REPORTS.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Each passing year emphasizes more and more to every thoughtful mind the need of Christian Education, and consequently, the need of institutions, which, in the language of the President of Woslord College in his report, "hold steadily to the highest ideals of work, culture and character,—wholly free from the whims of political influence and outside dictation,—based upon definite Christian principles, and striving unceasingly to keep before men the Christ view of manhood and

After a careful survey of the conditions in our institutions, we are of society." glad to report that they are in a season of unprecedented prosperity.

WOFFORD COLLEGE.

The financial report from the Trustees of the College shows that the salaries of the faculty and all current expenses have been paid in full.

The President's report is the most encouraging that has ever come to this Board. The old chapel has been transformed into one of the handsomest and best adapted auditoriums in the State. The entire college building has been fitted with steam heat and electric lights, and much is thus added to the comfort of the students. One thousand dollars has been subscribed by the friends and alumni of the college in Spartanburg for enclosing and putting in proper condition the athletic grounds. The Library has been greatly enriched by the bequest of the late Dr. J. Thomas Pate, a former student of the college and an honored member of the South Carolina Conference, of his own well-

The magnificent gift of a Science Hall by Major John B. Cleveland, selected library of valuable books. an alumnus of the class of 1868, is the most generous and timely contribution that has been made since the original gift by Mr. Wofford

The enrollment to date for the present year, not including the Normal Department, is 271, of which 188 are in the College and 83 in the Fitting School—a gratifying increase over last year in both departments. The present Senior class of 38 is the largest in the history of the college.

COLUMBIA FEMALE COLLEGE.

The report as presented by the Trustees of this institution, shows an enrollment of 124, and that the boarding department, with 93 boarders, is crowded to its utmost capacity. It is therefore imperative that something be done at this critical moment for the enlargement of the building.

After consultation with the Trustees we recommend that immediate steps be taken to raise the sum of $50,000 for the proper enlargement and equipment of the college in whatever way may seem most practicable to the Trustees, and that we pledge our co-operation as a Conference in this important enterprise.

WILLIAMSTON FEMALE COLLEGE.

This college, with an enrollment of 103, continues to maintain the high order of its work. The moral tone of the pupils is reported by the President to be "unusually fine."

FITTING SCHOOLS.

The reports from our Fitting Schools indicate that they are in a prosperous condition and doing good work. We urge that the Presiding Elders and Pastors in the territory of these schools co-operate with the teachers in securing attendance and increasing the usefulness of the schools.

In accordance with the proposition of the General Board of Education, we recommend that at least one month of the coming year, at the discretion of the Presiding Elders, be devoted to the cause of Christian Education.

We ask that an assessment of $5,500 be made for the current expenses of Wofford College; $450 for General Education, and $700 for Paine and Lane Institutes.

The special committee appointed to visit the colleges and report to the General Board of Education has discharged its duty as directed.

The report of the Auditing Committee appointed to investigate the books of the Treasurer of the Twentieth Century Fund has been received and is appended as follows:

To the Board of Education:—

Your committee, appointed to audit the books and accounts of Rev. James W. Kilgo, Treasurer of "Twentieth Century Fund," respect-

That it met in the City of Sumter, S. C., on Wednesday, November 19th, 1902, and the books and vouchers of the Treasurer were submit-to the beneficiaries of the donations or by check or note for a designated object. These were not carried through his books by the Treasurer, but were forwarded to their destinations.

A large portion of the contributions to this fund were made directly ted to it for inspection.

He has charged himself with all contributions made to this fund, which came into his hands or under his control.

In examining his statement of receipts and disbursements your committee find the expense account much less than was to have been expected, namely, one thousand and fifty-eight dollars and six cents, and that the Treasurer has been careful to expend no larger amount in this direction than was absolutely necessary. It appears that the gross amount of cash received to date aggregates seventeen thousand five hundred and fifty-two 58-100 dollars, of which the sum of ninetyfive hundred dollars has been loaned the Trustees of Wofford College, and the sum of six thousand one hundred and fifty-two 28-100 dollars, less expenses, has been distributed among the beneficiaries, and the Treasurer has remaining on hand in bank the sum of nineteen hundred dollars and thirty cents.

Your committee did not realize the large amount of time and labor required of the Treasurer until it inspected his books and vouchers, and takes this occasion to state that such inspection shows that he has been faithfully and efficiently performing the onerous duties and discharging the trust imposed upon him by this Board, and your committee hereby expresses its appreciation of the services he has thus rendered.

Respectfully submitted,

R. T. CASTON. H. B. BROWNE.

EPWORTH ORPHANAGE.

DECEMBER 2d, 1902.

The Annual Report of the Board of Managers and Trustees of the Epworth Orphanage, South Carolina Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for the year 1902.

Since our last report 31 children have been received into the Orphanage, and 25 have been dismissed. Of these, 5 have completed our school curriculum. Two of our graduates are attending the Columbia Female College, their expenses being provided for by friends. Ten of our children have been returned to their mothers and five to their fathers. Three have been adopted into good homes and one secured a good self-supporting position in business. One was expelled.

We have now 104 orphans in the Institution.

The Superintendent reports "good discipline and tutorage and decided improvement in general conduct." The health of the children has been good.

RELIGIOUS WORK.

Each day is opened with devotional exercises, attended by the eutire Orphanage community.

A church has been organized called Epworth, and they have preaching twice a month, and the members are trained in all lines of church work. The Sunday-School is held regularly with gratitying results. There are a Woman's Missionary Society and a Juvenile Missionary Society in good working order. The spirituality of the church is up to or above the average. "There is a deep, strong under current that works for righteousness." Some of the children professed saving faith in Christ and have joined the church.

HOUSEKEEPING.

The Department of Housekeeping is in the hands of faithful and efficient women, whose work gives satisfaction to the Superintendent.

THE SCHOOL.

The school work has never been more satisfactory than at present. Eight grades are taught in the School.

