Both Wofford basketball teams return to action tonight as the men host Jacksonville State at 7 p.m. while the women are at No. 2 North Carolina.

The Terrier men are 2-2 with the two defeats coming by a combined total of just nine points at Miami (Fla.) and Tennessee. In both contests, Wofford had an opportunity to tie the game in the final 14 seconds.

All-SoCon forward Howard Wilkerson paces Wofford. His 18.5 scoring average and 8.3 rebounding mark rank third and fifth, respectively, in the Southern Conference.

Jacksonville State, a member of the Ohio Valley Conference, is 4-2. The Gamecocks already have a win over a SoCon team this season after defeating Western Carolina, 90-74, on Nov. 16 at the BCA Classic in Milwaukee, Wis.

The Wofford women (2-3) departed for Chapel Hill last night. Tip-off is 7 p.m. at Carmichael Auditorium.

First-year Terrier coach Edgar Farmer, a North Carolina graduate, was on the staff of the 1994 Tar Heel women's team that captured the national championship.

Wofford assistant women's coach Ed Geth was a four-year letterman for the North Carolina men's team under coaches Dean Smith and Bill Guthridge. Geth was on the 1993 Tar Heel national championship squad.

The North Carolina women are 5-0, including a 71-65 victory over defending national champion Connecticut (Nov. 21).

Seniors Brie Bradshaw (10.0 ppg) and Ricaye Harris (9.4 ppg) top Wofford in scoring.
Attached as a .pdf is the Wofford men's basketball release and updated stats for tonight's 7 p.m. home game versus Jacksonville State. The complete set of notes is also available on the Terriers' web site (www.wofford.edu/athletics). If you have any difficulty accessing these files, please feel free to let me know.

Inside the Game

• After Monday's near victory at Tennessee, the Wofford men's basketball team (2-2) returns home to face Jacksonville State (4-2).
  Tonight represents the first meeting on the hardwood between the Terriers and Gamecocks.
  A Jacksonville State athletic staff member very familiar with Wofford is Gamecock assistant football coach Brad McAbee. A 1993 Wofford graduate and a former All-America center, McAbee led the Terrier football team to NCAA playoff appearances in the 1990 and 1991 campaigns.
  • Wofford's two losses, at Miami (Fla.) and Tennessee, have been by a combined total of just nine points. In both contests, the Terriers had an opportunity to tie the game in the final 14 seconds.
  • Tonight is the first of two straight games for Wofford against teams from the state of Alabama. The Terriers are at Auburn Sunday in a 4 p.m. (Eastern) regionally-televised contest on CSS.
  • Jacksonville State is the first team with the nickname Gamecocks to play in the Benjamin Johnson Arena since Nov. 28, 2001, when a sellout crowd was on hand for a game with the University of South Carolina.

Worth Noting

With an enrollment of 1,100, Wofford is the second-smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (850 students) is smaller. Wofford actually has a higher SAT average (1247) than enrollment (1,100).

Meet the Head Coach

Mike Young is in his 16th year at Wofford and third as head coach. He was previously a Terrier assistant for 13 seasons under former coach and now athletic director Richard Johnson.

Johnson was promoted to athletic director on Dec. 3, 2001 with the announcement that he would coach just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season. His first head coaching hire, made that same day, was the elevation of Young effective at the close of the campaign.

In his debut as a head coach in 2002-03, Young led the Terriers (14-15, 8-8) to a third-place finish in the SoCon South Division after his team was picked fifth. Highlighted by a win at Virginia Tech, Wofford equaled its most victories in eight years on the Division I level while facing a non-conference schedule that was officially ranked as the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagarin Ratings.

A native of Radford, Va., and a 1986 graduate of Emory & Henry (Va.), Young helped guide Wofford from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent status in 1995-96 and the SoCon in 1997-98.

He was honored in 2001 as America's Best Dressed Assistant Coach in a national contest conducted by www.collegeinsider.com.

Terrier Tidbits

• Howard Wilkerson earned All-SoCon honors last season and is a preseason All-League pick in 2004-05. He was the SoCon's leading rebounder (8.8 rpg) for league games only last season.
  • Adrien Borders is a SoCon track & field champion in the triple jump and high jump.
  • Sam Daniels topped Wofford with 53 3-pointers last season.
  • Eric Marshall scored a career-high 27 points, including 25 in the second half, in an 85-76 win over College of Charleston last season.
  • Byron Fields flirted with a triple-double in last year's 85-82 SoCon Tournament win over UNC Greensboro. He had a career-high 17 points and nine rebounds to go with eight assists.

Wofford sets the pace in graduation rates

Since 1997, Wofford is the only football-playing member of the SoCon to win the league's graduation rate trophy for all student-athletes. Wofford has won the award four times.

1247 vs. 1100
Wofford College has a higher SAT average (1247) than enrollment (1100).

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

National Review's Guide to the Best Liberal Arts Colleges, "America's Top 50 Liberal Arts Schools"

About Wofford

• Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman and Wake Forest are the others).

• Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

• Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100 which makes it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

• With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

• Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force football coach Fisher DeBerry.

• Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In a recent NCAA Division I Graduation Rates Report, Wofford was the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men's basketball and women's basketball teams.

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson is a 1959 Wofford graduate and a former All-America wide receiver for the Terriers.
The Staff

The following is an inside look at Wofford coach Mike Young's three assistants:

• Former Terrier standout Matt Allen is in his first season as an assistant coach at his alma mater. Allen ranks 29th on Wofford's career scoring list with 1,057 points.

He was an assistant last season at Western Carolina, where he coached Sacramento Kings' first-round draft pick Kevin Martin.

Allen has also had stints at Dartmouth, Campbell and Wingate.

• Dustin Kerns is in his first year with the Terriers after working with Buzz Peterson and the University of Tennessee last season. He has also been on the staffs of Tennessee Tech and Clemson.

• Jackson Payne is also in his first season at Wofford. Payne coached Terrier freshman Drew Gibson at St. Thomas More Prep School last year.

As a freshman, Payne lettered under Mike Jarvis at George Washington. He then transferred to Christian Brothers where he was a prolific 3-point shooter.

A Youthful Staff

With an average age of 31.0, the Wofford men's basketball coaching staff is the fourth youngest in the nation. The Terriers are behind only Lehigh (29.0), Mount St. Mary's (29.0) and High Point (30.8).

Head coach Mike Young is 41 and the graybeard on the staff. Assistant coaches Matt Allen (32), Jackson Payne (27) and Dustin Kerns (24) are next in line.

Seasoned Terriers

After having just one senior on last year's roster, the 2004-05 Wofford squad features five seniors: Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Justin Stephens, Jeff Tarr and Greg Taylor.

The Fork Union Pipeline

Wofford coach Mike Young played at Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy and refers to longtime FUMA coach Fletcher Arritt as one of his coaching mentors.

Current Terriers Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson are two of six former FUMA players at Wofford during Young's 16 seasons on campus.

Schedule Difficulty

• Wofford will once again face a challenging non-conference schedule. Following a season-opening trip to Miami, the Terriers will become an honorary member of the SEC with games at Tennessee (Nov. 29), Auburn (Dec. 5), Georgia (Dec. 19) and South Carolina (Dec. 31).

• Last year's Wofford slate included road dates at Tennessee, Clemson, Texas, Vanderbilt, Dayton and Minnesota.

• The 2002-03 RPI and Sagarin Ratings ranked Wofford's non-conference schedule as the most difficult in the nation out of 327 Division I programs.

The Terriers played at Auburn, Clemson, Virginia Tech, West Virginia, South Carolina, N.C. State and Virginia.

• In their opening 12 games in 2001-02, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, N.C. State and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina.

• The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule in 2000-01 was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson and Vanderbilt.

Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

• According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 season, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Keeping Busy

• Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Curtis Ingram, Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson were employed as line judges and ball boys this fall at Wofford home volleyball matches in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

• While sitting out the 2002-03 season per NCAA transfer rules, Greg Taylor served as the color analyst on WSPA-Radio for a Terrier home game versus Virginia Intermont.

• Wofford guard Justin Stephens has previously been employed as operator of the computerized sound system for Terrier home football games in Gibbs Stadium. He also served as the official scorer, wearing the referee shirt, at home women's basketball games.

The Trickle Down

The SoCon hiring a new commissioner in December 2001 resulted in Wofford naming a new head basketball coach.

When Danny Morrison left his Wofford senior vice-president position to become the SoCon commissioner, David Wood was promoted from athletic director to Morrison's vacated role on campus.

Head basketball coach Richard Johnson was then promoted to athletic director with the announcement that he would coach the Terriers just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season.

In his first official day as athletic director, Johnson made his first coaching hire. He tabbed longtime assistant Mike Young to take over the head coaching duties effective at the close of the campaign.

Morrison hired Johnson to be Wofford's basketball coach in 1985.

Football Anyone?

Wofford is the smallest school in Division I-A or I-AA football.

With 95 players on the roster and 550 males on campus, nearly one out of every five men at Wofford is on the football team. If Ohio State had the same ratio, the Buckeye football roster would have 4,233 players.

The Terriers were 8-3 this season and are the SoCon's winningest football team over the last three years with a 29-8 overall record (.784) and 18-5 league mark (.783).

Wofford is currently tied for second in the most consecutive appearances (36) in the Division I-AA Top 25 poll.

The 2003 Terrier squad (12-2-8-0) captured the SoCon championship and advanced to the national semifinals.

Terriers on the Tube

Wofford will have five regional television appearances this season:

Charity Stripe Improvements
Wofford is shooting 67.2 percent at the free-throw line this season after posting a 61.7 mark last year.

Ball Control
• Wofford has committed less turnovers than its opponent in all four games this season.
  Overall, the Terriers have just 56 turnovers (14.0 avg.) compared to 85 (21.3 avg.) for the opposition.
  • The Terriers top the SoCon in turnover margin at +7.25 per game.
Wofford has three of the top six players in the league in assist/turnover ratio: No. 4 Greg Taylor (3.5), No. 5 Byron Fields (3.25) and No. 6 Drew Gibson (3.2).
  • Wofford ranks first in the SoCon in steals per game (13.5) and has nearly twice as many thefts (54-28) as its foes in the opening four contests.
  Taylor is second individually in the SoCon in steals per game (3.5).

