Wofford point guard Mike Lenzy had 20 points and eight rebounds while tying a single-game school record with five blocks as he played all 45 minutes to lead an injury-depleted Terrier squad to a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel tonight in Spartanburg, S.C.

With the win, the Terriers (9-6, 3-0) take over sole possession of first place in the South Division of the Southern Conference. Wofford, with victories in six of its last seven games, is off to its best start in seven seasons of Division I play. The Citadel drops to 10-4, 2-1.

The Terriers played the majority of the game without leading scorer Lee Nixon, who suffered a slightly dislocated left shoulder just 2:10 into the contest. He is listed as questionable for Saturday's 7 p.m. home game with the College of Charleston.

Freshmen Justin Stephens and Adrien Borders stepped up in Nixon's absence with each playing 42 minutes. Stephens had career-high totals of 20 points and nine rebounds to go with five assists and five steals. Borders had a career-best 17 points while adding four assists and two steals.

The Terriers trailed by as many as nine points on two occasions in the first half before taking a 32-25 deficit into the locker room at the intermission.

Wofford was behind 53-46 with 10:21 to play before going on a 12-5 run over the next 5:45 to pull even at 58-58 on a Stephens jumper with 4:36 remaining. The Terriers never led in the second half but forced overtime at 61-61 when Borders scored on a driving layup with 54 seconds to play. The Bulldogs had a chance to win with one second left but Travis Cantrell missed a 15-foot jump shot.

Borders had six points in overtime while Stephens added four as Wofford outscored The Citadel 12-3 in the extra period. Another Borders layup gave the Terriers the first points of overtime and Grant Sterley added a pair of free-throws with 3:26 to play to put Wofford in front 65-61. Sterley had a career-high nine rebounds to go with eight points.

"We won," Wofford Head Coach and Athletic Director Richard Johnson said. "We won with tremendous defense (the Terriers had nine steals while forcing 16 turnovers).

"It was a physical, physical, physical game. We were cold early. With Nixon going out, Stephens and Borders played incredible basketball. Sterley was very good. grabbed some tough boards and just being ...the play, ... a leader.

"It was a game we probably shouldn't have won, but we just found a way to get it done. I'm going to have to go to a dictionary to find adjectives to describe this team."

Alan Puckett led The Citadel with 18 points, including five 3-pointers, as he went over the 1,000 career-point mark. Cliff Washburn added 15 points and 14 rebounds.

"They (Wofford) made nice plays down the stretch," The Citadel Head Coach Pat Dennis said. "It was a physical game.

"We put ourselves in position to win at the end as we had the ball. Wofford was very quick on the perimeter and did what they had to do to win."

The Terriers host the College of Charleston on Saturday at 7 p.m. while The Citadel travels to Western Carolina for a 7 p.m. Saturday contest.

Attached are .pdf files with Wofford's game notes and stats for tomorrow's 7 p.m. home game with Furman.

Wofford (7-6, 1-0) will look to continue the momentum from Wednesday's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston.

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, the Terriers hold a 5-3 series lead over the Paladins. Each team won on the opposing court last year. Furman took a 70-62 decision in Spartanburg while Wofford won 77-70 in Greenville.

For the second straight year, Furman visits the Benjamin Johnson Arena with the Wofford students still on Christmas break.

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly tops the SoCon with four double-doubles (points and rebounds). He's one of just two players in the SoCon to rank in the Top 12 in scoring (14.3 ppg), rebounding (6.7 rpg), and assists (4.3 apg). He's also third in assist/turnover ratio.

Lee Nixon led Wofford with 25 points, including 21 in the second half, in the win at the College of Charleston. Nixon had 24 points in the Terriers' previous game (Dec. 21 at Georgia Tech). He is the SoCon's eighth-leading scorer at 15.5 points per game.

If you have any trouble with the files or need additional assistance, please feel free to let me know.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Jan. 5, 2002, vs. Furman, Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500), Spartanburg, S.C.; 7 p.m.

The Game

The Wofford basketball team (7-6, 1-0) will look to continue the momentum from Wednesday's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston when it hosts Furman (8-4, 1-0) to open a three-game homestand.

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, the Terriers hold a 5-3 series lead over the Paladins. Each team won on the opposing court last year. Furman took a 70-62 decision in Spartanburg while Wofford won 77-70 in Greenville.

For the second straight year, Furman visits the Benjamin Johnson Arena with the Wofford students still on Christmas break.

Worth Noting

- Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

- Point guard Mike Lenzly tops the SoCon with four double-doubles (points and rebounds). He's one of just two players in the SoCon to rank in the Top 12 in scoring, rebounding, and assists.

- Lee Nixon led Wofford with 25 points, including 21 in the second half, in the 66-64 win at the College of Charleston. Nixon had 24 points in the Terriers' previous game (Dec. 21 at Georgia Tech).

Meet The Head Coach

- Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of the 2001-02 campaign.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fifth in winning percentage with a 232-218 mark (.516). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

Probable Starting Lineup

G Mike Lenzly	6-3, 180, Jr.	14.3 ppg, 6.7 rpg, 4.3 apg

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Rivalry

•The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

•The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

•In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Smart Guys

Wofford's graduating class last year included Phi Beta Kappa members Brandon Boyce and Bishop Ravenel.

Where Are They Now?

All four of last year's Wofford seniors earned their degrees. Listed below are their current situations:

•Brandon Boyce is in medical school at the Medical College of Georgia.

•Bishop Ravenel is in law school at the University of Richmond.

•Terenthial White is a financial analyst with Advance America in Spartanburg.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie, Wofford's lone senior, took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October.

Lethal Weapon 3

•Wofford's three-guard tandem of Lee Nixon (15.5 ppg), Mike Lenzy (14.3 ppg), and Justin Stephens (10.5 ppg) averages 40.3 points per game, representing 57.6 percent of Wofford's season mark (70.0 points).

•Lenzy (31), Nixon (25), and Stephens (15) have also combined for 71 of Wofford's 99 3-pointers this year (71.7 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continues when it comes to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the country for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzy received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzy was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Another Triple-Double

Mike Lenzy has already flirted three times this season with the second triple-double of his Wofford career:

Opponent	Stats
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

There's Only Two

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzy is one of just two players (Jason Conley, VMI) to rank in the Top 12 in the SoCon in scoring (14.3 ppg), rebounding (6.7 rpg), and assists (4.3 apg).

He's the Point Guard

The 6-foot-3 point guard is also fourth in the SoCon with an average of 3.0 offensive rebounds each contest.

•Lenzy is third in the SoCon in assist/turnover ratio (2.0) with 56 assists and just 28 turnovers on the year.

Mike Lenzy

What a Week

In earning SoCon Player of the Week honors last season (Feb. 13-19), Wofford point guard Mike Lenzy was simply dominant.

He averaged 26.0 points, 7.7 rebounds, and 6.3 assists in wins over Chattanooga (105-69), Appalachian State (86-65), and Western Carolina (90-76). He had 19 assists and just two turnovers on the week while shooting 67.4 percent (29-of-43), including 13-of-21 behind the arc (61.9 percent).

The Staff

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Streak Over

The following are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2):

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at that time.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

*Mike Young
Associate Head Coach*

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston was big for Wofford, but ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young, who will take over the head duties at the conclusion of the season.

On the bus ride back from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Nailbiters

Each of the last three games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession.

Edvin Masic hit a baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give the Terriers a 66-64 win over the Cougars on Wednesday in Charleston.

Last year, the Terriers had the ball with a chance to win the game on the final possession before dropping 56-55 and 64-62 decisions.

Ironmen

Leading scorers Lee Nixon and Mike Lenzly have played 76 and 78 minutes, respectively, out of a possible 80 in the Terriers' last two games (Georgia Tech and College of Charleston). Lenzly played all 40 minutes at CofC.

No More Chadwicks

With the graduation of three-time All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, Wofford is taking the court this season without a Chadwick in the starting lineup for the first time in nine years.

Prior to Ian's arrival, which coincided with the Terriers' first four years of SoCon membership (1997-01), older brother Seth Chadwick was a four-year starter for the Terriers (1993-97).

Wofford is Chadwick-less for the first time since the 1992-93 campaign.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has surprised the SoCon in three of its four seasons in the league.

The Terriers placed third in the South Division in 1999-00 after being a preseason fourth-place pick by the SoCon coaches.

The Terriers placed third in the South Division in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School and Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

Wofford had just three "double-doubles" last season but has already seen six recorded this year:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzy	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzy	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzy	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzy	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Quick Starts

•Wofford's 7-6 record represents its best start to a season in seven years of Division I play and the latest in a campaign that the Terriers have been over .500. Wofford has never been two games over .500 in its Division I era.

•The Terriers have opened SoCon play with a victory for the fourth straight season. Wofford has gone 2-0 to start the league campaign just once (1998-99).

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with seven of the 13 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers have just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzy, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who have played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Lee Nixon and Mike Lenzy have gone back and forth all season in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Nixon (15.5 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Lenzy (14.3 ppg) by virtue of 16 more points on the season (202-to-186).

Defensive Stops

Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in the 1995-96 campaign.

The previous low was accomplished in a 55-48 victory over Georgia Southern (Jan. 5, 1998). That contest was also the Terriers' first-ever SoCon win.

Shooting the Rock

•Wofford has made 43 more trips to the free-throw line (121-78) in its seven victories compared to the six losses.

The Terriers are shooting 61.2 percent (74-of-121) at the charity stripe in their wins compared to 65.4 percent (51-of-78) in the defeats.

•Wofford is averaging 7.6 3-pointers per game, sinking 26 more treys (99-to-73) than its opposition.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14).

The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

Same Five

Wofford has had the same starting five of Mike Lenzy, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Grant Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in each game this season.

Home and Away

Wofford is 5-1 at home this year, 1-5 on the road, and 1-0 on neutral courts after a 56-46 win over Sacramento State at the Guardians Classic in Memphis.

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Inter mont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School in Greenville, S.C., Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

Myers made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points. Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup to give Wofford a 73-42 lead with 6:52 remaining. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He was fouled on a 3-pointer with 1:34 to play and made 1-of-3 attempts from the line to finish the game with four points.

"It was a dream come true to play in a college basketball game," Myers said. "It was a great opportunity. I just tried to shoot the ball as best I could, like I've done thousands of times in practice."

"Brett is a hard worker and one of the best managers we've ever had," Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson said. "Brett thought we were kidding when we asked him if he had his paperwork in to make sure he was eligible.

"When Brett got in, our intensity picked up because we started setting screens and making crisper passes trying to get him involved. It meant a lot to our players to see someone work so hard and get rewarded. Brett does so much behind the scenes. He is such an important part of our program."

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with just over 17 minutes to play before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the victory.

Not Bad Company

Wofford's six losses this season have come to three ACC teams (Clemson, NC State, Georgia Tech), and one each from the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 32-36 record (.471), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

The records listed below include SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-4
The Citadel	5-3
College of Charleston	1-7
Davidson	2-4
East Tennessee State	0-4
Furman	5-3
Georgia Southern	6-2
UNC Greensboro	3-1
VMI	2-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	32-36

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the sixth-best record in the league. It's a mark made very impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	41-8 (.836)
2. Appalachian State	46-18 (.719)
3. Davidson	41-23 (.641)
4. East Tennessee State	37-27 (.578)
5. Chattanooga	32-31 (.508)
6. Wofford	30-33 (.476)
7. UNC Greensboro	30-34 (.469)
8. Georgia Southern	29-34 (.460)
9. The Citadel	24-38 (.387)
10. VMI	23-41 (.359)
11. Furman	21-41 (.339)
12. Western Carolina	19-45 (.297)

1212 vs. 1100

Wofford College boasts a higher SAT average (1212) than enrollment (1100).

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

20 Brett Myers G

6-1 • 165 • Sr.
Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Hanahan, S.C. (Hanahan)

2001-02: All-SoCon candidate and the Terriers' leading scorer (15.5 ppg)... one of the more exciting players in the league... ranks eighth in the SoCon in scoring... his top three games this season have come in major contests -- Wednesday's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston as well as near upsets of Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)... 21 of his 25 points against Charleston came in the second half, including a spectacular reverse dunk off an alley-oop pass from Justin Stephens... the dunk tied the game with under three minutes to play and gave the Terriers momentum... also hit a slashing floater to even the contest with under a minute to play... had a game-high 24 points as the Terriers took an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)... added a team-high and career-best seven rebounds against the Yellow Jackets... torched Clemson for 25 points, including 16 in the first half, as Wofford built a 45-34 lead at the intermission (Nov. 24)... places second on the team in 3-pointers (25) and third in assists (26), steals (14), and trips to the free-throw line (31)... has scored in double figures in 11 of 13 games this season...

Did You Know: Nixon showcased his talents last year with a 31-point explosion in an 83-73 win over Davidson. He converted just the second 4-point play in Wofford history in a game at The Citadel. Nixon also had eight points in a 2:42 span against nationally-ranked Boston College.

Game 1 -- Memphis 88, Wofford 61 (Guardians Classic) November 13, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Wofford hung tough with No. 12 Memphis before the Tigers pulled away in the second half in front of a crowd of 13,586, the largest to ever see the Terriers play. Freshman Justin Stephens outplayed heralded Memphis rookie Dajuan Wagner, outscoring the 2001 National High School Player of the Year in addition to posting more assists and fewer turnovers. The Terriers forced Tiger Head Coach John Calipari to burn three first-half timeouts. At different points in the game, Wofford had three freshmen on the court at the same time. Stephens topped all scorers with 19 points while Kenny Hastie had a game-high 12 rebounds, one shy of a career-best.

Game 2 -- Wofford 56, Sacramento St. 46 (Guardians Classic) November 14, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Mike Lenzly's 4-point play keyed a 19-3 rally over the final 10:52 as Wofford pulled away from Sacramento State for a 56-46 victory at the Guardians Classic. The Terriers held the Hornets without a field goal during an 8:25 stretch. Sacramento State's 46 points represented the lowest point total allowed by Wofford to a Division I team since the Terriers joined those ranks in the 1995-96 campaign. Lenzy topped both teams with 19 points and a career-high 11 rebounds. The 4-point play, just the third in Wofford history, evened the game at 43-43. Lee Nixon also had a chance at a 4-point play during the Terrier run, but he missed the free-throw attempt.

Kenny Hastie tied a single-game school record with five blocks while four Terriers scored in double figures as Wofford extended its winning streak to three games with a 77-55 victory over Reinhardt tonight in Spartanburg, S.C.

Wofford's 6-5 record represents its best start to a season in its seven years of Division I play. The Terriers' pre-Christmas schedule has included games versus Memphis, Clemson, South Carolina, Nebraska, and NC State. Wofford will next be in action at Georgia Tech on Friday at 3 p.m.

Mike Lenzly had 16 points, Lee Nixon 15, Justin Stephens 13, and Adrien Borders 10 as the Terriers slowly pulled away from the Eagles. Wofford led 17-15 with 11:23 to play in the first half when Sam Daniels had five points to key an 11-0 run to give the Terriers a double-digit lead they would not relinquish the remainder of the night.

After Nixon hit a short jumper for a 40-28 Wofford lead with five seconds left in the first half, Daniels stole the inbounds pass and converted a layup at the buzzer to provide Wofford a 42-28 advantage at the intermission.

"We didn't play well but a win is never ugly," Terrier Head Coach Richard Johnson said. "With the schedule we've played thus far, we will be no worse than .500 at the Christmas break.

"The two big wins for us in non-conference play were over Florida A&M and Sacramento State, two Division I programs and games we had to have."

Johnson praised the performance of Borders. One of four freshmen on the team, Borders is averaging 9.8 points off-the-bench in the last four contests.

Hastie, Lenzly, and Stephens each had four steals while backup center Fdvin Masic topped Wofford in rebounding with a career-high seven Lynn Hulse topped Hensley in rebounding with a career high seven boards. Stephens also had five rebounds and four assists.

Wofford team manager Brett Myers saw action for the second straight game and again broke into the scoring column. He converted 1-of-2 free-throws as he played the final two minutes.

Kenny Jemison topped Reinhardt (5-7) with 23 points. The Terriers forced the Eagles into 24 turnovers.

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly had 21 points and six rebounds while playing all 40 minutes for the second straight game as the Terriers held off Furman for a 59-49 victory tonight in Spartanburg, S.C.

Wofford improves to 8-6 overall and 2-0 in the SoCon while Furman drops to 8-5, 1-1. The Terriers' 8-6 record represents its best start to a season in seven years of Division I play. Wofford's six losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and one each from the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina). The Terriers have also opened 2-0 in SoCon play for only the second time (1998-99) since beginning league play in the 1997-98 campaign.

With the game tied at 33-33 and 9:53 to play, Lenzly and Lee Nixon each had five points to key a 14-5 run to give Wofford a 47-38 lead with 5:22 to play. Nixon began the spurt with a 3-pointer and breakaway dunk. Furman closed within five points on three occasions, the last time coming on a Karim Souchu free-throw to make the score 52-47 with 1:27 remaining. The Terriers then outscored the Paladins 7-2 the remainder of the contest to provide the final margin.

Souchu topped Furman with 15 points and 10 rebounds. He scored all seven points when the Paladins opened the game with a 7-0 lead. Wofford got on the board when Justin Stephens hit a short jumper 4:46 into the contest.

The Terriers eventually forged a 21-15 halftime lead, only to see Furman's Anthony Thomas score 10 straight points to open the second half as the Paladins took a 25-21 lead.

Wofford shot just 27.6 percent in the first half and finished the game 33.3 from the field. Furman struggled even worse, shooting 22.2 percent from the field and 32.1 overall.

"We were cold and couldn't hit anything in the first half," Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson said. "It might not have been a classic, but it's still a great win.

"Furman took us out of what we like to do. I tip my cap to them. We like to run and they wouldn't let us."

Lenzly added three blocked shots and two assists to go with his 21 points and six boards. Nixon finished with 12 points for Wofford while Grant Sterley added 10. Kenny Hastie had a team-high eight rebounds.

Thomas was the other double-figure scorer for Furman with 13 points while point guard Guilherme Da Luz had nine points, eight rebounds, and six assists.

The Terriers will host The Citadel (10-3, 2-0) at 7 p.m. Monday in a battle for first place in the SoCon South Division. The Paladins travel to Western Carolina on Monday.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Jan. 7, 2002, vs. The Citadel, Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500), Spartanburg, S.C.; 7 p.m.

The Game

The Wofford basketball team (8-6, 2-0) hosts The Citadel (10-3, 2-0) in a key Southern Conference South Division game.

The Terriers, a consensus sixth-place pick in the South this year, are tied with the Bulldogs and Chattanooga (9-6, 2-0) for the division lead. The Mocs are at Davidson tomorrow night.

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford holds a 5-3 series lead over The Citadel. The teams will meet again in the regular-season finale on Feb. 23 in Charleston.

Worth Noting

•Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

•Point guard Mike Lenzly tops the SoCon with four double-doubles (points and rebounds). He's the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists.

•Charleston-area native Lee Nixon tops the Terriers in scoring (15.3 ppg) and led Wofford with 25 points, including 21 in the second half, in Wednesday's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston.

Meet The Head Coach

•Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of this season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fourth in winning percentage with a 233-218 mark (.517). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Rivalry

•The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

•The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

•In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford is among "others receiving consideration" in the Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Bowling Green, Gonzaga, and Butler are the top three-ranked teams.

Where Are They Now?

All four of last year's Wofford seniors earned their degrees. Listed below are their current situations:

•Brandon Boyce is in medical school at the Medical College of Georgia.

•Ian Chadwick is pursuing professional basketball with Europe his likely destination.

•Bishop Ravenel is in law school at the University of Richmond.

•Terenthial White is a financial analyst with Advance America in Spartanburg.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie, Wofford's lone senior, took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October.

Lethal Weapon 3

•Wofford's three-guard tandem of Lee Nixon (15.3 ppg), Mike Lenzy (14.8 ppg), and Justin Stephens (10.1 ppg) averages 40.2 points per game, representing 58.1 percent of Wofford's season mark (69.2 points).

•Lenzy (35), Nixon (27), and Stephens (15) have also combined for 77 of Wofford's 106 3-pointers this year (72.6 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continues when it comes to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the country for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzy received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzy was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Another Triple-Double

Mike Lenzy has already flirted three times this season with the second triple-double of his Wofford career:

Opponent	Stats
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

There's Only Two

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzy is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (14.8 ppg), rebounding (6.6 rpg), and assists (4.1 apg).

He's the Point Guard

•Mike Lenzy ranks second on the Terriers and eighth in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 6.6 boards per game.

The 6-foot-3 point guard is also sixth in the SoCon with 2.9 offensive rebounds each contest.

•Lenzy is fourth in the league in assist/turnover ratio with a near 2:1 mark of 58 assists and just 32 turnovers on the year.

Mike Lenzy

What a Week

In earning SoCon Player of the Week honors last season (Feb. 13-19), Wofford point guard Mike Lenzy was simply dominant.

He averaged 26.0 points, 7.7 rebounds, and 6.3 assists in wins over Chattanooga (105-69), Appalachian State (86-65), and Western Carolina (90-76). He had 19 assists and just two turnovers on the week while shooting 67.4 percent (29-of-43), including 13-of-21 behind the arc (61.9 percent).

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Streak Over

The following are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2):

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CoFC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at that time.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

Mike Young
Associate Head Coach

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston was big for Wofford. However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Nailbiters

Each of the last three games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession.

Edvin Masic hit a baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give the Terriers a 66-64 win over the Cougars on Wednesday in Charleston.

Last year, the Terriers had the ball with a chance to win the game on the final possession before dropping 56-55 and 64-62 decisions.

The Ironman

Mike Lenzly has played all 40 minutes in both of Wofford's SoCon games this season while also going at least 38 minutes in four other contests.

No More Chadwicks

With the graduation of three-time All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, Wofford is taking the court this season without a Chadwick in the starting lineup for the first time in nine years.

Prior to Ian's arrival, which coincided with the Terriers' first four years of SoCon membership (1997-01), older brother Seth Chadwick was a four-year starter for the Terriers (1993-97).

Wofford is Chadwick-less for the first time since the 1992-93 campaign.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

- Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has surprised the SoCon in three of its four seasons in the league.

The Terriers placed third in the South Division in 1999-00 after being a preseason fourth-place pick by the SoCon coaches.

The Terriers placed third in the South Division in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

- The Terriers have a 2-0 SoCon mark this year after being a consensus sixth-place pick.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School and Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

Wofford had just three "double-doubles" last season but has already seen six recorded this year:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Quick Starts

•Wofford's 8-6 record represents its best start to a season in seven years of Division I play.

It is the latest in a Division I campaign that the Terriers have been over .500 while also marking the first time Wofford has been two games above the .500 mark in its Division I era.

The Terriers open each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

•With Wednesday's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston, the Terriers opened SoCon play with a victory for the fourth time in five seasons of league membership. Wofford has a 2-0 SoCon record for just the second time (1998-99).

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with seven of the 13 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers have just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who have played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Lee Nixon and Mike Lenzly have gone back and forth all season in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Nixon (15.3 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Lenzly (14.8 ppg) by virtue of seven more points on the season (214-to-207).

Defensive Stops

Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in the 1995-96 campaign.

The previous low was accomplished in a 55-48 victory over Georgia Southern (Jan. 5, 1998). That contest was also the Terriers' first-ever SoCon win.

Shooting the Rock

•Wofford has made 70 more trips to the free-throw line (148-78) in its eight victories compared to the six losses.

The Terriers are shooting 62.2 percent (92-of-148) at the charity stripe in their wins compared to 65.4 percent (51-of-78) in the defeats.

•Wofford is averaging 7.6 3-pointers per game, sinking 27 more treys (106-to-79) than its opposition.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14).

The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

Same Five

Wofford has had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Grant Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in each game this season.

W O F F O R D V S . T H E C I T A D E L

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Inter mont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School in Greenville, S.C., Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

Myers made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points. Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup to give Wofford a 73-42 lead with 6:52 remaining. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He was fouled on a 3-pointer with 1:34 to play and made 1-of-3 attempts from the line to finish the game with four points.

"It was a dream come true to play in a college basketball game," Myers said. "It was a great opportunity. I just tried to shoot the ball as best I could, like I've done thousands of times in practice."

"Brett is a hard worker and one of the best managers we've ever had," Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson said. "Brett thought we were kidding when we asked him if he had his paperwork in to make sure he was eligible.

"When Brett got in, our intensity picked up because we started setting screens and making crisper passes trying to get him involved. It meant a lot to our players to see someone work so hard and get rewarded. Brett does so much behind the scenes. He is such an important part of our program."

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with just over 17 minutes to play before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the victory.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Wofford's six losses this season have come to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech), and one each from the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 33-36 record (.478), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-4
The Citadel	5-3
College of Charleston	1-7
Davidson	2-4
East Tennessee State	0-4
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	6-2
UNC Greensboro	3-1
VMI	2-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	33-36

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the sixth-best record in the league. It's a mark made very impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	41-9 (.820)
2. Appalachian State	46-19 (.708)
3. Davidson	42-23 (.646)
4. East Tennessee State	37-28 (.569)
5. Chattanooga	33-31 (.516)
6. Wofford	31-33 (.484)
7. UNC Greensboro	31-34 (.477)
8. Georgia Southern	30-34 (.469)
9. The Citadel	25-38 (.397)
10. VMI	23-42 (.354)
11. Furman	21-42 (.333)
12. Western Carolina	19-46 (.292)

1212 vs. 1100

Wofford College boasts a higher SAT average (1212) than enrollment (1100).

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Hanahan, S.C. (Hanahan)

2001-02: All-SoCon candidate and the Terriers' leading scorer (15.3 ppg)... one of the more exciting players in the league... ranks eighth in the SoCon in scoring... his top three games this season have come in major contests -- Wednesday's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston as well as near upsets of Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)... 21 of his 25 points against Charleston came in the second half, including a spectacular reverse dunk off an alley-oop pass from Justin Stephens... the dunk tied the game with under four minutes to play and gave the Terriers momentum... also hit a slashing floater to even the contest with less than a minute to play... had a game-high 24 points as the Terriers took an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)... added a team-high and career-best seven rebounds against the Yellow Jackets... torched Clemson for 25 points, including 16 in the first half, as Wofford built a 45-34 lead at the intermission (Nov. 24)... had five straight points, including a 3-pointer and breakaway dunk, to key a 14-5 Wofford run midway through the second half as the Terriers broke a tie game and pulled away from Furman in a 59-49 victory (Jan. 5)... places second on the team in 3-pointers (27) and third in assists (29), steals (14), and trips to the free-throw line (31)... has scored in double figures in 12 of 14 games this season...

Did You Know: Nixon showcased his talents last year with a 31-point explosion in an 83-73 win over Davidson. He converted just the second 4-point play in Wofford history in a game at The Citadel. Nixon also had eight points in a 2:42 span against nationally-ranked Boston College.

WOFFORD VS. THE CITADEL

Game 1 -- Memphis 88, Wofford 61 (Guardians Classic) November 13, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Wofford hung tough with No. 12 Memphis before the Tigers pulled away in the second half in front of a crowd of 13,586, the largest to ever see the Terriers play. Freshman Justin Stephens outplayed heralded Memphis rookie Dajuan Wagner, outscoring the 2001 National High School Player of the Year in addition to posting more assists and fewer turnovers. The Terriers forced Tiger Head Coach John Calipari to burn three first-half timeouts. At different points in the game, Wofford had three freshmen on the court at the same time. Stephens topped all scorers with 19 points while Kenny Hastie had a game-high 12 rebounds, one shy of a career-best.

Game 2 -- Wofford 56, Sacramento St. 46 (Guardians Classic) November 14, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Mike Lenzly's 4-point play keyed a 19-3 rally over the final 10:52 as Wofford pulled away from Sacramento State for a 56-46 victory at the Guardians Classic. The Terriers held the Hornets without a field goal during an 8:25 stretch. Sacramento State's 46 points represented the lowest point total allowed by Wofford to a Division I team since the Terriers joined those ranks in the 1995-96 campaign. Lenzly topped both teams with 19 points and a career-high 11 rebounds. The 4-point play, just the third in Wofford history, evened the game at 43-43. Lee Nixon also had a chance at a 4-point play during the Terrier run, but he missed the free-throw attempt.

Game 9 -- Wofford 103, Emmanuel 64

December 8, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

David Eaton scored 13 points in 13 minutes, including 10 in a 2:21 stretch, as Wofford coasted to a 103-64 victory. All 12 Terriers scored, including five in double figures. The Terriers shot a season-high 56.4 percent from the field while holding a 43-26 rebounding edge. Wofford and Emmanuel swapped leads several times early in the game before the Terriers went on a 22-2 run, capped by a Lee Nixon dunk, to pull away.

Game 10 -- Wofford 87, Virginia Intermont 59

December 15, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action as the Wofford men's basketball team rolled to an 87-59 victory over Virginia Intermont.

Myers made his collegiate debut when he entered the game with 7:54 remaining and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead. Myers made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points. Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup to give Wofford a 73-42 lead with 6:52 remaining. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 at the 5:35 mark.

At the conclusion of the game, Myers was carried off the floor by his teammates.

After trailing 9-8 in the opening 5:55, Wofford went on a 27-8 run to take a 35-17 lead with 6:17 left in the first half. The Terriers began the spurt with eight straight points from Mike Lenzly, who totaled 12 points and 10 rebounds to go with five assists and no turnovers.

Lee Nixon topped Wofford with 17 points while Adrien Borders added 10 for his second double-figure scoring performance in the last three games.

The Wofford basketball team built an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech before dropping a 79-70 decision.

After the Yellow Jackets scored the game's opening four points, Wofford stormed back to take its largest lead of the afternoon at 29-17 when Mike Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers just 23 seconds apart with 8:10 left in the first half. Lenzly finished the game with 22 points, seven assists, and six rebounds.

The Yellow Jackets closed to within 35-32 at the intermission when B.J. Elders knocked in a 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The Terriers came out strong in the second half. A 3-pointer by Grant Sterley and a pair of Lenzly free-throws built the Wofford lead back to 45-34 with 17:05 to play. However, Georgia Tech's press sparked a 24-5 run. In the middle of the spurt was a 3-pointer by Halston Lane to give the Yellow Jackets the lead for good at 51-50 with 9:42 remaining.

With Georgia Tech on top 58-50, the Terriers countered with two Kenny Hastie free-throws and a Lee Nixon layup to close within 58-54 with 7:31 left. Nixon topped Wofford with 24 points and a team-high and career-best seven rebounds.

However, a 3-pointer by Elder began a run of 11 straight Yellow Jacket points to put Georgia Tech in control at 69-54 with 3:38 remaining.

Game 13 -- Wofford 66, College of Charleston 64 January 2, 2002 Charleston, S.C.

Edvin Masic's eight-foot jumper from the left baseline as time expired lifted Wofford to a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston.

Lee Nixon tied the game at 62-62 on a slashing floater with 57 seconds left. Charleston's Jeff Bolton then missed a shot in the lane, Mike Lenzly grabbed the rebound and went the length of the court for a layup to give Wofford a 64-62 lead with 18 seconds left. Charleston's Shannon Chambers hit a pair of free throws with 10.8 seconds remaining to tie the game at 64-64.

On the final possession, Lenzly again brought the ball downcourt and found Masic open on the baseline for the game-winner.

Charleston shot 57.1 percent in the first half and took a 32-24 lead at the intermission. The Terriers controlled the second half, outscoring CofC 42-32 and hitting on 53.3 percent of their shots.

Charleston stretched its lead to 10 points at 34-24 with 19 minutes left on a dunk by Mike Benton.

Nixon's 3-pointer with 13:58 left capped a 12-2 Wofford run and tied the game at 36-36. Nixon finished with a game-high 25 points, including 21 in the second half.

With 3:50 to play, Justin Stephens made an alley-oop pass to Nixon who converted it into a spectacular reverse dunk while being fouled on the play. His subsequent free-throw tied the game at 58-58 and gave the Terriers momentum down the stretch.

Lenzly finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds, the fourth double-double on the year for the Terrier point guard.

Game 14 -- Wofford 59, Furman 49

January 5, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

Mike Lenzly had 21 points and six rebounds while playing 40 minutes for the second straight game as Wofford held off Furman for a 59-49 victory in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

With the game tied at 33-33 and 9:53 to play, Lenzly and Lee Nixon each had five points to key a 14-5 run that gave Wofford a 47-38 lead with 5:22 left. Nixon began the spurt with a 3-pointer and breakaway dunk. Furman closed within five points on three occasions, the last time coming with 1:27 remaining. However, the Terriers outscored the Paladins 7-2 the remainder of the contest to provide the final margin.

The Terriers trailed 7-0 to start the game before eventually forging a 21-15 halftime lead. Furman scored the opening 10 points of the second half to go on top 25-21, before Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers to put Wofford back in the lead.

