHY JONES CROUCH

August 1, 1929 – August 13, 2011

Dorothy J. Crouch was born in Saluda County, South Carolina on August 1, 1929. She attended local schools until her marriage to the late Thomas N. Crouch. Mr. and Mrs. Crouch were the parents of one child who died when he was only eleven years old.

She was a caring person who was always concerned about others - especially children. After the death of her son, she was the babysitter for a neighbor's child. She and Mr. Crouch considered this child and his sister as their own until Mr. and Mrs. Crouch passed away. For many years Dorothy and Thomas were active members of Gassaway United Methodist Church where she led a children's message each week and he served on the board and taught Sunday School. Dorothy supported Mr. Crouch faithfully when he entered the ministry late in life and served in various ways at the churches in which he was the pastor. After his retirement Dorothy and Thomas returned to Saluda County and Gassaway UMC.

BEULAH MAYE "BILLIE" CHAPMAN DAVIS

August 30, 1921 – June 25, 2011

Rev. Beulah Maye "Billie" Chapman Davis, 89, went to her precious Savior from her earthly home Saturday, June 25, 2011. Widowed after 58 years of marriage with Rev. William Dixon "Bill" Davis Sr.

Rev. Davis had Alzheimer's. She had 2 lucid hours before lapsing into a coma. We sang hymns, quoted scripture, prayed, talked about family and what we meant to each other. When asked if there was anything at all that she wanted, she said, "to be faithful to Jesus to the end!" Her last words were, "Trust Jesus! Trust God!" What a witness! What a legacy!

Rev. Davis was ordained in 1944 into Prison Ministries; worked with Furnace Street Mission in Ohio; Skid Row, Salvation Army Children's Street Ministries; the DOD in DC during the Korean War with Troop Logistics. Rev. Davis went from God's Bible School and College to Cuba as a Missionary. A young boy was asked to tell the villagers to come to a hot dog roast to meet the new missionaries. The boy went through the village shouting "Come see the crazy Americans. They eat dogs hot." What a crowd!

The Davises served throughout South Carolina with the United Methodist Church.

The eldest child of George and Orga Chapman of Akron, OH, she was preceded in death by her brother George Chapman and survived by daughters, Joanna Davis and Robin Cronshaw; son, Dixon Davis and wife Aleksandra; sisters, Betty Ransom, Bonnie Mallet, Barbara Wise; brothers, Harold Chapman and Bill Chapman; and grandchildren, Nathaniel, Kristina, and Ann.

NADEEN WILLIAMS DICKERT

July 19, 1919 – April 8, 2012

Nadeen Williams Dickert, the widow of the Rev. Roy E. Dickert, arrived in her Heavenly Home on Easter Sunday, April 8, 2012. What a glorious day Easter Sunday must have been in Heaven! Nadeen was born July 19, 1919 in Swansea, SC, one of 13 children. She had to grow up rather quickly and had to master many everyday chores. She mentioned on occasion that she was making biscuits by the time she was 10 or 11. One spring day in 1934, she met Roy Dickert who became the love of her life. At the tender age of 15, Nadeen and Roy were married. Indeed, they had just started their "Trails to Triumphant Living."

Nadeen soon realized that her husband never wavered in his love for God and his desire to become a minister. She was always there to encourage him to finish his education. After five years of marriage, they were blessed with a baby daughter (Gayle Dickert Kendall). During the next four years, Nadeen gave birth to another daughter (Annette Dickert Copeland) and two sons. However, they lost both sons within a four-month period in 1943. It was a struggle to keep going after these great losses. However, Nadeen became a great saleslady and sold World Book Encyclopedias. Their goal was reached, and Nadeen served with Rev. Dickert at Methodist churches throughout South Carolina.

At age 53, Nadeen lost Rev. Dickert to a heart attack. This was quite an adjustment for Nadeen without him. Nadeen spent time with family and traveled a lot; she especially enjoyed a tour of the Holy Land. She enjoyed both her homes in Columbia and Poplar Creek Landing (Lake Marion). Nadeen's aspiration was to publish a book of Rev. Dickert's sermons and devotional writings. The first edition of Our Trails to Triumphant Living was published in 1976 and a second edition in 1987. Her favorite hymn was "Others" and she truly lived a life for others. The Epitaph the family chose for Nadeen Dickert is one word, OTHERS.

VERA LOUISE ALLISON GARRIS

January 2, 1926 – February 18, 2012

Vera Allison met Roscoe Blackmon Garris while attending Bob Jones College, Cleveland, Tennessee, in 1947. A few months later the two wed. Roscoe Garris had previously served two years in the United States Navy and was in divinity school at Bob Jones. Roscoe was licensed to preach on September 11, 1947. Early appointments included: Inman Mills (1948), Mt. Vernon-N.GA (1950), St. John's-Sumter (1953), St. James-Charleston (1958) and Grace-Pickens (1962).

During these early years, Vera began raising a family of three children - one son and two daughters. She was actively involved in all aspects of the church - choir, UMW, and various committees.

In 1962 Roscoe became a chaplain with the VA Medical Center in Johnson City, Tennessee. Vera began volunteer work. As a child she had always dreamed of being a "preacher's wife" and playing the piano. Both dreams she fulfilled.

