Journal of Proceedings.

FIRST DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Camden, S. C., November 28, 1907.

Conference met in 102d session, (since re-organization the 43rd) at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Camden, S. C., at 10 A. M. Thursday on the above date.

By instructions of Bishop D. H. Moore, D. D., LL. D., a Thanksgiving service was had. The Rev. A. S. J. Brown conducted devotional services. B. G. Frederick led in a fervent prayer. After the singing of the first hymn, "O for a thousand tongue etc" the Thanksgiving Psalm was read responsively. A service of songs of Thanksgiving was held and the Conference was led in a very appropriate and fervent prayer by Father John Burroughs. The preaching service was led by W. G. Valentine, P. E. of the Sumter District. F. D. Smith offered prayer. R. A. Cottingham preached from John 11-28, Subject "The Divine Call to Man." The sermon was evangelic, full of pathos and divine unction and was highly helpful and comforting to believers, while the call to Mankind in general was emphasized—This call coming to the human race through Gods various providences. He said that the settlement of the race and all other human problems depend entirely upon the response to the divine call. God cannot be defeated. His plans and purposes cannot fail. He is infallible. All social, civic, and religious problems will be settled definitely and permanently by Christianity. Therefore, let us be Christians.

The closing prayer was made by C. C. Robinson.

A thanksgiving offering of $10.22 was lifted.

Announcements made. Doxology sung. Benediction pronounced by R. A. Cottingham.

Conference met at 2 P. M. The Lord's Supper was administered by Bishop D. H. Moore, assisted by the Presiding Elders.

The Secretary called the roll by request, and (134) one hundred and thirty four were present and responded.

Conference proceeded to elect a Secretary, J. B. Middleton, was nominated by C. L. Logan, and I. E. Lowery by F. W. Vance. Result of vote, the former 40, the latter 39. J. B. Middleton was declared duly chosen. He nominated the following assistants: W. H. Jones, J. McEady, W. S. Thompson, E. B. Burroughs, D. H. Kearse, H. C. Asbury. The nomination was concurred in.

J. C. Martin was elected Statistical Secretary. His assistants chosen by him were I. L. Hardy, L. L. Thomas, J. C. Gibbes, C. C. Scott. Concurred in.

W. R. Jervay was unanimously elected Treasurer. His assistants are R. A. Cottingham, B. S. A. Williams, C. K. Brown. Concurred in.

The Conference bar was fixed to include the space from the chancel to and including the fourth window therefrom.

The time for meeting and adjourning the sessions was fixed at 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. The first half hour for devotional services.

The special committees were nominated by B. F. Witherspoon for the Presiding Elders as follows, and was adopted. See list.

A motion by B. G. Frederick that the report of the Conference Stewards be exclusive of revision by Conference was laid upon the table.

Dividends from the Book Concern for $1,255, and from the Chartered Fund for $22 was presented to the Conference by Mr. W. C. Price, who was introduced and who spoke effectively in behalf of that great institution.

Bishop Moore spoke in high commendation of Byron Palmer's great book, "God's White Throne," and requested the Conference to appoint a member to solicit subscribers therefor. The Conference appointed C. C. Scott.

Resolutions by B. G. Frederick touching the division of conference in two or more conferences as deemed best were offered.

A motion by G. W. Cooper to table the same did not prevail. See resolutions.

On motion a statistical session of conference was ordered for 5 P. M. C. C. Jacobs was appointed to preside by the Bishop. C. C. Jacobs proceeded to explain the nature of the new statistical blanks.

Reports of collections for Foreign and Home Missions, Church Extension, F. A. S. E., Conference Claimants.

The 13th question was called and the Beaufort District considered.

BOOK CONCERN AND PUBLISHING INTERESTS

Your committee on the publishing interests of our church begs leave to report that we are very grateful for the increasing interest manifested in the literature published by the Book Concern, that the growth of its business is both rapid and steady, and that the Southwestern Christian Advocate, the Epworth Herald, and the Sunday School periodicals are finding their rightful places in our hearts and homes. It is indeed a pleasure to know that the literature furnished by our Book Concern fully meets the needs of our great church and furnishes a safe guide for Methodism. May we be faithful to the Book Concern, purchase and study more of its books and papers; thus only shall we be prepared for the larger duties before us and become workmen that need not to be ashamed.