Attached are .pdf files with Wofford's notes and stats for Saturday's regionally-televised (FOX Sports Net South) men's basketball game at Georgia Southern.

The Terriers (9-8, 3-2) and Eagles (8-7, 2-3) will be meeting in a key SoCon South Division contest at 1 p.m. in Statesboro, Ga.

A few Wofford items of note heading into Saturday afternoon's contest:

•Point guard Mike Lenzly is tied for the league lead with four double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (15.4 ppg), rebounding (6.8 rpg), and assists (3.9 apg). He has played all 210 minutes, including two overtime contests, in the Terriers' opening five SoCon games.

Lenzly posted the first triple-double in Wofford history with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 win over Chattanooga last year.

•Lee Nixon (15.1 ppg) scored 27 points in Monday's Chattanooga game and has had at least 24 points in three of the last six contests.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Jan. 19, 2002, at Georgia Southern, Hanner Fieldhouse (4,378), Statesboro, Ga.; 1 p.m.

The Game

The Wofford basketball team (9-8, 3-2) travels to Georgia Southern (8-7, 2-3) in a key SoCon South Division contest to be regionally-televised on FOX Sports Net South.

The Terriers and Eagles split a pair of meetings last year with each team winning on the opposing home court. Wofford took an 82-74 decision in Statesboro while Georgia Southern won 65-60 in Spartanburg.

Worth Noting

•Point guard Mike Lenzy is tied for the league lead with four double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists. He has played all 210 minutes in the Terriers' opening five SoCon games.

Lenzy posted the first triple-double in Wofford history with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 win over Chattanooga last year.

•Lee Nixon scored 27 points in Monday's Chattanooga game and has had at least 24 points in three of the last six contests.

•Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

Meet The Head Coach

•Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of this season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fifth in winning percentage with a 234-220 mark (.515). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Battles

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford is among "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Bowling Green, Gonzaga, and Western Kentucky are the top three-ranked teams.

Where Are They Now?

All four of last year's Wofford seniors earned their degrees. Listed below are their current situations:

- Brandon Boyce is in medical school at the Medical College of Georgia.

- Ian Chadwick is pursuing professional basketball with Europe his likely destination.

- Bishop Ravenel is in law school at the University of Richmond.

- Terenthial White is a financial analyst with Advance America in Spartanburg.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October.

Lethal Weapon 3

- Wofford's three-guard tandem of Mike Lenzly (15.4 ppg), Lee Nixon (15.1 ppg), and Justin Stephens (10.6 ppg) averages 41.1 points per game, representing 59.2 percent of Wofford's season mark (69.4 points).

- Lenzly (44), Nixon (32), and Stephens (18) have also combined for 94 of Wofford's 128 3-pointers this year (73.4 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continued when it came to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the nation for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Triple-Doubles

Mike Lenzly has already flirted four times with his second career triple-double:

Opponent	Stats
Chattanooga (Jan. 14)	17 pts., 7 reb., 6 asst.
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

The Only One...

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (15.4 ppg), rebounding (6.8 rpg), and assists (3.9 apg).

and a Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and 10th in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 6.8 boards per game.

The 6-foot-3 point guard is also seventh in the SoCon with 2.8 of offensive rebounds each contest.

- Lenzly tied a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 victory over The Citadel. He has 12 rejections in the last four contests.

Mike Lenzly

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Streak Over

The following are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2):

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at that time.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

Mike Young
Associate Head Coach

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Same Five

Wofford has had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Grant Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in each game this season.

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzly has played all 210 minutes in Wofford's five SoCon games, including 45 in back-to-back overtime contests against The Citadel and College of Charleston.

Something About CofC

Dating back to last season, each of the last four games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession in regulation.

No More Chadwicks

With the graduation of three-time All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, Wofford is taking the court this season without a Chadwick in the starting lineup for the first time in nine years.

Prior to Ian's arrival, which coincided with the Terriers' first four years of SoCon play (1997-01), older brother Seth Chadwick was a four-year starter for the Terriers (1993-97).

Wofford is Chadwick-less for the first time since the 1992-93 campaign.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

- Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has surprised the SoCon in three of its four seasons in the league.

- The Terriers (3-2) are tied for second in the South Division this year after being a consensus sixth-place pick.

- Wofford placed third in the South in 1999-00 after being a fourth-place pick.

- The Terriers were third in the South in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

- Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

Wofford had just three "double-doubles" last season but has already seen six recorded this year:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Quick Starts

•Wofford's 9-8 record represents its best start to a season in seven years of Division I play. It's also the top start overall through 17 games since a 12-5 mark in the 1994-95 campaign, the final year in Division II.

It is the latest in a Division I campaign that Wofford has been over .500. Following a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel on Jan. 7, Wofford was three games above the .500 mark for the first time in its Division I era.

Wofford opens each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

•The Terriers are 3-2 in the SoCon for their best start since joining the league in 1997-98.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with six of the 12 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers have just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who have played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Mike Lenzly and Lee Nixon have gone back and forth all year in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Lenzly (15.4 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Nixon (15.1 ppg) by virtue of four more points on the season (261-to-257).

Defensive Stops

•Wofford tops the SoCon in field-goal percentage defense by holding its five league opponents to a 38.6 mark.

The Terriers also rank second in the league for all games in 3-point field-goal percentage defense (30.2).

The previous low was accomplished in a 55-48 victory over Georgia Southern (Jan. 5, 1998). That contest was also the Terriers' first-ever SoCon win.

From the Charity Stripe

•Wofford averages 19.2 trips to the free-throw line in its nine victories compared to 16.4 in the eight losses.

The Terriers are shooting 64.2 percent (111-of-173) at the charity stripe in their wins compared to 61.8 (81-of-131) in the defeats.

•Wofford ranks third in the SoCon at 7.7 3-pointers per game, sinking 31 more treys (123-to-92) than its opposition.

Handling the Ball

The Terriers top the SoCon in committing the fewest turnovers per game at 12.6.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14). The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Inter mont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School in Greenville, S.C., Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

Myers made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points.

Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup to give Wofford a 73-42 lead with 6:52 remaining. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He later added a free-throw to finish with four points.

A Nailbiting Team

Four of Wofford's five SoCon games have come down to the final second:

- Jan. 2 - Edwin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give Wofford a 66-64 victory at the College of Charleston.

- Jan. 7 - Travis Cantrell of The Citadel misses a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer in regulation that would have won the game for the Bulldogs. The Terriers go on to a 73-64 overtime victory.

- Jan. 12 - College of Charleston's Jeff Bolton hits a 12-foot jump shot with 0.8 seconds left to force overtime before CofC pulls away for a 73-61 win.

- Jan. 14 - Justin Stephens sees his reverse layup fall off the rim as the final buzzer sounds in a 79-77 Terrier loss at Chattanooga.

Homecomings

Wofford guards Mike Lenzly (Jonesboro), Justin Stephens (Newnan), and Adrien Borders (Lilburn) are Georgia natives.

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with 17 minutes left before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the win.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman (Jan. 5) represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Six of Wofford's eight losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and members of the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 34-38 record (.472), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-5
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-8
Davidson	2-4
East Tennessee State	0-4
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	6-2
UNC Greensboro	3-1
VMI	2-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	34-38

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the seventh-best record in the league. It's a mark made very impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	44-9 (.830)
2. Appalachian State	47-21 (.691)
3. Davidson	45-23 (.662)
4. East Tennessee State	38-30 (.559)
5. Chattanooga	34-33 (.507)
6. UNC Greensboro	34-34 (.500)

Wofford College boasts a higher SAT average (1212) than enrollment (1100).

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

WOFFORD VS. GEORGIA SOUTHERN

32 Sam Daniels F

6-9 • 225 • Fr.

Asheville, N.C. (Carolina Day)

2001-02: A promising and highly recruited newcomer... can play both low post positions... has performed very well the last two games... had a pair of key second-half baskets on the way to five points in Monday's Chattanooga contest... tied for team-high rebounding honors with seven boards in last Saturday's College of Charleston game... tops the Terriers with a 48.1 field-goal percentage (25-of-52)... averages 14 minutes per game... posted his first collegiate double-double with 14 points and 14 rebounds in the 94-42 win over Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)... his layup on a strong move inside pulled Wofford within six points of South Carolina with 14:36 left in the game (Nov. 28)... had a jumper with six seconds remaining in the first half to give the Terriers a 45-34 halftime lead at Clemson (Nov. 24)...

Did You Know: Just the fifth early signee in the 17-year tenure of Head Coach Richard Johnson, Daniels scored 29 points in a game last year versus an Oak Hill (Va.) Academy team that was ranked No. 1 in the nation.

Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Game 1 -- Memphis 88, Wofford 61 (Guardians Classic)

November 13, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Wofford hung tough with No. 12 Memphis before the Tigers pulled away in the second half in front of a crowd of 13,586, the largest to ever see the Terriers play. Freshman Justin Stephens outplayed heralded Memphis rookie Dajuan Wagner, outscoring the 2001 National High School Player of the Year in addition to posting more assists and fewer turnovers. The Terriers forced Tiger Head Coach John Calipari to burn three first-half timeouts. At different points in the game, Wofford had three freshmen on the court at the same time. Stephens topped all scorers with 19 points while Kenny Hastie had a game-high 12 rebounds, one shy of a career-best.

Game 2 -- Wofford 56, Sacramento St. 46 (Guardians Classic)

November 14, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Mike Lenzly's 4-point play keyed a 19-3 rally over the final 10:52 as Wofford pulled away from Sacramento State for a 56-46 victory at the Guardians Classic. The Terriers held the Hornets without a field goal during an 8:25 stretch. Sacramento State's 46 points represented the lowest point total allowed by Wofford to a Division I team since the Terriers joined those ranks in the 1995-96 campaign. Lenzy topped both teams with 19 points and a career-high 11 rebounds. The 4-point play, just the third in Wofford history, evened the game at 43-43. Lee Nixon also had a chance at a 4-point play during the Terrier run, but he missed the free-throw attempt.

Game 4 -- Clemson 85, Wofford 82 November 24, 2001 Clemson, S.C.

Wofford built an 11-point halftime lead before seeing Clemson rally and then hold off a late Terrier charge in an 85-82 Tiger victory at Littlejohn Coliseum.

Lee Nixon scored a game-high 25 points while Mike Lenzy added 20, including six 3-pointers, and freshman Justin Stephens scored 18 to pace a Wofford attack that saw the Terriers hit 15-of-32 3-pointers (46.9 percent).

Wofford's biggest margin of the night came when Lenzy scored on a layup to give the Terriers a 41-27 lead with 3:02 left in the first half. It capped a 26-9 Wofford run.

Clemson's size advantage inside began to wear Wofford down in the second half. A Chey Christie layup allowed the Tigers to regain the lead at 61-60 with 10:04 to play. After a long 3-pointer from the wing by Nixon tied the game at 67-67 with 7:58 remaining, Clemson went on a 12-4 run to take its largest lead of the night at 79-71 on a Ray Henderson 3-point play with 1:38 left.

However, Wofford chipped away at the deficit. Another deep three by Nixon pulled the Terriers within 81-79 with 55 seconds to play. After Clemson's Chris Hobbs missed a layup on the other end, Wofford came down the court trailing by two with 34 seconds remaining. Dwon Clifton then made a key steal for Clemson, setting the stage for a pair of Ed Scott free-throws which gave the Tigers an 83-79 lead with 24 seconds remaining.

Nixon hit an off-balance bank shot from the top of the key to pull Wofford within 83-82 with seven seconds to play. Christie was then fouled and hit a pair of free-throws to provide the final margin of 85-82 with six seconds left. Wofford had a last chance to force overtime, but Lenzy missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer.

Kenny Hastie equaled a career-high with 13 rebounds, the third time in four games he reached double figures in boards.

The Terriers shot 45.7 percent on the night after a 54.5 mark in the first half. The Tigers shot 57.6 percent in the second half to finish at 52.3.

Game 5 -- Wofford 77, Florida A&M 72 November 26, 2001 Spartanburg, S.C.

Kenny Hastie had career-high totals of 20 points and 14 rebounds while Mike Lenzy flirted with the second triple-double of his career in leading Wofford to a 77-72 victory over Florida A&M. Lenzy scored 20 of his 24 points in the second half while adding a career-best 14 rebounds to go with seven assists. Lee Nixon hit a 3-pointer and added a free-throw to give Wofford a 70-63 lead with 2:50 to play. After the Rattlers closed within 72-70 with 1:15 left, Grant Sterley sank a pair of free-throws with 24 seconds left to help Wofford increase its lead to 74-70. Wofford held a 46-35 rebounding margin. The Terriers shot 52.2 percent in the second half after a 35.3 mark in the opening 20 minutes.

November 28, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Rolando Howell had 17 points and 10 rebounds while Jamel Bradley added 15 points on five 3-pointers to lead South Carolina to a 64-49 victory over Wofford before a capacity crowd of 3,500 at the Benjamin Johnson Arena in Spartanburg.

The Gamecocks limited the Terriers to 30.4 percent shooting while holding a 39-28 rebounding edge. USC opened the game with an 11-2 run and led by as many as 15 points at 27-12. However, Wofford held USC scoreless the final 5:17 of the first half and trailed just 27-18 at the intermission.

Wofford cut the deficit to six points on two occasions, the last being 35-29 on a Justin Stephens jumper with 14:06 to play. A Lee Nixon basket and a 3-pointer pulled Wofford within 42-34 with 9:59 remaining. Three-pointers by Bradley and Aaron Lucas then keyed a 14-3 run as the Gamecocks pulled away late.

Game 10 -- Wofford 87, Virginia Inter mont 59

December 15, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action as the Wofford men's basketball team rolled to an 87-59 victory over Virginia Inter mont.

Myers made his collegiate debut when he entered the game with 7:54 remaining and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead. Myers made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points. Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup to give Wofford a 73-42 lead with 6:52 remaining. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 at the 5:35 mark.

At the conclusion of the game, Myers was carried off the floor by his teammates.

After trailing 9-8 in the opening 5:55, Wofford went on a 27-8 run to take a 35-17 lead with 6:17 left in the first half. The Terriers began the spurt with eight straight points from Mike Lenzly, who totaled 12 points and 10 rebounds to go with five assists and no turnovers.

Game 11 -- Wofford 77, Reinhardt 55

December 18, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Kenny Hastie tied a single-game school record with five blocks while four Terriers scored in double figures as Wofford extended its winning streak to three games with a 77-55 victory over Reinhardt. Sam Daniels had five points to key an 11-0 run midway through the first half to give Wofford a double-digit lead it would not relinquish.

Game 17 -- Chattanooga 79, Wofford 77

January 14, 2002

Chattanooga, Tenn.

Wofford dropped its second straight heartbreaker as a tough night at the free-throw line resulted in a 79-77 defeat at Chattanooga.

The Terriers missed an opportunity to force overtime at the final buzzer when a reverse layup attempt by Justin Stephens hung on the rim before falling out.

The see-saw game had 21 lead changes and 11 ties.

Wofford was just 20-of-35 (57.1 percent) at the charity stripe, including 13-of-24 (54.2 percent) in the second half.

Trailing 73-70 with 2:07 to play, the Terriers took a 76-73 lead with 57 seconds remaining when Lee Nixon and Grant Sterley hit back-to-back 3-pointers. Nixon topped both teams with 27 points for the second-best game of his Wofford career.

After a Tim Parker bucket pulled the Mocs within 76-75 at the 49-second mark, Nixon had a short jumper go in-and-out with 32 seconds left. Parker then hit the go-ahead basket for Chattanooga with 14 ticks remaining to put the Mocs on top 77-76.

Following a Wofford turnover, Petie Spaulding was fouled with eight seconds remaining and made both free-throws to give UTC a 79-76 lead. Stephens hit one of two free-throws with 7.4 seconds left to pull Wofford within 79-77.

UTC then had a chance to ice the game at the line, but Parker missed both attempts. Mike Lenzly grabbed the defensive board and fed Stephens who raced down the court, but his layup attempt missed and Chattanooga kept its home record perfect at 9-0.

Georgia Southern held off a late Wofford rally to defeat the Terriers, 86-73, this afternoon in Statesboro, Ga.

The Eagles scored the game's opening seven points and built a 15-4 lead before the Terriers went on a 15-6 run to cut the deficit to 21-19 on a Lee Nixon 3-pointer. Freshman guard Justin Stephens keyed the spurt with six of his career-high 22 points.

Georgia Southern (9-7, 3-3), the preseason favorite in the SoCon South Division, responded with a 14-2 run to regain a 14-point margin on the way to a 50-35 halftime lead.

After the Eagles built a 63-43 lead with 13:15 remaining, the Terriers (9-9, 3-3) began their rally. Wofford cut the deficit to just 74-67 on a pair of free-throws by Stephens with 3:33 to play. However, the Terriers went scoreless the next 2:43 as the Eagles sealed the game at the free-throw line.

Georgia Southern shot 54.8 percent in the first half, including 8-of-13 (61.5 percent) from 3-point range. The Terriers outrebounded the Eagles by a 43-36 margin, including 15-to-8 on the offensive end, but were victimized by 21 turnovers.

Stephens led four Terriers in double figures. Grant Sterley had a season-high 13 points, just one shy of a career best. Nixon chipped in 13 points while Mike Lenzy had 11 points, a team-high eight rebounds, six assists, and three steals as he played all 40 minutes for the sixth consecutive game.

Julius Jenkins led the Eagles with 17 points while backcourt mate Sean Peterson contributed 15.

Wofford closes its stretch of three consecutive road games when it travels to East Tennessee State on Wednesday in a 7:30 p.m. contest.

Wofford College point guard Mike Lenzly has been named the Southern Conference Player of the Week for games Jan. 2-7.

Lenzly played all 125 minutes as the Terriers opened SoCon play with three victories to take over first place in the South Division. He is the only player in the SoCon to currently rank in the Top 10 in scoring (15.1 ppg.), rebounding (6.7 rpg.), and assists (3.9 apg.). He is also tied for the SoCon lead in double-doubles (points and rebounds) with four.

The 6-foot-3, 180-pound junior averaged 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while totaling eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He shot 45.0 percent from the field (18-of-40), including a 9-of-21 mark on 3-pointers (42.9 percent).

Lenzly had 20 points and eight rebounds while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots last night as the Terriers posted a 73-64 overtime victory over The Citadel.

The Jonesboro, Ga., native had 21 points, six boards, three blocks, and two assists in Saturday's 59-49 win over Furman.

He posted his fourth double-double of the season with 13 points and 11 rebounds in a 66-64 victory at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2).

Lenzly was also the SoCon Player of the Week last year (Feb. 13-19) when he averaged 26.0 points, 7.7 rebounds, and 6.3 assists in Wofford wins over Chattanooga, Appalachian State, and Western Carolina.

The Terriers (9-6, 3-0) return to action Saturday when they host the College of Charleston (11-3, 1-2) at 7 p.m. in the Benjamin Johnson Arena in Spartanburg, S.C.

Attached are .pdf files with Wofford's notes and stats for Saturday's 7 p.m. home game with the College of Charleston.

A consensus sixth-place pick in the South, the Terriers (9-6, 3-0) are leading the division and are the SoCon's lone undefeated team in league play.

Wofford defeated CofC (11-3, 1-2), 66-64, in the SoCon opener for both teams (Jan. 2) when Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer. Dating back to last year, each of the last three meetings between the Terriers and Cougars have come down to the final possession.

SoCon Player of the Week Mike Lenzly is tied for the league lead with four double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists. He has played all 125 minutes in Wofford's three SoCon games.

Lee Nixon (14.3 ppg) is listed as doubtful for the CofC game after suffering a slightly separated left shoulder in the opening two minutes of Monday's 73-64 overtime win against The Citadel. Nixon had 25 points in the first meeting between the Terriers and Cougars this season.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Jan. 12, 2002, vs. College of Charleston, Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500), Spartanburg, S.C.; 7 p.m.

The Game

The Wofford basketball team (9-6, 3-0) hosts the College of Charleston (11-3, 1-2) in a key SoCon South Division game.

A consensus sixth-place pick in the South, the Terriers are leading the division and are the SoCon's lone undefeated team in league play.

Wofford defeated CofC, 66-64, in the SoCon opener for both teams (Jan. 2) when Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer. Dating back to last year, each of the last three meetings between the teams have come down to the final possession.

Worth Noting

- SoCon Player of the Week Mike Lenzly is tied for the league lead with four double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists.

- Charleston-area native Lee Nixon (14.3 ppg) is listed as doubtful for the CofC game after suffering a slightly separated left shoulder in the opening two minutes of Monday's game with The Citadel. Nixon had 25 points in the Terriers' 66-64 win over the Cougars on Jan. 2.

- Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

Meet The Head Coach

- Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of this season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fourth in winning percentage with a 234-218 mark (.518). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Rivalry

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford is among "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Bowling Green, Gonzaga, and Butler are the top three-ranked teams.

Where Are They Now?

All four of last year's Wofford seniors earned their degrees. Listed below are their current situations:

- Brandon Boyce is in medical school at the Medical College of Georgia.

- Ian Chadwick is pursuing professional basketball with Europe his likely destination.

- Bishop Ravenel is in law school at the University of Richmond.

- Terenthial White is a financial analyst with Advance America in Spartanburg.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie, Wofford's lone senior, took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October.

Lethal Weapon 3

- Wofford's three-guard tandem of Mike Lenzly (15.1 ppg), Lee Nixon (14.3 ppg), and Justin Stephens (10.7 ppg) averages 40.1 points per game, representing 57.7 percent of Wofford's season mark (69.5 points).

- Lenzly (40), Nixon (27), and Stephens (17) have also combined for 84 of Wofford's 114 3-pointers this year (73.7 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continues when it comes to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the country for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Another Triple-Double

Mike Lenzly has already flirted three times this season with the second triple-double of his Wofford career:

Opponent	Stats
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

There's Only Two

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (15.1 ppg), rebounding (6.7 rpg), and assists (3.9 apg).

He's the Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and ninth in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 6.7 boards per game.

The 6-foot-3 point guard is also fourth in the SoCon with 2.9 offensive rebounds each contest.

- Lenzly is fourth in the league in assist/turnover ratio with a near 2:1 mark of 58 assists and just 33 turnovers on the year.

Mike Lenzly

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime win against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Streak Over

The following are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2):

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CoFC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at that time.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Nailbiters

Each of the last three games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession.

Edvin Masic hit a baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give the Terriers a 66-64 win over the Cougars on Jan. 2 in Charleston.

Last year, the Terriers had the ball with a chance to win the game on the final possession before dropping 56-55 and 64-62 decisions.

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzy has played all 125 minutes in Wofford's three SoCon games, including 45 in Monday's 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

No More Chadwicks

With the graduation of three-time All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, Wofford is taking the court this season without a Chadwick in the starting lineup for the first time in nine years.

Prior to Ian's arrival, which coincided with the Terriers' first four years of SoCon membership (1997-01), older brother Seth Chadwick was a four-year starter for the Terriers (1993-97).

Wofford is Chadwick-less for the first time since the 1992-93 campaign.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

- Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has surprised the SoCon in three of its four seasons in the league.

The Terriers placed third in the South Division in 1999-00 after being a preseason fourth-place pick by the SoCon coaches.

The Terriers placed third in the South Division in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

- The Terriers have a 2-0 SoCon mark this year after being a consensus sixth-place pick.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

Wofford had just three "double-doubles" last season but has already seen six recorded this year:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Quick Starts

•Wofford's 9-6 record represents its best start to a season in seven years of Division I play. It's also the top start overall through 15 games since a 10-5 mark in the 1994-95 campaign, the final year in Division II.

It is the latest in a Division I campaign that Wofford has been over .500 while also marking the first time the Terriers have been three games above the .500 mark in its Division I era.

Wofford opens each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

•The Terriers have opened 3-0 in SoCon play for the first time since joining the league in 1997-98.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with seven of the 13 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers have just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who have played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Mike Lenzly and Lee Nixon have gone back and forth all season in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Lenzly (15.1 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Nixon (14.3 ppg) by virtue of 13 more points on the season (227-to-214).

Nixon was scoreless in just two minutes of action against The Citadel as he left the game with a slightly separated left shoulder.

Defensive Stops

Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in the 1995-96 campaign.

The previous low was accomplished in a 55-48 victory over Georgia Southern (Jan. 5, 1998). That contest was also the Terriers' first-ever SoCon win.

Shooting the Rock

•Wofford has made 95 more trips to the free-throw line (173-78) in its nine victories compared to the six losses.

The Terriers are shooting 64.2 percent (111-of-173) at the charity stripe in their wins compared to 65.4 percent (51-of-78) in the defeats.

•Wofford is averaging 7.6 3-pointers per game, sinking 28 more treys (114-to-86) than its opposition.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14).

The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

Same Five

Wofford has had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Grant Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in each game this season.

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Inter mont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School in Greenville, S.C., Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

Myers made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points. Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup to give Wofford a 73-42 lead with 6:52 remaining. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He was fouled on a 3-pointer with 1:34 to play and made 1-of-3 attempts from the line to finish the game with four points.

"It was a dream come true to play in a college basketball game," Myers said. "It was a great opportunity. I just tried to shoot the ball as best I could, like I've done thousands of times in practice."

"Brett is a hard worker and one of the best managers we've ever had," Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson said. "Brett thought we were kidding when we asked him if he had his paperwork in to make sure he was eligible.

"When Brett got in, our intensity picked up because we started setting screens and making crisper passes trying to get him involved. It meant a lot to our players to see someone work so hard and get rewarded. Brett does so much behind the scenes. He is such an important part of our program."

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with just over 17 minutes to play before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the victory.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Wofford's six losses this season have come to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech), and one each from the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 34-36 record (.486), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-4
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-7
Davidson	2-4
East Tennessee State	0-4
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	6-2
UNC Greensboro	3-1
VMI	2-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	34-36

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the sixth-best record in the league. It's a mark made very impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	42-9 (.824)
2. Appalachian State	46-20 (.697)
3. Davidson	43-23 (.652)
4. East Tennessee State	37-29 (.561)
5. Chattanooga	33-32 (.508)
6. Wofford	32-33 (.492)
7. UNC Greensboro	32-34 (.485)
8. Georgia Southern	31-34 (.477)
9. The Citadel	25-39 (.391)
10. VMI	23-43 (.348)
11. Furman	21-43 (.328)
12. Western Carolina	20-46 (.303)

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

2001-02: An athletic newcomer to the backcourt... was simply phenomenal in Monday's 73-64 overtime win over The Citadel... played a career-high 42 minutes in the absence of an injured Lee Nixon... entered the game averaging 12 minutes a contest... had career-high totals of 17 points and four assists... scored the game-tying layup with under a minute to play as well as the first basket in overtime on another driving layup... a key contributor while playing 18 minutes in the 59-49 win over Furman (Jan. 5)... equaled a season-high with four rebounds while adding four points, two assists, and a steal... has played very well over the last eight games, averaging 7.8 points and shooting 47.6 percent from the field (20-of-42)... had two assists and no turnovers in 12 minutes during the 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2)... places fourth on the team in assists (20) and steals (12)... averages 5.4 points and 14 minutes per game on the season... is 21-of-26 (80.8 percent) at the free-throw line... topped Wofford with 10 points at NC State (Dec. 5), including six to key a 12-0 run that gave the Terriers a first-half lead against the Wolfpack... had season-high totals of 13 points and four rebounds in the 94-42 win over Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)...

Did You Know: Borders won the state title in the triple jump last year while competing in the highest classification in the state of Georgia. He was one of four Division I signees off last year's Berkmar team. Borders played on two state championship teams with his high school retiring his jersey.

Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Hanahan, S.C. (Hanahan)

2001-02: All-SoCon candidate averaging 14.3 points... one of the more exciting players in the league... ranks 12th in the SoCon in scoring... listed as doubtful for Saturday's College of Charleston game... suffered a slight left shoulder separation while going for a loose ball just 2:10 into Monday's 73-64 overtime win over The Citadel... his top three games this season have come in major contests -- the 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) as well as near upsets of Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)... 21 of his 25 points against Charleston came in the second half, including a spectacular reverse dunk off an alley-oop pass from Justin Stephens... the dunk and subsequent free-throw tied the game with under four minutes to play and gave the Terriers momentum... also hit a slashing floater to even the contest with less than a minute left... had a game-high 24 points as the Terriers took an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)... added a career-best seven rebounds against the Yellow Jackets... torched Clemson for 25 points, including 16 in the first half, as Wofford built a 45-34 lead at the intermission (Nov. 24)... had five straight points, including a 3-pointer and breakaway dunk, to key a 14-5 run midway through the second half as the Terriers pulled away from Furman in a 59-49 victory (Jan. 5)... places second on the team in 3-pointers (27) and third in assists (29), steals (14)...

Did You Know: Nixon showcased his talents last year with a 31-point explosion in an 83-73 win over Davidson. He converted just the second 4-point play in Wofford history in a game at The Citadel. Nixon also had eight points in a 2:42 span against Boston College.

Game 6 -- South Carolina 64, Wofford 49

November 28, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Rolando Howell had 17 points and 10 rebounds while Jamel Bradley added 15 points on five 3-pointers to lead South Carolina to a 64-49 victory over Wofford before a capacity crowd of 3,500 at the Benjamin Johnson Arena in Spartanburg.

The Gamecocks limited the Terriers to 30.4 percent shooting while holding a 39-28 rebounding edge. USC opened the game with an 11-2 run and led by as many as 15 points at 27-12. However, Wofford held USC scoreless the final 5:17 of the first half and trailed just 27-18 at the intermission.

Wofford cut the deficit to six points on two occasions, the last being 35-29 on a Justin Stephens jumper with 14:06 to play. A Lee Nixon basket and a 3-pointer pulled Wofford within 42-34 with 9:59 remaining. Three-pointers by Bradley and Aaron Lucas then keyed a 14-3 run as the Gamecocks pulled away late.

Game 7 -- Nebraska 65, Wofford 46

December 2, 2001

Lincoln, Neb.

Grant Sterley opened the game with a 3-pointer and the Terriers had an early 8-7 lead before Nebraska went on a 25-10 run while controlling the boards to earn a 65-46 victory. It was the first-ever meeting between the Cornhuskers and Terriers. Wofford shot 47.6 percent in the opening 20 minutes but trailed 43-27 at the intermission as Nebraska held a 9-1 edge on the offensive glass. The Huskers had 18 offensive boards in the game and a 45-31 overall rebounding margin.

Game 12 -- Georgia Tech 79, Wofford 70 December 21, 2001 Atlanta, Ga.

The Wofford basketball team built an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech before dropping a 79-70 decision.

After the Yellow Jackets scored the game's opening four points, Wofford stormed back to take its largest lead of the afternoon at 29-17 when Mike Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers just 23 seconds apart with 8:10 left in the first half. Lenzly finished the game with 22 points, seven assists, and six rebounds.

The Yellow Jackets closed to within 35-32 at the intermission when B.J. Elders knocked in a 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The Terriers came out strong in the second half. A 3-pointer by Grant Sterley and a pair of Lenzly free-throws built the Wofford lead back to 45-34 with 17:05 to play. However, Georgia Tech's press sparked a 24-5 run. In the middle of the spurt was a 3-pointer by Halston Lane to give the Yellow Jackets the lead for good at 51-50 with 9:42 remaining.

With Georgia Tech on top 58-50, the Terriers countered with two Kenny Hastie free-throws and a Lee Nixon layup to close within 58-54 with 7:31 left. Nixon topped Wofford with 24 points and a team-high and career-best seven rebounds.

However, a 3-pointer by Elder began a run of 11 straight Yellow Jacket points to put Georgia Tech in control at 69-54 with 3:38 remaining.

Game 13 -- Wofford 66, College of Charleston 64 January 2, 2002 Charleston, S.C.

Lee Nixon tied the game at 62-62 on a slashing floater with 57 seconds left. Charleston's Jeff Bolton then missed a shot in the lane, Mike Lenzly grabbed the rebound and went the length of the court for a layup to give Wofford a 64-62 lead with 18 seconds left. Charleston's Shannon Chambers hit a pair of free throws with 10.8 seconds remaining to tie the game at 64-64.

On the final possession, Lenzly again brought the ball downcourt and found Masic open on the baseline for the game-winner.

Charleston shot 57.1 percent in the first half and took a 32-24 lead at the intermission. The Terriers controlled the second half, outscoring CofC 42-32 and hitting on 53.3 percent of their shots.

Charleston stretched its lead to 10 points at 34-24 with 19 minutes left on a dunk by Mike Benton.

Nixon's 3-pointer with 13:58 left capped a 12-2 Wofford run and tied the game at 36-36. Nixon finished with a game-high 25 points, including 21 in the second half.

