Wofford Invitational set for this weekend
The 18th annual Wofford Invitational is slated for this weekend at the Carolina Country Club. In addition to the Terrier men's golf squad, 10 other schools will compete in this two day tournament. Wofford's competitors include Birmingham-Southern, Elon, Furman, Jacksonville, James Madison, Mercer, Morehead State, Old Dominion, Virginia Commonwealth and Winthrop.

The women's golf team took its second first place trophy of the year by winning the Draper Valley Spring Invitational hosted by Appalachian State. The Terriers knocked off High Point by four strokes and individually Laura Robinson finished in second place overall.

Listen to Terrier baseball live on the radio!
Saturday's baseball contest against Davidson marks the next radio broadcast of a Terrier baseball as AM 1510 WDRF will carry the game live. The games broadcast on AM 1510 are in addition to games that were originally scheduled to be heard via the internet on TEAMLINE. For a complete listing, click on the link for Upcoming Promotions listed at the bottom of this e-mail.

Textile League Baseball Day set for April 9
Saturday, April 9 at Russell C. King Field, Wofford Sports Marketing is hosting the first "Textile League Baseball Day" at Russell C. King Field. On hand for the game will be Thomas Perry, author of Textile League Baseball: South Carolina’s Mill Teams, 1880-1955, Bob Nestor author of Baseball in Greenville and Spartanburg: Images of Baseball, as well as former players Rogers Hornsby McKee and Ken Davis. McKee, a native of Shelby, N.C., in 1943 became the youngest pitcher to win a Major League Baseball game at the age of 16 twirling for the Philadelphia Blue Jays.

Also on-hand will be a display honoring Shoeless Joe Jackson on loan from the City of Greenville plus copies of Textile Town will be available from the Hub City Writers Project. If you have artifacts from the Textile Leagues (old programs, jerseys, baseballs, bats, etc) the Regional Museum of Spartanburg County will accept donations of those items for a special display and to ensure the items preservation.

In addition, the game will also be "Kids Day" where all kids 12 and under will get the opportunity to play wiffleball on the field after the game.
First pitch for the Terriers Southern Conference tilt with Davidson is 1:00 p.m.
Become a member of the team, new "BallKids" program launched

In conjunction with Mr. Gatti's in Spartanburg, Wofford Sports Marketing has launched a new "BallKids" initiative where kids age 6-12 can be a member of the Terrier team and be a BallKid for a day! Kids can sign-up at Mr. Gatti's (McMillian Dr./Poppy Square) or online at http://www.wofford.edu/sportsMarketing/formBallKids.asp to have the chance to be a "BallKid for a Day" at a Wofford athletic event. The winning child gets an official Wofford Athletics t-shirt, tickets for the whole family to attend the event, recognition prior to the game as the "BallKid" of the day and a coupon to Mr. Gatti's. Stop by Mr. Gatti's today and sign-up and you could be on the field with the Terriers later this season!

Pet Dairy "Moo-uau 2005" set for Gibbs Stadium

The Terrier Club's 2005 Pet Dairy Moo-uau, a combination Cow Bingo and Luau, is set for April 23 at 6 p.m. in Gibbs Stadium and the Verandah Lot. One hundred percent of all proceeds from the Pet Dairy Moo-uau will support scholarships for Wofford student-athletes. The Pet Dairy Moo-uau combines the spring enjoyment of a Luau (Verandah Lot) with the outdoor excitement of Cow Bingo (Gibbs Stadium).

Entertainment will be provided by the Caribbean Cowboys, a Jimmy Buffet tribute band. A pig will be roasted with the event featuring Hawaiian fare and beverages. Hula dance lessons will also be available. Tickets to the Luau are $50 per person and $75 for a couple. They include one square in Cow Bingo and a chance to win $1,000 if the cow drops a chip in that square. Additional squares may be purchased at the event. Other prizes will be awarded throughout the night.

Tickets are available by calling (864) 597-4496 or e-mail Terrier Club assistant director April Williams at williamsac@wofford.edu.

Stubbs named SoCon Player of the Week -- final home matches Sunday
Andrew Stubbs of the Wofford men’s tennis team has been recognized as the April 12 Southern Conference Player of the Week. His honor is the third overall for the Terrier tennis programs this spring, following women’s honors to freshman Sarah Shelley and junior Ellen Rogers. Stubbs becomes the first freshman in Wofford men’s tennis history to garner the award. Last week, he posted a 2-0 mark in league action to improve his overall SoCon mark to 5-3. Overall, he has won three matches in a row.

