Wofford baseball notes
April 1, 2004

Zach Pittman
*Over the last two weekends, Wofford faced league leaders College of Charleston (9-0) and The Citadel (8-1) who sport a combined 17-1 SoCon record.

*The Terriers have played six games against teams (College of Charleston, Clemson, South Carolina, Tennessee) that are either currently ranked in the Top 25 or have been at some point this season.

*Wofford is batting .289 this season compared to .267 last year. The Terriers have also dropped their team ERA from 8.85 in 2003 to 6.24 this spring. This year's staff features 73.2 innings, representing 43.1 percent of the season total, from freshmen Charles Vartanian, Austin Redwine, Lance Player and Jim Zimmer.

*The Terriers have already doubled their stolen base total from last year. Wofford is 14-of-16 on thefts this season after going 7-of-14 in 2003. Shortstop Tony Carbone is a team-best 4-of-4 on steals, including 3-of-3 in the last two games.

*The Terriers have been playing without injured starting outfielders Zach Pittman (.345, 2 HR, 14 RBI) and Stephen Johnson (.400, 2 HR, 8 RBI). Pittman suffered a shoulder injury while attempting to make a diving catch in the first inning of last Saturday's game versus The Citadel. Johnson has been sidelined since a March 7 contest versus Youngstown State. Pittman's return to the lineup is not known. Johnson is hopeful of contributing in a designated hitter role this weekend.

David Long
*First baseman David Long, who tops Wofford in doubles (8) and RBI (24), has hit safely in 15 of 20 games this spring.

*Pittman and Scott Holloway are tied for the team lead in multiple-hit games with seven. Carbone and Long are next at six. Pittman is also the Terrier leader in multiple-RBI contests with five.

*Holloway, a preseason All-SoCon selection, is tied for the league lead in the number of opposing base stealers thrown out at 15. He has nailed 41.7 percent of attempted runners. He has caught all but one inning this season after being behind the plate for all but five innings last season.

*Vartanian places fifth in the SoCon in opponent batting average (.219). He's also fifth in the league with 13 batters struck out looking.

*Wofford has a 4-2 record in games started by pitcher Chris Clark.

*Player has not allowed an earned run in his last 4.2 innings, spanning three appearances.
Steve Casey has 36 career doubles, just three shy of Wofford's all-time mark of 39 (Strat Stavrou, 1999-02).

Terriers drop game one of doubleheader to Davidson
April 3, 2004

Andy Carter held Wofford to one run and five hits over seven innings to lead Davidson to a 3-1 victory over Wofford in the first game of a doubleheader this afternoon in Davidson, N.C.

Wofford’s Stephen Johnson (pictured) was in the lineup in leftfield in game one. After batting .400 with two home runs and eight RBI in the opening seven games of the season, Johnson was sidelined for nearly a month with a high ankle sprain. Playing for the first time since March 7, he singled to right on the first pitch he saw in the game and had two hits.

Centerfielder Zach Pittman also returned to the Wofford lineup. He had been sidelined for a week by a shoulder injury.

Carter (1-3) struck out three and walked one. Jay Heafner came in from third base to record the final three outs for his seventh save.

Davidson (11-15, 6-7) took a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the second on a two-out, RBI double by Ronnie Shore.

Wofford (8-13, 2-8) tied the game in the top of the fourth. David Dufour doubled with two outs and advanced to third on a wild pitch. He then scored on an infield single by Scott Holloway. Dufour had two hits in the game.

The Wildcats regained a 2-1 lead in the bottom of the fifth. After being hit by a pitch, Andrew Musashe scored from third with two outs on a bloop single to rightcenter by Alex Entrekin.

A run-scoring single by Shore, his second hit of the game, extended the Wildcats’ lead to 3-1 in the sixth inning.

With two outs in the top of the eighth, Tony Carbone walked and Steve Casey singled him to third. Wilson then got David Long on a deep liner to left to end the inning.

Johnson led off the ninth with a single. Dufour then just missed tying the game when his deep drive over the wall in right just curved foul.

Wofford starter Jarrod Rampey (3-3) struck out six and walked six in five innings. He allowed three runs on five hits.

Freshman Austin Redwine tossed three innings of scoreless relief for Wofford. He surrendered three hits while striking out two and walking one.

Sam Navarro had three hits for Davidson.

Stephen Johnson
Cole and Long lead Wofford past Davidson in game two
April 3, 2004

Jesse Cole allowed two runs in 7.1 innings while David Long had three hits, including two home runs, and six RBI to lead Wofford to a 10-2 victory over Davidson in the second game of a doubleheader, giving the Terriers a split this afternoon in Davidson, N.C.

Jesse Cole

Cole (3-3), a sophomore righthander from Scituate, Mass., allowed five hits while striking out three and walking three. In his previous start, Cole held The Citadel to two earned runs in six innings.

Long now has team-high totals of seven homers and 30 RBI in 22 games this season. A native of Coeburn, Va., Long played the previous two years at Walters State Community College.

Stephen Johnson and David Dufour had two hits in each game of the doubleheader. Zach Pittman and Anthony Dinardo both singled twice to key Wofford's 12-hit attack in game two.

The Terriers (9-13, 3-8) took a 1-0 lead in the top of the fourth. Johnson opened the inning with a double, his third hit on the day. He came around to score on a Pittman groundout.

A two-out opposite field homer by Long extended the Terrier margin to 3-0 in the top of the fifth.

The Wildcats (11-16, 6-8) threatened in the bottom of the fifth with a runner on third and two outs. However, Terrier third baseman Bert Parker made a diving stop on an Eli Benefield grounder and fired to first for the out to end the inning.

Dufour led off the Terrier sixth with his fourth homer of the year, an opposite field blast to leftcenter to give Wofford a 4-0 lead. Scott Holloway was then hit by a pitch before advancing to third on a hit-and-run single by Pittman. Parker plated Holloway with a sacrifice bunt to extend the Terrier advantage to 5-0.

A solo home run by Jay Heafner in the bottom of the sixth closed the Wildcat deficit to 5-1.

Wofford broke the game open with a four-run eighth inning. Long's second homer of the game, a three-run shot, was followed by a run-scoring single from Dufour.

Long later added a run-scoring single in the top of the ninth, his third hit of the game, to provide Wofford's final run.

Davidson starter Matt Dellinger (0-3) was charged with five runs on five hits in six innings. He struck out four and walked three.

Terriers drop rubber game of series to Davidson
April 4, 2004

Tony Carbone

Jay Heafner had four RBI, including a three-run double in the first inning, to lead Davidson to a 10-5 victory over Wofford this afternoon in Davidson, N.C.

