- Time Change in Holy Communion
- Homecoming Band
- Service to Your Community = Reduced Debt
- GOD Panel

Time Change in Holy Communion

Please note: Holy Communion will be observed Tuesday at 5:15pm instead of 5:00pm. We hope this time will prove to be more convenient.

Homecoming Band

Come hear Mystic Vibrations 10:00 pm Friday night at the top of 'The Row'. Wofford students bring your ID. Students, faculty and staff who are over 21 can check-in with the security guard for a wrist band.

Service to Your Community = Reduced Debt

Are you worried about your student loan debt once you graduate? Are you interested in voluntarism and working with senior citizens, children, or families who need help?

Americorps National Service Initiative allows students to pay back loans with service, and it could be a great option for you. Come to a reception in the Bonner Lobby (upstairs from the Bookstore in Campus Life) tonight at 7:00 pm and hear about the possibilities.

GOD Panel

Tuesday night's program is one of our favorites: The GOD Panel. We have 3 ministers from...
3 different denominations come and answer any question you ask! It is great! We eat great food at 7:30 pm and the GOD Panel is from 8-9:00 pm. 582/5600 or www.spartanburgpsa.org

Talmage Skinner. The event celebrates the 222nd birthday (October 19, 1780) of Benjamin Wofford.

Visit with the 2002 Gubernatorial Candidates

From: Josh Whitley, Public Policy Co-Chair
Robert Goings, Campus Union President

We are pleased to announce, along with the Government Department, that both of the leading candidates for Governor of South Carolina have accepted our invitation to appear at Wofford this month.

Congressman Mark Sanford will be here on Thursday October 17, 2002 from 4:15 to 5:15 at the Player’s Corner. He will talk and take questions for a time and then mingle with the members of our community during a cookout social. All are invited. If you wish to eat, you may buy your meal from Aramark in the usual way.

Governor Jim Hodges will be at Wofford on Monday October 21, 2002 from 4:15 to 5:00 in the Papadopoulos Building. On the same day that the College Board is scheduled to release its annual report on college costs and accessibility, Governor Hodges will address lottery scholarships and higher education issues.

This is a great opportunity for the college to host these candidates in a pivotal election year. We understand that this time conflicts with labs, athletic practices, and other events, however, we urge your participation in these programs. We seek your help in promoting these special opportunities for the Wofford Community. If you have any questions, feel free to call or email either of us.

Bookstore Reminder: Textbook Adoption Forms

Dear Faculty members,

This is just a reminder that if you have not yet filled out your adoption forms and turned them into the bookstore, please do so before the due date printed on the top of your adoption form. Fall book buyback is not too far away and we would like to be able to give students as much as we can for their books. Please assist us in that by making sure book adoptions for all of your classes are turned in on time. If you will not be using a text for your course, please indicate that on your form, or call and let us know (x 4060). Don't forget you can adopt books on-line (instructions are listed below), or e-mail them to the store (wofford@bkstr.com).
Thank you very much for your cooperation,
Anna Davis - Wofford College Bookstore

Online Instructions:

Wofford College Faculty/Staff Daily Announcements

- To all Preministerial Students
- Parents Weekend Concert
- Leadership Spartanburg on campus
- Catholic Family Weekend Drop-In
- Home Games
- Interview schedule for October
- To all seniors from Career Services

To all Pre-ministerial Students

Ms. Donna Clacom, a Representative from Duke Divinity School will be on campus Friday, October 18th from 10:00-12:00. She will also be having lunch in Zach's. Please make your plans to meet with her during these times.

Parents Weekend Concert

The Wofford College Music Department will present its annual Parents Weekend Concert on Saturday, October 19, 2002 at 8 p.m. in Leonard Auditorium. This year's concert is entitled 'Let There 'B' Music,' and will feature music of Bach, The Blues, Broadway, Beach, The Beatles, Boy Bands, and Irving Berlin. Featured performers will include the Glee Club, Women's Choir, Wofford Singers, Concert Band, Chamber Players, Five and Dime, Wofford Men, Goldtones, and our 'own' Reverend Skinner. The concert is free and open to the public. Please support the music department by attending the concert and bringing friends and family with you.

