Amanda Leyland scored two first half goals to lift Wofford to a 3-1 victory over Tennessee Tech Friday afternoon at Snyder Field in Spartanburg, SC, keeping the Lady Terriers undefeated on the year.

After playing more than 30 minutes to a stalemate, Wofford (2-0-0) moved the ball inside the box. Faith Stewart pounded a shot by the diving Golden Eagle keeper, but the ball bounced off the post. Leyland gained control of the ball in front of the goal and slid a shot into the back of the net to give Wofford a 1-0 lead at the 30:37 mark.

Tennessee Tech (0-2-0) responded 10 minutes later as Jennifer Garrett gained control of a Wofford goal kick, dribbled into the center of the box and took a shot. Her shot deflected off of a Wofford defender and got by Wofford keeper Katie Menegaz to knot the score at 1-1.

Jaime Cutts took control of the ball at midfield on a counter attack just 1:00 after the Golden Eagle goal and played a pass to Sarah Penn in the middle of the field. Penn found a streaking Leyland on the left of the box and Leyland put a shot past the Tennessee Tech keeper for the eventual match-winner.

The beginning of the second half mirrored the start of the match as both teams fought to a draw before Stewart scored in the 71st minute to put the Lady Terriers up 3-1. Amanda Berman and Cutts assisted on the play.

Menegaz again put in a solid day's work in goal for Wofford. She tallied four saves, two of which were spectacular diving stops, to keep Wofford undefeated.

The Lady Terriers will host IUPUI next Friday at 7:00 p.m. at Snyder Field. Tennessee Tech travels to High Point for a Sunday afternoon match.

Faith Stewart scored three goals to lift Wofford to a 4-1 victory over East Tennessee State Wednesday night at Snyder Field in Spartanburg, SC, keeping the Lady Terriers undefeated on the season.

First of all, I want to say that this was a big win for the team to get to 4-0," said sophomore forward Stewart. "This was an important match for us and we didn't play up to our potential, but we won anyway."

Stewart got Wofford on the board just eight minutes into the match on a header. Amanda Leyland had the ball on the left side of the box and played a pass to the far post to Amanda Berman. Berman one-touched the ball to Stewart on the left post and Stewart finished the play.

Less than seven minutes later, Stewart and Berman broke away from the East Tennessee State defense. Berman crossed the ball to Stewart who pounded a shot into the back of the net to give Wofford a 2-0 lead at the half.

East Tennessee State (2-3-0, 0-2-0) closed to within 2-1 when Melissa Wilder took control of a deflection off of Wofford keeper Katie Menegaz and put the ball into the goal in the 46th-minute.

However, Wofford recovered less than 10 minutes later as Berman headed the ball into the goal off a cross by Leyland to put the Lady Terriers ahead 3-1 in the 57th-minute.

Stewart finished the scoring when she gained control of the ball in front of the Buccaneer goal, juked two defenders, and slid a shot to the right of the keeper for her third goal in the 72nd-minute.

"It's funny because I did predict to Kate Schallhorn right before the game that I was going to score three goals," said Stewart.

"Faith really did a great job tonight," said Wofford Head Coach Amy Burns. "She has a lot of skill and she has gotten to the point where she understands her role. We need her to have games like this if we are going to have a great year this year."

Wofford hosts Duquesne Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. at Snyder Field.

Faith Stewart scored twice to help the Wofford College women's soccer team remain undefeated with a 4-1 victory over Duquesne this afternoon on Snyder Field in Spartanburg.

The Lady Terriers, off to the best start in the program's seven-year history, are now 5-0. Duquesne falls to 1-6.

Stewart, a sophomore from Lilburn, Ga., now has five goals in her last two games. She posted a hat trick in Wednesday's 4-1 win over East Tennessee State.

Wofford's Heidi Best opened the scoring in the match when she found the net at the 17:26 mark. Kara Palmquist assisted on the goal. After Duquesne's Danielle McGovern evened the contest at the 22:27 mark, Stewart scored at 26:09 and 40:59 to give the Lady Terriers a 3-1 halftime lead. Amanda Berman tallied the final goal for Wofford with just six seconds remaining in the match.

