Faculty, staff, retirees, spouses invited to ‘Back to School Picnic' Saturday at 5:30 p.m.
All members of the faculty and staff – ALL employees of the college, plus retirees and spouses of retirees or deceased members of the Wofford community – are reminded of the "Back to School Picnic" scheduled for this Saturday evening, Sept. 2, starting at 5:30 p.m. Invitations were mailed to all employees within the past couple of weeks. This picnic is part of a longstanding tradition of the college, at which the President of the college hosts all employees to kick off the beginning of a new academic year and to remind all of us of how valuable each member of our community is to fulfilling the college's mission.

This event now includes the employee, spouse or guest, and children, and will be held on the beautiful grounds at the top of Liberty Trail across from Gibbs Stadium (same location as 2005 picnic), beside the Faculty/Staff parking lot (Lot E). (See the attached Football Parking Map.) For this week's home football game (vs. SC State), all employees and your family members will be provided complimentary tickets, and those will be available for pickup at the picnic. No RSVP is required...just plan to attend! For questions, please call the President's Office at 597-4010.

Wofford vs. SC State Pep Rally tonight; football game Saturday at 7:00
The SC State University Alumni Association, the Spartanburg Heritage Committee and the City of Spartanburg are hosting a pep rally in conjunction with the Terriers clash with SC State in football. The pep rally will feature the Wofford mascot, Boss the Terrier, the Wofford cheerleaders, the Wade’s “Pea-Shirt Launcher” and the South Carolina State University Marching 101 Drumline and Champagne Girls.

The fun begins on Morgan Square (in front of the Wild Wing Café) at 6 p.m.

A reminder, kickoff for the Wofford-SC State game is 7 p.m. on Saturday. Students are reminded to come early and cheer loud as the SC State Marching 101 band has nearly 375 members. The Marching 101 is slated to perform at halftime.

Student Tailgate Saturday
Campus Union's Athletic Ad-hoc Committee is hosting a tailgate for the SC State game at the new Student Tailgate Lot. Come enjoy a BBQ dinner starting at 5 p.m. The lot is located across the front entrance of Gibbs Stadium.
Orientation Service of Worship, Sunday at 11 a.m.
The entire college community is invited to the Orientation Service of Worship at 11 a.m. on Sunday, Sept. 3, in Leonard Auditorium.

Terrier football player’s brother battling leukemia
Steven Thompson, brother of Geno Thompson, OLB for Wofford Football, is battling leukemia for the second time in three years. Please help support Geno and Steven as they faced this battle together. Steven has a Web site on www.caringbridge.org if you would like to visit and keep up with his progress. If you visit please sign the guestbook. Any words of encouragement or support go a long way to helping him fight to get well. You can directly access his page at www.caringbridge.org/visit/steventhompson.

If you would like to donate to the family to help cover medical expenses you can drop by any branch of Bank of America c/o Steven Thompson Leukemia Fund or see Coach Jack Teachey in the Wofford Athletic Dept.

Time change for English 362/Theatre 362
19th Century American Drama now will be taught MWF 10:30-11:20 a.m. In addition to a healthy dose of mustache-twirling villains and fainting heroines tied to railroad tracks, the class will explore how the 19th century American stage addressed issues of nationhood, the frontier, American identity, race and race relations, and cultural politics. It counts toward both the English and Theatre majors. Contact Dr. Mark Ferguson if you have any questions at (fergusonma@wofford.edu).

Effective August 2006
Parking has been eliminated on the side of Evins St. to make way for a streetscape beautification. All parking along Cummings St. may also be eliminated before or during the season as the streetscape is slated to expand down Cummings. Handicapped parking would move to a lot behind the Curry Building. Fans are asked to use LOT F and LOT I for public parking.

Annual Interest Fair
The Interest Fair will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 13, at 5:30 p.m. at the Raines Center. Once again, this will be an opportunity for your organization to inform freshman and upperclassmen about opportunities to participate in your group. You should gather pertinent materials, reserve a table, and sell your organization in order grow membership.

Registration forms were placed in mailboxes. Please fill out and return the form or e-mail Samie Clowney at clowneys@wofford.edu with the information requested on the form (organization name, leader, and contact info), by Sept. 8 to reserve a table for your group.

New course offering
The Philosophy Department is pleased to announce an addition to our schedule for the Fall 2006 term.

Philosophy 331-- African Philosophy will be offered 1-2 p.m. Monday and Wednesday, taught by Abdul-Karim Mustapha

Completion of this course satisfies the Cultures and Peoples requirement. All 300-level philosophy courses have a prerequisite of at least one other philosophy course.

Pre-medical advising
There will be group pre-medical advising sessions today, Monday, Sept 4, particularly targeted to juniors and seniors applying to medical school. We'll meet in the Milliken Amphitheater:
7 p.m.: A representative from Kaplan will discuss the new computerized MCAT exam.
7:20 p.m.: Additional information from Dr. Bob Moss and Dr. Charlie Bass for juniors.
7:45 p.m.: Additional information from Dr. Moss and Dr. Bass for seniors.
If you’re a junior or senior applying to medical school, please do your best to come! Sophomores are welcome to attend, but it’s not necessary.

Information table in Burwell
On Wednesday, Sep 6, the Marine Corps Officer Selection Team will have an information table in Burwell from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Kaplan Inc. information
Today, Monday, Sep. 4, Kaplan Inc. will have an information table in Burwell from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Location for BIO212 lecture
BIO212 A&B, Genetics and Development, meets in the Olin Teaching Theater, not in 326. Banner had the wrong room listed.

FCA opener on Wednesday
Fellowship of Christian Athletes invites all students to attend the first meeting of the year on Wednesday, Sept. 6. Head Coach Mike Ayers of the Wofford Football Team will be the guest speaker. The program begins at 8:30 p.m. at Player’s Corner (located outside and left of Burwell).

Lost and Found
Clothes were found on the third floor of Marsh. Various types of clothing found. Contact Justin Adams at adamsjl1@wofford.edu to claim lost items.

Dance Team Try-Outs
There will be a mandatory meeting for anyone interested in trying-out for the 2006-07 Wofford Dance Team at 4 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 8, in the Richardson Building Aerobics Room.

Information on the team and requirements for try-outs will be distributed then. Try-outs are scheduled for Thursday and Friday, Sept. 14 and 15.

Please contact Elizabeth Wilkes at x4492 or wilkesel@wofford.edu if you have any questions.

Blessing of the Books
Drop by the Portico (DuPre and Shipp side) of Main Building at 8 p.m. on Wednesday for the Blessing of the Books and an Ice Cream Social. Student musicians will be playing, and Chaplain Ron Robinson will provide Dove bars. Bring one of your books or all of your books, and following a brief blessing enjoy music, ice cream and conversation.