THE FARM.

The farm has been unusually prosperous this year. Both in the garden and in the field we have had good profits, which helped much in keeping down expenses besides furnishing an abundant supply of fresh vegetables.

THE PRINTING OFFICE.

The printing department shows a profit. First-class work is being done, and the boys are getting a good training in this line of work.

MARBLE WORK.

The business of the Marble Yard has been fairly good, and its profits will avail to help in the support of the Orphanage. The Superintendent reports that the boys of the Marble Works are doing exceedingly well.

BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS.

The Memorial Building is almost completed. The school rooms of this building are now in use. It is one of the most attractive and best built edifices on the grounds. Improvements have been made in the dormitories and cottages, on the farm and about the campus.

FINANCIAL.

During the current year we have received the legacy bequeathed by Mrs. Martha A. Lemon, amounting to $1,814.07; also a tract of land of 200 acres donated by J. W. McLeod.

The funds contributed from various sources have been so wisely used as to meet the current wants of the Orphanage. The Orphanage is reported out of debt and in a prosperous condition.

We commend most heartily the labors of Rev. W. B. Wharton, Superintendent, and Rev. G. H. Waddell, Financial Agent.

While our thanks are heartily due our benefactors all over the State for benefits conferred upon our orphans we think special notice should be taken of the great kindness of the citizens of Columbia, S. C., who without regard to denominations in various ways have given us highly appreciated aid and comfort. We make grateful mention also of the kindly interest and help given by the Editor and Publisher of The State.

As an evidence of our high approval of the administration of Rev. W. B. Wharton he has been re-elected Superintendent of the Orphan-

The Financial Agency has been discontinued.

The Board recommend to the Conference that the following resoautions be adopted:

- 1. That the Sunday Schools of this Conference are urged to adopt the plan of monthly collections for the Orphanage.
- 2. That the preachers are urged to make an appeal in the month of January, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, to the women of their respective congregations for contributions for the erection of the "Woman's Building" on the Orphanage grounds.
- 3. That the Bishop presiding at this Conference be requested to reappoint Rev. W. B. Wharton, Superintendent of the Epworth Or-

The Epworth Orphanage plant is now estimated at $60,000. We are greatly encouraged at the prospect of the continued and increasing success of the interest committed to our care.

A. C. Dibble, Secretary.

A. J. STOKES, President.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT.

During the quadrennium which closes with this Conference Session your Sunday School Board has tried to be faithful to the trust committed to it. The results of our labors have been unsatisfactory in many instances, but we feel conscious of having made earnest and sincere effort to do our duty.

When we remember that the study of the Bible among our people is confined almost entirely to the Sunday School, we realize the importance of this department of church work. Most of the accessions to the church are now from the Sunday School. Thus we see what an important institution it is as an evangelistic agency.

In this, our final report, we offer the following recommendations:

1. That our pastors be urged to observe Children's Day as directed by the Discipline.
2. That Wednesday night of each Conference Session be observed by the Discipline.

as the anniversary of the Sunday School Board.

3. That our pastors and superintendents be respectfully requested to organize Teachers' Study Circles for the purpose of pursuing the to organize reachers brune of the Superintendent of the Training course of study arranged by the Superintendent of the Training

WOLK.

4. We recommend that two Sunday School institutes be held within the bounds of the Conference during the ensuing year.

We pray God's richest blessings upon the cause we represent and upon our successors.

Respectfully,

J. S. BEASLEY, Chairman.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

In regard to our young people's work we wish simply to endorse the suggestions made by our General Secretary. These suggestions are of great importance to our pastors in helping the young people in their charges. He urges-1st, that the Era be at least put in the hands of every preacher as the basis of information in League work and methods. 2nd, That earnest effort be made in behalf of the State League Conference, which will be held in Charleston in the spring. 3rd. That the presiding elders be requested, if possible, to give one day during the District Conference to League work, insisting on an Epworth League in every congregation.

We heartily endorse all these suggestions and urge them upon the brethren.

PETER STOKES, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE PUBLISHING COMMITTEE OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

For another year, without missing a single number, the Southern Christian Advocate has gone forth on its weekly visits to the homes

W. R. Richardson, the editor, has been in good health and has of its patrons. faithfully and well met the obligations devolving upon him. Under his management the Advocate still stands for Methodism and the highest type of Christian living. We commend his work.

R. Lewis Berry & Company have given us a handsome well printed paper according to the terms of the contract. It is with regret that we find ourselves obliged to part with them. Early in September they gave official notice of a wish to surrender on January 1st, 1903, the contract which they had made with us to publish the paper until January 1st, 1905. There was nothing for us to do but to consent, which we reluctantly did.

That placed us under the necessity of looking about for another publisher. We have found him in Rev. G. H. Waddell, a member of our Conference. We have contracted with him for the next four years on the following terms:

I. That the paper shall be published in the City of Spartanburg, S. C., and begin the first week in January, 1903.

II. That said G. H. Waddell shall travel at large in the State, or secure some other suitable person to do so, in the interest of the paper, soliciting subscribers and extending the circulation in every way possible provided that when the preachers shall take subscriptions and become responsible for the same as hereinafter set forth they shall receive ten per cent. commission; but when the travelling agent or publisher shall take cash subscriptions no commission shall

III. That the preachers of the Conference shall act as agents and shall be responsible for the subscription price of all subscribers they send in without the cash accompanying the order, and shall make settlement at least annually and shall receive a commission of ten per cent, on all money sent in by them.

We ask that the Conference request our presiding Bishop to appoint Rev. G. H. Waddell assistant editor and publisher.