The men’s and women’s tennis teams are home for “Senior Day,” the final home matches of the season Sunday. The women take on Davidson at 11:00 a.m. in a make-up of a match rained out Tuesday, April 12. The men then take on Furman at 2:00 p.m. at the Reeves Tennis Center.

The "Number of the Week" -- 7

Baseball opens four game homestand today
The Terrier baseball opens a four game homestand today with a 4:00 p.m. tilt against North Carolina A&T. Today's game is the second "Play hookie from work" special as fans are encouraged to cut out from the office early and join us at the ballpark this afternoon.
If you can't make it to the park fans can listen in on AM 1510 WDRF.
On Friday night, the Furman Paladins come to town for the first of a three game set. This weekend's series coincides with "Spring Weekend" on-campus with multiple events for alumni and students. Baseball alumni that RSVP'd by today will have the chance to take the field and enjoy a cookout prior to the Saturday afternoon contest. Following this weekend's series, the Terriers hit the road for Clemson (Apr. 27) and Georgia Southern (Apr. 29-May 1) before returning home May 6 against UNC Greensboro.

Sloan garners second all-league honor
Following the conclusion of play Tuesday at the Southern Conference Championships, it was announced that Wofford's Daniel Sloan was a member of the all-league squad for the second year in a row. He was one of five players selected for the second team.

Sloan paced the Terriers this season with a 73.5 stroke average, three shots better than the next-closest teammate. At the Furman Intercollegiate March 25-27, he captured his first collegiate individual title with a 6-under-par 210.

He is just one of four players in school history to earn All-SoCon recognition and the first to earn the award twice. Other Terriers honored were Rion Moore (1997-98), William McGirt (1999-2000) and Jon Stephenson (2001-02).

Rogers nominated for Peach of an Athlete Award
Wofford junior women's tennis player Ellen Rogers was one of 14 amateur student-athletes honored Tuesday night at an Atlanta Area Council Boy Scouts of America banquet at the Cobb Galleria Centre in Marietta, Ga.

She was nominated for the organization's Peach of an Athlete Role Model Award, which recognizes deserving athletes whose character, scholastic achievement, athletic excellence and commitment to community service most closely match the aims and ideals of the Scouting program.

Rogers, a native of Lookout Mountain, Ga., is a two-time All-Southern Conference selection for the Terriers. This season, playing at the No. 1 position full time for the first time in her career, she has amassed a team-high 10 singles victories. She also has paired with freshman Sarah Shelley as the squad's top doubles duo and has recorded 10 wins.

Nominees must have met the following criteria: be a young man/woman of character who serves as a positive role model for youth, embody the principles of Scouting, including character, citizenship and personal fitness and be an athlete from Georgia or participating for a college or university in Georgia.

A total of four top-10 results, including first-place finishes in the long jump and triple jump, earned Adrien Borders this week’s Southern Conference men’s outdoor track & field performer of the week honor. He competed in just his second meet of the season, the Irwin Belk Invitational in Davidson, N.C., last Saturday.

He started in the running events with an eighth-place time of 10.95 in the 100m and then tied the 200 with a time of 22.58. In the field events, he leaped to first-place marks in the long jump triple jump. In the long jump, his mark was 6.99m (22’11-1/4”). Borders then registered a mark 14.26m (46’9-1/2”) in the triple jump.

All four times or marks are team season bests, while his long jump ranks first in the Southern Conference Performance Rankings. Borders is a former league champion in the long jump ar jump and a two-time All-SoCon selection in track & field.

Two Terriers inducted into Phi Beta Kappa
Recently, two Terrier student-athletes were part of a class of 28 representing the 64th anniversary of Phi Beta Kappa at Wofford.

Phi Beta Kappa has recognized outstanding students in liberal arts and sciences for more than 200 years. The society was founded at William & Mary in 1776.

Women's soccer player Abby Anderson (Boiling Springs, S.C.) and rifle team member Jennifer Ferguson (Duluth, Ga.) joined the elite honor society. Anderson, a four-year participant on the field, finished her career with four goals and three assists for 11 points. She scored all four go in junior in 2003, tying for the team lead. This past fall, she was nominated for Homecoming queen. Anderson also participated in track & field.