With 3:50 to play, Justin Stephens made an alley-oop pass to Nixon who converted it into a spectacular reverse dunk while being fouled on the play. His subsequent free-throw tied the game at 58-58 and gave the Terriers momentum down the stretch.

Lenzly finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds, the fourth double-double on the year for the Terrier point guard.

WOFFORD VS. COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON

Game 14 -- Wofford 59, Furman 49

January 5, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

Mike Lenzly had 21 points and six rebounds while playing 40 minutes for the second straight game as Wofford held off Furman for a 59-49 victory in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

With the game tied at 33-33 and 9:53 to play, Lenzly and Lee Nixon each had five points to key a 14-5 run that gave Wofford a 47-38 lead with 5:22 left. Nixon began the spurt with a 3-pointer and breakaway dunk. Furman closed within five points on three occasions, the last time coming with 1:27 remaining. However, the Terriers outscored the Paladins 7-2 the remainder of the contest to provide the final margin.

The Terriers trailed 7-0 to start the game before eventually forging a 21-15 halftime lead. Furman scored the opening 10 points of the second half to go on top 25-21, before Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers to put Wofford back in the lead.

Game 15 -- Wofford 73, The Citadel 64 (OT)

January 7, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

With leading scorer Lee Nixon leaving the game in the opening 2:10 with a slightly separated left shoulder, freshmen Justin Stephens and Adrien Borders stepped up in his absence with career-high scoring nights as Wofford gutted out a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

Mike Lenzly played all 45 minutes and had another brilliant game for the Terriers with 20 points and eight rebounds. He also tied a single-game school record with five blocks while committing just one turnover.

The Terriers trailed by as many as nine points in the first half and by seven with 10:21 to play before rallying. Wofford never led in the second half and forced the extra period when Borders scored on a driving layup to even the game at 61-61 with 54 seconds left.

Borders then opened the scoring in overtime with another layup while Grant Sterley added two free-throws to put the Terriers on top for good.

Attached are .pdf files with Wofford's game notes and stats for tomorrow night's 7 p.m. men's basketball game at Chattanooga.

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 season, the Terriers (9-7, 3-1) have split eight meetings with the Mocs (9-8, 2-2) with the home team winning each game.

Wofford point guard and SoCon Player of the Week Mike Lenzly posted the first triple-double in school history with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in last year's 105-69 victory over Chattanooga in Spartanburg. Lenzly has played all 170 minutes in Wofford's opening four league games and is the lone player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Jan. 14, 2002, at Chattanooga, McKenzie Arena (11,218), Chattanooga, Tenn.; 7 p.m.

The Game

The Wofford basketball team (9-7, 3-1) begins a stretch of three consecutive road games when it travels to Chattanooga (9-8, 2-2).

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has split eight meetings against UTC with the home team winning each game.

The Mocs took a 74-61 decision in Chattanooga last year before the Terriers answered with a 105-69 victory in Spartanburg.

Worth Noting

•SoCon Player of the Week Mike Lenzly is tied for the league lead with four double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists. He has played all 170 minutes in the Terriers' opening four SoCon games.

Lenzly posted the first triple-double in Wofford history with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in last year's 105-69 win over Chattanooga.

•The Terriers top the SoCon in league games by holding its four opponents to a 36.5 field-goal percentage.

•Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

Meet The Head Coach

•Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of this season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fourth in winning percentage with a 234-219 mark (.517). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

[^]SoCon Tournament

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Battles

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford is among "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Bowling Green, Gonzaga, and Butler are the top three-ranked teams.

Where Are They Now?

All four of last year's Wofford seniors earned their degrees. Listed below are their current situations:

- Brandon Boyce is in medical school at the Medical College of Georgia.
- Ian Chadwick is pursuing professional basketball with Europe his likely destination.
- Bishop Ravenel is in law school at the University of Richmond.
- Terenthial White is a financial analyst with Advance America in Spartanburg.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie, Wofford's lone senior, took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October.

Lethal Weapon 3

- Wofford's three-guard tandem of Mike Lenzly (15.3 ppg), Lee Nixon (14.4 ppg), and Justin Stephens (10.7 ppg) averages 40.4 points per game, representing 58.6 percent of Wofford's season mark (68.9 points).

- Lenzly (42), Nixon (30), and Stephens (18) have also combined for 90 of Wofford's 123 3-pointers this year (73.2 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continues when it comes to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the country for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Another Triple-Double

Mike Lenzly has already flirted three times this season with the second triple-double of his Wofford career:

Opponent	Stats
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

There's Only Two

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (15.3 ppg), rebounding (6.8 rpg), and assists (3.8 apg).

He's the Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and ninth in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 6.8 boards per game.

The 6-foot-3 point guard is also fifth in the SoCon with 2.9 offensive rebounds each contest.

- Lenzly tied a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 victory over The Citadel. He has 10 rejections in the last three contests.

Mike Lenzly

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Streak Over

The following are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2):

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at that time.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Same Five

Wofford has had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Grant Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in each game this season.

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzly has played all 170 minutes in Wofford's four SoCon games, including 45 in back-to-back overtime contests against The Citadel and College of Charleston.

Nailbiters

Dating back to last season, each of the last four games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession in regulation.

No More Chadwicks

With the graduation of three-time All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, Wofford is taking the court this season without a Chadwick in the starting lineup for the first time in nine years.

Prior to Ian's arrival, which coincided with the Terriers' first four years of SoCon play (1997-01), older brother Seth Chadwick was a four-year starter for the Terriers (1993-97).

Wofford is Chadwick-less for the first time since the 1992-93 campaign.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

- Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has surprised the SoCon in three of its four seasons in the league.

The Terriers placed third in the South Division in 1999-00 after being a preseason fourth-place pick by the SoCon coaches.

The Terriers placed third in the South Division in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

- The Terriers have a 2-0 SoCon mark this year after being a consensus sixth-place pick.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

Wofford had just three "double-doubles" last season but has already seen six recorded this year:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Quick Starts

•Wofford's 9-7 record represents its best start to a season in seven years of Division I play. It's also the top start overall through 16 games since an 11-5 mark in the 1994-95 campaign, the final year in Division II.

It is the latest in a Division I campaign that Wofford has been over .500. Prior to Saturday's College of Charleston game, Wofford was three games above the .500 mark for the first time in its Division I era.

Wofford opens each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

•The Terriers are 3-1 in SoCon play for the first time since joining the league in 1997-98.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with seven of the 12 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers have just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who have played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Mike Lenzly and Lee Nixon have gone back and forth all season in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Lenzly (15.3 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Nixon (14.4 ppg) by virtue of 14 more points on the season (244-to-230).

Nixon was scoreless in two minutes of action last Monday against The Citadel when he left the game with a slightly separated left shoulder.

Defensive Stops

•Wofford tops the SoCon by holding its four league opponents to a 36.5 field-goal percentage. Chattanooga and the College of Charleston are second at 39.0.

The Terriers also rank first overall in 3-point field-goal percentage defense (29.7).

The previous low was accomplished in a 55-48 victory over Georgia Southern (Jan. 5, 1998). That contest was also the Terriers' first-ever SoCon win.

Shooting the Rock

•Wofford averages 19.2 trips to the free-throw line in its nine victories compared to 13.7 in the seven losses.

The Terriers are shooting 64.2 percent (111-of-173) at the charity stripe in their wins compared to 63.5 percent (61-of-96) in the defeats.

•Wofford ranks third in the SoCon at 7.7 3-pointers per game, sinking 31 more treys (123-to-92) than its opposition.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14).

The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

WOFFORD VS. CHATTANOOGA

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Inter mont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School in Greenville, S.C., Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

Myers made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points. Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup to give Wofford a 73-42 lead with 6:52 remaining. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He was fouled on a 3-pointer with 1:34 to play and made 1-of-3 attempts from the line to finish the game with four points.

"It was a dream come true to play in a college basketball game," Myers said. "It was a great opportunity. I just tried to shoot the ball as best I could, like I've done thousands of times in practice."

"Brett is a hard worker and one of the best managers we've ever had," Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson said. "Brett thought we were kidding when we asked him if he had his paperwork in to make sure he was eligible.

"When Brett got in, our intensity picked up because we started setting screens and making crisper passes trying to get him involved. It meant a lot to our players to see someone work so hard and get rewarded. Brett does so much behind the scenes. He is such an important part of our program."

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with just over 17 minutes to play before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the victory.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

In addition to the College of Charleston, Wofford's losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and members of the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 34-37 record (.479), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-4
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-8
Davidson	2-4
East Tennessee State	0-4
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	6-2
UNC Greensboro	3-1
VMI	2-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	34-37

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the seventh-best record in the league which is just a game behind Chattanooga for fifth. It's a mark made very impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	43-9 (.827)
2. Appalachian State	47-20 (.701)
3. Davidson	44-23 (.657)
4. East Tennessee State	38-29 (.567)
5. Chattanooga	33-33 (.500)
6. UNC Greensboro	33-34 (.493)
7. Wofford	32-34 (.485)
8. Georgia Southern	31-35 (.470)
9. The Citadel	26-39 (.400)
10. VMI	23-44 (.343)
11. Furman	21-44 (.323)
12. Western Carolina	20-47 (.299)

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

• Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

• Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

• Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

• With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

• Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

• Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Game 1 -- Memphis 88, Wofford 61 (Guardians Classic) November 13, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Wofford hung tough with No. 12 Memphis before the Tigers pulled away in the second half in front of a crowd of 13,586, the largest to ever see the Terriers play. Freshman Justin Stephens outplayed heralded Memphis rookie Dajuan Wagner, outscoring the 2001 National High School Player of the Year in addition to posting more assists and fewer turnovers. The Terriers forced Tiger Head Coach John Calipari to burn three first-half timeouts. At different points in the game, Wofford had three freshmen on the court at the same time. Stephens topped all scorers with 19 points while Kenny Hastie had a game-high 12 rebounds, one shy of a career-best.

Memphis, Tenn.

Mike Lenzly's 4-point play keyed a 19-3 rally over the final 10:52 as Wofford pulled away from Sacramento State for a 56-46 victory at the Guardians Classic. The Terriers held the Hornets without a field goal during an 8:25 stretch. Sacramento State's 46 points represented the lowest point total allowed by Wofford to a Division I team since the Terriers joined those ranks in the 1995-96 campaign. Lenzy topped both teams with 19 points and a career-high 11 rebounds. The 4-point play, just the third in Wofford history, evened the game at 43-43. Lee Nixon also had a chance at a 4-point play during the Terrier run, but he missed the free-throw attempt.

Game 4 -- Clemson 85, Wofford 82 November 24, 2001 Clemson, S.C.

Wofford built an 11-point halftime lead before seeing Clemson rally and then hold off a late Terrier charge in an 85-82 Tiger victory at Littlejohn Coliseum.

Lee Nixon scored a game-high 25 points while Mike Lenzy added 20, including six 3-pointers, and freshman Justin Stephens scored 18 to pace a Wofford attack that saw the Terriers hit 15-of-32 3-pointers (46.9 percent).

Wofford's biggest margin of the night came when Lenzy scored on a layup to give the Terriers a 41-27 lead with 3:02 left in the first half. It capped a 26-9 Wofford run.

Clemson's size advantage inside began to wear Wofford down in the second half. A Chey Christie layup allowed the Tigers to regain the lead at 61-60 with 10:04 to play. After a long 3-pointer from the wing by Nixon tied the game at 67-67 with 7:58 remaining, Clemson went on a 12-4 run to take its largest lead of the night at 79-71 on a Ray Henderson 3-point play with 1:38 left.

However, Wofford chipped away at the deficit. Another deep three by Nixon pulled the Terriers within 81-79 with 55 seconds to play. After Clemson's Chris Hobbs missed a layup on the other end, Wofford came down the court trailing by two with 34 seconds remaining. Dwon Clifton then made a key steal for Clemson, setting the stage for a pair of Ed Scott free-throws which gave the Tigers an 83-79 lead with 24 seconds remaining.

Nixon hit an off-balance bank shot from the top of the key to pull Wofford within 83-82 with seven seconds to play. Christie was then fouled and hit a pair of free-throws to provide the final margin of 85-82 with six seconds left. Wofford had a last chance to force overtime, but Lenzy missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer.

Kenny Hastie equaled a career-high with 13 rebounds, the third time in four games he reached double figures in boards.

The Terriers shot 45.7 percent on the night after a 54.5 mark in the first half. The Tigers shot 57.6 percent in the second half to finish at 52.3.

Kenny Hastie had career-high totals of 20 points and 14 rebounds while Mike Lenzy flirted with the second triple-double of his career in leading Wofford to a 77-72 victory over Florida A&M. Lenzy scored 20 of his 24 points in the second half while adding a career-best 14 rebounds to go with seven assists. Lee Nixon hit a 3-pointer and added a free-throw to give Wofford a 70-63 lead with 2:50 to play. After the Rattlers closed within 72-70 with 1:15 left, Grant Sterley sank a pair of free-throws with 24 seconds left to help Wofford increase its lead to 74-70. Wofford held a 46-35 rebounding margin. The Terriers shot 52.2 percent in the second half after a 35.3 mark in the opening 20 minutes.

The Wofford basketball team built an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech before dropping a 79-70 decision.

After the Yellow Jackets scored the game's opening four points, Wofford stormed back to take its largest lead of the afternoon at 29-17 when Mike Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers just 23 seconds apart with 8:10 left in the first half. Lenzly finished the game with 22 points, seven assists, and six rebounds.

The Yellow Jackets closed to within 35-32 at the intermission when B.J. Elders knocked in a 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The Terriers came out strong in the second half. A 3-pointer by Grant Sterley and a pair of Lenzly free-throws built the Wofford lead back to 45-34 with 17:05 to play. However, Georgia Tech's press sparked a 24-5 run. In the middle of the spurt was a 3-pointer by Halston Lane to give the Yellow Jackets the lead for good at 51-50 with 9:42 remaining.

With Georgia Tech on top 58-50, the Terriers countered with two Kenny Hastie free-throws and a Lee Nixon layup to close within 58-54 with 7:31 left. Nixon topped Wofford with 24 points and a team-high and career-best seven rebounds.

However, a 3-pointer by Elder began a run of 11 straight Yellow Jacket points to put Georgia Tech in control at 69-54 with 3:38 remaining.

Game 13 -- Wofford 66, College of Charleston 64 January 2, 2002 Charleston, S.C.

Lee Nixon tied the game at 62-62 on a slashing floater with 57 seconds left. Charleston's Jeff Bolton then missed a shot in the lane, Mike Lenzly grabbed the rebound and went the length of the court for a layup to give Wofford a 64-62 lead with 18 seconds left. Charleston's Shannon Chambers hit a pair of free throws with 10.8 seconds remaining to tie the game at 64-64.

On the final possession, Lenzly again brought the ball downcourt and found Masic open on the baseline for the game-winner.

Charleston shot 57.1 percent in the first half and took a 32-24 lead at the intermission. The Terriers controlled the second half, outscoring CofC 42-32 and hitting on 53.3 percent of their shots.

Charleston stretched its lead to 10 points at 34-24 with 19 minutes left on a dunk by Mike Benton.

Nixon's 3-pointer with 13:58 left capped a 12-2 Wofford run and tied the game at 36-36. Nixon finished with a game-high 25 points, including 21 in the second half.

With 3:50 to play, Justin Stephens made an alley-oop pass to Nixon who converted it into a spectacular reverse dunk while being fouled on the play. His subsequent free-throw tied the game at 58-58 and gave the Terriers momentum down the stretch.

Lenzly finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds, the fourth double-double on the year for the Terrier point guard.

Jeff Bolton scored five of his game-high 29 points in the last 51 seconds of regulation as the College of Charleston rallied late to force overtime before pulling away for a 73-61 victory over Wofford tonight in Spartanburg, S.C., in yet another thriller between the Southern Conference rivals.

Dating back to last season, each of the last four meetings between Wofford and CofC have come down to the final possession in regulation. The Terriers defeated the Cougars, 66-64, on Jan. 2 in Charleston when Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer.

The Terriers led 61-56 lead when Lee Nixon hit a jumper with 1:09 to play. Bolton then rattled in a 3-pointer with 51 seconds remaining to pull the Cougars within 61-59. After the Charleston defense stiffened and forced the Terriers into a shot-clock violation, the Cougars took possession with 14 seconds to play. Bolton then sank a 12-foot jumper with just under two seconds left to force overtime at 61-61.

A Tony Mitchell 3-pointer just 12 seconds into overtime began a run of 12 consecutive Cougar points in the extra period.

Wofford was victimized by poor free-throw shooting on the night. The Terriers were just 10-of-18 (55.6 percent) at the line compared to 17-of-21 (81.0 percent) for the Cougars.

"Free-throws were huge," Wofford Head Coach and Athletic Director Richard Johnson said. "Even with the loss, it was fun basketball, a great game, and a tremendous atmosphere (the Benjamin Johnson Arena was nearly packed to capacity with a crowd of 3,421).

"We did everything we could do but just missed too many free-throws. We also got into foul trouble which hurt us."

Trailing 35-34, the Terriers went on a 9-0 run to take their largest lead of the night at 43-35 on a Justin Stephens free-throw with 14:15 to play. Mike Lenzy, who topped Wofford with 17 points and seven rebounds, had back-to-back 3-pointers and a total of eight points to begin the spurt. Charleston responded by scoring the next 11 points to take a 46-43 lead on a Troy Wheless 3-pointer with 9:36 remaining.

Bolton was 9-of-17 from the field, including 4-of-5 on 3-pointers. He was also 7-of-8 at the free-throw line. Leighton Bowie added 19 points and eight rebounds while Shannon Chambers grabbed 11 boards off-the-bench to go with eight points.

"Jeff Bolton came up big down the stretch," Charleston Head Coach John Kresse said. "The Wofford games the last two years have been wild and wooly."

Nixon had 16 points for the Terriers while Stephens scored 10. Wofford shot just 33.9 percent from the field while Charleston was at 39.7. The Cougars also outrebounded the Terriers by a 47-38 margin.

Wofford is at Chattanooga Monday night while Charleston travels to Furman.

Jeff Bolton scored five of his game-high 29 points in the last 51 seconds of regulation as the College of Charleston rallied late to force overtime before pulling away for a 73-61 victory over Wofford tonight in Spartanburg, S.C., in yet another thriller between the Southern Conference rivals.

Dating back to last season, each of the last four meetings between Wofford and CofC have come down to the final possession in regulation. The Terriers defeated the Cougars, 66-64, on Jan. 2 in Charleston when Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer.

The Terriers led 61-56 lead when Lee Nixon hit a jumper with 1:09 to play. Bolton then rattled in a 3-pointer with 51 seconds remaining to pull the Cougars within 61-59. After the Charleston defense stiffened and forced the Terriers into a shot-clock violation, the Cougars took possession with 14 seconds to play. Bolton then sank a 12-foot jumper with just under two seconds left to force overtime at 61-61.

A Tony Mitchell 3-pointer just 12 seconds into overtime began a run of 12 consecutive Cougar points in the extra period.

Wofford was victimized by poor free-throw shooting on the night. The Terriers were just 10-of-18 (55.6 percent) at the line compared to 17-of-21 (81.0 percent) for the Cougars.

"Free-throws were huge," Wofford Head Coach and Athletic Director Richard Johnson said. "Even with the loss, it was fun basketball, a great game, and a tremendous atmosphere (the Benjamin Johnson Arena was nearly packed to capacity with a crowd of 3,421).

"We did everything we could do but just missed too many free-throws. We also got into foul trouble which hurt us."

Trailing 35-34, the Terriers went on a 9-0 run to take their largest lead of the night at 43-35 on a Justin Stephens free-throw with 14:15 to play. Mike Lenzy, who topped Wofford with 17 points and seven rebounds, had back-to-back 3-pointers and a total of eight points to begin the spurt. Charleston responded by scoring the next 11 points to take a 46-43 lead on a Troy Wheless 3-pointer with 9:36 remaining.

Bolton was 9-of-17 from the field, including 4-of-5 on 3-pointers. He was also 7-of-8 at the free-throw line. Leighton Bowie added 19 points and eight rebounds while Shannon Chambers grabbed 11 boards off-the-bench to go with eight points.

"Jeff Bolton came up big down the stretch," Charleston Head Coach John Kresse said. "The Wofford games the last two years have been wild and wooly."

Nixon had 16 points for the Terriers while Stephens scored 10. Wofford shot just 33.9 percent from the field while Charleston was at 39.7. The Cougars also outrebounded the Terriers by a 47-38 margin.

Wofford is at Chattanooga Monday night while Charleston travels to Furman.

Attached are .pdf files with Wofford men's basketball notes and stats for tomorrow's 7 p.m. game at Davidson.

The Terriers will be concluding a stretch of four out of five games on the road when they travel to the North Division-leading Wildcats.

Wofford split a pair of meetings with Davidson last season. Lee Nixon scored a career-high 31 points to give the Terriers an 83-73 win in Spartanburg, before Chris Pearson's 3-point play with 2.3 seconds left gave the Wildcats a 60-57 victory in the SoCon Tournament.

With Grant Sterley sidelined a minimum of two weeks with a torn meniscus in his right knee, freshman Sam Daniels will make his first collegiate start for Wofford.

Terrier point guard Mike Lenzly is tied for third in the SoCon with five double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (15.0 ppg), rebounding (6.9 rpg), and assists (4.1 apg).

Wofford freshman Justin Stephens has scored at least 20 points in three of the last six games. He had 20 points, six rebounds, six assists, and three steals in Saturday's UNC Greensboro game. Stephens ranks third among SoCon freshmen in scoring (11.6 ppg) with his mark increasing to 13.3 points in league games.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Jan. 30, 2002, at Davidson, Belk Arena (5,700), Davidson, N.C.; 7 p.m.

The Game

The Wofford basketball team concludes a stretch of four out of five games on the road when it travels to North Division leader Davidson.

The Terriers split a pair of meetings with the Wildcats last season. Lee Nixon scored a career-high 31 points to give Wofford an 83-73 win in Spartanburg, before Chris Pearson's 3-point play with 2.3 seconds left gave the Wildcats a 60-57 victory in the SoCon Tournament.

With Grant Sterley sidelined by a torn meniscus in his right knee, freshman Sam Daniels will make his first collegiate start for Wofford.

Worth Noting

- Point guard Mike Lenzly is tied for third in the SoCon with five double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists.

- Freshman guard Justin Stephens has scored at least 20 points in three of the last six games. He had 20 points, six rebounds, six assists, and three steals in Saturday's UNC Greensboro game.

- Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

Meet The Head Coach

- Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of the season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fifth in winning percentage with a 234-223 mark (.512). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Battles

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford was recently listed for two weeks under "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Where Are They Now?

All four of last year's Wofford seniors earned their degrees. Listed below are their current situations:

- Brandon Boyce is in medical school at the Medical College of Georgia.
- Ian Chadwick is pursuing professional basketball with Europe his likely destination.
- Bishop Ravenel is in law school at the University of Richmond.
- Terenthial White is a financial analyst with Advance America in Spartanburg.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October and is currently undergoing law school interviews.

Lethal Weapon 3

- Wofford's three-guard tandem of Mike Lenzly (15.0 ppg), Lee Nixon (14.6 ppg), and Justin Stephens (11.8 ppg) averages 41.4 points per game, representing 59.7 percent of Wofford's season mark (69.3 points).

- Lenzly (48), Nixon (36), and Stephens (22) have also combined for 106 of Wofford's 145 3-pointers (73.1 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continued when it came to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the nation for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Triple-Doubles

Mike Lenzly has already flirted four times with his second career triple-double:

Opponent	Stats
Chattanooga (Jan. 14)	17 pts., 7 reb., 6 asst.
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

The Only One...

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (15.0 ppg), rebounding (6.9 rpg), and assists (4.1 apg).

and a Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and 10th in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 6.9 boards per game.

The 6-foot-3 point guard is also sixth in the SoCon with 2.7 offensive rebounds each contest.

- Lenzly leads the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 19 rejections in 20 games. He tied a single-game school record with five blocks in the 73-64 victory over The Citadel.

Mike Lenzly

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Packing Them In

In SoCon games only, Wofford ranks fifth in the league in home attendance with an average of 2,740 fans through four dates, just one behind Western Carolina (2,741) for fourth.

Same Five

Prior to Grant Sterley's injury, Wofford had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in each game this season.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

Associate Head Coach

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzly has played the entire game, including two overtime contests, in six of Wofford's eight SoCon games.

Lenzly played every minute in the opening six contests before a one-minute break in the first half at East Tennessee State (Jan. 23).

Due to foul trouble, he played just 33 minutes against UNC Greensboro (Jan. 26).

The Ironman Speaks

On frequently playing the entire game, Mike Lenzly said, "It's no big deal. Practice is two hours. A game is only 40 minutes."

Streak Over

Listed below are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2).

Dating back to last season, each of the last four games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession in regulation.

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at that time.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

- Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has surprised the SoCon in three of its first four seasons in the league.

- Wofford placed third in the South in 1999-00 after being a fourth-place pick.

- The Terriers were third in the South in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

- Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

Wofford had just three "double-doubles" last season but has already seen seven recorded this year:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 11 reb.	ETSU (Jan. 23)
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Freshman Sensation

Wofford guard Justin Stephens is the third-leading scorer among SoCon freshmen with an 11.6 points per game mark, including 13.3 in league games.

The 6-foot-2 native of Newnan, Ga., has scored at least 20 points in three of the last six games.

Sterley Sidelined

Wofford starting forward Grant Sterley will be sidelined a minimum of two weeks after suffering a torn meniscus in his right knee late in the first half of Saturday's UNC Greensboro game.

Sterley had already hit a pair of 3-pointers and grabbed two rebounds in his 13 minutes of action.

Prior to the injury, Sterley was playing the best basketball of his Wofford career. He had averaged 9.7 points and 5.5 rebounds in the previous six games, including a career-best 17 points at ETSU (Jan. 23).

Quick Starts

Wofford opened this season with a 9-6 record for its best start to a campaign in seven years of Division I play.

The Terriers open each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

Following a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel (Jan. 7), Wofford was three games above the .500 mark for the first time in its Division I era.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with six of the 12 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers have just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who have played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Mike Lenzly and Lee Nixon have gone back and forth all year in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Lenzly (15.0 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Nixon (14.6 ppg) by virtue of seven more points on the season (299-to-292).

Defensive Stops

•Wofford tops the SoCon by limiting its opponents to a 31.2 percentage from 3-point range.

•The Terriers are 8-1 when holding their opponents to 64 points or fewer. The lone loss was a 64-49 defeat to South Carolina.

•Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in 1995-96.

The previous low was accomplished in a 55-48 victory over Georgia Southern (Jan. 5, 1998). That contest was also the Terriers' first-ever SoCon win.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14). The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

A Nailbiting Team

Five of Wofford's eight SoCon games have come down to the final three seconds:

- Jan. 2 - Edwin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give Wofford a 66-64 victory at the College of Charleston.

- Jan. 7 - Travis Cantrell of The Citadel misses a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer in regulation that would have won the game for the Bulldogs. The Terriers go on to a 73-64 overtime victory.

- Jan. 12 - College of Charleston's Jeff Bolton hits a 12-foot jump shot with 0.8 seconds left to force overtime before CofC pulls away for a 73-61 win.

- Jan. 14 - Justin Stephens sees his reverse layup fall off the rim as the final buzzer sounds in a 79-77 Terrier loss at Chattanooga.

- Jan. 26 - Mike Lenzly misses a 3-pointer with three seconds left that would have tied the UNC Greensboro game. The Terriers drop an 81-76 decision.

Handling the Ball

The Terriers top the SoCon in committing the fewest turnovers per game at 13.4.

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School, Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

He made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points.

Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He later added a free-throw to finish with four points.

Johnson at Wofford

The following charts show where Head Coach Richard Johnson ranks all-time at Wofford in victories and winning percentage:

Victories

1. Gene Alexander	283 (1958-77)
2. Richard Johnson	234 (1985-present)
3. Joel Robertson	157 (1946-58)

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with 17 minutes left before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the win.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman (Jan. 5) represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Six of Wofford's losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and members of the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 34-41 record (.453), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-5
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-8
Davidson	2-4
East Tennessee State	0-5
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	6-3
UNC Greensboro	3-2
VMI	2-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	34-41

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the eighth-best record in the league, just three and a half games out of fifth place. It's a mark made impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	46-11 (.807)
2. Appalachian State	49-23 (.681)
3. Davidson	47-24 (.662)

1212 vs. 1100

Wofford College boasts a higher SAT average (1212) than enrollment (1100).

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Hanahan, S.C. (Hanahan)

2001-02: All-SoCon candidate who ranks 11th in the league in scoring (14.6 ppg)... one of the more exciting players in the league... has scored at least 24 points in three of the last nine contests, dating back to his 24-point effort in the Dec. 21 near victory at Georgia Tech... his game-high 27 points at Chattanooga (Jan. 14) represented the second-best performance of his Wofford career... places second on the team in 3-pointers (36) and steals (23) while ranking third in assists (38)... 21 of his 25 points in the 66-64 win over the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) came in the second half, including a spectacular reverse dunk off an alley-oop pass from Justin Stephens... the dunk and subsequent free-throw tied the game with under four minutes to play and gave the Terriers momentum... also hit a slashing floater to even the contest with less than a minute left... played just two minutes in the Jan. 7 win over The Citadel after being knocked out of the game with a left shoulder separation while going for a loose ball... his game-high 24 points at Georgia Tech helped the Terriers to an 11-point second-half lead... added a career-best seven rebounds against the Yellow Jackets... torched Clemson for 25 points, including 16 in the first half, as Wofford built a 45-34 lead at the intermission (Nov. 24)... had five straight points, including a 3-pointer and breakaway dunk, to key a 14-5 run midway through the second half as the Terriers pulled away from Furman in a 59-49 victory (Jan. 5)...

Did You Know: Nixon showcased his talents last year with a 31-point explosion in an 83-73 win over Davidson.

Game 6 -- South Carolina 64, Wofford 49

November 28, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Rolando Howell had 17 points and 10 rebounds while Jamel Bradley added 15 points on five 3-pointers to lead South Carolina to a 64-49 victory over Wofford before a capacity crowd of 3,500 at the Benjamin Johnson Arena in Spartanburg.

The Gamecocks limited the Terriers to 30.4 percent shooting while holding a 39-28 rebounding edge. USC opened the game with an 11-2 run and led by as many as 15 points at 27-12. However, Wofford held USC scoreless the final 5:17 of the first half and trailed just 27-18 at the intermission.

Wofford cut the deficit to six points on two occasions, the last being 35-29 on a Justin Stephens jumper with 14:06 to play. A Lee Nixon basket and a 3-pointer pulled Wofford within 42-34 with 9:59 remaining. Three-pointers by Bradley and Aaron Lucas then keyed a 14-3 run as the Gamecocks pulled away late.

Game 7 -- Nebraska 65, Wofford 46

December 2, 2001

Lincoln, Neb.

Grant Sterley opened the game with a 3-pointer and the Terriers had an early 8-7 lead before Nebraska went on a 25-10 run while controlling the boards to earn a 65-46 victory. It was the first-ever meeting between the Cornhuskers and Terriers. Wofford shot 47.6 percent in the opening 20 minutes but trailed 43-27 at the intermission as Nebraska held a 9-1 edge on the offensive glass. The Huskers had 18 offensive boards in the game and a 45-31 overall rebounding margin.

Game 17 -- Chattanooga 79, Wofford 77

January 14, 2002

Chattanooga, Tenn.

Wofford dropped its second straight heartbreaker as a tough night at the free-throw line resulted in a 79-77 defeat at Chattanooga.

The Terriers missed an opportunity to force overtime at the final buzzer when a reverse layup attempt by Justin Stephens hung on the rim before falling out.

The see-saw game had 21 lead changes and 11 ties.

Wofford was just 20-of-35 (57.1 percent) at the charity stripe, including 13-of-24 (54.2 percent) in the second half.

Trailing 73-70 with 2:07 to play, the Terriers took a 76-73 lead with 57 seconds remaining when Lee Nixon and Grant Sterley hit back-to-back 3-pointers. Nixon topped both teams with 27 points for the second-best game of his Wofford career.

After a Tim Parker bucket pulled the Mocs within 76-75 at the 49-second mark, Nixon had a short jumper go in-and-out with 32 seconds left. Parker then hit the go-ahead basket for Chattanooga with 14 ticks remaining to put the Mocs on top 77-76.

Following a Wofford turnover, Petie Spaulding was fouled with eight seconds remaining and made both free-throws to give UTC a 79-76 lead. Stephens hit one of two free-throws with 7.4 seconds left to pull Wofford within 79-77.

UTC then had a chance to ice the game at the line, but Parker missed both attempts. Mike Lenzly grabbed the defensive board and fed Stephens who raced down the court, but his layup attempt missed and Chattanooga kept its home record perfect at 9-0.