Campus Outreach Cookout
Campus Outreach invites everyone to a cookout from 5 to 7 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 6, on the steps of Main Building. Please come and join us in our back to school cookout!

Study Abroad with SIT
Students interested in studying abroad are invited to attend an interest session from 11 a.m. to noon Thursday, Sept. 7, in Olin 118. Sarah Martin, SIT representative, will be there to discuss program opportunities and answer questions. Deadline for spring 2007 applications is Oct. 1.

Washington Semester Program
Students interested in pursuing internships in Washington, DC, (Congressional or otherwise) are invited to attend an informational session about USC's Washington Semester Program from 11 a.m. to noon on Thursday, Sept. 7, in Olin 103. Requirements include a 3.3 GPA. Deadline for applications is Sept. 15. See the Office of Programs Abroad for more information.
Campus Union Party Thursday Night
Remember what a blast last spring's "Shuckin' and Shaggin" party was? Come out for another fun Campus Union/Fun Funds party this Thursday night (Sept. 7) from 9 p.m. to midnight in front of Old Main. The band, Black and Blue, is going to be incredible and you won't be able to find any better food on campus, because we've got wings, catered by Wild Wings Cafe. See you there!!

Faculty/Staff: Homecoming Volunteers Needed
WE NEED YOUR HELP! Many faculty and staff members have volunteered and participated in Homecoming Activities over the past three years, and it has become a great tradition! We need you again this year for what looks to be the largest Homecoming yet! We need help at the Class Reunions from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 6, registering guests. We also need a lot of help at the Street Party manning the drink stations, etc. We need help on Saturday taking tickets at the lunch on the lawn. Volunteers for the Street Party and Saturday events will be treated to a Pre-Party Party at Sonny's Brickoven Pizza from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Friday before the Street Party. Everyone also will receive a long sleeved T-shirt. Please e-mail Debbi Thompson at debbi.thompson@wofford.edu or John Lefebvre at lefebvrejc@wofford.edu if you can help and remember to let us know what size T-shirt you need.

This is a great way to see some former students. We hope you'll be a part!

Lost & Found
David Jacobs has lost his cell phone – black and silver Cingular Nokia flip phone. It has been missing since Saturday. If you have found it, please contact him at Jacobsdc@wofford.edu.

The person who reported finding a silver ring with a square design etched on the outside of the band, outside of Greene Hall – PLEASE e-mail Laura Corbin at laura.corbin@wofford.edu so that we can put the owner in touch with you, if the owner contacts us. If you lost this ring, please contact Laura.

PAC Meeting
In the spring, the current Campus Union Assembly created a Planning Activities Committee (PAC) to encourage communication between all student organizations on campus. It is the desire of the Assembly to have someone from every organization represented on the committee. The first meeting will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 7, in Olin 213. Please contact Ashley Glasgow at glasgowal@wofford.edu if your organization has questions concerning the meeting.

Home athletic events this week
Several Wofford athletic teams are in action at home this week. The events begin Thursday for the volleyball home opener inside the Benjamin Johnson Arena at 6 p.m. against Winston-Salem State.

Friday, the women's soccer team celebrates its home opener at 6 p.m. at Snyder Field against Kennesaw State. The match marks the first of our "Pig out on the Plaza" events in conjunction with Wofford Dining Services. Burwell will be CLOSED on Friday night (weather permitting) and the evening meal will be served on the Plaza at Snyder Field.

The Terrier football team is back in action at 7 p.m. Saturday against another in-state foe -- Coastal Carolina. WAC has a special tailgate party planned for students at the new student tailgate area beginning at 5 p.m.

Also on Saturday, the men's and women's cross country teams are in action at Milliken Park in Spartanburg for the Eye Opener meet – the only meet for the Terriers in Spartanburg this year.

Holy Communion
The Wofford College Community is invited to a service of Holy Communion from noon to 12:15 p.m. today (Thursday, Sept. 7). The service will be held in Mickel Chapel in Main Building.

Souljahs For Christ
Souljahs For Christ, a ministry organization for all students, is having their kickoff Bible Study at 7:30 p.m. tonight (Thursday, Sept. 7) in Olin 114. We'll introduce what we're about as well as have some fun in the Lord. Bring a smile and a friend!! Eric Marshall '07 will lead the discussions. Everyone is welcome!

Student tailgate lot
Starting with the Furman football game, any Wofford student can park his/her car in the student tailgate lot and conduct a private tailgate. Organizations or groups of friends can reserve a spot. Please see the attachment for a reservation form. You can only park in the lot if you have filled out this form and turned it in to Heather Morrow in the Student Affairs office. Don't wait because space is limited. Contact Stephanie Johnson at JohnsonSE@wofford.edu or Heather Morrow at MorrowHJ@wofford.edu with any questions.

Build a Better, Safer World
Join us for the Global Security Forum in the Olin Theater on Monday, Sept. 18.

8 p.m. – See the documentary drama "Last Best Chance" that "shows the threat posed by vulnerable nuclear materials around the world and outlines what the stakes are. In the movie, nuclear weapons and materials around the world and underscores what the stakes are. In the movie, which was produced by the Nuclear Threat Initiative, al Qaeda operatives organize three separate operations aimed at getting nuclear weapons. The material is then fabricated into three crude nuclear weapons by small groups of trained terrorists, who have recruited bomb-making experts to help them manufacture their weapons.“ (AID)

9 p.m. – Hear Matthew Martin, a program officer in policy analysis and dialogue at the Stanley Foundation and the former senior defense aide to U.S. Sen. Bob Kerrey (D-NE).

Refreshments will be served before the movie and during the break. For information, contact Chaplain Ron Robinson at ronald.robinson@wofford.edu or at x4051.

Mus151A and Mus151B prices for text/music
Students, please note that the required music/text purchase for Mus151A and Mus151B will only require an approximate total cost of $25 and NOT $250! We regret the confusion due to a new procedure we are implementing for this course, and that the ordering process via the Web site could not clarify that students are required ONLY to purchase the parts for their own instruments for each category and NOT to purchase the entire order along with scores!