Respectfully submitted,
N. W. Greene, Secretary, M. M. Mouzon, J. McCloud, Chairman.

GENERAL CONFERENCE BENEVOLENCES

The committee on General Church Benevolences beg leave to report. Realizing the value of these Benevolences to the life and growth of our Methodism, and the indifference of our people in some part to contribute liberally and largely to them, we would urge the ministers of the South Carolina Conference to bring their merits and needs regularly and intelligently to our people, and to labor assiduously to raise every cent apportioned to their charges.

L. G. Gregg,
for Committee.

EDUCATION

Your committee on Education begs leave to present the following report.

Education is the greatest theme of the day. What is education? We answer briefly, education is to know something, to do something, and to be somebody.

We note with pleasure that there is now a greater educational interest in this country and within the limits of the South Carolina Conference than ever before.

We are convinced that ignorance, vice, superstition and immorality must and will be overthrown by education. The enlightened and cultured mind elevates a people upon higher planes of usefulness and activity.

Better prepared and qualified teachers are now being chosen by the public school trustees of the counties of this state to teach our boys and girls, in preference to the incompetent and in some instances immoral teachers. We trust that the day is not far distant when the public school term will be lengthened all over this State so that the teachers, especially those in the rural schools, will have more time in laying a better foundation upon which to instruct the boys and girls in the rudimentary branches. We do earnestly request that the outlined plan for the Board of Education, Freedman's Aid and Sunday Schools, a copy of which is already in the hands of the preachers, be not laid aside, nor thrown into the waste basket, but carefully and faithfully studied so that all of its features may be fully carried out as far as practicable at the proper time in every congregation of each charge of the South Carolina Conference. We shall ask God's blessings upon Drs. Anderson, Mason and McFarland, corresponding Secretaries of said consolidated Societies and also upon their assistants.

Claffin University at Orangeburg, S. C., our great church (chch), still lies close to our hearts and we are more determined to stand by her and her cause than ever before.

The excellent report presented by Dr. L. M. Dunton, the able president of the school, to this conference, fills us with joy and shows that the school is steadily growing in educational, industrial and Christian interest. We regret very much to learn through that report that there is a present debt of about $6000, hanging over the institution, brought upon it because of the recent erection of several very large brick buildings, long needed on the grounds of the University, and other improvements made as stated in the report.

We, the members of this conference, do solemnly pledge ourselves again, to put forth every effort on our charges to raise the $12,000, that the the conference voted unanimously for Claffin in 1908. Dr. and Mrs. Dunton shall have our continued prayers that God may spare their lives among us for years yet to come.

Browning Home, Camden, S. C., under the wise management of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church is doing good work in this section of the state in preparing our girls for service and the responsible duties of life. We commend this school to the further patronage of the members of the conference.

Sterling College, Greenville, S. C. and Providence Normal, Agricultural and Industrial school, Cowpens, S. C., are good schools and doing commendable work in the Piedmont section, and we also ask the brethren to stand by these schools as far as they possibly can.

Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta Ga. We welcome Dr. Tiever one of the Professors of Gammon in our midst, and his address to us was one of inspiration indeed. We are glad to know that this school is at this time enjoying one of the best years in its history. That its present attendance is nearly a hundred students. Gammon shall have our continued co-operation as well as prayers for greater success in preparing men for the Christian ministry of this day.

We heartily endorse the communication sent to us by the President of Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, New Jersey, showing the excellent condition the school is in. A very large body of students is now in attendance and the school has a library comprising more than ninety-five thousand and volumes, and the buildings are in splendid condition for the comfort of the students.

Respectfully submitted,
J. L. Grice, for committee.

EPWORTH LEAGUES AND SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Mr. President, we, your committee on Epworth League and Sunday Schools, beg leave to make our report. We hail with joy the onward march of our young people in the great work of the church. We are ready to admit that the Epworth League is and must be a powerful factor in the uplift of our young people. But, Mr. President, we are not getting proper results in League work. The first reason is for lack of organization. Second, we are in need of hearty co-operation on the part of the Pastors and Presiding Elders.

We recommend that we do here in this session organize a State League with a President and Vice-President from each Presiding Elder's District. And that we hold a State Convention at such a time and in such a place as the Cabinet may direct.

Resolved 1st, That the Presiding Elders be ex-officio members of the Convention.