Game 18 -- Georgia Southern 86, Wofford 73

January 19, 2002

Statesboro, Ga.

A late Wofford rally fell short in an 86-73 loss at Georgia Southern. The Terriers trailed by 20 points with 13:15 to play before closing within 74-67 on a pair of Justin Stephens free-throws with 3:33 remaining. The Eagles then sealed the game at the free-throw line. Stephens finished with a career-high 22 points. The Terriers were victimized by 21 turnovers after entering the game leading the SoCon with an average of just 12.6 turnovers per contest.

Game 19 -- East Tennessee State 71, Wofford 58

January 23, 2002

Johnson City, Tenn.

The Terriers went scoreless for six minutes down the stretch as East Tennessee State pulled away for a 71-58 victory.

Wofford trailed just 50-47 when Mike Lenzly scored on a layup with 9:59 to play. However, the Terriers wouldn't score again until 3:59 remained on a Grant Sterley layup that cut the deficit to 60-49.

Sterley scored 14 of his career-high 17 points in the second half. Lenzly posted his SoCon-leading fifth double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds. He did sit out a minute to end his streak of six consecutive games in which he played the entire length of the contest.

Wofford was outrebounded 43-27, including 17-10 on the offensive end.

Game 20 -- UNC Greensboro 81, Wofford 76

January 26, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

David Schuck had a career-high 24 points to go with eight rebounds as defending SoCon champion UNC Greensboro held off a gutsy Wofford effort for an 81-76 victory.

The Terriers were plagued by foul trouble throughout the game and lost starting forward Grant Sterley after just 13 minutes to a knee injury. Wofford played stretches of the second half with four freshmen on the court.

In a game that featured 10 ties and 11 lead changes, Wofford freshman Sam Daniels hit a 3-pointer from the corner to even the contest at 76-76 with 49 seconds to play. After Courtney Eldridge scored on a layup to give the Spartans a 78-76 lead with 39 seconds left, a Terrier turnover led to Eldridge hitting 1-of-2 free-throws to extend the Spartan lead to 79-76 with 14 seconds remaining.

Wofford had a chance to force overtime but Mike Lenzy missed a 3-point attempt from the top of the key with three seconds to play.

Wofford freshman Jeff Tarr and sophomore point guard Edmond Davis, who had played a combined three minutes in the Terriers' seven previous SoCon games, were on the court together during critical stages of the second half. Tarr hit a short jumper to give the Terriers a 59-55 lead with 8:47 to play.

Justin Stephens topped Wofford with 20 points, the third time in the last six games that he scored at least 20. He also added six rebounds, six assists, and three steals in 38 minutes.

In research conducted by STATS, Inc., Wofford College point guard Mike Lenzy is tied for the nation's lead in blocked shots for Division I players 6-foot-3 and under.

Lenzy and 6-foot-2 Derrick Zimmerman of Mississippi State each have 19 blocks in 20 games (0.95 per contest).

Lenzy, a 6-foot-3 junior from Jonesboro, Ga., is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (15.0 ppg), rebounding (6.9 rpg), and assists (4.1 apg). He is tied for third in the league with five double-doubles (points and rebounds). Lenzy also ranks in a tie for fourth in SoCon games only with 14 blocks in eight contests (1.75 bpg), including a single-game school record five in the Terriers' 73-64 win against The Citadel (Jan. 7).

Wofford College assistant basketball coach Alex Peavey has been selected by www.collegeinsider.com as one of the "50 Most Eligible Bachelors" in the Division I coaching ranks.

Peavey is in his second season as an assistant coach at Wofford. The son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation, Peavey previously worked in an administrative capacity with the men's basketball team at Virginia Commonwealth. He also received his Master's degree in coaching and administration from VCU.

Peavey's coaching experience also includes one-year stints on the staffs at Woodberry Forest High School in Woodberry, Va., and The Collegiate School in Richmond, Va.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Virginia, Peavey was a recruiting assistant for four years in the Cavalier football office. He also served in a basketball statistical capacity for the sports information department.

Peavey worked two years as an intern with the Washington Redskins media relations office, assisting in game day and training camp operations.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Feb. 2, 2002, vs. VMI, Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500), Spartanburg, S.C.; 7 p.m.

The Game

After playing four of its last five games on the road, the Wofford basketball team opens a three-game homestand with VMI.

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, the Terriers are 2-3 against the Keydets. VMI took a 68-60 decision in Lexington last season. Wofford will get its first look at VMI freshman Jason Conley, the leading scorer in Division I (29.1 points per game).

The Terriers will be playing their second game without starting forward Grant Sterley, sidelined for two weeks by a knee injury.

Worth Noting

- Point guard Mike Lenzly is tied for third in the SoCon with five double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player to rank in the Top 12 in scoring, rebounding, and assists.

- Justin Stephens ranks third among SoCon freshmen in scoring (11.3 ppg). He has at least 20 points in three of the last seven games.

- Lee Nixon, the SoCon's eighth-leading scorer (15.1 ppg), had 26 points at Davidson.

- Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

Meet The Head Coach

- Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of the season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fifth in winning percentage with a 234-224 mark (.511). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Battles

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford was recently listed for two weeks under "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October and is currently undergoing law school interviews.

Due to a family emergency, he had to cancel a scheduled interview at Duke on Jan. 25.

Hastie did interview at the University of South Carolina Law School on Jan. 31, the morning after posting a career-best 15 rebounds at Davidson.

Among The Best

Wofford guards Lee Nixon (15.1 ppg) and Mike Lenzly (15.0 ppg) rank eighth and ninth, respectively, in the Southern Conference scoring race.

Lethal Weapon 3

- Wofford's three-guard tandem of Lee Nixon (15.1 ppg), Mike Lenzly (15.0 ppg), and Justin Stephens (11.3 ppg) averages 41.4 points per game, representing 60.0 percent of Wofford's season mark (69.0 points).

- Lenzly (51), Nixon (38), and Stephens (22) have also combined for 111 of Wofford's 150 3-pointers (74.0 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continued when it came to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the nation for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Triple-Doubles

Mike Lenzly has already flirted four times with his second career triple-double:

Opponent	Stats
Chattanooga (Jan. 14)	17 pts., 7 reb., 6 asst.
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

Mike Lenzly

The Only One...

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 12 in scoring (15.0 ppg), rebounding (6.6 rpg), and assists (3.9 apg).

and a Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and 12th in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 6.6 boards per game.

- Lenzly leads the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 19 rejections in 21 games. He tied a single-game school record with five blocks in the 73-64 victory over The Citadel.

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Packing Them In

In SoCon games only, Wofford ranks fifth in the league in home attendance with an average of 2,740 fans through four dates, just one behind Western Carolina (2,741) for fourth.

Same Five

Prior to Grant Sterley's injury, Wofford had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in its opening 20 games.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

Mike Young
Associate Head Coach

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Women Beware

Wofford assistant coach Alex Peavey has been named by www.collegeinsider.com as one of the "50 Most Eligible Bachelors" in the Division I coaching ranks.

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzly has played the entire game, including two overtime contests, in seven of Wofford's nine SoCon games.

Lenzly played every minute in the opening six contests before a one-minute break in the first half at East Tennessee State (Jan. 23).

Due to foul trouble, he played just 33 minutes against UNC Greensboro (Jan. 26).

The Ironman Speaks

On frequently playing the entire game, Mike Lenzly said, "It's no big deal. Practice is two hours. A game is only 40 minutes."

Streak Over

Listed below are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2).

Dating back to last season, each of the last four games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession in regulation.

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at that time.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

- Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has surprised the SoCon in three of its first four seasons in the league.

- Wofford placed third in the South in 1999-00 after being a fourth-place pick.

- The Terriers were third in the South in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

- Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

Wofford had just three "double-doubles" last season but has already seen seven recorded this year:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 11 reb.	ETSU (Jan. 23)
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Freshman Sensation

Wofford guard Justin Stephens is the third-leading scorer among SoCon freshmen with an 11.3 points per game mark, including 12.3 in league games.

The 6-foot-2 native of Newnan, Ga., has scored at least 20 points in three of the last seven games.

Sterley Sidelined

Wofford starting forward Grant Sterley is sidelined for the next two weeks after suffering a torn meniscus in his right knee late in the first half of last Saturday's UNC Greensboro game.

Sterley had already hit a pair of 3-pointers and grabbed two rebounds in his 13 minutes of action against the Spartans.

Prior to the injury, Sterley was playing the best basketball of his Wofford career. He had averaged 9.7 points and 5.5 rebounds in the previous six games, including a career-best 17 points at ETSU (Jan. 23).

Quick Starts

Wofford opened this season with a 9-6 record for its best start to a campaign in seven years of Division I play.

The Terriers open each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

Following a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel (Jan. 7), Wofford was three games above .500 for the first time in Division I.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with six of the 12 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers have just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who have played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Lee Nixon and Mike Lenzly, the SoCon's eighth and ninth-leading scorers, have gone back and forth all year in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Nixon (15.1 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Lenzly (15.0 ppg) by virtue of two more points on the season (318-to-316).

Defensive Stops

•Wofford tops the SoCon by limiting its opponents to a 31.3 percentage from 3-point range.

•The Terriers are 8-1 when holding their opponents to 64 points or fewer. The lone loss was a 64-49 defeat to South Carolina.

•Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in 1995-96.

The previous low was accomplished in a 55-48 victory over Georgia Southern (Jan. 5, 1998). That contest was also the Terriers' first-ever SoCon win.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14). The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

A Nailbiting Team

Five of Wofford's eight SoCon games have come down to the final three seconds:

- Jan. 2 - Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give Wofford a 66-64 victory at the College of Charleston.

- Jan. 7 - Travis Cantrell of The Citadel misses a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer in regulation that would have won the game for the Bulldogs. The Terriers go on to a 73-64 overtime victory.

- Jan. 12 - College of Charleston's Jeff Bolton hits a 12-foot jump shot with 0.8 seconds left to force overtime before CofC pulls away for a 73-61 win.

- Jan. 14 - Justin Stephens sees his reverse layup fall off the rim as the final buzzer sounds in a 79-77 Terrier loss at Chattanooga.

- Jan. 26 - Mike Lenzly misses a 3-pointer with three seconds left that would have tied the UNC Greensboro game. The Terriers drop an 81-76 decision.

Handling the Ball

The Terriers top the SoCon in committing the fewest turnovers per game at 13.2.

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School, Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

He made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points.

Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He later added a free-throw to finish with four points.

Johnson at Wofford

The following charts show where Head Coach Richard Johnson ranks all-time at Wofford in victories and winning percentage:

Victories

1. Gene Alexander	283 (1958-77)
2. Richard Johnson	234 (1985-present)
3. Joel Robertson	157 (1946-58)

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with 17 minutes left before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the win.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman (Jan. 5) represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Six of Wofford's losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and members of the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 34-42 record (.447), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-5
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-8
Davidson	2-5
East Tennessee State	0-5
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	6-3
UNC Greensboro	3-2
VMI	2-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	34-42

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the eighth-best record in the league, just four games out of fifth place. It's a mark made impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	46-11 (.807)
2. Appalachian State	49-23 (.681)
3. Davidson	48-24 (.667)
4. East Tennessee State	40-32 (.556)
5. Chattanooga	36-35 (.507)
6. UNC Greensboro	36-36 (.500)
7. Georgia Southern	34-37 (.479)
8. Wofford	32-39 (.451)
9. The Citadel	28-42 (.400)
10. VMI	25-47 (.347)
11. Furman	24-46 (.343)
12. Western Carolina	23-49 (.319)

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Hanahan, S.C. (Hanahan)

2001-02: All-SoCon candidate who tops the Terriers and ranks eighth in the league in scoring (15.1 ppg)... one of the more exciting players in the SoCon... has scored at least 24 points in four of the last 10 contests... 20 of his 26 points at Davidson came in the first half, including his second career 4-point play... his game-high 27 points at Chattanooga (Jan. 14) represented the second-best performance of his Wofford career... places second on the team in 3-pointers (38) while ranking third in assists (40) and steals (23)... 21 of his 25 points in the 66-64 win over the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) came in the second half, including a spectacular reverse dunk off an alley-oop pass from Justin Stephens... the dunk and subsequent free-throw tied the game with under four minutes to play and gave the Terriers momentum... also hit a slashing floater to even the contest with less than a minute left... played just two minutes in the Jan. 7 win over The Citadel after being knocked out of the game with a left shoulder separation while going for a loose ball... his game-high 24 points at Georgia Tech helped the Terriers to an 11-point second-half lead... added a career-best seven rebounds in the game... torched Clemson for 25 points, including 16 in the first half, as Wofford built a 45-34 lead at the intermission (Nov. 24)... had five straight points, including a 3-pointer and breakaway dunk, to key a 14-5 run midway through the second half as the Terriers pulled away from Furman in a 59-49 victory (Jan. 5)...

Did You Know: Nixon showcased his talents last year with a 31-point explosion in an 83-73 win over Davidson.

Game 1 -- Memphis 88, Wofford 61 (Guardians Classic) November 13, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Wofford hung tough with No. 12 Memphis before the Tigers pulled away in the second half in front of a crowd of 13,586, the largest to ever see the Terriers play. Freshman Justin Stephens outplayed heralded Memphis rookie Dajuan Wagner, outscoring the 2001 National High School Player of the Year in addition to posting more assists and fewer turnovers. The Terriers forced Tiger Head Coach John Calipari to burn three first-half timeouts. At different points in the game, Wofford had three freshmen on the court at the same time. Stephens topped all scorers with 19 points while Kenny Hastie had a game-high 12 rebounds, one shy of a career-best.

Game 2 -- Wofford 56, Sacramento St. 46 (Guardians Classic) November 14, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Mike Lenzly's 4-point play keyed a 19-3 rally over the final 10:52 as Wofford pulled away from Sacramento State for a 56-46 victory at the Guardians Classic. The Terriers held the Hornets without a field goal during an 8:25 stretch. Sacramento State's 46 points represented the lowest point total allowed by Wofford to a Division I team since the Terriers joined those ranks in the 1995-96 campaign. Lenzly topped both teams with 19 points and a career-high 11 rebounds. The 4-point play, just the third in Wofford history, evened the game at 43-43. Lee Nixon also had a chance at a 4-point play during the Terrier run, but he missed the free-throw attempt.

Game 6 -- South Carolina 64, Wofford 49

November 28, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Rolando Howell had 17 points and 10 rebounds while Jamel Bradley added 15 points on five 3-pointers to lead South Carolina to a 64-49 victory over Wofford before a capacity crowd of 3,500 at the Benjamin Johnson Arena in Spartanburg.

The Gamecocks limited the Terriers to 30.4 percent shooting while holding a 39-28 rebounding edge. USC opened the game with an 11-2 run and led by as many as 15 points at 27-12. However, Wofford held USC scoreless the final 5:17 of the first half and trailed just 27-18 at the intermission.

Wofford cut the deficit to six points on two occasions, the last being 35-29 on a Justin Stephens jumper with 14:06 to play. A Lee Nixon basket and a 3-pointer pulled Wofford within 42-34 with 9:59 remaining. Three-pointers by Bradley and Aaron Lucas then keyed a 14-3 run as the Gamecocks pulled away late.

Game 10 -- Wofford 87, Virginia Inter mont 59

December 15, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action as the Wofford men's basketball team rolled to an 87-59 victory over Virginia Inter mont.

Myers made his collegiate debut when he entered the game with 7:54 remaining and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead. Myers made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points. Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup to give Wofford a 73-42 lead with 6:52 remaining. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 at the 5:35 mark.

At the conclusion of the game, Myers was carried off the floor by his teammates.

After trailing 9-8 in the opening 5:55, Wofford went on a 27-8 run to take a 35-17 lead with 6:17 left in the first half. The Terriers began the spurt with eight straight points from Mike Lenzly, who totaled 12 points and 10 rebounds to go with five assists and no turnovers.

Lee Nixon topped Wofford with 17 points while Adrien Borders added 10 for his second double-figure scoring performance in the last three games.

Game 12 -- Georgia Tech 79, Wofford 70 December 21, 2001 Atlanta, Ga.

The Wofford basketball team built an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech before dropping a 79-70 decision.

After the Yellow Jackets scored the game's opening four points, Wofford stormed back to take its largest lead of the afternoon at 29-17 when Mike Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers just 23 seconds apart with 8:10 left in the first half. Lenzly finished the game with 22 points, seven assists, and six rebounds.

The Yellow Jackets closed to within 35-32 at the intermission when B.J. Elders knocked in a 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The Terriers came out strong in the second half. A 3-pointer by Grant Sterley and a pair of Lenzly free-throws built the Wofford lead back to 45-34 with 17:05 to play. However, Georgia Tech's press sparked a 24-5 run. In the middle of the spurt was a 3-pointer by Halston Lane to give the Yellow Jackets the lead for good at 51-50 with 9:42 remaining.

With Georgia Tech on top 58-50, the Terriers countered with two Kenny Hastie free-throws and a Lee Nixon layup to close within 58-54 with 7:31 left. Nixon topped Wofford with 24 points and a team-high and career-best seven rebounds.

However, a 3-pointer by Elder began a run of 11 straight Yellow Jacket points to put Georgia Tech in control at 69-54 with 3:38 remaining.

Game 13 -- Wofford 66, College of Charleston 64 January 2, 2002 Charleston, S.C.

Lee Nixon tied the game at 62-62 on a slashing floater with 57 seconds left. Charleston's Jeff Bolton then missed a shot in the lane, Mike Lenzly grabbed the rebound and went the length of the court for a layup to give Wofford a 64-62 lead with 18 seconds left. Charleston's Shannon Chambers hit a pair of free throws with 10.8 seconds remaining to tie the game at 64-64.

On the final possession, Lenzly again brought the ball downcourt and found Masic open on the baseline for the game-winner.

Charleston shot 57.1 percent in the first half and took a 32-24 lead at the intermission. The Terriers controlled the second half, outscoring CoFC 42-32 and hitting on 53.3 percent of their shots.

Charleston stretched its lead to 10 points at 34-24 with 19 minutes left on a dunk by Mike Benton.

Nixon's 3-pointer with 13:58 left capped a 12-2 Wofford run and tied the game at 36-36. Nixon finished with a game-high 25 points, including 21 in the second half.

With 3:50 to play, Justin Stephens made an alley-oop pass to Nixon who converted it into a spectacular reverse dunk while being fouled on the play. His subsequent free-throw tied the game at 58-58 and gave the Terriers momentum down the stretch.

Lenzly finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds, the fourth double-double on the year for the Terrier point guard.

Game 17 -- Chattanooga 79, Wofford 77

January 14, 2002

Chattanooga, Tenn.

Wofford dropped its second straight heartbreaker as a tough night at the free-throw line resulted in a 79-77 defeat at Chattanooga.

The Terriers missed an opportunity to force overtime at the final buzzer when a reverse layup attempt by Justin Stephens hung on the rim before falling out.

The see-saw game had 21 lead changes and 11 ties.

Wofford was just 20-of-35 (57.1 percent) at the charity stripe, including 13-of-24 (54.2 percent) in the second half.

Trailing 73-70 with 2:07 to play, the Terriers took a 76-73 lead with 57 seconds remaining when Lee Nixon and Grant Sterley hit back-to-back 3-pointers. Nixon topped both teams with 27 points for the second-best game of his Wofford career.

After a Tim Parker bucket pulled the Mocs within 76-75 at the 49-second mark, Nixon had a short jumper go in-and-out with 32 seconds left. Parker then hit the go-ahead basket for Chattanooga with 14 ticks remaining to put the Mocs on top 77-76.

Following a Wofford turnover, Petie Spaulding was fouled with eight seconds remaining and made both free-throws to give UTC a 79-76 lead. Stephens hit one of two free-throws with 7.4 seconds left to pull Wofford within 79-77.

UTC then had a chance to ice the game at the line, but Parker missed both attempts. Mike Lenzly grabbed the defensive board and fed Stephens who raced down the court, but his layup attempt missed and Chattanooga kept its home record perfect at 9-0.

Game 18 -- Georgia Southern 86, Wofford 73

January 19, 2002

Statesboro, Ga.

A late Wofford rally fell short in an 86-73 loss at Georgia Southern. The Terriers trailed by 20 points with 13:15 to play before closing within 74-67 on a pair of Justin Stephens free-throws with 3:33 remaining. The Eagles then sealed the game at the free-throw line. Stephens finished with a career-high 22 points. The Terriers were victimized by 21 turnovers after entering the game leading the SoCon with an average of just 12.6 turnovers per contest.

Game 19 -- East Tennessee State 71, Wofford 58

January 23, 2002

Johnson City, Tenn.

The Terriers went scoreless for six minutes down the stretch as East Tennessee State pulled away for a 71-58 victory.

Wofford trailed just 50-47 when Mike Lenzly scored on a layup with 9:59 to play. However, the Terriers wouldn't score again until 3:59 remained on a Grant Sterley layup that cut the deficit to 60-49.

Sterley scored 14 of his career-high 17 points in the second half. Lenzly posted his SoCon-leading fifth double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds. He did sit out a minute to end his streak of six consecutive games in which he played the entire length of the contest.

Wofford was outrebounded 43-27, including 17-10 on the offensive end.

Game 20 -- UNC Greensboro 81, Wofford 76

January 26, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

David Schuck had a career-high 24 points to go with eight rebounds as defending SoCon champion UNC Greensboro held off a gutsy Wofford effort for an 81-76 victory.

The Terriers were plagued by foul trouble throughout the game and lost starting forward Grant Sterley after just 13 minutes to a knee injury. Wofford played stretches of the second half with four freshmen on the court.

In a game that featured 10 ties and 11 lead changes, Wofford freshman Sam Daniels hit a 3-pointer from the corner to even the contest at 76-76 with 49 seconds to play. After Courtney Eldridge scored on a layup to give the Spartans a 78-76 lead with 39 seconds left, a Terrier turnover led to Eldridge hitting 1-of-2 free-throws to extend the Spartan lead to 79-76 with 14 seconds remaining.

Wofford had a chance to force overtime but Mike Lenzly missed a 3-point attempt from the top of the key with three seconds to play.

Wofford freshman Jeff Tarr and sophomore point guard Edmond Davis, who had played a combined three minutes in the Terriers' seven previous SoCon games, were on the court together during critical stages of the second half. Tarr hit a short jumper to give the Terriers a 59-55 lead with 8:47 to play.

Justin Stephens topped Wofford with 20 points, the third time in the last six games that he scored at least 20. He also added six rebounds, six assists, and three steals in 38 minutes.

Game 20 -- Davidson 72, Wofford 61

January 30, 2002

Davidson, N.C.

Playing its first game without injured starting forward Grant Sterley, Wofford hung tough before Davidson pulled away late for a 72-61 victory.

Lee Nixon had 20 of his game-high 26 points in the first half as the Terriers built a 36-32 lead at the intermission. The Wofford lead was extended to 42-36 with 17:07 to play on a Kenny Hastie layup.

Hastie added a career-high 15 rebounds while playing just 25 minutes due to foul trouble.

With fellow post players Sam Daniels and Edvin Masic also plagued by fouls, the Terriers were effective with a four-guard lineup.

Davidson took the lead for good on a Peter Anderer 3-pointer with 11:16 left. Wofford trailed by just five points at 63-58 when Adrien Borders sank a pair of free-throws with 4:16 remaining. After making a pair of defensive stands, the Terriers were then unable to convert on two offensive possessions before Michael Bree's two free-throws with 2:22 to play gave Davidson a 65-58 lead.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Jan. 23, 2002, at East Tennessee State, Memorial Center (13,000), Johnson City, Tenn.; 7:30 p.m.

The Game

Wofford College (9-9, 3-3) closes a stretch of three consecutive road games when it travels to East Tennessee State (9-8, 2-4).

The Buccaneers are the only team the Terriers have yet to beat since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign. Wofford has dropped all four meetings, including 75-73 and 66-65 thrillers in Spartanburg.

The Terriers haven't been to the Mini-Dome since the 1997-98 season. The last contest in Johnson City (1999-00) was played at Brooks Gym while the Memorial Center hosted the SoCon Indoor Track Championships.

Worth Noting

- Point guard Mike Lenzly is tied for the SoCon lead with four double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists. He has played all 250 minutes in Wofford's six SoCon games, including two overtime contests.

- Lenzly tops the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 18 rejections in 18 games.

- Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

Meet The Head Coach

- Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of this season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fifth in winning percentage with a 234-221 mark (.514). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Battles

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford is among "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Gonzaga, Western Kentucky, and Bowling Green are the top three-ranked teams.

Where Are They Now?

All four of last year's Wofford seniors earned their degrees. Listed below are their current situations:

- Brandon Boyce is in medical school at the Medical College of Georgia.
- Ian Chadwick is pursuing professional basketball with Europe his likely destination.
- Bishop Ravenel is in law school at the University of Richmond.
- Terential White is a financial analyst with Advance America in Spartanburg.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October.

Lethal Weapon 3

- Wofford's three-guard tandem of Mike Lenzly (15.1 ppg), Lee Nixon (15.0 ppg), and Justin Stephens (11.3 ppg) averages 41.4 points per game, representing 59.5 percent of Wofford's season mark (69.6 points).

- Lenzly (45), Nixon (34), and Stephens (20) have also combined for 99 of Wofford's 134 3-pointers this year (73.9 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continued when it came to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the nation for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Triple-Doubles

Mike Lenzly has already flirted four times with his second career triple-double:

Opponent	Stats
Chattanooga (Jan. 14)	17 pts., 7 reb., 6 asst.
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

Mike Lenzly

The Only One...

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (15.1 ppg), rebounding (6.8 rpg), and assists (4.0 apg).

and a Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and 10th in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 6.8 boards per game.

The 6-foot-3 point guard is also eighth in the SoCon with 2.8 offensive rebounds each contest.

- Lenzly leads the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 18 rejections in 18 games. He tied a single-game school record with five blocks in the 73-64 victory over The Citadel.

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Streak Over

The following are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2):

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at that time.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

Mike Young
Associate Head Coach

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Same Five

Wofford has had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Grant Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in each game this season.

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzly has played all 250 minutes in Wofford's six SoCon games, including 45 in back-to-back overtime contests against The Citadel and College of Charleston.

Something About CofC

Dating back to last season, each of the last four games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession in regulation.

No More Chadwicks

With the graduation of three-time All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, Wofford is taking the court this season without a Chadwick in the starting lineup for the first time in nine years.

Prior to Ian's arrival, which coincided with the Terriers' first four years of SoCon play (1997-01), older brother Seth Chadwick was a four-year starter for the Terriers (1993-97).

Wofford is Chadwick-less for the first time since the 1992-93 campaign.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

- The Terriers (3-3) are fourth in the South Division this year after being a consensus sixth-place pick.

- Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has surprised the SoCon in three of its first four seasons in the league.

Wofford placed third in the South in 1999-00 after being a fourth-place pick.

The Terriers were third in the South in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

Wofford had just three "double-doubles" last season but has already seen six recorded this year:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Quick Starts

Wofford opened this season with a 9-6 record for its best start to a campaign in seven years of Division I play.

The Terriers open each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

Following a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel (Jan. 7), Wofford was three games above the .500 mark for the first time in its Division I era.

Those Double Duties

Terrier Head Coach Richard Johnson was not at practice Tuesday as he spent the day in Hilton Head. It was no vacation, though, as he represented Wofford at a SoCon Athletic Director meeting.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with six of the 12 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers have just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who have played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Mike Lenzly and Lee Nixon have gone back and forth all year in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Lenzly (15.1 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Nixon (15.0 ppg) by virtue of two more points on the season (272-to-270).

Defensive Stops

•Wofford ranks second in the SoCon by limiting its opponents to a 31.2 percentage from 3-point range.

The Terriers are 8-1 when holding their opponents to 64 points or fewer. The lone loss was a 64-49 defeat to South Carolina.

•Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in 1995-96.

The previous low was accomplished in a 55-48 victory over Georgia Southern (Jan. 5, 1998). That contest was also the Terriers' first-ever SoCon win.

From the Charity Stripe

Wofford averages 19.2 trips to the free-throw line in its nine victories compared to 16.6 in the nine losses.

The Terriers are shooting 64.2 percent (111-of-173) at the charity stripe in their wins compared to 63.1 (94-of-149) in the defeats.

Handling the Ball

The Terriers top the SoCon in committing the fewest turnovers per game at 13.1.

Wofford is second in the SoCon in assist/turnover ratio at 1.08 (14.1 assists per game, 13.1 turnovers).

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14). The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School in Greenville, S.C., Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

Myers made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points.

Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup to give Wofford a 73-42 lead with 6:52 remaining. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He later added a free-throw to finish with four points.

A Nailbiting Team

Four of Wofford's six SoCon games have come down to the final second:

- Jan. 2 - Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give Wofford a 66-64 victory at the College of Charleston.

- Jan. 7 - Travis Cantrell of The Citadel misses a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer in regulation that would have won the game for the Bulldogs. The Terriers go on to a 73-64 overtime victory.

- Jan. 12 - College of Charleston's Jeff Bolton hits a 12-foot jump shot with 0.8 seconds left to force overtime before CofC pulls away for a 73-61 win.

- Jan. 14 - Justin Stephens sees his reverse layup fall off the rim as the final buzzer sounds in a 79-77 Terrier loss at Chattanooga.

Freshman Sensation

Wofford guard Justin Stephens is the third-leading scorer among SoCon freshmen with an 11.3 points per game mark.

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with 17 minutes left before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the win.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman (Jan. 5) represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Six of Wofford's losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and members of the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 34-39 record (.466), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-5
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-8
Davidson	2-4
East Tennessee State	0-4
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	6-3
UNC Greensboro	3-1
VMI	2-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	34-39

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the eighth-best record in the league, less than two games out of fifth place. It's a mark made impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	46-9 (.836)
2. Appalachian State	47-23 (.671)
3. Davidson	46-23 (.667)
4. East Tennessee State	38-31 (.551)
5. Chattanooga	34-35 (.493)
6. UNC Greensboro	34-35 (.493)
7. Georgia Southern	33-36 (.478)
8. Wofford	32-36 (.471)
9. The Citadel	28-40 (.412)
10. VMI	24-46 (.343)
11. Furman	23-45 (.338)
12. Western Carolina	22-48 (.314)

1212 vs. 1100

Wofford College boasts a higher SAT average (1212) than enrollment (1100).

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Game 1 -- Memphis 88, Wofford 61 (Guardians Classic)

November 13, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Wofford hung tough with No. 12 Memphis before the Tigers pulled away in the second half in front of a crowd of 13,586, the largest to ever see the Terriers play. Freshman Justin Stephens outplayed heralded Memphis rookie Dajuan Wagner, outscoring the 2001 National High School Player of the Year in addition to posting more assists and fewer turnovers. The Terriers forced Tiger Head Coach John Calipari to burn three first-half timeouts. At different points in the game, Wofford had three freshmen on the court at the same time. Stephens topped all scorers with 19 points while Kenny Hastie had a game-high 12 rebounds, one shy of a career-best.

Game 2 -- Wofford 56, Sacramento St. 46 (Guardians Classic)

November 14, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Mike Lenzly's 4-point play keyed a 19-3 rally over the final 10:52 as Wofford pulled away from Sacramento State for a 56-46 victory at the Guardians Classic. The Terriers held the Hornets without a field goal during an 8:25 stretch. Sacramento State's 46 points represented the lowest point total allowed by Wofford to a Division I team since the Terriers joined those ranks in the 1995-96 campaign. Lenzly topped both teams with 19 points and a career-high 11 rebounds. The 4-point play, just the third in Wofford history, evened the game at 43-43. Lee Nixon also had a chance at a 4-point play during the Terrier run, but he missed the free-throw attempt.

Game 6 -- South Carolina 64, Wofford 49

November 28, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Rolando Howell had 17 points and 10 rebounds while Jamel Bradley added 15 points on five 3-pointers to lead South Carolina to a 64-49 victory over Wofford before a capacity crowd of 3,500 at the Benjamin Johnson Arena in Spartanburg.

The Gamecocks limited the Terriers to 30.4 percent shooting while holding a 39-28 rebounding edge. USC opened the game with an 11-2 run and led by as many as 15 points at 27-12. However, Wofford held USC scoreless the final 5:17 of the first half and trailed just 27-18 at the intermission.

Wofford cut the deficit to six points on two occasions, the last being 35-29 on a Justin Stephens jumper with 14:06 to play. A Lee Nixon basket and a 3-pointer pulled Wofford within 42-34 with 9:59 remaining. Three-pointers by Bradley and Aaron Lucas then keyed a 14-3 run as the Gamecocks pulled away late.

Game 12 -- Georgia Tech 79, Wofford 70 December 21, 2001 Atlanta, Ga.