Paintings and Photographs
If you missed the display of Kris Neely’s paintings and photographs in the Martha Cloud Chapman Gallery this summer or if you would like to see additional work by Kris, you are invited to a reception from 6 to 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 12, at the Spartanburg High School Gallery. WOFFORD COLLEGE
Campus Safety Department

To: All Members of the Wofford College Community
From: Chief Lee Sartor, Director of Campus Safety
Date: September 5, 2006
Re: Parking on Campus

The Wofford College Campus Safety Department sends this reminder to all the members of the faculty, staff and student body to park responsibly in designated spaces on and around the campus. Please note the following as it relates to appropriate parking on the campus of Wofford College:

- No parking is allowed anywhere on Campus Drive (the exception is the 5 minutes spaces in front of the Burwell Building)
- No parking is allowed on Evins Street (Vehicles parked there will be towed at the owners’ expense)
- Faculty/Staff Parking Spaces are reserved for employees Monday-Friday, 8:00 am–5:00 pm. Most of the spaces designated for the faculty and staff are in the Admissions lot, the Papadopoulos Lot, the south lane of the Olin/Shipp Lot, the Horseshoe behind Main Building, and the Health Services/Liberty Fellows Lot. Students parked in faculty/staff spaces are subject to towing at the owners’ expense. In the Admission Lot: faculty, staff and students are not allowed to park in the spaces marked for visitors at any time.
- All students may park their vehicles in the Marsh Hall Lot, Carlisle Hall Lot, Olin/Shipp Hall Lot, DuPre’ Hall/Raines Center, Osage Street Lot, Liberty Trial Lot, Gibbs Stadium Lots, Richardson Building Lot, Snyder Field Lot, and the Spartanburg Memorial Auditorium (77 leased spaces).
- Commuting students, with valid parking permits, may park in the Spartanburg Memorial Auditorium Parking Lot (Monday-Friday 8:00 am – 6:00 pm). Vehicles parked on Memorial Drive will be ticketed if parked illegally (yellow curb violations, opposing direction violations or parking in a fire lane).
- In the Admission Lot, Campus Safety Officers will ticket on any vehicles registered to faculty/staff/students that are parked in the spaces designated for Visitors Monday – Friday from 8:00 am – 5:00 pm. Occasionally, parking spaces in the Admission Lot are reserved for Special Guests of the College. Please do not remove the reserved signs or park in these spaces.
- There are designated spaces in each parking lot for people with special needs. There must be a valid state or Wofford College Handicapped Parking permit clearly visible on the rear view mirror of vehicles parked in these spaces.
- The two regular spaces and two handicapped spaces on the right hand side of the Dean of Student’s driveway designated for off-campus visitors to the Library. Students, faculty and staff should not park in these spaces.
- All violators (including faculty and staff) must pay parking fines. If the violation continues, the vehicle(s) will be booted and/or towed at the owner’s expense.

Should anyone have any questions or require further clarifications, contact Lee Sartor at 597-4351.

Women's soccer at home tonight; football tomorrow
Tonight, the women's soccer team celebrates its home opener at 6 p.m. at Snyder Field against Kennesaw State. The match marks the first of our "Pig out on the Plaza" events in conjunction with Wofford Dining Services. Burwell will be CLOSED on Friday night (weather permitting) and the evening meal will be served on the Plaza at Snyder Field.

The Terrier football team is back in action at 7 p.m. Saturday against another in-state foe – Coastal Carolina. WAC has a special tailgate party planned for students at the new Student Tailgate Lot beginning at 5 p.m.

Also on Saturday, the men's and women's cross country teams are in action at Milliken Park in Spartanburg for the Eye Opener meet – the only meet for the Terriers in Spartanburg this year.

For more information on athletic marketing and promotions e-mail Lenny Mathis at mathisld@wofford.edu or Nick Palatiello at palatiellonw@wofford.edu.

Mus151A and Mus151B String Ensemble participation
All students on campus with any level of experience are welcome to join the String Ensemble. Scholarships are available based on audition. The recent confusion regarding the price of the required text/music for the String Ensemble Courses 151A and 151B may have kept some of our potential string players from joining the ensemble, and be assured that the issue has been clarified with Ben Wofford Books to ensure that the cost will be no more than $25 per person.

Students interested in a career in human resources
The Career Services Office in the Raines Center has received information from the Spartanburg Human Resources Association about its Student Partnership Day on Thursday, Oct. 12. Interested students will be assigned to a corporate HR professional and will shadow him/her that afternoon and then attend the association's meeting that evening. Please come by Career Services to register.

Dance Team Try-outs
Anyone interested in trying-out for the 2006-07 Wofford Dance Team should attend the interest meeting at 4 p.m. today in the Aerobics Room of the Richardson Building.
Requirements for try-outs will be distributed. Try-outs will be held Thursday-Friday, Sept. 14 and 15.

Please contact Elizabeth Wilkes at x4492 or wilkesel@wofford.edu if you have any questions.

Returning books/refunds
If you are returning books to Ben Wofford Books you need to make sure you have a couple things. You need your receipt and if you paid with a credit card you need your card. Refunds are given in the same form that you paid.

The last day to return books for a full refund is Monday, Sept. 11.

WAC Student Tailgate and Band Party
WAC invites all Wofford students to join them at the Student Tailgate Lot beginning at 4:30 p.m. Saturday for a tailgate and band party featuring Rock Candy. Plenty of good food for everyone!

This event is BYOB for those 21 years of age and older. Must present Wofford I.D. and driver's license to receive wristband. Limit of six cans of beer or one bottle of wine.

Movie Madness and #12 Georgia vs South Carolina
Today (Friday, Sept. 8) is Movie Madness in the Raines Center. We will be showing two movies starting at 8 p.m. in the McMillan Theater. The theme of the night is College Cult Classics. These are movies that college students around the country have raved about. The first movies of this multi-part series are “The Boondock Saints” (110 minutes long) and “Super Troopers” (100 minutes long). Even if you have watched these movies before or have never seen them, come to McMillan tonight and enjoy.

Also, McMillan will be airing the Georgia vs. South Carolina game beginning at 7:45 p.m. Saturday. Come and root for your favorite team. Movie Madness continues Saturday after the game with the College Cult Classic “Donnie Darko” (133 minutes). Come and enjoy a fun weekend in McMillan. It’s free! Please remember that there is no food or drink allowed in the theater.

Male mentor job opportunity
From Betsy Claire Neely in Career Services:
Joyce Bartosh is looking for a male mentor or big brother figure for her son who is in 11th grade. She needs a Wofford student who is willing to practice driving with her son, willing to do light housework duties if needed, and willing to help her son with homework.

Hours: 10 hours a week (hours negotiable), Tuesday and Thursday afternoons mandatory
Salary: Negotiable
Contact: Joyce Bartosh at (h) 573-5729 or (c) 978-1505 for an interview

The entire college community is urged to attend Opening Convocation tomorrow, Tuesday, September 12, at 11:00 am in Leonard Auditorium. This gathering is among the most important times and traditions at Wofford, and signals the formal opening of the academic year. It is especially meaningful this year, because we will be returning to Leonard Auditorium for the first of these convocations since this historic space was renovated, and it will be the first time the newly reinstalled organ will be played. Departing from the traditional Convocation speech, the main program for the convocation will be an organ performance by noted organist Jack Mitchener, of the North Carolina School of the Arts. The faculty will march in academic regalia, President Dunlap will have brief remarks, and the musical presentation promises to be stunning. Please plan to attend Opening Convocation to start the 2006-07 year.

