The Bishop, with the assistance of the Superintendents, with a relative or special friend near by each candidate, ordained them Elders in the Church of God. This service was very impressive.

On motion of N. S. Smith, after the reading of the appointments, the Conference stood adjourned sine die.

The Bishop made a brief address, then read the appointments and pronounced the benediction, and the Conference session of 1918 passed into history.

F. D. LEETE, President,
W. S. THOMPSON, Secretary.

I do hereby certify that this volume is a complete and correct record of the proceedings, and it was adopted by the Conference as its official record.

W. S. THOMPSON, Secretary.

EVENING SERVICES

FIRST DAY—EVENING SERVICE

The anniversary of the Centenary Commission was opened promptly at the appointed time, Dr. L. M. Dunton in the chair. Hymn, "Come Ye That Love the Lord" was sung. Prayer was offered by L. G. Gregg. The Rev. Mr. Dewey, Field Secretary, was introduced and represented his department of the Centenary movement in good style. Dr. Mell was introduced and gave his stereopticon lecture, which was brim full of information touching the lives of our people in the home and foreign fields. A collection was taken by Drs. Jacobs and Townsend. Announcements were made, after which A. G. Townsend pronounced the benediction.

SECOND DAY—EVENING SERVICE.

The hour having arrived, the devotional services were led by Dr. L. M. Dunton. "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing" was sung; C. C. Clarke led in prayer. Hymn 332 was sung. The Bishop and Dr. Dunton suggested that we have some spiritual songs. W. S. Thompson volunteered and led "I'll Overcome Some Day," and "Steal Away" to good effect. This was refreshing indeed.

Dr. L. M. Dunton, in a few choice remarks, introduced Bishop F. D. Leete, D.D., L.L.D., who made a powerful and impressive speech on the endowment of Claflin College and "The Education of the Negro." Dr. L. M. Dunton called for volunteers to speak on the subject of endowment. The following spoke: Dr. J. A. Brown, M. M. Mouzon, W. S. Thompson, J. B. Taylor, C. R. Brown, A. G. Kenedy.

The Secretary was requested to call the roll, to which followed a hearty response by the pastors and others. The benediction was pronounced by Bishop F. D. Leete.

REPORTS

COMMITTEE ON AUDITING ACCOUNTS

Your Committee beg leave to state that they have carefully examined the books of the several district superintendents and have found them correctly balanced and the receipts properly signed.

J. H. JOHNSON,
B. J. McDANIEL.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

We, your Committee, beg leave to submit the following report:

We see that this Society is doing a great work in distributing the Word of God among our people. Each year its sales are increased, and the people have the Word of God as never before. In view of this fact, your Committee ask that each minister see to it that his charge make a more liberal contribution each year for this worthy cause.

Respectfully submitted.

J. C. COX,
DANIEL BROWN,
D. SALTERS,
J. R. MURRAY,
S. J. COOPER,
I. C. WHILY,
C. H. DANGERFIELD.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE MINUTES

We, your Committee on District Conference Minutes, beg leave to submit the following report:

We find that the minutes of the Beaufort, Bennettsville, Charleston, Florence, Greenville and Sumter Districts are properly kept and published.

SOLOMON PEARSON,
J. C. GIBBS,
J. W. WHITE.

GENERAL CHURCH BENEVOLENCES

We, the undersigned, beg leave to submit our report on General Church Benevolence:

We are glad to note that the eyes of the Church are open to the fact that General Benevolence is the only guarantee of the future church life. We, therefore, appeal to the pastors and laymen of the South Carolina Conference to increase the same.

Respectfully submitted.

G. B. TILLMAN,
H. W. WILLIAMS,
M. B. MASON,
M. O. STEWARD,
J. W. TAYLOR,
A. J. POGUE,
J. F. GREEN,
H. L. STEWARD,

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

Whereas, "ignorance is a curse to any people," and, inasmuch as the ignorance of our people was so vividly brought to view by the recent draft; and whereas, there is an increasing demand for prepared men and women of our race. Therefore be it Resolved, that we, the ministers and laymen of the South Carolina Conference, mobilize our forces for the purpose of "going over the top" in every educational movement of the church.

Respectfully submitted.

Yours for the Committee,
ISAAC MYERS.

RESOLUTION ON EDUCATION

Whereas, the year 1919 will be the semi-centennial year of the founding of Claflin University, and whereas, the $100,000 endowment necessary to place the school in rank of a college, should be reported raised in full by the session of our next Annual Conference, and whereas, in order to maintain the charter name of the school—Claflin University—we should continue our endowment effort after the $100,000 now being raised shall have been completed; and whereas, all of our people should be brought in closer touch with this movement by actual individual work; Therefore, be it Resolved, That each church be requested to plant one acre in cotton or other product to be known as the Claflin University Endowment Acre, and that the net proceeds of sale of crop or crops on said acre be applied to the endowment fund.

And, be it Resolved, That the district superintendents and pastors be requested to present this plan to our people at the beginning of the year 1919, and recommend its adoption by them.

J. A. BROWN.

I, one of the visitors appointed to visit Gammon Theological Seminary, beg leave to make the following report:

I have visited this great seminary and I found the classes well organized, the students ably instructed. We have at Gammon the best prepared theological faculty for the instruction of the negro ministry anywhere in the South.

This institution does thorough work, it has a larger number in attendance at present than other similar schools. The Bible is thoroughly taught, each lesson is begun with prayer, each student is taught to be satisfied with the least appointment his Conference may assign him when he is through.

Gammon does not only satisfy the need of the Methodist Episcopal Church, but all colored churches. The missionary spirit is there. Cleanliness and uprightness are apparent. Gammon offers a three years course leading to the degree of B.D., to those having finished a college course and a three years Diploma course to Normal or under graduates and even those not so well prepared may take a four years course and reap a deal of benefit therefrom and receive the Seminary Certificate.

The South Carolina Conference has furnished a number of students in the past and is well represented now in the school.

Be it resolved, that we urge our college and normal young men entering our conference to take the full course at Gammon and all who seek admission in our conference be urged to take the course at Gammon.

Respectfully submitted.

JAMES E. C. JENKINS,
Committee.
