The "Number of the Week" -- 24,000

----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Football season ticket renewal deadline today
Just a reminder to Terrier season ticket holders, please return your 2005 ticket brochure to lock in your tickets for the upcoming season by today, Friday, July 1. Season tickets will go on-sale to the general public on Tuesday, July 5. For more information call the Wofford Athletic Ticket office at (864) 597-4090. This year's Wofford football ticket brochures are sponsored by the Spartanburg Marriott at Renaissance Park.

Wofford Sports Marketing Punt, Pass and Kick returns
The Wofford Sports Marketing/Team Spartanburg Punt, Pass and Kick competition during Carolina Panthers Training Camp returns on Saturday, July 30. The event will last approximately one hour and will be held on the practice fields between the morning and afternoon. Over 75 kids age 5 to 12 participated in last year's competition. Unlike a year ago, all kids at the July 30 event will be invited back for the "finals" the afternoon of September 3rd prior to the Wofford football home opener with Georgetown (Ky.). For only $10 kids will get a Training Camp Punt, Pass and Kick t-shirt and a ticket to the Wofford vs. Georgetown (Ky.) football game.

Terriers find new radio home on Spartanburg 1400
The Wofford athletic department has announced that WSPG-AM 1400 will be the new radio home of Terrier athletics. Wofford football and men's basketball radio broadcasts were previously heard on WSPA-AM 910.

Spartanburg 1400's emphasis on local programming begins each Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. with Spartanburg Mornings with Dwayne Corn. Herald-Journal managing editor Greg Retsinas is heard on that show Mondays from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m. News, sports and weather from NewsChannel 7 are carried each day at noon. Spartanburg 1400 also features OpenMic, a two-hour local sports call-in show at 4 p.m., preceding Phil Kornblut's Sports Talk at 6 p.m.
Mark Hauser and Thom Henson will continue in their respective roles as the play-by-play voice and color analyst of Wofford football and basketball. The Terrier Report, which provides a daily update on Wofford athletics through live interviews with student-athletes and coaches, will be heard at 7 and 5:45 p.m. beginning in August.

The Wofford game broadcasts and Terrier Reports will be available at no cost via the Internet at www.spartanburg1400.com.

Join the 2005-06 Wade's Terrier Tikes Club!

Kids in the 8th grade and below are encouraged to join the Wade's Restaurant Terrier Tikes Club in 2005! "Punt, Pass and Kick" competition continues Wednesday
The Wofford Sports Marketing/Team Spartanburg "Punt, Pass and Kick" competition continues Wednesday, Aug. 4, on Wofford's football practice fields that are used by the Carolina Panthers during their summer training camp. Registration will be held near the Team Spartanburg Welcome Center at the main entrance to Training Camp on Twitty Street. Over 70 children participated in the "Punt, Pass and Kick" on the opening day of Panthers Camp on Saturday, July 31.

Beginning at 10:30 a.m., children may register at the "Punt, Pass and Kick" table located at the main entrance to the practice fields on Twitty Street (off North Pine Street). The competition will begin at 11:30 a.m. and end at 1 p.m. Boys and girls will compete in separate divisions for ages 5-7, 8-10 and 11-12.

Registration is $10 and all kids will receive a "Punt, Pass and Kick" T-shirt and a general admission ticket to Wofford football's Sept. 25 home opener versus Johnson C. Smith. The top 5 boys and girls in each age group will be invited back for the finals to be held the afternoon of the defending SoCon champion Terriers' 7 p.m. game versus the Golden Bulls.

For more information on Carolina Panthers Training Camp, visit the website for Team Spartanburg, the Sports Council of the Spartanburg Area Convention and Visitors Bureau at www.teamspartanburgsc.org.

"Terrier Flea Market" planned for August 21
The athletic department is cleaning out the closets this summer in preparation for the upcoming year. On Saturday, August 21 make your way to the Benjamin Johnson Arena (West Concourse only) and pick up some unique Terrier merchandise. That's right, it is our own version of a "Flea Market" inside the Arena. Items up for sale will include game-worn jerseys (various squads), shoes, t-shirts, publications and more (items expected to appear). This is a don't miss event so be sure to make plans to be at the BenJo at 9:00 a.m. Saturday, August 21. Payment may be made in cash and checks ONLY and all sales are final. Patrons can then make their way down to the practice fields and take in a day of Carolina Panthers Training Camp as well. The Panthers are slated for a 9:10 a.m. and 3:10 p.m. practice on the 21st. The "Flea Market" will close at 2:00 p.m.