There are only a handful of student tickets left! W.A.C. is offering discounted student tickets at $20 each for the Wofford-USC football game. Tickets will be sold today during lunch (11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.) in The Commons of the Raines Center. Must present Wofford I.D. One ticket per student.

First come, first serve – while supplies last. These discounted tickets can only be purchased by students from W.A.C. Please do not contact the Athletics Department about these discounted tickets.

Collegefest Thursday featuring Cowboy Mouth @ Morgan Square
All Wofford students, faculty and staff are invited to attend this year’s Collegefest featuring Cowboy Mouth, Need To Breathe and Trevor Hall. This event will be held from 7:30 to 11 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 14, on Morgan Square (across from Wild Wing Cafe). Free admission for everyone!

McMillan Movie Tuesday Night!
Tuesday Night in McMillan Theater, Prashant Patel will be hosting the showing of “9/11: Press for Truth” at 8 p.m. (85 minutes long)

“9/11: Press for Truth” is a documentary involving five of the most influential members of the Family Steering Committee. They tell their stories for the first time, providing powerful arguments for why 9/11 still needs investigation. Based partly on Paul Thompson's book, “The Terror Timeline,” this documentary pieces together overlooked pieces of key evidence that reveals lies and deception. Come hear their arguments and decide for yourself if you believe what we have been told about 9/11.

Club Ultimate Frisbee!!!
Matt Watts, captain of Wofford's Ultimate Frisbee team, encourages the campus community to join the team for games of Ultimate Frisbee at the Intramural Fields (the far side of Gibbs Stadium). Games will be played at 3:33 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. (If you consult a campus map, they play on the area designated "Football Parking" off of Cumming St.) ALL are welcome to come play, and those who wish to be a little more competitive can see about joining the club for a tournament this fall and two tournaments in the Spring. Any questions or comments, please contact Matt Watts at wattsmc@wofford.edu.

United Voices of Victory
Interested in joining the school's gospel choir? If so, come on out to the informational meeting on Thursday, Sept. 14, at 7 p.m. in Shipp Lounge. We will have pizza and refreshments.
Have a little CRU for dessert!
Join Campus Crusade for Christ for ice cream and brownies Tuesday evening at Players Corner! Come and get to know about us and sign up for our Frisbee Golf Tournament on Thursday. We look forward to seeing you there! Questions? Email Ryan at HillRG@wofford.edu.

Open House and fall play auditions
Everyone is invited to Tony White Theater at 6 p.m. tonight (Monday, Sept. 11) for Open House and at 7 p.m. for auditions for the fall play. The play is “Betty’s Summer Vacation” by Christopher Durang, and the auditions consist of cold readings and interviews; no preparation is necessary. Copies of the script are available on reserve in the library. Free pizza from Venus Pie also will be served at the event. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

Campus job opportunity
For those of you looking for a flexible, fun, on-campus job that pays competitively, Wofford on Call is the job for you! We are looking for enthusiastic individuals to contact alumni, parents and friends of the college by phone to request financial support for Wofford’s Annual fund.

A minimum of two call sessions a week of work will be expected. Night and afternoon hours are available. Training is required and calling will begin the first week of October.

Please contact Elizabeth Fields at fieldsem@wofford.edu or ext. 4187 to get an application or to get more information. We look forward to you taking part in this exciting and rewarding opportunity!

Last chance for Wofford-USC football tickets

All students, faculty, staff and supporters of Wofford College – if you plan to purchase a ticket for the Wofford at South Carolina football game on Saturday, Sept. 16, you must do so by noon, Tuesday, Sept. 12. Tickets are $35 per person (price set by USC) and were on consignment to Wofford, which is why they have to be returned early.

Preferably, these tickets need to be purchased in person at the Athletics Administration office located on the second floor of the Richardson Building. This must take place before noon on Tuesday, Sept. 12, as our remaining allotment will be shipped back to South Carolina at that time. If you want to pay with a credit card, but cannot pick up your tickets until later in the week, a temporary “will call” pick-up location will be set up in our office. That Will Call will close at noon on Thursday, Sept. 14. THERE IS NO Wofford Will Call at Williams-Brice Stadium. (Except for the player pass list.)

It is important to note that Saturday is Parents Weekend on the USC campus. These tickets will evaporate when they reach Columbia, so if you want your tickets now, buy them now. DO NOT BE LATE.

Feel free to forward this e-mail around to other supporters of the Terriers. Other than the approximately 500 tickets we have remaining, no tickets are left for this game as all USC tickets are sold out.

For those who cannot attend, the game will be televised on ESPN GamePlan (a pay-per-view service) not picked up by campus cable. I would assume local restaurants would have it on satellite, but that has not been confirmed.

Dr. David Callahan, author of The Cheating Culture, will speak at Wofford at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 13. His book analyzes dishonesty in business, politics, and other activities in American culture. He will talk about the research for this book, about cheating in colleges and universities, and about how we should respond.

Callahan’s books include Kindred Spirits: Harvard Business School’s Extraordinary Class of 1949 and How they Changed American Business. His numerous articles have been published in The New York Times, The Washington Post, and The American Prospect. He also has been a commentator on television programs on CNN, MSNBC, and Fox News.

Callahan holds the PhD in Politics at Princeton University.

This presentation will be of interest to students and faculty interested in business or the professions or to anyone interested in the promotion of integrity in our general culture. I hope that many classes and individuals will want to attend.

Wofford is grateful to College Town, Spartanburg's inter-collegiate cooperation, for making it possible for David Callahan to be on our campus. We are fortunate to have him at Wofford. I hope you will take advantage of this opportunity to interact with him about this important topic.

There will be light refreshments at a reception in The Acorn Cafe following the session in Leonard Auditorium.

Homecoming Academic Reception
Homecoming is quickly approaching and we are busy finalizing the many activities planned for the weekend. We wanted to alert you to a couple of activities where our faculty and staff can play a role and encourage your attendance.

We will again be hosting the Academic Reception from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 7, in Main Building. The location is different this year so everyone can see the newly renovated Old Main.
Tours will be available following a presentation of the history of Main at 10 a.m. in Leonard Auditorium by Doyle Boggs ’70. We would like to invite you to attend the Academic Reception to visit with the Alums and then be our guest at the Lunch on the Lawn of Main following. We will provide you with two complimentary tickets. Just RSVP by emailing Elizabeth Fields at fieldsem@wofford.edu or by calling x4187. Tickets will be mailed to your CPO before Homecoming.

Alumni enjoy seeing familiar faces from their college years as well as meeting our new faculty and staff. We hope you will plan to attend the reception and as many other Homecoming activities as your schedule permits. It is truly “Homecoming” for our alums when they see the people that meant so much to their college years.