Countdown to 1,000
• Howard Wilkerson, in only his junior year, is on pace to conclude this season with 1,089 career points. He currently has 645.
  He would become just the 36th player in Wofford basketball history to reach the 1,000-point milestone.
• Adrien Borders also has a chance to join the 1,000-point club.
  A senior guard from Lilburn, Ga., Borders has 767 points and is on pace to conclude his career with 959.

Wins and Losses
A victory tonight would give Wofford a 3-2 record and represent the fourth time in the last five seasons that the Terriers opened a campaign with that mark.
It would also equal the Terriers' best record after five contests in 10 years of play on the Division I level.

Wilkerson receives preseason All-SoCon honor

Wofford men’s basketball standout Howard Wilkerson received preseason All-Southern Conference honors from the league’s head coaches.

A 6-foot-6 junior from Eden, N.C., Wilkerson topped the Terriers in scoring (13.8 ppg.), rebounding (8.0 rpg.), field-goal percentage (57.3) and free-throw attempts (130) in earning All-SoCon honors a year ago. He was also second on the team in assists (69), steals (38) and blocked shots (25).

Wilkerson was the only player in the SoCon to rank in the top 2 in rebounding, the top 13 in scoring and the top 5 in field-goal percentage. His 7.9655 boards per game narrowly trailed SoCon Player of the Year Zakee Wadood’s mark of 7.9696 for the league rebounding title. For SoCon games only, Wilkerson ranked first with an 8.8 rebounding average.

Wilkerson was third in the SoCon with eight double-doubles, including a 29-point, 20-rebound effort in a 99-92 win at Appalachian State. The 20 boards were the most by a Wofford player since 1979 and the highest total in the SoCon dating back to 1996. It was also just one shy of the top mark by a Division I player last season.

Waiting in the Wings

- Shane Nichols, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year while playing for Saint Peter’s College last season, has transferred to Wofford and will have three years of eligibility for the Terriers.

  Per NCAA transfer rules, Nichols will sit out the 2004-05 season.

  A 6-foot-0 guard from Radford, Va., Nichols averaged 10.6 points while connecting on 68 3-pointers and shooting 83.1 percent at the free-throw line in helping lead Saint Peter’s to a 17-12 record in the 2003-04 campaign. He started 28 of the Peacocks’ 29 games.

  Nichols’ teammate at Saint Peter’s, Keydren Clark, was the Division I national leader in scoring with a 26.7 points per game average.

- Tony Nicholson, a talented 6-foot-6 freshman forward from Alpharetta, Ga., is taking a redshirt season this year. He’ll have four years of eligibility beginning with the 2005-06 campaign.

Happy Birthday

A pair of Terriers celebrated birthdays on Monday.

Sophomore guard Eric Marshall is now 20 years old, while former player and current director of basketball operations David Eaton is 23. Eaton started 13 games last season as he concluded his playing career.

Sharing Time

All 12 players on the Wofford roster are averaging at least 9.3 minutes per game of playing time.

Common Numbers

Wofford is allowing 67.5 points per game this season with all three opponents scoring between 64 and 73 points:

- Miami: 67
- Milligan: 64
- Bluefield: 66
- Tennessee: 73

Consistency

Arena Anniversaries

Wofford is celebrating the 25th anniversary of playing its home games in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

The Terriers are 211-90 (.701) in their 3,500-seat facility that opened in January 1981.

Academics Come First

For its Nov. 29 contest at Tennessee, Wofford did not depart for the three-hour bus ride to Knoxville until 10:45 a.m. on game day so the Terrier players could attend 8:30 and 9:30 a.m. classes.

Tyler Berg scored 19 points off the bench while point guard Byron Fields had eight assists and no turnovers in Wofford's 81-76 victory over Jacksonville State tonight in Spartanburg, S.C.

Berg's 19 points were his most since scoring a career-high 23 in a 73-70 victory over Georgia Southern on Jan. 27, 2003. Fields now has 21 assists and just four turnovers in the opening five games.

Trailing 29-18, Wofford outscored Jacksonville State 23-6 over the final 7:15 of the first half to lead 41-35 at the intermission. Eric Marshall had eight of his 17 points during that run.

The Terriers (3-2) took their largest lead of the night at 70-53 on a Berg layup with 6:34 to play. Berg had three dunks in a 5:34 stretch of the second half. He was 8-of-11 from the field.

The Gamecocks (4-3) gradually chipped away at the deficit, closing to 77-72 on a Walker Russell 3-point play with 39 seconds remaining. Russell hit a running jumper and converted the subsequent free-throw. It was the only field goal of the night for Russell, Jacksonville State's leading scorer entering the game with a 20.8 points per game average. He was held to seven points on 1-of-17 shooting. He made all five of his free-throw attempts while contributing eight assists and six rebounds.

After Fields made 1-of-2 free-throws to build the Terrier lead back to 78-72, Russell missed a jumper with 32 seconds to play. Adrien Borders, who scored a season-high 15 points, hit a pair of free-throws to give Wofford an 80-72 advantage with 26 seconds remaining.

The Gamecocks were able to close within five points again only when Anthony Wilson hit a jumper with one second left to provide the final margin.

"This was a nice effort and a very good win for us," Wofford coach Mike Young said. "I continue to be impressed with how hard we play every night."

"Howard Wilkerson (the Terriers' leading scorer entering the game with an 18.5 scoring average) was slowed a little by a bad back but we had others really step up for us.

"Tyler Berg was outstanding and did a very good job of finishing plays off great feeds from our guards. We also did a tremendous job defensively on Walker Russell. I had no idea what his numbers were until the end of the game."

Sam Daniels added 12 points for Wofford as the Terriers had four players reach double figures in scoring. Freshman point guard Drew Gibson had two assists and no turnovers in 15 minutes. Combined with Fields' effort, the Wofford point guard position accounted for 10 assists with no turnovers on the night. Fields also had seven points, four rebounds and two steals.
Wilson had 16 points and a team-best eight rebounds for the Gamecocks. B.J. Spencer added 15 points.

Wofford shot 47.6 percent from the field with Jacksonville State at 39.7. The Gamecocks held a 45-42 rebounding edge.

The Terriers return to action Sunday with a 4 p.m. (Eastern) regionally-televised (CSS) contest at Auburn. The Gamecocks travel to Jackson State Saturday with an 8 p.m. (Eastern) tip.
Attached as a .pdf is the Wofford men's basketball release and updated stats for Sunday's 4 p.m. (Eastern) game at Auburn on CSS. If you have any trouble accessing this file, the complete set of notes and stats is also available on the Terriers' web site (www.wofford.edu/athletics).

2004-05 Wofford College Basketball

Dec. 5, 2004, at Auburn, Beard-Eaves Memorial Coliseum (10,500), Auburn, Ala.; 4 p.m. (Eastern)

Inside the Game

• Wofford faces the second of its four SEC opponents this season when it travels to Auburn in a regionally-televised contest on CSS.
  The Terriers dropped a 73-67 decision at Tennessee (Nov. 29) and have later dates at Georgia (Dec. 19) and South Carolina (Dec. 31).
  • Since beginning Division I play in the 1995-96 campaign, Wofford will be making its fifth appearance at Auburn in the last 10 seasons.
  Wofford's last trip to the Beard-Eaves Memorial Coliseum came in the 2002-03 season opener, an 81-63 Tiger victory. That contest also represented Mike Young's debut as the Terrier head coach.
  • Wofford's two losses (67-64 at Miami, 73-67 at Tennessee) this season are by a combined total of nine points. Both games weren't decided until the final seconds.
  In the Nov. 20 season opener against the Hurricanes, the Terriers missed a 3-pointer that would have tied the game with four seconds to play. Wofford led the Vols by six points with 3:02 remaining before Tennessee rallied. The Terriers still had an opportunity to tie the game with 14 seconds to play but missed a short jumper.
  • Wofford coach Mike Young has a 2-1 career record against Auburn coach Jeff Lebo. The Terriers defeated Chattanooga, coached by Lebo, by scores of 79-71 and 92-83 in the 2002-03 campaign.

Worth Noting

With an enrollment of 1,100, Wofford is the second-smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (850 students) is smaller. Wofford actually has a higher SAT average (1247) than enrollment (1,100).

Meet the Head Coach

Mike Young is in his 16th year at Wofford and third as head coach. He was previously a Terrier assistant for 13 seasons under former coach and now athletic director Richard Johnson.

Johnson was promoted to athletic director on Dec. 3, 2001 with the announcement that he would coach just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season. His first head coaching hire, made that same day, was the elevation of Young effective at the close of the campaign.

In his debut as a head coach in 2002-03, Young led the Terriers (14-15, 8-8) to a third-place finish in the SoCon South Division after his team was picked fifth. Highlighted by a win at Virginia Tech, Wofford equaled its most victories in eight years on the Division I level while facing a non-conference schedule that was officially ranked as the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagarin Ratings.

A native of Radford, Va., and a 1986 graduate of Emory & Henry (Va.), Young helped guide Wofford from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent status in 1995-96 and the SoCon in 1997-98.

He was honored in 2001 as America's Best Dressed Assistant Coach in a national contest conducted by www.collegeinsider.com.

Probable Starting Lineup

G Byron Fields 6-2, 170, Jr. 6.4 ppg, 2.8 rpg, 4.2 apg
G Adrien Borders 6-0, 170, Sr. 9.4 ppg, 2.6 rpg, 1.6 apg
G Eric Marshall 6-4, 185, So. 9.8 ppg, 2.0 rpg, 2.0 apg
F Howard Wilkerson 6-6, 250, Jr. 15.8 ppg, 8.0 rpg, 2.0 apg
C Sam Daniels 6-9, 240, Sr. 7.0 ppg, 4.0 rpg, 1.0 apg

The Miscellaneous

• Howard Wilkerson had 23 points and 13 rebounds in a 73-67 loss at Tennessee (Nov. 29). Wilkerson just missed another double-double with 23 points and nine boards in the Nov. 20 season opener at Miami.
  • In a seven-day span, the Terrier basketball team will have faced both schools who are playing in the SEC football championship game.
  • Wofford's last win over Auburn in any sport was a 19-14 football victory in the Terriers' 1950 season opener.
  • Carolina Panther running back and Spartanburg, S.C., native Stephen Davis might have a vested interest in the Terrier-Tiger basketball game as his hometown school (Wofford) faces his alma mater (Auburn).

