Women's Tennis Downs Mercer, 6-0
March 14, 2003

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- Rain plagued the Wofford's men's and women's tennis matches against Mercer Friday. The Terrier women's team fit in enough matches to take a 6-0 victory, winning the doubles point and five singles matches before the weather halted the action. The Wofford men were less fortunate, finishing only two singles matches before the rain. Wofford was up 3-0, but fell short of the four points needed for the win. The men's match will remain unfinished.

Wofford swept the doubles sets to start the day, as all three men's and all three women's doubles sets went to the Terriers, giving both teams a 1-0 advantage. The women's team enjoyed five two-set singles wins to allow them the win despite the rainout.

Both Wofford squads are set to take on UNC Greensboro Saturday in a 1 p.m. match in Spartanburg.

SPARTANBURG, SC -- The Southern Conference announced today that Wofford's Wendy Rohr is its Women's Tennis Player of the Week for April 15.

Rohr, a junior from Lawrenceville, Ga., finished up last week with four wins at #1 singles. She picked up a 4-6, 6-3, 6-3 win over Kelly Fillnow from Davidson on April 11 before downing Sylwia Ziolkowska from East Tennessee State on April 13. The Terriers stepped out of conference action on April 12 where Rohr defeated Melissa DeJong from Gardner-Webb 6-0, 6-0, before closing out the season on Apr. 14 by defeating Appalachian State's Kasia Finkowska 6-1, 6-2. Rohr is 11-6 overall and 7-2 in conference matches.

The announcement marks the second SoCon Player of the Week honors for Rohr, who also earned the title in early March of the 2002 season.

Rohr and the Terriers will take on Davidson on Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in the quarterfinals of the Southern Conference Tournament in Charleston, S.C.

Women's Tennis Drops SoCon Tourney Squeaker to Davidson April 17, 2003

CHARLESTON, S.C. -- The Wofford women's tennis team fell to Davidson in a 4-3 squeaker in the Southern Conference Tournament quarterfinal round Thursday.

The Wildcats took the match's first point, winning at No. 2 and No. 3 doubles to go ahead. The Terriers managed to win three singles matches in straight sets, but Davidson matched the feat to earn the one-point victory and advance. Wendy Rohr tallied the victory at No. 1 singles for Wofford, while Tara Hartness took the win at No. 4 singles and Meghan Turner won at No. 6.

The Terriers finish the season with an 11-8 record, giving them back-to-back 11-win seasons for the first time since moving to Division I play in the 1995-96 school year.