Resolved 2nd, That we thank Dr. Herben, the Editor of the Epworth Herald for the Epworth Herald, and we do recommend that at least the President of each Chapter should take the Epworth Herald.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

We have 434 Schools, 2735 Officers and Teachers, 28,900 Scholars in this state. While the above numbers are gratifying to us, it is not as it should be. Why? Because in nearly all of our charges may be found enough non-members of our Sunday Schools to supplement these numbers sufficiently to nearly double them. This can be done and should be done. Why? Because we should look more carefully after the youths of our congregations in order that in the future, when the children of today become the adults of tomorrow they may be already trained for further usefulness in the church.

Paragraph 349 in the Discipline says that it shall be the duty of the pastor, aided by the superintendent and committee on Sunday Schools, to decide as to what books and other publications should be used in the Sunday Schools. Too much praise cannot be given to Dr. McFarland, Corresponding Secretary of the Sunday School Union, for what he has done in giving strength to the schools of our church, mentally, financially, and spiritually. Dr. C. C. Jacobs deserves a kind word of praise from all for his words of encouragement and uplift. Dr. J. W. Moultrie, our International Agent, should be cheerfully received. The President of each Sunday School in each district is urged to hold Institutes in each charge where it is possible.

Respectfully submitted,
W. M. R. Eaddy, B. S. A. Williams.

W. H. AND F. M. SOCIETIES.

We your committee on Woman's Home and Foreign Missions beg leave to submit the following report:

We highly appreciate the good work that is being done by these two societies both North and South. Having a knowledge of the work that is going on at the Browning Home, Camden, S. C., and having heard of the most excellent work that has been and is being done in foreign fields for the conversion of the world for Christ and for the advancement of the Redeemers Kingdom, we hereby commend the efforts that are put forth by these faithful and Godly and consecrated women, and we hereby urge the pastors of the conference to take larger collections for the Woman's Home and Missionary Society.

Respectfully submitted,
W. David, E. J. Curry, A. R. Smith, J. A. Gary.

P. E. ACCOUNTS.

We, your committee on auditing Presiding Elders' Accounts, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have carefully examined each of their accounts, and have found that they are correctly kept. All of which we respectfully submit.

Isaac Myers, D. Salters, C. L. Logan.

STERLING COLLEGE.

To the South Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church.

Dear Brethren:—It is with great pleasure that I present unto you my annual report as President of Sterling Industrial College. The present scholastic year has been the greatest in the history of the institution in the way of obtaining recognition and prestige for the school. The State Board of Education has made it a Normal Institute to prepare the Colored teachers of the Piedmont Belt for the public school work. And the Board of Trustees of the John F. Slater fund have made an appropriation to it, and her claims are now being presented to other Boards and men of national reputation are taking hold of it. We have the Kindergarten, the primary, the English, the normal, the Licentiate of Instruction, and the college preparatory courses, together with agricultural, the carpentry, the brick masonry, the sewing, the cooking, the basketry, and the millinery departments. These departments are all under the instruction of eight competent teachers who are endeavoring to prepare the boys and girls of our race for useful and intelligent citizenship. We are now putting forth an effort to raise $1000, so as to secure $2,500 which has been offered to us in case we raise the $1000, which amount will pay the entire indebtedness upon the property and put the college on a permanent basis. This school is much needed here for the moral and religious uplift of our people, and we ask your help and cooperation in the work.

Respectfully submitted,
D. M. Minus, President.
J. B. Middleton, Chairman Board Trustees.

TEMPERANCE.

Upon this important subject we know not what expression to make, seeing that the State, yea we might add the Historic State of South Carolina, has taken the fiery demon out of the hands of individuals and dealing out the ruinous rum to men and boys without fear or shame. Worst of all is the liquor traffic in the form of what is known in the South as the Blind Tiger. This is where persons purchase the poisonous, alcoholic liquors from the Christian State of South Carolina and re-poison the already poisoned draughts and then at an extortionary price deal it out to the men and youths of our Country.

We are of the opinion that the closing of the dispensary in our cities and towns would lessen the intense desire for human blood, give men, constituting angry mobs, more time and patience to wait for the just punishment of criminals by the law and also lessen the provocations however slight they may be, which cause the angry furious mobs to resist.