Wofford sets the pace in graduation rates

Since 1997, Wofford is the only football-playing member of the SoCon to win the league’s graduation rate trophy for all student-athletes. Wofford has won the award four times.

1247 vs. 1100
Wofford College has a higher SAT average (1247) than enrollment (1100).

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

National Review's Guide to the Best Liberal Arts Colleges, "America's Top 50 Liberal Arts Schools"

About Wofford

• Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davison, Duke, Furman and Wake Forest are the others).
• Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).
• Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100 which makes it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.
• With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.
• Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force football coach Fisher DeBerry.
• Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In a recent NCAA Division I Graduation Rates Report, Wofford was the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men’s basketball and women’s basketball teams.

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson is a 1959 Wofford graduate and a former All-America wide receiver for the Terriers.
The Staff

The following is an inside look at Wofford coach Mike Young's three assistants:

• Former Terrier standout Matt Allen is in his first season as an assistant coach at his alma mater. Allen ranks 29th on Wofford's career scoring list with 1,057 points.

He was an assistant last season at Western Carolina, where he coached Sacramento Kings' first-round draft pick Kevin Martin. Allen has also had stints at Dartmouth, Campbell and Wingate.

• Dustin Kerns is in his first year with the Terriers after working with Buzz Peterson and the University of Tennessee last season. He has also been on the staffs of Tennessee Tech and Clemson.

• Jackson Payne is also in his first season at Wofford. Payne coached Terrier freshman Drew Gibson at St. Thomas More Prep School last year.

As a freshman, Payne lettered under Mike Jarvis at George Washington. He then transferred to Christian Brothers where he was a prolific 3-point shooter.

A Youthful Staff

With an average age of 31.0, the Wofford men's basketball coaching staff is the fourth youngest in the nation, ranking behind only Lehigh (29.0), Mount St. Mary's (29.0) and High Point (30.8).

Head coach Mike Young is 41 and the graybeard on the staff. Assistant coaches Matt Allen (32), Jackson Payne (27) and Dustin Kerns (24) are next in line.

Seasoned Terriers

After having just one senior on last year's roster, the 2004-05 Wofford squad features five seniors: Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Justin Stephens, Jeff Tarr and Greg Taylor.

The Fork Union Pipeline

Wofford coach Mike Young played at Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy and refers to longtime FUMA coach Fletcher Arritt as one of his coaching mentors.

Current Terriers Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson are two of six former FUMA players at Wofford during Young's 16 seasons on campus.

Schedule Difficulty

• Wofford will once again face a challenging non-conference schedule. Following a season-opening trip to Miami, the Terriers will become an honorary member of the SEC with games at Tennessee (Nov. 29), Auburn (Dec. 5), Georgia (Dec. 19) and South Carolina (Dec. 31).

• Last year's Wofford slate included road dates at Tennessee, Clemson, Texas, Vanderbilt, Dayton and Minnesota.

• The 2002-03 RPI and Sagarin Ratings ranked Wofford's non-conference schedule as the most difficult in the nation out of 327 Division I programs.

• The Terriers played at Auburn, Clemson, Virginia Tech, West Virginia, South Carolina, N.C. State and Virginia.

• In their opening 12 games in 2001-02, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, N.C. State and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina.

• The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule in 2000-01 was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson and Vanderbilt.

• According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 season, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Keeping Busy

• Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Curtis Ingram, Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson were employed as line judges and ball boys this fall at Wofford home volleyball matches in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

• While sitting out the 2002-03 season per NCAA transfer rules, Greg Taylor served as the color analyst on WSPA-Radio for a Terrier home game versus Virginia Intermont.

• Wofford guard Justin Stephens has previously been employed as operator of the computerized sound system for Terrier home football games in Gibbs Stadium. He also served as the official scorer, wearing the referee shirt, at home women's basketball games.

The Trickle Down

The SoCon hiring a new commissioner in December 2001 resulted in Wofford naming a new head basketball coach.

When Danny Morrison left his Wofford senior vice-president position to become the SoCon commissioner, David Wood was promoted from athletic director to Morrison's vacated role on campus.

Head basketball coach Richard Johnson was then promoted to athletic director with the announcement that he would coach the Terriers just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season.

In his first official day as athletic director, Johnson made his first coaching hire. He tabbed longtime assistant Mike Young to take over the head coaching duties effective at the close of the campaign.

Morrison hired Johnson to be Wofford's basketball coach in 1985.

Football Anyone?

Wofford is the smallest school in Division I-A or I-AA football.

With 95 players on the roster and 550 males on campus, nearly one out of every five men at Wofford is on the football team. If Ohio State had the same ratio, the Buckeye football roster would have 4,233 players.

The Terriers were 8-3 this season and are the SoCon's winningest football team over the last three years with a 29-8 overall record (.784) and 18-5 league mark (.783).

Wofford is currently tied for second in the most consecutive appearances (36) in the Division I-AA Top 25 poll.

The 2003 Terrier squad (12-2-8-0) captured the SoCon championship and advanced to the national semifinals.

Ball Control

- Wofford tops the SoCon in assist/turnover ratio (1.46), turnover margin (+6.6) and steals per game (12.6). The Terriers are also second in assists (19.6).
- The Terriers have committed less turnovers than their opponent in all five games this season.
- Wofford point guards Byron Fields (5.3) and Drew Gibson (3.6) rank first and fifth, respectively, in the SoCon in assist/turnover ratio.

Greg Taylor is 10th (2.3). The Terriers are the only team with two players in the top five and three in the Top 10 in that category.

- Wofford has nearly twice as many steals (63-34) as its opponent in the opening five contests. Taylor is second individually in the SoCon in steals per game (3.6).

The Surge

In its last two games, Wofford has had a combined run of 42-8 to close the first half.

Against Tennessee (Nov. 29), the Terriers outscored the Vols 19-2 over the final 4:58 to lead 37-33 at the intermission.

Wofford then outscored Jacksonville State 23-6 over the final 7:15 to lead 41-35 at the break.

The Terriers also had first-half runs of 26-5 and 20-2 versus Milligan (Nov. 22) and Bluefield (Nov. 27), respectively.

Wilkerson receives preseason All-SoCon honor

Wofford men’s basketball standout Howard Wilkerson received preseason All-SoCon Conference honors from the league’s head coaches.

A 6-foot-6 junior from Eden, N.C., Wilkerson topped the Terriers in scoring (13.8 ppg.), rebounding (8.0 rpg.), field-goal percentage (57.3) and free-throw attempts (130) in earning All-SoCon honors a year ago. He was also second on the team in assists (69), steals (38) and blocked shots (25).

Wilkerson was the only player in the SoCon to rank in the top 2 in rebounding, the top 13 in scoring and the top 5 in field-goal percentage. His 7,965 boards per game narrowly trailed SoCon Player of the Year Zakee Wadood’s mark of 7,969 for the league rebounding title. For SoCon games only, Wilkerson ranked first with an 8.8 rebounding average.

Wilkerson was third in the SoCon with eight double-doubles, including a 29-point, 20-rebound effort in a 99-92 win at Appalachian State. The 20 boards were the most by a Wofford player since 1979 and the highest total in the SoCon dating back to 1996. It was also just one shy of the top mark by a Division I player last season.

Waiting in the Wings

• Shane Nichols, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year while playing for Saint Peter’s College last season, has transferred to Wofford and will have three years of eligibility for the Terriers.

Per NCAA transfer rules, Nichols will sit out the 2004-05 season.

A 6-foot-6 guard from Radford, Va., Nichols averaged 10.6 points while connecting on 68 3-pointers and shooting 83.1 percent at the free-throw line in helping lead Saint Peter’s to a 17-12 record in the 2003-04 campaign. He started 28 of the Peacocks’ 29 games.

Nichols’ teammate at Saint Peter’s, Keydren Clark, was the Division I national leader in scoring with a 26.7 points per game average.

• Tony Nicholson, a talented 6-foot-6 freshman forward from Alpharetta, Ga., is taking a redshirt season this year. He’ll have four years of eligibility beginning with the 2005-06 campaign.

Countdown to 1,000

• Howard Wilkerson, in only his junior year, is on pace to conclude this season with 1,013 career points. He currently has 650.

He would become just the 36th player in Wofford basketball history to reach the 1,000-point mark.

• Adrien Borders also has a chance to join the 1,000-point club.

A senior guard from Lilburn, Ga., Borders has 782 points and is on pace to conclude his career with 998.

Academics Come First

For its Nov. 29 contest at Tennessee, Wofford did not depart for the three-hour bus ride to Knoxville until 10:45 a.m. on game day so the Terrier players could attend 8:30 and 9:30 a.m. classes.

Wins and Losses

A victory over Auburn would give Wofford a 4-2 record and its best start in 10 years of Division I play.

The Terriers are 3-2 for the fourth time in the last five campaigns, equaling their best start to a season on the Division I level.

Consistency

Wofford has featured the same starting lineup in each game this season:

Arena Anniversaries

Wofford is celebrating the 25th anniversary of playing its home games in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

The Terriers are 212-90 (.702) in their 3,500-seat facility that opened in January 1981.

Scoreboard Watch

Wofford places second in the SoCon in scoring margin (+9.2) and third in scoring offense (78.4 points per game).

Sharing Time

All 12 players on the Wofford roster are averaging at least 9.3 minutes per game of playing time.

Wofford forward Howard Wilkerson has been named the co-SoCon Player of the Week for all games played to this point in the season.

Wilkerson shares the honor with Davidson guard/forward Brendan Winters.

Wilkerson is averaging a team-best 16.3 points and 8.0 rebounds in the opening six games as Wofford (4-2) is off to its best start in 10 seasons of Division I play.

A junior from Eden, N.C., Wilkerson is the only player in the SoCon to rank in the top five in scoring (16.3 ppg) and rebounding (8.0 rpg). He's also among the league leaders with a 53.4 field-goal percentage.