Tony Carbone (pictured) and David Dufour topped Wofford at the plate with three hits each. Carbone had a two-run triple in the sixth, while Dufour had his third straight multiple-hit game.

Wildcat ace Brian Akin (5-0) allowed a season-high four runs on six hits in six innings. He struck out seven and walked three. He entered the game with a 1.84 ERA.

Wofford was victimized by three errors and 11 men left on base.

Chris Clark relieved Wofford starter Charles Vartanian (2-4) in the second inning and struck out the first four batters he faced. Chad McGill, the third and final Terrier pitcher, tossed 2.2 innings of scoreless relief.

The Wildcats (12-16, 7-8) took control in the first inning on Heafner's three-run double to center.

Alden Crissey led off the bottom of the second with his first home run of the year. Alex Entrekin's two-run single later in the inning gave the Wildcats a 6-0 lead.

The Terriers (9-14, 3-9) got on the board in the top of the fourth when Scott Holloway was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded. It was the third time in five at bats, dating back to yesterday, that Holloway was plunked. He's now been hit by a pitch a team-leading five times this season.

Wofford scored three runs in the sixth to close within 8-4. Stephen Johnson opened the inning with a walk and moved to third on a double by Dufour. Carbone plated them both with his triple to the gap in rightcenter. He then scored on a sacrifice fly by Bert Parker.

Davidson answered with two runs in the bottom of the sixth to regain a 10-4 advantage.

Wofford put runners on first and second to open the seventh but was unable to capitalize.

The Terriers begin a six-game homestand Tuesday when they host North Carolina A&T in a 3 p.m. doubleheader.

Terriers drop game one of doubleheader to Aggies
April 6, 2004

Zach Pittman

Marcus Mack hit his first two home runs of the year in addition to a triple to lead North Carolina A&T to an 11-5 victory over Wofford in the first game of a doubleheader this afternoon at Russell C. King Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

The Aggies took a 1-0 lead in the top of the first on a two-out RBI single by Charlie Gamble.

Wofford went on top 3-1 in the bottom of the second. A sacrifice fly by Scott Holloway tied the game before a two-run homer by Zach Pittman, his third of the year, capped the inning. Pittman was 3-for-3 as the No. 9 hitter in the Terrier lineup.

A solo homer by Mack in the top of the third pulled the Aggies within 3-2.

North Carolina A&T scored four runs in the top of the fourth to take a 6-3 lead. Timothy Johnson's two-run single was followed by Mack's second homer of the game, a two-run shot over the wall in right.

Wofford closed within 6-5 in the bottom of the fifth on a two-run homer by David Long, his team-high eighth of the year. He also increased his RBI total to 32, nearly doubling the next closest Terrier (Pittman 17). Stephen Johnson followed with a double and Steven Fusaro singled him to third. Wofford had no outs but was unable to add any more runs.

Wofford had runners on second and third with one out in the bottom of the third but couldn't capitalize. The Terriers also stranded two runners in the fourth inning and a runner at third in the sixth.

Three Wofford errors in the top of the seventh led to five runs as the Aggies extended their advantage to 11-5.

Clint Summers (3-3) tossed three innings of scoreless relief to pick up the victory. He allowed two hits while striking out one and not walking a batter.

Fusaro had three hits for the Terriers while Long added two hits.

The Terriers continue their homestand Friday when they host East Tennessee State at 6 p.m. Wofford and ETSU will also meet in 1:30 p.m. single games Saturday and Sunday. The Terriers welcome the University of Tennessee to Russell C. King Field on April 13 at 7 p.m.

Beaton pitches Wofford past North Carolina A&T
April 6, 2004

Ryan Beaton allowed just one run on three hits in 5.2 innings in his first collegiate start to pitch Wofford to a 5-1 victory over North Carolina A&T in the nightcap of a doubleheader today at Russell C. King Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

The Aggies took an 11-5 win in the first game.

Zach Pittman was a combined 5-for-6 with two RBI in the doubleheader. He was 3-for-3 in the first game and 2-for-3 in the nightcap.

Beaton, making just his third appearance of the season, struck out the side in the second inning and did not allow a hit until Raul Santiago blooped a single into short rightfield with two outs in the fourth. Beaton struck out five and walked four.

A sophomore from Greenville, S.C. (Mauldin High School), Beaton threw more innings today (5.2) than he had all season combined (3.2) entering the game. In his previous outing, Wednesday at No. 13 Tennessee, he allowed just one earned run in 2.2 innings of relief.

Freshman Lance Player, who has not surrendered an earned run in his last five appearances, recorded the final four outs for his first collegiate save.

Long, who drove in two runs in the first game, collected his third RBI of the day with a run-scoring single as the Terriers took a 2-0 first-inning lead. Pittman began the inning with a single for his fourth hit in the doubleheader.

A Steve Casey fielder's choice in the third extended the Wofford margin to 3-0. The Terriers (10-15) added two runs in the fourth on a passed ball and a Tony Carbone sacrifice fly to build their lead to 5-0.

The Aggies (16-19) got on the board in the fifth on a run-scoring groundout by Austin Love.

The Terriers continue their homestand Friday when they host East Tennessee State at 6 p.m. Wofford and ETSU will also meet in 1:30 p.m. single games Saturday and Sunday. The Terriers welcome the University of Tennessee Russell C. King Field on April 13 at 7 p.m.

Notes from the Wofford baseball diamond
April 8, 2004

David Dufour (pictured to the left) is batting a team-high .531 (17-of-32) in SoCon games only. He has four home runs, five doubles and a triple for a 1.125 slugging percentage. He also has eight RBI and is 2-for-2 on stolen bases in the 12 games. With his 11 walks, Dufour has a .651 on-base percentage in league action.

Stephen Johnson made his season debut at third base in Tuesday's doubleheader versus North Carolina A&T. He did not have a fielding opportunity in the 14 innings of the twinbill.

First baseman David Long has five home runs and 19 RBI in 12 SoCon games. For the season, his team-high 33 RBI are nearly double that of the next closest Terrier (Zach Pittman, 17). Long tops Wofford in home runs (8) and doubles (9). He has four games with at least four RBI, including three with five or more RBI. Long is batting .429 (15-for-35) with runners in scoring position.

*The inaugural season of Russell C. King Field has Wofford drawing an average of 896 fans per home date.

*Wofford is 8-2 when allowing five runs or less. The Terriers are 6-3 when scoring at least six runs. Wofford is 4-1 in one-run games and averages 8.4 runs in its wins and 4.1 in defeat.