Alumni kickoff events announced
The Wofford College Alumni Office reminds you of two upcoming "Kickoff Events" in Spartanburg and Greenville in the coming weeks. On Thursday, August 26 from 6 - 8 p.m. Spartanburg alumni can enjoy an oyster roast to be held at Players Corner on the Wofford campus. For Greenville Area Alumns, join in on the fun Tuesday, August 31 from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. at Salsarita's at 221 N. Main St. in downtown Greenville. This event not only will kickoff the new football season but also the new Wofford Club of Greenville. Admission to both events is $10 per person. For more details call Debbi Thompson at (864) 597-4208.

Football, soccer and volleyball schedule cards now available
Hot off the press! The 2004 Wofford football and soccer/volleyball schedule cards are here! Stay tuned for numerous places you can pick up a schedule around Spartanburg in the coming weeks. If you can't wait to get your hands on one, call (864) 597-4090 or e-mail mathisld@wofford.edu. Viewing party locations for football game on Saturday

If you can't make the trip to Statesboro this weekend for the battle between Georgia Southern and Wofford, be sure to show your support by joining other Terrier fans at these viewing party locations around South Carolina.

The Wofford Club of Spartanburg is hosting a viewing party at Gooney Bird's Sports Grill (2725 Reidville Rd). Be sure to ask for Wofford drink and food specials and wear your black and gold. For more information, contact the Wofford Alumni Office at 597-4187.

The Terriers and Eagles kickoff at 7:30 pm and the game will be shown live on FSN South.

Other Wofford Club official viewing party locations for the Georgia Southern game include:
Greenville: Wild Wings Café (15 W. Washington St.) special section upstairs
Myrtle Beach: Spencer's (5910 South Kings Highway - across from Ocean Lakes)

Women's soccer hosts "BBQ in the Bleachers"

The women's soccer team returns home Wednesday to face South Carolina State at 6:00 pm. Wednesday is Aramark "BBQ in the Bleachers" night at Snyder Field as the main campus dining hall closes and the entire student body is encouraged to eat at Zach's Plaza. The general public is invited to join in on the cookout - plates are only $5. The women's team is back in action for its first Southern Conference home match against Appalachian State at 4:00 pm Sunday. Also, any girls under the age of 12 that would like to be a ball girl for any home women's soccer games, please call head coach Amy Kiah at (864) 597-4153.

Men's soccer hosts Mercer Sunday

The men's soccer team faces Mercer at 1:00 pm Sunday afternoon. The Tropical Shaved Ice stand will be open during games all week for the women's team as well. Be sure to stop by and pick up your schedule magnets and posters compliments of the Real Yellow Pages from BellSouth. On Sunday, fans can take a shot at winning a free meal from Fatz Café or Papa John's during halftime.

Get your football season tickets now!

Be a Wofford Cheerleader for a day!
The Wofford Cheerleading Clinic is back and looking for spirited girls age 5-10. The clinic begins at 10:00 am Saturday, October 30 and will conclude at the end of the first quarter of the Terriers game with The Citadel. The cost is $30 and includes a snack, lunch and a Wofford Cheerleading t-shirt! For more information call (864) 597-4090. The deadline for registration is October 18.

Special ticket offer available to youth football teams
As part of Wofford Sports Marketing’s “Growing Up Gold” initiative, presented by Wade's Restaurant, the Terrier football program is reaching out to area youth football teams with a special offer. Tickets for Wofford's Sept. 25 home opener versus Johnson C. Smith and the Oct. 2 contest against Chattanooga will be available for just $5 for youth or middle school football players and coaches. Both games kick off at 7 pm.

Parents and other family members can purchase discounted general admission tickets for $10. Regular admission for both games is $17 for adults and $10 for kids ages 3-12. An added attraction to the Johnson C. Smith game will be the Terriers raising their commemorative 2003 Southern Conference championship flag at Gibbs Stadium. All tickets must be reserved in advance through Wofford Sports Marketing at (864) 597-4110. No discounts are available at the gate. The deadline for reserving tickets is noon the Thursday prior to the game.