J. S. BEASLEY, Chairman,

H. B. BROWNE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PE-RIODICALS.

Your committee would direct your attention to only two thoughts touching the book and periodical literature now being furnished by our Church viz., its quality and circulation-

First. All of the periodical literature furnished to meet all the different departments of our work is of a high standard. The "Review," now to be changed from a bi-monthly to a quarterly, compares favorably with the best similar publications of the continent. No preacher can afford to be without it and many of our laymen would find it a source of pleasure and profit. Our Sunday School literature is perhaps better adapted to our needs than at any time in our history, and our missionary publications are universally planned both to enlighten the understanding and appeal to the conscience of our people. "The Christian Advocate" and our own "Southern Christian Advocate" continue to do excellent work. There has been marked improvement in the selection of books for the Epworth League reading course, and the books now being issued for the Bible Teachers' Study Circle will constitute a small library that will be very unique and useful to quiet meditative and religious use of the day as alone can secure the betterment sought.

We as Christian laymen and ministers live in this world atmosphere. We inbreathe it continually. Unconsciously we are influenced by it. We inbreathe it continually. Unconsciously we are influenced by it. It is high time that we take our reckoning and seek once more the old paths. It is gratifying however to find that coincident with this drift has come most earnest effort to stem the tide. Along with the most flagrant desceration of the sacred day has come the most emphatic protest. This is ever God's good way.

We would join the ranks or rather hold ourselves in the ranks of these earnest workers for a more scriptural observance of the Sabbath, We therefore offer the following resolutions:

1. That we declare ourselves unalterably opposed to all Sunday labor, however it may be sought to justify it by the changed conditions of our living, admitting but the one scriptural qualification of this works of necessity and mercy.

2. That we especially protest against the use of our holy Sabbath as a day of so-called recreation and pleasure whereby not only the pleasure-seekers injure themselves but at the same time rob a large portion of our wage workers of the benefits of the day.

3. That we will preach upon this subject and in our pastoral visitations seek to influence our people to a more scriptural conception of the Sabbath.

4. That we will all, ministers and laymen, throw the whole force of our example against the sins of both the cityful and the countryside in this particular, in the one the patronage of street cars and the buying of articles of so-called necessity; and in the other, Sunday visiting, ing of articles of so-called necessity; and in the other, Sunday visiting, feasting, &c., admitting only as we expressed it above, the one scriptural qualification (fairly interpreted) of need or mercy.

5. That we will cheerfully co-operate with the Sunday League of America, which we recognize as one of the very foremost agencies in the furtherance of Sabbath reform.

Respectfully submitted,

J. L. STOKES. Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Your committee cannot too strongly stress the importance of a thorough distribution of God's Word.

ough distribution of God's werd.

It is the "sword of the spirit," the source to which we must look for information concerning spiritual things, and its power for winning information concerning spiritual things, and its power for winning information concerning spiritual things.

souls to Christ is incalculable.

From investigation your committee finds that the outlook for the American Bible Society is brighter and more deserving the hearty support of the Church than at any past time. The four hundred versions of the Bible now published make it possible to reach three-fourths of the people of the earth with the Word of God in their native tongue.

And at no period of the world's history has the Word of God so commended itself to all nations as now. China, through her official head, has just recently ordered a translation of the Scriptures to be used in the course of study for political preferment, thus the eighty thousand or more students who appear annually in the examinations for their degrees will be brought under the power of its influence.

Never before has the simple Word so proven its own evidence to its divinity.

In view of these facts your committee recommends that every pastor shall endeavor to collect at least one cent per member from his charge for the Bible Society. This would mean a contribution of $750, or $347.49 more than was contributed in the Conference year 1901.

Your committee furthermore recommends the establishment of Bible depositories wherever possible, or practicable, especially in mill charges.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Board is glad to report decided progress in all our Domestic Mission work yet the demands of the mission field are growing faster than our resources will enable us to meet. This is due to the rapid increase of cotton and other factories. For a time we are forced to leave some points very inadequately provided for. We recognize the great importance of the mill problem and confess that we are unable to solve it, but we do know that in this as in most other work the principal factor in solving the problem is the man sent to the work. We find that there are some who are pecueuliarly qualified to do this work. We recommend to the Presiding Elders in that they know who such are as far as it is practicable to secure these for the mill work.

The Board adopted the following:

1. That pursuant to the disciplinary requirement reading as follows: "Each Annual Conference Board of Missions shall nominate for appointment by the President of the Conference a Secretary who shall be ex officio a member of the Conference Board to travel in the interest of its own Missions and the work of the General Board. The Secretary thus appointed shall perform these services in addition to his regular pastoral work, etc." This Board recommends the appointment of E. O. Watson as Missionary Secretary for the South Carolina Conference, who shall be charged with executing the plans and purposes of our Board for the ensuing year by seeing to the printing and distribution of literature and the conducting of all correspondence necessary to realize "Full Missionary collections from each District for the year 1903." an amount not exceeding three hundred dollars to be appropriated by this Board for the purpose of defraying the expenses of such printing and correspondence and such travel as may be necessary.

2. That among the publications to be prepared and sent out the ensuing year be a publication of the Districts of our Conference in the order of percentages paid on Foreign and Domestic Missions and of all the charges of the Conference, giving the amounts paid by each for Foreign and Domestic Missions in the order of percentage paid on the assessments for these claims.

3. That pursuant to the action of our last General Conference a Mid-Year Meeting be held not later than March, subject to the call of the Executive Committee, composed of the President, Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Missions.

1. That March 31, June 30 and September 30 be fixed as dates in the interval of the Annual Conference sessions for payments to be made on the appropriations to the several Domestic Missions and that collections be pushed throughout the Conference to enable the Treasurer to make these quarterly payments as large as possible.

We recommend our Missionary periodicals, "Go Forward" and

We recommend that the Freasurer of the Joint Board of Finance the "Review of Missions." continue to make monthly reports through the "Southern Christian Advocate" of the amounts collected for Missions.

W. W. DANIEL, President. CHAS, B. SMITH, Secretary.

VI. IN MEMORIAM.

Memoirs of Preachers who died during the year 1902.

REV. MARTIN LUTHER BANKS.

Rev. Martin Luther Banks was born in Edgefield County March 18th, 1823, and died in St. Matthew's December 17th, 1901.

