SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- The Southern Conference announced today that Wofford's Lee Porter has earned men's tennis Player of the Week honors.

Porter becomes Wofford's first-ever men's tennis player to earn SoCon Player of the Week recognition.

A senior from Chapin, S.C., Porter has picked up two conference wins and led the Terriers to their first-ever win over Chattanooga. He dropped a 6-7, 6-4, 6-1 decision to Michael Kwiecian from Winthrop at the number two slot early in the season. Porter then stepped into the #1 spot for an injured Kent Ball where he picked up a 6-0, 6-1 win over Ilian Nachev from North Greenville College before defeating Georgia Southern's Noah Tyler 6-2, 7-6 in the conference opener. He recorded a 6-4, 6-2 win over Chattanooga's John Hangstefer at the #2 position, clinching the win for Wofford on March 11. He finished the week with a 7-5, 6-1 win at #2 singles over Felipe Echeverri from Mercer. Porter is 4-1 overall this season, 2-0 in league matches.

Terriers Edge Davidson in SoCon Thriller
April 13, 2003

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- The Wofford men's tennis team defeated Davidson 4-3 Sunday in a Southern Conference contest at the Reeves Tennis Center.

The win was Wofford's first over the Wildcats since the Terriers' move to Division I in 1995 and gives them a first-round bye in the upcoming Southern Conference Tournament.

Davidson opened by winning the doubles points, getting wins at the No. 2 and No. 3 doubles slots. However, Wofford rebounded by winning four of six singles matches to take the overall victory.

Wofford had a pair of two-set wins from Lee Porter and Brandon Smith, while Davidson's Russ Burns won at No. 6 singles to knot the match. Three matches went into tiebreakers. Davidson's Rob Haywood won at No. 1 singles, but the Terriers' Brett Johnson and Chris Barlow sealed the victory with wins at No. 4 and No. 5.

Wofford now breaks until Thursday, when they will face No. 4 seed Appalachian State in the SoCon Tournament.

Terriers Fall to Appalachian State in Quarterfinals
April 17, 2003

CHARLESTON, S.C. -- The Wofford men's tennis team fell to Appalachian State in a tightly contested 4-2 match in the quarterfinals of the Southern Conference Tournament Thursday.

The Mountaineers opened the match by winning the doubles point. Wofford's Chris Barlow and Brett Johnson took the No. 3 set, but Appalachian State managed wins at No. 1 and No. 2 doubles to get the win.

Barlow and teammate Jason Mengel each tallied a two-set victory to give the Terriers two points in singles competition. However, close three-set losses in the Nos. 1 and 2 singles slots and a straight set victory at No. 3 gave Appalachian State the win.

Wofford finished 8-9 on the season.

Men’s Results: Appalachian State 4, Wofford 2.