In 1975, Roscoe took a chaplain position with the Oteen VA Federal Hospital in Asheville, North Carolina. This move was made to enable the family to be closer to Vera's parents - Grady and Mary Allison (Hendersonville, North Carolina). Vera began assisting in caring for her aging parents while being a very active member of Grace United Methodist Church. While a member of Grace, she served as church treasurer and later as chairperson for the Commission on Missions. She also volunteered at the nearby Billy Graham Training Center, "The Cove".

VIVIAN ETHRIDGE GREGG

September 6, 1928 – February 3, 2012

Vivian E. Gregg, 83, formerly of Lugoff, SC, currently of Atlanta, GA, died Friday, February 3, 2012.

She was born to the late Chesstene and Dellar Ethridge, September 6, 1928, in Adger, AL. Vivian graduated from Oak Grove High School in 1946. She married the late Rev. James R. Gregg in 1946, and they lived in Birmingham, Atlanta, and then in South Carolina for most of their lives.

Sweet Vivian loved many things: her husband of 54 years, Jim Gregg, her family, flowers and gardening, and music. As a young wife and mother, Vivian made beautiful clothes for herself and daughter. She loved to cook, entertain, and travel. Like her, everything to which she gave her special touch, also became beautiful and welcoming.

Vivian was the quintessential minister's wife, giving tirelessly of her time and energy in many capacities throughout her husband's 30-plus year career as a United Methodist Minister in the South Carolina Conference. She served as choir director and member, Sunday School and Bible School teacher, UMYF leader, organizer of annual bazaars and fund raisers, Women's Circle leader and member, and was always in charge of both crafting Chrismons and decorating the annual Chrismon Tree.

As a mother, she raised her 3 children with love and joy, celebrating their achievements with gentle pride. She did everything possible to make their lives richer and more meaningful.

After her youngest child turned 16, Vivian went to work at Rich's in Columbia Mall in SC, bringing her special touch to the women's ready-to-wear department. Her ability to create "looks" and the warm way she treated shoppers, quickly gained her a devoted clientele. She loved her work and spent 4 years there.

Vivian is survived by two children: Daniel Keith Gregg of Conway and Michelle Gregg of Atlanta, GA. Her first born son, Stephen Michael Gregg predeceased her in Jan. 2005. She is also survived by one grandchild, Ian Gabriel Gregg, son of Michelle.

MARGARET ORMOND HARDIN

November 16, 1917 – December 8, 2011

Margaret was a student at Duke University when she met a young divinity student from South Carolina named Wannamaker Hardin. They were married in Duke Chapel on September 30, 1938. They returned to S.C. in 1942 and she graced parsonages for 40 years at St. John's, Graniteville; Clemson; Trinity, Spartanburg; Buford Street, Gaffney; Bethel, Charleston; St. John's, Rock Hill; Washington Street, Columbia; and the Orangeburg District.

To this happy marriage were born four children: Wannamaker, Jr., Ormond, Peggy, and Harriet. When it was time for the children to begin college, Margaret went back to school to qualify for a teacher's certificate and spent about 20 years as an elementary school teacher. In retirement Margaret and Wannie spent 12 happy years at their home at Lake Junaluska before his death in 1994. Margaret moved in 1996 to the Arbor Acres Methodist Retirement Home in Winston-Salem, NC.

Margaret was beloved by church members wherever they served. She loved to sing in the choir and work with children. She was a gracious hostess who made everyone feel welcome in their home. At her memorial services, her children talked about her always being there for them and her guiding presence in their lives. She was able to take life as it came with a sense of peace and calmness and well-being. She lived her life with faith and grace and equanimity. In addition to her four children and their spouses, she is survived by seven grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. Rest in Peace!

ROBERTA CLARK HORNE

September 19, 1920 – October 19, 2011

Roberta Clark Horne, the widow of the Rev. Dr. William A. Horne, died October 19 at the age of 91. She was born September 19, 1920 in Point, Texas. She spent her childhood in Charleston, South Carolina and Winter Haven and Lakeland, Florida before moving to North Charleston where she finished North Charleston High School as valedictorian. After marrying a Methodist minister, she lived in cities throughout S.C. as they served churches in Hanahan, Indian Field, Union, Barnwell, Columbia, St. Matthews, West Columbia and Greenville.

Dr. and Mrs. Horne retired in 1982 from St. Paul's United Methodist Church in St. Matthews and moved to Greenville, where Dr. Horne died in 1984. In 1997, Mrs. Horne moved to the Methodist Oaks Retirement Home in Orangeburg. She moved to Agape Senior in Columbia in 2003 to be near her only grandchild, Ben Tanner, a meteorologist with WIS TV in Columbia. Tanner spoke often about his beloved "Granny" while forecasting the weather. Throughout her remaining years, "Granny" made several appearances on WIS, including a commercial promoting her grandson and WIS.

In her earlier years, Mrs. Horne was a tour host with Educational Opportunities, traveling to Israel, Egypt, Jordan, Greece and Great Britain. Eventually, bad health forced her to give up her travels.

She was pre-deceased by her husband and her only child, Phyllis Horne Tanner of Atlanta. She is survived by her grandson and his wife Andrea and two great grandchildren, Kati and Benjamin Tanner.

MARGARET MILLER JENKINS

January 13, 1928 – August 20, 2011

It is noteworthy to say that mom lived a well-rounded life. She was a helpmate to her husband, the late Reverend Doctor Edward E. Jenkins, Sr. and a devoted mother of three children: Patricia, Edward, Jr. and Clark.