Ending Nuclear Weapons
Nuclear bombs are the only way we humans could completely destroy ourselves. Think this is too big a threat? If so, come join the new group for disarming nuclear weapons, which will have a booth at the Interest Fair, or email Smithnj@wofford.edu.

Building a Better, Safer World
At 8 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 18, in the Olin Theater, AWARE, Campus Ministries and Service Learning are hosting a Global Security Forum called: “A Better, Safer World: Stopping the Spread of Nukes and Other Deadly Weapons.” With recent news of efforts by North Korea and Iran to acquire nuclear technologies, the U.S. stands at a critical moment in its security strategy. This event seeks to give students background on the current situation and insight on constructive ways that the U.S. can deal with this situation.

The event will feature the docudrama “Last Best Chance” and Matthew Martin, a program officer for policy analysis and dialogue at the Stanley Foundation and a former senior defense aide to U.S. Sen. and 9-11 Commissioner Bob Kerrey (D-NE). “Last Best Chance” is an acclaimed docudrama that shows the threat posed by vulnerable nuclear weapons and materials around the world and underscores what the stakes are. Starring Fred Dalton Thompson (actor on Law and Order; former U.S. senator – R-TN) and narrated by Tom Brokaw, the film documents what happens when al Qaeda operatives make crude nuclear weapons. See www.aidemocracy.org and www.lastbestchance.org for more information.

Faculty are encouraged to use the event for extra credit activities or to integrate with related course material.

At noon at Tuesday, Sept. 19, in the Old Main Portico, Dr. Robinson will host the first Wofford World Cafe. In an intimate setting we will discuss the questions and issues associated with global security and nuclear weapons.

If you have questions, please contact Lianne Moore, Dr. Ronald Robinson or Rev. Lyn Pace.

Wofford on Call job opportunity
From Katie Isbell ’08, WOC Student Supervisor:
Wofford on Call is a program that employs a group of students who are actively seeking to keep Wofford's tuition costs as low as possible. Did you know that the Annual Fund money applies towards exactly the same things that tuition money pays for? By raising money for Wofford, having TONS of FUN, and getting PAID, you can help keep tuition low!

Athletes: Wofford on Call also calls to raise money for the Terrier Club - which goes DIRECTLY toward your scholarship money! The staff has included football players, soccer players, and runners, so come bring more sports representatives.

Everyone: The MINIMUM calling hours are four hours a week and sessions are two hours long, so you only have to work twice a week for two hours! There are afternoon and night sessions available four days a week, including Sunday night! But remember, the more you work, the bigger the paycheck!

BOTTOM LINE: you get paid to help Wofford, have fun, and work with your friends!

For more information, contact Elizabeth Fields in the Development Office at fieldsem@wofford.edu or x4187. Applications are being accepted through this Friday, Sept. 15.

Wofford vs USC football tickets
Two individuals purchased tickets to the Wofford vs USC football game on Saturday, but now are unable to attend. If you need a ticket (purchase price $35), contact Michael Hobbs at 334-804-8303 or hobbsmd@wofford.edu, or Paul Vecchione at vecchionepm@wofford.edu.

We were saddened to learn of the death Tuesday of Gary McCraw's father, William C. McCraw, who was a 1946 graduate of Wofford.

Visitation is from 6 to 8 tonight (Wednesday) at Floyd's Greenlawn Chapel, with services at 11 a.m. tomorrow (Thursday), also at Greenlawn Chapel.

The full obituary is below:

William C. McCraw

SPARTANBURG, SC-- William Charles McCraw, 83, of 513 Jones Road, died peacefully on Tuesday, September 12, 2006, at his home. Born on May 31, 1923, in Spartanburg, SC, he was the son of the late William Clarence and Annie Mae Collins McCraw. He was a graduate of Spartanburg High School, Spartanburg Junior College, and Wofford College Class of 1946. He retired in 1995 as a casemaker at Kohler Company after 33 years of service. Mr. McCraw was a 42-year member of the Cannons Ruritan Club and had perfect attendance for 30 years. He also served the Ruritans as a past president and held the office of secretary for numerous years. He was a member of Cherokee Springs Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife of 60 years, Ann Rollins McCraw; two sons, Samuel Alan (Sharon) McCraw, and William Gary (Julie) McCraw; a daughter, Nancy McCraw Connor; eight grandchildren, Tracy Ervin, Chad (Jennifer) McCraw, Cyndi (Terry) Wolfe, Allyson (Terry) Dunagin; Leslie (Brad) Childers, Collins W. McCraw, Ashley A. Connor, and Austin L. Connor; and 12 great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by a brother, Harry Lesene McCraw.

Visitation will be from 6:00-8:00 PM on Wednesday, September 13, 2006, at Floyds Greenlawn Chapel. Funeral services will be held at 11:00 AM on Thursday, September 14, 2006, at Floyds Greenlawn Chapel with the Rev. William Vines and the Rev. Becky Capps officiating. Burial will be in Greenlawn Memorial Gardens.

Pallbearers will be Chad McCraw, Collins McCraw, Austin Connor, Chris Rollins, David Rollins, Terry Wolfe, Roger Loftis, and Dustin Blanton. Honorary Escort will be members of the Cannons Ruritan Club.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Interim Hospice, 775 Spartan Boulevard, Suite 101, Spartanburg, SC 29301.

The family is at the home.

An online guest register is available at www.floydmortuary.com.

Intramural Season
The intramural season, which will begin with Terrier Tag, will start after the conclusion of Rush for both male and female students. With a large portion of our intramural participants coming from our Greek life on campus we feel it is necessary for each Fraternity and Sorority to have their organizations finalized before beginning intramurals.

There will be a sign-up announcement coming in the next week so you can begin to submit your rosters for Terrier Tag.

Until then, there are many recreational activities at Wofford to participate in. Students can use the following facilities for recreational purposes:

- Andrews Field House (pick-up basketball)
- Reeves Tennis Center
- Fitness Center/Racquetball Courts
- Intramural Field

There is a group that meets during the week at 3:30 p.m. each day for Ultimate Frisbee at the Intramural field, located behind Gibbs Stadium.

If you have any questions or comments regarding intramurals please send them to Todd Interdonato at interdonatotj@wofford.edu.

The Big GRILLZ
The Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM) would like to invite the Wofford community to a cookout at 7:17 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 21, at The Hangar (First Baptist Church, near the bus station in downtown). This event is intercollegiate so USC-Upstate, Converse, SMC and Spartanburg Community College students will be attending as well. You can e-mail Sandra Rogers at rogerssr@wofford.edu if you need directions. There will be food, beach volleyball (real sand), basketball, ping-pong and more. Three bands will perform – Firefly Summer, Kapa Dilect and Goodnight Providence. Hope to see you there.