His mother died when he was only a few days old, but not before she had given him the name of the great founder of her own

His father was not a member of any church, but had been reared

Brother Banks' educational advantages were the best which the country schools of his day afforded and he was familiar with the current literature of his time; he taught school for several years and developed his own powers of mind. He was converted and joined Concord Church near Leesville in the summer of 1847, was licensed to preach that fall and was admitted into the South Carolina Conference at the following session. He served six years on Stations, twenty-eight years on Circuits and eight years on Missions, one year a supernumerary and eleven years superannuated. He married Miss Anna Amelia Skinner, of Georgetown, November 8th, 1854; she still survives him; seven children were born to them, five of whom are still living: Mrs. W. W. Wannamaker, J. Arthur Banks, Mrs. E. Wimberly, Mrs. A. K. Smoke and Rev. M. L. Banks of the South Carolina Conference.

Brother Banks was convinced that he was inwardly moved by the Holy Spirit to undertake the work of the ministry and that Christ would fit him for it if he gave himself continuously to the preaching of the Word. In his preaching he aimed to accomplish permanent results, not merely to move and entertain his audience, but he concentrated his mind and heart on the great evangelical subjects of the Bible, studied them thoroughly and prepared his sermons with a definite purpose, producing through the work of the Holy Spirit, on whom he constantly relied, a genuine repentance leading to regeneration and the bearing of the minute of righter isness for the loves of those to whom he prevoked.

He limed the districts and posity of the Church of his this estail or all advisate them in the pulpit and in the press with 1 surface, great fine and variety of statement so that no one or all missibles stand his meaning.

He was a man of convictions and dared to stand on them. His life was without repreach, his friendship was steady, his subscrip and gentleness of spirit won the confidence and love of all with whom he was associated. As a husband, father and friend the gentleness unselfishness and genuineness of the man were mist appreciated. Those loved him most who knew him best.

"After he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell in sleep." He learned to love and experienced the sweetness of this name which Jesus gave to death. The eyes of the wearied servant closed in deep, sweet, restful sleep, and he wakes unto life events and the light that is in God's presence.

REV. JAMES FRANCIS SMITH.

Rev. James Francis Smith was born in Laurens County. O ther 7, 1821. In his boyhood he attended the country schools of his neighborhood, where the foundation of his education was laid. At eighteen years of age he graduated at Randolph Macon College, Virginia class of '39. He joined the South Carolina Conference at Charlotte, N. C., in 1842. In the same year he was married to Miss Julia Forster laughter of Rev. A. M. Forster. Her culture made her a company n in literature for her husband. She was an inspiration to him during the years of his active service and his comforter in old age when fired to rest from his labors. Their married life extending over a period of sixty years was beautiful—so completely were their lives merged into one. Our acquaintance with him began in the fall of 1872 and from that day to the close of his life our love for him grew stronger as the years have come and gone. We bless God that we ever came under the influence of that noble Christian man.

Brother Smith was a strong preacher. He never attempted oratory, but at times his preaching measured up to the highest standard of eloquence and he would drive the truth home with tremendous power. His humility, his gentleness, his sympathy with all classes of people, his earnestness, his ardent desire for the salvation of souls, and his consistent holy life gave weight and force to his preaching. He turned "many to righteousness" and has obtained the promise "shall shine as the stars forever and ever." It was his disposition to be cheerful and hopeful, and however dark the picture he could see a bright side and taking no thought of his disadvantages the counted up his blessings. On January 13, 1902, he entered into rest and his name was added to the roll of our sainted preachers. Sister Smith, two daughters and five sons survive him. He was a preacher of the gospel for fifty-nine years. He loved to preach and in his retirement from active work he was abundant in labors. His record is in the church; his reward is on high. The highest tribute that we can pay to our departed brother is that he was faithful to God and to men. He walked with God and was not, for God took him.

REV FREDERICK AULD

"Blessed are the pure in heart," said Jesus, and the centuries applaud the utterance. In every land, in every calling "the pure in heart" are blessed and are dispensers of blessing—for clean lips and lives, modest walk and model service are theirs. Where such an one is an ambassador of Christ his path shines more and more unto the perfect day and by him many are turned to righteousness.

No one who knew Frederick Auld would hesitate to describe him as a man pure in heart, pure in life, faithful in labors. Piously reared and early devoting himself to God he walked in his integrity all the way, he worked with all his might until utterly disabled for service, and then he meekly suffered his remaining years until the Lord said. It is enough, come up higher."

The grand-parents of Brother Auld came to this country from Scotland. In six weeks after reaching Charleston both died of yellow fever and their infant son was reared by a friend, Grown to manhood this son married Miss Sarah Fredericks of Charleston. On September 7, 1834, the subject of this sketch was born in Laurens, S. C. When he was four years old his father died. The mother was spared and she brought up her children in the nurture of the Lord.

Brother Auld was converted and joined the Methodist Church in his youth. Called to preach he entered the South Carolina Conference in 1858. He went wheresoever appointed, and in his various charges lived a stainless life and labored with fidelity and success. He served nine years on stations, twenty-two on circuits, and one year in the Confederate army. In 1890 he was severely injured by a fall from his buggy and from that day to the end he was a disabled sufferer. At the succeeding Conference he was placed on the superannuate list. The years following were full of pain and sorrow, but they only deepened his faith and intensified his devotion to God. He would strive to hide his agony and to make cheerful those around him and those who called to see him. In the nights he suffered most, but he coveted the hours of darkness because, as he wrote in his diary, "then the precious Saviour was so near that He seemed almost a visible presence," and the sufferer scarcely knew "whether to cry out with his awful pain or to shout for joy with the glory that filled his soul." At last, on February 13th, 1992, he fell on sleep and went to that realm where "there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying: neither shall there be any more pain."