She earned a bachelor's degree from Claflin University and taught elementary school for over 30 years. We can never recall a time when she was not ready to move as the mandate for ministry called our dad. Mom was very special in that way and ready to move on to the next challenge.

She lived to be 83 years old by God's grace and she learned a lot of wisdom across those years that she shared with those she encountered. She will be loved a lifetime by family and friends. We loved her, but God loved her best.

RUBY LOUISE JONES

October 10, 1933 – September 11, 2011

Mrs. Ruby Louise Jones, wife of the late Reverend William Leroy Jones, and daughter of the late Theodore and Essie Morris, was called home to be with the Lord on Saturday, September 10, 2011. She resided with her family at home in Charleston, SC.

Mrs. Ruby was a dedicated and faithful minister's wife for over 30 years, assisting with ministering to many people with a joyous smile and heart filled with the fruits of the spirit.

Mrs. Ruby attended Tennessee State in Nashville, TN for 2 years where she pursued a degree in elementary education. She utilized these two years of education as a Sunday school teacher, to tutor her children and encourage children of all ages to study and do well in school. She was a retired employee of Charleston County. She spent 28 years as a School Crossing Guard watching over and inspiring the children in her community. She epitomized God's joy, always having a soul winning scripture to share, greetings with a smile and always having time for a laugh. In addition to her outstanding service in the community, Mrs. Ruby was a devoted wife, loving mother, grandmother and a giving friend. She gave of herself unconditionally.

Those who will cherish her loving memory are: devoted children, Vella, Diana, Annette, Maurice, Gary, Tina, and Karen; her stepchildren: Clayton, Solomon, Alfonso, Anthony, Brenda, Albert, Barbara, William Jones, Jr. and their families; a host of grandchildren, relatives and friends.

BLANCHE ALLEN MIRSE

October 19, 1923 – May 8, 2012

Blanche Z. Allen was born October 19, 1923 in Salem, Illinois and passed away at home in Franklin, TN on May 8, 2012. She graduated from Asbury College with a degree in Home Economics and worked as an educator for many years. Blanche married Ralph T. Mirse on May 10, 1945. Blanche and Ralph were married for 56 years until his passing in 2001. She was the mother of three children, the grandmother of seven and great grandmother of five.

Blanche was first lady of Columbia College for eleven years while Ralph was president. She was active in the fund raising and social activities of the college and a member of Trenholm Road Methodist church. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and P.E.O. Her tireless work for the church and college was recognized when Columbia College named a building Mirse Hall in her and Ralph's honor.

Blanche never really retired but continued to support both school and church until a few years before her death when her health deteriorated. She saw the good in everyone and rainbows in every storm.

GERTRUDE O'NEAL PATRICK

October 18, 1920 – December 22, 2011

Mrs. Gertrude O. Patrick died Thursday, December 22, 2011, at The Oaks. She was born in Fairfax, a daughter of the late John Blanton O'Neal and Edith Googe O'Neal.

She was a 1941 graduate of Columbia College and a retired school teacher in South Carolina and Florida. She was a past president of the Orangeburg Garden Club and of the Columbia College Club of Orangeburg. Mrs. Patrick was a member of St. Paul's United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Martha G. Patrick, and was the widow of the Rev. Marion Johnston Patrick. Survivors include a son, Paul W. Patrick of Lexington.

Funeral services were held December 28, 2011, at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Kristen Richardson-Frick officiating.

EUGENIA CLEO WESCOAT SANDLIN

October 6, 1916 – May 3, 2012

"To My Wife, Cleo Wescoat Sandlin, who maintains a steadfast faith in the efficacy of prayer."
John Lewis Sandlin, dedication to A Prayer for Everyday

(Eugenia) Cleo Wescoat Sandlin, 95, widow of the Reverend John Lewis Sandlin, daughter of Sidney Lee Wescoat and Eugenia C.B. Wescoat was born and reared in Charleston, SC, where she was laid to rest in Magnolia Cemetery.

She was graduated from Memminger High School as Valedictorian, "friendliest, most talented, and talkative." A gifted writer, speaker, violinist and genealogist, she attended Winthrop College obtaining further coursework at the University of South Carolina and Vanderbilt University.

During World War II, she worked for Civil Service in Atlanta as her husband completed his theological degree at Emory.

The couple's compassion, commitment, energy, and synergism, from each pastorate served to their time in connectional work are well known. When he was appointed to the General Board of Evangelism, she worked within walking distance at the Methodist Board of Education, then Vanderbilt University's Department of Political Science.

The education given their children was rooted and grounded in the intellectual and spiritual environment of the home.

Active in each church, she provided pastoral care, social outreach, and education, receiving commendation of the Wesleyan Service Guild. Additionally, she gave unselfishly to many volunteer organizations, in both leadership and membership roles.

She was a devoted mother and grandmother. Her children: (John) Wescoat Sandlin, Esq. and Sarah Rice Sandlin Stender, MD; Grandchildren: Sarah Rice Stender and Elizabeth Grimball Stender. Her daughter, Sidney Frances Sandlin and her brother, Sidney Gerhard Wescoat, predeceased her.

Her integrity, character, sensitivity, humor, grace, dignity and sacrificial love are her undying gifts to those blessed with her presence amongst us.

