Attention All Organizations! If your organization participated in any volunteer activities during the 1999-2000 school year, please contact Jeni Imfeld (x4975) or Sami Clowney (x5422), so they will be able to include your volunteerism in the annual Twin Towers Service Report. Thank you!

Calling All Wofford Students!--Come and be a part of this year's first and spectacular service project! Sunday "Service" September 17 from 1-4pm the campus will be coming together to paint the train trestle near Fast Phil's off Pine Street. We will also be doing exterior work on a few of the houses in the neighborhood. Meet at Law Field at 1pm and if you are coming late walk down to the trestle. This is a great opportunity to come together as a campus community to benefit the community of Spartanburg. We need around 300 people to make this possible. Panhellenic, Orientation Staff, and Twin Towers trust the student body will come through to make this project a success. Also we need 60 people to paint the base coat of the train trestle on Friday the 15th from 1-3pm and from 3-5pm. If you can help during either of these two sessions please contact Rachel Bishop (x4851), Kelli Quattlebaum (x5397), or Jeni Imfeld (x4975). We are excited to see the Wofford Family for Sunday "Service!"

Freshman Activities:
Thursday (9-14-00) at 11am--Community Life Session in Ben Johnson Arena
Saturday (9-16-00) at 7pm--Courtyard between Greene and New Dorm "My Tie" Dance with Brother/Sister Halls...Band and Food!!
Sunday (9-17-00) at 1pm--Campus Community Service Project sponsored by Panhellenic, Twin Towers, and the Orientation Staff...Law Field (baseball field)...supper served afterwards at Snyder Field at the Soccer Game!!
Tuesday (9-19-00) at 11am--Interim Informational Meeting in Leonard Auditorium

From the Registrar...
Adding Courses- Friday, September 8th is the last day to add a class. NO EXCEPTIONS.
Dropping Courses- Friday, September 8th is the last day to drop a course without the course and grade appearing on your permanent record. Thereafter, and until November 10th, a grade of WP or WF will be assigned to all dropped courses.
Repeating Courses- Students may repeat only courses in which they have previously received a grade of C-, D, F, I, or WF, and in their Wofford career may repeat only four such courses for the GPA benefit. In addition, to receive the GPA benefit, the student must complete a Repeated Course Form available in the Registrar's Office. No student may repeat Humanities 101. Hours earned are awarded only once. Students who make higher grades on permissible repeats will receive the grade-point benefit of the higher grades, but the original or lower grades will remain on the transcript.
Right to Know Information Cards: Please complete and return this card (neon pink) to the Registrar's Office before the end of the drop/add period. This is very important. Grades will not be issued to any student who does not return this card.
Converse Registration- Registration for classes at Converse will be held on Tuesday, September 5th in the Registrar's Office. If you are interested in taking a course at Converse, you must come to the Registrar's Office and complete the necessary forms for registration.
Incompletes- The deadline for making up incomplete grades incurred in the 2000 spring semester or summer school is Friday, October 20, 2000.

ALERT FOR DECEMBER 3 WINTER LIGHTING... The whole campus is asked to take part in a special Winter Lighting, Sunday, December 3. Holiday fare in the decorated Burwell dining hall at 6 p.m. for students, faculty, staff, and their families will be followed by a processional to Main Building at 6:50 p.m. and lighting of Main Building towers at 7:00 p.m. with readings by students and President Dunlap. At 7:15 the crowd will witness the lighting of the Row and proceed there for Row Houses hosting of Christmas desserts and an All-Sing with row houses and other costumed groups presenting one holiday song each. The evening ends about 8:00 with announcement of awards for Best Row House Lighting, Best Group Sing, and Best Individual Costume. Students, faculty, staff, and families are invited to dress in seasonal regalia for the occasion, whether in full costumes, or wearing Christmas ties and winter scarves and ornaments. This early notice is made to allow participants time to get to work on row lighting, musical numbers, and attire. Faculty and staff can make dinner reservations with Peggy Morrison in the development office at x-4204 or morrisonpb@wofford.edu. Groups wishing to compete in All-Sing can register with Jim Hartell, director of student activities and Greek Life, in the Student Affairs suite at x-4401 or hartelljp@wofford.edu. Row houses are asked not to display their houses’ lights before this event. Residence Halls occupants are encouraged to get battery-operated window candles for their rooms and to light them that evening at 5:30 p.m. and subsequent evenings thereafter until Christmas Break. In the event of rain, the dinner, readings, singing, and dessert will be held in the dining hall.

Extraordinary Solo Guitar Program at Wofford: John Lenti will be giving a solo program on the classical guitar this Monday, November 20, in the Papadopoulos Room, 4:00 pm, at Wofford College. Lenti is a Greenwood native who has spent the last seven years studying under Gerald Klickstein of the North Carolina School of the Arts. He has played in masterclasses at various guitar festivals for such internationally renowned artist-teachers as Ricardo Cobo, Bruce Holzman, Paul O’Dette, Sharon Isbin and Aaron Shearer. Most recently, John served as one of the founding members of Winston-Salem’s own Whistle Pig Massage Parlor Band, now active in folk festivals and seasonal gatherings involving kilts and rough-hewn objects d’art. His Wofford program will include works from the Swedish Baroque, the Spanish Renaissance and the Italian master, Canova da Milano. This event is open to the public and free.

Thursday, November 16, Bill Drake--the voice of Spartanburg--will be speaking to the Wofford College Rotaracts Club. All students, faculty and staff are invited to come join Rotaracts and Bill Drake from noon until 12:50 pm in the Holcombe Room. Bring your lunch in from the faculty/staff dining room or down from upstairs Burwell.

Campus Union is looking for someone who would be willing to Film our meetings and other events. The pay is good and no prior training is necessary. Tell them to contact Allen Bridgers at bridgerswa@wofford.edu if interested.