Seeing the importance (during these critical moments of our lives) of each individual's using all of their God-given intellectual powers and realizing as we do that there is no agency so well equipped to benumb, weaken and destroy the intellectual powers of individuals as the agency above mentioned. Your committee recommends that this Conference urge all pastors of the churches in the bounds of our Conference to preach at least two sermons each year using the word "Temperance" as their subject.

S. Simmon, P. R. Cambliu, W. B. Romans.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE AND TEMPERANCE.

We your committee beg leave to submit the following: We realize that our people do not fittingly obey that particular Law which stands out so prominently among the ten. "Remember the Sabbath and keep it holy." We fear that our church people are to some extent losing many precious blessings that they might obtain from the Lord, due to the fact that they have not due regard to the day that He has hallowed, set apart, for holy worship and called his own. During the six days given, we are to rid ourselves of the burdens and cares of life in order that on the seventh and holy day we may present ourselves before the Lord with our souls, mind, heart and body unfettered by the distressing cares of life and wait at the altar until the Spirit of burning comes and all our sins consumed. Many take great pleasure in congregating themselves on the Lord's day in some secluded spot, to gamble, hold unchristian conversation and allow themselves to spend the day with nothing done to draw them closer to the bleeding side of the blessed Christ, but rather to darken the already dark picture of their moral lives. Others take great pleasure in driving long distances on the Sabbath, seeking curiosities leaving their homes, their Church and those dependent upon them, entirely in the hands of others. Many take great pleasure in visiting from house to house, carrying with them nothing but idlesome conversations, discussing the topics of the day.

Your committee recommends more (carefully planned) visits by the pastors of the churches till the entire Church become more and more in touch with this class and seek to renew in their minds once more that great Law of our God. "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it Holy."

Bishop and Brethren of the S. C. Conference:

I rise to make a request of the Bishop which I think will be somewhat of a surprise to all of the brethren of this Conference—only two of the members being apprised of the step about to be taken.

During the year 1867, that prince of preachers, Rev. Dr. J. B. Middleton, entered the South Carolina Conference, and forty long years has been in labors more abundant, and up to this time his mind is still vigorous and is acceptable and in demand as a pastor in all parts of the State; but not a single member of brother Middleton's class of forty years ago remains to answer the roll call. They have all gone to higher appointments, and today receive the reward of their labors.

During the year 1870, after first being appointed class leader and exhorter by Dr. Middleton, and having been instructed by him in the preparation of sermons, I entered the South Carolina Conference and thirty-seven years I have tried to do what I could for the upbuilding of my Master's Kingdom on earth, have, in a measure, been successful.

Not another member of my class is living to-day, and I alone am left to tell the story of those days which tried men's souls. Having been burning the candle at both ends for thirty-seven years, I am reminded by failing health that I am human, and that unless I am given lighter work, that I too, very soon will join my comrades, who have gone to their reward; I therefore stand before you this afternoon with my mind full of beautiful memories of the past achievements for God and humanity, to plead for lighter work, that I may for the benefit of my family remain longer to serve the Church, which has done so much for me.

This request, coming as it does so close upon my failure to be elected to the General Conference, might be construed by some to mean that I am disgruntled over my defeat, and by some it might be said that I am forced to do so by the appointing power, but I must assure you dear brethren, that I feel pleasant toward you as a "May Morning," and assure you that this step is taken by me of my own free will and accord and only in the interest of a longer lease upon life.

I feel to-day greatly indebted to the South Carolina Conference for the many honors which have been bestowed upon me during my ministerial life. I have heard ministers, who have advanced in years and who failed to get from the Conference what they ought to have received, speak boastfully and complainingly about what they had done for the Conference, but I am here to-day, my brethren, not to boast of what I have done for the Conference but to tell you that the little I have done for it is as nothing compared with what the Conference has done for me. I owe all my success in life to the South Carolina Conference.

Bishop, I say here to-day without the fear of successful contradiction that there is no man in Methodism who has been as highly honored as I have been during the same period of service. Here is my record Mr. President.

I have been sent to seven General Conferences, appointed by the Bishops as fraternal messenger to both the African Methodist and Zion African Methodist General Conference was appointed as delegate to the Christmas Conference at Baltimore and have been a presiding elder for twenty-five years out of the thirty-seven years I have been in the service of the church. Is not that a history that any man may feel proud of?