The Wofford basketball team built an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech before dropping a 79-70 decision.

After the Yellow Jackets scored the game's opening four points, Wofford stormed back to take its largest lead of the afternoon at 29-17 when Mike Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers just 23 seconds apart with 8:10 left in the first half. Lenzly finished the game with 22 points, seven assists, and six rebounds.

The Yellow Jackets closed to within 35-32 at the intermission when B.J. Elders knocked in a 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The Terriers came out strong in the second half. A 3-pointer by Grant Sterley and a pair of Lenzly free-throws built the Wofford lead back to 45-34 with 17:05 to play. However, Georgia Tech's press sparked a 24-5 run. In the middle of the spurt was a 3-pointer by Halston Lane to give the Yellow Jackets the lead for good at 51-50 with 9:42 remaining.

With Georgia Tech on top 58-50, the Terriers countered with two Kenny Hastie free-throws and a Lee Nixon layup to close within 58-54 with 7:31 left. Nixon topped Wofford with 24 points and a team-high and career-best seven rebounds.

However, a 3-pointer by Elder began a run of 11 straight Yellow Jacket points to put Georgia Tech in control at 69-54 with 3:38 remaining.

Game 13 -- Wofford 66, College of Charleston 64 January 2, 2002 Charleston, S.C.

Lee Nixon tied the game at 62-62 on a slashing floater with 57 seconds left. Charleston's Jeff Bolton then missed a shot in the lane, Mike Lenzly grabbed the rebound and went the length of the court for a layup to give Wofford a 64-62 lead with 18 seconds left. Charleston's Shannon Chambers hit a pair of free throws with 10.8 seconds remaining to tie the game at 64-64.

On the final possession, Lenzly again brought the ball downcourt and found Masic open on the baseline for the game-winner.

Charleston shot 57.1 percent in the first half and took a 32-24 lead at the intermission. The Terriers controlled the second half, outscoring CofC 42-32 and hitting on 53.3 percent of their shots.

Charleston stretched its lead to 10 points at 34-24 with 19 minutes left on a dunk by Mike Benton.

Nixon's 3-pointer with 13:58 left capped a 12-2 Wofford run and tied the game at 36-36. Nixon finished with a game-high 25 points, including 21 in the second half.

With 3:50 to play, Justin Stephens made an alley-oop pass to Nixon who converted it into a spectacular reverse dunk while being fouled on the play. His subsequent free-throw tied the game at 58-58 and gave the Terriers momentum down the stretch.

Lenzly finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds, the fourth double-double on the year for the Terrier point guard.

Game 17 -- Chattanooga 79, Wofford 77

January 14, 2002

Chattanooga, Tenn.

Wofford dropped its second straight heartbreaker as a tough night at the free-throw line resulted in a 79-77 defeat at Chattanooga.

The Terriers missed an opportunity to force overtime at the final buzzer when a reverse layup attempt by Justin Stephens hung on the rim before falling out.

The see-saw game had 21 lead changes and 11 ties.

Wofford was just 20-of-35 (57.1 percent) at the charity stripe, including 13-of-24 (54.2 percent) in the second half.

Trailing 73-70 with 2:07 to play, the Terriers took a 76-73 lead with 57 seconds remaining when Lee Nixon and Grant Sterley hit back-to-back 3-pointers. Nixon topped both teams with 27 points for the second-best game of his Wofford career.

After a Tim Parker bucket pulled the Mocs within 76-75 at the 49-second mark, Nixon had a short jumper go in-and-out with 32 seconds left. Parker then hit the go-ahead basket for Chattanooga with 14 ticks remaining to put the Mocs on top 77-76.

Following a Wofford turnover, Petie Spaulding was fouled with eight seconds remaining and made both free-throws to give UTC a 79-76 lead. Stephens hit one of two free-throws with 7.4 seconds left to pull Wofford within 79-77.

UTC then had a chance to ice the game at the line, but Parker missed both attempts. Mike Lenzly grabbed the defensive board and fed Stephens who raced down the court, but his layup attempt missed and Chattanooga kept its home record perfect at 9-0.

Attached are .pdf files with updated Wofford basketball notes and stats for tomorrow's 7 p.m. home game with defending SoCon champion UNC Greensboro.

Since the Terriers and Spartans both began SoCon play in the 1997-98 season, Wofford has won three of four meetings between the teams. UNCG's victory was an 80-56 decision last year in Greensboro.

Wofford is 7-2 at home this season. Following the UNCG contest, the Terriers return to the road with a Wednesday contest at North Division leader Davidson.

Terrier point guard Mike Lenzy is tied for the SoCon lead with five double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists. He has played all but one minute in the Terriers' seven SoCon games.

Lenzy tops the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 19 rejections in 19 games.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Jan. 26, 2002, vs. UNC Greensboro, Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500), Spartanburg, S.C.; 7 p.m.

The Game

After three consecutive road games, the Wofford basketball team (9-10, 3-4) returns home for the first time in two weeks when it hosts defending SoCon champion UNC Greensboro (11-7, 4-3).

Since the Terriers and Spartans both began SoCon play in the 1997-98 season, Wofford has won three of four meetings between the teams. UNCG's lone victory was an 80-56 decision last year in Greensboro.

Wofford is 7-2 at home this season. Following the UNCG contest, the Terriers return to the road with a Wednesday contest at North Division leader Davidson (13-5, 6-1).

Worth Noting

- Point guard Mike Lenzly is tied for the SoCon lead with five double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists. He has played all but one minute in the Terriers' seven SoCon games.

- Lenzly tops the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 19 rejections in 19 games.

- Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

Meet The Head Coach

- Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of this season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fifth in winning percentage with a 234-222 mark (.513). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Battles

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford is among "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Gonzaga, Western Kentucky, and Bowling Green are the top three-ranked teams.

Where Are They Now?

All four of last year's Wofford seniors earned their degrees. Listed below are their current situations:

- Brandon Boyce is in medical school at the Medical College of Georgia.

- Ian Chadwick is pursuing professional basketball with Europe his likely destination.

- Bishop Ravenel is in law school at the University of Richmond.

- Terenthial White is a financial analyst with Advance America in Spartanburg.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October.

Lethal Weapon 3

- Wofford's three-guard tandem of Mike Lenzly (14.9 ppg), Lee Nixon (14.8 ppg), and Justin Stephens (11.2 ppg) averages 40.9 points per game, representing 59.3 percent of Wofford's season mark (69.0 points).

- Lenzly (46), Nixon (35), and Stephens (20) have also combined for 101 of Wofford's 137 3-pointers this year (73.7 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continued when it came to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the nation for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Triple-Doubles

Mike Lenzly has already flirted four times with his second career triple-double:

Opponent	Stats
Chattanooga (Jan. 14)	17 pts., 7 reb., 6 asst.
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

Mike Lenzly

The Only One...

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (14.9 ppg), rebounding (7.1 rpg), and assists (4.1 apg).

and a Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and eighth in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 7.1 boards per game.

The 6-foot-3 point guard is also seventh in the SoCon with 2.7 of offensive rebounds each contest.

- Lenzly leads the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 19 rejections in 19 games. He tied a single-game school record with five blocks in the 73-64 victory over The Citadel.

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Packing Them In

In SoCon games only, Wofford ranks third in the league in home attendance with an average of 3,058 fans through three dates.

Overall, the Terriers are sixth in home attendance this season (1,789 per game).

Same Five

Wofford has had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Grant Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in each game this season.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

Mike Young
Associate Head Coach

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzly has played all but one minute in Wofford's seven SoCon games, including 45 in back-to-back overtime contests against The Citadel and College of Charleston.

Lenzly's only time on the bench since SoCon play began was a one-minute break in the first half at ETSU.

The Ironman Speaks

On playing 289 out of a possible 290 minutes in SoCon play, Mike Lenzly said, "It's no big deal. Practice is two hours. A game is only 40 minutes."

Streak Over

Listed below are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2).

Dating back to last season, each of the last four games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession in regulation.

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at that time.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

- The Terriers (3-4) are tied for fourth in the South Division this year after being a consensus sixth-place pick.

- Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has surprised the SoCon in three of its first four seasons in the league.

Wofford placed third in the South in 1999-00 after being a fourth-place pick.

The Terriers were third in the South in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

Wofford had just three "double-doubles" last season but has already seen seven recorded this year:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 11 reb.	ETSU (Jan. 23)
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Quick Starts

Wofford opened this season with a 9-6 record for its best start to a campaign in seven years of Division I play.

The Terriers open each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

Following a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel (Jan. 7), Wofford was three games above the .500 mark for the first time in its Division I era.

Those Double Duties

Terrier Head Coach Richard Johnson was not at practice Tuesday as he spent the day in Hilton Head. It was no vacation, though. He was representing Wofford at a SoCon Athletic Directors meeting.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with six of the 12 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers have just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who have played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Mike Lenzly and Lee Nixon have gone back and forth all year in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Lenzly (14.9 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Nixon (14.8 ppg) by virtue of two more points on the season (284-to-282).

Defensive Stops

•Wofford ranks second in the SoCon by limiting its opponents to a 30.7 percentage from 3-point range.

The Terriers are 8-1 when holding their opponents to 64 points or fewer. The lone loss was a 64-49 defeat to South Carolina.

•Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in 1995-96.

The previous low was accomplished in a 55-48 victory over Georgia Southern (Jan. 5, 1998). That contest was also the Terriers' first-ever SoCon win.

From the Charity Stripe

Wofford averages 19.2 trips to the free-throw line in its nine victories compared to 15.9 in the 10 losses.

The Terriers are shooting 64.2 percent (111-of-173) at the charity stripe in their wins compared to 63.5 (101-of-159) in the defeats.

Handling the Ball

The Terriers top the SoCon in committing the fewest turnovers per game at 13.2.

Wofford is second in the SoCon in assist/turnover ratio at 1.06 (14.1 assists per game, 13.2 turnovers).

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14). The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

WOFFORD VS. UNC GREENSBORO

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Inter mont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School in Greenville, S.C., Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

Myers made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points.

Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup to give Wofford a 73-42 lead with 6:52 remaining. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He later added a free-throw to finish with four points.

A Nailbiting Team

Four of Wofford's seven SoCon games have come down to the final second:

- Jan. 2 - Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give Wofford a 66-64 victory at the College of Charleston.

- Jan. 7 - Travis Cantrell of The Citadel misses a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer in regulation that would have won the game for the Bulldogs. The Terriers go on to a 73-64 overtime victory.

- Jan. 12 - College of Charleston's Jeff Bolton hits a 12-foot jump shot with 0.8 seconds left to force overtime before CofC pulls away for a 73-61 win.

- Jan. 14 - Justin Stephens sees his reverse layup fall off the rim as the final buzzer sounds in a 79-77 Terrier loss at Chattanooga.

Freshman Sensation

Wofford guard Justin Stephens is the third-leading scorer among SoCon freshmen with an 11.2 points per game mark.

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with 17 minutes left before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the win.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman (Jan. 5) represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Six of Wofford's losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and members of the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 34-40 record (.459), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-5
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-8
Davidson	2-4
East Tennessee State	0-5
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	6-3
UNC Greensboro	3-1
VMI	2-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	34-40

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the eighth-best record in the league, just two games out of fifth place. It's a mark made impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	46-9 (.836)
2. Appalachian State	47-23 (.671)
3. Davidson	47-23 (.671)
4. East Tennessee State	39-31 (.557)
5. Chattanooga	34-35 (.493)
6. UNC Greensboro	34-36 (.486)
7. Georgia Southern	33-36 (.478)
8. Wofford	32-37 (.464)
9. The Citadel	28-40 (.412)
10. VMI	24-46 (.343)
11. Furman	23-45 (.338)
12. Western Carolina	22-48 (.314)

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Game 4 -- Clemson 85, Wofford 82 November 24, 2001 Clemson, S.C.

Wofford built an 11-point halftime lead before seeing Clemson rally and then hold off a late Terrier charge in an 85-82 Tiger victory at Littlejohn Coliseum.

Lee Nixon scored a game-high 25 points while Mike Lenzy added 20, including six 3-pointers, and freshman Justin Stephens scored 18 to pace a Wofford attack that saw the Terriers hit 15-of-32 3-pointers (46.9 percent).

Wofford's biggest margin of the night came when Lenzy scored on a layup to give the Terriers a 41-27 lead with 3:02 left in the first half. It capped a 26-9 Wofford run.

Clemson's size advantage inside began to wear Wofford down in the second half. A Chey Christie layup allowed the Tigers to regain the lead at 61-60 with 10:04 to play. After a long 3-pointer from the wing by Nixon tied the game at 67-67 with 7:58 remaining, Clemson went on a 12-4 run to take its largest lead of the night at 79-71 on a Ray Henderson 3-point play with 1:38 left.

However, Wofford chipped away at the deficit. Another deep three by Nixon pulled the Terriers within 81-79 with 55 seconds to play. After Clemson's Chris Hobbs missed a layup on the other end, Wofford came down the court trailing by two with 34 seconds remaining. Dwon Clifton then made a key steal for Clemson, setting the stage for a pair of Ed Scott free-throws which gave the Tigers an 83-79 lead with 24 seconds remaining.

Nixon hit an off-balance bank shot from the top of the key to pull Wofford within 83-82 with seven seconds to play. Christie was then fouled and hit a pair of free-throws to provide the final margin of 85-82 with six seconds left. Wofford had a last chance to force overtime, but Lenzy missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer.

Kenny Hastie equaled a career-high with 13 rebounds, the third time in four games he reached double figures in boards.

The Terriers shot 45.7 percent on the night after a 54.5 mark in the first half. The Tigers shot 57.6 percent in the second half to finish at 52.3.

Game 17 -- Chattanooga 79, Wofford 77

January 14, 2002

Chattanooga, Tenn.

Wofford dropped its second straight heartbreaker as a tough night at the free-throw line resulted in a 79-77 defeat at Chattanooga.

The Terriers missed an opportunity to force overtime at the final buzzer when a reverse layup attempt by Justin Stephens hung on the rim before falling out.

The see-saw game had 21 lead changes and 11 ties.

Wofford was just 20-of-35 (57.1 percent) at the charity stripe, including 13-of-24 (54.2 percent) in the second half.

Trailing 73-70 with 2:07 to play, the Terriers took a 76-73 lead with 57 seconds remaining when Lee Nixon and Grant Sterley hit back-to-back 3-pointers. Nixon topped both teams with 27 points for the second-best game of his Wofford career.

After a Tim Parker bucket pulled the Mocs within 76-75 at the 49-second mark, Nixon had a short jumper go in-and-out with 32 seconds left. Parker then hit the go-ahead basket for Chattanooga with 14 ticks remaining to put the Mocs on top 77-76.

Following a Wofford turnover, Petie Spaulding was fouled with eight seconds remaining and made both free-throws to give UTC a 79-76 lead. Stephens hit one of two free-throws with 7.4 seconds left to pull Wofford within 79-77.

UTC then had a chance to ice the game at the line, but Parker missed both attempts. Mike Lenzly grabbed the defensive board and fed Stephens who raced down the court, but his layup attempt missed and Chattanooga kept its home record perfect at 9-0.

Game 18 -- Georgia Southern 86, Wofford 73

January 19, 2002

Statesboro, Ga.

A late Wofford rally fell short in an 86-73 loss at Georgia Southern. The Terriers trailed by 20 points with 13:15 to play before closing within 74-67 on a pair of Justin Stephens free-throws with 3:33 remaining. The Eagles then sealed the game at the free-throw line. Stephens finished with a career-high 22 points. The Terriers were victimized by 21 turnovers after entering the game leading the SoCon with an average of just 12.6 turnovers per contest.

Game 19 -- East Tennessee State 71, Wofford 58

January 23, 2002

Johnson City, Tenn.

The Terriers went scoreless for six minutes down the stretch as East Tennessee State pulled away for a 71-58 victory.

Wofford trailed just 50-47 when Mike Lenzly scored on a layup with 9:59 to play. However, the Terriers wouldn't score again until 3:59 remained on a Grant Sterley layup that cut the deficit to 60-49.

Sterley scored 14 of his career-high 17 points in the second half. Lenzly posted his SoCon-leading fifth double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds. He did sit out a minute to end his streak of six consecutive games in which he played the entire length of the contest.

Wofford was outrebounded 43-27, including 17-10 on the offensive end.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Feb. 9, 2002, vs. Georgia Southern, Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500), Spartanburg, S.C.; 7 p.m.

The Game

The Wofford basketball team closes a three-game homestand when it hosts Georgia Southern.

The Terriers will be looking to avenge an 86-73 loss to the Eagles on Jan. 19 in Statesboro, Ga. Freshman Justin Stephens topped Wofford that afternoon with a career-high 22 points.

Wofford will again be without the services of starting forward Grant Sterley, sidelined at least another week by a torn meniscus in his right knee.

Worth Noting

•Point guard Mike Lenzly is tied for third in the SoCon with six double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player in the league to rank in the Top 12 in scoring, rebounding, and assists.

•Justin Stephens places third among SoCon freshmen in scoring (11.4 ppg). He has at least 20 points in three of the last nine games.

•Lee Nixon tops the Terriers and ranks 11th in the SoCon in scoring (14.7 ppg).

•Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

Meet The Head Coach

•Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of the season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fifth in winning percentage with a 235-225 mark (.511). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Battles

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford was recently listed for two weeks under "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October and is currently undergoing law school interviews.

Due to a family emergency, he had to cancel a scheduled interview at Duke on Jan. 25.

Hastie did interview at the University of South Carolina Law School on Jan. 31, the morning after posting a career-best 15 rebounds at Davidson.

Among The Best

Wofford guards Lee Nixon (14.7 ppg) and Mike Lenzly (14.6 ppg) rank 11th and 12th, respectively, in the Southern Conference scoring race.

Lethal Weapon 3

- Wofford's three-guard tandem of Lee Nixon (14.7 ppg), Mike Lenzly (14.6 ppg), and Justin Stephens (11.4 ppg) averages 40.7 points per game, representing 59.6 percent of Wofford's season mark (68.3 points).

- Lenzly (51), Nixon (38), and Stephens (23) have also combined for 112 of Wofford's 152 3-pointers (73.7 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continued this season when it came to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the nation for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Triple-Doubles

Mike Lenzly has flirted four times this season with his second career triple-double:

Opponent	Stats
Chattanooga (Jan. 14)	17 pts., 7 reb., 6 asst.
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

Mike Lenzly

The Only One...

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 12 in scoring (14.6 ppg), rebounding (6.8 rpg), and assists (3.7 apg).

and a Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and 10th in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 6.8 boards per game.

- Lenzly leads the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 20 rejections in 23 games (0.9 per contest). He tied a single-game school record with five blocks in the 73-64 victory over The Citadel.

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial-Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O.	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Keys to Victories

Wofford shoots 45.3 percent from the field, including 36.3 from 3-point range, in its victories this season. The Terriers are at a 37.4 clip (28.3 behind the arc) in their defeats.

Wofford also averages 42.6 rebounds in its wins compared to 32.0 in the losses.

Same Five

Prior to Grant Sterley's injury, Wofford had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in its opening 20 games.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

Mike Young
Associate Head Coach

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Women Beware

Wofford assistant coach Alex Peavey has been named by www.collegeinsider.com as one of the "50 Most Eligible Bachelors" in the Division I coaching ranks.

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzly has played the entire game, including two overtime contests, in seven of Wofford's 11 SoCon games. On two occasions, he played 39 minutes.

Lenzly was limited to 23 minutes against Chattanooga (Feb. 4) due to an eye injury.

The Ironman Speaks

On frequently playing the entire game, Mike Lenzly said, "It's no big deal. Practice is two hours. A game is only 40 minutes."

Streak Over

Listed below are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2).

Dating back to last season, each of the last four games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession in regulation.

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at that time.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

- A consensus sixth-place pick, the Terriers are currently tied for fifth in the South Division and just two games out of third.

- Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has already surprised the SoCon in three of its first four seasons in the league.

- Wofford placed third in the South in 1999-00 after being a fourth-place pick.

- The Terriers were third in the South in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

- Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

The Terriers have already seen eight double-doubles recorded this season after posting just three last year. Wofford is 6-1 in games in which a Terrier posts a double-double:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	17 pts., 14 reb.	VMI (Feb. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 11 reb.	ETSU (Jan. 23)
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Freshman Sensation

Wofford guard Justin Stephens is the third-leading scorer among SoCon freshmen with an 11.4 points per game mark, including 12.5 in league games.

The 6-foot-2 native of Newnan, Ga., has scored at least 20 points in three of the last nine games.

Sterley Sidelined

Wofford starting forward Grant Sterley has sat out the last three games and is sidelined for at least another week after suffering a torn meniscus in his right knee against UNC Greensboro (Jan. 26).

Sterley had already hit a pair of 3-pointers and grabbed two rebounds in his 13 minutes of action against the Spartans.

Prior to the injury, Sterley was playing the best basketball of his Wofford career. He had averaged 9.7 points and 5.5 rebounds in the previous six games, including a career-best 17 points at ETSU (Jan. 23).

Quick Starts

Wofford opened this season with a 9-6 record for its best start to a campaign in seven years of Division I play.

The Terriers open each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

Following a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel (Jan. 7), Wofford was three games above .500 for the first time in Division I.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with six of the 12 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers entered the campaign with just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who had played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Lee Nixon and Mike Lenzly, the SoCon's 11th and 12th-leading scorers, have gone back and forth all year in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Nixon (14.7 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Lenzly (14.6 ppg) by virtue of three more points on the season (338-to-335).

Defensive Stops

•Wofford tops the SoCon by limiting its opponents to a 31.5 shooting percentage from 3-point range.

•Wofford is also fifth in the league in scoring defense, limiting the opposition to 68.3 points per game.

•The Terriers are 8-1 when holding their opponents to 64 points or fewer. The lone loss was a 64-49 defeat to South Carolina.

•Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in 1995-96.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14). The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

A Nailbiting Team

Five of Wofford's 11 SoCon games have come down to the final three seconds:

- Jan. 2 - Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give Wofford a 66-64 victory at the College of Charleston.

- Jan. 7 - Travis Cantrell of The Citadel misses a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer in regulation that would have won the game for the Bulldogs. The Terriers go on to a 73-64 overtime victory.

- Jan. 12 - College of Charleston's Jeff Bolton hits a 12-foot jump shot with 0.8 seconds left to force overtime before CofC pulls away for a 73-61 win.

- Jan. 14 - Justin Stephens sees his reverse layup fall off the rim as the final buzzer sounds in a 79-77 Terrier loss at Chattanooga.

- Jan. 26 - Mike Lenzly misses a 3-pointer with three seconds left that would have tied the UNC Greensboro game. The Terriers drop an 81-76 decision.

Handling the Ball

The Terriers top the SoCon in committing the fewest turnovers per game (13.3), including a season-low seven in Monday's game against Chattanooga.

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School, Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

He made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points.

Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He later added a free-throw to finish with four points.

Johnson at Wofford

The following charts show where Head Coach Richard Johnson ranks all-time at Wofford in victories and winning percentage:

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with 17 minutes left before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the win.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman (Jan. 5) represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Six of Wofford's losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and members of the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 35-43 record (.449), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-6
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-8
Davidson	2-5
East Tennessee State	0-5
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	6-3
UNC Greensboro	3-2
VMI	3-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	35-43

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the eighth-best record in the league, just five games out of fifth place. It's a mark made impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	47-12 (.797)
2. Davidson	50-24 (.676)
3. Appalachian State	49-25 (.662)

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

W OFFORD VS. GEORGIA SOUTHERN

Game 1 -- Memphis 88, Wofford 61 (Guardians Classic) November 13, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Wofford hung tough with No. 12 Memphis before the Tigers pulled away in the second half in front of a crowd of 13,586, the largest to ever see the Terriers play. Freshman Justin Stephens outplayed heralded Memphis rookie Dajuan Wagner, outscoring the 2001 National High School Player of the Year in addition to posting more assists and fewer turnovers. The Terriers forced Tiger Head Coach John Calipari to burn three first-half timeouts. At different points in the game, Wofford had three freshmen on the court at the same time. Stephens topped all scorers with 19 points while Kenny Hastie had a game-high 12 rebounds, one shy of a career-best.

Game 2 -- Wofford 56, Sacramento St. 46 (Guardians Classic) November 14, 2001

Memphis, Tenn.

Mike Lenzly's 4-point play keyed a 19-3 rally over the final 10:52 as Wofford pulled away from Sacramento State for a 56-46 victory at the Guardians Classic. The Terriers held the Hornets without a field goal during an 8:25 stretch. Sacramento State's 46 points represented the lowest point total allowed by Wofford to a Division I team since the Terriers joined those ranks in the 1995-96 campaign. Lenzly topped both teams with 19 points and a career-high 11 rebounds. The 4-point play, just the third in Wofford history, evened the game at 43-43. Lee Nixon also had a chance at a 4-point play during the Terrier run, but he missed the free-throw attempt.

Game 3 -- Wofford 94, Toccoa Falls 42

November 17, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Freshman Sam Daniels posted his first collegiate double-double with 14 points and 14 rebounds as Wofford rolled to a 94-42 victory in its home opener. The Terriers went on a 32-2 first-half run to put the game away early and build a 49-19 halftime lead. Fellow newcomers Adrian Borders and Justin Stephens also reached double figures with 13 points each. All 11 Wofford players who dressed for the game played at least 16 minutes.

Game 6 -- South Carolina 64, Wofford 49

November 28, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Rolando Howell had 17 points and 10 rebounds while Jamel Bradley added 15 points on five 3-pointers to lead South Carolina to a 64-49 victory over Wofford before a capacity crowd of 3,500 at the Benjamin Johnson Arena in Spartanburg.

The Gamecocks limited the Terriers to 30.4 percent shooting while holding a 39-28 rebounding edge. USC opened the game with an 11-2 run and led by as many as 15 points at 27-12. However, Wofford held USC scoreless the final 5:17 of the first half and trailed just 27-18 at the intermission.

Wofford cut the deficit to six points on two occasions, the last being 35-29 on a Justin Stephens jumper with 14:06 to play. A Lee Nixon basket and a 3-pointer pulled Wofford within 42-34 with 9:59 remaining. Three-pointers by Bradley and Aaron Lucas then keyed a 14-3 run as the Gamecocks pulled away late.

WOFFORD VS. GEORGIA SOUTHERN

Game 12 -- Georgia Tech 79, Wofford 70 December 21, 2001 Atlanta, Ga.

The Wofford basketball team built an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech before dropping a 79-70 decision.

After the Yellow Jackets scored the game's opening four points, Wofford stormed back to take its largest lead of the afternoon at 29-17 when Mike Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers just 23 seconds apart with 8:10 left in the first half. Lenzly finished the game with 22 points, seven assists, and six rebounds.

The Yellow Jackets closed to within 35-32 at the intermission when B.J. Elders knocked in a 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The Terriers came out strong in the second half. A 3-pointer by Grant Sterley and a pair of Lenzly free-throws built the Wofford lead back to 45-34 with 17:05 to play. However, Georgia Tech's press sparked a 24-5 run. In the middle of the spurt was a 3-pointer by Halston Lane to give the Yellow Jackets the lead for good at 51-50 with 9:42 remaining.

With Georgia Tech on top 58-50, the Terriers countered with two Kenny Hastie free-throws and a Lee Nixon layup to close within 58-54 with 7:31 left. Nixon topped Wofford with 24 points and a team-high and career-best seven rebounds.

However, a 3-pointer by Elder began a run of 11 straight Yellow Jacket points to put Georgia Tech in control at 69-54 with 3:38 remaining.

Game 13 -- Wofford 66, College of Charleston 64 January 2, 2002 Charleston, S.C.

Lee Nixon tied the game at 62-62 on a slashing floater with 57 seconds left. Charleston's Jeff Bolton then missed a shot in the lane, Mike Lenzly grabbed the rebound and went the length of the court for a layup to give Wofford a 64-62 lead with 18 seconds left. Charleston's Shannon Chambers hit a pair of free throws with 10.8 seconds remaining to tie the game at 64-64.

On the final possession, Lenzly again brought the ball downcourt and found Masic open on the baseline for the game-winner.

Charleston shot 57.1 percent in the first half and took a 32-24 lead at the intermission. The Terriers controlled the second half, outscoring CoFC 42-32 and hitting on 53.3 percent of their shots.

Charleston stretched its lead to 10 points at 34-24 with 19 minutes left on a dunk by Mike Benton.

Nixon's 3-pointer with 13:58 left capped a 12-2 Wofford run and tied the game at 36-36. Nixon finished with a game-high 25 points, including 21 in the second half.

With 3:50 to play, Justin Stephens made an alley-oop pass to Nixon who converted it into a spectacular reverse dunk while being fouled on the play. His subsequent free-throw tied the game at 58-58 and gave the Terriers momentum down the stretch.

Lenzly finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds, the fourth double-double on the year for the Terrier point guard.

WOFFORD VS. GEORGIA SOUTHERN

Game 17 -- Chattanooga 79, Wofford 77

January 14, 2002

Chattanooga, Tenn.

Wofford dropped its second straight heartbreaker as a tough night at the free-throw line resulted in a 79-77 defeat at Chattanooga.

The Terriers missed an opportunity to force overtime at the final buzzer when a reverse layup attempt by Justin Stephens hung on the rim before falling out.

The see-saw game had 21 lead changes and 11 ties.

Wofford was just 20-of-35 (57.1 percent) at the charity stripe, including 13-of-24 (54.2 percent) in the second half.

Trailing 73-70 with 2:07 to play, the Terriers took a 76-73 lead with 57 seconds remaining when Lee Nixon and Grant Sterley hit back-to-back 3-pointers. Nixon topped both teams with 27 points for the second-best game of his Wofford career.

After a Tim Parker bucket pulled the Mocs within 76-75 at the 49-second mark, Nixon had a short jumper go in-and-out with 32 seconds left. Parker then hit the go-ahead basket for Chattanooga with 14 ticks remaining to put the Mocs on top 77-76.

Following a Wofford turnover, Petie Spaulding was fouled with eight seconds remaining and made both free-throws to give UTC a 79-76 lead. Stephens hit one of two free-throws with 7.4 seconds left to pull Wofford within 79-77.

UTC then had a chance to ice the game at the line, but Parker missed both attempts. Mike Lenzly grabbed the defensive board and fed Stephens who raced down the court, but his layup attempt missed and Chattanooga kept its home record perfect at 9-0.

Game 18 -- Georgia Southern 86, Wofford 73

January 19, 2002

Statesboro, Ga.

A late Wofford rally fell short in an 86-73 loss at Georgia Southern. The Terriers trailed by 20 points with 13:15 to play before closing within 74-67 on a pair of Justin Stephens free-throws with 3:33 remaining. The Eagles then sealed the game at the free-throw line. Stephens finished with a career-high 22 points. The Terriers were victimized by 21 turnovers after entering the game leading the SoCon with an average of just 12.6 turnovers per contest.

Game 19 -- East Tennessee State 71, Wofford 58

January 23, 2002

Johnson City, Tenn.

The Terriers went scoreless for six minutes down the stretch as East Tennessee State pulled away for a 71-58 victory.

Wofford trailed just 50-47 when Mike Lenzly scored on a layup with 9:59 to play. However, the Terriers wouldn't score again until 3:59 remained on a Grant Sterley layup that cut the deficit to 60-49.

Sterley scored 14 of his career-high 17 points in the second half. Lenzly posted his SoCon-leading fifth double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds. He did sit out a minute to end his streak of six consecutive games in which he played the entire length of the contest.

Wofford was outrebounded 43-27, including 17-10 on the offensive end.

Game 20 -- UNC Greensboro 81, Wofford 76

January 26, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

David Schuck had a career-high 24 points to go with eight rebounds as defending SoCon champion UNC Greensboro held off a gutsy Wofford effort for an 81-76 victory.

The Terriers were plagued by foul trouble and lost starting forward Grant Sterley after just 13 minutes to a knee injury. Wofford played stretches of the second half with four freshmen on the court.

In a game that featured 10 ties and 11 lead changes, Sam Daniels hit a 3-pointer to even the contest at 76-76 with 49 seconds to play. After Courtney Eldridge scored on a layup to give the Spartans a 78-76 lead with 39 seconds left, a Terrier turnover led to an Eldridge free-throw to extend the Spartan lead to 79-76 with 14 seconds remaining.

Wofford had a chance to force overtime but Mike Lenzly missed a 3-point attempt from the top of the key with three seconds to play.

Terrier freshman Jeff Tarr and Edmond Davis, who played a combined three minutes in the seven previous SoCon games, were on the court during critical stages of the second half.

Justin Stephens topped Wofford with 20 points, the third time in the last six games that he scored at least 20.

Game 21 -- Davidson 72, Wofford 61

January 30, 2002

Davidson, N.C.

