FOREWORD

There has been a genuine interest in previous volumes of sketches and pictures of Ministers serving in South Carolina Methodist Churches. The first two were edited by the late Rev. Watson B. Duncan, D.D., under the title of “Twentieth Century Sketches,” 1901 and 1914; the next was edited by the late Rev. E. O. Watson, D.D., entitled, “Builders,” 1932; the present volume is the third under the title, “Methodist Ministers in South Carolina.” The 1942 edition was edited by the late Rev. George K. Way and the late Rev. C. E. Peele, D.D. The 1952 edition was edited by the late Rev. George K. Way.

At the 1959 session of the South Carolina Conference a resolution was adopted expressing a wish that a new edition be published in 1960. Bishop Nolan B. Harmon named Adlai C. Holler, Allan R. Broome, Eben Taylor, R. Bryce Herbert and J. Marvin Rast the committee to make plans for publication. At the 1960 session definite plans concerning printing and financing were approved and the committee authorized to bring out this volume during the Conference year 1960-61.

The Rev. Adlai C. Holler, D.D., editor of the South Carolina Methodist Advocate was elected by the committee to be editor and business manager. As in former editions, the pictures and sketches here are designed to show the features of the ministers of this day and give some measure of their accomplishments. We trust that it may have historic value as well as serving to make a larger number of our ministers known to the churches of the Conference.

NOTE: The South Carolina Conference was divided in 1914 into the South Carolina and the Upper South Carolina Conferences. They were re-united in 1948. Dates for appointments are the calendar years following the actual date of appointment. For example, appointments made at the 1960 Annual Conference are listed for the 1961 Calendar year.

Men. Kappa Alpha; Rotarian, has been mem. of six different clubs and pres. of two; served as minister of the First Meth. Ch. of Birmingham longer than any other man; elected on first ballot by No. Ala. Conf. as delegate to the Gen. and Jurisdictional Conf., 1960, Mem. of Exec. Com. of Bd. of Trustees of Birmingham Southern Col.; served on Bd. of Dir. of Carraway Meth. Hosp., Goodwill Industries, Community Chest, Soc. for Crippled Children, Ala., and Metropolitan YMCA. During his service at First Meth. of Birmingham, more than half a million dollars was spent on new bldgs., remodeling, new pipe organ, and new parsonage for minister and assoc. minister, all without incurring any indebtedness whatsoever!

DAWSEY, CYRUS BASSETT—Bishop in the Brazil Methodist Church. B. Sept. 4, 1886, Gallivants Ferry, S. C., s. of Cyrus B. and Margaret Caroline (Jenerette) Dawsey. Attended Horry County schools, Wofford Fitting School, Wofford College, A.B. 1910; D.D., 1946; Conference Course through Vanderbilt Univ.

Ordained in Ministry of M. E. Church, South, Local minister from 1906 until admission into the S. C. Conference, 1911. Ordained deacon in 1913 and transferred to Brazil where he was ordained elder, in 1915. He served Pacolet Mills, S. C. before going to Brazil.

He did pioneering work in establishing preaching places, lived with his family in the most primitive type houses for many years but always a good witness for Christ. His wife, Ethel Sanders Dawsey, for 34 years was his unfailling companion on the mission field. Married June 27, 1912, she died Nov. 28, 1948. Their children are: Ethel (Mrs. Albert Ream), Sarah, Agnes (Mrs. Will Rogers), Rev. Cyrus Jr., Mary Ellyn. All serving or have served on the mission field. Dec. 20, 1951 he married Miss Lillian Knobles, formerly a missionary to China.

Elected a bishop in 1946, he was able to have an even greater part in the growing work in Brazil. He retired in 1956 and has made his home at 1205 Gladden St., Columbia, S. C. He was voted an honorary member of the South Carolina Annual Conference in 1958.
