Hub-Bub Film Series presents Jesus Camp
Date/Time: 2/1/2007 at 7:00:00 PM and 2/3/2007 at 7:00:00 PM
Location: Hub-Bub Showroom - 149 S. Daniel Morgan Ave. - Spartanburg
Cost: $4 for film society members, $5 students, $6 general admission
Details: The film focuses on an evangelical Christian camp of rare devotion. 12-year old Levi, who was "saved" when he was five, is a shy boy except when he is filled with the Holy Spirit. Nine-year-old
Rachael is outspoken in her love for the Lord. They are home-schooled by their Christian parents and interact with their peers at church and church events. In the summer they travel to Becky Fischer's "Kids on Fire" summer camp in Devil's Lake, North Dakota, to intensify their devotion to the Lord. http://www.jesuscampthemovie.com/. This film is currently nominated for a 2007 Academy Award for Best Documentary Feature.

Hub-Bub presents Col. Gene Wyatt and Friends
Date/Time: 2/2/2007 at 8:30 PM
Location: Hub-Bub Showroom - 149 S. Daniel Morgan Ave. - Spartanburg
Cost: $5 general admission
Details: About 50 years ago, "Colonel Gene" left a professional baseball career to teach guitar at the university level. The Colonel has been a studio musician described by some as the finest guitarist of his generation. He has shared the spotlight with Hank Garland, Patsy Cline, Chet Atkins and Roy Clark, among others. In 1999, the state of South Carolina awarded him with the Jean Laney Harris Folk Heritage Award. The Colonel's current band includes his son, Wes Wyatt, Bob Hinch and Carroll Foster. Carroll has organized this night at the Showroom to pay homage to Col. Wyatt. Carroll says that he wanted to have this night to "pay tribute to the Colonel and showcase the talented musicians that have studied under him". The Colonel and his band will be joined by some of his current and former students for a night of bluegrass, jazz and country. Brandon Turner, The Dowden Sisters Band and Collin Smith will be a part of the event playing with the Colonel and his band in addition to solo performances.

Music in Spain

Details: Here is an opportunity for intermediate-to-advanced college students to study abroad at the International Course in Spanish Music, which will be held outside of Madrid from June 24 through July 8. This course is sponsored by the University of South Carolina School of Music and the USC Study Abroad Office. This intensive course is in its second season and is held in the beautiful Sierra Guadarrama region north of Madrid at the Abbey of the Holy Cross (the seminar center). A select group of guitarists, pianists and vocalists will receive expert instruction and coaching in Spanish and Latin American solo and vocal repertoire. (Song accompaniments will be sent to students shortly after their acceptance; solo literature can be their choice.) This is an excellent opportunity for guitar students to study and perform literature for voice and guitar, as well as for solo guitar, under the guidance of an internationally acclaimed artist-faculty. Guitarist Avelina Vidal Seara and Christopher Berg will be working with the guitar students. There will also be excursions to Segovia, Toledo, Salamanca and a three-day stay in Madrid. For more details and application information, please go to: http://www.music.sc.edu/fs/tintes/index.html.

To: All Wofford College Students, Faculty and Staff
From: Roberta Bigger, Dean of Students
Date: Monday, February 12, 2007
Subject: Parking

1. Faculty and staff members have asked for advance notice on special events which will affect availability of parking. Therefore, everyone is reminded that next Tuesday, February 20, 2007 the college will hold the celebration of Main Building. We are expecting more than 300 visitors to be on campus Monday evening and Tuesday morning. The Admissions parking lot will be closed to faculty and staff starting at 3:00 pm on Monday, February 19th.

2. Now that the spring semester has begun, faculty, staff and students are reminded to park in properly designated spaces. Students are reminded that they cannot park in the Development Office/Papadopoulos Building lot from 8:00 am – 5:00 pm.

3. Faculty and students are reminded not to park in the spaces for library visitors. There are four spaces (two for disabled persons) on the east side of the library beside the Carlisle Wallace House. These spaces are for library visitors only during the library operation hours.

We are blessed to live and work on a beautiful campus. One reason that it is attractive is that the parking lots are on the periphery of the campus. We recognize for those who commute daily that parking a block or two from your building may be an inconvenience. If you find yourself parking at a distance, please do not hesitate to contact Campus Safety for an escort morning, noon or night at extension 4911.

Volunteer Opportunity
Details: Come volunteer at Lone Oak Elementary with Micah 6. It meets Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. We serve snacks to students, help them with their homework and then go play outside with them. It is a really fun way to settle down after classes, and the children really enjoy the program. If anyone is interested, send me or Caitlin Bibb an email. You don't have to make a commitment; you can come out once or twice if you just want to try it out.

South Carolina Campus Safety Conference
Details: The SC Commission for Higher Education and USC Upstate will host the South Carolina Campus Safety Conference at the Spartanburg Marriott Renaissance Park. The conference will be held this coming Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, February 25 – 27. The conference will feature nationally prominent author and consultant Dr. Allen Berkowitz, who is an expert on reducing violence. Berkowitz is an independent consultant who helps colleges, universities, public health agencies and communities design programs that address health and social justice issues. His expert opinion is frequently sought after by the federal government and professional organizations, and he is well-known for scholarship and innovative programs which address issues of substance abuse, sexual assault, gender, and diversity. He is the editor and founder of The Report on Social Norms. Participants will share lessons learned from prior incidents regarding campus safety, build a network of collaboration among the many different disciplines involved in preventing and responding to campus violence, and share best practices for ensuring a safe learning environment. If any faculty members or students are interested in attending the conference, the Dean of Students will fund your conference registration fees. Contact her at biggerrh@wofford.edu.

Peanut Butter Recall
Details: For students who may not have seen the news, the Dean of Students suggests you check any jars of peanut butter you have in your rooms or apartments. Federal health officials linked ConAgra peanut butter -- Peter Pan brand and certain batches of Wal-Mart's Great Value house brand -- to a salmonella outbreak that has sickened almost 300 people nationwide since August. No deaths have been reported. Shoppers are being asked to toss out jars having a product code on the lid beginning with “2111,” which denotes the plant. ConAgra said they can return their lids or full jars of