Wilkerson had 19 points (8-of-11 from the field), eight rebounds, five assists and a blocked shot in Sunday's 85-78 win at Auburn. He posted a double-double with 23 points and 13 boards in a 73-67 loss at Tennessee (Nov. 29), a game the Terriers led by six points with 3:02 to play.

Wilkerson also had 23 points and nine rebounds in a 67-64 defeat at Miami (Fla.). He has per game marks of 21.7 points and 10.0 rebounds in three contests against SEC and ACC competition.

A 2003-04 All-SoCon selection and an All-League pick by the coaches this preseason, Wilkerson ranks fourth on the Terriers in assists (15) and steals (7). He also tops the team in free-throws made (18) and attempted (27).
With a victory over Auburn and near wins at Miami (Fla.) and Tennessee, the Wofford men's basketball team is listed among "others receiving votes" in the latest Mid-Major Poll by CollegeInsider.com.

The Terriers (4-2), off to their best start in 10 seasons of Division I play, return to action tomorrow at 7 p.m. versus Toccoa Falls. Wofford is also home Saturday when SoCon play begins with a 7 p.m. contest versus Appalachian State.

Gonzaga is ranked first in the Mid-Major Poll with Creighton, Southern Illinois, Pepperdine and Pacific rounding out the top five. Utah State, Wichita State, Wisconsin-Milwaukee, St. Mary's (Calif.) and Central Florida complete the Top 10.

The voting panels consists of 31 coaches from mid-major programs. The Terriers received a total of 11 votes in the Dec. 6 poll, giving them a ranking of No. 46 based on total votes received.

The Mid-Major Poll is comprised of teams from the following conferences: America East, Atlantic Sun, Big Sky, Big South, Big West, Colonial, Horizon, Independents, Ivy, Metro Atlantic, Mid-American, Mid-Continent, Mid-Eastern, Missouri Valley, Northeast, Ohio Valley, Patriot, Southern, Southland, Southwestern, Sun Belt and West Coast.

The complete poll can be found at: http://www.collegeinsider.com/mmpoll/.
The Wofford men's basketball team has announced the signing of 6-foot-3 guard Matt Estep (Ruppert, W.Va.) to a National Letter-of-Intent.

Estep is playing at Hargrave (Va.) Military Academy this season.

Coached by Jerry Bradley at Greenbrier East (W.Va.) High School, Estep was a two-time first-team Class AAA All-State selection. He placed third in voting for the 2004 West Virginia Player of the Year.

Estep averaged 22.6 points while shooting 44.8 percent (95-of-212) from 3-point range. He hit 78.2 percent of his free-throw attempts and had per game marks of 4.1 rebounds, 3.4 assists and 1.5 steals.

"Matt is the type of player we have looked for since I came to Wofford in 1989," Terrier coach Mike Young said. "He is bright and fits our school academically.

"Matt possesses very good athleticism and can shoot the basketball extremely well. We think he has a chance to be a really nice player for us."

Estep was the Most Valuable Player of the 2004 West Virginia-Ohio Basketball All-Star Game. He holds the Greenbrier East career record for 3-pointers. Along with former NBA player Bimbo Coles, Estep is one of just three student-athletes in school history to reach the 1,000-career points milestone. Estep totaled 1,384 points.

Estep was a Greenbrier Scholar with a 3.9 grade-point average.
Adam Sheehan scored a career-high 15 points on 5-of-6 shooting from 3-point range in Wofford's 99-44 victory over Toccoa Falls tonight in Spartanburg, S.C.

A sophomore from Columbia, S.C., Sheehan surpassed his career scoring total of 12 points entering the game. Sheehan hit all five of his treys in a 3:36 stretch of the second half. He had only two career 3-pointers prior to tonight.

The Terriers (5-2) extended their non-conference home winning streak to 14 games, second-longest in the SoCon.

Wofford scored the opening six points as it led throughout the contest in prepping for Saturday's 7 p.m. SoCon opener at home vs. Appalachian State.

"We did what we needed to do heading into league play," Wofford coach Mike Young said. "We continue to play as a team and be very unselfish.

"We had an opportunity to get better or worse tonight. Due to our experience (the Terriers have five seniors) and maturity, we got better tonight."

Adrien Borders, after scoring a season-high 21 points in Sunday's 85-78 win at Auburn, scored all 18 of his points in 10 first-half minutes as the Terriers built a 49-22 lead at the intermission.

Sam Daniels contributed 14 points and seven rebounds to go with four assists, three of which led to Sheehan 3-pointers. Justin Stephens scored all eight of his points in a 56-second stretch. He also recorded a team-best five steals.

After shooting a season-high 53.6 percent in the victory at Auburn, Wofford topped that mark with a 55.4 effort tonight.

Toccoa Falls (6-5), which shot just 30.2 percent, was led by Jason Shaffer's 13 points. Tommy Penland added 10 points.

Howard Wilkerson and Tyler Berg topped Wofford with eight rebounds as the Terriers held a 49-28 edge on the boards.
The Wofford men's basketball team is ranked second in the SoCon and 78th out of 332 Division I teams in the Dec. 10 Sagarin Ratings.

With a 5-2 record that includes an 85-78 victory at Auburn, Wofford is off to its best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level. The Terriers' two losses were 67-64 and 73-67 decisions at Miami (Fla.) and Tennessee, respectively.

Wofford ranks ahead of ACC members Miami (98) and Virginia Tech (101) as well as Auburn (82), Vanderbilt (85), Tennessee (89), Georgia (142), LSU (158) and Ole Miss (162) of the SEC.

The Terriers are also above such traditional powers as Notre Dame (91), Colorado (100), Michigan (121), Stanford (125), UCLA (151), Indiana (168) and Missouri (208).

Included below are the Sagarin Ratings for Southern Conference teams:

76. Chattanooga
78. Wofford
148. College of Charleston
152. UNC Greensboro
171. Appalachian State
212. Furman

2004-05 Wofford College Basketball

Dec. 11, 2004, vs. Appalachian State, Benjamin Johnson Arena (3,500), Spartanburg, S.C.; 7 p.m.

Inside the Game

• The Wofford basketball team opens its eighth season in the SoCon when it hosts Appalachian State at 7 p.m.

Behind 29 points and 20 rebounds from Howard Wilkerson, the Terriers took a 99-92 overtime win over the Mountaineers last year in Boone, N.C.

Since beginning SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign, Wofford has a 2-5 record versus Appalachian State. Overall, the Mountaineers hold a 16-7 edge in the series that began in the 1957-58 season.

• With a 5-2 record, including an 85-78 win Sunday at Auburn, the Terriers are off to their best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level. It's also Wofford's top mark after seven games since a 6-1 record in 1993-94, the last time the Terriers advanced to postseason play.

• Wofford's two losses (67-64 at Miami, 73-67 at Tennessee) this season are by a combined total of nine points. Both games weren't decided until the final seconds.

In the Nov. 20 season opener against the Hurricanes, the Terriers missed a 3-pointer that would have tied the game with four seconds to play. Wofford led the Vols by six points with 3:02 remaining before Tennessee rallied. The Terriers still had an opportunity to tie the game with 14 seconds left.

Worth Noting

With an enrollment of 1,100, Wofford is the second-smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (850 students) is smaller. Wofford actually has a higher SAT average (1247) than enrollment (1,100).

Meet the Head Coach

Mike Young is in his 10th year at Wofford and third as head coach. He was previously a Terrier assistant for 13 seasons under former coach and now athletic director Richard Johnson.

Johnson was promoted to athletic director on Dec. 3, 2001 with the announcement that he would coach just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season. His first head coaching hire, made that same day, was the elevation of Young effective at the close of the campaign.

In his debut as a head coach in 2002-03, Young led the Terriers (14-15, 8-8) to a third-place finish in the SoCon South Division after his team was picked fifth. Highlighted by a win at Virginia Tech, Wofford equaled its most victories in eight years on the Division I level while facing a non-conference schedule that was officially ranked as the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagarin Ratings.

A native of Radford, Va., and a 1986 graduate of Emory & Henry (Va.), Young helped guide Wofford from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent status in 1993-96 and the SoCon in 1997-98.

He was honored in 2001 as America's Best Dressed Assistant Coach in a national contest conducted by www.collegeinsider.com.

Probable Starting Lineup

G Byron Fields 6-2, 170, Jr. 6.0 ppg, 2.9 rpg, 4.1 apg
G Adrien Borders 6-0, 170, Sr. 12.3 ppg, 2.4 rpg, 2.3 apg
G Eric Marshall 6-4, 185, So. 9.0 ppg, 1.9 rpg, 1.7 apg
F Howard Wilkerson 6-6, 250, Jr. 14.7 ppg, 8.0 rpg, 2.4 apg
C Sam Daniels 6-9, 240, Sr. 8.6 ppg, 4.9 rpg, 1.3 apg

The Miscellaneous

• Howard Wilkerson is the reigning SoCon Player of the Week. In three games against ACC and SEC competition this season, he's averaged 21.7 points and 10.0 rebounds.

• Wofford tops the SoCon in scoring offense (82.3 ppg), assists (20.6 per game), steals (12.1 per game) and assist/turnover ratio (1.43). The Terriers are second in scoring margin (+15.4), field-goal percentage (48.0), 3-pointers per game (41.3), 3-point percentage defense (31.1) and turnover margin (+4.57).

• Dating back to November 2001, Wofford has won 19 of its last 20 games when scoring at least 80 points.

Meet the Head Coach
Wofford sets the pace in graduation rates

Since 1997, Wofford is the only football-playing member of the SoCon to win the league’s graduation rate trophy for all student-athletes. Wofford has won the award four times.

---

About Wofford

- Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman and Wake Forest are the others).
- Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).
- Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100 which makes it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.
- With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.
- Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force football coach Fisher DeBerry.
- Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in “operating efficiency,” providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

---

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

National Review's Guide to the Best Liberal Arts Colleges, "America's Top 50 Liberal Arts Schools"

---

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson is a 1959 Wofford graduate and a former All-America wide receiver for the Terriers.
The Staff

The following is an inside look at Wofford coach Mike Young's three assistants:

- Former Terrier standout Matt Allen is in his first season as an assistant coach at his alma mater. Allen ranks 29th on Wofford's career scoring list with 1,057 points.

