Celebration of Holy Communion

Celebrate Holy Communion today at 5:30pm in AAAS. Renew your spirit with this time of meditation and sacrament. Sponsored by the Campus Ministry Center.

For the Holidays - Claxton Fruitcake

Wofford Campus Civitan in partnership with the Civitan Club of Spartanburg is selling delicious Claxton Fruit Cake this holiday season. If you are interested in buying Claxton Fruit Cake please contact Mary Beth at BroadwaterME@Wofford.edu \or 597-5345. We will take orders of fruitcake, by the pound, until Tuesday, December 13. All orders after that can be placed through John Few at the Civitan Rehabilitation Workshop at 585-1518. One pound fruitcake is being sold in stores (Bilo, CVS) at $3.99 plus tax. Wofford Campus Civitan is selling the fruitcake for $3.50/lb. Proceeds will be used to sponsor children through the Twin Towers Angel Tree project.

Kennedy Center, Carnegie Hall, Wofford College

Barry Nickelsberg has been there many times. In fact, he has performed live over 2000 times and on every major stage in the United States. Barry Nickelsberg is one of the premier signers of music for the deaf and will be on campus this Thursday, December 1, at 11:30 am, in the Anna Todd Room of Andrews Field House. His visit is hosted by both the Rotaract Club and Sigma Delta Pi, the national Spanish honor society, who provide pizza and beverages. All are welcome to come see / hear one of the most remarkable performers you will ever meet. You do not want to miss this man!

CASA Casino

The sisters of Kappa Alpha Theta present "Casa Casino", a Texas Hold 'Em poker tournament and raffle, to be held Tonight, December 1st at 7 pm in the Anna Todd Wofford Center. Come watch your fellow Wofford students compete to win the $150 grand prize. Enter the raffle to win great prizes such as $100 to Express, $85 to Best Buy, $50 to the Campus Bookstore, and additional gift certificates from local area restaurants such as Monsoon Noodle House, Uncle Poons, Taco Dog, Sandella's, The Sandwich Factory, Baskin Robins, Marble Slab and more. We still have more raffle tickets and they will be on sale for $3 in Burwell during lunch and dinner tonight. Please help us support our national philanthropy CASA, Court Appointed Special Advocates. We hope to see everyone there.

Opening for entry-level accountant

Career Services has received information on an entry-level general accountant position at Curtiss-Wright Controls, Inc. in Shelby, NC. The job requires a degree in accounting and is for mid-year graduates and/or recent alumni. Contact Career Services (Rm 10, Raines Center) for details of position and on how to apply.

Goldtones/Flute Choir Recital Friday

The Goldtones and the Wofford College Flute choir will present a recital Friday, December 2nd, at 4 PM in the Library gallery. The Goldtones, an eight-member women's choral ensemble, has been performing since 1988 and is now joined by Wofford's newest music group, the Flute Choir. End the week with a program of Holiday classics.

Muslim Funeral in Dr. Mathewson's Class

Join Dr Mathewson's "Death and Dying" class today at 1:00 pm for the staging of a traditional Muslim funeral. Muslim death rite experts Saiward Whitener and Liz O'Quinn will direct the funeral, which will begin in RMSC 302E and will proceed to various places across campus. Please email Dan Mathewson to indicate your interest and to receive any relevant instructions (mathewsondb@wofford.edu).

Wofford's Annual Christmas Concert

The Wofford College Music Department will present its annual Christmas Concert on Saturday, December 3, 2005, at 7 p.m. at Calvary Baptist Church. "Candlelight Carols" will feature Women's Choir, Flute Choir, Men's Glee Club, Goldtones, and Wofford Singers. Scripture lessons will also be included. Due to limited parking at the church, the Spartanburg Trolley will pick up students and guests from the Raines Center parking lot as well as the grass lot across from the Mall. This service will begin operating at 5:30 p.m. The concert is free and open to all in the Wofford and Spartanburg communities. Inquiries should be directed to Professor McCraw at extension 4597 or Spontaneous comments or inquiries should be directed to Professor Hecart at extension 1897 or Professor Sellars at extension 4604.

Faculty Talk

Professor Karen Goodchild will present a Faculty Talk on Thursday, December 2nd, when she speaks on "The Bizarre as Burlesque in Giorgio Vasari's Biography of Piero di Cosimo." She will explore the stories that Vasari tells of Piero—that he ate only boiled eggs, that he stared into layers of crusted mucus in search of artistic inspiration—in relation to the literary genre of burlesque poetry. Refreshments will be available in the Montgomery (Faculty Dining) Room from 3:30, with the talk beginning at 4:00. Students, faculty, and staff are all invited to attend.