CARRIE LOUISE BAILEY SINGLETARY

October 25, 1922 – December 4, 2011

Life Reflections

"For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again; even so them which also sleep in Jesus will God bring with him ...wherefore comfort one another with those words." I Thessalonians 4:14 & 18

Whereas, we have suffered a great loss in the homegoing of Mrs. Carrie Louise Bailey Singletary, who was loved by many, it is consoling to know she lived a Christian life and has served her Lord well. Her loyalty to her church, her faithfulness to her family and her kindness to her friends, former students and colleagues shall be a living memorial to her beautiful life. She has labored hard and long and the Lord has promised her rest.

Mrs. Carrie Louise Bailey Singletary was born in Hartsville, SC. She was the beloved daughter of the late Mr. Samuel, Sr. and Mrs. Emma Peterson Bailey. Seven of her siblings preceded her to their heavenly home: three brothers, Mr. Renrick Bailey, Mr. Luther Bailey and Mr. Samuel Bailey, Jr. and four sisters, Mrs. Hattie B. Jackson, Mrs. Lillian B. Williams, Ms. Naomi Bailey and Ms. Etta Bailey.

At an early age, she joined Jerusalem Baptist Church in Hartsville, SC. She also attended Centerville AME Church in Hartsville, SC. During his pastoral work, they travel throughout South Carolina from parish to parish serving several congregations of the United Methodist Church. After his retirement, she transferred her Christian affiliation to St. Michael United Methodist Church in Kingstree.

She was a graduate of Butler High School in Hartsville,. She matriculated at Benedict College in Columbia with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education. She did her practice work at Booker T. Washington High School in Columbia. She furthered her studies at Morris College in Sumter and North Carolina A&T University in Greensboro, NC. After college, she taught at Tomlinson High School and later at Anderson Primary School in Kingstree where she worked until her retirement after more than forty-seven years in the teaching profession. She was the last remaining original staff member from Anderson Primary School. At her retirement, the South Carolina Board of Education and the South Carolina Department of Education recognized her at a luncheon honoring her for the many years of dedicated service she rendered to the children of South Carolina and for her important contributions to the field of education. The State Superintendent of Education along with the State Board of Education members were in attendance.

She was a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Evening Star Chapter No. 246, OES, Clarendon/Williamsburg Section of the National Council of Negro Women, National Teachers Association, South Carolina Education Association, Williamsburg County Retired Teachers Association, Benedict College National Alumni Association, Benedict College Half Century Club, United Methodist Ministries Wives Association and the St. Michael United Methodist Women.

The former Miss Carrie Louise Bailey was united in holy matrimony to the late Reverend Peter E. Singletary. This union was blessed with one child.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: a devoted and caring son, Mr. Derrick E. Singletary of Kingstree; a loving and faithful granddaughter, Ms. Kayla Joi Singletary of Irmo; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and dear friends.

LILLIAN LEWIS WILSON

April 9, 1921 – December 15, 2011

Mrs. Lillian Lewis Wilson, wife of the late Reverend Joseph A. Wilson, Sr., and daughter of the late James McKinley Lewis and Wilhelmeana Richards Lewis, was called from labor to rest on December 15, 2011.

She was a faithful and devoted minister's wife for over 30 years. She was also a member of the Ministers Wives and Widows Association.

She graduated from Morris College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education and did further study at South Carolina State College, Orangeburg. She touched the lives of many boys and girls for thirty-five years as a teacher in Williamsburg, Florence, Berkeley, Bamberg and Marlboro counties and retired in 1980.

After her husband retired from Ministry, she joined Cumberland UMC and became affiliated with Choir #2 and Interest Area #3. She was also a member of the Retired Teachers Association and the NAACP. During the Civil Rights Movement she assisted with voter registration by teaching individuals to read portions of the Constitution. She volunteered with "We Care, We Share" and visited the sick and made caps for anyone who needed them.

Mrs. Wilson leaves to cherish her memories Reverend(Judge) Joseph A. Wilson, II, of Columbia, Brazellia W. Baker, College Park, Georgia, Donald B. Wilson of Columbia, Maryland, Deloris(Daryn) Sanders of Powder Springs, Georgia, special goddaughters Anita and Wanda Wiggins, six grandchildren, a great grandchild, and a host of other relatives and friends.

G. WALTER FORRESTER

April 21, 1927 – March 3, 2012

G. Walter Forrester was born April 21, 1927, and died March 3, 2012. His parents were John Malvin and Elizabeth Forrester of Greer, S.C. He graduated from Greer High School and Coyne Electrical School in Chicago, Illinois.

Walt moved to Spartanburg with his bride in 1946 and began his career with Duke Power. He joined the Arkwright Mill family in 1947 and served as Plant Engineer until 1980 when heart disease forced his retirement.

Walt showered his family with handmade treasures and with gifts of his presence and time. His devotion to his family and friends was a true blessing. If Papa Forrester loved you, you were loved deeply, supported completely and prayed for constantly.

The Forrester family joined El Bethel UMC in Spartanburg in 1950. From his faithful service there, he went on to serve his Lord through work with the Spartanburg district and the SC Methodist Conference for more than 50 years. He was a dedicated Lay Speaker and later a Lay Minister. He was the pastor for Christ Church in Boiling Springs for five years and for Cross Anchor-Yarborough Chapel and Hebron for the last 16 years. He was devoted to these churches and their members.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Dot, and three children (Gerald and wife Linda of Moore, Sandy Hobbs and husband Steve of North Augusta, and Rickey and wife Lorraine of Pauline). He was Papa to five grandchildren, one step-grandchild, twelve great-grandchildren and two step great-grandchildren.