Brother Auld was a man of gentle manners, of modest but manly bearing, of kind and sympathetic spirit, true to the right as the needle to the pole, loving God and man sincerely. He was a clear and impressive preacher, preparing carefully his message and himself for the pulpit. As a pastor he was tactful and faithful rejoicing with them that rejoiced and weeping with them that wept, Necessarily he won souls to Christ.

On October 26, 1865, he married Miss Emma Zimmerman, daughter of the late Rev. J. H. Zimmerman and sister of Rev. S. H. Zimmerman of our Conference. She was a true helpmeet in his labors, a comforter in his trials. Six children were born of this union, four of whom with their mother survive the departed. One of his sons is Rev. Marion Auld, who served Florence Station as a supply for the past ten months, and who was admitted into our Conference on Friday last.

As we remember the high character, holy life and stainless record of our ascended brother this prayer rises in our hearts: "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his," save the awful agonies his poor body endured.

REV. GEORGE EDWIN STOKES.

Rev. George Edwin Stokes, son of James and Margaret Stokes, was born March 5, 1863, in Orangeburg County, S. C., near the town of Orangeburg. His parents were of strict Methodist type, cultured and pious. Under the teaching of such parenthood and in a home of Christian culture his life had its setting and received its early training. The ideal set before him was the highest, such as could not be realized apart from Christ and the training such as inspired in him a desire to obtain the ideal. Hence early in life he joined the Methodist Church, was converted and received Christ in him the hope of glory. His education was obtained in the country schools of his community and in the Sheridan Classical School of Orangeburg, S. C., where he prepared himself for College. In 1881 he stood a competitive examination for a Peabody scholarship in the University at Nashville, Tenn.; won the scholarship, entered the University, graduating in 1883.

After graduating ten years of his life were spent in teaching. Two years he taught in Corinth, Miss., and eight in South Carolina. His work in the school room as teacher was successful. He not only possessed the faculty of imparting instruction but that more rare and enviable power of inspiring in the student a desire to learn.

December 14, 1887, he married Miss Camilla T. Elwell, daughter of Rev. S. P. H. Elwell, deceased, of the South Carolina Conference. This union was blessed with seven children, two of whom have entered the home above, leaving five still with the mother.

Brother Stokes loved the school room and delighted in teaching, but an early impression of a call of God to preach the gospel, must not, could not longer be unheeded. He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the Branchville Circuit in 1893 and supplied the South Branchville Circuit after the death of Rev. J. B. Platt, which took place that year. He joined the South Carolina Conference at Sumter, becember 6, 1893, receiving as his first appointment the Lexington Circuit. He served the following charges: Lexington Circuit 1894-1895, Springfield Circuit 1896-1899 and Denmark 1900-1902, when on February 22, soon after he had entered upon what promised to be one of his most successful years, God saw best to call him to heaven.

Brother Stokes was one of our best men, kind-hearted and true. He loved his brethren of the ministry and association with them was one of his chief delights. We all remember him affectionately but those who knew him best could love him most.

As a preacher he was clear, orthodox and spiritual. All his sermons were carefully prepared and earnestly delivered. He carried no "unbeaten oil" into the sanctuary, but with the truth burning in his soul he preached the gospel in demonstration of the spirit and of power. Souls were added to the Church and born of the spirit into the Kingdom of Christ under his ministry. He was a man of strong character and high ideals of life. He loved to appeal to the noble and manly in man. Hence his preaching was not so much the terrors of the law as the truth, inviting men to obtain the riches of Christ which revealed itself in character.

He was one of the truest and most devoted men to his people and work I ever knew. No detail of his work was too trivial to look after. He entered into closest sympathy with the people, visiting much, reading the Bible in their homes and praying with and for them Truly it may be said of him, "he wept with those that wept and rejoiced with those that rejoiced." No charge served by him but marked growth in material and spiritual lines attested his wise leadership and faithful service. Specially of note is the handsome new church at Springfield and the much improved one at Denmark. The spiritual development of those people is a more lasting and blessed monument to his true worth as a preacher.

His work as a preacher of the gospel was not long, but it was well

In the Methodist Church in Denmark, where he preached his last sermon the funeral services were held conducted by his Presiding Elder Rev. H. B. Browne and four of his Brother pasters and fellow workers in the presence of a large congregation. Sunday February 23, at 4 o'clock. On Monday, February 24, his body was laid to rest in Sunny Side Cemetery in Orangeburg, S. C., to await the resurreetion morning. God comfort the widow who mourns the loss of a husband, the children who sorrow for father and all the bereaved loved ones.

REV. A. FRANK BERRY.

"Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life." This promise to "the angel of the Church in Smyrna" belongs to A Frank Berry. So will say all that knew him and his Lord who knew him better than any man will surely approve the claim. From childhood to three score, in peace and war, in secular and sacred things, as church member and minister in the local and itinerant ranks he was faithful to his convictions and true to his dury. He feared none but God. He never quailed in danger or trial. He never ceased to work until he ceased to live. He toiled a l day of April 1st, 1902, and when the evening was come he entered his home. sat down, gasped and was gone to receive his crown of life.

Brother Berry was born near Branchville, in Orangeburg County, January 1st, 1842. He was reared on the farm and educated in the country and village schools. He was ready to enter the Junior Class of the South Carolina College when his course of study was ent short by the war between the States. He enlisted in the Confederate Army in 1861 and served to the close of the terrible struggle. In 1864 while in this service he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Realizing a call to preach he was licensed in 1875 and was ten years a local preacher. In 1881. after the death of Rev. J. B. Mass beau, he supplied the pulpits of Branchville Circuit, and he rendered similar service on Providence Circuit the year following. In December, 1885, he entered our Conference and therein labored until his death. He went promptly to the fields appointed him, worked faithfully in all, won many to Christ and the Church.