- He was an assistant last season at Western Carolina, where he coached Sacramento Kings' first-round draft pick Kevin Martin.

- Allen has also had stints at Dartmouth, Campbell and Wingate.

- Dustin Kerns is in his first year with the Terriers after working with Buzz Peterson and the University of Tennessee last season.

- Jackson Payne is also in his first season at Wofford. Payne coached Terrier freshman Drew Gibson at St. Thomas More Prep School last year.

- As a freshman, Payne lettered under Mike Jarvis at George Washington. He then transferred to Christian Brothers where he was a prolific 3-point shooter.

A Youthful Staff

With an average age of 31.0, the Wofford men's basketball coaching staff is the fourth youngest in the nation, ranking behind only Lehigh (29.0), Mount St. Mary's (29.0) and High Point (30.8).

- Head coach Mike Young is 41 and the graybeard on the staff. Assistant coaches Matt Allen (32), Jackson Payne (27) and Dustin Kerns (24) are next in line.

Seasoned Terriers

After having just one senior on last year's roster, the 2004-05 Wofford squad features five seniors: Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Justin Stephens, Jeff Tarr and Greg Taylor.

The Fork Union Pipeline

Wofford coach Mike Young played at Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy and refers to longtime FUMA coach Fletcher Arritt as one of his coaching mentors.

Current Terriers Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson are two of six former FUMA players at Wofford during Young's 16 seasons on campus.

Schedule Difficulty

- Wofford will once again face a challenging non-conference schedule. Following a season-opening trip to Miami, the Terriers will become an honorary member of the SEC with games at Tennessee (Nov. 29), Auburn (Dec. 5), Georgia (Dec. 19) and South Carolina (Dec. 31).

- Last year's Wofford slate included road dates at Tennessee, Clemson, Texas, Vanderbilt, Dayton and Minnesota.

- The 2002-03 RPI and Sagarin Ratings ranked Wofford's non-conference schedule as the most difficult in the nation out of 327 Division I programs.

- The Terriers played at Auburn, Clemson, Virginia Tech, West Virginia, South Carolina, N.C. State and Virginia.

- In their opening 12 games in 2001-02, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, N.C. State and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina.

- The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule in 2000-01 was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson and Vanderbilt.

- Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

- According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 season, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Keeping Busy

- Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Curtis Ingram, Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson were employed as line judges and ball boys this fall at Wofford home volleyball matches in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

- While sitting out the 2002-03 season per NCAA transfer rules, Greg Taylor served as the color analyst on WSPA-Radio for a Terrier home game versus Virginia Intermont.

- Wofford guard Justin Stephens has previously been employed as operator of the computerized sound system for Terrier home football games in Gibbs Stadium. He also served as the official scorer, wearing the referee shirt, at home women's basketball games.

The Trickle Down

The SoCon hiring a new commissioner in December 2001 resulted in Wofford naming a new head basketball coach.

- When Danny Morrison left his Wofford senior vice-president position to become the SoCon commissioner, David Wood was promoted from athletic director to Morrison's vacated role on campus.

- Head basketball coach Richard Johnson was then promoted to athletic director with the announcement that he would coach the Terriers just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season.

- In his first official day as athletic director, Johnson made his first coaching hire. He tabbed longtime assistant Mike Young to take over the head coaching duties effective at the close of the campaign.

- Morrison hired Johnson to be Wofford's basketball coach in 1985.

Football Anyone?

Wofford is the smallest school in Division I-A or I-AA football.

- With 95 players on the roster and 550 males on campus, nearly one out of every five men at Wofford is on the football team. If Ohio State had the same ratio, the Buckeye football roster would have 4,233 players.

- The Terriers were 8-3 this season and are the SoCon’s winningest football team over the last three years with a 29-8 overall record (.784) and 18-5 league mark (.783).

- Wofford is currently tied for second in the most consecutive appearances (36) in the Division I-AA Top 25 poll.

- The 2003 Terrier squad (12-2-8-0) captured the SoCon championship and advanced to the national semifinals.

The Surge

Wofford has made a habit of posting big runs to close the first half of games this season. In each case, the Terriers were trailing at the time of their spurt.

The Terriers also had first-half runs of 26-5 and 20-2 in wins last month over Milligan (Nov. 22) and Bluefield (Nov. 27), respectively. Wednesday, Wofford had a 30-8 first-half spurt versus Toccoa Falls.

SoCon Openers

The Terriers have a 4-3 record in their previous seven Southern Conference openers.
Adrien Borders and Howard Wilkerson are looking to become the 36th and 37th players in Wofford history to reach the 1,000-career points milestone.

The projected total for Borders, a senior guard, would place him 28th on the Terriers’ career scoring chart. Wilkerson is in his junior season.

Wilkerson named SoCon POTW

Wofford forward Howard Wilkerson has been named the co-SoCon Player of the Week for all games played through Dec. 7. He shares the honor with Davidson guard Brendan Winters.

Also a preseason All-SoCon selection by the league’s head coaches, Wilkerson averaged a team-best 16.3 points and 8.0 rebounds in the opening six games as Wofford (4-2) was off to its best start in 10 seasons of Division I play.

A junior from Eden, N.C., Wilkerson was the only player in the SoCon to rank in the top five in scoring (16.3 ppg) and rebounding (8.0 rpg). He was also among the league leaders with a 53.4 field-goal percentage.

Wilkerson had 19 points (8-of-11 from the field), eight rebounds, five assists and a blocked shot in the 85-78 win at Auburn (Dec. 5). He posted a double-double with 23 points and 13 boards in a 73-67 loss at Tennessee (Nov. 29), a game the Terriers led by six points with 3:02 to play.

Wilkerson also had 23 points and nine rebounds in a 67-64 defeat at Miami (Fla.). He had per game marks of 21.7 points and 10.0 rebounds in three contests against SEC and ACC competition.

Countdown to 1,000

Adrien Borders and Howard Wilkerson are looking to become the 36th and 37th players in Wofford history to reach the 1,000-career points milestone.

The projected total for Borders, a senior guard, would place him 28th on the Terriers’ career scoring chart. Wilkerson is in his junior season.

Shutting Down the Opposition

Arena Anniversaries

Wofford is celebrating the 25th anniversary of playing its home games in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

The Terriers are 213-90 (.703) in their 3,500-seat facility that opened in January 1981.

For its Nov. 29 contest at Tennessee, Wofford did not depart for the three-hour bus ride to Knoxville until 10:45 a.m. on game day so the Terrier players could attend 8:30 and 9:30 a.m. classes.

Wins and Losses

With a 5-2 record, Wofford is off to its best start in 10 years of Division I play.

The Terriers are also enjoying their best opening to a season since a 6-1 record after seven games in 1993-94. That team eventually posted a 13-1 mark en route to Wofford’s last postseason appearance, a trip to the 1994 NCAA Division II Tournament.

Consistency

Wofford has featured the same starting lineup in each game this season: Byron Fields, Adrien Borders, Eric Marshall, Howard Wilkerson and Sam Daniels.

Waiting in the Wings

Shane Nichols, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year while playing for Saint Peter’s College last season, has transferred to Wofford and will have three years of eligibility for the Terriers.

Per NCAA transfer rules, Nichols will sit out the 2004-05 season.

A 6-foot-0 guard from Radford, Va., Nichols averaged 10.6 points while connecting on 68 3-pointers and shooting 53.1 percent at the free-throw line in helping lead Saint Peter’s to a 17-12 record in the 2003-04 campaign. He started 28 of the Peacocks’ 29 games.

Nichols’ teammate at Saint Peter’s, Keydren Clark, was the Division I scoring leader with a 26.7 points per game average.

Tony Nicholson, a 6-foot-6 freshman is taking a redshirt season this year. He’ll have four years of eligibility remaining.

Howard Wilkerson had 19 points and 12 rebounds while Adrien Borders added 14 points to lead Wofford to a 75-66 victory over Appalachian State in the Southern Conference opener for both teams tonight in Spartanburg, S.C.

Wilkerson posted his second double-double of the season. He had 23 points and 13 boards last month at Tennessee.

The Terriers (6-2, 1-0), in winning their fourth straight game, are off to their best start in 10 seasons of play on the Division I level. It's the best overall start for Wofford since the 1993-94 Division II team opened 7-1.

Appalachian State (4-3, 0-1) hit 10 of its opening 14 shots to take a 26-16 lead on a Herbert Jones dunk with 9:10 to play in the first half. Wofford then countered with a 20-7 run, keyed by seven points from freshman point guard Drew Gibson, to take a 36-33 lead with 2:49 remaining before the break. The spurt was capped by a Borders steal and layup.

The Mountaineers then scored the next six points to lead 39-36 at the intermission.

The lead switched hands several times in the opening minutes of the second half before the Mountaineers went on top for the final time at 46-45 when Clint Deas grabbed an offensive rebound and scored on the putback with 16:03 to play.

The Terriers then scored the nine points to take control of the game. Byron Fields began the run with consecutive layups. Greg Taylor, who had six steals, then converted a dunk off an alley-oop pass from Justin Stephens. The 9-0 run was capped by a Wilkerson 3-point play as he scored underneath, was fouled and made the free-throw to give Wofford a 54-46 lead with 12:35 remaining.

The Mountaineers closed to within five points, 58-53, on a D.J. Thompson 3-pointer with 8:36 left, but that would be as close as they would get the remainder of the contest.

"This was a great win for the Terriers," Wofford coach Mike Young said. "The crowd (2,786) was outstanding and I thought we fed off of them.

"(Appalachian State coach) Houston (Fancher) did a great job of zoning us in the first half. We attacked the zone in the second half and that helped us get the win.

"Our guys have a tough week ahead of them with final exams. We'll squeeze in some practice and be ready for Charleston Southern (next Saturday)."

