JOIN US FOR A WINTER LIGHTING EXTRAVAGANZA

An invitation especially for R. Phillip Stone

All-Campus Winter Lighting Dinner Tonight – Faculty/Staff families invited

Join the Wofford family for a Winter Lighting Dinner/Ceremony tonight!

We will start with dinner at 5:30 p.m. for the entire campus--students, faculty, staff, and retirees, in Burwell, with some seasonal group singing.

Costumed Campus Union members led by Presidents Goings and Dunlap will lead the crowd across the lawn to face the steps of Main Building at 6:15, where Wofford Singers will present one seasonal number followed by a short presentation and the announcement of the lighting winner by Goings (Campus Union members making the selection), after which the Singers should lead the crowd at 6:30 p.m. to the lighted Row for hot chocolate, coffee, mulled cider, and cookies and cake, with Campus Union providing live or recorded music on the Row.

Everyone is encouraged to come in costume--even if only scarves or toboggans or reindeer antlers or Santa hats--or a mixture thereof.

Let creativity and frivolity run rampant, and uniformity be hanged. Rain Plan: sound system brought in at Burwell and program there, as well as dessert.
Human Resources

Jean Blackley has submitted her resignation as our Director of Human Resources in order to pursue other opportunities in her field. Jean provided valuable service to Wofford during the six months she was here and I know you join me in wishing her the very best and in saying thank you for all she did for Wofford.

Please continue to direct any human resource related questions to our HR office at the same number, 4230.

Presbyterian Student Association: GOD Panel

Blue Key National Honor Fraternity Drop-in

Blue Key National Honor Fraternity invites all faculty and administration to a Holiday Drop-In on Friday, December 6, 2002 from 8:00am-10:00am at the Acorn Cafe.
- SAC Christmas Party with Dave Matthews Cover Band and Five & Dime
- Holy Communion
- Seniors - deadline extended for February recruiting event
- Posters on Mathematics in Olin Lobby on Wednesday

SAC Christmas Party with DMCB

The Dave Matthews Cover Band will be playing a private party for Wofford and Converse students at the Magnolia Street Pub from 8-12 this Wednesday night. Be there early to hear Five & Dime open up and start the night off. We want this party to be a great success for all students. There will be a DJ downstairs for anti-Dave Matthews. See you there!!!

Buses to Magnolia's on Wednesday night will be running from IN FRONT of Old Main. See you there!

Holy Communion

Holy Communion will be observed at 5:15 Tuesday, December 3 in Mickel Chapel. Everyone is invited at God's table.

Seniors - deadline extended

The Career Services Office has extended the deadline for signing up and submitting resumes for the February recruiting event in Columbia: 5:00 PM, Wed., Dec. 4.

Posters on Mathematics in Olin Lobby on Wednesday
Want to learn about the mathematics behind the Egyptian pyramids? Or how mathematics inspired M. C. Escher to create his unusual pieces of art? Or perhaps you’d like to try your hand at solving puzzles using Tangrams, a form of geometrical puzzle that comes to us from China?

Posters on these and other fascinating mathematical subjects including Mayan math, the rhythms of math and music, and the three-dimensional figures of the icosahedron and the dodecahedron will be displayed in the lobby of the Olin Building from 9:00 am until 2:00 pm this Wednesday, December 4th. The posters represent a portion of the final project for the students in Dr. Knotts-Zides’s Math 120, The Study of Patterns, course. Refreshments will be served from 1:00 – 2:00 pm and the students will be available for questions at that time. Everyone is invited to stop by!

Wofford College Bad Winter Weather Policy

Wofford College ordinarily does not close because of weather that brings snow and ice to the area. Every effort will be made to hold classes and to have offices open. Commuting students should understand that classes are held, but that they are to run no unreasonable risk to get to the campus. The will be permitted to make up work they miss.

If an exception is made to this policy, Spartanburg radio and television stations will be notified. Otherwise, it is safe to assume that the college is open and conducting classes as usual.