Lions Club Meeting
The Lions Club will meet at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 20, in RMSC 326. It is important that all returning Lions attend, and anyone interested in joining is more than welcome.

Service Learning Lunch and Discussion
You're invited to the first lunch and discussion of the semester hosted by The Service Learning Center. Come hear local leaders in education talk about the assets and challenges of public education in Spartanburg.

The lunch is from noon to 1 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 22, in the Anna Todd Wofford Center. If you have
The lunch is from noon to 1 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 22, in the Anna Todd Wofford Center. If you have class until 12:20 p.m., come after class. Please RSVP by 5 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 20, to Lyn Pace at pacepl@wofford.edu.

Celebrating our Constitution
“We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.”

"The Enduring Blessing of the Constitution: A Constitution Day Primer on the Constitution" – To celebrate Constitution Day the Government Department is sponsoring a special event at 11 a.m. today (Tuesday, Sept. 19) in the Olin Teaching Theater. Dr. Jeffrey will provide an overall introduction to the Constitution and its principles, answer FAQs, and discuss in particular the question of sovereignty in the Constitution. Refreshments will be served. For more information contact Sean Hinton at hintonsj@wofford.edu.

Poetry Slam! Acorn Cafe Thursday Night
Katie Grainger and Prashant Patel will be hosting the first-ever Poetry Slam – from 7 to 10 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 21, in the Acorn Café in the Milliken Science Center. This is a Fun Funds event and may become a monthly event based on turnout.

This Poetry Slam is open to all members of the Wofford community. You can bring any poem that either you have written or inspires you to the slam and read it aloud to the rest of the crowd. (You can come and just watch, too!)

Best of all FREE COFFEE! You can either purchase your own specialty drinks from the Acorn Café or have a cup of the free coffee provided just for the Poetry Slam.

We encourage anyone who wishes to broaden their literary horizons a bit to join us on this wonderful evening full of free coffee and free expression.

Wesley Fellowship
Wesley Fellowship will meet at 5 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 20, in Main 007 (in the Campus Ministry suite). We will be having KFC, and Erica Cosh will be talking. We hope to see you there!

Campus Crusade for Christ
Join Campus Crusade for Christ at 7 tonight (Tuesday, Sept. 19) as we talk about Walking in the Light! We will meet in DuPre Lounge. Come for fun, fellowship and practical lessons from God’s Word! Questions? Email Ryan at HillRG@wofford.edu.

Movie Event in McMillan Friday Night!
The Diversity, Multiculturalism and Interfaith Residential Learning Community will present a showing of the film “Crash” at 7 p.m. Friday, Sept. 22, in the McMillan Theater. The movie will be followed by a voluntary discussion and refreshments for those who stay. Please come out and support our community.

Synopsis: “A provocative, unflinching look at the complexities of racial conflict in America, ‘Crash’ is that rare cinematic event - a film that challenges audiences to question their own prejudices. Diving headlong into the diverse melting pot of post-9/11 Los Angeles, this compelling urban drama tracks the volatile intersections of a multi-ethnic cast, examining fear and bigotry from multiple perspectives as characters careen in and out of one another’s lives. No one is safe in the battle zones of racial strife. And no one is immune to the simmering rage that sparks violence - and changes lives....”

W.A.C. Bowling Night
All Wofford students are invited to join W.A.C. members at Star Lanes from 8 to 10 tonight (Wednesday, Sept. 20) for W.A.C. Bowling Night. Free for all students so be sure to bring your Wofford I.D. Free pizza and soft drinks also will be available. See you there!

Last Chance To Sign Up For Rush/Recruitment
Any freshmen or non-Greek upperclass men and women interested in participating in IFC Rush or Panhellenic Recruitment must sign up by Thursday, Sept. 21. Be sure to visit the Greek Life Web site for the online registration link. No applications will be accepted after Thursday. If you have any questions, contact Heather Morrow at morrowhj@wofford.edu.

Resume Workshop – Today at 3:30 p.m.
Darrin Goss, director of Career Services, will conduct a resume workshop from 3:30 to 5 p.m. today (Wednesday, Sept. 21) in Olin 213. This event is open to any student and no pre-registration is required.

Guitar Soloist Opens Wofford's Troubadour Series
At 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 21, in the Papadopoulos Building, James Marron will begin the seventh year of Wofford's Troubadour Series. Guitarist/composer James Marron will perform original works from his recordings “Six Poems for the Angels” and "Spring Rising" as well as works by Nikola Resanovic and Roger Zahab.

A graduate of The Manhattan School of Music, Marron has performed in Italy, France, Germany, and throughout the U.S. His compositions are included in the publication The Contemporary Guitar - An Anthology of New Music published by Mel Bay and "Six Poems for the Angels" will soon be available in publication by Berben Publishing in Italy. As co-founder of Marronprater dance and music co., he has composed modern dance music that has been performed in New York, Toronto, Colorado, North Carolina, New Jersey and Ohio. In review of Marron’s debut CD Spring Rising Classical Guitar magazine wrote that “Guitarist James Marron’s own pieces are impressively broad-ranging from spikily atonal, in the Winter Scenes, to lush and lyrical in For Suzanne” and 20th Century Guitar Magazine stated “Six Poems for the Angels... an impeccable CD of classical and neoclassical guitar music”. Radio appearances include "Live at Hochstein" VXXI Rochester, NY. and “Not the Dead White Male Composer Series” WCLV Cleveland, OH. Currently Mr. Marron is on the faculty of Ashland University and the University of Akron. He is a BMI affiliate composer. For more information visit www.jamesmarron.com.
FCA Tonight
Please come join the Fellowship of Christian Athletes at 8:28 tonight (Wednesday, Sept. 20) in McMillan Theater as we mix it up a little and enjoy our new praise band. Everyone is welcome. Hope to see you there.

On-campus: VA Commonwealth School of Allied Health
On Monday, Oct. 2, the director of recruitment for the School of Allied Health at VA Commonwealth University will be at Wofford as a guest of Career Services. She will hold a presentation from noon to 12:30 p.m. in the Holcombe Room, with the focus being on the master’s in health administration, "an industry-specific" MBA. She then will hold individual 15-minute appointments with interested students. Please call Career Services at x4260 if you wish to attend and/or sign up for an appointment.

Two special announcements from Dan Mathewson and Maj. Scott Leblond, for Faculty and Staff.

From Scott Leblond:

Faculty and Staff are invited to participate in the Southern Guards Battalion ROTC afternoon PT. See the attached flier for details, or contact me at leblondsa@wofford.edu.

From Dan Mathewson:

Dear Athletes (of the arthritic, broken down and/or generally way-past-the-pathetic-primes-they-once-had variety) –

It’s time once again to break out our musty cleats, our John Stockton short shorts, and our giant vats of Ben-Gay. It’s time rustle from the slumber of our academic pursuits and awaken to the glories athletic triumph. It's time once again to DOMINATE in the hallowed realm of Intramural sports and to school our students on the athletic field, even as we have schooled them in the classroom.