Gibson, a Los Angeles, Calif., native, finished with nine points off the bench. Borders had a season-best seven rebounds, one shy of a career-high, as Wofford held a 36-26 rebounding edge. Borders was 6-of-8 from the field.
The Terriers shot 50.9 percent, their third straight game of at least 50.0 percent, while the Mountaineers were at 46.2 percent.

"We talked about maintaining our focus and we didn't do that," Fancher said. "Credit Wofford. They made some big shots."

Thompson led the Mountaineers with 12 points, seven assists, five rebounds and three steals. Douglass McLaughlin-Williams contributed 10 points and a team-best six boards in a reserve role.

Due to final exams beginning Monday, Wofford is off until next Saturday when it travels to Charleston Southern for a 4 p.m. game. Appalachian State also returns to action next Saturday when it hosts Milligan at 7:30 p.m.
Based on number of votes received, the Wofford men's basketball team is No. 28 in this week's Mid-Major Top 25 by CollegeInsider.com.

Wofford received 47 votes and is the highest-ranking SoCon team in the Mid-Major poll.

Highlighted by an 85-78 win at Auburn (Dec. 5), the Terriers (6-2, 1-0) are off to their best start in 10 seasons of play on the Division I level. Overall, it's Wofford's best record after eight games since the 1993-94 team opened 7-1 en route to a 21-6 mark and the Terriers' last postseason appearance (NCAA Division II Tournament).

The Terriers are in final exams this week before returning to action Saturday and Sunday with road games at Charleston Southern and Georgia, respectively. The Georgia game will be televised regionally on CSS.

Included below is this week's Mid-Major Top 25 (first-place votes in parentheses) followed by points received.

Wofford men's basketball standout Howard Wilkerson has been named the SoCon Player of the Week for the second straight week.

A 6-foot-6, 250-pound junior from Eden, N.C., Wilkerson is the first Terrier to receive back-to-back Player of the Week honors since Wofford began SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign.

Wilkerson now has a Wofford record of three career SoCon Player of the Week awards. Ian Chadwick (1997-01) and Mike Lenzly (1999-03) received the honor twice.

Wilkerson posted his second double-double of the season when he totaled 19 points and 12 rebounds in Saturday's 75-66 victory over Appalachian State. He also had two assists, two steals and no turnovers in 34 minutes.

Wilkerson has helped lead Wofford (6-2, 1-0) to its best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level.

The Terriers return to action Saturday with a 4 p.m. game at Charleston Southern. Wofford is also at Georgia Sunday. Tip-off is 3 p.m. in Athens for the regionally-televised contest on CSS.
The Wofford men's basketball team is ranked in the top five nationally in steals and assists per game in the latest Division I statistics released by the NCAA.

The Terriers are fourth in steals per game (12.9) and fifth in assists (20.1).

Individually, senior guard Greg Taylor comes off the bench to top the SoCon while placing 14th nationally with 3.3 steals per game. He had six in 25 minutes in Saturday's 75-66 win over Appalachian State.

Wofford is 27th nationally with its SoCon-leading average of 81.4 points per game. The Terriers are also 33rd in 3-pointers each contest (8.5), 34th in scoring margin (14.6) and 44th in field-goal percentage with a 48.3 mark that tops the SoCon.

Keyed by an 85-78 win at Auburn, Wofford (6-2, 1-0) is off to its best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level. The Terriers' two losses, road games at Miami (67-64) and Tennessee (73-67), are by a combined total of just nine points. In both contests, Wofford had the ball in the final seconds with an opportunity to force overtime.

The Terriers return to action Saturday with a 4 p.m. game at Charleston Southern. Wofford is also at Georgia Sunday in a 3 p.m. regionally-televised (CSS) contest from Athens.
Wofford sophomore guard Adam Sheehan has been named the TIAA-CREF SoCon Student-Athlete of the Week for Dec. 15.

Sheehan scored a career-high 15 points, connecting on five-of-six 3-pointers, in the Terriers’ 99-44 win over Toccoa Falls (Dec. 8). His five treys came in a span of just 3:36. The Columbia, S.C. (Cardinal-Newman High School), native also added an assist, a rebound and steal with no turnovers in 12 minutes of action.

In the classroom, Sheehan carries a 3.49 grade-point average.
Attached is a .pdf of Wofford's basketball release for Saturday's 4 p.m. game at Charleston Southern. The Terriers also play at Georgia Sunday at 3 p.m. on CSS. Updated notes for that game will be e-mailed late Saturday night/early Sunday morning. If you have any trouble with this file, the complete set of notes and stats is also available on the Terriers' web site (www.wofford.edu/athletics).

2004-05 Wofford College Basketball

Dec. 18, 2004, at Charleston Southern, CSU Fieldhouse (1,500), North Charleston, S.C.; 4 p.m.

Inside the Game
• Following a week off for final exams, the Wofford basketball team returns to action Saturday and Sunday with back-to-back road games at Charleston Southern and Georgia, respectively.

Wofford defeated the Buccaneers, 79-73, in overtime last season in Spartanburg. Adrien Borders had 14 points to lead five Terriers in double figures.

Wofford led by 18 points with 8:24 to play and by 10 with 3:21 left before the Buccaneers rallied to force the extra period. After Charleston Southern took a 69-66 lead 10 seconds into overtime, back-to-back jumpers by Greg Taylor gave the Terriers a 70-69 advantage and began a 10-0 Terrier run.

• Last year’s game marked the first time Wofford and Charleston Southern had met on the hardwood since the 1980-81 season. The Buccaneers lead 9-7 in the all-time series that began in the 1968-69 campaign when Charleston Southern was known as Baptist College.

• With SoCon dates at College of Charleston (Jan. 8) and The Citadel (Jan. 31), Wofford is making the first of three trips to Charleston this season.

• With a 3 p.m. tip at Georgia on Sunday, the Terriers’ only two games in a 19-day stretch will occur in the span of 23 hours.

Worth Noting
With an enrollment of 1,100, Wofford is the second-smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (850 students) is smaller. Wofford actually has a higher SAT average (1247) than enrollment (1,100).

Meet the Head Coach
Mike Young is in his 16th year at Wofford and third as head coach. He was previously a Terrier assistant for 13 seasons under former coach and now athletic director Richard Johnson.

Johnson was promoted to athletic director on Dec. 3, 2001 with the announcement that he would coach just through the remainder of the campaign when Charleston Southern was known as Baptist College.

• With SoCon dates at College of Charleston (Jan. 8) and The Citadel (Jan. 31), Wofford is making the first of three trips to Charleston this season.

• With a 3 p.m. tip at Georgia on Sunday, the Terriers’ only two games in a 19-day stretch will occur in the span of 23 hours.

Probable Starting Lineup
G Byron Fields 6-2, 170, Jr. 6.3 ppg, 2.9 rpg, 4.1 apg
G Adrien Borders 6-0, 170, Sr. 12.5 ppg, 3.0 rpg, 2.5 apg
G Eric Marshall 6-4, 185, So. 8.9 ppg, 2.0 rpg, 1.5 apg
F Howard Wilkerson 6-6, 250, Jr. 15.3 ppg, 8.5 rpg, 2.4 apg
C Sam Daniels 6-9, 240, Sr. 8.5 ppg, 4.3 rpg, 1.1 apg

Terrier Tidbits
• With a 6-2 record, including an 85-78 win at Auburn, the Terriers are off to their best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level. Overall, it’s Wofford’s top mark after eight games since a 7-1 record in 1993-94 -- the last time the Terriers advanced to postseason play (NCAA Division II Tournament).

• Wofford’s two losses (67-64 at Miami, 73-67 at Tennessee) this season are by a combined total of nine points. Both games weren’t decided until the final seconds.

• Terrier forward Howard Wilkerson has received SoCon Player of the Week honors in each of the last two weeks.

Wofford sets the pace in graduation rates
Since 1997, Wofford is the only football-playing member of the SoCon to win the league's graduation rate trophy for all student-athletes. Wofford has won the award four times.

About Wofford
• Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman and Wake Forest are the others).
• Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).
• Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100 which makes it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.
• With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.
• Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force football coach Fisher DeBerry.
• Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

1247 vs. 1100
Wofford College has a higher SAT average (1247) than enrollment (1100).

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

National Review's Guide to the Best Liberal Arts Colleges, "America's Top 50 Liberal Arts Schools"

Sheehan receives SoCon Student-Athlete Award
Wofford sophomore guard Adam Sheehan has been named the TIAA-CREF SoCon Student-Athlete of the Week for Dec. 15.

Sheehan scored a career-high 15 points, connecting on five-of-six 3-pointers, in the Terriers' 99-44 win over Toccoa Falls (Dec. 8). His five treys came in a span of just 3:36. The Columbia, S.C., native also added an assist, a rebound and steal with no turnovers in 12 minutes of action.

Sheehan carries a 3.49 grade-point average.

Wofford and the NFL
Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson is a 1959 Wofford graduate and a former All-America wide receiver for the Terriers.
The Staff
The following is an inside look at Wofford coach Mike Young’s three assistants:

- Former Terrier standout Matt Allen is in his first season as an assistant coach at his alma mater. Allen ranks 29th on Wofford’s career scoring list with 1,057 points.
  - He was an assistant last season at Western Carolina, where he coached Sacramento Kings’ first-round draft pick Kevin Martin.
  - Allen has also had stints at Dartmouth, Campbell and Wingate.

- Dustin Kerns is in his first year with the Terriers after working with Buzz Peterson and the University of Tennessee last season. He has also been on the staffs of Tennessee Tech and Clemson.

- Jackson Payne is also in his first season at Wofford. Payne coached Terrier freshman Drew Gibson at St. Thomas More Prep School last year.
  - As a freshman, Payne lettered under Mike Jarvis at George Washington. He then transferred to Christian Brothers where he was a prolific 3-point shooter.

A Youthful Staff
With an average age of 31.0, the Wofford men's basketball coaching staff is the fourth youngest in the nation, ranking behind only Lehigh (29.0), Mount St. Mary's (29.0) and High Point (30.8).

Head coach Mike Young is 41 and the graybeard on the staff. Assistant coaches Matt Allen (32), Jackson Payne (27) and Dustin Kerns (24) are next in line.

