In the first game of the day, Wofford (1-1) defeated host Philadelphia University, 3-1, with all four goals in the contest coming in the first half. The win gave new Terrier Head Coach Matt Kern his first coaching victory at Wofford.

However, the Terriers scored the next three goals with the first coming off the foot of junior midfielder Sam Moore at the 19:40 mark. Freshman forward Chris Findley put Wofford on top for good with an unassisted goal at 35:46 while senior Tim Mittmann added some insurance with the Terriers’ third goal late in the first half.

In the day’s second contest, St. Joseph’s overcame a 2-0 halftime deficit to defeat Virginia Military Institute, 3-2.

Wofford placed the most players on the All-Tournament team with four selections. Representing the Terriers were defender Gray Camp, forward Chris Findley, defender Jared Gandy, and midfielder Tim Mittmann.
