Wofford has been notified by Sony that an Aimster site housed on an on-campus computer is providing MP3 files that contain recordings owned by Sony Music Entertainment Inc. (specifically, "I Wish You Were Here" by Incubus). They have informed us that both the person operating this site and Wofford may be liable for copyright infringement if we do not disable access to this site. The following two paragraphs are taken from the Sony letter.

"We are asking for your immediate assistance in stopping this unauthorized activity. Specifically, we request that you remove the site or delete the infringing sound files or that you disable access to this site or the infringing files being offered via your system. In addition, please inform the site operator of the illegality of his or her conduct and confirm with us, in writing, that this activity has ceased.

You should understand that this letter constitutes notice to you that this site operator may be liable for the infringing activity occurring on your server. In addition, under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, if you ignore this notice, you and/or your company may be liable for any resulting infringement. This letter does not constitute a waiver of any right to recover damages incurred by virtue of any such unauthorized activities, and such rights as well as claims for other relief are expressly retained."

To avoid liability Wofford must respond to this request. We now are blocking outgoing traffic (from Wofford to the Internet) from Aimster. We soon will begin monitoring network ports on campus to determine where peer-to-peer servers, such as Napster, Aimster, Morpheus, FastTrack, Audiogalaxy, and iMesh are located on campus.

Founders Day Dinner

Wofford celebrates the 221st birthday of Founder Ben Wofford on Friday, October 19th, 2001, with a campus-wide Dinner on the Grounds at noon. Founders Day 2001 will feature fried chicken and a 150-foot sandwich (one foot for every year of the college's history since the cornerstone laying in 1851). Buffet lunch lines in front of Main Building, opened in 1854, will serve from 11:50 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Guests will be seated on the lawn between Main Building and Ben Wofford's grave.

At 12 noon the college's restored 1854 Meheely Bell, rung frequently over the last 147 years, will ring for the first time since its recent restoration and automation, and it will ring hourly automatically hereafter.

At 12:30 p.m., President Benjamin B. Dunlap will commemorate the founder and the bell, after which the bell be tolled manually and the campus community will sing a 19th century hymn, "Bringing the Sheaves." Freshman Patrick Chapman, an award-winning bagpiper from Bellaire, Texas, will play an old Scottish folk hymn, "Highland Cathedral", as Chairman of the Board of Trustees Russell C. King, Jr., and President of the student body, Benjamin J. Foster of Kennesaw, Georgia, bear a memorial wreath to Wofford's grave at the center of the campus, followed by descendants of Rev. Hugh Andrew Walker (1809-1886). Credited with persuading Wofford to start a college with $100,000 of his estate, Walker served as Chairman of the Board of Trustees after the first chairman, William Wightman, was elected president of the college in 1853, and the college bell was installed and the college was opened during his chairmanship years.

Ceremonies will conclude at 12:55 p.m. with the reciting of the Wofford Prayer and the singing of the Alma Mater, with adjournment as the bell is tolled again.

In the event of rain, the lunch and ceremonies will be moved into the Burwell Dining Hall.

Letter from Dr. Dunlap

We had a dazzling Parents Weekend, and plaudits continue to pour in. Among visiting dignitaries, the Berwicks, of Apen and points west, were simply bowled over. Following their interviews with faculty, parents were walking about in dazed self-congratulation because their children are at Wofford. Prospective students and their families were agog at the various presentations—the Show Choir and Concert Band, the Wofford String Quartet, Heather Mitchell, the women's soccer and volleyball victories, and the game effort of our football team against what they reckon to be the best opponent we've faced. Every moment of the weekend, from the Founder's Day ceremony to the last parent lingering on the lawn on Sunday afternoon, was memorable. And— even in the middle of the night—each time I hear the new old bell ring, it's music to the ears! The whole Wofford team pulled together this weekend and we looked GOOD! Thanks and congratulations.

Bernie

Automated System for Daily Announcements

In an effort to improve communication on campus and remove duplication of messages, a new system for submitting daily messages is now available. Please submit all messages by visiting http://www.woffordcollege.org/blastemail. Using the interactive site, you may select the day that the message should be sent as well as the audience to whom the message is intended (all campus, only faculty/staff, or only students).

All messages should be submitted no later than 7am on the day that they are to be distributed.

Please contact Boyce Lawton (lawtonbm@wofford.edu) or Martin Elvington (elvingtonjm@wofford.edu) with any questions.

Hardware Audit for Faculty and Staff

Information Technology is in the process of reevaluating the leasing program so that we can run it more efficiently. Over the next month we are going to make a hardware audit of all Wofford computers so that we can make an intelligent analysis of current equipment and plan for future equipment acquisitions. This will help avoid computer shortages, faculty waiting for computers, and other inconveniences.

We need to gather information about college-owned computers (the type of computer and its operating system) for the database. We can do this in one of three ways:

1. Make unannounced visits to offices, classrooms, and laboratories to get this information from the computers. This is the default option, which we will do unless notified that a particular faculty or staff member would prefer one of the other two options. We will begin the audit on November 3 and must be notified before then if you prefer one of the options below.

2. Lead you through the information-gathering process so that you can give us this information over the phone. Please call Joe Brunet (4274) or Jim Sawyers (4277) from the Help Center for this option.

3. Visit your office or laboratory at a prearranged time to obtain the information in your presence. Please call Joe Brunet (4274) or Jim Sawyers (4277) from the Help Center for this option.