Terrier Tag season is upon us. (Wofford’s version of flag football, for the uninitiated.)

And this time we mean business! No more messing around, no more Mr & Mrs Nice Teacher.

This year we WILL win more than one game. I stake Matt Cathey’s reputation on it.

So who’s in? The season starts after Rush (I hear) but we plan to get a practice or two in beforehand (Mark Ferguson’s idea, so blame him). I’m thinking Tuesday or Wednesday afternoons at 3:00 or 4:00 maybe. Who can make it then? Would another time work better for you?

Let me know.

Dan (mathewsondb@wofford.edu)
The Southern Guards Battalion has started an AFTERNOON PT SESSION
(That’s Physical Training to you Civies)

We meet each Monday and Wednesday afternoon
From 1600 to 1700 in Andrews Fieldhouse

The War Year: Dr. Antulio J. Echevarria II speaks at 11 today
Dr. Antulio J. Echevarria II, director of national security affairs and director of research at the Strategic Studies Institute of the U.S. Army War College, will speak at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 26, in Leonard Auditorium as part of The War Year series of programs. He will speak on “War as an Instrument of Policy and an Expression of Politics.”

Terrier Tag (Flag Football)
To register a team for Terrier Tag (Flag Football) each team captain must e-mail a roster to Intramural Director Todd Interdonato at interdonatotj@wofford.edu.
Roster Regulations:
- There will be both a men’s and women’s league for Terrier Tag (determine which one you would like your team to participate in)
- Each roster must be a minimum of 7 players.
- Each roster must be submitted by Friday Sept. 29
- Games will start on Monday Oct. 2
- Each Team must designate a Team Captain and include their cell phone # for a team contact.
- No player can be listed on more than one team roster.
- Teams can add a player to their roster in the first two weeks of the season. Not including a player that has already been listed on another team’s roster. (This is especially for Greek organizations adding freshman to roster after Rush)
- No player can participate in a game unless they are listed on the team’s roster.

If you have any questions you may contact Todd Interdonato, intramural director, at interdonatotj@wofford.edu or x4497.

Career Services Guest
You are invited by the Career Services Office to meet Logan Vetrovec of VA Commonwealth University
You are invited by the Career Services Office to meet Logan Vetrovec of VA Commonwealth University School of Allied Health Professions at noon on Monday, Oct. 2, in the Holcombe Room. She will discuss the University's MHA program, an industry-specific MBA, which accepts students directly from four-year institutions. Because few universities accept persons into "MBA-type" programs without two-three years work experience, her visit and the opportunity to talk with her individually after her presentation is a unique opportunity for Wofford students. Please call Kay Vipperman at x4260 to make a reservation for 15-minute appointments following the presentation.

Gender Studies Program Interest Meeting
An informational meeting about the Gender Studies Program will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 28, in Main 302. Information also is available from Dr. Goodchild (goodchildkh@wofford.edu) or Dr. Hitchmough (hitchmoughsa@wofford.edu).

Beat Furman Signs
Please see the attachment for a Beat Furman sign to place in your dorm window or office door.

Go, Terriers!

ACM Hosts Dr. Larry Hodges Today
The Wofford Students Chapter of the Association for Computing Machinery will host Dr. Larry Hodges, chair of the Computer Science Department at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He will speak on digital humans as well as graduate school opportunities. All are welcome to attend the talk at 11 a.m. today (Tuesday, Sept. 26) in Olin 210.

PSA this week
Join us 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 27, at the PSA House for dinner, worship, and "Working next to the levee in New Orleans." Bring your mission trip stories to share. Contact 582-5600 or go to spartanburgpsa.org.

Fiesta in Burwell Tonight

Come enjoy a Hispanic Heritage meal in Burwell tonight. Enchiladas, nachos, salsa, chipotle chicken, and much, much more.

Faculty Talk

Professor Dan Mathewson from the department of religion will give a faculty talk on Wednesday afternoon in the Montgomery (Faculty Dining) Room in Burwell Building. Entitled “Sex, Death, and the Apocalypse: Evangelicals and Pornographic Entertainment,” his talk will explore the popularity of the Left Behind novels among evangelical Christians. He will argue that their appeal has more to do with the general American fascination with death pornography than with any particular theological content the novels contain. Refreshments will be available at 3:30. The talk begins at 4:00. Come for food and food for thought.

Friday Afternoon Drum Circle

Did you hear the drums last Friday? Sounded pretty good didn't it? You can be a part of the fun this Friday. We are all beginners so, if you have a heartbeat, you have enough rhythm to participate. The Arts RLC and FUN FUNDS provides drums and other percussion instruments to share. We’ll gather from 4:30 to 6 p.m. Friday, Sept. 29, in Players Corner, rain or shine. Please contact Dr. Hettes (hettessr@wofford.edu) if you have any questions.

Study Abroad with IES
Study Abroad with IES

If you are interested in studying abroad, please drop by Player's Corner on Thursday, September 28th from 12pm-1:30 pm to get information about programs offered by IES. IES Representative, Ms. Barrie Short, will be onhand to answer questions and offer study abroad advising during that time. See www.iesabroad.org for more information about IES's programs. Deadline for most spring applications in October 1st.

Informational Meeting for IES Applicants

Students applying for an IES study abroad program should plan to attend this meeting at 11am-12pm in Olin 114 on Thursday, September 18th. Barrie Short, IES representative, will be onhand to answer questions regarding the program, application, and visa process.

Interested in pursuing an internship in NYC?

Tomorrow in Olin 118 from 11am-12pm, Richard Harrill will be onhand to discuss the Bard Globalization and Int'l Affairs Program in New York, New York. Internship opportunities are available for credit during the semester or summer. See http://www.bard.edu/bgia/ or the Office of Programs Abroad for more information. Deadline for spring applications in Oct. 1.

Flu Vaccines

Time: 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.
Where: Health Services
Cost: $13

Please call Health Services at ext 4370 to reserve your vaccine.

Submit Summer Photos for Yearbook

Did you do something interesting this summer? Feel like a major part of college life- the summer- seems to get left out of the yearbook? This year's Bohemian (yearbook) staff wants to change that, but we need your help. If you would like to submit a photo from a job, internship, mission trip, study abroad, etc. that you did this summer, please email the picture (in highest resolution possible) and a brief explanation to davisjl@wofford.edu.

APO interest meeting

Alpha Phi Omega is having an interest meeting 11:00 a.m. on Thursday at Player's Corner. APO is a service fraternity that provides students a chance to work and volunteer with the Spartanburg community, as well as meet new people and just have fun. The organization is open to all people, even other Greeks. If you can't make it to the meeting, then just contact Christopher at gillamcj@wofford.edu.
The School of Health Professions- GA State Univ.