Souljahs for Christ

Join Souljahs for Christ tonight at 7:30pm in Olin 114 to learn about The Parable of the Sower. This passage will be taken from Luke 8:4-15. This will be a great study break and we invite all to attend. Hope to see you there.

Happy Birthday!

Christopher Lee, Kalen Parks, and Louis Stephens

Happy Belated Birthdays

The Office of Student Affairs would like to wish a very belated birthday to everyone who celebrated one in November:

Nichole Buchanan, Omad Chaudhary, Marc McKenna, Erin Mitchell, Traci Lynch, Ponnica Terral McKenzie, Thomas Player, Cameron Simmons, William Bingham, Wesley Strawn, Susannah Dugan, Austin Fitch, Laura Murray, Hubert Shuler, Bryan Blair, Christopher Rollins, Michael VonReiche, Christopher Tommie, Ericka Webb, Ryan Young, Alison Brislin, Christopher Brune, Johnathan Dowbak, Christopher Shugart, Mary Branch, Robert Harris, Rebecca Koger, Molly Vannier, Wayne Whitmire, Tessa Clever, Ashley Glasgow, Eugene Thompson, Mary Bishop, Thomas Campbell, Whitney Steelman, William White, Caroline Labban, Dennis Smith, Gregory Gasparato, Jessica Miller, Marghretta Hagood, Geoff Taylor, Jordan Fanney, Patrick Knott, Damian Valvo, Stephanie Worlund, Mary Broadwater, Lucas Curry, James Morgan, Lindsey Richardson, Marc Sutton, Richard Cahi, Alison Clarke, Susan Dover, Benjamin Friday, Kelly Jones, Melanie Orr, Mary Weaver, Lori Willis, Adam Lesko, Theodora Norton, Amelia Snider, Layton Baker, Nancy Brannon, Jai-Sheena Garnett, Tyler Greiner, Miriam Hahn, Wade Lindsey, Steven Olejnik, Matthew Davis, Joshua Gardner, James Melton, Christie Sapakoff, Ashleigh Wilson, Courtney Abbott, Carey Gannaway, Jessica Mixson, Jason Rains, Anna Richey, Georgeanna Awkerman, Robyn DuRant, Patrick Hobi, Christine Johnston, Jason McElveen, Kristina Parise, Zachary Pittman, Peter Shand, Kevin Adleman, Katherine Hutchens, Jennifer Rook, Matthew Carlisle, Joshua Smith, Margaret Beacham, Eric Marshall, Nicolas Robinson, Dawson Smith, Elizabeth Steadman, Hunter Strasburger, Eric Armstrong, Ryan Beaton, Molly McGinnis, Demetrick Swindler, and Brittany Thompson.

Friday Night at the Movies: Philadelphia

Please join us for "Philadelphia" on Friday, December 2 at 8 p.m. in McMillan Theater (Raines Center). This film is being shown as part of World AIDS Awareness Day.

Synopsis: When attorney Andrew Beckett (Tom Hanks) reveals his HIV-positive status -- and his homosexuality -- to his co-workers, he soon finds himself unemployed. Seeking to sue for wrongful termination, Hanks works with the only lawyer who'll take the case: ambulance-chasing, homophobic Joe Miller (Denzel Washington). Hanks received an Oscar for his work in this Jonathan Demme-directed film -- the first major-studio picture to tackle the topic of AIDS.

Sunday Night at the Movies: A Closer Walk

Please join us for "A Closer Walk" on Sunday, December 4 at 8 p.m. in McMillan Theater (Raines Center). This film is being shown as part of World AIDS Awareness Day.

Synopsis: The first feature-length film to address the global AIDS crisis, this documentary explores the underlying causes of the disease; the relationship between health, dignity and human rights; and the universal need for action to counter the pandemic. Narrated by Glenn Close and Will Smith, the film includes profiles of more than 50 people touched by AIDS, as well as interviews with widely recognized figures such as the Dalai Lama and singer Bono.

Wofford College Libertarians

The WCL will meet this Thursday at 11:00 AM in The Commons. If you are interested in meeting the officers, or would like to hear the general political stance of a Libertarian, then please feel free to attend. The mission of the WCL is to promote discussion and ideas, not a particular candidate or party; to best accomplish this we seek a diversity of opinion so feel free to join, even if you disagree with the principles of the WCL. (Don't know the principles? Another good reason to come.) We will be discussing plans for spring semester and would appreciate the input of whoever is interested. See you there.