HISTORICAL RECORD OF SESSIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

A detailed history of the South Carolina Conference can be found in The History of South Carolina Methodism by Albert D. Betts (Columbia: The Advocate Press, 1982), and the following chronology is based on the information contained in Dr. Betts' history. When John Wesley called his lay preachers together in London on June 25, 1744, to "confer" on the work of the growing Methodist Societies, the pattern for an annual "Conference" was begun. The practice was brought to America as the Methodist Societies developed here.

In the early days of American Methodism the Conferences were not neatly divided by the geographic boundaries we have today, and, correspondingly, it is difficult to trace precisely a lineage that would make it possible to identify "the first Conference." Dr. Betts refers to the "first American 'Annual Conference'" (p. 34) as the one held in George's Church, Philadelphia, July 14, 1773, on the call of John Rankin who had been sent to America by John Wesley. The work of Methodism in South Carolina was organized in 1785, when a "section" of the Conference was called at Louisburg, North Carolina, on April 20, 1785, at which Francis Asbury presided. About two years later, on March 22, 1787, the first session of a South Carolina Conference was held in Charleston, with both Bishops Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke sharing responsibilities as presiding officers. Sessions of the 1785 Conference are shown in the tables below.

The 1866 South Carolina Conference was organized on April 2, 1866, in Charleston, South Carolina, by leaders of the Methodist Episcopal Church to minister to African Americans, many freed slaves, who would not accept the continued segregated worship of the races. A history of the 1866 Conference may be found in Passionate Journey by John W. Curry (St. Matthews: Bill Wise Printers, 1980.) Pursuant to the 1964 General Conference action which dissolved the Central Jurisdiction to achieve "racial inclusiveness at all levels of the church," the 181st Session of the South Carolina Conference (1785) passed a resolution requesting bishops of the two South Carolina conferences to appoint a committee to work out a plan of merger.* The two conferences became one in 1972. Sessions of the 1866 Conference are shown in tables below.

In 1914, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, voted to divide the South Carolina Annual Conference (1785) and instructed the conference to fix a line of division. At its 129th Session the South Carolina Conference (1785) created the Upper South Carolina Conference. The two were combined again in 1948. Sessions of the Upper South Carolina Conference are shown in tables below.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church
Columbia, South Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statement of combined financial position of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church (the Conference) as of December 31, 2011, and the related combined statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended. These combined financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1, the statements do not include all the Conference's costs for property and equipment as required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Expenditures for certain such purchases are charged as expenditures in the year of purchase. Accordingly, the accompanying combined financial statements are generally not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Management has not determined the effect of this departure on the Conference's combined financial position or results of operations.

In our opinion, except for not capitalizing certain property and equipment and recording depreciation, the combined financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2011, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the combined financial statements taken as a whole. The information provided in the supplemental schedule is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the combined financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the combined financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the combined financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the combined financial statements or to the combined financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the combined financial statements as a whole.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church governs the various boards, commissions, committees and agencies whose purpose is to carry out the programs of the United Methodist Church. The South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church is a nonprofit religious organization and is exempt from paying income taxes under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of accounting

The accompanying combined financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, except for the effects of not recording property and equipment as described in Note 5. Financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). Under the ASC, the Conference is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Basis of presentation and principles of combination

The accompanying combined financial statements include the accounts of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, the 12 South Carolina Conference Districts and South Carolina Conference's Camps and Retreat. The Districts and the Camps and Retreat are combined due to common control by the Conference. All significant inter-entity balances and transactions have been eliminated in the combined financial statements.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of reporting the statement of cash flows, the Conference considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable are reported net of an allowance for doubtful accounts. The allowance is based on management's estimate of the amount of receivables that will ultimately be collected.

Investments

The Conference's investments are stated at fair market value in accordance with the ASC. Under the ASC, investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are valued at their fair values in the statement of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets in investment returns.

Property and equipment

The Conference has generally not recorded land or buildings as fixed assets on its balance sheet, with the exception of the fixed assets of the Camps and Retreat. In 2003, the Conference recorded the renovations to the conference center, based on its intention to start recording fixed assets along with the related depreciation. Property was to be recorded at cost with depreciation being provided on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of 10 to 39 years for buildings and 10 to 39 years for improvements to land and building. The plan has been delayed while the Conference re-evaluates starting the policy of recording all current land and property versus continuing the previous policy. Therefore, the Conference did not record depreciation for the conference renovation. The Conference does maintain investments in an equipment fund. However, the Conference does not record the related depreciation of such equipment as required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Expenditures for such investments in the equipment fund are generally charged as expenditures in the year of purchase.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, Continued

Support and expenses

A contribution is deemed to have been received when the cash or other assets including securities, land, buildings, use of facilities, materials and supplies, intangible assets, services or unconditional promise to give such items in the future is received. An unconditional promise to give is a promise, which is not dependent on the occurrence of a specified future and uncertain event to bind the promisor.

Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as increase in net assets. The Conference reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets, or if they are designated as support for future periods. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Uncertainty in income taxes

The Conference is a nonprofit religious organization and is exempt from paying income taxes under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Management evaluated the Conference's tax positions and is unaware of any situation or circumstance that would cause the Conference to lose its tax exempt status and has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the combined financial statements. Therefore, no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the combined financial statements.

