TODAY’S EVENTS (Friday, December 01, 2006)
Athletics Hosts ‘Flea Market’ through Saturday
Wofford Sports Marketing is hosting the second "Terrier Flea Market" today and Saturday in Benjamin Johnson Arena. The last "Flea Market" sale was held in August 2004.

The sale begins at noon today and runs until the end of the women’s basketball game. The sale continues from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday. Fans coming to shop at the Flea Market – held on the West Concourse of the Arena – will be admitted free to the women’s basketball game tonight (vs. Winthrop at 7 p.m.). Also, anyone purchasing items also will get a coupon for a free drink, fries or Frosty at many of the Wendy’s locations in the Spartanburg area.

Just as it sounds, the Athletics Department will clean out the closets and offer fans great savings on items such as game-worn jerseys, T-shirts and other apparel as well as printed materials. A limited amount of equipment also may be available from some teams as well.
amount of equipment also may be available from some teams as well.

Fans may pay by cash or check only. Proceeds go directly back to the individual team placing the items up for sale.

A listing of items available will be posted at www.woffordterriers.com this morning.

For more information, call Wofford Sports Marketing at (864) 597-4110.

'The Winter Art Explosion is TODAY!!!
Everyone, gather around to marvel at the artistic and musical talent exhibited today at the open house at the apartment village!

The open house combines with the Winter Art Explosion from 3 to 6 p.m. today with the intention of demonstrating the progressive strides being made to promote the arts at Wofford!

Food, drinks, aesthetic pleasure, and aural sensation will be provided. Please come out and enjoy the artwork, music and new apartment complex!

GAME TONIGHT: Terriers vs. Winthrop, 7 p.m.
The Wofford women are in action at 7 tonight against Winthrop in Benjamin Johnson Arena.

A Christmas Story' and 'Eternal Sunshine' in McMillan
Come to McMillan Theater tonight as we show “A Christmas Story” (Runtime 93 mins). This movie is an instant Christmas classic. Ralphie, a young boy growing up in the ’40’s, dreams of owning a Red Rider BB gun. He sets out to convince the world this is the perfect gift, but along the way, he runs into opposition from his parents, his teacher, and even good ol’ Santa Claus himself. "A Christmas Story" is one of the funniest and memorable Christmas movies of all time.

On Saturday in McMillan, join us as we show “Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind” (Runtime 108 mins). This movie depicts a couple that undergo a procedure to erase each other from their memories when their relationship turns sour, but it is only through the process of loss that they discover what they had to begin with.

Please join us for our second dinner meeting for students of separated or divorced families. We will gather together for a warm and nutritious dinner at 5 p.m. in Health Services on Thursday, Dec. 7, followed by discussion. We hope you will join us even if you were not able to the first time. RSVP to Dean Wallace at wallaceed@wofford.edu or ext. 4371 by Wednesday, Dec. 6.

Wofford College Ducks Unlimited Banquet

The 2nd Annual Wofford College Ducks Unlimited Banquet will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 7, at Spartanburg Memorial Auditorium. This is a fun and unique way of raising money for wetlands and wildlife conservation.

Tickets for the event are:
- $30-single and $50-couple – in advance
- $40-single and $60-couple – at the door

Your ticket will give you a year’s membership to Ducks Unlimited, free food, free refreshments/beer (if over 21) and a chance to bid on more than 50 items in our live auction as well as other items in several raffles that will go on throughout the banquet. We will be selling tickets at Burwell on Monday and Tuesday of next week during lunch. If you miss us there, you can still buy a ticket. Contact: Sam Little, Jacob Smith, or Jimbo Robinson for a list of ticket sellers.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Who Doesn’t Need Prayer?

If you have a prayer request, just swing by the Raines Center and put a note in the prayer box. You can also join us in prayer as we meet in the 2nd floor lobby of Marsh. We will be there at 9 p.m. on Sunday.

Creative Writing Contest

The Journal staff (along with the Bohemian staff) is asking you to submit your poems, personal essays, or short fiction to the 2006 Helmus Creative Writing Contest. The winners of this contest will be published in the Journal, which will be included in the Bohemian (for the first time ever) in Spring 2007. Every submission will be considered for publication. Winners of the contest will receive cash prizes! This contest is open to ALL WOFFORD STUDENTS! You can submit up to three poems, and/or one short story (up to 4,000 words), and/or one personal essay (up to 4,000 words). Do not include your name on your work; instead submit a separate note with your name, CPO number, email address, and the names of the works you have submitted. Send all work and notes by campus mail to the BOHEMIAN. Deadline is Dec. 11.