Zach Pittman

Pittman's three home runs and 17 RBI in 76 at bats this spring have already surpassed his totals of two homers and 11 RBI in 137 trips to the plate last season. Pittman (pictured to the left) has batted throughout the Terrier lineup this spring. His top average of .500 (7-of-14) comes when hitting in the No. 9 hole. He's also batting .385 (5-of-13) in the seventh spot. Pittman has six RBI out of a possible eight with a runner on third and less than two outs. He's batting .357 (10-of-28) with runners in scoring position.

*Wofford has already more than doubled its stolen base total from a year ago. The Terriers are 16-of-19 on thefts after going just 7-of-14 in 2003.

*Terrier pinch hitters are 8-of-26 (308) with Casey Dwyer leading the way at .600 (3-of-5). All of Dwyer's hits have come with runners in scoring position.

Steve Casey has the longest current hitting streak by a Terrier at six games. Earlier this season, he hit in nine straight contests. Tony Carbone had a team-best 11-game streak from March 1-20.

Lance Player

Freshman Lance Player (pictured to the left) has not allowed an earned run in his last five
Lance Player has not allowed an earned run in his last five appearances, covering 6 2/3 innings. Player earned his first collegiate save by recording the final four outs in Tuesday's 5-1 win over North Carolina A&T. He entered the game with two men on base and Wofford leading 5-1 with two outs in the top of the sixth.

*Catcher Scott Holloway has been hit by a pitch four times in the last four games and a team-best six times this season. He's been plunked 14 times in less than three years, a mark that already places second on Wofford's career list for hit-by-pitches in the Division I era (1996-present). Holloway is chasing the Terrier all-time mark of 23 (Aaron Price, 1996-00).

*When Tennessee comes to Russell C. King Field on Tuesday, it will represent the third nationally-ranked opponent to play at Wofford this season. The Terriers have already hosted Clemson and South Carolina. Wofford dropped a 4-2 decision to the No. 13 Volunteers on March 31 in Knoxville, Tenn.

A grand slam by Stephen Douglas, four of his five RBI on the night, broke open a tight game in the seventh inning as East Tennessee State defeated Wofford, 10-5, tonight at Russell C. King Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

A lost ball in the lights led to the two-out shot by Douglas after the Terriers had closed within 6-5.

Freshman Brandon Summey tossed four innings of scoreless relief for his first collegiate save. He allowed one hit while striking out two and not walking a batter.

The Buccaneers (15-19, 6-10) took a 4-0 lead in the top of the second. Shane Byrne drove in three runs with a bases-loaded double. Douglas then plated Byrne with a double down the rightfield line.

The Terriers (10-16, 3-10) got a run back in the bottom of the second. David Dufour led off with a double and eventually came home on a run-scoring groundout by Stephen Johnson.

Wofford closed within 4-2 in the third on back-to-back doubles by Tony Carbone and Steve Casey. The two-bagger by Casey came on a 3-0 pitch.

The Terriers tied the game at 4-4 in the bottom of the fourth on a two-run single by Carbone, his third hit of the game. He also had two RBI.

ETSU quickly retook a 5-4 lead in the top of the fifth when Andy Howdeshell led off the inning with his fifth homer of the year, a solo shot to center. A two-out, run-scoring single by Justin Clear later in the inning extended the Buccaneer advantage to 6-4.

Dufour doubled for the second time in the game with one out in the bottom of the fifth. He then scored on a two-out single by Johnson, his second RBI on the night. It brought the Terriers within 6-5.

Howdeshell and David Yates both had three hits for the Buccaneers.

ETSU starter Jeremy Hall (5-5) picked up the win, allowing five runs on eight hits while walking two and striking out one.

Wofford starter Jarrod Rampey (3-4) surrendered six runs on seven hits in 4 2/3 innings. He struck out two and walked six.

The Terriers and Buccaneers will also meet in 1:30 p.m. single games tomorrow and Sunday at Russell C. King Field. Wofford will host No. 12 Tennessee on Tuesday at 7 p.m.
Wofford's sixth error of the game brought home the winning run in the 12th inning as East Tennessee State defeated Wofford, 10-9, this afternoon at Russell C. King Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

Steve Casey's three-run homer with one out in the bottom of the ninth forced extra innings. Earlier in the game, his RBI double pulled him within one of the Terriers' career record for two-baggers.

Trailing 9-3, Wofford scored three runs in both the eighth and ninth innings.

Four Wofford errors in the opening three innings led to six unearned Buccaneer runs. The Terriers committed a season-high six errors in the game.

David Long had a pair of two-run homers for Wofford, giving him 10 roundtrippers on the year and the highest single-season total by a Terrier since Scott Yaniszewski hit 14 in 1999. Long now has a team-high 37 RBI.

A two-out throwing error in the top of the 12th inning scored Buccaneer pinch runner Troy Moock from second with the game-winning run.

Two fielding miscues in the top of the first led to ETSU's first run. The Buccaneers (16-19, 7-10) then had the bases loaded with no outs. However, Terrier starter Jesse Cole escaped further damage by recording a strikeout and double-play grounder.

The Terriers (10-17, 3-11) evened the game at 1-1 in the bottom of the first on an RBI double by Casey. It was his 38th career double, just one shy of Wofford's all-time mark of 39 (Strat Stavrou, 1999-02).

Two more Terrier errors in the third led to five unearned runs and a six-run ETSU inning. The big blow was a three-run homer by Spartanburg native Steven Calicutt. Matt Traylor and Shane Byrne had run-scoring doubles in the inning while Blake Church added an RBI single.

Long's two-run homer to center cut the Wofford deficit to 7-3 in the bottom of the third. He added another two-run shot in the bottom of the eighth to bring the Terriers within 9-5.

Following Long's second roundtrpper, Stephen Johnson gave Wofford back-to-back homers as his shot over the leftcenter wall cut the Terrier deficit to 9-6.

A Buccaneer error and a hit by pitch with one out in the bottom of the ninth preceded Casey's three-run blast that forced extra innings.

Josh Kite (1-2), who entered the game with an 8.22 ERA, earned the win by holding Wofford to one run on three hits in 3 2/3 innings. He struck out seven without walking a Wofford to one run on three hits in 3 2/3 innings. He struck out seven without walking a batter.

ETSU starter Tim Turner allowed five runs on six hits in seven innings. He struck out six and walked four.

Cole went three innings. He allowed just one earned run. Six runs against him were unearned.

Chad McGill allowed just two runs, both earned, on five hits in six innings of relief. He struck out one and walked one. McGill had only thrown six innings on the year entering the game.

