Invitation for Louise Miller Reception

Ms. Louise Miller is retiring after some 17+ years of dedicated service to Wofford College. This Friday, 3/30/01, will be her last day on the job but will return Monday afternoon, 4/2/01, for a reception in her honor. The reception will be a drop-in in the Olin lobby from 2 – 4 pm (presentations at 2:50).

Louise has been a fixture in the Olin Building almost from its opening date and has done a terrific job there as well as with all other housekeeping assignments she's had over the years. I hope you can drop by to wish her well as she embarks on her next adventure!

- Antigone in the Players' Corner
- Habitat for Humanity Day
- Wofford Troubadour Series presents Susan Grisanti
- Milliken Science Center Changes Hours
- Cap and Gowns for Faculty
- Summer and Fall Book Adoption

Antigone in the Players' Corner

The members of the Presidential Seminar will perform "Antigone" on Wed. in the Players Corner beside Burwell at 4:30. Rain plan is for Leonard Auditorium.

Habitat for Humanity Day

Twin Towers is sponsoring Habitat for Humanity Day this Saturday, April 7th. We are planning to do some serious framing work. So bring your hammer and come out and support this cause. It should be lots of fun and its just a few hours of your time.

We will meet behind Old Main (horseshoe/mall side) at 9am and we will car pool the 5 min. drive to Una. Lunch will be provided. If you have to come late maps will be left for you and if you have to leave early that shouldn't be a problem either. We would love for the whole campus to make it out.

Wofford Troubadour Series presents Susan Grisanti

The Troubadour Series at Wofford presents solo guitarist Susan Grisanti this Thursday evening, April 5, 7:00 PM, in the Papadopoulos Room. Ms. Grisanti is coming from Lubbock, Texas, where she has performed professionally for several years. She has redefined the meaning of politically correct by playing for both Tipper Gore and former Governor George W. Bush, and she is now on the United States Embassy's touring roster. This recital is free and open to the public.

Milliken Science Center Changes Hours

The Milliken Center's hours of operation on Saturdays have been changed from 9am until 2 pm to a more student friendly 11am until 4pm.

Cap and Gowns for Faculty

It is time to order rental cap and gowns for graduation. If you intend to rent your cap and gown for graduation please stop by the bookstore and do so no later than April 6th, 2001. If you have any questions please call Chanel Beck in the bookstore at 597-4060.

Summer and Fall Book Adoption

Dear Wofford faculty member:

It is never too early to begin collecting course information for the summer and fall terms. To help you along, we would ask that you visit the bookstore Web site to submit your adoption information.

Your faculty password for access to this service is 488. You may have already used this service in prior terms. If so, we thank you for helping us continue to develop and improve this feature. If you have used this service before you will type in the password that you previously set up.

If you have not used this service, we would like to encourage you to use this means of information collection that will eliminate the hassle of sending paperwork back to the bookstore. Once you have submitted your adoption for course materials, you will receive an immediate email acknowledgement of your submission for your records.

Instructions on how to enter and submit your information:

- * Visit our Web site at www.wofford.bksir.com.
- * Click on the Faculty icon in the menu box at the top of the page.
- * Click on the continue icon below the eAdoption heading.
- * Type in your faculty password .
- * Then simply complete the information requested to submit your adoption.
- * It's fast and easy.

You may also fill out the enclosed form and return it to the bookstore. We are requesting that all adoptions for the summer and fall

You may also fill out the enclosed form and return it to the bookstore. We are requesting that all adoptions for the summer and fall term be completed and returned to the bookstore by April 30, 2001. I know that this is kind of early for some of you. However, a timely response will ensure that students will get a decent price for the books that they are selling back. If there are any problems with this date please call the bookstore and let me know. If you have any questions, you may call us at (864) 597-4060.

Thank you in advance for using the online adoption service.

Sincerely,
Chanel D. Beck

- Auditions for One-Act Plays
- The Art of Van Gogh, April 5

Faculty Personal Web Pages

On the new Wofford website, all personal webpage listings are included in the Faculty/Staff Directory (the two pages for phone/address and website info have been combined).

If you have personal website NOT currently listed in the Faculty/Staff directory, please email elvingtonjm@wofford.edu

Auditions for One-Act Plays

Auditions for the Student Directed One-Act plays will take place on Thursday, April 5 from 2:30 - 4:30. Three one-act plays will be cast; all students are encouraged to audition, and no experience is necessary. Questions or conflicts should be addressed to Regan Howard, Allyson Jones, or Josh Cooper.

The Art of Van Gogh - April 5

Thursday, April 5th, a three-part series of presentations on the art of Van Gogh begins in the Olin Theater at 8:00 PM. Professor Lauren Soth of Carleton College, in Northfield, Minn., will speak on "Sower and Pollard: the Cycle of Life in Van Gogh's Art." He is a Van Gogh specialist and, over the course of a long career, has published about a dozen articles on different aspects of Van Gogh's art. He will speak to the students in my Van Gogh course on the symbolic portraits La Berceuse and L'Arlesienne at 1:00 on Thursday afternoon in Daniel 101, an informal presentation that is open to any interested persons. In the evening Professor Soth's talk will be illustrated with slides and will include time for questions and discussion.