In December, 1865, he married Miss Emma M. Fairey, who stood by him devotedly and lovingly until he was taken from her. Nine children were given to this wedded couple, eight of whom survive. Brother Berry was a clear, strong preacher. His themes were "Christ Crucified" and the prominent doctrines of Methodism. He was a good pastor, caring for his people in all the vicissitudes of life

None were neglected, high and low, rich and poor receiving equal attention. He looked after all the interests committed to him by the Church-not magnifying any one to the detriment of the others. As a man he was brave, true steadfast. He clove to his friends in shadow as well as sunshine, staunchly defending them when they were assailed, tenderly sustaining them when trials came. Psalm xv. evidently was a chief guide of his life.

The departure of this faithful preacher and its sudden circumstances are a loud call to us all. One moment in apparent health and at work; the next dead and entered into everlasting rest. Be ye also ready," cries our Lord. Let us heed His voice that we may abide in His tabernacle and dwell in His holy hill. O, that every one of us may be faithful unto death and receive "a crown of life."

JOHN O. WILLSON.

REV. JAMES SMILEY PORTER.

Rev. James Smiley Porter was the son of Rev. John. A. Porter, who is the oldest member, with one exception, of the South Carolina Conference. He was born April 23, 1854. He received his preparatory education in the High Schools of Charleston, Georgetown and Marion. In October, 1873, he entered the Freshman Class at Wofford College, where he pursued his studies for four years. He was converted in 1868, licensed to exhort in 1874, and admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference at Columbia in December, 1877. He was married December 7, 1880, to Miss Alice C. Livingston, daughter of Mr. John M. and Mrs. Catherine Livingston of Newberry

For several months preceding his death he was in feeble health, but with self-sacrificing devotion to his work he stood at his post until forced to take a rest. During the latter part of March last he made a visit to his brother and sisters in Florida in the hope that his exhausted physical vitality would be restored by change of climate and rest. But God in His wise providence ordered otherwise. On the morning of April 11, 1902, at the residence of his brother at Tampa, Florida, God called him up higher to receive his reward.

Just before he passed away his beloved wife bending over him asked how it was with him. In the full possession of all his conseious powers he replied: "There is not a cloud, everything is as clear as sunlight." The living Christ in whose fellowship he had lived was his companion through the valley of the shadow, and he feared no evil. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his de-

In the death of Brother Porter the South Carolina Conference has lost one of its most spiritual, consecrated and useful members - Daring twenty-five years of active service he met with fidelity to his Lord every demand which the Church laid upon him. He was a good preacher and a faithful pastor, having but one purpose in lifeto do the work to which God had called him, and he did it cheerfully and earnestly, uncomplaining amid hardships and untiring in his efforts to win men to Christ. He was one of the purest men that we have ever known. His eye was single. There was nothing disingenious about him. Guileless in spirit, transparent in character unselfish in service, consecrated in heart and life, he was known among men as a man of God. He has gone to his reward.

REV. LEWIS M. HAMER.

Rev. Lewis Myers Hamer, son of John H. and Elizabeth Thomas Hamer, was born in Marlboro County, near old Beauty Spot Church, February 27, 1825, and died in great peace at his home near Hebron within a few miles of the place of his birth, on the 22d day of April, 1902. He was the youngest of nine brothers and five sisters, all of whom preceded him to the spirit world.

His early educational advantages were such as the common country schools afforded. He made good use of these opportunities and upon the death of his father which occurred when young Hamer was only seventeen he was prepared to teach; which he did for four years, dividing his time between teaching and going to school, Having in the meantime studied law he was admitted to the bar in 1846 and practiced his profession for some time. He was converted and joined the Methodist Church in 1849. With his conversion came the impression that God had called him to preach the gospel. This impression deepened into irresistible conviction and he soon took steps to enter upon what he believed to be his life work. He accordingly applied for and received license to preach in 1852; and at the session of the Annual Conference held in Newberry, December, 1853, he was admitted on trial. During a ministry of fifty years he served on the effective list twenty-three years, as local preacher five years. supernumerary two years, and superannuated twenty years. While in the effective ranks he served the following charges: Junior preacher with R. P. Franks on Marion Circuit, 1854; junior preacher on Darlington Circuit, 1855-6; Georgetown Station, 1857; Black Swamp Cireuit, 1858-9; Allendale Circuit, 1860-1; Brownsville Circuit, 1862-3; Darlington Circuit, 1864-6; supernumerary, 1867; located, 1868-1872; junior preacher on Bennettsville Circuit, 1873; Darlington Circuit, 1874-7: Lexington Fork Circuit, 1878-9; Shailow Ford Circuit, 1850; Marion Circuit, 1881. At the close of this year his health was so broken down that he was compelled to ask for a supernumerary relation, which was granted. Not having regained his health so as to enable him to take active work he was placed on the superannuated list in 1882, which relation he sustained until his death. Those who knew him in his effective days say he was a practical and helpful preacher and that many souls were converted through his efforts.

On October 7, 1847. Brother Hamer was married to Miss Elizabeth M. Thomas, who still lives to cherish his memory. To them were born thirteen children, only four of whom survive.

During his superannuated relationship to the Conference he lived on his farm near Hebron Church in his native county, where he was very popular and of great service. His home was always open to the preachers and he was ever ready to help them in any way possible. People of all denominations held him in the highest esteem and he was more frequently called upon to perform marriage ceremontes and burial services than any preacher in the community having married more than two hundred and twenty couples and buried even more dead. He was never happier than when about his Master's business and his place in Church and Sunday School were never vacant when he was physically able to be present.

His religion was not of a demonstrative character but he was always ready to give a clear and satisfactory reason for the hope that was in him When his last illness had prostrated him he seemed to realize that the time of his departure was at hand and said in clear and unmistakable words, "it is all right with me, sir; it is all right." When asked if he had any message for his brethren of the Conference he repeated the above and said, "tell them it is all right with me." He sleeps among his brethren in Hebron Cemetery where every week some friend or loved one places a fresh bouquet—a love token-upon his grave. We buried him there and they say he is dead, but he still lives in our memories and the present generation will all have passed away before he is forgotten and the community is better for having had in it such a man as Rev. Lewis Meyers T. C. O'DELL.