I thank you most heartily for all of these honors and though it gives me pain to make this request, I assure you that all of you have a warm place in my heart only to be perpetuated through the long ages of eternity. I bid you all an affectionate farewell as presiding elder, and assure you that under God I will try to be as faithful in my new sphere of work as I have been in the pastorate, and at last receive from our Heavenly Father the well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

J. E. Wilson.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas we have in our midst the Rev. Bishop McDowell, D. D., LL. D.: and

Whereas we learn with sorrow that he and his wife are here on account of the illness of their beloved daughter: Therefore, be it

Resolved 1, That we hail with delight the presence of Bishop McDowell in our Conference, and pray God's special blessing upon his daughter in the speedy and permanent restoration of her health and the prolongation of her life of usefulness.

2, That we suspend all work at this moment and engage in prayer for the recovery of the daughter of our beloved Bishop.

E. F. Witherspoon, W. G. Valentine, J. B. Taylor,
E. B. Burroughs, W. S. Thompson, J. S. Thomas.

Whereas the General Conference (of 1904), has appointed a Special Commission on Aggressive Evangelism for the purpose of awakening and developing the evangelistic spirit throughout the Church. And

Whereas Members of the Commission, in due performance of their duty, have been scattering appropriate literature, and encouraging special evangelistic efforts. And

Whereas the General Conference recommends the formation of evangelistic commissions in the several Annual Conferences, for the purpose of conferring with the General Conference Commission, and thus stimulate Missionary Zeal throughout the connection. Be it

Resolved 1, That we redouble our evangelistic efforts during the coming year, and that at each succeeding Annual Conference the pastors be requested to report the number of conversions in open Conference along with his financial report. Be it

Resolved 2, That a Committee on Aggressive Evangelism to co-operate with the General Conference Commission, be appointed at this session by the Bishop and Cabinet.

J. H. Fulton, C. K. Brown, R. L. Hickson, J. A. Brown,
M. M. Mouzon, J. W. Moultrie, N. T. Bowen.

On motion of C. R. Brown, the delegates to our next General Conference was instructed to memorialize it to grant us an enabling act giving us the privilege to divide within the next four years.

C. R. Brown.

In view of the fact that the apportionments for the various Benevolent causes were made before the consolidation of the benevolences, and in view of the additional fact that the new statistical blanks in use this year have not been easily understood by many of the members of our annual conference, thereby causing mistakes in the pastors' statistical reports. Therefore be it

Resolved, That this annual conference requests the Board of Foreign Missions, and the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, to disregard the figures in the reports and pro rata the total amount for these two causes according to the arrangement understood by these two Boards.

C. C. Scott.

Whereas there are many communities in South Carolina, in which the M. E. Church has not been established, and

Whereas the great influence of Clafin University reaches far beyond the bounds of the church in the State. And

Whereas through this influence the M. E. Church is greatly desired by the people in all parts of the State. And

Whereas we believe that the establishing of the Methodist Episcopal Church in hitherto unoccupied territory will help greatly in the moral, intellectual, and spiritual uplift of our people. Therefore be it

Resolved that the Bishop be requested to give special consideration to such unoccupied places in the arrangement of the appointments and in the distribution of the Missionary appropriations to this conference.

J. A. Brown, J. H. Johnson, F. D. Smith.

Resolved, That the members of the South Carolina Conference and members and pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, extend to Capt. Eldridgo, the proprietor of the Hobkirk Inn Hotel, our heartfelt thanks for giving Bishop D. H. Moore, D. D., LL. D., free entertainment for the benefit of the conference and church, and we do request the pastor to present to him a copy of the resolution.

Whereas we have been given such a cordial welcome, warm reception and hospitable entertainment by the good people of Camden during this Conference session, and whereas nothing has been left undone in making it pleasant for us.

Therefore be it resolved 1, That we hereby extend to them our heartfelt thanks for their kind treatment and for all the comforts of their homes, and we pray that God's blessings may rest upon them, and that our coming here may be a benediction to this city.

Resolved 2, That we extend a vote of thanks to the Presiding Bishop, David H. Moore, D. D., LL. D., for his fatherly counsel and brotherly kindness, and for the careful and impartial manner in which he has presided over our deliberations and for the great interest he manifested in us, and would be glad to have him come back to us next year.

Resolved 3, That we thank the secretaries, treasurer, and their assistants for the faithful performance of the work assigned them by this conference.