Alternative Spring Break Info Session Today

Spend spring break with the BorderLinks Project on the US-Mexico Border.

Information Sessions will be held today (Thursday) at 5:00pm in AAAS and Friday at 12:30pm at Players Corner.

Chaplain Robinson will lead a group of students as they carefully examine and struggle with many issues that shape the US-Mexico border.

For an overview, click on http://www.borderlinks.org/bl/trips/5_day_trip.htm. Contact Chaplain Robinson at ronald.robinson@wofford.edu. if you cannot make the Info Session but are interested in going.

AIDS Awareness Day

Today is Global AIDS awareness day and we would like to invite the entire Wofford community to wear your Red Ribbon pins to show your support for fighting this disease that affects all of us.

A representative from Piedmont Care, the Upstate's local HIV health care facility, will be on campus today in the Burwell building selling CDs that address HIV awareness in our community. The tracks are all original productions of songs played by local Spartanburg artists. The CD is called VOCAL: Voices of Care and Love, and it will sell for the price of 10 dollars. All monies raised in the selling of this amazing album will be donated directly to Piedmont Care.

Please show the world that Wofford is not a separate entity within our city, but a caring and vital part of the Spartanburg community. Help us observe AIDS awareness day. A message from Twin Towers.

Celebrate the Season at the WAC Holiday Party

Come out to the WAC Holiday Party on Friday December 2nd from 9 pm to 1 am with live music by Reality Show. Bus transportation will be provided from the Campus Life Parking Lot. Bus times are as follows: 9:00 Freshman, 9:20 Sophomores, 9:40 Juniors and 10:00 Seniors.

Student Science Research Presentations

Tomorrow, Friday, at 3 PM in the Olin Theater, students will present the findings from scientific research projects conducting during the fall semester. A reception with cookies and drinks will be held prior to the presentations in the Olin lobby beginning at 2:30 PM. Please join us to hear about the exciting research being conducted by students on our campus. A complete list of the presentations can be found at: <http://dept.wofford.edu/psychology/Fall2005Research.pdf>

For the Holidays - Claxton Fruitcake

Wofford Campus Civitan in partnership with the Civitan Club of Spartanburg is selling delicious Claxton Fruit Cake this holiday season. If you are interested in buying Claxton Fruit Cake please contact Mary Beth at BroadwaterME@Wofford.edu or 597-5345. We will take orders of fruitcake, by the pound, until Tuesday, December 13. All orders after that can be placed through John Few at the Civitan Rehabilitation Workshop at 585-1518. One pound fruitcake is being sold in stores (BiLo, CVS) at $3.99 plus tax. Wofford Campus Civitan is selling the fruitcake for $3.50/lb. Proceeds will be used to sponsor children through the Twin Towers Angel Tree project.

Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas -- Saturday, Dec. 17

The 69th Annual Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas will be played at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 17, at Gibbs Stadium, featuring all-star high school football players from South Carolina and North Carolina and raising money for the Shriners Hospital for Children.

The Shrine Bowl week activities include these events:

Thursday, Dec. 15 – Players Awards Banquet, 7 p.m., Spartanburg Marriott at Renaissance Park; tickets are $35 per person. Featured speaker, University of South Carolina football coach Steve Spurrier.

Friday, Dec. 16 – Spartanburg Touchdown/Tipoff Club Players and Coaches Luncheon, noon, Spartanburg Marriott at Renaissance Park; ticket are $25 per person. Featured speakers: USC coach Steve Spurrier, Clemson University football coach Tommy Bowden and Wofford College football coach Mike Ayers. Tickets are available at a variety of locations, including the Spartanburg Marriott.

Friday, Dec. 16 – Shrine Bowl Fan Fest, 3-8 p.m., Barnet Park; free admission. Featuring food vendors, clowns, face painting, fun, games, music, fireworks and more.

Saturday, Dec. 17 – Shrine Bowl Parade, 10:30 a.m., Church Street from Kennedy Street to Gibbs Stadium at Wofford College. Featuring bands, Shrine units and more.

Saturday, Dec. 17 – 69th annual Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas, 1 p.m., Gibbs Stadium, Wofford College; tickets $20 per person for reserved section, $10 per person general admission. To order tickets, go to www.shrine-bowl.com.