Compensated absences

Accumulated unpaid vacation pay is accrued when it is earned. Conference employees are entitled to carry over from one calendar year to the next up to one week's vacation time. If an employee leaves the employment of the Conference, the employee is entitled to be paid for the unused vacation time. No liability for sick pay is recorded since the rights to receive such pay are contingent on future services.

Advertising

Costs incurred for producing and communicating advertising and promotional material are expensed when incurred.

Fair value measurements

The Conference has adopted the prescribed accounting standards for fair value measurement for its financial assets and liabilities. The standards clarify that fair value is an exit price, representing the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Conference utilizes market data or assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. The standard established a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value. These tiers include: Level 1, defined as observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets; Level 2, defined as inputs other than quoted prices in active markets that are either directly or indirectly observable; and Level 3, defined as unobservable inputs about which little or no market data exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions.

Use of estimates

The preparation of combined financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the combined financial statements and the reported amounts of results of operations during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Subsequent events

These combined financial statements have not been updated for subsequent events after July 31, 2012, the date the combined financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 2 - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

The Conference maintains its cash balances and investments with several financial institutions and brokerage companies. At times, deposits with the financial institutions may exceed Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insurance limits. In addition, the Conference has $1,050,000 invested with the United Methodist Development Fund, which is not FDIC insured.

NOTE 3 - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. In determining fair value, the Conference uses various methods including market, income and cost approaches. Based on these approaches, the Conference often utilizes certain assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk and/or the risks inherent in the inputs to the valuation technique. These inputs can be readily observable, market corroborated, or generally unobservable inputs.

The Conference utilizes valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. Based on the observables of the inputs used in the valuation techniques, the Conference is required to provide the following information according to the fair value hierarchy. The fair value hierarchy ranks the quality and reliability of the information used to determine fair values. Financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value will be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

- Level 1 Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in active exchange markets, such as the New York Stock Exchange. Level 1 also includes U.S. Treasury and federal agency securities and federal agency mortgage-backed securities, which are traded by dealers or brokers in active markets. Valuations are obtained from readily available pricing sources for market transactions involving identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in less active dealer or broker markets. Valuations are obtained from third-party pricing services for identical or similar assets or liabilities.
- Level 3 Valuations for assets and liabilities that are derived from other valuation methodologies, including option-pricing models, discounted cash flow models and similar techniques, and not based on market exchange, dealer, or broker-traded transactions. Level 3 valuations incorporate certain assumptions and projections in determining the fair value assigned to such assets or liabilities.

Management uses the following methods and assumptions to estimate the fair value of the Conference's financial instrument.

Cash, cash equivalents', and receivables' carrying amounts approximate fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments. Debt instruments carrying value also approximate fair value based on the prices for the same or similar debt Issues and on current rates offered to the Conference for debt of the same remaining maturities with similar collateral requirements.

In determining the fair value of investments the Conference uses various valuation approaches within the ASC 820 fair value measurement framework. The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used:

Certificates of deposit: The carrying amounts of such instruments approximate fair value and are classified within Level 2 of the valuation hierarchy.

Fund of Funds, United Methodist Foundation: Represent units pooled within the South Carolina United Methodist Foundation (UMF) and are valued using the Net Asset Value (NAV) provided by the administrator of the funds. The NAV is based on the value of the underlying assets owned by the funds, minus its liabilities and then divided by the number of shares or units outstanding. These funds are fund of funds and the investments are classified within Level 2 of the valuation hierarchy. The Conference's investments with the UMF accounts consisted of cash and money market funds, preferred stock, fixed income securities and short-term investments.

Fund of Funds, General Board of Pensions: Represent units pooled within the General Board of Pension (GBOP) Superannuate Endowment, GBOP HMEP, GBOP Deposit, GBOP Retiree Health Care and GBOP Permanent Fund and are valued using the Net Asset Value (NAV) provided by the administrator of the funds. The NAV is based on the value of the underlying assets owned by the funds, minus its liabilities and then divided by the number of shares or units outstanding. These Funds are fund of funds and the investments are classified within Level 2 of the valuation hierarchy. The Conference's investment with the GBOP accounts consisted of common stock, fixed income securities and short term investments.

Mutual Funds: These investments are valued using the NAV provided by the administrator of the fund. The NAV is based on the value of the underlying assets owned by the fund, minus its liabilities and then divided by the number of shares or units outstanding. These investments are classified within Level 1 of the valuation hierarchy. The Conference can make withdrawals from this investment by contacting the administrator.

The Conference had the following levels of investments as defined in the framework measured on a recurring basis:

Description	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

NOTE 4 - INVESTMENTS IN SECURITIES

Investments purchased are recorded at cost. Securities or other investments donated are recorded at their fair value at the date of the gift. Investments are carried at fair value with gains or losses being recognized and reported in the statement of activities in the appropriate classes as prescribed by the ASC.

