Chris Strauber joins Library

Mr. Chris Strauber has joined the professional staff of the Sandor Teszler Library as Reference/Web services Librarian. Mr. Strauber holds the BA from the University of Akron, the MA in Ancient History from the University of Cincinnati, and the MLS from Kent State University. He has served as a reference assistant at Grandview Heights Public Library and Ohio State University. At Wofford he will work in reference, library instruction, and development of the library's web resources.

You may contact Mr. Strauber at 4300 or strauberc@wofford.edu.

Peter Mayer in Concert

Peter Mayer, who is Jimmy Buffett's lead guitarist, will be performing at Wofford on Wednesday, January 7, and not January 6 as may have been announced in local media. The concert will be in the Papadopoulos Building at 7:00 pm and is free and open to the public. Mayer is a major, popular artist with a fervent fan base. Please see his Web site at www.PeterMayer.com for details about his work. Contact Prof. David Pittman for information.

Immunology Review for MCAT/DAT/VCAT Tonight

Dr. Moss will offer a review session for those students planning on taking the April MCAT, DAT, or VCAT tonight, Wednesday 1/7, 6:30-7:30 in the Milliken amphitheater. This will be the first hour of a two session introduction to immunology, for students who will not have taken immunology by their exam. Please help spread the word.

Interim Drop/Add
Monday was the only day for Interim drop/add. There will be no more course changes for Interim 2004.

Volunteers needed for solicitor's office

Solicitor Trey Gowdy needs 5 students who would be prepared to work for about 4 hours a week each on the Violence Against Women grant. If you are interested, further information is available from Dr Hitchmough at hitchmoughsa@wofford.edu.

Newman Club

The Newman Club and Catholic Campus ministries will sponsor a discussion series (open to everyone) each Thursday during Interim at 12:15 p.m. in the Holcombe Room. The discussions will be based on 'Twelve Tough Issues & More' by Archbishop Daniel E. Pilarczyk. These are very brief articles and our plan is to read them at the beginning of the program and use the suggested questions at the conclusion of the article as the jumping-off point for discussion. Discussions will be facilitated by Eric Helmueller, director of youth ministry at Jesus, Our Risen Savior parish here in Spartanburg. Participants may pick up a lunch from the Faculty Dining Room or the upstairs cafeteria and bring their trays.

The four Interim discussions will concern:
January 8- the Authority of the Church
January 15- Ordination of Women
January 22- Abortion
January 29- Marriage and Divorce

Questions: Contact either Erin Welch or Doyle Boggs (ext. 4182).

PSA Bible Fellowship

Join us at our new time on Thursday. We will meet in Zach's at 5:15pm for Bible Fellowship. Come in and find us at a table.

Basketball posters available

Wofford men's and women's basketball schedule posters are now available and can be picked up (while supplies last) inside the Campus Life Lobby anytime.

Posters can also be picked up during games at the information table located on the West Concourse of the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

Thanks to Palmetto Grill on Whitney Road and the Real Yellow Pages from BellSouth for sponsoring this year's basketball posters.

Lost and Found

Lost: an orange and black cd walkman with headphones. I lost it right before Christmas break in Milliken. Please contact hartnesstk@wofford.edu.
Talk by candidate for Chinese position

Friday, January 9, 3:00-4:00, the Wofford community is invited to an informal talk by Prof. Li Qing Kinnison, a candidate for the new position in Chinese. Prof. Kinnison will speak on "Cross-cultural communication between East and West," and will give a brief lesson on Chinese calligraphy. She’ll even teach us to say a few words of greeting in Chinese. Please welcome her as she speaks Friday in Olin 213.
Please be aware that over the next several days, there will be construction work on the drive next to Public Safety. At times, this will require that you walk around - or through - the Campus Life Building. Please honor construction barriers and do not cross them. Thank you for your cooperation.

From Career Services-- Summer Opportunities

The Barbara Jordan Health Policy Program is now accepting applications for the summer of ’04. This Scholars Program brings ethnic/minority college seniors/recent graduates to DC where they work in congressional offices to learn about health policy. Compensation is $5,000 and application deadline is January 30, 2004. For application and more information, go to www.kff.org/docs/topics/jordanscholars.html

'Breakthrough--Students Teaching Students': This is a national program (ranked by The Princeton Review as one of the top 10 internships programs) which provides tuition-free educational programs to bright but disadvantaged students from middle schools. Southeastern cities include Raleigh, Atlanta, and Richmond. The teachers are high school and college students. The stipend is $1,000 and round one application deadline is Feb. 9, 2004. For application, see http://www.breakthroughcollaborative.org

Talk: Chinese Lessons

Please come Friday, January 16 at 2:00 to the second in our series of five informal talks and Chinese lessons by candidates for the new position in Chinese. Prof. Xiaoxing Liu will speak in Olin 213. All Wofford faculty, staff and students are invited.

Entertainment

Do You Love the 80's?
Celebrate the 80's with the "80's Flashback Fabulous Film Festival" every Monday & Wednesday in Interim at 9 pm in McMillan Theatre. Join us for "The Breakfast Club" tonight at 9pm.

Attention all Greeks

The yearbook needs candid pictures of Greek organizations' parties, retreats, etc. (no Bid Day pics please) We especially need photos of last year’s Greek Games. It is important to help provide photos if you want your organization fully represented in the yearbook. Please send all photos ASAP to CPO 957 (with your name and CPO on the backs of the photos), and they will be returned to you by the end of January.