Resolved 4, That we heartily appreciate the courtesy of the various Railroad Companies in granting us reduced rates to and from the seat of the Conference.

Resolved 5, That we tender our thanks to the Conference Reporters and to the newspapers in this State for giving space in their columns for the publication of the proceedings of this body.

Resolved 6, That we tender our thanks to the sexton of this church for the faithful discharge of his duty in supplying us with water, heat and ventilation.

Resolved 7, That we tender our thanks and appreciation to the choir for having furnished us such excellent music during the session.

Resolved 8, That we extend our heart-felt thanks and appreciation to Bishop W. F. McDowell, D. D., LL. D., and the general officers of the church for their presence and timely addresses to the conference.

CHARGE VS. W. S. BAILEY.

To the South Carolina Annual Conference Methodist Episcopal Church.

Dear Brothers:—The undersigned, a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, complains to you that Brother W. S. Bailey, a member of the South Carolina Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, is guilty of abandoning his charge to which he was duly appointed by the duly appointed Bishop for the South Carolina Conference for last year, and is hereby charged therewith as follows:

SPECIFICATION I.

On or about the middle of April, 1907, the said W. S. Bailey did deliberately, and without getting the consent of his Presiding Elder, Rev. R. F. Witherspoon, or even consulting with him about the matter, Abandoned Greenwood Station, the charge to which he had been appointed by Bishop J. F. Berry, D. D., LL. D., the 26th day of November, 1906.

SPECIFICATION II.

That the said W. S. Bailey in his last communication to his Presiding Elder, about the middle of May, 1907, declared that he was not going back to the charge.

B. F. Witherspoon.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Memorial Services were held in honor of the deceased during the year, which opened with hymn No. 593, Servants of God, well done, prayer was offered by Rev. J. B. Thomas.

Drs. D. H. Kearse, C. C. Scott and F. D. Smith made very appropriate remarks touching the life and death of Rev. S. S. Butler.

Rev. C. K. Brown presented several ulogies on the life and death of Mrs. Elizabeth Quick and others.

Dr. A. G. Townsend also presented a ulogy of the life and death of Mrs. A. J. Robinson.

Rev. D. J. Sanders spoke on the death of the son of Rev. H. H. and sister A. D. Matthews.

Rev. J. H. Fulton also made remarks, touching the life of Mrs. Robinson and sister King.

A motion by the Rev. C. K. Brown, to have Dr. C. C. Scott prepare a ulogy on the life and death of Rev. S. S. Butler for the minutes, prevailed.

Notice was given of the illness of Rev. McIntosh. Benediction announced by Rev. D. J. Sanders.

MRS. CHARITY GRAY KING—The wife of the Rev. S. A. King was born in Woodruff, Spartanburg County, in 1852. She calmly fell asleep in Jesus, March 21, 1907, in the city of Spartanburg, S. C.

She was married May 7, 1868 and was happily converted at Holly Springs Camp Ground, Aug., 1872.

In 1864 and ever thereafter, she entered heartily into the work and hardships of the ministry along with her husband and faithfully labored for the Lord whom she loved for thirty-three years. While at Greenwood, S. C., in 1884, she faithfully served the Church as Sunday School Superintendent.

She constantly labored with her own hands in helping to educate her children and lived long enough to see four of them graduated into Claffin University and all of the others fairly educated.

She said to those around her bedside, that all was well and that she was going home to live with Jesus her Saviour. She leaves a loving tender husband and six children to follow her to the land of summer.

“For death shall bring another mating,
Beyond the shadows of the tomb.
On yonder shore a bride is waiting Until I come.”

MRS. EMELINE HANSCOME—Like as a full shock of corn cometh in in his season, so, tranquilly: Mrs. Emiline Hanscome, the grandmother of Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Wither- spoon, passed away from scenes terrestrial into visions of eter- nal glory, just when the sun was almost setting, July 11, 1907.

She was born in Charleston, S. C., April 26, 1828, and for more than fifty-five years she lived the life of a faithful Christian. The last seven years of her life were spent in Greenville, S. C.

Her last request was that her children sing for her some of the good old-time Methodist Hymns, and while they sang, she waved them a farewell, and was not, for God had trans- lated her.

One child, two grand children and seven great grand children have each promised to meet her in heaven.