Seasoned Terriers
After having just one senior on last year’s roster, the 2004-05 Wofford squad features five seniors: Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Justin Stephens, Jeff Tarr and Greg Taylor.

The Fork Union Pipeline
Wofford coach Mike Young played at Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy and refers to longtime FUMA coach Fletcher Arritt as one of his coaching mentors.

Current Terriers Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson are two of six former FUMA players at Wofford during Young’s 16 seasons on campus.

Schedule Difficulty
- Wofford is once again face a challenging non-conference schedule. Following a season-opening trip to Miami, the Terriers become an honorary member of the SEC with games at Tennessee (Nov. 29), Auburn (Dec. 5), Georgia (Dec. 19) and South Carolina (Dec. 31).
  - Last year’s Wofford slate included road dates at Tennessee, Clemson, Texas, Vanderbilt, Dayton and Minnesota.
  - The 2002-03 RPI and Sagarin Ratings ranked Wofford’s non-conference schedule as the most difficult in the nation out of 327 Division I programs.
  - The Terriers played at Auburn, Clemson, Virginia Tech, West Virginia, South Carolina, N.C. State and Virginia.
  - In their opening 12 games in 2001-02, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, N.C. State and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina.
  - The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford’s pre-Christmas schedule in 2000-01 was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson and Vanderbilt.
  - Wofford was also home for William & Mary.
  - According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 season, Wofford played the nation’s third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Keeping Busy
- Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Curtis Ingram, Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson were employed as line judges and ball boys this fall at Wofford home volleyball matches in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.
  - While sitting out the 2002-03 season per NCAA transfer rules, Greg Taylor served as the color analyst on WSPA-Radio for a Terrier home game versus Virginia Intermont.
  - Wofford guard Justin Stephens has previously been employed as operator of the computerized sound system for Terrier home football games in Gibbs Stadium. He also served as the official scorer, wearing the referee shirt, at home women’s basketball games.

The Trickle Down
The SoCon hiring a new commissioner in December 2001 resulted in Wofford naming a new head basketball coach.

When Danny Morrison left his Wofford senior vice-president position to become the SoCon commissioner, David Wood was promoted from athletic director to Morrison’s vacated role on campus.

Head basketball coach Richard Johnson was then promoted to athletic director with the announcement that he would coach the Terriers just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season.

In his first official day as athletic director, Johnson made his first coaching hire. He tabbed longtime assistant Mike Young to take over the head coaching duties effective at the close of the campaign.

Morrison hired Johnson to be Wofford’s basketball coach in 1985.

Football Anyone?
Wofford is the smallest school in Division I-A or I-AA football.

With 95 players on the roster and 550 males on campus, nearly one out of every five men at Wofford is on the football team. If Ohio State had the same ratio, the Buckeye football roster would have 4,233 players.

The Terriers were 8-3this season and are the SoCon’s winningest football team over the last three years with a 29-8 overall record (.784) and 18-5 league mark (.783).

Wofford is currently tied for second in the most consecutive appearances (36) in the Division I-AA Top 25 poll.

The 2003 Terrier squad (12-2-8-0) captured the SoCon championship and advanced to the national semifinals.

Countdown to 1,000

Adrien Borders and Howard Wilkerson are looking to become the 36th and 37th players in Wofford history to reach the 1,000-career points milestone.

The projected total for Borders, a senior guard, would place him 28th on the Terriers’ career scoring chart. Wilkerson is in his junior season.

Wilkerson named SoCon POTW (again)

Wofford men’s basketball standout Howard Wilkerson has been named the SoCon Player of the Week for the second straight week (Dec. 14).

A 6-foot-6, 250-pound junior from Eden, N.C., Wilkerson is the first Terrier to receive back-to-back Player of the Week honors since Wofford began SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign.

Wilkerson now has a Wofford record of three career SoCon Player of the Week awards.

AdrienBorders (Tennessee, Nov. 29) and Keydren Clark (Tennessee, Nov. 29) received the honor twice.

Wilkerson posted his second double-double of the season when he totaled 19 points and 12 rebounds in a 75-66 victory over Appalachian State (Dec. 11). He also had two assists, two steals and no turnovers in 34 minutes.

Wilkerson also received SoCon Player of the Week honors on Dec. 1 for all games played to that point in the season. He averaged 16.3 points and 8.0 rebounds in the opening six contests, including 19 points and eight rebounds in the 85-78 win at Auburn (Dec. 5).

Waiting in the Wings

Shane Nichols, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year while playing for Saint Peter’s College last season, transferred to Wofford and will have three years of eligibility for the Terriers.

Per NCAA transfer rules, Nichols will sit out the 2004-05 season.

A 6-foot-0 guard from Radford, Va., Nichols averaged 10.6 points while connecting on 68 3-pointers in helping lead Saint Peter’s to a 17-12 record in the 2003-04 campaign. He started 28 of the Peacocks’ 29 games.

Nichols’ teammate at Saint Peter’s, Tony Nicholson, a 6-foot-6 freshman is taking a redshirt season this year. He’ll have four years of eligibility remaining.

Shulman a Former Terrier
First-year Chattanooga head coach John Shulman began his collegiate coaching career at Wofford and served two stints with the Terriers.

Shulman and Wofford coach Mike Young were first-year Terrier assistants under former coach and now athletic director Richard Johnson in the 1989-90 campaign.

Shulman then returned to Wofford for two seasons (1996-98) to serve another tenure with Young and Johnson.

Shulman was on the Terrier bench in Wofford's first-ever SoCon game, a 1997-98 contest at Chattanooga.

The Good Luck Charm
Matt Allen has a case for calling himself the good luck charm of the Terriers.

Allen is in his first season as an assistant coach at his alma mater as the Terriers (6-2, 1-0) are off to their best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level.

It's Wofford's top overall record after eight games since opening 7-1 in the 1993-94 campaign, Allen's senior year and last time on campus before returning this summer.

Allen averaged a team-best 18.1 points in leading the Terriers to a 21-6 record and berth in the 1994 NCAA Division II Tournament.

Holding onto the Ball
Wofford point guards Byron Fields and Drew Gibson have combined for 61 assists and just 21 turnovers this season.

Fields and Gibson rank second and third, respectively, in the SoCon in assist/turnover ratio. They are also among the league leaders in assists per game.

Wofford tops the SoCon in assist/turnover ratio (1.4) as well as assists per game (20.1).

Consistency
Wofford has featured the same starting lineup in each game this season: Byron Fields, Adrien Borders, Eric Marshall, Howard Wilkerson and Sam Daniels.

Exciting Terriers

Arena Anniversaries
Wofford is celebrating the 25th anniversary of playing its home games in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

The Terriers are 214-90 (.704) in their home games since opening 7-1 in the 1993-94 campaign.

SoCon Openers
The 75-66 win over Appalachian State (Dec. 11) gave Wofford a 5-3 record in its SoCon openers since beginning league play in the 1997-98 campaign.

Columbia, S.C./Cardinal Newman

2004-05: Consummate team player who adds depth to the backcourt ... named the Dec. 15 TIAA-CREF SoCon Student-Athlete of the Week after he scored a career-best 15 points on 5-of-6 shooting from 3-point range in the 99-44 win over Toccoa Falls (Dec. 8) ... the five treys came in a span of just 3:36 ... the 15 points surpassed his career total of 12 entering the game ... is 6-of-10 (60.0 percent) from 3-point range and 8-of-12 (66.7 percent) overall from the field ... places fifth on the team in scoring average (7.3 ppg) ... scored a previous career-high five points in the 90-64 win over Milligan (Nov. 22).

Did You Know: Sheehan's coach at Cardinal Newman High School was former Wofford basketball coach Wayne Earhardt (1977-85).
2004-05: Continuing to bounce back from a career-threatening knee injury early in the 2002-03 season ... cartilage from a cadaver was placed in his right knee ... a sprained ankle kept him sidelined for the Tennessee (Nov. 29) and Jacksonville State (Dec. 1) contests ... has totaled seven steals in just 22 minutes over the last two games ... has a near 3:1 assist/turnover ratio (11-4) ... ranks third in the SoCon with a 54.5 percentage (6-of-11) from 3-point range ... averaging 9.5 minutes per game ... all eight of his points in the 99-44 win over Toccoa Falls (Dec. 8) came in the span of 56 seconds ... also recorded a team-best five steals in 14 minutes that night ... had three assists in just five minutes in the 67-64 loss at Miami (Nov. 20).

Did You Know: Stephens was a member of the 2001-02 All-SoCon Freshman team. In his first collegiate game, he outplayed heralded freshman and eventual NBA lottery pick Dajuan Wagner of Memphis. Stephens outscored Wagner (19-18) while totaling more assists (6-4) and blocks (1-0). He had the same number of steals (2) and rebounds (1) while recording one less turnover (2-3). Stephens was the subject of a Memphis Commercial-Appeal column which reported him to be the winner in the head-to-head battle with Wagner.

2004-05: Reserve forward who flirted with a double-double in the 99-44 win over Toccoa Falls (Dec. 8) ... had eight points and a season-best seven rebounds, just one shy of a career-high ... had four key rebounds in 10 minutes of action in the 85-78 victory at Auburn (Dec. 5) ... averaging 4.3 points and 12.0 minutes per game ... shooting 47.8 percent (11-of-23) from the field and 78.6 (11-of-14) at the free-throw line ... totaled 24 points, seven rebounds and five steals in 39 minutes in back-to-back home wins over Milligan (Nov. 22) and Bluefield (Nov. 27) ... the 13 points versus Milligan was one short of a career-high.

Did You Know: Tarr works as a student assistant in the Wofford athletic office.
2004-05: Comes off the bench to top the Terriers in steals (26), a 3.3 per game mark that also leads the SoCon and places 14th nationally ... had six steals in 25 minutes in the 75-66 win over Appalachian State (Dec. 11) ... ranks second on Wofford in rebounding (4.3 rpg) and third in assists (23) ... has a near 2:1 assist/turnover ratio (23-13) ... scored a career-best 15 points to go with five steals, two assists and no turnovers at Tennessee (Nov. 29) ... had eight points in a 4:58 stretch to key the Terriers’ 19-2 spurt to close the first half against the Vols ... his eight rebounds at Miami (Nov. 20) were just one shy of a career-high nine set in last year’s 85-76 win over the College of Charleston ... scored nine points, his second-best outing of the year, in the 99-44 win over Toccoa Falls (Dec. 8).