Academically, she carries a 3.81 grade-point average while majoring in psychology. She was of a variety of activities on campus, including the Goldtones, Wofford Singers and Show Choir. Anderson also participated in Psychology Kingdom, Wofford STARTS and the Blue Key Natio Society. She was awarded the James E. Seegars Jr. Scholarship and is a Dana Scholar.

Since the rifle program became a varsity sport in 2003-04, Ferguson has been a key contributor Terriers. The team's MVP in its inaugural campaign, this season she fired 500 or better (out of a possible 600) six times, including a career-best 545 at The Citadel in February. She helped W earn the Southeastern Air Rifle Conference's Most Improved Team award.

Outside the range, she is majoring in biology while boasting a 3.95 grade-point average. A member the National Dean's List, Ferguson is an Old Main and DeWitt L. Harper Scholar in addition to two years as the secretary for the Rotaract Club.

Like Anderson, she is a member of the Blue Key National Honor Society. Ferguson also lists the Blue Key National Biological Honor Society and the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee on her resume.

Make a note...
Coming soon, you can access information for all summer camps at Wofford. A special webpage is being designed and will be launched soon. Look for it in the next edition of Around the Water Bowl in two weeks. This "award winning" publication has a rare "Open Date" on the schedule next week.

Brandt named TIAA-CREF Student Athlete of the Week
Wofford outfielder John Brandt has been named the TIAA-CREF SoCon Student-Athlete of the Week for May 11. A sophomore from West Union, S.C., Brandt batted .364 in the Terriers' four contests the week. He had a pair of two-hit games in the UNC Greensboro series. For the season, Brandt is hitting .290 with two home runs and 12 RBI. He has a .367 average over the last nine contests. In the Terriers' three-game sweep of Georgia Southern (April 29-May 1), Brandt was five-of-12 (.417 RBI. He had the game-winning three-run homer in a 5-4 win over the Eagles to complete the sweep in Statesboro. Brandt carries a 3.72 GPA.

Russ Sandifer named Presidential International Scholar
Russ Sandifer, a member of the Terrier men's soccer team, was named Wofford's 21st Presidential International Scholar at the Spring Honors Convocation Tuesday.

Sandifer, a senior from Williamston, S.C., is a goalkeeper and was recently one of four student-athletes inducted into the Blue Key Honor Society. Sandifer's selection was made and announced by Wofford president Dr. Benjamin Dunlap in the ceremony on the lawn of the Olin Library. Prior to departing in the fall, he will lay out his plans and timeline for the independent project under the guidance of a faculty advisor.

The scholarship allows one student the unique opportunity to travel to developing countries for one year. The Presidential Internanational Scholar is chosen personally each year by Wofford's president as "the singular student best fitted to benefit humankind." An anonymous donor funds the scholarship.

The "Number of the Week" -- 202

Baseball enters final homestand - "Fan Appreciation Weekend"
Friday night the Terriers host Western Carolina for the final homestand of the season at Russell C. King Field. First pitch on Friday is 7:00 p.m. and there will be a special appearance by Bomber the Mouse, the mascot of the Greenville Bombers (South Atlantic League affiliate of the Boston Red Sox). Saturday is a scheduled doubleheader beginning at Noon as we honor the graduating seniors prior to the game. All kids 12 and under will get to run the bases after Friday night's game and game two on Saturday.

At both games representatives of the Carolina Miracle League will be on-hand distributing information about the League in preparation for the CML's ballpark groundbreaking which will be announced in the coming weeks. The final home series against Western Carolina is "Fan Appreciation Weekend" sponsored by C.J. Compton Plumbing. Game one of Saturday's doubleheader will be carried live on AM 1510 WDRF with game two broadcast on TEAMLINE. Fans can keep track of Friday's contest via Live Stats. Thanks to the Quality Inn-Expo Center and Southern BBQ for supporting Terrier baseball on AM 1510.

Terrier Club Mini Tour heads for the Grand Strand
The Terrier Club Mini Tour tees off in Myrtle Beach at the True Blue Golf Club on Saturday, June 25. For more information about this tournament contact April Williams at (864) 597-4496 or williamsac@wofford.edu. You may also register online at terrierclub.wofford.edu. All proceeds benefit the Wofford College Student-Athlete Scholarship fund and assist a student-athlete from the Myrtle Beach area.