NOTE 5 - PROPERTY, EQUIPMENT AND DEPRECIATION

The Conference historically has not recorded property and equipment as fixed assets on its balance sheet, with the exception of Camps and Retreat. In 2003, the conference recorded the renovations to the conference center, based on its intention to start recording fixed assets along with the related depreciation. During 2011, the Conference also recorded certain related property and equipment that was subject to debt for the Districts to its accounting records. Currently the Conference is evaluating its policy of recording all land and property. It has also deferred recording depreciation expense with the exception of depreciation related to the property of Camps and Retreat. Below is a summary of the property and equipment at December 31, 2011:

	Conference	Districts	Camps and Retreat	Total

NOTE 8 - FIDELITY BOND

The General Council on Finance and Administration provides $ 1,000,000 fidelity bond protection for all Annual Conference Treasurers and their staff at no charge. Fidelity bonding for trustees and related staff is provided by the Annual Conference.

NOTE 9 - NET ASSETS

Unrestricted Board designated net assets are net assets that have been designated for a specific purpose by the Board. Unrestricted Board designated net assets at December 31, 2011 are designated for the following purposes:

Permanent reserve	$ 820,072
Annual Conference	704,027
Ministry development	590,588
	$ 2,114,687

Temporarily restricted net assets at December 31, 2011 are available for specific program services as follows:

District ministries	$ 732,860
Ashbury Hills	326,294
Ministerial education	217,251
Other programs	633,053
	$ 1,909,458

Permanently restricted net assets of $38,104 at December 31, 2011 are restricted in perpetuity. Earnings from permanently restricted net assets are restricted for scholarships.

NOTE 10 - LEASES

The Conference has entered into various operating leases for office equipment. These leases expire at various dates through August 2013. Total lease expense was $43,856 for the year end December 31, 2011.

Future minimum lease commitments under the operating leases at December 31, 2011 are as follows:

2012	$	29,989
2013		17,358

NOTE 11 - CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PROGRAM (CRSP), MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN AND COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (MPP/CPP) AND CUMULATIVE PENSION AND BENEFIT FUND (CPBF)

The South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church participates in a defined benefit multi-employer pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church. The plan provides pension benefits to retiring members in addition to providing disability income benefits and guaranteed minimum benefits for widows and dependent children of deceased members.

The Conference contributes to the fund an amount equivalent to 3% of each minister's annual plan compensation (cash salary, tax-deferred contributions made and housing allowance or value of the use of a parsonage) limited by 200% of the denominational average compensation. In addition, the Conference contributed, in 2011, $578 per month per full time equivalent towards the defined benefit portion of the plan for clergy. For lay employees, the Conference contributes 9% and the lay employee contributes a minimum of 3%. CPP contributions for eligible full time ministers are the equivalent of 3% of the minister's plan compensation limited by 200% of the current denomination average compensation. Past service defined benefit funding is an annual actuarially determined amount approved by the Annual Conference. Contributions for each participant are fully vested. The Conference Treasurer remitted $5,470,971 in 2011 to the General Board of Pensions.

Past service expenses are charged to the Annual Conference. The RP 2000 Individual Annuity Mortality Table is used in the determination of these amounts.

Ministers' pension payments received by the Conference Treasurer are remitted to the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church.

The Conference participates in the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund which is a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church. The fund covers service prior to 1982 for substantially all clergy and lay pastors. The Board of Pensions of the Conference acts as trustee responsible for deposits with the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church. The Conference did not make any contributions to the Ministries Reserve Pension Fund in 2011. For service subsequent to 1981, ministerial and lay employees of the Conference are eligible to participate in the multiemployer retirement plans offered by the United Methodist Church as described below.

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) provided benefits for United States of America clergy from January 1, 1982, through December 31, 2006. It is primarily a defined contribution retirement plan, with the requirement that clergy must convert at least 65% of his or her total account balance to an annuity. This plan ceased accruing benefits effective December 31, 2006. The total contributions to the plan for the year ended December 31, 2011 were $982,987. These amounts are included in program disbursements in the combined financial statements.

NOTE 11 - CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PROGRAM (CRSP), MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN AND COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (MPP/CPP) AND CUMULATIVE PENSION AND BENEFIT FUND (CPBF), Continued

The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provided disability and death benefits as well as certain minimum benefits related to pension coverage for certain ministerial employees. The CPP is a multiemployer defined benefit pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church. The Conference did not make any contributions to the plan for the year ended December 31, 2011.

The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan became effective January 1, 2006. The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church merged the Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund and the Personal Investment Plan to form the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP). Conference lay employees and conference and local church personnel are eligible to participate in a defined contribution plan administered by the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church, which currently requires an employer contribution between 1% and 12%. The Conference currently contributes 9% of all eligible lay participants' compensation. Total contributions to the plan for the year ended December 31, 2011 were $110,527. These amounts are included in program disbursements in the combined financial statements.

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) was effective January 1, 2007, as a defined benefit plan and a defined contribution plan administered by the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church. Clergy members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment to a conference, church, charge, district or conference-controlled entity or unit are eligible to participate. For the defined benefit plan, the December 31, 2011 contribution was based on an amount equal to $578 per month for each full-time equivalent.

NOTE 12 - POST RETIREMENT BENEFIT PLAN

The Conference sponsors a multi-employer defined benefit postretirement health care plan for ministerial employees of its member churches and employees of the Conference. The plan is contributor, whereby the retiree contributions can be adjusted for increases in the cost of health care. The plan is unfunded. A measurement date of December 31 is used for the plan.