Wofford vs. Davidson - 2:30 pm Saturday

Contrary to what was printed on the promotional posters, schedule cards and magnets...and what has been recently printed in the Herald-Journal, tip off for Saturday's men's basketball game with Davidson is 2:30 pm in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

Again, 2:30 pm, Saturday against Davidson and the game is televised regionally on FOX Sports Net South. Spread the word and bring a friend.

Volunteers for Howard Dean

The Howard Dean campaign here in upstate South Carolina has recently opened an office in Greenville and they have many great volunteer opportunities to offer. The work is fun and exciting.

They are open seven days a week from 9 am - 9 pm and could use help in several areas including phone banking, data entry and canvassing. They need people in at any time of the day. Below is a list of when they will be doing paid canvassing, which pays $6.00/hr.:

Final Call for Animal Care and Use Protocols

The Wofford College Animal Care and Use Committee approves and oversees the humane and ethical use of animals in research on campus. The ACUC is currently accepting protocols to be reviewed at its semiannual meeting in February of 2004. This is the final announcement. Protocols are to be submitted to Dr. Dave Pittman (pittmandw@wofford.edu or CPO104) no later than 5 PM on Monday, Feb. 6. ACUC policies, guidelines for protocols, and forms for protocol submissions are available on the web at: http://dept.wofford.edu/psychology/ACUC/

Please contact Dr. Dave Pittman (pittmandw@wofford.edu or ext. 4644) for further information.

Dance Clinic

The Wofford Dance Team is hosting a Dance Clinic on Saturday, February 14, 2004 for girls ages 5-12. The cost is $30 per girl which includes the clinic, watching a movie in McMillan Theatre, t-shirt, and dinner. The girls will be performing during the second media time-out of the first half at the men's basketball game against Furman. For more details, contact Heather Morrow at morrowhj@wofford.edu.

Can you sing the Alma Mater?

If you would like to carry on the tradition left by the Rev. Talmadge Skinner and lead the Wofford faithful in singing the Alma Mater following every men's basketball game, please contact Lenny Mathis at ext. 4110.

Talk Mon. Jan. 19: Chinese Culture and Language

Monday, January 19 at 2:00, the third in our series of five informal talks and Chinese lessons will be presented by Prof. Hang Du, a candidate for the new position in Chinese. All Wofford faculty, staff and students are invited to Prof. Du's presentation in Olin 213.
A Wofford Workshop on Personal Productivity will be offered January 29, 2004 in the McMillan Theatre conducted by Darrin Goss, Director of Multicultural Affairs and Leadership Programs. This workshop will assist students in learning how to manage their time to the best advantage. To sign up for these workshops contact Mr. Goss at extension 4043 or by email at gossd@wofford.edu. Additional study skill workshops will be offered to students in February.

Public Folders for Spring 2004 Semester

Public Folders for the Spring 2004 semester will be created by request only. If you plan to use Public Folders in your class for the spring 2004 semester please send an email message to Ron Wood (woodjr@wofford.edu). Include the course, number, and section of the class in the email message. Please allow 24 hours for your request to be processed.

Go Panthers!

Spartanburg Loves Our Carolina Panthers!

The City has a 20-foot banner hanging at the Beacon that we want to cover up with signatures from Spartanburg. The banner will be hitching a ride to Houston Friday morning and will be hung in the hotel where the Panthers are staying – and possibly at the game. (We aren’t sure about this, but if they can get it in there, they will.) You have until the Beacon closes Thursday night (9:30 pm) to sign it. Show your support of the Panthers and stop by the Beacon to sign the banner.

Bon Voyage

The Director of Residence Life, Robert Knott, is leaving Wofford on Friday to pursue a doctoral degree in Classical Japanese. Please join me in thanking Robert and his wife, Chie, who works in the bookstore, for being members of the Wofford Community. You may contact Robert at ext. 4042, email him at knottre@wofford.edu or stop by the office to see him. We wish him great success.

A Time to Celebrate Culture

On February 19, 2004 at 7:30, we are having a wonderful celebration of African American culture called the Literary Salon. We are inviting people of all races and backgrounds to come out and celebrate with us. If you a have a special talent and want to display it, or just want more info- please contact Tanya George at ext. 4863 or email us at literarysalon2004@hotmail.com Can't wait to see you there!

Please keep Pat Smith in the Office of Communications in your thoughts and prayers. Her mother passed away Monday night after a brief illness. Details of arrangements have not been made, but it is our understanding that services and burial likely will take place in Ohio. Pat's daughter is a freshman here at Wofford.
Great sadness and loss to Wofford College and the community

It is with great sadness and loss to Wofford College and the community to report that James Curtis Anderson, well known and much beloved Utilities Supervisor in the Physical Plant, was killed in an automobile accident last evening about 7:20 p.m. Curtis began his twelve-year career with Wofford College in July of 1992 as a Temporary Utilityman. Curtis’ professionalism, loyalty, and extraordinary leadership were recognized by all and in July 1994 he was promoted to Utilities Supervisor. Curtis will be remembered as a patient, kind, and beloved friend to us. Please take time to remember Curtis’ family in your prayers and thoughts and let the warm and cherished memories of our beloved friend remain in your hearts.