Leadership Spartanburg on campus

For the past thirty years, it has been a tradition for each class of the Chamber of Commerce...
For the past thirty years, it has been traditional for each class of the Chamber of Commerce Leadership Spartanburg program to begin with a history presentation and bus tour conducted by the Wofford faculty and staff (most recently Doyle Boggs and Dr. Philip Racine). This year's program will begin in the Papadopoulos Building this Thursday, Oct. 17. Classes and other activities will not be affected, but the parking situation on the Church Street end of the campus will be even tighter than usual. We apologize for the inconvenience and want to assure everyone that the difficult situation will exist for one day only.

Catholic Family Weekend Drop-In

All Catholic faculty, staff, students and families are invited to a continental breakfast drop in this Sunday, October 20. It will be held at St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church (N. Dean Street downtown) between the regular 10 a.m. and noon masses (11-11:45 a.m.). No registration is required and there is no charge, but anyone needing directions or more information may contact Doyle Boggs at 597-4182. The Newman Club is the sponsor for the event.

Home Games

Be sure to go out and support the men's soccer team at 6:00 as they take on Davidson college and then head over to the volley ball game at 7:00 as they play UNC Greensboro.

Interview schedule for October

The following employers and graduate schools will hold interviews in Career Services this month. You must sign up for a specific interview time and, for employer interviews, submit a resume at least five working days before the interview date:

Employer:
- Tues. Oct. 22 - Southern Teachers Agency - both public a private schools -min GPA 3.0
- Tues. Oct. 29 - Milliken IS - CS major not required - GPA - 2.8

Law Schools:
- Mon. Oct. 21 - Wake Forest Law
- Wed. Oct. 23 - Cumberland Law

To all seniors from Career Services:

Have you thought about teaching? On Tuesday, October 22, the Southern Teachers Agency will hold interviews in the Career Services Office from 10 am–4 pm. STA hires K-12 for both public and private schools. Many private schools do not require certification, and no specific majors are required for these interviews. Deadline for resume submission to Career Services is Noon. Thurs. Oct. 17.

TIAA-CREF Campus Visitation

A TIAA-CREF consultant will be on-site to provide free one-on-one counseling sessions. TIAA-CREF can help you understand savings and investment strategies that you need to make and that are right for you to reach your financial goals. Sign up and meet with a consultant to discuss what they are and how TIAA-CREF's expertise, products and services can help reach your financial goals. Schedule an appointment today to have your financial questions answered by an expert consultant.

Date: Tuesday & Wednesday, November 12th and 13th
Time: 8:30 am - 5:00 pm
Location: Dean’s Dining Room - Burwell Building

RSVP: If you are interested in signing up for a counseling session, please call 1-800- 842-2003 or visit the TIAA-CREF website at https://ifs2.tiaa-cref.org/cgi-bin/WebObjects/ARS?EventID=32665.

Please make an effort to attend to ask questions about retirement, enrollments in the TIAA-CREF plans or other financial planning type questions.
Open Enrollment - Flex 125 Plans

A reminder to you that it is time to start thinking about 'Open Enrollment' for any changes you may want to make in your health care benefits plans for the 2003 calendar year.

We will soon receive the Open Enrollment information from Flex-Link, our 125 plan, with Flores & Associates. If you are currently enrolled in the Flex 125 Medical or Dependent Care plans or are thinking of enrolling this is very important information for you.

Additional communications will be sent within the next week with information from Flores & Associates.

In the meantime, please contact Jean Blackley at 4230 if you have any questions about this great Wofford benefit.

Want to win $1000? How about $2000?

If you want that $2000, submit the best op-ed piece in the Student Writing Competition on Alcohol Abuse Issues, sponsored by The Inter-Association Task Force on Alcohol Abuse Issues and Anheuser-Busch. For this year's topic and entry guidelines, contact Dean Beth Wallace in Health Services at x4370 or visit www.iatf.org before the entry deadline of Friday, November 8.

Rent Movies

Academy Award(tm) winner Robin Williams shakes up 1965 Saigon in the role the critics agree he was born to play -- irreverent, nonconformist deejay Adrian Cronauer. Imported by the army for an early a.m. radio show, Cronauer blasts the formerly staid, sanitized airwaves with a constant barrage of rapid-fire humor and the hottest hits from back home. The G.I.s love him -- but the brass is up in arms! Riddled with sidesplitting comic bombshells and studded with hot '60s hits, the film depicts Cronauer's raucous Saigon adventures amid a world gone mad. Good Morning Vietnam is a direct hit -- the classic Robin Williams comedy!

