Happy Birthday!

The Office of Student Affairs would like to wish a very Happy Birthday to the following students who celebrate a birthday today:

Dustin Abele, Blair Burke, Dawn Harmon, Scott Madigan, Jonathan Puryear, James Rawls and Adam Sheehan

"Inherit the Wind" Adaptation May 2nd

Revival and courtroom scenes from the prize-winning play, "Inherit the Wind," by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee, based on the 1925 Scopes Trial, will be presented by Religion in America seminar students, 5-6 p.m., Tuesday, May 2nd, in Players Corner at Burwell Building. The audience will participate in the hymn singing and lemonade drinking from Act I. Campus community invited.

Terriers host Gamecocks Wednesday

The Wofford baseball team hosts South Carolina at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday, May 3 at Russell C. King Field. This is a ticketed event. For this contest, your Wofford ID is only good for "Standing Room Only" (SRO) space, not a seat in the seating bowl. If you wish to purchase a seat, stop by the Athletic Administration office during normal business hours before Wednesday. Reserved seats are $10 and less than 100 tickets remain.

For those without a Wofford ID, SRO tickets are $5 and can only be purchased the day of the game beginning at 5:00. You may bring lawn chairs and blankets if you choose to sit on the grass berms. Those areas are first come first serve. No food or drink is allowed inside the confines of the ballpark.

Please assist us with parking issues and walk to the game if you live on campus. As is normally the case, a very large crowd is expected and parking will be scarce.

Thank you,

Lenny Mathis
Asst. Athletic Director for Marketing & Promotions

Portfolio's have finally arrived

We had a lot of people asking about these over the last few months. Well, they are here. A black portfolio with gold trim and a brass medallion on the front. They are $27.00 and limited. Stop in and check them out.

Thank You
Ben Wofford Books

"Liberty Street" Documentary Film this Sunday

Filmmakers Patrick Brennan and Thomas Pierce recorded a documentary over interim in conjunction with Dr. Goldey’s and Dr. Monroe’s “King to King” class. The film entitled “Liberty Street” deals with the issues of race, South Carolina history, the Urban Renewal programs of the 1960s, and community.

Spartanburg in the late ’60s was still in the grips of bitter racism when the city began to use government funds from the Johnson’s Urban Renewal programs to demolish much of the ‘Southside’ district. The aftermath of this time period left 1200 houses demolished with approximately 400 refurbished and almost 900 families displaced. This film includes interviews with politicians, residents, writers, and historians in order to understand more about the motivations and feelings that came out of this time in our city’s past.

“Liberty Street” is playing this Sunday, May 7th, 2006 at 6:00 p.m. in McMillan Theater in the Raines Center. The film runs about 25 minutes. There will be a short talkback session with the filmmakers after the movie.
Contemporary Physics Talks

Contemporary physics students, Daniel Thompson and Chris Anne Malloy, will be giving talks today at 7:00 pm in the Pit located in Milliken Science Center (RMSC). Come learn about light and the vacuum of space.

FCA - Thursday

Join the Fellowship of Christian Athletes on Thursday evening, May 4 at 7:57 in McMillan Theatre. (Note the day and location change.) Hub Blankenship from Spartanburg Community Church will be speaking. And...pantyhose sports.
Wednesday morning update

Many students and employees have inquired about the students who were involved in the automobile accident on Friday. The students and their parents are grateful for your thoughts and prayers, and for the prayer gathering led by Dr. Robinson and the members of Delta Delta Delta and Pi Kappa Phi. Matt Morrison is still in Neuro ICU. His parents gave me permission to tell you that he will remain sedated today. If he continues to improve, Dr. Flandry will begin the process to wake him up late tomorrow or Friday. Please continue to keep Matt, Audra, John and Jessica in your thoughts and prayers.

In addition, John Moore will be having surgery tomorrow. Please keep him in your thoughts and prayers, too.

This is a stressful time for students and faculty as they conclude the semester and enter exam week. There are other students whose families are dealing with illnesses and personal crises. We remind you that the counseling is available in Health Services and the Campus Ministry Center.

