Twin Towers Angel Tree Project

During the Christmas season, it is often easy to forget about those less fortunate than us. Many children will not be recipients of Christmas gifts.

Although, exams are fast approaching and things are winding down, would you take the time to "Give Something Back" ? Would you, your group of friends or organization sponsor a child for the Twin Towers Angel Tree Project?

It is not too late. If you are interested, please contact Stephanie Anne Hipp (ext.4978) by Tues. Dec.4th. A child will be assigned to you and you or your group will be responsible for buying the gifts.

Have a Merry Christmas
Twin Towers Cabinet

Literary Salon 2001: Inspiring a Nation of People

As part of the celebration of Black History month there will be a literary reading on Sunday, February 18th. If you would like to take part in the program by reading a poem, or an excerpt from an essay, play, speech, novel, or other piece of literature or by sharing some other form of creative expression please e-mail Debbie S. Deas at deasds@wofford.edu. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to participate. Each selection should be for, by, or about African-Americans or minority groups as a whole. In your e-mails please provide your name, extension, e-mail address, and a brief description of what you will be sharing. Please have all responses in by Wednesday, February 7th, and you may also send any questions or suggestions to the same address. Thank you.