The Career Services Office (second floor - Raines Center) has received detailed brochures on the nutrition, physical therapy and respiratory therapy programs in the School of Health Professions at GA State University. Come by the office to peruse this information.

Dental Day at MUSC

The Medical University of South Carolina will hold its 8th annual Dental Day from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. Friday, October 20. This is an excellent opportunity to learn about the College of Dental Medicine at M.U.S.C. and to meet faculty, students, and dental admissions counselors. If you are interested in attending, please sign up on the list attached to Dr. Bass's door (Milliken 306C).

2006 Community of Scholars Awards

Awards for the 2006 Wofford Community of Scholars were announced at the Symposium last Saturday. In each category, the $1000 prize was split between two research projects.

For Humanities, the recipients are Vanessa Lauber, “Literary Degenerates”: Perceptions of Female Productivity and Power in the Failure of the New Women Writers” and Sarah McClure, “A Feminine Accomplishment”: Portrayals of Women at the Piano in the Art of the Nineteenth Century”

For Science, the recipients are Elom Abalo, “An Extensible Framework for the Mathematical Manipulation of Music” and Kimberly Smith, “Conditioned Taste Aversion Threshold of Free Fatty Acids in Obese-Prone and Obese-Resistant Rats”

Congratulations to those selected, and to everyone involved for making it a great summer!

Managers Needed

The Wofford women's basketball team is looking for individuals who are interested in working evening and weekend hours as managers to help our up and coming program. The position includes free travel and occasional meals with the team. For more information please contact Ed Geth at gethed@wofford.edu or call 597-4119.

Burwell Building Room Reservations

Football hosts Furman; Soccer vs. ASU Saturday
This will be a full weekend of athletic events on campus.

Saturday at 3:30 p.m.
The football team renews South Carolina's oldest college football rivalry as Wofford hosts Furman in a game televised on CSS. The series between the Terriers and Paladins dates back to 1889. Saturday will be the 80th time to two teams have met on the gridiron.

Thanks to this week’s game sponsor, Regional Sports Medicine at Wofford, the first 500 students into the student section will get a collectable Mike Ayers Face Fan. (A hand-held fan in the likeness of Coach Ayers.) Be sure and hang onto your face fan and listen for instructions during the game on when to hold up your Coach Ayers fan in unison for the cameras.

Saturday at 7:30 p.m.
Take the tailgate to Snyder Field as the Wofford men's soccer team hosts Appalachian State in the SoCon home opener for the squad.

Sunday at 6 p.m.
The women's soccer team hosts Guilford at Snyder Field. The match begins "Beacon Iced Tea Bowl V" Week as we prepare for the Homecoming football contest against The Citadel on Oct. 7. Fans will be allowed on field at the half to shoot for a chance to win free Beacon Iced Tea, Beacon Iced Tea Bowl t-shirts and "Tea Bowl Towels."

For more information contact Wofford Sports Marketing at mathisld@wofford.edu or palatiellonw@wofford.edu.
‘Reserved’ Student Organization Seating Blocks
All student organizations (Greek and non-Greek) have the ability to reserve a block of seats in the student section for this weekend’s football game against Furman. For the section to be reserved the following MUST be complete or the seats will be available for General Admission spectators:

- Request must be submitted by noon Friday to Nick Palatiello via e-mail or hard copy including: Organization Name, Contact Name and Cell Phone Number, Total Number in organization, Number attending game.

(E-mail request sent to palatiellonw@wofford.edu. Hard copies can be dropped off with Nick in the Athletic Administration offices, 2nd floor Richardson)

- 50% of members must be present in the section no later than 20 minutes prior to kick-off. If the section is not filled 20 minutes prior to kickoff the section will be open to General Admission ticket holders.

- If your section is vacated at half-time your section will become open to General Admission tickets and your organizations will not have “Priority” the following week(s) and will moved further up in the stands.

Placement will be based on a first-come first-serve basis under the discretion of Wofford Sports Marketing, which reserves the right to revoke privileges. Some sections will be reserved for special promotions, recruits or other reasons at the discretion of the Athletics Department.

Increased traffic on campus Friday night
A significant increase in traffic is expected on campus Friday night as Spartanburg High School hosts Byrnes High School at Gibbs Stadium.

Saturday Events
Come and support the Terriers this Saturday v. Furman. The fun will begin when the student tailgate lot opens at 11 a.m. and continues with a band, The Trailer Choir, from noon to 3 p.m. All students are welcome to walk in, but you must reserve a parking space to park a car. Food and drinks also will be provided. All students are then encouraged to meet in the student section and form a student spirit tunnel on the field. The first 200 people will receive free t-shirts. You don't want to miss out on the fun and excitement of Terrier Football!

Wofford / Furman Scouting Report
Help support local Scouting by purchasing popcorn from Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts at the Wofford / Furman football game Saturday. Boys will have tables set up outside the gates at Gibbs Stadium at 2:30 p.m.. Thanks for your support and Go Terriers!

Terrier Tag (Flag Football)
To register a team for Terrier Tag (Flag Football) each team captain must e-mail a roster to Intramural Director Todd Interdonato at interdonatotj@wofford.edu. Roster Regulations:

- There will be both a men’s and women’s league for Terrier Tag (determine which one you would like your team to participate in)

Bible Study
Everyone is welcome to join Souljahs For Christ as we have a Bible study discussion at 7:30 tonight in Olin 114. Tanya George will be leading our lesson: "Prompted By Your Faith."

Prayer
Come out every Sunday night at 9 to the 2nd floor lobby in Marsh (between female and male halls). This is a time for all campus ministries to join in prayer. If you have any questions e-mail kobayashiy@wofford.edu.
Sunago
The Baptist Collegiate Ministry invites the Wofford community to join with other surrounding colleges (SMC, Converse, Spartanburg Community College and USC Upstate) for an incredible worship experience. Sunago is Greek for the word "gather" and so it is our hope that you would come and gather with other college students and connect. The event will be held at the Hangar (located about 2 miles from Wofford) at 7:37 p.m. A group will be leaving from the BCM parking lot at 7:20 p.m. if anyone wants a ride. Come and join us!

A Great Monday in Career Services
On Monday, Oct. 2, Career Services will host its first two graduate schools: 1) from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. – Washington & Lee Law School will have an information table in Burwell; 2) at noon in the Holcombe Room, the director of recruitment of VA Commonwealth School of Allied Health will present information on their highly acclaimed MHA program, an industry-specific MBA program which does accept candidates directly from four-year institutions. Please call Career Services at x4260 if you wish to attend or sign up for a 15-minute appointment with VCU.