Charles Vartanian (2-5) took the loss despite not allowing a hit or earned run in three innings. He struck out five and walked one.

The Terriers and Buccaneers close their series tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. Wofford will host No. 12 Tennessee on Tuesday at 7 p.m.
East Tennessee State sophomore and Spartanburg native Steven Calicutt returned to his hometown and pitched 7 2/3 innings to pick up the victory as the Buccaneers completed a three-game sweep of Wofford this afternoon with an 8-6 win at Russell C. King Field.

Calicutt (4-5) allowed six runs in the opening three innings before holding Wofford scoreless the next 4 2/3 innings. He allowed six runs on 10 hits while striking out nine and walking five.

Brandon Summey relieved Calicutt with two runners on and two out in the bottom of the eighth. After David Long reached on an infield single to load the bases, Summey escaped the jam as Stephen Johnson hit a deep fly that Buc centerfielder Matt Traylor caught against the wall in rightcenter.

Singles by pinch hitter David Dufour and Scott Holloway in the ninth put two runners on with two outs. Summey then struck out pinch hitter Casey Dwyer to end the game and earn his second save of the weekend and season.

Wofford outhit ETSU 13-11 but stranded 12 runners on base, including five in the last two innings.

Terrier freshman Austin Redwine replaced starter Ryan Beaton (1-1) in the third inning and retired the first 11 batters he faced. Redwine tossed 6 2/3 shutout innings, surrendering five hits. He fanned three while not walking a batter.

ETSU’s first five batters reached base as the Buccaneers took a 5-0 first-inning lead. Following a leadoff walk to Traylor, Shane Byrne doubled him home as ETSU (17-19, 8-10) scored first for the third straight game in the series.

Stephen Douglas followed with his sixth home run of the year to extend the Buccaneer margin to 3-0. A David Yates RBI groundout and a run-scoring double by Greg Roberts capped the inning.

Wofford (10-18, 3-12) answered with four runs in its half of the first inning. Designated hitter Jesse Cole drove in the first run with a single before Zach Pittman doubled off the leftcenter wall to score two runs. Anthony Dinardo plated Pittman with a double to pull the Terriers within 5-4.

A dropped pop up in the top of the second led to three unearned ETSU runs as the Buccaneers built their lead back to 8-4. Josiah Glafenhein drove in two runs with a two-out single before Andy Howdeshell scored from third on the back end of a double steal.

A Dinardo single, his second hit of the game, scored Cole from third in the bottom of the third to pull Wofford within 8-5. Scott Holloway's sacrifice bunt later in the inning brought home Pittman to cut the Terrier deficit to 8-6. That would be all the scoring for the remainder of the game.

Dinardo, Cole, Holloway and Carbone all had two hits for Wofford. Dinardo and Pittman had two RBI.

Blake Church had three hits to pace the Buccaneer attack.

Wofford will host No. 12 Tennessee on Tuesday at 7 p.m. ETSU is at Radford in a Wednesday 3 p.m. contest.
The Wofford baseball team hosts No. 6 Tennessee tonight at 7 at Russell C. King Field. Admission is free.

The Volunteers (29-5), coming off a three-game sweep at Georgia, have an eight-game winning streak. Tennessee's run of victories began with a 4-2 decision over Wofford on March 31 in Knoxville. The Vols tops the Southeastern Conference with a 9-3 league mark.

The Terriers are the SoCon's third-most improved team when comparing overall winning percentages from last year to this season. Wofford has a .173 improvement, trailing only No. 22 College of Charleston (.278) and East Tennessee State (.178).

Sophomore righthander Luke Hochevar (1-0, 0.00) will take the mound for the Volunteers. In his only appearance this season, he tossed seven innings of no-hit ball against Morehead State. He struck out 10 and walked one.

Knoxville native Chris Clark (1-2, 5.76 ERA) is the Wofford starter. He allowed just one earned run on two hits with one strikeout in a designated two-inning start against the Volunteers in the first meeting.

David Dufour tops Wofford in batting with a .333 average (4 HR, 8 RBI), including a .455 mark in SoCon play. David Long has team-high totals of 10 home runs and 37 RBI. The 10 roundtripppers are the most by a Terrier since Scott Yaniszewski slugged 14 in 1999. Steve Casey (.317, 7 HR, 22 RBI), carrying a nine-game hitting streak, has 38 career doubles. He's just one shy of equaling Wofford's all-time mark for two-baggers (39, Strat Stavrou, 1999-02).

Wofford returns to SoCon play Friday at 7 p.m. in the start of a three-game series at Furman (10-20, 4-8).
Tonight's Wofford home baseball game with No. 6 Tennessee has been rained out. A make-up date will be announced later.

Wofford returns to SoCon play Friday at 7 p.m. in the start of a three-game series at Furman. The Terriers and Paladins will also meet at 6 p.m. on Saturday and 1 p.m. Sunday in Greenville, S.C.

Nick Hewitt

*The Terriers are the SoCon's third-most improved team when comparing overall winning percentages from last year to this season. Wofford has a .173 improvement, trailing only No. 22 College of Charleston (.278) and East Tennessee State (.178). With 19 games still remaining in the regular season, Wofford has already surpassed its win total from a year ago.

*Wofford's 5.95 team ERA is its lowest since the 2001 staff had a 5.67 mark. It's also nearly three runs below last year's 8.85. The Terriers are seventh out of 11 SoCon clubs in team ERA this spring.

*Despite pitching in only three games this season, senior southpaw Nick Hewitt (pictured above) ranks sixth in the SoCon among active hurlers in career appearances with 49. He has not allowed a run in 1 2/3 innings this spring.

*David Dufour tops Wofford in batting with a .333 average (4 HR, 8 RBI). His .455 mark in SoCon games only places second in the league. Dufour has started a game at seven different spots in the batting order. He has a .638 (7-of-11) average when hitting sixth and is at .500 (9-of-18) in the five hole.

*First baseman David Long (.307) has team-high totals of 10 home runs and 37 RBI. The 10 roundtrippers are the most by a Terrier since Scott Yaniszewski slugged 14 in 1999 while playing his home games at Duncan Park. Yaniszewski also played first base. Long places third in the SoCon in slugging percentage (.667), fifth in home runs and sixth in RBI.

Tony Carbone

*Shortstop Tony Carbone (.330, 1 HR, 13 RBI) has committed just one error in 55 chances over the last 11 games. Carbone (pictured to the left) also has a team-best five stolen bases in five attempts, nearly equaling Wofford's total as a team last season when it was 7-of-14. The Terriers are 17-of-20 on thefts this spring.