Halftime exhibition opportunities at soccer matches

TerrierLand to debut Saturday night

TerrierLand, an interactive kids zone, will make its debut Saturday when the Wofford football team hosts Johnson C. Smith in the 2004 home opener at Gibbs Stadium. Kickoff is 7 p.m.

Open from 5 p.m. to 6:40 p.m., TerrierLand is located outside Gibbs Stadium between the home side plaza and Cummings Street.

TerrierLand will feature a football toss area, face-painting with the Wofford cheerleaders (5 - 6:00 p.m.) and meet and greets with Wofford mascots (5:30 - 6:30 p.m.) and the men's soccer team. Other TerrierLand features include a moonbounce, sidewalk chalk and special displays from Wade's Restaurant, the South Carolina Army National Guard and Nextel.

The first 1,000 fans through the gates will receive a Wofford football poster compliments of Orthopedic Specialties, The Real Yellow Pages from BellSouth and Regional Sports Medicine at Wofford. Li'L Cricket Food Stores will sponsor a pom pons giveaway. The pom pons will be pre-placed in the student section with the remainder given away at the gate.

Saturday's game is presented by the Herald-Journal. At halftime, stadium flags will be raised to honor the Terriers' 2003 Southern Conference championship and Division I-AA semifinal-round playoff appearance. There will also be a tribute to the Salvation Army's 100 years in Spartanburg.

Men's soccer hosts Wofford/adidas Invitational

The men's soccer program hosts the Wofford/adidas Invitational on Friday, September 24 and Sunday, September 26. Furman, Princeton, Liberty and the homestanding Terriers make up this year's field. The action starts Friday at 3:30 p.m. as Furman battles Princeton. The complete Invitational game schedule is found at the bottom of the newsletter. We look forward to seeing you at Snyder Field this weekend!

Tickets available online through partnership with TicketsXchange

Through a new partnership with TicketsXchange in Oxford, Miss., tickets to 2004 Wofford College home football games are now available online. Tickets may be purchased using credit cards via the secured site of wofford.ticketsxchange.com as well as the “football” page on the Terrier web site (www.wofford.edu/athletics). Fans purchasing tickets online may also view a Gibbs Stadium diagram to select their own seating. The easy-to-use online service marks the launch of Wofford’s first-ever comprehensive ticketing program designed to "centralize" back athletic ticket functions and bring new purchase options to Terrier fans of football, basketball and baseball. The program’s services will be expanded in time for men’s and women’s basketball season to allow fans to purchase tickets from multiple sources, including orders by phone, Internet and through the school’s box office.

Be a Wofford Cheerleader for a day!
The Wofford Cheerleading Clinic is back and looking for spirited girls age 5-10. The clinic begins at 10:00 am Saturday, October 30 and will conclude at the end of the first quarter of the Terriers game with The Citadel. The cost is $30 and includes a snack, lunch and a Wofford Cheerleading t-shirt! For more information call (864) 597-4090. The deadline for registration is October 18.

Rifle team opens second season
Last weekend, Sept. 18 and 19, the Wofford rifle squad opened its second campaign as a varsity program by facing N.C. State and The Citadel at the U.S. Army Marksmanship Invitational in Fort Benning, Ga. In action Saturday, Sept. 18, senior Jennifer Ferguson (Duluth, Ga.) led the team with a 540 out of a possible 600. Junior Robert Merting (Walterboro, S.C.) posted a 408. The second contest of the weekend was Sunday, Sept. 19, versus The Citadel. The Terriers increased their team score to 1857, but it was not enough as the Bulldogs fired a 2223. Ferguson again led the squad in individual scoring with a 544, followed by sophomore Cadill Maharaj (Mt. Pleasant, S.C.) who registered a 450. Under the direction of Lt. Col. Randy Hall, the Terriers will continue their season Oct. 23 when they open Southeastern Air Rifle Conference competition at Birmingham-Southern College in Birmingham, Ala. The lone home match for the rifle team is January 22.

Special ticket offer available to youth football teams
As part of Wofford Sports Marketing’s "Growing Up Gold" initiative, presented by Wade's Restaurant, the Terrier football program is reaching out to area youth football teams with a special offer. Tickets for Wofford's Sept. 25 home opener versus Johnson C. Smith and the Oct. 2 contest against Chattanooga will be available for just $5 for youth or middle school football players and coaches. Both games kickoff at 7 p.m.