REV. J. THOMAS PATE, D. D.

"Seest thou a man diligent in his business he shall stand before kings," and the minister of Christ diligent in his business shall stand before the King of kings. John Thomas Pate was diligent in the Father's business; he spent and was spent for the Son of God. Now he stands before the King of earth and heaven.

Dr. Pate was born in the City of Sumter, S. C., on June 27, 1856. He entered into his reward on May 8, 1962, while stationed at Florence, S. C. His parents were pious people and he was brought up in the fear of the Lord. In early life he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He attended the schools of his native town and spent some time at Wofford College. He was a student all his life and few read more useful books or to better purpose. Called to preach he obeyed without hesitation or delay. It was a life-long characteristic with him to answer promptly the demands of duty. In health and often in sickness he was at his post at the time appointed and there was ready to do what was required. No man had to wait on him, no congregation found him laggard. In December, 1877, he was admitted on trial into our Conference. From that hour until his last illness he was unwearied in the service of God and man. Many would have stopped years before had they suffered as he did, but he labored on in increasing pain and weakness until the bed of languishing stayed him.

He had the good fortune to be appointed junior preacher his first year. The next he served a circuit. After six years on circuits he was sent to stations and steadily was given larger and more laborious charges. In all he wrought faithfully and with success. The longer he stayed in any place the deeper the impress he made, the more he stayed in any place the deeper the impress he made, the more progress was apparent, the more friends for himself and his Lord he won. A striking proof of his hold upon men's hearts was the act of his brethren at Florence in securing his stay there when all knew he could not render a tithe of his usual service. For years previous he had lived among them and served them; when no longer he could go in and out in their service they were willing to care for him, and so they did until the death summons came. May He who blesses so they did until the death summons came. Horence for her "a cup of cold water" given His servants reward Florence for her

Dr. Pate was a courteous Christian gentleman, a considerate, friendly man. He was well endowed mentally, but this was not the secret of his success. He succeeded because of his attention to his appointed duty and his ceaseless industry. These things enlarged appointed duty and made him "a workman that needeth not be him as a man and made him "a workman that needeth not be ashamed." He worked as industrious men work; he studied as ashamed." He worked as industrious men work; he studied as earnest students study. He could not but become a most attractive preacher. His sermons were carefully prepared for the people he served and were earnestly delivered. He was a diligent and helpful pastor. Of course he led men to Christ and the Church.

Our brother was a lover of good books and he used them with benefit. When he died he owned a valuable library which he left by his will to Wofford College. He wrote much for the press, and his articles were desired by editors and were enjoyed by readers. He his articles was appointed to address important assemblies. His pasometimes was appointed to address important assemblies.

per on "Christ the Ideal Teacher," at the Pan-American Congress of Religion and Education was highly commended. He traveled considerably in this country and in Canada and Europe and profited by this means of education. Over ten years ago the degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on him and he wore it worthily. In 1879 he married Miss Alice Godbold of Marion County. She brightened his home and shared his toils to the end.

Dr. Pate clearly saw his approaching death, but there was no fear. He wrote me that the physicians told him he could not live the year out and might die any day, but, said he, "All is bright beyond." Bright as it seemed then it was infinitely more glorious when he saw the Redeemer's face and heard the welcome: "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

REV. L. C. LOYAL.

Rev. Louis Charles Loyal, son of Pierre Loyal and Mary Adelaide Loyal, was born in Ettemps, France, August 25th, 1822, and died at Georgetown, S. C., November 7th, 1902.

Few lives more fully illustrate the special providence of God in human history, than that of Brother Loyal. At the age of four years he was left an orphan. An uncle, Mr. Gomaird, took charge of the little orphan boy, and took him to Paris to live. He had a half-brother living in the city of New York. At about the age of sixteen, Brother Loyal was sent to America, to live with this half-brother.

His educational advantages were limited so far as scholastics were concerned, but with a good mind, and with faithfulness to every opportunity in the larger school of life's experience, he became an educated man, in the true and high sense of the term—for who will say that the highest and truest education is not that which comes by contact with the great facts and forces of life and experience?

Just as God permitted a representative of a Romish ruled nation to discover this great Western World, yet reserved it for a pure Protestantism to colonize it, formulate its government, and develop its resources, so young Loyal, though born in the Romish faith, was brought under the influence of the Protestant faith, that under the purity and genius of Methodism, all that was truest and best in him might be brought out.

During his brief stay in New York, he was permitted to attend a Methodist Bible Class. Here his eyes were opened to the plan of salvation, and to the beauties of holiness, brought out, not by creeds, but by the transformation of character by the Spirit of God. His half-brother failed in business, and moved to Charleston, S. C., in 1838. Here young Loyal came in touch with Methodism in old Trinity and Cumberland Churches.

On January 2nd, 1842, in his 20th year, he joined the church, and entered into a solemn covenant with his Lord, and such was his fidelity to that compact, that he could say in his last hour: "I have kept the faith."

After serving with faithfulness as chorister, class-leader and steward, he was licensed to preach in 1851; was ordained deacon in Charleston, S. C., in 1854, by Bishop Early, and was ordained elder by the same Bishop in Greenville, S. C., in 1859.

He served the following charges as a supply:

Prince William Circuit, 1865; Spring Street, Charleston, in 1867. where, by boldness, perseverance, tact and Christian fortitude, he succeeded in saving this church to its rightful owner, the M. E. Church, South.

Brother Loyal was received on trial in the South Carolina Conference, December, 1868, with T. E. Wannamaker, and has served as Black Swamp Circuit, 1869-1870; Cooper River, 1871; Lexington follows: Circuit. 1872; Graniteville, 1873-1875, Seneca City, 1876; Cainhoy. 1877: Black Swamp, 1878-1880; Yemassee, 1881-1882; Waccamaw. 1883-1884; Bucksville, 1885-1886; Berkeley, 1887; Georgetown, 1888; Britton's Neck, 1889.