*Lefthanded batters have a .111 (4-of-36) mark at the plate against Wofford freshman righthander Charles Vartanian (2-5, 5.40 ERA). The .228 overall opponent batting average against Vartanian is sixth-lowest in the SoCon. He was charged with the loss in Saturday's East Tennessee State game despite not allowing a hit or earned run in three innings.

*Rightfielder Steve Casey (.317, 7 HR, 22 RBI), carrying a nine-game hitting streak, has 38 career doubles. He's just one shy of equalling Wofford's all-time mark for two-baggers (39, Strat Stavrou, 1999-02).

*Wofford received a pair of standout long-relief efforts in this past weekend's series with ETSU. Senior righthander Chad McGill (0-0, 6.00 ERA) allowed two runs on five hits in six innings of relief in Saturday's contest. The six innings for McGill equaled his combined season total for the year entering the Freshman Austin Redwine (0-2, 5.14 ERA) then tossed 6 2/3 innings of shutout relief the next day.

Jesse Cole (pictured to the left) is batting .438 (7-of-16) as a designated hitter against lefthanded pitching this spring. In his last three starts on the mound, he’s allowed just five earned runs in 16 1/3 innings for a 2.76 ERA. Cole (3-3, 5.26 ERA) has started eight games as a pitcher. Only a sophomore, his 23 career starts already place seventh on Wofford's all-time chart for its Division I era (1996-present). All 23 of Cole's collegiate pitching appearances have come in a starting role.

Centerfielder Zach Pittman (.322, 3 HR, 19 RBI) tops Wofford in multiple-hit games (10) while tying Long for the team-lead in multiple-RBI contests (7).

Carbone, Casey, Long, catcher Scott Holloway (.268, 0 HR, 15 RBI) and second baseman Anthony Dinardo (.245, 0 HR, 12 RBI) have started all 28 games this season. Holloway has been behind the plate for all but one inning this season and all but six innings the last two campaigns.

Wofford baseball blasts Furman
April 16, 2004

David Dufour (pictured to the left) homered twice and drove in five runs while Jarrod Rampey allowed just one run in eight innings to lead Wofford to a 10-1 victory over Furman tonight in Greenville, S.C.

It was the Terriers' largest margin of victory over the Paladins (11-21, 4-9) since a 7-3 decision in 1994 when Wofford competed in Division II.

The Terriers (11-18, 4-12) took a 2-0 lead in the top of the second on a two-run homer by Dufour. He later added a three-run shot to key a five-run fifth which gave Wofford a 9-1 lead.

All six of Dufour's home runs this season have come in the last 16 games. Previously, the senior from Morrow, Ohio, had gone deep just once in his collegiate career.

Scott Holloway's first homer of the year, a two-run blast in the fourth, gave the Terriers a 4-0 lead.

Rampey (pictured to the left) scattered nine hits in his eight innings while walking five and striking out two. He improved his record to 4-4. Chris Clark tossed a scoreless ninth inning.

Tony Carbone added two hits for Wofford. David Long drove in two runs with a single and sacrifice fly.

Wofford and Furman meet again at 6 p.m. tomorrow in Greenville. The series finale is Sunday at 1 p.m.

David Dufour continued to swing a hot bat with four hits and four RBI to lead Wofford to a 9-5 win over Furman tonight in Greenville, S.C.

After homering twice and driving in five runs last night, Dufour is now 6-for-9 with nine RBI in the opening two games of the series. In SoCon games only this season, Dufour is batting a league-high .491 (26-of-53) with six home runs and 17 RBI in 17 contests.

Wofford (12-18, 5-12) has clinched its first series win over Furman (11-22, 4-10) since beginning SoCon play in 1998. The Terriers will go for the sweep at 1 p.m. tomorrow.

Prior to last night's 10-1 win, Wofford had never scored more than seven runs in 19 SoCon contests against Furman. The Terriers now have 19 runs on 24 hits in the opening two games of the series.

Jesse Cole (4-3) allowed two earned runs in six innings to earn the victory. He struck out three and walked one. In his last four starts, Cole has surrendered just seven earned runs for a 2.83 ERA.

Freshman Charles Vartanian held Furman to one run over the final three innings for his third save of the year.

Three consecutive two-out singles by Wofford, the final one from Dufour, gave the Terriers a 1-0 lead in the top of the first.

After the Paladins tied the game in their half of the first, Steve Casey delivered a two-out, two-run single to give Wofford a 3-1 second-inning lead.

Furman regained a 4-3 margin with three runs in the second. Wofford tied the game on a Tony Carbone RBI single in the fourth inning.

The Terriers took the lead for good with another two-out rally in the top of the sixth. Following a walk to Casey, David Long singled to left to put runners on first and second. Stephen Johnson platted Casey with a single to give Wofford its go-ahead run. Dufour brought Long home with a base hit to right to extend the Terrier margin to 6-4.

Dufour added a two-run single to highlight a three-run eighth for the Terriers.

Johnson had three hits for Wofford while Casey and Long contributed two hits in a 14-hit Terrier attack.
Wofford's hopes for a three-game sweep at Furman fell short this afternoon when the Paladins salvaged the final game of the series with a 14-5 victory in Greenville, S.C.

Furman scored three runs in both the first and third innings to take an early 6-0 lead.

The Terriers (12-19, 5-13) mounted a comeback with three runs in the fourth, keyed by a Tony Carbone two-run single.

Zach Pittman, who had three hits, delivered an RBI single in the fifth to cut the Wofford deficit to 6-4.

Steve Casey, Stephen Johnson and Anthony Dinardo all had two hits as the Terriers totaled 12 hits on the day and 36 in the three-game series.

Casey extended his hitting streak to a Wofford season-high 12 games, during which he's batting .356.

After scoring single runs in the sixth and seventh innings to build their margin back to 8-4, the Paladins (12-22, 5-10) broke the game open with a six-run eighth.

Freshman Austin Redwine (0-3), the first of five Wofford pitchers, took the loss.

Wofford returns to action Tuesday when it hosts North Carolina A&T at 3 p.m. The Terriers then continue their homestand next weekend when Georgia Southern comes to Russell C. King Field for a three-game SoCon series.

Steve Casey drove in three runs while Stephen Johnson added a three-run homer to lead Wofford to an 8-5 victory over North Carolina A&T this afternoon at Russell C. King Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

Casey broke a 5-5 tie in the bottom of the eighth with an RBI single, his second hit of the game. Johnson's homer, his fourth of the season, capped a four-run third inning.