On December 31, 2007, the Conference adopted the recognition and disclosure provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASU) 958 (Not-For-Profit Entities Compensation-Retirement Benefits). ASU 958 requires the Conference to recognize the funded status of its defined benefit plans in its Statement of Financial Position, with a corresponding adjustment to unrestricted net assets. The adjustment to unrestricted net assets at adoption represented the unrecognized prior service benefit and unrecognized net gain, all of which were previously netted against the funded status of the plan in the Conference's statement of financial position pursuant to ASU 958. These amounts will subsequently be recognized as net gains consistent with the Conference's historical accounting policy for amortizing such amounts. In addition, actuarial gains and losses that arise in subsequent periods and not recognized in benefit cost will be recognized in unrestricted net assets.

Reconciliation of accumulated postretirement benefit obligation:

At the June 2010 meeting of the South Carolina Annual Conference 3 proposals were presented to the voting members of the Conference. The plan adopted at that meeting addressed the unfunded liability by a reduction in the retiree subsidy phased in from 2014 - 2022, an eligibility change for futures retirees retiring on or after July 1, 2015, and an increase in apportionments to fully fund the liability.

The details are as follows:

- A. The subsidy will be reduced as follows:
 - a. Effective 1/1/2014 lower maximum subsidy to 65%
 - b. Effective 1/1/2016 lower maximum subsidy to 60%
 - c. Effective 1 /1 /2018 lower maximum subsidy to 55%
 - d. Effective 1 /1 /2020 lower maximum subsidy to 50%
 - e. Effective 1/1/2022 maximum subsidy would be $ 5,000 per retiree including spouse.
- B. The Eligibility would be changed for retirees effective July 1, 2015. Current retirees and retirees retiring prior to July 1, 2015 would not be changed, but those active who are age 65 by the effective date of this change and who retire on or after the effective date of this change would not be eligible for the Medicare Supplemental or other health care coverage under the Conference plan.
- C. The Funding will be accomplished via the use of the Comprehensive Health Plan Holiday for 2011 and 2012 to fund this gap and an apportionment remaining at the 2010 level for the years 2011 through 2015. In 2016 the apportionment would be increased to fully fund the gap by the year 2032. No additional funding would be required after 2032.

The components of the pension cost charged to expense consisted of the following:

Service cost for benefits earned during the year	$ 180,258
Interest cost on projected benefit obligation	1,243,079
Amortization of net loss	64,893
Amortization of prior service benefit	(12,096,516)
Net periodic pension income	$ (10,608,286)
Amounts recognized in postretirement changes other than net periodic postretirement costs
Actuarial loss for current year	$ 1,449,991
Amortization of actuarial loss	(923,841)
Amortization of net loss	(64,893)
Amortization of prior service benefit	12,096,516
	$ 12,557,773
Amount in unrestricted net assets expected to be recognized in net postretirement cost in 2012
Prior service benefit	$ (11,934,139)
	$ (11,604,782)

The following benefit payments, which reflect expected future service, are expected to be paid:

	Retiree contributions	Conference	Total
2012	$ 1,093,862	$ 1,636,084	$ 2,729,946
2013	1,291,402	1,830,690	3,122,092
2014	1,640,097	1,917,422	3,557,519
2015	1,864,322	2,117,089	3,981,411
2016	2,065,021	1,975,403	4,040,424
2017 - 2021	11,754,899	8,491,303	20,246,202

The accumulated postretirement benefit obligation was computed using an assumed discount rate of 3.75 % for 2011. The health care cost trend rate was assumed to be 8.5% in 2011.

Assumed health care rates have a significant effect on the amounts reported for the plan. A one percent change in assumed health care cost trend rate would have the following effect:

	1% Increase	1% Decrease
Effect on total service and interest cost components	$ 56,028	$ (56,030)

NOTE 13 - RESTATEMENT OF BEGINNING NET ASSETS

The Conference's net assets at December 31, 2010, have been restated to reflect an increase of $6,958,007 due to the following changes:

The Conference has historically only included in its financial statements cash accounts of the Districts and Camps and Retreat that were maintained by the Conference. Generally accepted accounting principles require that all activity of these entities be consolidated with that of the Conference. At December 31, 2010, the Conference had not consolidated all assets, liabilities and net assets of these entities and as a result net assets at December 31, 2010 was understated by $5,698,007. The beginning net assets included herein, which excludes certain property and equipment as described in Note 5, as of January 1, 2011, have been restated to reflect this change.

At December 31, 2010, the Conference recorded a transfer of funds from a cash account to an investment account that occurred subsequent to year end as a liability in accounts payable in error. As a result, net assets at December 31, 2010, was understated by $1,260,000. The beginning net assets included herein as of January 1, 2011, have been restated to reflect this change.

During 2011, the Conference evaluated its classifications of net assets and determined $854,946 of net assets previously classified as unrestricted at December 31, 2010 should have been classified as restricted. The beginning net assets included herein as of January 1, 2011, have been restated to reflect this change.

The net result of these changes to net assets at December 31, 2010 is summarized as follows:

Adjustment for consolidation of Districts and Camps and retreat	$ 4,803,232	$ 894,775	$ -	$ 5,698,007
Adjustment for liability recorded in error	1,260,000	-	-	1,260,000
Adjustment for net assets reclassification	(854,946)	816,842	38,104	-
Net increase in net assets at December 31, 2010	5,208,286	1,711,617	38,104	6,958,007
Net assets as previously stated at December 31, 2010	7,568,773	193,600	-	7,762,373
Net assets as restated at December 31, 2010	$ 12,777,059	$ 1,905,217	$ 38,104	$ 14,720,380