Freshman Jamie Cutts added two assists for the Lady Terriers, who outshot Duquesne 14-7. Katie Menegaz had two saves in goal for Wofford.

The Lady Terriers return to action Wednesday when they travel to Coastal Carolina for a 5 p.m. match.

Amanda Berman scored all three goals as Wofford defeated Coastal Carolina 3-0 to remain undefeated on the year.

The Lady Terriers improve to 6-0-0, while the Chants fall to 2-4-2.

Berman opened the scoring when she found the back of the net on a penalty kick in the 27th minute. She had been tripped in the box.

After leading 1-0 at the half, Berman put the Lady Terriers ahead 2-0 in the 52nd minute after she gained control of her own rebounded shot.

Berman then put the match out of reach when she scored off an assist from Heidi Best in the 60th minute.

Berman's performance overshadowed a solid outing by goalkeeper Katie Menegaz. The sophomore from Houston, TX, recorded her second shutout of the year and lowered her goals against average to 0.67.

Wofford's Faith Stewart Named Southern Conference Women's Soccer Player of the Week

Asheville, NC -- Wofford forward Faith Stewart has been named the Southern Conference Women's Soccer Player of the Week.

The sophomore from Lilburn, GA, led the Lady Terriers to two wins last week, including a 4-1 win over SoCon rival East Tennessee State. Stewart scored five goals in two games including both game winners. Prior to last week she had only recorded one goal on the season. Wofford is 5-0 on the season, the best start by any Lady Terrier women's soccer team since joining Division I in 1995.

Stewart's selection is only the third time a Lady Terriers soccer player has received Player of the Week honors. Previously, Brigid Meadow earned the honor on two occasions in 1997.

Women's Soccer Coach to Wed Director of Facilities

Wedding bells will ring Saturday for two members of the Wofford athletics staff. Women's Soccer Head Coach Amy Burns is scheduled to tie the knot with Director of Facilities Andy Kiah at 2:00 in Decatur, Georgia.

Following the wedding, the pair will enjoy a brief honeymoon in Savannah, Georgia, before returning to campus. Burns will prepare for her third season as head coach, while Kiah works to prepare the fields for the upcoming Carolina Panthers Training Camp.

Burns first came to Wofford in 1997, when she served as an assistant coach for the Lady Terriers before taking the helm in 1999. Kiah also joined the staff in 1997, then serving as an assistant baseball coach.

Amanda Berman and Kate Schallhorn each scored a goal and added an assist to lead Wofford to a 5-1 victory over IUPUI Friday night at Snyder Field in Spartanburg, SC.

"I was a little concerned about this game because we hadn't played a match in a week," said Wofford Head Coach Amy Burns. "We came out aggressive and really took advantage of our speed upfront to jump on them early. I am impressed with how we responded tonight."

Wofford's 3-0-0 start on the year is the best start in the program's history. The previous 2-0-0 start by the Lady Terriers in 1998 stood as the best mark.

Wofford scored its first goal when Amanda Leyland laid off a pass to Jaime Cutts on the left side of the box. Cutts sprinted toward the goal and pounded a shot over the IUPUI (1-4-0) keeper's head to give the Lady Terriers a 1-0 lead in the 5th-minute.

Heidi Best took a pass from Amanda Berman and fired a shot from 20 yards away that found the back of the net to give Wofford a 2-0 lead in the 18th-minute.

Kate Schallhorn played a nice pass to Kara Palmquist who took the ball and slid it past the keeper in the 27-minute to give Wofford a commanding 3-0 lead. Berman then lifted a ball over the keeper's head off a double assist by Faith Stewart and Liz Howell to give Wofford a 4-0 lead one minute later.

IUPUI got on the board in the 39th-minute when Karrie Reising played a perfect pass to the middle of the box and Tara Latella connected to the left side of the goal to bring the Jaguars to within 4-1.

However, just 1:24 later, Schallhorn pounded a shot into the net off a pass from Faith Stewart and the Lady Terriers put the game away.

Neither team scored in the second half as Wofford maintained the 5-1 lead.

Wofford hosts East Tennessee State Wednesday evening in its Southern Conference opener at Snyder Field at 7:00 p.m. IUPUI travels to Charleston to play the College of Charleston Sunday afternoon.