At the Conference held at Camden, S. C., at the close of this last named year, he was placed on the superannuated list.

Brother Loyal was married to Miss Ann Frances Martin, January 7. 1847: of this union twelve children were born.

Brother Loyal was an active worker up to a few days before his being dead, yet speaketh. The last days of his life, while the outer man wasted away, were days in which his spirit dwelt among delectable mountains. Like Moses of old, from Pisgah's height, he saw the holy land, his eternal home, and like his Lord, on the Mount of Transfiguration, he talked with visitants from the higher realm.

His life in Georgetown was a benediction to all the people, and he.

He said to the writer a few days before his death: "I would like to answer to roll call at Conference once more." And just before he closed his eyes in the last sleep, he seemed to hear the calling of a roll. and in a clear voice he answered. "here," and he was gone. He answered to roll call "Up Yonder."

REV. THOMAS G. HERBERT.

Rev. Thomas Galbraith Herbert, born of pious parents in Newberry District. May 30, 1830, died December 6, 1902, at his home in Leesville, while his brethren of the South Carolina Conference were deeply regretting his absence from their annual session in Newberry.

After finishing the course at Cokesbury School, and spending two years in the South Carolina College, he divided his labors between the school room and the farm, finally yielding to the gradually increasing evidences of his call to the Ministry. He did good service as a local preacher for some years; and, in December, 1858, he was admitted on trial into the Conference. Of his thirty-nine consecutive years of active service, twenty-eight were spent on only six different charges; and, when at any time the legal limit demanded his removal from a charge, his people would have gladly kept him longer.

He was not what the world calls a great preacher; but the clear, logical simplicity of his language, the earnest fervor of his manner, and the perfect transparency of his Christian character, combined to render his preaching unusually edifying and fruitful.

The key words of his life were fidelity and love. He met his appointments, rain or shine; and he filled them faithfully, sick or well. He loved his God supremely, and he loved his fellows as himself. His love for the little children of his charge was conspicuous and beautiful. When Presiding Elder, he insisted on preaching a sermon to the children at every quarterly meeting.

He was preëminently a Christian gentleman. In all his relations and intercourse, at home and abroad, his real courtesy and genuine modesty attached him to his friends with hooks of steel, and made him incapable of intentional rudeness.

His personal religious experience was constantly clear and satisfactory. He was on perfectly amicable terms with his Heavenly Father, in the light of whose approving smile he devoted himself to the spread of the Kingdom of his Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, among his fallen fellow-men.

In his twenty-third year, he married Miss Harriet Bryce, to whose wise counsels and cooperation he largely attributed bis ministerial success, and by whose Godly precepts and example, in harmony with his own, their eight children were all induced in early life to give themselves to lives of piety. Not often do we find, as in this pious house, every living son a faithful Minister of Christ.

Farewell, beloved friend, not lost, but gone before. May thy example stimulate each one of us to purer love and absolute fidelity!

S. LANDER.

MEMOIR OF MRS. A. ERVING, MRS. J. S. MATTISON AND MRS. J. W. NEELEY.

Because the brief notices of our departed sisters come last in the order of service, we are not to conclude that they have been least in important service to the church and our Master. Their's was a quiet obedience. The hand that rocks the cradle has more than once shaped the destinies of the world. Mary and her Son are inseparable in the achievements of the world's redemption, since she gave birth to the world's Redeemer.

MRS. A. ERVING.

The very meager data which we have as to facts concerning Sister Erving, makes it impossible for anything more than the simple announcement of her death.

I may add, however, that she was the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher. In conversation with one of the older members of this Conference, we learn that Sister Erving was a modest, unpretentious Christian woman. She was satisfied with her own humble home, and made the best possible use of the means in hand to meet the demands upon her. Rest, sister, in thy peaceful grave, while a stranger pays this humble tribute to your memory.

MRS. LUCILE S. MATTISON.

Mrs. Mattison was the daughter of Henry Spann, Esqr., of Lexington County, this State, where she was born October 17, 1868. She was married to the Rev. J. S. Mattison, of the South Carolina Conference. November 25, 1885. Later on, when Brother Mattison felt called of God to take work in the foreign field, his faithful wife—like Minnie-haha, said "Go—, and I will follow you, my husband." They went—the husband died in Brazil under the tropics, of yellow fever—She returned with her little daughter to South Carolina, and November 14th last fell on sleep, and has joined her husband in our Father's house.

For a timid, modest woman to quit her home and all the sacred associations of life, and cheerfully join her husband in a mission to a remote foreign land, is indeed a sublime commentary upon our holy religion.

Sister Mattison was a woman of rare character, and unusual culture. As the true help-meet of an itinerant preacher and a missionary, as a teacher in the Graded Schools, and in our own Columbia Female College, her's was always a life potent for good, breathing gracious influences that lifted others nearer to God.

MRS. MARGARET CARROLA NEELEY.

Mrs. Margaret Carrola Burnside-Neeley, wife of the Rev. J. W. Neeley, of the South Carolina Conference, was born December 10, 1871, and died at the Parsonage of the East Chester Circuit, September 6, 1902.

Sister Neeley was worthy the place she filled so well—the home of a Methodist itinerant preacher.

It was the privilege of the writer to be an occasional guest in her Parsonage home during the past years, and he always found her the same quiet, modest woman. She leaves four children. For sixteen years she was the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher, ready to go at the call of her church, and never complained of its adjustments of her husband's work. She rests in peace. To our brother and the children we extend our sympathies and prayers. There shall be another meeting "In the sweet bye and bye."

Fidelity to a trust is the only ground on which the divine approval can rest.

"Well done, good and faithful servant," is Heaven's richest benediction upon these departed sisters of our Conference.

Of each of them we may say, in the words of our Lord: "She hath done what she could."

H. W. BAYS.