Playing his first game without injured starting forward Grant Sterley, Wofford hung tough before Davidson pulled away for a 72-61 victory.

Lee Nixon had 20 of his game-high 26 points in the first half as the Terriers built a 36-32 lead. The Wofford lead was extended to 42-36 with 17:07 left on a Kenny Hastie layup. Hastie added a career-high 15 rebounds while playing just 25 minutes due to foul trouble. With all its post players plagued by fouls, Wofford used a four-guard lineup.

Davidson took the lead for good on a Peter Anderer 3-pointer with 11:16 left. Wofford trailed by just five at 63-58 on a pair of Adrian Borders free-throws with 4:16 remaining. The margin was still only five until Davidson pulled away at the line in the final two minutes.

Game 22 -- Wofford 78, VMI 68

February 2, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

Mike Lenzly posted his sixth double-double of the season with 17 points and 14 rebounds to lead Wofford to a 78-68 win over VMI.

The Terriers broke the game open midway through the first half with an 11-2 run, keyed by Sam Daniels' five points, to take a 28-16 lead with 8:42 to play before intermission. Wofford led by double figures the rest of the way until VMI closed within nine with 1:28 left.

Kenny Hastie had 12 boards for his second straight double-figure rebounding game.

Game 23 -- Chattanooga 70, Wofford 45

February 4, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

After dropping a thriller three weeks earlier at Chattanooga, the Terriers struggled from the field in the rematch against the Mocs in dropping a 70-45 decision.

The first meeting with Chattanooga (Jan. 14) saw Wofford miss a chance to force overtime when a Justin Stephens reverse layup attempt at the final buzzer hung on the rim before falling out in a 79-77 loss.

The second meeting with the Mocs got away in the opening minutes. After the game was tied 4-4, Chattanooga scored the next 10 points with Wofford unable to draw closer than eight the remainder of the contest.

The Terriers committed a season-low seven turnovers on the night.

Attached are .pdf files with Wofford men's basketball notes and stats for tonight's 7 p.m. home game with Chattanooga.

The Terriers will be looking to avenge a 79-77 defeat to the Mocs on Jan. 14 in Chattanooga. A Grant Sterley 3-pointer with 57 seconds to play gave Wofford a 76-73 lead before Chattanooga rallied. The Terriers nearly forced overtime when a Justin Stephens reverse layup attempt hung on the rim and fell off at the final buzzer.

Since Wofford began SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, the home team has won all nine meetings in the series with Chattanooga.

A few items of note:

- Point guard Mike Lenzly is third in the SoCon with six double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player in the league to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists.
- Justin Stephens places third among SoCon freshmen in scoring (11.4 ppg). He has at least 20 points in three of the last eight games. He averages 12.4 points in SoCon play.
- Lee Nixon, the SoCon's 10th-leading scorer (15.1 ppg), had 27 points in the first meeting with Chattanooga this season.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Feb. 4, 2002, vs. Chattanooga, Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500), Spartanburg, S.C.; 7 p.m.

The Game

The Wofford basketball team continues its three-game homestand when it hosts Chattanooga.

The Terriers will be looking to avenge a 79-77 defeat to the Mocs on Jan. 14 in Chattanooga. A Grant Sterley 3-pointer with 57 seconds to play gave Wofford a 76-73 lead before Chattanooga rallied. The Terriers nearly forced overtime when a Justin Stephens reverse layup attempt hung on the rim and fell off at the final buzzer.

Since Wofford began SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, the home team has won all nine meetings in the series with Chattanooga.

Worth Noting

- Point guard Mike Lenzy is third in the SoCon with six double-doubles (points and rebounds) and is the only player in the league to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists.

- Justin Stephens places third among SoCon freshmen in scoring (11.4 ppg). He has at least 20 points in three of the last eight games.

- Lee Nixon, the SoCon's 10th-leading scorer (15.1 ppg), had 27 points in the first meeting with Chattanooga this season.

- Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

Meet The Head Coach

- Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of the season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fifth in winning percentage with a 235-224 mark (.512). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Battles

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford was recently listed for two weeks under "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October and is currently undergoing law school interviews.

Due to a family emergency, he had to cancel a scheduled interview at Duke on Jan. 25.

Hastie did interview at the University of South Carolina Law School on Jan. 31, the morning after posting a career-best 15 rebounds at Davidson.

Among The Best

Wofford guards Mike Lenzly (15.14 ppg) and Lee Nixon (15.09 ppg) rank eighth and ninth, respectively, in the Southern Conference scoring race.

Lethal Weapon 3

- Wofford's three-guard tandem of Mike Lenzly (15.1 ppg), Lee Nixon (15.1 ppg), and Justin Stephens (11.4 ppg) averages 41.6 points per game, representing 59.9 percent of Wofford's season mark (69.4 points).

- Lenzly (51), Nixon (38), and Stephens (22) have also combined for 111 of Wofford's 150 3-pointers (74.0 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continued this season when it came to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the nation for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Triple-Doubles

Mike Lenzly has already flirted four times with his second career triple-double:

Opponent	Stats
Chattanooga (Jan. 14)	17 pts., 7 reb., 6 asst.
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

Mike Lenzly

The Only One...

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (15.1 ppg), rebounding (7.0 rpg), and assists (3.9 apg).

and a Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and 10th in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 7.0 boards per game.

- Lenzly leads the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 19 rejections in 22 games (0.9 per contest). He tied a single-game school record with five blocks in the 73-64 victory over The Citadel.

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Packing Them In

Wofford ranks sixth in the league in home attendance for SoCon games only with an average of 2,533 fans, just behind Appalachian State (2,580) for fifth.

Same Five

Prior to Grant Sterley's injury, Wofford had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in its opening 20 games.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

*Mike Young
Associate Head Coach*

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Women Beware

Wofford assistant coach Alex Peavey has been named by www.collegeinsider.com as one of the "50 Most Eligible Bachelors" in the Division I coaching ranks.

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzly has played the entire game, including two overtime contests, in seven of Wofford's 10 SoCon games. On two occasions, he played 39 minutes.

Lenzly has played 401 out of a possible 410 minutes in SoCon play this season.

The Ironman Speaks

On frequently playing the entire game, Mike Lenzly said, "It's no big deal. Practice is two hours. A game is only 40 minutes."

Streak Over

Listed below are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2).

Dating back to last season, each of the last four games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession in regulation.

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at that time.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

- A consensus sixth-place pick, the Terriers are currently tied for fifth in the South Division and just two games out of first.

- Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has already surprised the SoCon in three of its first four seasons in the league.

- Wofford placed third in the South in 1999-00 after being a fourth-place pick.

- The Terriers were third in the South in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

- Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

The Terriers had just three double-doubles last season but have already seen eight recorded this year. Wofford is 6-1 in games in which a Terrier posts a double-double:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	17 pts., 14 reb.	VMI (Feb. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 11 reb.	ETSU (Jan. 23)
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Freshman Sensation

Wofford guard Justin Stephens is the third-leading scorer among SoCon freshmen with an 11.4 points per game mark, including 12.4 in league games.

The 6-foot-2 native of Newnan, Ga., has scored at least 20 points in three of the last eight games.

Sterley Sidelined

Wofford starting forward Grant Sterley has sat out the last two games and is sidelined for at least another week after suffering a torn meniscus in his right knee against UNC Greensboro (Jan. 26).

Sterley had already hit a pair of 3-pointers and grabbed two rebounds in his 13 minutes of action against the Spartans.

Prior to the injury, Sterley was playing the best basketball of his Wofford career. He had averaged 9.7 points and 5.5 rebounds in the previous six games, including a career-best 17 points at ETSU (Jan. 23).

Quick Starts

Wofford opened this season with a 9-6 record for its best start to a campaign in seven years of Division I play.

The Terriers open each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

Following a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel (Jan. 7), Wofford was three games above .500 for the first time in Division I.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with six of the 12 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers have just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who have played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Mike Lenzly and Lee Nixon, the SoCon's ninth and 10th-leading scorers, have gone back and forth all year in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Lenzly (15.14 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Nixon (15.09 ppg) by virtue of one more point on the season (333-to-332).

Defensive Stops

•Wofford tops the SoCon by limiting its opponents to a 30.3 percentage from 3-point range.

•The Terriers are 8-1 when holding their opponents to 64 points or fewer. The lone loss was a 64-49 defeat to South Carolina.

•Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in 1995-96.

The previous low was accomplished in a 55-48 victory over Georgia Southern (Jan. 5, 1998). That contest was also the Terriers' first-ever SoCon win.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14). The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

A Nailbiting Team

Five of Wofford's 10 SoCon games have come down to the final three seconds:

- Jan. 2 - Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give Wofford a 66-64 victory at the College of Charleston.

- Jan. 7 - Travis Cantrell of The Citadel misses a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer in regulation that would have won the game for the Bulldogs. The Terriers go on to a 73-64 overtime victory.

- Jan. 12 - College of Charleston's Jeff Bolton hits a 12-foot jump shot with 0.8 seconds left to force overtime before CofC pulls away for a 73-61 win.

- Jan. 14 - Justin Stephens sees his reverse layup fall off the rim as the final buzzer sounds in a 79-77 Terrier loss at Chattanooga.

- Jan. 26 - Mike Lenzly misses a 3-pointer with three seconds left that would have tied the UNC Greensboro game. The Terriers drop an 81-76 decision.

Handling the Ball

The Terriers top the SoCon in committing the fewest turnovers per game (13.6).

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School, Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

He made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points.

Inbounding the ball from underneath the basket, Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He later added a free-throw to finish with four points.

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with 17 minutes left before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the win.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman (Jan. 5) represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Six of Wofford's losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and members of the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 35-42 record (.455), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-5
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-8
Davidson	2-5
East Tennessee State	0-5
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	6-3
UNC Greensboro	3-2
VMI	3-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	35-42

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the eighth-best record in the league, just four games out of fifth place. It's a mark made impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	47-11 (.810)
2. Appalachian State	49-24 (.671)
2. Davidson	49-24 (.671)
4. East Tennessee State	41-32 (.562)
5. Chattanooga	37-35 (.514)
6. UNC Greensboro	37-36 (.507)
7. Georgia Southern	34-38 (.472)
8. Wofford	33-39 (.458)
9. The Citadel	28-43 (.394)
10. VMI	25-48 (.342)
11. Furman	24-47 (.338)
12. Western Carolina	23-50 (.315)

1212 vs. 1100

Wofford College boasts a higher SAT average (1212) than enrollment (1100).

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Game 6 -- South Carolina 64, Wofford 49

November 28, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Rolando Howell had 17 points and 10 rebounds while Jamel Bradley added 15 points on five 3-pointers to lead South Carolina to a 64-49 victory over Wofford before a capacity crowd of 3,500 at the Benjamin Johnson Arena in Spartanburg.

The Gamecocks limited the Terriers to 30.4 percent shooting while holding a 39-28 rebounding edge. USC opened the game with an 11-2 run and led by as many as 15 points at 27-12. However, Wofford held USC scoreless the final 5:17 of the first half and trailed just 27-18 at the intermission.

Wofford cut the deficit to six points on two occasions, the last being 35-29 on a Justin Stephens jumper with 14:06 to play. A Lee Nixon basket and a 3-pointer pulled Wofford within 42-34 with 9:59 remaining. Three-pointers by Bradley and Aaron Lucas then keyed a 14-3 run as the Gamecocks pulled away late.

Game 7 -- Nebraska 65, Wofford 46

December 2, 2001

Lincoln, Neb.

Grant Sterley opened the game with a 3-pointer and the Terriers had an early 8-7 lead before Nebraska went on a 25-10 run while controlling the boards to earn a 65-46 victory. It was the first-ever meeting between the Cornhuskers and Terriers. Wofford shot 47.6 percent in the opening 20 minutes but trailed 43-27 at the intermission as Nebraska held a 9-1 edge on the offensive glass. The Huskers had 18 offensive boards in the game and a 45-31 overall rebounding margin.

WOFFORD VS. CHATTAHOOGA

Game 12 -- Georgia Tech 79, Wofford 70 December 21, 2001 Atlanta, Ga.

The Wofford basketball team built an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech before dropping a 79-70 decision.

After the Yellow Jackets scored the game's opening four points, Wofford stormed back to take its largest lead of the afternoon at 29-17 when Mike Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers just 23 seconds apart with 8:10 left in the first half. Lenzly finished the game with 22 points, seven assists, and six rebounds.

The Yellow Jackets closed to within 35-32 at the intermission when B.J. Elders knocked in a 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The Terriers came out strong in the second half. A 3-pointer by Grant Sterley and a pair of Lenzly free-throws built the Wofford lead back to 45-34 with 17:05 to play. However, Georgia Tech's press sparked a 24-5 run. In the middle of the spurt was a 3-pointer by Halston Lane to give the Yellow Jackets the lead for good at 51-50 with 9:42 remaining.

With Georgia Tech on top 58-50, the Terriers countered with two Kenny Hastie free-throws and a Lee Nixon layup to close within 58-54 with 7:31 left. Nixon topped Wofford with 24 points and a team-high and career-best seven rebounds.

However, a 3-pointer by Elder began a run of 11 straight Yellow Jacket points to put Georgia Tech in control at 69-54 with 3:38 remaining.

Game 13 -- Wofford 66, College of Charleston 64 January 2, 2002 Charleston, S.C.

Lee Nixon tied the game at 62-62 on a slashing floater with 57 seconds left. Charleston's Jeff Bolton then missed a shot in the lane, Mike Lenzly grabbed the rebound and went the length of the court for a layup to give Wofford a 64-62 lead with 18 seconds left. Charleston's Shannon Chambers hit a pair of free throws with 10.8 seconds remaining to tie the game at 64-64.

On the final possession, Lenzly again brought the ball downcourt and found Masic open on the baseline for the game-winner.

Charleston shot 57.1 percent in the first half and took a 32-24 lead at the intermission. The Terriers controlled the second half, outscoring CoFC 42-32 and hitting on 53.3 percent of their shots.

Charleston stretched its lead to 10 points at 34-24 with 19 minutes left on a dunk by Mike Benton.

Nixon's 3-pointer with 13:58 left capped a 12-2 Wofford run and tied the game at 36-36. Nixon finished with a game-high 25 points, including 21 in the second half.

With 3:50 to play, Justin Stephens made an alley-oop pass to Nixon who converted it into a spectacular reverse dunk while being fouled on the play. His subsequent free-throw tied the game at 58-58 and gave the Terriers momentum down the stretch.

Lenzly finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds, the fourth double-double on the year for the Terrier point guard.

WOFFORD VS. CHATTANOOGA

Game 17 -- Chattanooga 79, Wofford 77

January 14, 2002

Chattanooga, Tenn.

Wofford dropped its second straight heartbreaker as a tough night at the free-throw line resulted in a 79-77 defeat at Chattanooga.

The Terriers missed an opportunity to force overtime at the final buzzer when a reverse layup attempt by Justin Stephens hung on the rim before falling out.

The see-saw game had 21 lead changes and 11 ties.

Wofford was just 20-of-35 (57.1 percent) at the charity stripe, including 13-of-24 (54.2 percent) in the second half.

Trailing 73-70 with 2:07 to play, the Terriers took a 76-73 lead with 57 seconds remaining when Lee Nixon and Grant Sterley hit back-to-back 3-pointers. Nixon topped both teams with 27 points for the second-best game of his Wofford career.

After a Tim Parker bucket pulled the Mocs within 76-75 at the 49-second mark, Nixon had a short jumper go in-and-out with 32 seconds left. Parker then hit the go-ahead basket for Chattanooga with 14 ticks remaining to put the Mocs on top 77-76.

Following a Wofford turnover, Petie Spaulding was fouled with eight seconds remaining and made both free-throws to give UTC a 79-76 lead. Stephens hit one of two free-throws with 7.4 seconds left to pull Wofford within 79-77.

UTC then had a chance to ice the game at the line, but Parker missed both attempts. Mike Lenzly grabbed the defensive board and fed Stephens who raced down the court, but his layup attempt missed and Chattanooga kept its home record perfect at 9-0.

Game 18 -- Georgia Southern 86, Wofford 73

January 19, 2002

Statesboro, Ga.

A late Wofford rally fell short in an 86-73 loss at Georgia Southern. The Terriers trailed by 20 points with 13:15 to play before closing within 74-67 on a pair of Justin Stephens free-throws with 3:33 remaining. The Eagles then sealed the game at the free-throw line. Stephens finished with a career-high 22 points. The Terriers were victimized by 21 turnovers after entering the game leading the SoCon with an average of just 12.6 turnovers per contest.

Game 19 -- East Tennessee State 71, Wofford 58

January 23, 2002

Johnson City, Tenn.

The Terriers went scoreless for six minutes down the stretch as East Tennessee State pulled away for a 71-58 victory.

Wofford trailed just 50-47 when Mike Lenzly scored on a layup with 9:59 to play. However, the Terriers wouldn't score again until 3:59 remained on a Grant Sterley layup that cut the deficit to 60-49.

Sterley scored 14 of his career-high 17 points in the second half. Lenzly posted his SoCon-leading fifth double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds. He did sit out a minute to end his streak of six consecutive games in which he played the entire length of the contest.

Wofford was outrebounded 43-27, including 17-10 on the offensive end.

WOFFORD VS. CHATTANOOGA

Game 20 -- UNC Greensboro 81, Wofford 76

January 26, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

David Schuck had a career-high 24 points to go with eight rebounds as defending SoCon champion UNC Greensboro held off a gutsy Wofford effort for an 81-76 victory.

The Terriers were plagued by foul trouble and lost starting forward Grant Sterley after just 13 minutes to a knee injury. Wofford played stretches of the second half with four freshmen on the court.

In a game that featured 10 ties and 11 lead changes, Sam Daniels hit a 3-pointer to even the contest at 76-76 with 49 seconds to play. After Courtney Eldridge scored on a layup to give the Spartans a 78-76 lead with 39 seconds left, a Terrier turnover led to an Eldridge free-throw to extend the Spartan lead to 79-76 with 14 seconds remaining.

Wofford had a chance to force overtime but Mike Lenzly missed a 3-point attempt from the top of the key with three seconds to play.

Terrier freshman Jeff Tarr and Edmond Davis, who played a combined three minutes in the seven previous SoCon games, were on the court during critical stages of the second half.

Justin Stephens topped Wofford with 20 points, the third time in the last six games that he scored at least 20.

Game 21 -- Davidson 72, Wofford 61

January 30, 2002

Davidson, N.C.

Playing his first game without injured starting forward Grant Sterley, Wofford hung tough before Davidson pulled away for a 72-61 victory.

Lee Nixon had 20 of his game-high 26 points in the first half as the Terriers built a 36-32 lead. The Wofford lead was extended to 42-36 with 17:07 left on a Kenny Hastie layup. Hastie added a career-high 15 rebounds while playing just 25 minutes due to foul trouble. With all its post players plagued by fouls, Wofford used a four-guard lineup.

Davidson took the lead for good on a Peter Anderer 3-pointer with 11:16 left. Wofford trailed by just five at 63-58 on a pair of Adrian Borders free-throws with 4:16 remaining. The margin was still only five until Davidson pulled away at the line in the final two minutes.

Game 22 -- Wofford 78, VMI 68

February 2, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

Mike Lenzly posted his sixth double-double of the season with 17 points and 14 rebounds to lead Wofford to a 78-68 win over VMI.

The Terriers broke the game open midway through the first half with an 11-2 run, keyed by Sam Daniels' five points, to take a 28-16 lead with 8:42 to play before intermission. Wofford led by double figures the rest of the way until VMI closed within nine with 1:28 left.

Kenny Hastie had 12 boards for his second straight double-figure rebounding game.

After squeaking by Wofford 79-77 three weeks ago at home, Chattanooga eliminated all drama early in tonight's rematch in Spartanburg, S.C, as the Mocs posted a 70-45 victory over the Terriers.

With its fourth straight win, Chattanooga (14-10, 7-4) takes over sole possession of first place in the South Division of the Southern Conference. The Mocs have also won three straight SoCon road games for the first time in five years.

Chattanooga's win in the Benjamin Johnson Arena was also significant in that UTC had lost in its previous four visits to Spartanburg since Wofford (10-13, 4-7) began SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign. It's the first road win in 10 games in the SoCon series between the Terriers and Mocs.

Chattanooga jumped out to a 14-4 lead in the opening 9:22. A jumper by Adrien Borders pulled Wofford within 14-6 with 10:21 to play in the first half. However, that would be as close as the Terriers would get the remainder of the contest.

The Mocs built a 33-16 lead at the intermission with the Terriers unable to draw closer than 16 points in the second half.

Already without starting forward Grant Sterley, sidelined for the next two weeks with a knee injury, the Terriers played the final 17 minutes minus Mike Lenzly. The Terriers' point guard standout was hit in the left eye and did not return. He is listed as day-to-day.

Wofford shot 26.5 percent (18-of-68) from the field, including 2-of-22 from 3-point range. The Terriers were also just 7-of-13 (53.8 percent) at the free-throw line. The Mocs shot 51.0 percent from the floor and held a 48-32 rebounding advantage.

"We came out flat and were not ready to play," Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson said. "We did nothing on offense.

"It was an ugly game to watch and coach. We just lost our confidence shooting the ball. We did not run our offense. Nobody was making shots. We got better shots in the second half, but just didn't make them."

Toot Youna topped the Mocs with 16 points while Petie Spauldina scored 12. Nick Benson had a game-high 12 rebounds to go with eight points.

"I'm glad for these guys," Chattanooga Head Coach Henry Dickerson said. "The only thing I was concerned with was that we were playing for first place. Defensively, we guarded them really well."

Justin Stephens topped the Terriers with 13 points.

Wofford returns to action Saturday when it hosts Georgia Southern at 7 p.m. Chattanooga will travel to Furman on Saturday in a 4 p.m. contest.

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzy had 17 points and a career-high tying 14 rebounds for his sixth double-double of the season in leading the Terriers to a 78-68 Southern Conference victory over VMI tonight in Spartanburg, S.C.

Lee Nixon added 14 points for the Terriers (10-12, 4-6) while Justin Stephens scored 13. Kenny Hastie had 12 rebounds to follow a 15-board game Wednesday at Davidson.

Jason Conley, the nation's leading scorer in Division I with a 29.1 points per game average entering the contest, had 38 points on 14-of-34 shooting, including 5-of-17 from 3-point range. It was the second straight 38-point game for Conley, who also added 10 rebounds.

The Terriers broke the game open at the midway point of the first half. Leading 17-14 with 11:06 to play before intermission, Wofford went on an 11-2 run over the next 2:24 to take a 28-16 lead with 8:42 left in the half. Sam Daniels, making just his second collegiate start in place of an injured Grant Sterley, keyed the spurt with five points.

Fellow freshman Jeff Tarr, who had played just 14 minutes in the Terriers' opening nine SoCon games, was also instrumental in the first half with a career-high eight points in 11 minutes. Wofford led 46-28 lead at the break.

"I was pleased with our effort and the ability to get a win," Wofford Head Coach and Athletic Director Richard Johnson said. "I'm very happy for our players. They've worked so hard.

"VMI's style of play is tough because they're the only ones in the conference to play that way. I was happy with our balanced scoring."

The Terriers built their margin to as large as 20 points in the second half before the Keydets (7-14, 2-8) began to chip away at the lead. VMI drew as close as nine points at 73-64 on a Conley dunk with 1:28 to play. Edmond Davis then hit a pair of free-throws to built the Terrier lead back to double digits for good at 75-64 with 1:17 remaining.

"I loved our pace tonight," VMI Head Coach Bart Bellairs said. "It was great, but we missed a lot of easy shots early and we didn't finish plays.

"I didn't like our shot selection. We've got to do a better job of attacking the basket. Eighty-one shots is the pace we want, but you're never going to win on attempts. You win on attempts made."

The Terriers were 30-of-65 (46.2 percent) from the field while the Keydets were 27-of-81 (33.3 percent), including 5-of-30 (16.7 percent) behind the arc. Wofford also held a 51-to-39 rebounding edge.

Wofford hosts Chattanooga on Monday at 7 p.m. while VMI returns home to face Appalachian State in a 7 p.m. contest.

Attached are .pdf files with Wofford basketball notes and stats for tonight's 7 p.m. home game with Western Carolina.

Richard Johnson will be coaching his final home game at Wofford. Promoted to athletic director on Dec. 3, Johnson is coaching the Terriers through the remainder of the season. He will be honored in a pregame ceremony along with seniors Kenny Hastie and Brett Myers. Junior center Edvin Masic is also playing his final home game. He will be graduating early in December 2002.

Starting forward Grant Sterley, who has missed the last six games with a knee injury, will return to action tonight.

Behind 28 points by Mike Lenzly and 22 from Lee Nixon, Wofford posted a 90-76 win at Western Carolina last year. Since beginning SoCon play in 1997-98, the Terriers are 3-2 against the Catamounts with victories in the last three regular-season meetings.

Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 11 in scoring, rebounding, and assists. He is also fourth in the league with six double-doubles (points and rebounds).

Justin Stephens, one of two freshmen in the Terrier starting lineup, ranks third among SoCon rookies in scoring at 12.2 points per game with that mark increasing to 13.5 in league action. Stephens tops all SoCon freshmen in assists while placing 10th overall (3.4 apg).

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Feb. 18, 2002, vs. Western Carolina, Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500), Spartanburg, S.C.; 7 p.m.

The Game

Richard Johnson will coach his final home game at Wofford as the Terriers host Western Carolina.

Promoted to athletic director on Dec. 3, Johnson is coaching the Terriers through the remainder of the season. He will be honored in a pregame ceremony along with seniors Kenny Hastie and Brett Myers.

Behind 28 points by Mike Lenzly and 22 from Lee Nixon, Wofford posted a 90-76 win at Western Carolina last year.

Since beginning SoCon play in 1997-98, the Terriers are 3-2 against the Catamounts with victories in the last three regular-season meetings.

Worth Noting

•Point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 11 in scoring, rebounding, and assists. He is also fourth in the league with six double-doubles (points and rebounds).

•Justin Stephens, one of two freshmen in the Terrier starting lineup, ranks third among SoCon rookies in scoring at 12.2 points per game with that mark increasing to 13.5 in league action.

Stephens tops all SoCon freshmen in assists while placing 10th overall (3.4 apg).

•Starting forward Grant Sterley, who has missed the last six games with a knee injury, will return to action tonight.

Meet The Head Coach

•Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of the season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fifth in winning percentage with a 236-227 mark (.510). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Battles

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford was recently listed for two weeks under "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October and is currently undergoing law school interviews.

Due to a family emergency, he had to cancel a scheduled interview at Duke on Jan. 25.

Hastie did interview at the University of South Carolina Law School on Jan. 31, the morning after posting a career-best 15 rebounds at Davidson.

He has also applied to law schools at the University of Georgia and the University of Miami (Fla.).

Same Five

Prior to Grant Sterley's injury, Wofford had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in its opening 20 games.

Since then, Sam Daniels has replaced Sterley over the last six contests.

Keys to Victories

Wofford shoots 44.3 percent from the field, including 35.8 from 3-point range, in its victories this season. The Terriers are at a 37.3 clip (27.3 behind the arc) in their defeats.

Wofford also averages 42.0 rebounds in its wins compared to 32.4 in the losses.

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continued this season when it came to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the nation for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Triple-Doubles

Mike Lenzly has flirted four times this season with his second career triple-double:

Opponent	Stats
Georgia Southern (Jan. 19)	11 pts., 8 reb., 6 asst.
Chattanooga (Jan. 14)	17 pts., 7 reb., 6 asst.
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

Mike Lenzly

The Only One...

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 11 in scoring (14.5 ppg), rebounding (6.7 rpg), and assists (3.7 apg).

and a Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and 11th in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 6.7 boards per game.

- Lenzly tops the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 23 rejections in 26 games (0.9 per contest). He tied a single-game school record with five blocks in the 73-64 victory over The Citadel.

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's two assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

The Trickle Down

The SoCon hiring a new commissioner resulted in Wofford naming a new head basketball coach.

With Danny Morrison leaving his Wofford senior vice-president position to become the SoCon commissioner, David Wood was promoted from athletic director to Morrison's vacated role.

Head Basketball Coach Richard Johnson was then promoted to athletic director on Dec. 3 with the announcement that he would coach the Terriers just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season.

In his first official day as athletic director, Johnson made his first coaching hire. He tabbed longtime assistant Mike Young to take over the head coaching duties effective at the close of the campaign. Young is in his 13th year at Wofford.

Morrison hired Johnson to be Wofford's basketball coach in 1985.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O.	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

Mike Young
Associate Head Coach

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Women Beware

Wofford assistant coach Alex Peavey has been named by www.collegeinsider.com as one of the "50 Most Eligible Bachelors" in the Division I coaching ranks.

Freshman Impact

The Terriers' eight-man rotation features four freshmen (Justin Stephens, Sam Daniels, Adrien Borders, Jeff Tarr) with two of them starting (Stephens, Daniels).

Those four rookies combined to score 45 of Wofford's 76 points in the 76-67 win over Georgia Southern (Feb. 9).

Masic to Graduate Early

Backup center Edvin Masic, a junior with two seasons of eligibility remaining but troubled by chronic knee problems, is in his final year of playing as he will graduate a semester early in December 2002.

Streak Over

Listed below are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2).

Dating back to last season, each of the last four games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession in regulation.

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at the time.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzly has played the entire game, including two overtime contests, in seven of Wofford's 14 SoCon games. On two occasions, he played 39 minutes.

He's averaging 38.5 minutes in SoCon action and 35.5 overall.

Lenzly was limited to 23 minutes against Chattanooga (Feb. 4) due to an eye injury.

The Ironman Speaks

On frequently playing the entire game, Mike Lenzly said, "It's no big deal. Practice is two hours. A game is only 40 minutes."

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

The Terriers have seen eight double-doubles recorded this season after posting just three last year. Wofford is 6-1 in games in which a Terrier posts a double-double:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzy	17 pts., 14 reb.	VMI (Feb. 2)
Mike Lenzy	12 pts., 11 reb.	ETSU (Jan. 23)
Mike Lenzy	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzy	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzy	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzy	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Freshman Sensation

Wofford guard Justin Stephens is the third-leading scorer among SoCon freshmen with a 12.2 points per game mark, including 13.5 in league contests. He also tops all SoCon rookies in assists (3.4 apg).

The 6-foot-2 native of Newnan, Ga., is scoring at a higher clip than former Wofford guard Ian Chadwick (12.0 ppg) when he earned SoCon Freshman of the Year honors in the 1997-98 campaign.

Sterley Sidelined

Wofford starting forward Grant Sterley has missed the last six games after suffering a torn meniscus in his right knee against UNC Greensboro (Jan. 26).

Sterley is expected to return to action in tonight's Western Carolina game.

Prior to the injury, Sterley was playing the best basketball of his Wofford career. He had averaged 9.7 points and 5.5 rebounds in the previous six games, including a career-best 17 points at ETSU (Jan. 23).

Quick Starts

Wofford opened this season with a 9-6 record for its best start to a campaign in seven years of Division I play.

The Terriers open each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

Following a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel (Jan. 7), Wofford was three games above .500 for the first time in Division I.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with six of the 12 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers entered the campaign with just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzy, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who had played more than one season on the collegiate level.

Wofford's "Lethal Weapon 3"

Wofford guards Mike Lenzy (14.5 ppg), Lee Nixon (13.6 ppg), and Justin Stephens (12.2 ppg) all place in the SoCon's Top 21 in scoring.

Lenzy is 11th while Nixon ranks 14th and Stephens 21st. Wofford's "Lethal Weapon 3" combines for 40.3 points per game, representing 59.4 percent of the Terrier offense (67.8 ppg).

Defensive Stops

•Wofford tops the SoCon by limiting its opponents to a 30.3 shooting percentage from 3-point range.

•Wofford is also fifth in the league in scoring defense, holding the opposition to 68.6 points per game.

•The Terriers are 8-2 when their opponents score 64 points or fewer.

•Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in 1995-96.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14). The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

A Nailbiting Team

Five of Wofford's 14 SoCon games have come down to the final three seconds:

- Jan. 2 - Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give Wofford a 66-64 victory at the College of Charleston.

- Jan. 7 - Travis Cantrell of The Citadel misses a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer in regulation that would have won the game for the Bulldogs. The Terriers go on to a 73-64 overtime victory.

- Jan. 12 - College of Charleston's Jeff Bolton hits a 12-foot jump shot with 0.8 seconds left to force overtime before CofC pulls away for a 73-61 win.

- Jan. 14 - Justin Stephens sees his reverse layup fall off the rim as the final buzzer sounds in a 79-77 Terrier loss at Chattanooga.

- Jan. 26 - Mike Lenzly misses a 3-pointer with three seconds left that would have tied the UNC Greensboro game. The Terriers drop an 81-76 decision.