“There will be a glad re-union by and by,
several hearts will be united soon on high;
Friend with friend again shall meet,
Joy and gladness be replete
In that land where sorrow never dims the eye”

MRS. ELIZABETH LEAK—The mother of the Rev. A. E. Quick, after a long illness and great suffering, passed away in great triumph to her reward in heaven, Sept. 27, 1907, at the age of 67 years.

She was a faithful Christian for many years. Her last days were spent in the home of her daughter in the town of Laurinburg, N. C.

Four children are left on this side of the Jordan, and they may follow her, one by one to the city where all is life, and they, long parted meet again around the eternal throne of Him whom she served so long and well during her pil- grimage on earth.

“Death is the crown of life!
Were death denied, poor man would live in vain:
Were death denied, to live would not be life:
Were death denied, e’en fools would wish to die:
Death wounds to cure; we fall, we rise, we reign.”

MRS. AMIA M. ROBINSON—The late wife of our Brother A. J. Robinson, fell asleep in Jesus Sept. 26, 1907. She was born in the county of Orangeburg in the year 1860, joined the Methodist Episcopal Church and became a Christ- ian while quite a young girl.

Twenty-six years ago she became the wife of our brother A. J. Robinson. Their union was blessed with six children three of whom, two girls and a boy, survive her.

Hers was a quiet peaceful, unobtrusive life, of beautiful Christian consistency, full of faith and good works.

She was very helpful to her husband on the charges served by him, winning and holding many friends to the cause of Christ.

“There will be a glad reunion by and by,
Several hearts will be united soon on high;
Friend again shall meet,
Joy and gladness be replete
In that land where sorrow never dims the eye.”

MRS. AMANDA KING FOSTER—The daughter of the Rev. Sanders A. King, was born at Rock Mills S. C. in Aug. 1881 and passed out of the seen into the unseen, Feb. 24, 1907 near the city of Spartanburg, S. C.

She was converted in early life while a student at Claflin University and ever after that strove to live the life of a Christian.

She was married only a short time to Mr. Foster, who still survives.

She lived and died in the faith and was taken to the glory land by Him whom she loved so well, almost one month before her mother. She was young and beautiful, but de- sired to be with Jesus, the fairest among ten thousand and altogether lovely.

In the last moments of her life she called her sisters and brothers and friends and urged them all to meet her in Hea- ven, saying:

“I know that mother and father will meet me there.”
“In yonder field are children playing,
And there, O vision of delight!—
I see the child and mother straying
In robes of white.”

FANNIE RUTH THOMAS—The eldest daughter of Rev and Mrs. J. B. Thomas was born in Orangeburg County S. C., December 24 1888.

In early life she gave herself to the Lord Jesus, whom she faithfully served on earth until called by Him into the city which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God, Dec. 26 1906 while living in the town of Lake City S. C.

She was a beautiful child, a loving sister, a faithful member of the Church and Sunday School and a young en- thusiastic Christian. She daily studied the word of God and took delight in singing the songs of Zion. While in school studying the problems of life, in fact everywhere she turned to labor, she led and in leading, she always followed the Lord Jesus for, He was her ideal.

On Easter Sunday, 1906, among other things she wrote the following:

"Oh! how sweet it is to live so happily with dear mother, father, sisters and brothers; but some day we will have to part. I am so glad that we can all meet at the feet of Jesus and sing praises of joy. I am trusting, sweetly trusting in my Lord."

Thus after having lived well, she died in triumph and is now an inhabitant of that country where all shall live forever.

"All for the best! set this on your standard,
Soldier of sadness, or pilgrim of love,
Who to the shores of despair may have wandered
A way-faring swallow, or heart stricken dove.
All's for the best! be a man, but confiding,
Providence tenderly governs the rest,
And the frail barks of His creatures is guiding,
Wisely and warily, all's for the best!"

WILLIE LEON MATTHEWS—The son of the Rev. H. H. Matthews was born Nov. 12, 1894, at Bamberg, S. C., and was accidentally shot and killed by his brother Warren Feb. 9th of this year. The occurrence was indeed sad, and what was more sad, neither his father nor mother was home, having left the children in the care of their grand parents, they went to visit their sister.

Leon had joined the Church and was a faithful member of both the Sunday School and the Epworth League. He was greatly beloved by all who knew him. His tragic death shocked the community and cast a dark gloom upon his heart-stricken parents. His funeral was attended by your humble servant and Rev. G. J. Davis, our presiding elder.