Come rent this and other great movies from the classics to new releases for free at the Box Office in Campus Life Building! Don't have a DVD player? Rent ours!

Round Table Discussion

Sunday night at 6 pm at PSA is a Round Table Discussion. You bring the topics! We provide the refreshments!

- Dr. Rayner to Give Gallery Talk Friday at 4 pm
- MCAT Prep Course - Kaplan
- Catholic Mass this Sunday

In connection with the library gallery’s exhibition of photographs of South Carolina Wildflowers, Dr. Douglas Rayner of the Biology Department will give a gallery talk at 4 pm on Friday.

In 2001 Dr. Rayner and Dr. Richard D. Porcher published A Guide to the Wildflowers of South Carolina. This monumental work has quickly become the standard reference for the flora of the state. The book is graced by Dr. Porcher's color photographs, reproduced in large format for this exhibition.

Copies of the book will be available for purchase during the talk.

MCAT Prep Course - Kaplan

For those of you planning on taking the April 2003 MCAT: Kaplan offers their MCAT prep course here on campus, for a fee of approx $1300. It will begin on approx 2/1/03.
Here is an offer from Kaplan:
Any student who signs up for an MCAT class before the end of October gets MCAT STAT free. This is an online, comprehensive review of the basic sciences. This normally costs $499. It has a 3-month enrollment period and starts as soon as the student has paid for their class. This would mean students signing up now could start their access and study all their science concepts before their MCAT class starts.

Contact: Cecelia Snyder
Manager, Kaplan Greenville Center
phone: 864 250-8830
Cecelia_Snyder@kaplan.com

Information Technology will hold Banner Web orientation sessions in the Olin 207 computer lab next week from Monday, Nov. 4 through Thursday, Nov. 7. Come to the lab anytime between 6 pm and 8 pm to work on 15-minute long lessons that will introduce you to the new Banner Web system. Bring your Banner ID and PIN, which you should receive sometime this week, to the sessions.

Milliken Recruiting Reception

To learn more about the Milliken - Team Wofford Summer Challenge Intern Program and full time career opportunities, attend the Milliken Recruiting Reception drop-in on Tuesday, November 5, from 11:00 am-2:00 pm, in the AAAS Room, Burwell Building. Refreshments will be served.

Milliken & Co. associates will be on campus to discuss the Milliken summer intern program and full time career opportunities. Stop by to meet our representatives and determine the process to interview for our summer program and for full time career opportunities.

Our recruiters will be on campus on November 19 interviewing current seniors (May 2003 graduates) for full time career opportunities, and for accounting/finance internships.

Our recruiters will be on campus on November 20 to interview rising seniors (May 2004 graduates) for the Milliken Summer Challenge intern program. This interview date is reserved for students who will be studying abroad in 2003. Our recruiters will return to campus in February 2003, to interview rising seniors who are interested in interviewing for the Milliken Summer Challenge intern program.
All interview sign-ups will be made through the Wofford Career Services Center. All students are invited to attend, as well as faculty and administrators.

Halloween Carnival

Please join us at the annual Twin Towers Halloween Carnival, 6-8pm in Andrews Fieldhouse, Thursday October 31.

November is Native American Heritage Month

Come join the Eastern Cherokee, Southern Iroquois and United Tribes of South Carolina, Inc. Cultural Arts Ensemble in a celebration of Native American heritage. This festive program will feature dancing, drumming and story-telling.

Wednesday, November 6 at 7:00pm in Leonard Auditorium.

Sponsored by Multicultural Affairs and AAAS as part of the Tapestry Series

Day of the Dead Altars

The Spanish 303 classes invite you to the Olin Lobby this Thursday and Friday to view their Day of the Dead altars. The altars remember human rights issues in Latin America and honor several groups of people: the 'disappeared' of Argentina; the murdered women of Juarez, Mexico; and the immigrants who have died crossing the U.S.-Mexican border. If you would like to add an item of significance to the altars in memory of one of these groups, feel free to do so. Please ask Dr. Barbas Rhoden or the 50+ students involved in the project for more information about the topics.