Handling the Ball

The Terriers top the SoCon in committing the fewest turnovers per game (13.1), including just 40 in their last four contests (10.0 avg).

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School, Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

He made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points.

Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He later added a free-throw to finish with four points.

Johnson at Wofford

The following charts show where Head Coach Richard Johnson ranks all-time at Wofford in victories and winning percentage:

Victories

1. Gene Alexander	283 (1958-77)
2. Richard Johnson	236 (1985-present)
3. Joel Robertson	157 (1946-58)

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with 17 minutes left before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the win.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman (Jan. 5) represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Six of Wofford's losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and members of the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 36-45 record (.444), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-4
Chattanooga	4-6
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-8
Davidson	2-5
East Tennessee State	0-5
Furman	6-4
Georgia Southern	7-3
UNC Greensboro	3-2
VMI	3-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	36-45

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the eighth-best record in the league, just five games out of fifth place. It's a mark made impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	50-12 (.806)
2. Davidson	51-26 (.662)
3. Appalachian State	51-26 (.662)

1212 vs. 1100

Wofford College boasts a higher SAT average (1212) than enrollment (1100).

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

20 Brett Myers G
6-1 • 165 • Sr.
Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who made his SoCon debut by sinking a free-throw in the final minute at Appalachian State (Feb. 11)... suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Game 6 -- South Carolina 64, Wofford 49

November 28, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Rolando Howell had 17 points and 10 rebounds while Jamel Bradley added 15 points on five 3-pointers to lead South Carolina to a 64-49 victory over Wofford before a capacity crowd of 3,500 at the Benjamin Johnson Arena in Spartanburg.

The Gamecocks limited the Terriers to 30.4 percent shooting while holding a 39-28 rebounding edge. USC opened the game with an 11-2 run and led by as many as 15 points at 27-12. However, Wofford held USC scoreless the final 5:17 of the first half and trailed just 27-18 at the intermission.

Wofford cut the deficit to six points on two occasions, the last being 35-29 on a Justin Stephens jumper with 14:06 to play. A Lee Nixon basket and a 3-pointer pulled Wofford within 42-34 with 9:59 remaining. Three-pointers by Bradley and Aaron Lucas then keyed a 14-3 run as the Gamecocks pulled away late.

Game 12 -- Georgia Tech 79, Wofford 70 December 21, 2001 Atlanta, Ga.

The Wofford basketball team built an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech before dropping a 79-70 decision.

After the Yellow Jackets scored the game's opening four points, Wofford stormed back to take its largest lead of the afternoon at 29-17 when Mike Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers just 23 seconds apart with 8:10 left in the first half. Lenzly finished the game with 22 points, seven assists, and six rebounds.

The Yellow Jackets closed to within 35-32 at the intermission when B.J. Elders knocked in a 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The Terriers came out strong in the second half. A 3-pointer by Grant Sterley and a pair of Lenzly free-throws built the Wofford lead back to 45-34 with 17:05 to play. However, Georgia Tech's press sparked a 24-5 run. In the middle of the spurt was a 3-pointer by Halston Lane to give the Yellow Jackets the lead for good at 51-50 with 9:42 remaining.

With Georgia Tech on top 58-50, the Terriers countered with two Kenny Hastie free-throws and a Lee Nixon layup to close within 58-54 with 7:31 left. Nixon topped Wofford with 24 points and a team-high and career-best seven rebounds.

However, a 3-pointer by Elder began a run of 11 straight Yellow Jacket points to put Georgia Tech in control at 69-54 with 3:38 remaining.

Game 13 -- Wofford 66, College of Charleston 64 January 2, 2002 Charleston, S.C.

Lee Nixon tied the game at 62-62 on a slashing floater with 57 seconds left. Charleston's Jeff Bolton then missed a shot in the lane, Mike Lenzly grabbed the rebound and went the length of the court for a layup to give Wofford a 64-62 lead with 18 seconds left. Charleston's Shannon Chambers hit a pair of free throws with 10.8 seconds remaining to tie the game at 64-64.

On the final possession, Lenzly again brought the ball downcourt and found Masic open on the baseline for the game-winner.

Charleston shot 57.1 percent in the first half and took a 32-24 lead at the intermission. The Terriers controlled the second half, outscoring CoFC 42-32 and hitting on 53.3 percent of their shots.

Charleston stretched its lead to 10 points at 34-24 with 19 minutes left on a dunk by Mike Benton.

Nixon's 3-pointer with 13:58 left capped a 12-2 Wofford run and tied the game at 36-36. Nixon finished with a game-high 25 points, including 21 in the second half.

With 3:50 to play, Justin Stephens made an alley-oop pass to Nixon who converted it into a spectacular reverse dunk while being fouled on the play. His subsequent free-throw tied the game at 58-58 and gave the Terriers momentum down the stretch.

Lenzly finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds, the fourth double-double on the year for the Terrier point guard.

WOFFORD VS. WESTERN CAROLINA

Game 17 -- Chattanooga 79, Wofford 77

January 14, 2002

Chattanooga, Tenn.

Wofford dropped its second straight heartbreaker as a tough night at the free-throw line resulted in a 79-77 defeat at Chattanooga.

The Terriers missed an opportunity to force overtime at the final buzzer when a reverse layup attempt by Justin Stephens hung on the rim before falling out.

The see-saw game had 21 lead changes and 11 ties.

Wofford was just 20-of-35 (57.1 percent) at the charity stripe, including 13-of-24 (54.2 percent) in the second half.

Trailing 73-70 with 2:07 to play, the Terriers took a 76-73 lead with 57 seconds remaining when Lee Nixon and Grant Sterley hit back-to-back 3-pointers. Nixon topped both teams with 27 points for the second-best game of his Wofford career.

After a Tim Parker bucket pulled the Mocs within 76-75 at the 49-second mark, Nixon had a short jumper go in-and-out with 32 seconds left. Parker then hit the go-ahead basket for Chattanooga with 14 ticks remaining to put the Mocs on top 77-76.

Following a Wofford turnover, Petie Spaulding was fouled with eight seconds remaining and made both free-throws to give UTC a 79-76 lead. Stephens hit one of two free-throws with 7.4 seconds left to pull Wofford within 79-77.

UTC then had a chance to ice the game at the line, but Parker missed both attempts. Mike Lenzly grabbed the defensive board and fed Stephens who raced down the court, but his layup attempt missed and Chattanooga kept its home record perfect at 9-0.

Game 18 -- Georgia Southern 86, Wofford 73

January 19, 2002

Statesboro, Ga.

A late Wofford rally fell short in an 86-73 loss at Georgia Southern. The Terriers trailed by 20 points with 13:15 to play before closing within 74-67 on a pair of Justin Stephens free-throws with 3:33 remaining. The Eagles then sealed the game at the free-throw line. Stephens finished with a career-high 22 points. The Terriers were victimized by 21 turnovers after entering the game leading the SoCon with an average of just 12.6 turnovers per contest.

Game 19 -- East Tennessee State 71, Wofford 58

January 23, 2002

Johnson City, Tenn.

The Terriers went scoreless for six minutes down the stretch as East Tennessee State pulled away for a 71-58 victory.

Wofford trailed just 50-47 when Mike Lenzly scored on a layup with 9:59 to play. However, the Terriers wouldn't score again until 3:59 remained on a Grant Sterley layup that cut the deficit to 60-49.

Sterley scored 14 of his career-high 17 points in the second half. Lenzly posted his SoCon-leading fifth double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds. He did sit out a minute to end his streak of six consecutive games in which he played the entire length of the contest.

Wofford was outrebounded 43-27, including 17-10 on the offensive end.

WOFFORD VS. WESTERN CAROLINA

Game 20 -- UNC Greensboro 81, Wofford 76

January 26, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

David Schuck had a career-high 24 points to go with eight rebounds as defending SoCon champion UNC Greensboro held off a gutsy Wofford effort for an 81-76 victory.

The Terriers were plagued by foul trouble and lost starting forward Grant Sterley after just 13 minutes to a knee injury. Wofford played stretches of the second half with four freshmen on the court.

In a game that featured 10 ties and 11 lead changes, Sam Daniels hit a 3-pointer to even the contest at 76-76 with 49 seconds to play. After Courtney Eldridge scored on a layup to give the Spartans a 78-76 lead with 39 seconds left, a Terrier turnover led to an Eldridge free-throw to extend the Spartan lead to 79-76 with 14 seconds remaining.

Wofford had a chance to force overtime but Mike Lenzly missed a 3-point attempt from the top of the key with three seconds to play.

Terrier freshman Jeff Tarr and Edmond Davis, who played a combined three minutes in the seven previous SoCon games, were on the court during critical stages of the second half.

Justin Stephens topped Wofford with 20 points, the third time in the last six games that he scored at least 20.

Game 21 -- Davidson 72, Wofford 61

January 30, 2002

Davidson, N.C.

Playing its first game without injured starting forward Grant Sterley, Wofford hung tough before Davidson pulled away for a 72-61 victory.

Lee Nixon had 20 of his game-high 26 points in the first half as the Terriers built a 36-32 lead. The Wofford lead was extended to 42-36 with 17:07 left on a Kenny Hastie layup. Hastie added a career-high 15 rebounds while playing just 25 minutes due to foul trouble. With all its post players plagued by fouls, Wofford used a four-guard lineup.

Davidson took the lead for good on a Peter Anderer 3-pointer with 11:16 left. Wofford trailed by just five at 63-58 on a pair of Adrian Borders free-throws with 4:16 remaining. The margin was still only five until Davidson pulled away at the line in the final two minutes.

Game 22 -- Wofford 78, VMI 68

February 2, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

Mike Lenzly posted his sixth double-double of the season with 17 points and 14 rebounds to lead Wofford to a 78-68 win over VMI.

The Terriers broke the game open midway through the first half with an 11-2 run, keyed by Sam Daniels' five points, to take a 28-16 lead with 8:42 to play before intermission. Wofford led by double figures the rest of the way until VMI closed within nine with 1:28 left.

Kenny Hastie had 12 boards for his second straight double-figure rebounding game.

Game 23 -- Chattanooga 70, Wofford 45

February 4, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

After dropping a thriller three weeks earlier at Chattanooga, the Terriers struggled from the field in the rematch against the Mocs in dropping a 70-45 decision.

The first meeting with Chattanooga (Jan. 14) saw Wofford miss a chance to force overtime when a Justin Stephens reverse layup attempt at the final buzzer hung on the rim before falling out in a 79-77 loss.

The second meeting with the Mocs got away in the opening minutes. After the game was tied 4-4, Chattanooga scored the next 10 points with Wofford unable to draw closer than eight the remainder of the contest.

The Terriers committed a season-low seven turnovers on the night.

Game 24 -- Wofford 76, Georgia Southern 67

February 9, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

Mike Lenzly scored 27 points while freshman Justin Stephens added a career-high 26 as Wofford used a 55-point second half to rally from a 16-2 deficit to open the game for a 76-67 victory over Georgia Southern.

Trailing 51-39 with 10:50 to play, Wofford went on a 23-5 run over the next 6:57. Lenzly had 12 points during the spurt, including three 3-pointers and a breakaway dunk to give the Terriers a 62-56 lead with 3:53 remaining.

A 3-pointer by freshman Adrien Borders, who scored 12 points off-the-bench, gave Wofford its first lead of the game and the lead for good at 55-54 with 6:36 remaining. Sandwiched around Borders' trey were a pair of 3-pointers by Lenzly as Wofford connected on three 3-pointers in a 1:03 stretch.

Stephens' 26 points surpassed his previous career-high of 22, set three weeks earlier in the first meeting with Georgia Southern. He added five steals to go with four rebounds and four assists. Lenzly had five rebounds and four steals in addition to his 27 points.

The Terriers shot 53.3 percent (16-of-30), including 6-of-11 (54.5 percent) from 3-point range in the second half after a 5-of-31 (16.1 percent) effort in the opening 20 minutes when they trailed 34-21 at the intermission.

Game 26-- Furman 55, Wofford 48

February 16, 2002

Greenville, S.C.

The Terriers struggled from the field in dropping a 55-48 decision at Furman.

Wofford trailed just 22-16 at the intermission despite shooting 24.1 percent (7-of-29). The Terriers then opened the second half with a 16-4 run to take a 32-26 lead on a Mike Lenzly layup with 14:29 to play. However, Furman countered with its own 16-4 run to regain a six-point lead at 42-36 with 5:53 left.

After Lenzly hit a 3-pointer to pull Wofford within 44-41 with 4:24 remaining, the Terriers went scoreless over the next 4:04 as the Paladins pulled away for the victory.

Attached as .pdf files are Wofford men's basketball notes and stats for Saturday's 7 p.m. game at Furman.

The Terriers will be looking to sweep the season series from Furman when they make the short trek to Greenville.

Behind 21 points, six rebounds, three blocks, and two assists by point guard Mike Lenzly, who played all 40 minutes, the Terriers posted a 59-49 victory over the Paladins on Jan. 5 in Spartanburg. Lenzly and Lee Nixon each scored five points during a 14-5 run that broke a tie game midway through the second half and enabled Wofford to pull away.

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 season, Wofford holds a 6-3 series lead over Furman.

Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 11 in scoring, rebounding, and assists. He is also fourth in the league with six double-doubles (points and rebounds).

Justin Stephens, one of two freshmen in the Terrier starting lineup, ranks third among SoCon rookies in scoring (12.2 ppg) with that mark increasing to 13.6 in league games. He also tops all SoCon freshmen in assists while placing 10th overall (3.4 apg).

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Feb. 16, 2002, at Furman, Timmons Arena (5,000), Greenville, S.C.; 7 p.m.

The Game

The Wofford basketball team will look to sweep the season series from Furman when it makes the short trek to Greenville.

Behind 21 points, six rebounds, three blocks, and two assists by Mike Lenzly, who played all 40 minutes, the Terriers posted a 59-49 victory over the Paladins on Jan. 5 in Spartanburg. Lenzly and Lee Nixon each scored five points during a 14-5 run that broke a tie game midway through the second half and enabled Wofford to pull away.

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 season, Wofford holds a 6-3 series lead over Furman.

Worth Noting

•Point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 11 in scoring, rebounding, and assists. He is also fourth in the league with six double-doubles (points and rebounds).

•Justin Stephens, one of two freshmen in the Terrier starting lineup, ranks third among SoCon rookies in scoring (12.2 ppg). He also tops all league freshmen in assists while placing 10th overall (3.4 apg).

•Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

Meet The Head Coach

•Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of the season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fifth in winning percentage with a 236-226 mark (.511). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Battles

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford was recently listed for two weeks under "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October and is currently undergoing law school interviews.

Due to a family emergency, he had to cancel a scheduled interview at Duke on Jan. 25.

Hastie did interview at the University of South Carolina Law School on Jan. 31, the morning after posting a career-best 15 rebounds at Davidson.

He has also applied to law schools at the University of Georgia and the University of Miami (Fl.).

Same Five

Prior to Grant Sterley's injury, Wofford had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in its opening 20 games.

Since then, Sam Daniels has replaced Sterley over the last five contests.

Keys to Victories

Wofford shoots 44.3 percent from the field, including 35.8 from 3-point range, in its victories this season. The Terriers are at a 37.7 clip (27.7 behind the arc) in their defeats.

Wofford also averages 42.0 rebounds in its wins compared to 31.9 in the losses.

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continued this season when it came to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the nation for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Triple-Doubles

Mike Lenzly has flirted four times this season with his second career triple-double:

Opponent	Stats
Georgia Southern (Jan. 19)	11 pts., 8 reb., 6 asst.
Chattanooga (Jan. 14)	17 pts., 7 reb., 6 asst.
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

Mike Lenzly

The Only One...

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 11 in scoring (14.8 ppg), rebounding (6.6 rpg), and assists (3.7 apg).

and a Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and 11th in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 6.6 boards per game.

- Lenzly tops the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 22 rejections in 25 games (0.9 per contest). He tied a single-game school record with five blocks in the 73-64 victory over The Citadel.

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O.	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzly has played the entire game, including two overtime contests, in seven of Wofford's 13 SoCon games. On two occasions, he played 39 minutes.

Lenzly was limited to 23 minutes against Chattanooga (Feb. 4) due to an eye injury.

The Ironman Speaks

On frequently playing the entire game, Mike Lenzly said, "It's no big deal. Practice is two hours. A game is only 40 minutes."

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

Mike Young
Associate Head Coach

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Women Beware

Wofford assistant coach Alex Peavey has been named by www.collegeinsider.com as one of the "50 Most Eligible Bachelors" in the Division I coaching ranks.

Freshman Impact

The Terriers' eight-man rotation features four freshmen (Justin Stephens, Sam Daniels, Adrien Borders, Jeff Tarr) with two of them starting (Stephens, Daniels).

Those four rookies combined to score 45 of Wofford's 76 points in last Saturday's 76-67 win over Georgia Southern.

Comeback Kids

Wofford's 18-point second-half comeback to defeat Furman 90-83 in overtime during the 1998-99 campaign ranks as the largest come-from-behind victory in the 17-year tenure of Head Coach Richard Johnson.

Streak Over

Listed below are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2).

Dating back to last season, each of the last four games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession in regulation.

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at the time.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

A consensus sixth-place pick, Wofford is just one game out of third in the SoCon South Division.

Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has already surprised the SoCon in three of its first four seasons in the league.

Wofford placed third in the South in 1999-00 after being a fourth-place pick.

The Terriers were third in the South in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

The Terriers have seen eight double-doubles recorded this season after posting just three last year. Wofford is 6-1 in games in which a Terrier posts a double-double:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	17 pts., 14 reb.	VMI (Feb. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 11 reb.	ETSU (Jan. 23)
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Freshman Sensation

Wofford guard Justin Stephens is the third-leading scorer among SoCon freshmen with a 12.2 points per game mark, including 13.8 in league contests. He also tops all SoCon rookies in assists (3.4 apg).

The 6-foot-2 native of Newnan, Ga., is scoring at a higher clip than former Wofford guard Ian Chadwick (12.0 ppg) when he earned SoCon Freshman of the Year honors in the 1997-98 campaign.

Sterley Sidelined

Wofford starting forward Grant Sterley has missed the last five games after suffering a torn meniscus in his right knee against UNC Greensboro (Jan. 26).

Sterley is hopeful of returning to action in Saturday's Furman game. He is listed as questionable.

Prior to the injury, Sterley was playing the best basketball of his Wofford career. He had averaged 9.7 points and 5.5 rebounds in the previous six games, including a career-best 17 points at ETSU (Jan. 23).

Quick Starts

Wofford opened this season with a 9-6 record for its best start to a campaign in seven years of Division I play.

The Terriers open each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

Following a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel (Jan. 7), Wofford was three games above .500 for the first time in Division I.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with six of the 12 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers entered the campaign with just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who had played more than one season on the collegiate level.

Wofford's "Lethal Weapon 3"

Wofford guards Mike Lenzly (14.8 ppg), Lee Nixon (13.8 ppg), and Justin Stephens (12.2 ppg) all place in the SoCon's Top 20 in scoring.

Lenzly is 11th while Nixon ranks 14th and Stephens 20th. Wofford's "Lethal Weapon 3" combines for 40.8 points per game, representing 59.5 percent of the Terrier offense (68.6 ppg).

Defensive Stops

- Wofford tops the SoCon by limiting its opponents to a 30.6 shooting percentage from 3-point range.

- Wofford is also fifth in the league in scoring defense, holding the opposition to 69.1 points per game.

- The Terriers are 8-1 when their opponents score 64 points or fewer. The lone loss was a 64-49 defeat to South Carolina.

- Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in 1995-96.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14). The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

A Nailbiting Team

Five of Wofford's 12 SoCon games have come down to the final three seconds:

- Jan. 2 - Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give Wofford a 66-64 victory at the College of Charleston.

- Jan. 7 - Travis Cantrell of The Citadel misses a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer in regulation that would have won the game for the Bulldogs. The Terriers go on to a 73-64 overtime victory.

- Jan. 12 - College of Charleston's Jeff Bolton hits a 12-foot jump shot with 0.8 seconds left to force overtime before CofC pulls away for a 73-61 win.

- Jan. 14 - Justin Stephens sees his reverse layup fall off the rim as the final buzzer sounds in a 79-77 Terrier loss at Chattanooga.

- Jan. 26 - Mike Lenzly misses a 3-pointer with three seconds left that would have tied the UNC Greensboro game. The Terriers drop an 81-76 decision.

Handling the Ball

The Terriers top the SoCon in committing the fewest turnovers per game (13.0), including just 25 in their last three contests.

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School, Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

He made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points.

Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He later added a free-throw to finish with four points.

Johnson at Wofford

The following charts show where Head Coach Richard Johnson ranks all-time at Wofford in victories and winning percentage:

Victories

1. Gene Alexander	283 (1958-77)
2. Richard Johnson	236 (1985-present)
3. Joel Robertson	157 (1946-58)

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with 17 minutes left before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the win.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman (Jan. 5) represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Six of Wofford's losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and members of the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 36-44 record (.450), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-4
Chattanooga	4-6
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-8
Davidson	2-5
East Tennessee State	0-5
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	7-3
UNC Greensboro	3-2
VMI	3-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	36-44

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the eighth-best record in the league, just five games out of fifth place. It's a mark made impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	49-12 (.803)
2. Davidson	51-25 (.671)
3. Appalachian State	50-26 (.658)

1212 vs. 1100

Wofford College boasts a higher SAT average (1212) than enrollment (1100).

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

20 Brett Myers G

6-1 • 165 • Sr.
Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who made his SoCon debut by sinking a free-throw in the final minute at Appalachian State (Feb. 11)... suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

Hanahan, S.C. (Hanahan)

2001-02: All-SoCon candidate who places second on the Terriers and 14th in the league in scoring (13.6 ppg)... one of the more exciting players in the SoCon... has had at least 24 points in four of the last 14 contests... places second on the team in 3-pointers (38) while ranking third in assists (49) and fourth in steals (26)... 20 of his 26 points at Davidson (Jan. 30) came in the first half, including his second career 4-point play... his game-high 27 points at Chattanooga (Jan. 14) represented the second-best performance of his Wofford career... 21 of his 25 points in the 66-64 win over the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) came in the second half, including a spectacular reverse dunk off an alley-oop pass from Justin Stephens... the dunk and subsequent free-throw tied the game with under four minutes to play and gave the Terriers momentum... also hit a slashing floater to even the contest with less than a minute left... played just two minutes in the Jan. 7 win over The Citadel after being knocked out of the game with a left shoulder separation while going for a loose ball... his game-high 24 points at Georgia Tech helped the Terriers to an 11-point second-half lead... added a career-best seven rebounds in the game... torched Clemson for 25 points, including 16 in the first half, as Wofford built a 45-34 lead at the intermission (Nov. 24)... had five straight points, including a 3-pointer and breakaway dunk, to key a 14-5 run midway through the second half as the Terriers pulled away from Furman in a 59-49 victory (Jan. 5)...

Did You Know: Nixon showcased his talents last year with a 31-point explosion in an 83-73 win over Davidson.

Game 4 -- Clemson 85, Wofford 82 November 24, 2001 Clemson, S.C.

Wofford built an 11-point halftime lead before seeing Clemson rally and then hold off a late Terrier charge in an 85-82 Tiger victory at Littlejohn Coliseum.

Lee Nixon scored a game-high 25 points while Mike Lenzly added 20, including six 3-pointers, and freshman Justin Stephens scored 18 to pace a Wofford attack that saw the Terriers hit 15-of-32 3-pointers (46.9 percent).

Wofford's biggest margin of the night came when Lenzly scored on a layup to give the Terriers a 41-27 lead with 3:02 left in the first half. It capped a 26-9 Wofford run.

Clemson's size advantage inside began to wear Wofford down in the second half. A Chey Christie layup allowed the Tigers to regain the lead at 61-60 with 10:04 to play. After a long 3-pointer from the wing by Nixon tied the game at 67-67 with 7:58 remaining, Clemson went on a 12-4 run to take its largest lead of the night at 79-71 on a Ray Henderson 3-point play with 1:38 left.

However, Wofford chipped away at the deficit. Another deep three by Nixon pulled the Terriers within 81-79 with 55 seconds to play. After Clemson's Chris Hobbs missed a layup on the other end, Wofford came down the court trailing by two with 34 seconds remaining. Dwon Clifton then made a key steal for Clemson, setting the stage for a pair of Ed Scott free-throws which gave the Tigers an 83-79 lead with 24 seconds remaining.

Nixon hit an off-balance bank shot from the top of the key to pull Wofford within 83-82 with seven seconds to play. Christie was then fouled and hit a pair of free-throws to provide the final margin of 85-82 with six seconds left. Wofford had a last chance to force overtime, but Lenzly missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer.

Kenny Hastie equaled a career-high with 13 rebounds, the third time in four games he reached double figures in boards.

The Terriers shot 45.7 percent on the night after a 54.5 mark in the first half. The Tigers shot 57.6 percent in the second half to finish at 52.3.

Game 5 -- Wofford 77, Florida A&M 72 November 26, 2001 Spartanburg, S.C.

Kenny Hastie had career-high totals of 20 points and 14 rebounds while Mike Lenzly flirted with the second triple-double of his career in leading Wofford to a 77-72 victory over Florida A&M. Lenzly scored 20 of his 24 points in the second half while adding a career-best 14 rebounds to go with seven assists. Lee Nixon hit a 3-pointer and added a free-throw to give Wofford a 70-63 lead with 2:50 to play. After the Rattlers closed within 72-70 with 1:15 left, Grant Sterley sank a pair of free-throws with 24 seconds left to help Wofford increase its lead to 74-70. Wofford held a 46-35 rebounding margin. The Terriers shot 52.2 percent in the second half after a 35.3 mark in the opening 20 minutes.

Game 6 -- South Carolina 64, Wofford 49

November 28, 2001

Spartanburg, S.C.

Rolando Howell had 17 points and 10 rebounds while Jamel Bradley added 15 points on five 3-pointers to lead South Carolina to a 64-49 victory over Wofford before a capacity crowd of 3,500 at the Benjamin Johnson Arena in Spartanburg.

The Gamecocks limited the Terriers to 30.4 percent shooting while holding a 39-28 rebounding edge. USC opened the game with an 11-2 run and led by as many as 15 points at 27-12. However, Wofford held USC scoreless the final 5:17 of the first half and trailed just 27-18 at the intermission.

Wofford cut the deficit to six points on two occasions, the last being 35-29 on a Justin Stephens jumper with 14:06 to play. A Lee Nixon basket and a 3-pointer pulled Wofford within 42-34 with 9:59 remaining. Three-pointers by Bradley and Aaron Lucas then keyed a 14-3 run as the Gamecocks pulled away late.

Game 12 -- Georgia Tech 79, Wofford 70 December 21, 2001 Atlanta, Ga.

The Wofford basketball team built an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech before dropping a 79-70 decision.

After the Yellow Jackets scored the game's opening four points, Wofford stormed back to take its largest lead of the afternoon at 29-17 when Mike Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers just 23 seconds apart with 8:10 left in the first half. Lenzly finished the game with 22 points, seven assists, and six rebounds.

The Yellow Jackets closed to within 35-32 at the intermission when B.J. Elders knocked in a 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The Terriers came out strong in the second half. A 3-pointer by Grant Sterley and a pair of Lenzly free-throws built the Wofford lead back to 45-34 with 17:05 to play. However, Georgia Tech's press sparked a 24-5 run. In the middle of the spurt was a 3-pointer by Halston Lane to give the Yellow Jackets the lead for good at 51-50 with 9:42 remaining.

With Georgia Tech on top 58-50, the Terriers countered with two Kenny Hastie free-throws and a Lee Nixon layup to close within 58-54 with 7:31 left. Nixon topped Wofford with 24 points and a team-high and career-best seven rebounds.

However, a 3-pointer by Elder began a run of 11 straight Yellow Jacket points to put Georgia Tech in control at 69-54 with 3:38 remaining.

Game 13 -- Wofford 66, College of Charleston 64 January 2, 2002 Charleston, S.C.

Lee Nixon tied the game at 62-62 on a slashing floater with 57 seconds left. Charleston's Jeff Bolton then missed a shot in the lane, Mike Lenzly grabbed the rebound and went the length of the court for a layup to give Wofford a 64-62 lead with 18 seconds left. Charleston's Shannon Chambers hit a pair of free throws with 10.8 seconds remaining to tie the game at 64-64.

On the final possession, Lenzly again brought the ball downcourt and found Masic open on the baseline for the game-winner.

Charleston shot 57.1 percent in the first half and took a 32-24 lead at the intermission. The Terriers controlled the second half, outscoring CoFC 42-32 and hitting on 53.3 percent of their shots.

Charleston stretched its lead to 10 points at 34-24 with 19 minutes left on a dunk by Mike Benton.

Nixon's 3-pointer with 13:58 left capped a 12-2 Wofford run and tied the game at 36-36. Nixon finished with a game-high 25 points, including 21 in the second half.

With 3:50 to play, Justin Stephens made an alley-oop pass to Nixon who converted it into a spectacular reverse dunk while being fouled on the play. His subsequent free-throw tied the game at 58-58 and gave the Terriers momentum down the stretch.

Lenzly finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds, the fourth double-double on the year for the Terrier point guard.

Game 20 -- UNC Greensboro 81, Wofford 76

January 26, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

David Schuck had a career-high 24 points to go with eight rebounds as defending SoCon champion UNC Greensboro held off a gutsy Wofford effort for an 81-76 victory.

The Terriers were plagued by foul trouble and lost starting forward Grant Sterley after just 13 minutes to a knee injury. Wofford played stretches of the second half with four freshmen on the court.

In a game that featured 10 ties and 11 lead changes, Sam Daniels hit a 3-pointer to even the contest at 76-76 with 49 seconds to play. After Courtney Eldridge scored on a layup to give the Spartans a 78-76 lead with 39 seconds left, a Terrier turnover led to an Eldridge free-throw to extend the Spartan lead to 79-76 with 14 seconds remaining.

Wofford had a chance to force overtime but Mike Lenzly missed a 3-point attempt from the top of the key with three seconds to play.

Terrier freshman Jeff Tarr and Edmond Davis, who played a combined three minutes in the seven previous SoCon games, were on the court during critical stages of the second half.

Justin Stephens topped Wofford with 20 points, the third time in the last six games that he scored at least 20.

Game 21 -- Davidson 72, Wofford 61

January 30, 2002

Davidson, N.C.

Playing his first game without injured starting forward Grant Sterley, Wofford hung tough before Davidson pulled away for a 72-61 victory.

Lee Nixon had 20 of his game-high 26 points in the first half as the Terriers built a 36-32 lead. The Wofford lead was extended to 42-36 with 17:07 left on a Kenny Hastie layup. Hastie added a career-high 15 rebounds while playing just 25 minutes due to foul trouble. With all its post players plagued by fouls, Wofford used a four-guard lineup.

Davidson took the lead for good on a Peter Anderer 3-pointer with 11:16 left. Wofford trailed by just five at 63-58 on a pair of Adrian Borders free-throws with 4:16 remaining. The margin was still only five until Davidson pulled away at the line in the final two minutes.

Game 22 -- Wofford 78, VMI 68

February 2, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

Mike Lenzly posted his sixth double-double of the season with 17 points and 14 rebounds to lead Wofford to a 78-68 win over VMI.

The Terriers broke the game open midway through the first half with an 11-2 run, keyed by Sam Daniels' five points, to take a 28-16 lead with 8:42 to play before intermission. Wofford led by double figures the rest of the way until VMI closed within nine with 1:28 left.

Kenny Hastie had 12 boards for his second straight double-figure rebounding game.

WOFFORD VS. FURMAN

Game 23 -- Chattanooga 70, Wofford 45

February 4, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

After dropping a thriller three weeks earlier at Chattanooga, the Terriers struggled from the field in the rematch against the Mocs in dropping a 70-45 decision.

The first meeting with Chattanooga (Jan. 14) saw Wofford miss a chance to force overtime when a Justin Stephens reverse layup attempt at the final buzzer hung on the rim before falling out in a 79-77 loss.

The second meeting with the Mocs got away in the opening minutes. After the game was tied 4-4, Chattanooga scored the next 10 points with Wofford unable to draw closer than eight the remainder of the contest.

The Terriers committed a season-low seven turnovers on the night.

Game 24 -- Wofford 76, Georgia Southern 67

February 9, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

Mike Lenzly scored 27 points while freshman Justin Stephens added a career-high 26 as Wofford used a 55-point second half to rally from a 16-2 deficit to open the game for a 76-67 victory over Georgia Southern.

Trailing 51-39 with 10:50 to play, Wofford went on a 23-5 run over the next 6:57. Lenzly had 12 points during the spurt, including three 3-pointers and a breakaway dunk to give the Terriers a 62-56 lead with 3:53 remaining.