For full information on the Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas, go to www.teamspartanburgsc.org or call the Spartanburg Convention & Visitors Bureau at 594-5050 or 1-800-374-TEAM.

Weekend Movies

Tired of studying? Need a break? Come on down to McMillan Theater and catch a flick. Movies showing Friday, Saturday, and Sunday at 8 p.m. Admission is free, and open to everyone. Free popcorn will be available.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith (Friday, December 9): Marriage has gotten stale for John and Jane Smith (Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie), a husband and wife who don't yet know that they share the same undercover line of work: They're both guns for hire. Hiding their occupations has never been a hardship for either of them ... until they discover that their next assignment involves them targeting each other! Can they go through with their respective missions, or will love prevail?

Animal (Saturday, December 10): Ex-con James Allen, aka Animal (Ving Rhames), has done the near-impossible: He's reformed himself while in maximum prison, with the help of an inmate (Jim Brown). But when he's released and discovers that his son (Terence Howard) has strayed off the straight-and-narrow, James must dig deep into the "animal" within to save his child, who seems to have lost himself in a criminal underworld set on seducing James once again.

National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation (Sunday, December 11): Deck the halls with boughs of laughter -- the Griswolds are back. Clark (Chevy Chase), Ellen (Beverly D'Angelo) and the kids (Juliette Lewis and Johnny Galecki) gear up for the holidays in this installment of the "Vacation" series. As per usual, all the good intentions in the world can't save the family from disaster...or Cousin Eddie (Randy Quaid, who practically steals the show).

SAA Career Luncheon

SAA will be sponsoring a career luncheon on Thursday, December 8 at 11:00 in the Anna Todd Wofford Center for business and economics majors. Food will be provided. Email Lauren Prickett at prickettle@wofford.edu with any questions.

Gender Studies Interest Meeting

There will be a meeting for all those interested in the Gender Studies Program today, Thursday December 8th at 11am in Main 324. Come and find out about the program and meet others involved in it.

Lost and Found

Found: A target gift card was found in the Carlisle stairway. Please contact Lauren at (864) 295-6246 if you believe it is yours. You must describe the card to claim it.

Safety Tips for the Holiday Season

Fact: Most vehicle thefts occur during the hours of darkness from residences and parking lots.

TIPS TO PROTECT YOUR VEHICLE:

Always lock your doors.

Lock your vehicle even if you are making a quick stop at a store.

Always remove your keys!

Close your windows completely.

Have your keys in hand when returning to your car at night and walk with someone when possible.

Park your vehicle in well-lit areas.

When you park your vehicle, remove valuables from plain view. (If nothing of value is visible, chances are the vehicle will not be broken into.)

TIPS TO PREVENT BURGLARY

Always keep the door to your room locked!

Never let strangers inside your room or into the building.

Report any suspicious persons to Campus Safety.

Inscribe items of value with your driver's license number.

Happy Birthday!

The Office of Student Affairs would like to wish the following students a Happy Birthday over the weekend:

Kelly Barr, Heidi Bostic, Jonathan Crowe, Duncan Norton, Shasta Allen, Jessica Connett, Lauren Crosby, Kathryn Hall, Catherine Hallen, and Margaret Maultsby

Tickets available for Wofford at USC basketball

A limited number of discounted $5.00 tickets will be available for the Wofford at South Carolina men's basketball game by calling the Wofford Athletic Ticket Office at (864) 597-4090.

The Terriers and Gamecocks meet at the Colonial Center, Saturday, December 17 at 7:00 p.m. in the Colonial Center.

The tickets are Upper Level seats in the Colonial Center. The discount is made possible via a program set up by the Colonial Center whereas national anthem singers are required to sell a certain number of discounted group tickets to perform. Robert Mitchell (Wofford '82), is slated to perform the anthem on this date. Charles Stavelly, a professor at USC Upstate, assisted Robert in getting this performance and tickets will also be available on the USC Upstate campus.

Exam Week Movies in McMillan Theater

Tired of studying? Need a break? Come on down to McMillan Theater and catch a flick. Movies showing Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 8 p.m. Admission is free, and open to everyone. Free popcorn will be available.