Freshman Charles Vartanian picked up the win with 1 1/3 innings of scoreless relief. He retired all four batters he faced, including two on strikeouts. Fellow rookie Lance Player tossed three innings of shutout ball, allowing just two hits while fanning three and walking two.

It was the fifth and final meeting of the season between Wofford (13-19) and North Carolina A&T (19-24) with the Terriers holding a 4-1 advantage.

The Aggies took a 2-0 lead in the top of the first on a Charlie Gamble RBI single and a run-scoring groundout by Joshua McKnight.

With a hit batter and two walks to lead off the third inning, Wofford loaded the bases without a hit. A Casey sacrifice fly brought home the Terriers' first run. One out later, Johnson connected on his three-run shot to left to give Wofford a 4-2 lead. It was the Terriers' first hit of the game.

The Aggies took a 5-4 lead with three runs in the fifth. Austin Love had an RBI groundout before Jeremy Jones' double to center evened the game. A Marcus Mack pinch-hit single to right plated Jones with the go-ahead run.

Casey's eighth home run of the year, leading off the bottom of the fifth, quickly tied the game at 5-5.

Wofford broke the contest open with a three-run eighth. Following Casey's go-ahead single, David Long provided a sacrifice fly to extend the Terrier lead to 7-5.

David Dufour and Bert Parker added two hits in the 10-hit Terrier attack.

Joseph Peascoe (1-2) took the loss in relief for the Aggies. Jones and Chris Williams both had two hits for North Carolina A&T.

The Terriers, having won three of their last four games, return to SoCon play this weekend when they host Georgia Southern in a three-game series beginning Friday at 6 p.m.
Wofford designated hitter David Dufour has been named the TIAA-CREF SoCon Student-Athlete of the Week.

A senior from Morrow, Ohio, Dufour batted .538 (7-of-13) with two home runs and nine RBI as the Terriers won two of three games at Furman last weekend.

Dufour homered twice and had five RBI in Friday's 10-1 victory. He was 4-for-5 with four RBI in a 9-5 win on Saturday.

In SoCon games only this season, Dufour is batting a league-high .474 (27-for-57) with six home runs and 17 RBI in 18 games. For league contests only, he also tops the SoCon in slugging percentage (.965) and total bases (55) while ranking second in on-base percentage (.559) and doubles per game (.44). He is third in home runs per game (.33).

Dufour totaled a 1.077 slugging percentage and .538 on-base percentage in the Furman series. He had nine RBI against the Paladins after totaling just eight RBI for the season entering the weekend.

Wofford took its first series win over Furman since beginning SoCon play in 1998. Prior to Friday's 10-1 victory, Wofford had never scored more than seven runs in 19 SoCon contests against Furman. The Terriers came back with nine runs the next night for the 9-5 win.

The 10-1 win was the Terriers' largest margin of victory over the Paladins since a 7-3 decision in 1994 when Wofford competed in Division II.

All six of Dufour's home runs this season have come in the last 19 games. Previously, he had gone deep just once in his collegiate career.

Dufour has a 3.6 grade-point average while majoring in business economics.
Tony Carbone's two-out single to left scored pinch runner Eric Sturkie from second base with the winning run to cap a three-run ninth inning that gave Wofford a 7-6 victory over Georgia Southern tonight at Russell C. King Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

Trailing 6-4, the Terriers began their rally when David Dufour, who hit a two-run homer earlier in the game, drew a leadoff walk. One out later, Scott Holloway doubled him to third. Brian Harrison (6-3) then entered the game in relief of Dustin Evans. After inducing Anthony Dinardo to hit a comebacker to the mound, holding the runners at second and third, Harrison got pinch hitter Jesse Cole to ground to third. However, Eagle third baseman Travis Adkinson threw the ball over first baseman Greg Dowling's head which allowed Dufour and Holloway to come home with the tying runs.

The Eagles (23-18, 14-5) saw their season-high seven-game winning streak snapped.

Steve Casey had a first-inning single for the Terriers (14-19, 6-13) to extend his season-best hitting streak to 14 games.

Wofford freshman Charles Vartanian (4-5) pitched the final two innings to record his second win in relief in the last three days.

Georgia Southern took a 1-0 lead in the top of the first. After being hit by a pitch for the 10th time this season, Brandon Burnsed came around to score on a sacrifice fly by Grant Burruss.

The Eagles extended their margin to 3-0 in the third. A groundout by Burruss, his second RBI of the game and 44th of the season, plated James Payne to give Georgia Southern a 2-0 lead. Burnsed then scored from third as Dowling was caught in a rundown between first and second on a delayed steal.

Wofford got a run back in the bottom of the third. Dinardo singled and advanced to second on an error by Payne in center. Bert Parker then laced a double to rightcenter to score Dinardo. A further scoring opportunity by Wofford in the inning was negated when the Terriers hit into their second double play of the game.

A sacrifice fly by Brandon Ponder in the fourth gave the Eagles a 4-1 advantage. Brandon Long's run-scoring single in the fifth made it a 5-1 game. Georgia Southern scored at least one run in four of the opening five innings.

The Terriers closed within 5-4 with a three-run sixth inning. A two-out single by Stephen Johnson scored Carbone from second for the first run. Carbone got in scoring position with his team-high seventh stolen base in seven attempts this season. Last year, Wofford had just seven thefts as a team. Dufour followed with a towering two-run homer to right, his seventh of the year. All seven of Dufour's roundtrippers have come in the Terriers' 19 SoCon games.
Wofford put a runner at second with one out in the bottom of the seventh before Georgia Southern starter Carroll escaped the jam by recording a fly out to left and an inning-ending strikeout on his final batter of the night. He allowed four runs on seven hits while striking out five and walking two.

Burruss led off the eighth with a double. After advancing to third on a wild pitch, he scored on a single to right by Dowling to build the Georgia Southern lead back to 6-4.

Wofford and Georgia Southern continue the series with 1:30 p.m. games tomorrow and Sunday at Russell C. King Field.
Georgia Southern starter Everett Teaford allowed two runs in eight innings while Greg Dowling had three hits, including a grand slam, and five RBI as the Eagles defeated Wofford, 10-2, this afternoon at Russell C. King Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

After seeing their seven-game winning streak snapped last night by a 7-6 Wofford come-from-behind win, the Eagles improve to 24-18, 15-5. The Terriers (14-20, 6-14) lost for just the second time in their last six contests. The rubber game of the series is tomorrow at 1:30 p.m.

Teaford (6-3) scattered 10 hits while striking out nine and walking two.