Parents and other family members can purchase discounted general admission tickets for $10. Regular admission for both games is $17 for adults and $10 for kids ages 3-12. All tickets must be reserved in advance through Wofford Sports Marketing at (864) 597-4110. No discounts are available at the gate. The deadline for reserving tickets is noon the Thursday prior to the game.

Halftime exhibition opportunities at soccer matches
All youth soccer coaches of kids age 12 and under are encouraged to sign your team up today to participate in youth soccer exhibition matches at halftime of selected men’s and women’s soccer matches this fall. Admission to Wofford soccer matches are free compliments of this year’s presenting sponsor of the Wofford soccer season, The Real Yellow Pages from BellSouth. Call Wofford Sports Marketing at (864) 597-4110 to sign up your team today! This is part of Wofford Sports Marketing’s "Growing Up Gold" youth initiative presented by Wade’s Restaurant.

Military Appreciation Night set for Saturday, TerrierLand returns
Wofford Sports Marketing, in conjunction with the South Carolina Army National Guard, has designated Saturday's football game against the Chattanooga Mocs as "Military Appreciation Night" at Gibbs Stadium. The offer is valid for members of all branches of military service for Saturday's game. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m.

In order to be eligible for the special group rate discount, military personnel must show valid ID at the Gibbs Stadium ticket windows. They will receive a $10 admission price. Spouses accompanying the service member are also eligible for the $10 admission rate. Children, age 3 to 12, also accompanying the military personnel receive a $5 admission price.

Regular ticket prices for the game are $17 for adults and $10 for children, age 3 to 12.

Returning to the front of Gibbs Stadium is TerrierLand from 5 to 6:40 p.m. The interactive area will be adjacent to Cummings Street outside the stadium gates. Fans will have the opportunity to meet members of the Wofford women's soccer team as they gear up for a 2 p.m. Sunday match against Georgia Southern. The Wofford mascots, Boss, Lil Ruff and Blitz, will make their appearance again in TerrierLand and also at tailgating spots around the stadium's perimeter. Members of the Wofford cheerleading squad will be on hand to conduct face painting for the kids and also have sidewalk chalk available for the artist in the family. Two favorites from last week, the inflatable moonbounce and football toss, return. Vendors from the South Carolina Army National Guard, Nextel and "The H-Team" from The New Hot 98.1 will have information tables set up within the area.

Also at TerrierLand, fans will be able to pick up free Wofford football schedule magnets compliments of Erwin and Smith Real Estate and Wofford football posters courtesy of Orthopedic Specialties, Regional Sports Medicine at Wofford and The Real Yellow Pages from BellSouth. Nextel will be distributing special "Nextel Gold" shakers in TerrierLand. The shakers also will be pre-placed in the Terrier student section.

The Terriers and Mocs matchup is the only regional home game Saturday night, as Clemson has the day off and South Carolina is at Alabama.

Soccer teams in action this weekend
Both the men's and women's soccer teams are in action against Georgia Southern at Snyder Field this weekend. The men's team battles the Eagles in a special "tailgate game" at 1 p.m. on Saturday prior to the Wofford football game at 7 p.m. Then the women's team takes its shot at the Eagles Sunday at 2 p.m. Kids stopping by TerrierLand for the football game and meeting the women's soccer team will get a coupon good for one free shaved ice with the purchase of a shaved ice at Sunday's soccer match.

Taco Dog Barking Brigade returns
The spirit organization for all sports that call the Benjamin Johnson Arena home, the Taco Dog Barking Brigade, begins again on Saturday, October 9th as the volleyball team plays its long-awaited home opener against Georgia Southern. The match begins at 7 p.m. Becoming a member of the Barking Brigade is easy! Simply call 597-4110 and order your Barking Brigade t-shirt for only $5. With your purchase you will get a $5 gift certificate to Taco Dog Taqueria and American Grill located on Spartanburg's eastside! Brigade members will get more special offers and discounts as the year progresses from volleyball into the basketball season. Be loud. Wear the shirt. Join the ranks on October 9th.

Tickets available online through partnership with TicketsXchange