Fever Pitch (Monday, December 12): Based on Nick Hornby's novel, this romantic Farrelly Brothers comedy centers on baseball fanatic Ben (Jimmy Fallon), who meets and falls in love with Lindsay (Drew Barrymore). Everything's going great between the couple, but when spring rolls around and baseball season begins, Ben's overwhelming obsession with the Boston Red Sox threatens to destroy his relationship with Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith (Tuesday, December 13): Marriage has gotten stale for John and Jane Smith (Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie), a husband and wife who don't yet know that they share the same undercover line of work: They're both guns for hire. Hiding their occupations has never been a hardship for either of them ... until they discover that their next assignment involves them targeting each other! Can they go through with their respective missions, or will love prevail?

War of the Worlds (Wednesday, December 14): You know the story: Invading Martians equipped with ships that shoot unstoppable disintegration rays attempt to overwhelm the Earth. Based on the novel by H.G. Wells (and adapted into a famous 1953 movie starring Gene Barry), this version stars Tom Cruise and Dakota Fanning as a father and daughter trying to keep one step ahead of the destroying Martians while humanity tries to muster a defense ... any defense!

National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation (Thursday, December 15): Deck the halls with boughs of laughter -- the Griswolds are back! Clark (Chevy Chase), Ellen (Beverly D'Angelo) and the kids (Juliette Lewis and Johnny Galecki) gear up for the holidays in this installment of the "Vacation" series. F.A.S.T. Resurrected!

The time has come once again (ie, most of us have mostly recovered from last year) for us to release our little warriors within: The Big Rematch between F(aculty) A(nd) S(taff) T(eam) (or FAT with Staff) and the graduating seniors of the Wofford football team. Last year's impressive showing, in which we raised $1000 for the Spartanburg Children's Shelter, sang heartily, scored a legitimate touchdown, avoided any serious injuries, wore fancy personalized jerseys, managed to get out of the way of all of those truly fast players, and, most importantly, presented the nation's most extraordinary cheerleading squad has necessitated a repeat. Your college needs you.

Come delight in the many wonders of practice, such as Caroline "Scrappy" Cunningham's colorful use of language, Thom "Throws Like a Girl" Henson's remarkable arm, Natalie "The Shriek" Grinnell's wilting presence on the line, Ron "Chappy" Robinson's damning anathemas uttered at his impressionable opponents, and Jim "Hamstrung" Neighbors's exhortations from the sidelines as her pathetically nurses yet another wimpy injury. The game's tentatively scheduled for the 3rd week of March, so we have plenty of time to re-gain the startling efficiency that characterized our play last year.

Please email me sooner than later if you're interested in any/all of the following:

- Playing
- Emergency medical team
- Cheerleading
- Helping organize our fund raising effort
- Promoting the game

Coach Ayers is clearly worried about the prospect of facing us again -- we're wearing 'em down -- and I've already heard from a few of the senior Terriers that they'd like nothing more than to treat us with the respect and admiration we deserve.

Thanks for your time -- Jim Neighbors (neighborsjr@wofford.edu)

Final Call for Animal Care and Use Protocols

The Wofford College Animal Care and Use Committee approves and oversees the humane and ethical use of animals in research on campus. The ACUC is currently accepting protocols to be reviewed at its semiannual meeting in February of 2006. This is the final announcement. Protocols are to be received by Dr. Dave Pittman (pittmandw@wofford.edu or CPO104) no later than 5 PM on Friday, January 13, 2006. ACUC policies, guidelines for protocols, and forms for protocol submissions are available on the web at: <http://dept.wofford.edu/psychology/ACUC/>

Please contact Dr. Dave Pittman (pittmandw@wofford.edu or ext. 4644) for further information.

Exam Goodies and Study Break

Take a break from studying, grading, or from taking a break and come by Lobby 2 of Student Affairs in the Raines Center and enjoy some Christmas cider and holiday goodies.

This is available all week and sponsored by the Campus Ministry Center and the Service Learning Center.

Angel Tree at Wofford

Many thanks to Patricia Jordan '08 and Twin Towers for all their hard work coordinating the Angel Tree project this year. Gifts were purchased for sixty children in the Spartanburg area!

We are especially grateful to all in the Wofford community who helped support this endeavor. If you still have gifts to turn in, please turn those in by 5pm today.

This message is sponsored by the Service Learning Center.

- Selling Books back

Selling Books back

We will and are currently buying books back for the Spring semester. We have made arrangements so that we can still pay half of the buying price on many titles when you get back from break.

Not coming back for Interim? In that case you can ship your books to us before January 4th and we'll scan them through our system and hold the money until you come back for spring semester. All we need is your name, email and phone number. If some of your books have no value we can hold them for you or donate them. Just let us know when you ship them to us.