Health Services, Counseling & Wellness: Dean Beth Wallace ext. 4371, Mrs. George ext. 4373 or the nurses at ext 4370
Campus Ministry: Rev. Ron Robinson ext. 4051 and Rev. Lyn Pace ext 4402

Please join President Dunlap, Dr. Maultsby and the faculty in honoring the members of the Class of 2006 tomorrow - Thursday morning at 11:00 am during Wofford's Honors Convocation. This will be the first event in the newly renovated Leonard Auditorium. All students, faculty and staff are invited to this special program at which we recognize the academic and leadership achievements. In addition, the 2006-2007 Presidential Scholar will be announced.

A picnic for all members of our college community will follow the program. Zach's will be closed from 11:00-1:00 pm so the ARAMARK employees can join us. Emily Smith, the recipient of the Benjamin Wofford Prize for Writing, will be signing copies of Baboon Heart, a collection of her poetry in Players Corner during the picnic luncheon. Please introduce yourself to Emily and have her sign your book.

Seniors are reminded to gather on the front steps of the Main Building at 10:45 am for their class photograph.

The Commons will not be closed, but we ask students and staff using the area to be mindful of these special friends of the college. Thank you Dean Bigger

Covington, Snyder, and Powell Win Scholarships

Congratulations to Sarah Covington, Elizabeth Snyder, and Leslie Powell who have won South Carolina Space Grant Consortium Pre-service Teacher Scholarships of $2000 each. In part, the awards are based on example lesson plans using NASA's curriculum materials. Sarah (mathematics major) created a lesson plan for 9th grade algebra using NASA video clips on Air Traffic Control. Elizabeth (biology major) made a lesson plan on the global environment exploring aquatic ecosystems for a 9th grade earth science class. Leslie (biology major) developed a lesson plan on solar energy for a 10th grade biology class. Congratulations, too, to Dr. Cindy Suarez, Chair of the Education Department, who helped the students with their submissions.

Tonight in McMillan: Memoirs of a Geisha

Need a study break? Come on down to McMillan Theater tonight at 9pm and watch "Memoirs of a Geisha".

Synopsis: Based on Arthur Golden's novel and set in 1929, this tale follows 9-year-old Chiyo, who is sold to a Kyoto geisha house. Chiyo endures harsh treatment from the owners and head geisha Hatsumomo, who's envious of Chiyo's stunning beauty. Rescued by Hatsumomo's rival, Chiyo blooms in her role as a geisha, but World War II threatens to change her privileged life forever. Ziyi Zhang, Ken Watanabe, Michelle Yeoh and Li Gong star.

Tomorrow in McMillan: The Chronicles of Narnia

Bored on a Saturday night? Come on down to McMillan Theater tomorrow night at 9pm and watch "The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch & the Wardrobe".

Synopsis: Based on C.S. Lewis's classic novel, this enchanting tale follows four London children who are sent away to a country home for safety during World War II. There, they discover a magical wardrobe that leads them to the mystical land of Narnia, ruled by an evil witch. The children join the lion Aslan to free Narnia from darkness. Tilda Swinton, Georgie Henley, William Moseley, Skandar Keynes, Anna Popplewell, Rupert Everett and Jim Broadbent star.

Sunday in McMillan: Grey's Anatomy

Need a procrastination excuse? There's nothing better than Grey's. Come on down to McMillan Theater on Sunday night at 10pm and watch "Grey's Anatomy" with all your friends.

Lost and Found

Found: A Kodak throw-away camera was found under a seat in the college car. Please claim this camera or I will have to develop the pictures to extinguish my curiosity. Dr. Akers at extension 4261.
I am pleased to report that Matthew Morrison left the Neuro ICU at Spartanburg Regional Medical Center this morning. He was safely transported to the Shepherd Center in Atlanta Georgia via ambulance. When he left this morning he was breathing on his own and his temperature was in the normal range. Although he has not spoken or been able to keep his eyes open for long periods of time, he was able to follow the doctors and nurses commands. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison extend their sincerest thanks to everyone at Wofford who has been thinking or praying for Matt. They are grateful to the hospitality shown to them. Please continue to keep Matt in your prayers during his treatment and rehabilitation.