If you are currently abroad and would like to submit poems, short stories, essays, or pictures, then please submit the cover sheet and the works to Blair Burke at BurkeBE@wofford.edu.

TODAY’S EVENTS (Monday, December 4, 2006)
Lunch with the Goldtones
Join the Rotaract Club and Success Initiative today at noon in the Success Initiative room in the back of the Snyder House for lunch and Christmas music provided by the Goldtones. Sandwiches and drinks also will be provided.

Operation Oorah
Please join Operation: Oorah sponsored by Fun Funds today and Wednesday from 4 to 8 p.m. at the Acorn Cafe in creating holiday cards for US Marines deployed in Iraq. The holiday season is an extremely difficult time for the soldiers and we would like to show them that Wofford is thankful for their dedication to our country by sending some holiday cheer.

Construction paper and markers and refreshments will be provided. The cards will be sent to Kate Thorpe's brother, Lance Corporal Will Thorpe, who was injured in the beginning of November by an insurgent blast. Lance Cpl. Thorpe will distribute the cards to his unit located in Gharma, Iraq, and to wounded US Marines recovering in Taqaddum Surgical Unit outside of Fallujah, Iraq. If you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to contact Kate Thorpe at ThorpeKR@wofford.edu.

Study Breaks
To the staff:

Thank you for listening to yesterday's brief presentation on the United Way. As you know, this is a very efficient way to give back to our community: United Way identifies local needs and directs your dollars where they are needed most. And because it mostly consists of volunteers, United Way is able to operate with lower overheads than other non-profit organizations.

If you are going to participate, please return forms to me at CPO 57 before Friday, Dec. 15. If you weren't able to attend yesterday's meeting or if you need a form, please contact me: hitchmoughsa@wofford.edu.

With your help, Wofford should be able to break its (rather sad) record of participation this year!

Thank you,

Sally Hitchmough

Study Breaks
From Dean Bigger:

Please know that just before 12:00 am Sunday morning there was an armed robbery between the Olin/Shipp Hall parking lot and Lesesne Hall. The male student was not hurt, but his cell phone was taken. He had been studying in the Olin Building and was walking back to Lesesne Hall when he was approached by two young men. Wofford Campus Safety Officers and Spartanburg Public Safety Officers are investigating the incident. They are also investigating a burglary which occurred on Friday night in fraternity houses 3 and 4.

Protect yourself! Be alert! Please do not walk alone at night. Lock your offices. Lock your vehicles. Call Campus Safety for an escort from your vehicle or from building to building. Report any suspicious persons. Use the emergency phones on the blue poles or the wall phones at the residence halls to contact Campus Safety at ext. 4911.

Campus Safety Officers can be reached 24 hours a day, seven days a week, at 864/597-4911

Please contact Chief Sartor or me if you have any questions or concerns.

Our institution is currently collaborating with area Colleges and Universities to chronicle our community outreach efforts. As we move toward a system of open communication and shared resources we are compiling a comprehensive list of all community affiliates that our institution has partnered with for outreach activities within the past 2 years.

Some of you have worked with agencies through service learning ventures in your classrooms. Others have participated in Interim or Spring break experiences in the Spartanburg community. Even if you have participated on a personal level, please fill out the chart in the attachment and send it back to Lyn Pace at pacepl@wofford.edu or through Campus Mail, Lyn Pace/Service Learning. Please send your response by Wednesday, Dec. 20, 2006.

If you have an extra hour during this busy holiday season, please consider delivering a route for Mobile Meals. Many of the weekly drivers will be away for the holidays and Mobile Meals is desperate for volunteers who can serve as sub drivers. As a volunteer, you are provided with detailed driving directions to each home and it literally takes only an hour of your time. Invite a friend or take your children/family along for the route and make it a true holiday event. If you can help out, please call Vivian at 573-7684. This is a great opportunity to take part in the true meaning of the season!
The Help Center will be closed today, December 20, 2006 from 11:30am to 2:00pm so the staff may participate in their Christmas luncheon.

We will be open this afternoon from 2:00pm until 5:00pm.

Merry Christmas!