For the second straight game in the series, Georgia Southern scored in the first inning. Back-to-back two-out RBI doubles by Grant Burruss and Dowling gave the Eagles an early 2-0 lead. It was the 10th double of the season for both Burruss and Dowling. Burruss later added his 12th homer of the campaign with a solo shot leading off the eighth inning.

A sacrifice fly by Travis Atkinson in the second inning extended the Eagles' advantage to 3-0. It scored Flint Wipke who had a leadoff double before advancing to third on a wild pitch.

Wofford threatened in the bottom of the second with runners on first and third and no outs. However, a double play on a bunt that was popped in the air and a groundout to third allowed Teaford to get out of the inning. Teaford escaped another jam in the bottom of the third when the Terriers left the bases loaded.

Brandon Long's sacrifice fly in the fifth made it a 4-0 game before Dowling's grand slam capped the five-run inning to give the Eagles an 8-0 lead.

The Terriers got on the board in the bottom of the fifth on a solo home run by David Long, his 11th of the year and eighth in SoCon play.

Long, Stephen Johnson and Scott Holloway had two hits to lead Wofford at the plate. Holloway had a run-scoring single in the bottom of the eighth. Steve Casey had a seventh-inning single to extend his hitting streak to 15 games, three shy of a career-high set last year.

Holloway came out of the game after batting in the bottom of the eighth. Freshman John Brandt took over behind the plate in the top of the ninth. It was only the second inning this season that Holloway has not caught.

Wofford outhit Georgia Southern 11-10 but the Terriers left 10 runners on base. The Eagles stranded three.

Terrier starter Jesse Cole (4-4) went five innings and took the loss. Freshman Austin Redwine allowed just one run in three innings of relief for Wofford.
The Wofford baseball team scored twice in the bottom of the 11th for a 7-6 victory over Georgia Southern this afternoon at Russell C. King Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

It was the Terriers' second win in their final at bat in the series. In both contests, an Eagle error with two outs in the final inning was costly. Wofford improves to 15-20, 7-14. Georgia Southern drops to 24-19, 15-6. It's the Terriers' first series win over the Eagles since 1998, Wofford's first year of SoCon play. The Terriers have also won five of their last seven games overall.

Wofford freshman Charles Vartanian (5-5) was the winning pitcher for the second time in the series and third time this week. He did not allow an earned run in five innings of relief. He surrendered four hits while striking out five and walking two.

After Georgia Southern scored an unearned run in the top of the 11th to take a 6-5 lead, Stephen Johnson opened the bottom of the inning with a single. Pinch runner Casey Dwyer was sacrificed to second by David Dufour. A Zach Pittman groundout moved Dwyer to third. Scott Holloway was then hit by a pitch. Holloway later advanced to second without a throw made by Georgia Southern. Anthony Dinardo then hit a routine grounder to Eagle second baseman Brandon Burnsed who had the ball kick off him into the outfield, allowing Dwyer and Holloway to score the tying and winning runs, respectively.

Eagle relief pitcher Brian Harrison (6-4) lost for the second time in the series without yielding an earned run. A two-out error Friday night set up a three-run Wofford ninth inning in a 7-6 Terrier victory. Harrison tossed 3 2/3 innings today, surrendering five hits. He struck out one and walked one.

Tony Carbone led Wofford with four hits as he totaled eight hits in the series. Steve Casey added two hits, including an RBI double in the first inning. It gave him 39 career doubles, tying him with Strat Stavrou (1999-02) for the Terriers' all-time lead.

After falling behind 0-2 in the count, Logan Phillips drew a leadoff walk in the 11th. Brandon Ponder's infield single put runners on first and second with no outs. One out later, Burnsed hit a grounder to third. Bert Parker's throw to second went wide of the bag and into the outfield, allowing Phillips to score from second.

The Terriers attempted to win the game in the bottom of the ninth. After singling to right to open the inning, Pittman was sacrificed to second by Holloway. Dinardo then singled to center but Pittman was out at the plate on a perfect throw by Eagle centerfielder James Payne. Earlier in the game, Payne threw out a runner at third that would cost Wofford a run.

Georgia Southern had a runner on third with two outs in the top of the 10th before Vartanian escaped the jam.

The Terriers took a 3-0 lead in the bottom of the first as the first four batters reached base with hits. Georgia Southern starter Josh Lairsey, who went just one inning, entered the game with a .189 opponent batting average.

Carbone led off with a single and stole second. Carbone had two steals in the game and is now 9-of-9 this season. The Terriers stole four bases and are 26-of-30 on the year after going just 7-of-14 in 2003. Casey doubled Carbone home for Wofford's first run. After David Long singled, Johnson plated Casey with a single to left and a 2-0 lead. Holloway's base hit off Georgia Southern third baseman Travis Adkinson's glove scored Long to extend the Terrier margin to 3-0.

Wofford missed an opportunity for a fourth run in the first inning. As Dinardo singled to center, Payne threw to third to nail Holloway before Johnson could cross the plate.

A three-run double by Flint Wipke capped a five-run third inning which gave the Eagles a 5-3 lead. A sacrifice fly by Grant Burruss brought home Georgia Southern's first run before a run-scoring double by Dowling closed the Eagle deficit to 3-2. After a Jason Hurst walk loaded the bases, Wipke delivered his shot to the gap in leftcenter.

The Terriers got a run back in the bottom of the third as Long led off the inning with his 12th homer of the year and ninth in SoCon play. Long's 12 homers are the most by a Terrier since Scott Yaniszewski slugged 14 in 1999.

Wofford tied the game at 5-5 in the bottom of the fourth. An error by Ponder at short led to an unearned run as Holloway scored from third on a bunt single by Carbone. Carbone had two bunt hits in the game.

Wofford's Chad McGill, making his first start of the year, pitched into the seventh inning. He allowed five runs on seven hits while walking four and fanning one. All five runs came in the third inning.

Mike Thompson relieved Lairsey to start the Wofford second and surrendered one earned run on four hits in four innings. He struck out three and did not walk a batter.

Dustin Evans took the mound for the Eagles in the sixth. The Terriers had first and second with no out, and later first and third with one out, before Evans got out of the inning to keep the game tied at 5-5.

Georgia Southern threatened in the seventh. With runners on second and third and one out, Burruss grounded to Long at first who fired to Holloway at the plate to nail Payne attempting to score from third. Burruss was later caught in a rundown between first and second and tagged out by Carbone just before Long crossed the plate from third.

The Eagles had a runner on third with one out in the eighth, before Vartanian struck out Wipke and retired pinch hitter Mike Economos on a nice backhanded play at second by Wofford starter Chris Clark allowed just two earned runs in 5 1/3 innings to keep the Terriers close before No. 7 South Carolina went on to post a 3-0 victory tonight in Columbia, S.C.

