The Grapevine
September 13, 2001

From the Registrar

Repeating Courses - Students may repeat only courses in which they have previously received a grade of C-, D, F, I, or WF, and in their Wofford career may repeat only four such courses for the GPA benefit. In addition, to receive the GPA benefit, the student must complete a Repeated Course Form available in the Registrar's Office. No student may repeat Humanities 101. Hours earned are awarded only once. Students who make higher grades on permissible repeats will receive the grade-point benefit of the higher grades, but the original or lower grades will remain on the transcript.

Right to Know Information Form - If you failed to complete the form that was mailed to you over the summer, please come by the Registrar's Office to complete the form. This is very important. Grades will not be issued to any student who does not return this form.

Seniors - Please return the Registration for Graduation Form to the Registrar's Office immediately.

Incompletes - The deadline for making up incomplete grades incurred in the 2001 spring semester or summer school is Friday, October 19, 2001.

Important Information

LSAT - A workshop to help students prepare to take the LSAT will be offered by Prof. Keller of the Department of Philosophy on Monday nights in October, starting October 1st. It will consist of five sessions of no more than two hours each. Sessions will be held in Daniel 204 and begin at 7:30 p.m. The registration fee for Wofford students is $130. In addition, participants should have Cracking the LSAT by the Princeton Review, which will be available for sale at the workshop for about $20. To get more information or to register, contact Prof. Keller by phone or email.

Troubadour Series - John Lenti, classical guitarist and lutenist, will be performing in the Sandor Teszler Library Friday, September 14th at 4:00 p.m. This is the first of the year's eight programs of the Troubadour Series. There is no charge and students are strongly encouraged to attend. John will be performing pieces by Dowland, the Venezuelan composer Antonio Lauro, Cuba's Leo Brouwer and others.

Campus events in response to the Terrorist Attacks on America

In light of the recent tragedy in our nation, many persons will want to talk with an individual counselor about the events that occurred Tuesday. It is a sign of strength when an individual recognizes this emotional need. Wofford is fortunate to have qualified people willing to listen and provide confidential opportunities for counseling. Please contact Health Services, ext. 4371 or the Chaplain's office, ext. 4050 if there is anything we can do to assist you.

Spartanburg college students unite! Blood Drive with Converse College - TODAY, Thursday, 13th from 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. in the Blackman Music Hall Lobby at Converse. If you are able to volunteer or need maps to Converse, contact Health Services, ext. 4371.

Ribbon Campaign - Wofford students designed a ribbon to be worn today, Thursday, September 13, in honor of the victims of Tuesday's tragedy. Students will distribute the ribbons TODAY, Thursday, September 13 at the student forum ( 11 a.m. in Leonard Auditorium). Donations will be accepted at the forum. Interested parties may drop off their donation at the front table in the lobby of Leonard Auditorium. Donations will be given to the American Red Cross relief fund.

Miss - A - Meal - Students may sign up to "miss their dinner meal @ Burwell" Friday evening, September 14. The money from all Friday evening missed meals will be given to the American Red Cross Relief Fund. Questions, contact Mo Dayton at ext. 5238. Students will "dorm storm" through the halls TONIGHT, Thursday, September 13th for sign-ups if you would like to give up your Friday meal.
Service Events for the Week of September 13-16, 2001

Service Event, September 16, 2001 - All students, faculty and staff are invited to meet at the horseshoe at 2:00 p.m., Sunday. We will join together and landscape the courtyards in both Shipp and DuPre dorms. Come out, get your hands a bit dirty, and help your campus. Project sponsored by Twin Towers, Orientation, and Panhellenic.

Community Service Interest Fair, September 18, 2001 - Come out on Tuesday, September 18, and meet representative from 15+ service agencies in Spartanburg - 5-6:30 p.m. in front of Burwell. They will tell you about the many opportunities for volunteering in their agency.

News from Career Services

Career Services - Career Services has moved for the fall semester to the second floor of the Campus Life Building. Students are encouraged to come by or to make an appointment for any questions regarding life after Wofford. Juniors and seniors are to look for announcements regarding fall meetings with Career Services staff.

Argosy University in Georgia offers a specialty program that meets the educational requirements for licensure as a LPC, a Licensed Professional Counselor, in the state of Georgia. Formerly known as the Georgia School of Professional Psychology. Argosy has several traditional and non-traditional grad programs in psychology. Find them at www.aspp.edu.

The USC SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH will hold an information session on Tuesday, October 30 at 6:30pm in Olin 118. All interested students are invited. The web site is www.sph.sc.edu.

Founder's Day, October 19, 2001

Wofford celebrates the 221st birthday of Founder Benjamin Wofford on Friday, October 19th, 2001, with a campuswide dinner on the Grounds at noon. Founder's Day 2001 will feature fried chicken and a 150-foot sandwich (one foot for every year of the college's history since the cornerstone laying in 1851). Buffet lunch lines in front of the Main Building, opened in 1854, will serve from 11:50am to 12:30pm. Guests will be seated on the lawn between Main Building and Ben Wofford's grave.

At noon the college's restored 1854 Meheely Bell, rung frequently over the last 147 years, will ring for the first time since its recent restoration and automation, and it will ring hourly automatically hereafter.
At 12:30pm, President Benjamin B. Dunlap will commemorate the founder and the bell, after which the bell be tolled manually and the campus community will sing a 19th century hymn, "Bringing the Sheaves". Freshman Patrick Chapman, an award-winning bagpiper from Bellaire, Texas, will play an old Scottish folk hymn, "Highland Cathedral", as Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Russell C. King, Jr., and the President of the student body, Benjamin J. Foster, of Kennesaw, Georgia, bear a memorial wreath to Wofford's grave at the center of the campus, followed by descendants of Rev. Hugh Andrew Walker (1809-1886). Credited with persuading Wofford to start a college with $100,00 of his estate, Walker served as Chairman of the Board of Trustees after the first chairman, William Wightman, was elected president of the college in 1853, and the college bell was installed and the college was opened during his chairmanship years.

Ceremonies will conclude at 12:55pm with the reciting of the Wofford Prayer and the singing of the Alma Mater, with adjournment as the bell is tolled again.

In the event of rain, the lunch and ceremonies will be moved to Burwell.

Wofford College Bowl Team

On the weekend of October 19-20, Wofford's College Bowl Team placed 2nd at the annual Center of the Known Universe Tournament in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Led by Freshman Ben Ingram, who placed 2nd in the tournament in individual scoring, and juniors Tyler Schachte (team captain), Gerald Cox and Tricia Wallace, the team outscored opponents that included Florida State University, Emory College, South Georgia and host UT-Chattanooga. The Wofford team, which has previously never placed higher than 5th at a general tournament, seems poised for a run of trophies this season.

The College Bowl is coached by Professors Sally Hitchmough and Natalie Grinnell. Students interested in joining should contact Dr. Grinnell (grinnellns@wofford.edu) or ext. 4564) or just show up at practice Thursday nights at 5pm in Main 226.