Milliken Building Hours

The Milliken Building will be expanding its hours of operations for students to study for finals. The new hours will start on Friday the 6th and run through Friday the 13th.

Friday, Dec 6 - 8am to midnight
Saturday, Dec 7 - 11am to midnight
Sunday, Dec 8 - 2pm to 4am
Monday, Dec 9 through Thursday, Dec 12 - 8am to 4am
Friday, Dec 13th - 8am to 5pm

Please remember that no food or drinks are allowed in the Great Oaks Hall. Students are not allowed on the second or third floors on weekends or after 6pm without the express permission of the biology or chemistry departments. Students violating building policy or causing a disturbance will not be allowed to stay in the building.

Good luck on your exams.
First home basketball game!

Be sure to catch the first home men’s basketball game tonight at 7:00. There are only two before Christmas break!!

Wesley Fellowship Christmas Dinner

Wesley Fellowship will meet in the Mungo Room Press Box, (Ride the elevator up) Wednesday at 5:00 for a special Christmas Dinner. Great catered food will be served.

Birth Announcement

Healthy twins, a boy and a girl, were born to Karen and Jhon Akers, November 26, 2002.

Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols

The Annual Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols will be held Sunday at 4:00p.m. in Leonard Auditorium. It will feature students, faculty and staff so please make your plans to attend this special tradition of Wofford.

Men’s basketball game postponed

The men’s basketball game tonight against Taccoa Falls has been postponed due to the weather. A make-up date has not been set.

SAC party tonight at Magnolia’s closed

The SAC party tonight at Magnolia’s has been cancelled. Magnolia’s will NOT be open. The Dave Matthews Cover Band also could not travel in the weather, so it was not possible to hold the party on campus.

SAC is working to reschedule the event.

Please be very careful today. They should try to walk on the campus drive or sidewalks that do not have overhanging limbs. Do not stop and talk under our beautiful ice covered trees. Branches are still falling, and one student just missed being hit by a branch. Do not climb on any trees or buildings. Do not shake the branches. Report any problems or injuries immediately to Public Safety ext. 4911. Thank you

Roberta Bigger
Be careful!
Although the ice has melted there are still several broken branches hanging in the trees that could still fall.
Do not stop and linger under trees and branches.
Do not climb on any trees or buildings.
Do not touch any downed wires.
There will be several crews working all weekend to clear the campus. Please be mindful of them and do not interfere with their work areas.
Report any problems or injuries immediately to Public Safety ext. 4911.
Students - best wishes for success on your final exams.
Faculty - good luck reading and grading all those papers and exams
Staff - keep up the good work during this holiday season!

Christmas Programs Scheduled This Weekend

Wofford's traditional holiday season programs will be held this weekend with the Christmas Concert on Saturday night and the Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols on Sunday afternoon.

Both programs are free and open to the public. They will be held in Leonard Auditorium.

The Christmas concert, “A Wofford Family Christmas,” presented by the Department of Music, begins at 7 p.m. It will feature traditional and secular selections, including “Jingle Bells,” “Joy to the World,” “What Child is This?,” “Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas,” and “Of the Father’s Love Begotten.”

Performing groups include the Wofford College Concert Band, Women’s Choir, Gospel Choir, Wofford Chamber Players, Men’s Glee Club, Goldtones, Wofford Men, Show Choir, and Wofford Singers. This year, faculty members will join the Wofford Singers in singing “Hallelujah” from Handel’s Messiah. Conductors will include faculty members Gary McCraw, Christi Sellars and Peter Moore.

Sunday’s Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols, adapted from the traditional “Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols” held each Christmas Eve since 1918 at King’s College in Cambridge, England, will be held at 4 p.m.

The program will include performances and readings by various Wofford individuals and groups, and will be led by Dr. Talmage Skinner, Perkins-Prothro Chaplain and Professor of Religion.

No Campus Mass Sunday night

The Catholic mass previously scheduled for Sunday evening at 6:30 has been cancelled because of the potential overlap with the Festival of Lessons and Carols at 4 p.m. in Leonard Auditorium. Everyone is encouraged to attend this campus-wide service.