Clark (1-3), making his second start against South Carolina this season, surrendered five hits while striking out three and walking two.

The game, played before a crowd of 2,815, took just 1:53 to play.

Wofford freshman Austin Redwine added 2 2/3 scoreless innings of relief as the Gamecocks were held to seven hits. USC (30-11) entered the game with a .322 team batting average.

The Gamecocks (30-11) scored an unearned run in the bottom of the first to take a 1-0 lead on a two-out RBI single by Brendan Winn. Winn later added a solo home run in the sixth inning to provide the Gamecocks a 3-0 lead.

USC’s other run came on a solo home run by Hank Parks leading off the fifth inning.

Terrier rightfielder Steve Casey saw his 16-game hitting streak come to an end.

Gamecock starter Zac McCamie (3-0) was starting for the second time against Wofford. He allowed just three hits in eight innings. McCamie struck out four and walked two. Harris Honeycutt pitched a scoreless ninth for his first save.

Anthony Dinardo had two hits for the second straight game to lead Wofford (15-21).

Trailing 3-0, the Terriers threatened in the top of the eighth. With one out, Scott Holloway and Dinardo singled to put runners on first and second. However, McCamie escaped the jam by getting Eric Sturkie on a pop foul to first and Tony Carbone on a pop foul to third.

Wofford returns to SoCon action this weekend when it travels to UNC Greensboro. The Terriers and Spartans will meet in a 1 p.m. Saturday doubleheader and a 1 p.m. single game Sunday.

Terrier baseball diamond notes
April 29, 2004

Charles Vartanian

*With three victories in the final 10 regular-season games, Wofford (15-21) will post its second-highest win total since beginning Division I play in 1996. The Terriers' top Division I victory mark is 26 in 2002. Wofford is also on pace to play just 46 regular-season games, its lowest total since 1997.

*The Terriers are 5-3 in their last eight games.

*Charles Vartanian posted a 3-0 record with a 1.08 ERA last week. He was the winning pitcher in all three Terrier victories. His five wins on the year are the most by a Wofford freshman since Chad McLain had six victories in 1988. McLain is the Terriers' all-time winningest hurler (31, 1988-91).

*Wofford shortstop Tony Carbone has shown a fondness for hitting at Russell C. King Field. His .398 average in home games tops the Terriers. Centerfielder Zach Pittman is second with a .342 mark.

*Designated hitter David Dufour (.452, 6 HR, 16 RBI) is the Terriers' top hitter in road games with leftfielder Stephen Johnson second in away stadiums at .324.

*Wofford's team ERA is 4.81 on the road and 6.30 at home. Starting pitchers Jesse Cole and Jarrod Rampy have 2.74 and 3.68 ERAs, respectively, in away games.

*The Terriers bat .299 with 26 home runs in 23 home games and .260 with 10 roundtrippers in 13 road dates.

*The Terriers are 6-2 in one-run games.

David Dufour

*Dufour has a team-best .462 average with four home runs and 13 RBI in the Terriers' 15 wins. He's also batting a club-high .393 in day games.

*Wofford has three losses by a total of six runs to nationally-ranked opponents in No. 7 South Carolina, No. 15 Tennessee and No. 27 College of Charleston.

*The Terriers are 12-7 with Johnson in the lineup in leftfield. He missed 13 games earlier this season with a sprained ankle. Johnson is batting a team-best .417 with runners in scoring position.

*Carbone, first baseman David Long, rightfielder Steve Casey, catcher Scott Holloway and second baseman Anthony Dinardo have started all 36 games.

*When Holloway was replaced by freshman John Brandt behind the plate for the ninth inning in last Saturday's game versus Georgia Southern, it represented just the second inning this season that Holloway has not caught.

The Terriers open a three-game SoCon series at UNC Greensboro with a 1 p.m. Saturday doubleheader. Wofford and the Spartans will also meet Sunday at 1 p.m. The final home dates of the year are May 7-9 versus Elon.
*For only the second time since beginning SoCon play in 1998, the Terriers have won back-to-back league series. Wofford took 2-of-3 games the last two weekends from both Furman and Georgia Southern.

*Casey's 39 doubles tie him with Strat Stavrou (1999-02) for the Wofford career record in two-baggers.

*In six relief appearances covering 20 innings this season, freshman righthander Austin Redwine has a 1.35 ERA. He tossed 2 2/3 scoreless innings last night at No. 7 South Carolina.

*Wofford's team ERA of 5.78 is over three runs below last year's mark of 8.85.

*Long's 12 home runs are the most by a Terrier since Scott Yaniszewski slugged 14 in 1999.

*The lefthanded hitting Casey has a .390 average versus southpaw pitching.

*In SoCon games only, Dufour tops the league in slugging percentage (.938), on-base percentage (.545) and total bases (61, 2.9 per game). He's third in batting average (.462).

David Long

*Long's nine home runs in SoCon play rank first in the league.

*Eighth in the SoCon overall in fielding (.956), Wofford places third in league games only (.963).

*Carbone has just one error in 61 chances in the field over the last 11 games.

*Nick Hewitt's appearance in last Saturday's Georgia Southern contest was his 50th career game, placing sixth among active SoCon pitchers.

*With 183 and 182, respectively, Carbone and Casey rank fourth and fifth on Wofford's Division I career list for hits.

*Carbone is 9-of-9 on stolen bases. As a team last year, Wofford was just 7-of-14 on thefts. The Terriers are 26-of-30 on steals this spring.

*Terrier coach Steve Traylor has 707 career victories. The next closest SoCon skipper is The Citadel's Fred Jordan with 452.

*Vartanian has held opposing batters to a .185 average with a 2.25 ERA in a team-best 12 appearances at Russell C. King Field.

*Twelve of Lance Player's 14 outings this season have come at home.

Tony Carbone

*Wofford won the season series from Furman for the first time since beginning SoCon play in 1998. It was also the Terriers' first series victory over Georgia Southern since 1998. Wofford is 3-3 in its last six games with the Eagles.

*The Terriers will face a UNC Greensboro team this weekend that tops the SoCon in ERA at 3.93. The Spartans are the only league team below 4.00. UNCG is also second in fielding (.964).

*With five wins and three saves, Vartanian is responsible for more than half of Wofford's victories this spring.

*Vartanian has held opponents to a .148 batting average with two outs and a .188 mark with runners in scoring position.

*Dufour tops Wofford in reaching base as a leadoff batter in an inning (11-of-18, 61.1 percent).