A 3-pointer by freshman Adrien Borders, who scored 12 points off-the-bench, gave Wofford its first lead of the game and the lead for good at 55-54 with 6:36 remaining. Sandwiched around Borders' trey were a pair of 3-pointers by Lenzly as Wofford connected on three 3-pointers in a 1:03 stretch.

Stephens' 26 points surpassed his previous career-high of 22, set three weeks earlier in the first meeting with Georgia Southern. He added five steals to go with four rebounds and four assists. Lenzly had five rebounds and four steals in addition to his 27 points.

The Terriers shot 53.3 percent (16-of-30), including 6-of-11 (54.5 percent) from 3-point range in the second half after a 5-of-31 (16.1 percent) effort in the opening 20 minutes when they trailed 34-21 at the intermission.

Mike Lenzy scored 27 points while freshman Justin Stephens added a career-high 26 as Wofford used a 55-point second-half to rally from a 16-2 deficit to open the game and post a 76-67 victory over Georgia Southern tonight in Spartanburg, S.C.

Trailing 51-39 with 10:50 to play, Wofford (11-13, 5-7) went on a 23-5 run over the next 6:57. Lenzy had 12 points during the spurt, including three 3-pointers and a breakaway dunk that gave Wofford a 62-56 lead with 3:53 remaining.

A 3-pointer by freshman Adrien Borders, who scored 12 points off-the-bench, gave Wofford its first lead of the game and the lead for good at 55-54 with 6:36 remaining. Sandwiched around Borders' trey were a pair of 3-pointers by Lenzy as Wofford connected on three 3-pointers in a 1:03 stretch.

"It was an unbelievable second-half effort," Wofford Head Coach and Athletic Director Richard Johnson said. "We came out and just took it to the hole and found a way.

"We started getting some rebounds and things started clicking. The crowd was tremendous and we just fed off it."

Stephens' 26 points surpasses his previous career-high of 22, set three weeks ago in the first meeting with Georgia Southern. He added five steals to go with four rebounds and four assists. Lenzy had five rebounds and four steals in addition to his 27 points.

The Terriers shot 53.3 percent (16-of-30), including 6-of-11 (54.5 percent) from 3-point range in the second half after a 5-of-31 (16.1 percent) effort in the first half when they trailed 34-21 at the intermission.

Sean Peterson had seven points as Georgia Southern (13-10, 6-6) took a 16-2 lead in the opening 7:24. Peterson finished with 13 points while Kashien Latham had 14 points, 15 rebounds, and four blocked shots. Frank Bennett added 12 points. The Eagles biggest lead of the night was 24-9 with 6:01 left in the first half.

"I really thought we learned from our last game (Georgia Southern scored 61 points to rally from a 20-point first-half deficit for an 86-78 victory over Furman)," Eagle Head Coach Jeff Price said. "In the second half, we started missing shots and they made threes. We were careless with the ball and didn't force turnovers."

Georgia Southern outrebounded Wofford 51-36, including 19-to-13 on the offensive end. However, the Terriers committed just nine turnovers to 18 for the Eagles.

Wofford returns to action Monday night at Appalachian State while Georgia Southern will travel to Davidson on Wednesday.

2001-02 Wofford College Basketball

Feb. 11, 2002, at Appalachian State, Holmes Convocation Center (8,325), Boone, N.C.; 7 p.m.

The Game

The Wofford basketball team will look to continue the momentum from Saturday's 76-67 win over Georgia Southern when it travels to Appalachian State.

The Terriers' first-ever visit to the Holmes Convocation Center begins a stretch with three out of four games on the road to close the SoCon regular season.

In last year's meeting, Mike Lenzly scored a career-high 29 points, including 25 in the first half, as Wofford posted its first-ever SoCon victory over Appalachian State with an 86-65 win in Spartanburg.

Worth Noting

•Point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring, rebounding, and assists. He is also fourth in the league with six double-doubles (points and rebounds).

•Justin Stephens, one of two freshmen in the Terrier starting lineup, places third among SoCon rookies in scoring (12.0 ppg). He had a career-high 26 points in Saturday's 76-67 win over Georgia Southern.

•Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson was promoted to Athletic Director on Dec. 3. He will continue to coach the Terriers through the close of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young, in his 13th year at Wofford, will then take over as head coach.

Meet The Head Coach

•Richard Johnson is in his 17th season at Wofford College. The 6-foot-8 head coach has a 100 percent graduation rate for all players who have completed their eligibility under him.

The Blue Island, Ill., native officially began his new duties as Wofford's athletic director on Dec. 3. He is coaching the Terriers through the conclusion of the season.

Johnson has been the runner-up for SoCon Coach of the Year honors twice in the Terriers' four seasons of league play. He ranks second all-time at Wofford in victories and fifth in winning percentage with a 236-225 mark (.512). His 200th win was a 79-74 victory at Clemson during the 1999-00 campaign.

A 1976 Citadel graduate, Johnson came to Wofford after serving nine years as an assistant at his alma mater under then coach and now Athletic Director Les Robinson.

During his Wofford tenure, Johnson has guided the Terriers from NAIA membership to NCAA Division II in 1988, Division I Independent status in 1995, and the Southern Conference in 1997.

All Times Eastern and Subject to Change

Wofford-Clemson Battles

- The last three meetings between Wofford and Clemson have seen a total of 12 points separate the teams.

- The Terriers built a 14-point first-half lead before the Tigers fought back and then held off a late Wofford charge for an 85-82 victory at Littlejohn Coliseum on Nov. 24.

Trailing by eight with 1:38 left, the Terriers closed within two points and had the ball with 34 seconds remaining before committing a turnover. Wofford missed a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

- Last year, Wofford rallied from a 20-point deficit to take a one-point lead with less than two minutes to play before Clemson came back for a 78-74 victory.

- In the 1999-00 campaign, the Terriers rallied from 17 points down in the final 10:43 for a 79-74 win at Clemson.

Making a Run in the Polls

Wofford was recently listed for two weeks under "others receiving consideration" in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25 poll by www.collegeinsider.com.

Law School Bound

Starting center Kenny Hastie took the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) in October and is currently undergoing law school interviews.

Due to a family emergency, he had to cancel a scheduled interview at Duke on Jan. 25.

Hastie did interview at the University of South Carolina Law School on Jan. 31, the morning after posting a career-best 15 rebounds at Davidson.

He has also applied to law schools at the University of Georgia and the University of Miami (Fla.).

Same Five

Prior to Grant Sterley's injury, Wofford had the same starting five of Mike Lenzly, Justin Stephens, Lee Nixon, Sterley, and Kenny Hastie in its opening 20 games.

Lethal Weapon 3

- Wofford's three-guard tandem of Mike Lenzly (15.1 ppg), Lee Nixon (14.1 ppg), and Justin Stephens (12.0 ppg) averages 41.5 points per game, representing 60.5 percent of Wofford's season mark (68.6 points).

- Lenzly (56), Nixon (38), and Stephens (24) have also combined for 118 of Wofford's 159 3-pointers (74.2 percent).

Schedule Difficulty

The tradition continued this season when it came to Wofford facing one of the toughest schedules in the nation for a mid-major Division I program. In their opening 12 games, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, NC State, and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina on Nov. 28.

The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule last season was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson, and Vanderbilt. Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 campaign, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Preseason Honors

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly received preseason All-SoCon honors from Basketball Times.

Lenzly was an All-SoCon selection from the league media last year after averaging 18.1 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.3 assists over the final seven games.

He posted Wofford's first-ever triple-double with 21 points, 12 assists, and 10 rebounds in a 105-69 victory over Chattanooga.

Chasing Triple-Doubles

Mike Lenzly has flirted four times this season with his second career triple-double:

Opponent	Stats
Chattanooga (Jan. 14)	17 pts., 7 reb., 6 asst.
Georgia Tech (Dec. 21)	22 pts., 6 reb., 7 asst.
Emmanuel (Dec. 8)	17 pts., 7 reb., 7 asst.
Florida A&M (Nov. 26)	24 pts., 14 reb., 7 asst.

Mike Lenzly

The Only One...

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the Top 10 in scoring (15.1 ppg), rebounding (6.7 rpg), and assists (3.6 apg).

and a Point Guard

- Mike Lenzly ranks second on the Terriers and 10th in the SoCon in rebounding with his average of 6.7 boards per game.

- Lenzly tops the nation in blocked shots for players 6-foot-3 and under with 22 rejections in 24 games (0.9 per contest). He tied a single-game school record with five blocks in the 73-64 victory over The Citadel.

SoCon Player of the Week

Wofford point guard Mike Lenzly earned SoCon Player of the Week honors (Jan. 2-7) after averaging 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds while playing all 125 minutes in leading the Terriers to three victories and first place in the South Division.

Lenzly added eight blocked shots, seven assists, and two steals. He posted a double-double of 13 points and 11 boards in a 66-64 win at the College of Charleston while tying a single-game school record with five blocked shots in the 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel.

The Staff

The following is an inside look at Head Coach Richard Johnson's three assistants:

- Associate Head Coach Mike Young is in his 13th year at Wofford and will take over the head coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. He has been with the Terriers through their rise from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent and the Southern Conference.

- Assistant Coach Bob Johnson is in his second season with the Terriers after a distinguished 10 years at the University of Washington (1975-85), where he led the Huskies to three NCAA Tournament appearances and four trips to the NIT. He was also head coach at Seattle University from 1985-91.

Johnson and his wife, Tish, are the owners and operators of two McDonald's franchises.

- Alex Peavey joined the Terriers two years ago after working with the basketball program at Virginia Commonwealth.

He is the son of Marion Peavey, a 1965 Wofford graduate and current Executive Director of the NCAA Foundation.

Winning The Battle

As reported in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Wofford freshman Justin Stephens won the head-to-head battle with 2001 National High School Player of the Year Dajuan Wagner in the Nov. 13 opener at Memphis:

	Pts.	Reb.	Asst.	T.O	Blk.	Stl.
Stephens	19	1	6	2	1	2
Wagner	18	1	4	3	0	2

Crowd Watch

- The Nov. 28 home game with South Carolina represented the first sellout in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500).

- The crowd of 13,586 for the season opener at Memphis was the largest to ever see a Wofford basketball game, bettering the previous mark of 13,548 at UNLV on Feb. 7, 1998.

The Ironman

Point guard Mike Lenzly has played the entire game, including two overtime contests, in seven of Wofford's 12 SoCon games. On two occasions, he played 39 minutes.

Lenzly was limited to 23 minutes against Chattanooga (Feb. 4) due to an eye injury.

The Ironman Speaks

On frequently playing the entire game, Mike Lenzly said, "It's no big deal. Practice is two hours. A game is only 40 minutes."

Fashion Statement

Wofford Associate Head Men's Basketball Coach Mike Young was named the best dressed assistant coach in Division I basketball last year by www.collegeinsider.com.

Young was nominated for the honor by graduated All-SoCon guard Ian Chadwick, who wrote a weekly journal for the web site. In his nomination, Chadwick referred to Young as a "pretty spiffy guy."

*Mike Young
Associate Head Coach*

Priorities

The 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2) was big for Wofford.

However, it ranked second on the priority level that day for Terrier Associate Head Coach Mike Young.

On the bus ride returning from Charleston, Young was beaming for a different reason. His two-year-old daughter, Cooper, used the potty for the first time back home in Spartanburg.

Women Beware

Wofford assistant coach Alex Peavey has been named by www.collegeinsider.com as one of the "50 Most Eligible Bachelors" in the Division I coaching ranks.

Freshman Impact

The Terriers' eight-man rotation features four freshmen (Justin Stephens, Sam Daniels, Adrien Borders, Jeff Tarr) with two of them starting (Stephens, Daniels).

Those four rookies combined to score 45 of Wofford's 76 points in Saturday's 76-67 win over Georgia Southern.

From Behind the Arc

Wofford was 7-of-22 from 3-point range, including 6-of-11 in the second half, in the 76-67 win over Georgia Southern after going 7-of-47 behind the arc in its three previous games.

Streak Over

Listed below are notables from Wofford's 66-64 win at the College of Charleston (Jan. 2).

Dating back to last season, each of the last four games between Wofford and the College of Charleston have come down to the final possession in regulation.

- Wofford became just the second SoCon team to win at the John Kresse Arena in CofC's four seasons of league play.

- Wofford nearly didn't make the trip to Charleston that day due to a statewide snowstorm.

- The Terriers had dropped 16 straight games to the Cougars dating back to Feb. 17, 1979.

- Wofford hadn't won at Charleston since Nov. 29, 1974, representing a stretch of 13 games. Head Coach Richard Johnson was in his junior year at The Citadel at the time.

Showing Progress

Since beginning Division I play in 1995-96, Wofford had increased its win total each year prior to last season.

Southeast Missouri State was the only other school in Division I to accomplish the feat over that same period (1996-00).

Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule was rated as the most-difficult in the nation last season with the previous year's slate ranking third.

Year	Record
1995-96	4-22
1996-97	7-20
1997-98	9-18, 6-8 SoCon
1998-99	11-16, 8-8 SoCon
1999-00	14-16, 8-8 SoCon
2000-01	12-16, 7-9 SoCon

Exceeding Expectations

- A consensus sixth-place pick, Wofford is currently tied for fifth in the South Division, just one game out of third and two out of first.

- Based on preseason predictions, Wofford has already surprised the SoCon in three of its first four seasons in the league.

- Wofford placed third in the South in 1999-00 after being a fourth-place pick.

- The Terriers were third in the South in 1998-99, two places ahead of their fifth-place forecast by the league coaches and media.

- Wofford finished second in 1997-98 after being a fifth-place pick out of five teams.

Future Terriers

The Wofford basketball program has announced the signing of two players to National Letters-of-Intent:

•Tyler Berg is a 6-foot-9, 225-pound center from East Gaston High School in Mt. Holly, N.C.

Berg is in his third year as a starter for East Gaston. As a junior, he was named team Most Valuable Player after averaging 19 points, 12 rebounds, and 2.6 blocks per game. He was selected to the All-Conference team and was honored as the Player of the Year by the Gaston Gazette. Berg was also named second-team All-Piedmont.

"Tyler possesses a rare combination of size, good hands, and the ability to run the floor," said Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. "Almost more importantly, he has a real passion to be a great player."

As a sophomore, Berg averaged 11.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game while being the recipient of a team rebounding award.

"I chose Wofford because of the atmosphere of the students and people on campus," Berg said. "Wofford is a good fit for me. The players and coaches were a big influence in my decision."

During the past two summers, Berg has played for the AAU Charlotte Royals. His team captured the 16-and-under national championship and placed third in the 17-and-under division. He was also a four-year cross country athlete for East Gaston.

•Howard Wilkerson is a 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward from Morehead High School in Eden, N.C.

Wilkerson is playing this year for Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy.

He averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds in earning Conference Player of the Year and All-Northwest North Carolina honors as a senior last year at Morehead. He was also on the All-Greensboro Area team and a selection to the East-West All-Star Game.

"Howard possesses a rare blend of athleticism, strength, and raw ability," Wofford Associate Head Coach Mike Young said. "He has long arms and is a relentless rebounder.

"He will be a very good player in the Southern Conference. We expect big things from him right away."

Wilkerson was an All-Conference football player as a wide receiver and defensive end in high school. He also earned Conference Player of the Year honors in track while competing in the discus and shot put.

"I'm looking forward to coming to Wofford and the opportunity to play right away," Wilkerson said. "I love the schedule that Wofford faces each year.

"I also love the players and coaches. It's a real good atmosphere on campus."

Double-Doubles

The Terriers have seen eight double-doubles recorded this season after posting just three last year. Wofford is 6-1 in games in which a Terrier posts a double-double:

Name	Stats	Opponent
Mike Lenzly	17 pts., 14 reb.	VMI (Feb. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 11 reb.	ETSU (Jan. 23)
Mike Lenzly	13 pts., 11 reb.	Col. of Charleston (Jan. 2)
Mike Lenzly	12 pts., 10 reb.	Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15)
Mike Lenzly	24 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Kenny Hastie	20 pts., 14 reb.	Florida A&M (Nov. 26)
Sam Daniels	14 pts., 14 reb.	Toccoa Falls (Nov. 17)
Mike Lenzly	19 pts., 11 reb.	Sacramento State (Nov. 14)

Freshman Sensation

Wofford guard Justin Stephens is the third-leading scorer among SoCon freshmen with a 12.0 points per game mark, including 13.6 in league contests. He also tops all SoCon rookies in assists (3.5 apg).

The 6-foot-2 native of Newnan, Ga., has scored at least 20 points in four of the last 10 games.

Sterley Sidelined

Wofford starting forward Grant Sterley has sat out the last four games and is sidelined for at least another week after suffering a torn meniscus in his right knee against UNC Greensboro (Jan. 26).

Sterley had already hit a pair of 3-pointers and grabbed two rebounds in his 13 minutes of action against the Spartans.

Prior to the injury, Sterley was playing the best basketball of his Wofford career. He had averaged 9.7 points and 5.5 rebounds in the previous six games, including a career-best 17 points at ETSU (Jan. 23).

Quick Starts

Wofford opened this season with a 9-6 record for its best start to a campaign in seven years of Division I play.

The Terriers open each season with arguably the toughest non-conference schedule for a Division I mid-major, averaging six games per year against major conference competition.

Following a 73-64 overtime victory against The Citadel (Jan. 7), Wofford was three games above .500 for the first time in Division I.

Terriers or Puppies?

Wofford's roster features just one seasoned senior (Kenny Hastie) with six of the 12 players in their freshman or sophomore year.

The Terriers entered the campaign with just four players (Hastie, Mike Lenzly, Lee Nixon, and Grant Sterley) who had played more than one season on the collegiate level.

The Scoring Race

Roommates Mike Lenzly and Lee Nixon, the SoCon's 10th and 14th-leading scorers, have gone back and forth all year in their battle for the team scoring lead.

Lenzly (15.1 ppg) currently holds a slight edge over Nixon (14.1 ppg) by virtue of 24 more points on the season (362-to-338).

Defensive Stops

•Wofford tops the SoCon by limiting its opponents to a 30.2 shooting percentage from 3-point range.

•Wofford is also fifth in the league in scoring defense, limiting the opposition to 68.5 points per game.

•The Terriers are 8-1 when holding their opponents to 64 points or fewer. The lone loss was a 64-49 defeat to South Carolina.

•Wofford's 56-46 win over Sacramento State in the Guardians Classic (Nov. 14) represented the lowest point total allowed by the Terriers in a win over a Division I team since joining those ranks in 1995-96.

Terriers at the Guardians Classic

Wofford opened the season by taking part in the 16-team Guardians Classic (Nov. 13-14). The Terriers were placed in the Memphis bracket. After dropping an 88-61 decision to the No. 12 Tigers, Wofford came back the next night with a 56-46 win over Sacramento State.

A Nailbiting Team

Five of Wofford's 12 SoCon games have come down to the final three seconds:

- Jan. 2 - Edvin Masic hit an eight-foot baseline jumper at the final buzzer to give Wofford a 66-64 victory at the College of Charleston.

- Jan. 7 - Travis Cantrell of The Citadel misses a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer in regulation that would have won the game for the Bulldogs. The Terriers go on to a 73-64 overtime victory.

- Jan. 12 - College of Charleston's Jeff Bolton hits a 12-foot jump shot with 0.8 seconds left to force overtime before CofC pulls away for a 73-61 win.

- Jan. 14 - Justin Stephens sees his reverse layup fall off the rim as the final buzzer sounds in a 79-77 Terrier loss at Chattanooga.

- Jan. 26 - Mike Lenzly misses a 3-pointer with three seconds left that would have tied the UNC Greensboro game. The Terriers drop an 81-76 decision.

Handling the Ball

The Terriers top the SoCon in committing the fewest turnovers per game (13.2), including just 16 in their last two contests.

Wofford's Rudy

Team Manager Brett Myers scored four points in six minutes of action while becoming the only Wofford player to ever be carried off the court at the Benjamin Johnson Arena as he made his collegiate debut in an 87-59 win over Virginia Intermont (Dec. 15).

A senior from Greer, S.C., and a four-year letterman in basketball at St. Joseph High School, Myers entered the game with 7:54 to play and the Terriers holding a 71-42 lead.

He made an immediate impact as he took part in Wofford's next five points.

Myers picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup. Myers then hit a 3-pointer to extend the Terrier margin to 76-44 with 5:35 left. He later added a free-throw to finish with four points.

Johnson at Wofford

The following charts show where Head Coach Richard Johnson ranks all-time at Wofford in victories and winning percentage:

Terriers Close to Wins over ACC Teams

Wofford came very close to a pair of wins over ACC opponents this season.

The Terriers built double-digit leads at Clemson (Nov. 24) and Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) before falling 85-82 and 79-70, respectively.

Wofford held a 14-point first-half lead and led by 11 at the intermission against the Tigers. The game ended with the Terriers missing a 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have forced overtime.

The Terriers led the Yellow Jackets by 11 points with 17 minutes left before Georgia Tech used its depth to rally for the win.

Stifling Defense

Wofford's 59-49 win over Furman (Jan. 5) represented the Paladins' lowest point total against the Terriers in 64 games, dating back to a 49-46 Wofford victory in the 1946-47 season.

Not Bad Company

Six of Wofford's losses are to three ACC teams (Clemson, N.C. State, Georgia Tech) and members of the Big 12 (Nebraska), Conference USA (Memphis), and SEC (South Carolina).

Versus The SoCon

With a 36-43 record (.456), Wofford has played nearly .500 ball in its brief SoCon history which began with the Terriers in just their third year in Division I.

Wofford's record against each team listed below includes SoCon Tournament action:

Team	Record
Appalachian State	1-3
Chattanooga	4-6
The Citadel	6-3
College of Charleston	1-8
Davidson	2-5
East Tennessee State	0-5
Furman	6-3
Georgia Southern	7-3
UNC Greensboro	3-2
VMI	3-3
Western Carolina	3-2
Totals	36-43

Against the League

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has posted the eighth-best record in the league, just four games out of fifth place. It's a mark made impressive when considering the Terriers' first year in the SoCon was only their third season in Division I. Listed below are the SoCon records for each team since 1997-98 (not including SoCon Tournament games):

Team	Record
1. College of Charleston	48-12 (.800)
2. Davidson	50-25 (.667)
3. Appalachian State	49-26 (.653)
4. East Tennessee State	43-32 (.573)
5. Chattanooga	38-36 (.514)
6. UNC Greensboro	38-37 (.507)
7. Georgia Southern	35-39 (.473)
8. Wofford	34-40 (.459)
9. The Citadel	29-44 (.397)
10. VMI	27-48 (.360)
11. Furman	25-48 (.342)
12. Western Carolina	23-52 (.307)

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Rising Through the Ranks

Wofford College is in its seventh season on the Division I level.

The Terriers also competed for seven years in Division II (1988-94). Prior to 1988, Wofford was an NAIA member.

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman, and Wake Forest are the others).

- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100, making it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force Head Football Coach Fisher DeBerry.

- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In the 2000 NCAA Division I Graduation Rate Report, Wofford is the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball, and women's basketball teams.

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course of study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

Greer, S.C. (St. Joseph)

2001-02: Team manager who suited up for the first time in the Dec. 15 Virginia Intermont game... made an immediate impact when he entered the contest with 7:54 remaining... took part in Wofford's next five points... picked up an assist when he fed Grant Sterley for a layup before connecting for his first 3-pointer... finished with four points... also played two minutes in the Dec. 18 Reinhardt game and again broke into the scoring column by sinking 1-of-2 free-throw attempts...

Did You Know: Myers doubles as the Terriers' team manager. At the conclusion of his collegiate debut against Virginia Intermont, Myers was carried off the court by his teammates. He is believed to be the first player in the 21-year history of the Benjamin Johnson Arena to receive that honor. Myers was also the last person to leave the arena that afternoon, turning the lights off and locking the doors behind him.

WOFFORD VS. APPALACHIAN STATE

Game 6 -- South Carolina 64, Wofford 49 November 28, 2001 Spartanburg, S.C.

Rolando Howell had 17 points and 10 rebounds while Jamel Bradley added 15 points on five 3-pointers to lead South Carolina to a 64-49 victory over Wofford before a capacity crowd of 3,500 at the Benjamin Johnson Arena in Spartanburg.

The Gamecocks limited the Terriers to 30.4 percent shooting while holding a 39-28 rebounding edge. USC opened the game with an 11-2 run and led by as many as 15 points at 27-12. However, Wofford held USC scoreless the final 5:17 of the first half and trailed just 27-18 at the intermission.

Wofford cut the deficit to six points on two occasions, the last being 35-29 on a Justin Stephens jumper with 14:06 to play. A Lee Nixon basket and a 3-pointer pulled Wofford within 42-34 with 9:59 remaining. Three-pointers by Bradley and Aaron Lucas then keyed a 14-3 run as the Gamecocks pulled away late.

WOFFORD VS. APPALACHIAN STATE

Game 12 -- Georgia Tech 79, Wofford 70 December 21, 2001 Atlanta, Ga.

The Wofford basketball team built an 11-point second-half lead at Georgia Tech before dropping a 79-70 decision.

After the Yellow Jackets scored the game's opening four points, Wofford stormed back to take its largest lead of the afternoon at 29-17 when Mike Lenzly hit back-to-back 3-pointers just 23 seconds apart with 8:10 left in the first half. Lenzly finished the game with 22 points, seven assists, and six rebounds.

The Yellow Jackets closed to within 35-32 at the intermission when B.J. Elders knocked in a 3-pointer at the halftime buzzer.

The Terriers came out strong in the second half. A 3-pointer by Grant Sterley and a pair of Lenzly free-throws built the Wofford lead back to 45-34 with 17:05 to play. However, Georgia Tech's press sparked a 24-5 run. In the middle of the spurt was a 3-pointer by Halston Lane to give the Yellow Jackets the lead for good at 51-50 with 9:42 remaining.

With Georgia Tech on top 58-50, the Terriers countered with two Kenny Hastie free-throws and a Lee Nixon layup to close within 58-54 with 7:31 left. Nixon topped Wofford with 24 points and a team-high and career-best seven rebounds.

However, a 3-pointer by Elder began a run of 11 straight Yellow Jacket points to put Georgia Tech in control at 69-54 with 3:38 remaining.

Game 13 -- Wofford 66, College of Charleston 64 January 2, 2002 Charleston, S.C.

Lee Nixon tied the game at 62-62 on a slashing floater with 57 seconds left. Charleston's Jeff Bolton then missed a shot in the lane, Mike Lenzly grabbed the rebound and went the length of the court for a layup to give Wofford a 64-62 lead with 18 seconds left. Charleston's Shannon Chambers hit a pair of free throws with 10.8 seconds remaining to tie the game at 64-64.

On the final possession, Lenzly again brought the ball downcourt and found Masic open on the baseline for the game-winner.

Charleston shot 57.1 percent in the first half and took a 32-24 lead at the intermission. The Terriers controlled the second half, outscoring CofC 42-32 and hitting on 53.3 percent of their shots.

Charleston stretched its lead to 10 points at 34-24 with 19 minutes left on a dunk by Mike Benton.

Nixon's 3-pointer with 13:58 left capped a 12-2 Wofford run and tied the game at 36-36. Nixon finished with a game-high 25 points, including 21 in the second half.

With 3:50 to play, Justin Stephens made an alley-oop pass to Nixon who converted it into a spectacular reverse dunk while being fouled on the play. His subsequent free-throw tied the game at 58-58 and gave the Terriers momentum down the stretch.

Lenzly finished with 13 points and 11 rebounds, the fourth double-double on the year for the Terrier point guard.

WOFFORD VS. APPALACHIAN STATE

Game 20 -- UNC Greensboro 81, Wofford 76

January 26, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

David Schuck had a career-high 24 points to go with eight rebounds as defending SoCon champion UNC Greensboro held off a gutsy Wofford effort for an 81-76 victory.

The Terriers were plagued by foul trouble and lost starting forward Grant Sterley after just 13 minutes to a knee injury. Wofford played stretches of the second half with four freshmen on the court.

In a game that featured 10 ties and 11 lead changes, Sam Daniels hit a 3-pointer to even the contest at 76-76 with 49 seconds to play. After Courtney Eldridge scored on a layup to give the Spartans a 78-76 lead with 39 seconds left, a Terrier turnover led to an Eldridge free-throw to extend the Spartan lead to 79-76 with 14 seconds remaining.

Wofford had a chance to force overtime but Mike Lenzly missed a 3-point attempt from the top of the key with three seconds to play.

Terrier freshman Jeff Tarr and Edmond Davis, who played a combined three minutes in the seven previous SoCon games, were on the court during critical stages of the second half.

Justin Stephens topped Wofford with 20 points, the third time in the last six games that he scored at least 20.

Game 21 -- Davidson 72, Wofford 61

January 30, 2002

Davidson, N.C.

Playing his first game without injured starting forward Grant Sterley, Wofford hung tough before Davidson pulled away for a 72-61 victory.

Lee Nixon had 20 of his game-high 26 points in the first half as the Terriers built a 36-32 lead. The Wofford lead was extended to 42-36 with 17:07 left on a Kenny Hastie layup. Hastie added a career-high 15 rebounds while playing just 25 minutes due to foul trouble. With all its post players plagued by fouls, Wofford used a four-guard lineup.

Davidson took the lead for good on a Peter Anderer 3-pointer with 11:16 left. Wofford trailed by just five at 63-58 on a pair of Adrian Borders free-throws with 4:16 remaining. The margin was still only five until Davidson pulled away at the line in the final two minutes.

Game 22 -- Wofford 78, VMI 68

February 2, 2002

Spartanburg, S.C.

Mike Lenzly posted his sixth double-double of the season with 17 points and 14 rebounds to lead Wofford to a 78-68 win over VMI.

The Terriers broke the game open midway through the first half with an 11-2 run, keyed by Sam Daniels' five points, to take a 28-16 lead with 8:42 to play before intermission. Wofford led by double figures the rest of the way until VMI closed within nine with 1:28 left.

Kenny Hastie had 12 boards for his second straight double-figure rebounding game.

Wofford nearly came back from a seven-point deficit in the final minute before Western Carolina, behind a career-high 29 points from Cory Largent, held on for a 77-71 victory tonight in Spartanburg, S.C.

The contest represented the final home game in the 17-year tenure of Wofford Head Coach Richard Johnson. With his promotion to athletic director on Dec. 3, Johnson is giving up his coaching duties at the conclusion of the season. Associate Head Coach Mike Young will then take over as head coach.

The Terriers (11-16, 5-10) faced their largest deficit of the night at 72-65 before Justin Stephens hit a 3-pointer to close the margin to 72-68 with 42 seconds to play. After Willie Freeman made 1-of-2 free-throws to build the Catamount lead back to 73-68, Kenny Hastie converted a layup and was fouled with 32 seconds remaining. His free-throw cut the Terrier deficit to 73-71.

After Kevin Martin was fouled, he made the first free-throw to extend the Western Carolina lead to 74-71 before missing the second attempt. Wofford had a chance to tie the game but Sam Daniels' 3-point shot from the corner bounced off the rim with 17 seconds left.

The Catamounts (12-14, 6-9) made 3-of-4 free-throws down the stretch to provide the final margin.

"The effort was there but we just couldn't knock down the shots at the end," Johnson said. "We had a defensive lapse that really hurt us and gave Western an open three.

"I really wanted to send our seniors out with a win, but we just couldn't do it."

Stephens topped Wofford with 23 points while Lee Nixon added 17. Hastie, a senior in his final home game, had 11 points and eight rebounds. Starting forward Grant Sterley, who had missed the previous six games with a knee injury, returned to the lineup and contributed seven points and eight rebounds in 19 minutes. Point guard Mike Lenzy grabbed a team-high 11 rebounds to go with seven assists.

"This was a gutsy effort tonight," Western Carolina Head Coach Steve Shurina said. "It was a good win for this team because Kevin (Martin) did not have his good stuff tonight.

"We talk about if we want to be successful our seniors have to play well, especially Cory (Largent). Not only did he score but all his baskets came at key times."

Martin, the SoCon's second-leading scorer entering the game with a 22.2 scoring average, had 18 points. He was 4-of-17 from the field, including 1-of-7 from 3-point range, while hitting 9-of-12 free-throws. Martin totaled nine rebounds. Point guard Casey Rogers also had nine boards to go with eight assists.

The game was tied 31-31 at the intermission with the second half seeing seven ties and six lead changes.

Wofford closes the regular season Saturday with a 1 p.m. game at The Citadel. The Terriers are locked into the No. 6-seed in the South Division for the SoCon Tournament and will play the second game on Feb. 28. The approximate tip-off time is 2:30 p.m. against the No. 3-seed from the North Division. Western Carolina closes the regular season Saturday at Chattanooga.