Did You Know: Taylor played his first two years at South Carolina. While sitting out the 2002-03 campaign per NCAA transfer rules, Taylor filled in as the color analyst for Wofford’s radio broadcast of a Dec. 7, 2002 game versus Virginia Intermont.

The Wofford men's basketball game Sunday at Georgia will be televised regionally on CSS.

CSS has approximately four million subscribers across 11 Southeastern states.

Veteran announcer Matt Stewart will provide the play-by-play while former longtime Auburn coach Sonny Smith is the color analyst.

The Terriers and Bulldogs are meeting on the hardwood for the first time since the 1926-27 campaign.

Wofford (6-2, 1-0), off to its best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level, will be looking for its second win over an SEC team this season. The Terriers won 85-78 at Auburn earlier this month in another CSS-televised contest (Dec. 5).
Attached as a .pdf is Wofford's release for today's 3 p.m. men's basketball game at Georgia. The complete set of notes is also posted on the Terriers' web site (www.wofford.edu/athletics).

Thanks.

2004-05 Wofford College Basketball
Dec. 19, 2004, at Georgia, Stegeman Coliseum (10,523), Athens, Ga.; 3 p.m.

Inside the Game
• After posting an 84-65 win at Charleston Southern yesterday, the Wofford basketball team plays for the second time in less than 24 hours when it travels to Athens to face the University of Georgia.

The Bulldogs, meanwhile, have been idle since a 76-74 overtime victory versus Oregon State on Dec. 11.

Wofford and Georgia are meeting on the hardwood for the first time since the 1926-27 season, a 61-23 Bulldog win.

Georgia represents the third of four SEC opponents for the Terriers this season. Wofford posted an 85-78 win at Auburn (Dec. 5) after dropping a 73-67 decision at Tennessee (Nov. 29). The Terriers led the Vols by six points with 3:02 to play before Tennessee rallied for the victory.

• After Charleston Southern scored the game’s opening basket yesterday, Wofford answered with the next 24 points over an 8:12 stretch to take a 24-2 lead. The Terriers extended their first-half margin to as large as 30 points in coasting to the victory.

With a 3 p.m. tip at Georgia today, the Terriers’ only two games in a 19-day stretch will have occurred in the span of 23 hours. Following today’s game, Wofford will break for Christmas before returning to campus Dec. 26 in preparation for a Dec. 31 contest at South Carolina.

Worth Noting
With an enrollment of 1,100, Wofford is the second-smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (850 students) is smaller. Wofford actually has a higher SAT average (1247) than enrollment (1,100).

Meet the Head Coach
Mike Young is in his 16th year at Wofford and third as head coach. He was previously a Terrier assistant for 13 seasons under former coach and now athletic director Richard Johnson.

Johnson was promoted to athletic director on Dec. 3, 2001 with the announcement that he would coach just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season. His first head coaching hire, made that same day, was the elevation of Young effective at the close of the campaign.

In his debut as a head coach in 2002-03, Young led the Terriers (14-15, 8-8) to a third-place finish in the SoCon South Division after his team was picked fifth. Highlighted by a win at Virginia Tech, Wofford equaled its most victories in eight years on the Division I level while facing a non-conference schedule that was officially ranked as the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagarin Ratings.

A native of Radford, Va., and a 1986 graduate of Emory & Henry (Va.), Young helped guide Wofford from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent status in 1995-96 and the SoCon in 1997-98.

He was honored in 2001 as America’s Best Dressed Assistant Coach in a national contest conducted by www.collegeinsider.com.

Terrier Tidbits
• With a 7-2 record, including an 85-78 win at Auburn, the Terriers are off to their best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level. Overall, it’s Wofford’s top mark after nine games since an 8-1 record in 1993-94.

• Wofford has a five-game winning streak for the first time since beginning Division I play in the 1995-96 campaign.

• The Terriers shot a season-high 58.3 percent in yesterday’s 84-65 win at Charleston Southern and have been over 50.0 percent in each of the last four games.

• Terrier forward Howard Wilkerson has received SoCon Player of the Week honors in each of the last two weeks.

Wofford sets the pace in graduation rates

Since 1997, Wofford is the only football-playing member of the SoCon to win the league’s graduation rate trophy for all student-athletes. Wofford has won the award four times.

1247 vs. 1100
Wofford College has a higher SAT average (1247) than enrollment (1100).

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

National Review's Guide to the Best Liberal Arts Colleges, "America's Top 50 Liberal Arts Schools"

Sheehan receives SoCon Student-Athlete Award

Wofford sophomore guard Adam Sheehan has been named the TIAA-CREF SoCon Student-Athlete of the Week for Dec. 15.

Sheehan scored a career-high 15 points, connecting on five-of-six 3-pointers, in the Terriers’ 99-44 win over Toccoa Falls (Dec. 8). His five treys came in a span of just 3:36. The Columbia, S.C., native also added an assist, a rebound and steal with no turnovers in 12 minutes of action.

Sheehan carries a 3.49 grade-point average.

About Wofford

Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman and Wake Forest are the others).

Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).

Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100 which makes it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.

With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.

Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force football coach Fisher DeBerry.

Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

---

Wofford and the NFL

Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson is a 1959 Wofford graduate and a former All-America wide receiver for the Terriers.
The Staff
The following is an inside look at Wofford coach Mike Young’s three assistants:
• Former Terrier standout Matt Allen is in his first season as an assistant coach at his alma mater. Allen ranks 29th on Wofford’s career scoring list with 1,057 points.

He was an assistant last season at Western Carolina, where he coached Sacramento Kings’ first-round draft pick Kevin Martin.

Allen has also had stints at Dartmouth, Campbell and Wingate.
• Dustin Kerns is in his first year with the Terriers after working with Buzz Peterson and the University of Tennessee last season. He has also been on the staffs of Tennessee Tech and Clemson.

• Jackson Payne is also in his first season at Wofford. Payne coached Terrier freshman Drew Gibson at St. Thomas More Prep School last year.

As a freshman, Payne lettered under Mike Jarvis at George Washington. He then transferred to Christian Brothers where he was a prolific 3-point shooter.

A Youthful Staff
With an average age of 31.0, the Wofford men’s basketball coaching staff is the fourth youngest in the nation, ranking behind only Lehigh (29.0), Mount St. Mary’s (29.0) and High Point (30.8).

Head coach Mike Young is 41 and the graybeard on the staff. Assistant coaches Matt Allen (32), Jackson Payne (27) and Dustin Kerns (24) are next in line.

Seasoned Terriers
After having just one senior on last year’s roster, the 2004-05 Wofford squad features five seniors: Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Justin Stephens, Jeff Tarr and Greg Taylor.

The Fork Union Pipeline
Wofford coach Mike Young played at Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy and refers to longtime FUMA coach Fletcher Arritt as one of his coaching mentors.

Current Terriers Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson are two of six former FUMA players at Wofford during Young’s 16 seasons on campus.

Schedule Difficulty
• Wofford is once again face a challenging non-conference schedule. Following a season-opening trip to Miami, the Terriers become an honorary member of the SEC with games at Tennessee (Nov. 29), Auburn (Dec. 5), Georgia (Dec. 19) and South Carolina (Dec. 31).

• Last year’s Wofford slate included road dates at Tennessee, Clemson, Texas, Vanderbilt, Dayton and Minnesota.

• The 2002-03 RPI and Sagarin Ratings ranked Wofford’s non-conference schedule as the most difficult in the nation out of 327 Division I programs.

The Terriers played at Auburn, Clemson, Virginia Tech, West Virginia, South Carolina, N.C. State and Virginia.

• In their opening 12 games in 2001-02, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, N.C. State and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina.

• The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford’s pre-Christmas schedule in 2000-01 was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson and Vanderbilt.

Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

• According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 season, Wofford played the nation’s third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Keeping Busy
• Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Curtis Ingram, Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson were employed as line judges and ball boys this fall at Wofford home volleyball matches in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

• While sitting out the 2002-03 season per NCAA transfer rules, Greg Taylor served as the color analyst on WSPA-Radio for a Terrier home game versus Virginia Intermont.

• Wofford guard Justin Stephens has previously been employed as operator of the computerized sound system for Terrier home football games in Gibbs Stadium. He also served as the official scorer, wearing the referee shirt, at home women’s basketball games.

The Trickle Down
The SoCon hiring a new commissioner in December 2001 resulted in Wofford naming a new head basketball coach.

When Danny Morrison left his Wofford senior vice-president position to become the SoCon commissioner, David Wood was promoted from athletic director to Morrison’s vacated role on campus.

Head basketball coach Richard Johnson was then promoted to athletic director with the announcement that he would coach the Terriers just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season.

In his first official day as athletic director, Johnson made his first coaching hire. He tabbed longtime assistant Mike Young to take over the head coaching duties effective at the close of the campaign.

Morrison hired Johnson to be Wofford’s basketball coach in 1985.

Football Anyone?
Wofford is the smallest school in Division I-A or I-AA football.

With 95 players on the roster and 550 males on campus, nearly one out of every five men at Wofford is on the football team. If Ohio State had the same ratio, the Buckeye football roster would have 4,233 players.

The Terriers were 8-3 this season and are the SoCon’s winningest football team over the last three years with a 29-8 overall record (.784) and 18-5 league mark (.783).

Wofford is currently tied for second in the most consecutive appearances (36) in the Division I-AA Top 25 poll.

The 2003 Terrier squad (12-2-8-0) captured the SoCon championship and advanced to the national semifinals.

Magic Numbers
Dating back to November 2001, Wofford has won 20 of its last 21 games when scoring at least 80 points.

The Surge

Wofford has made a habit of posting big runs to close the first half of games this season. In each case, the Terriers were trailing by double figures at the time of their spurt.

*Wofford took a 36-33 lead with a 20-7 run before Appalachi State scored the next six points to regain a 39-36 edge at the break.

- After Charleston Southern scored the game's opening basket, Wofford answered with a 24-0 run over the next 8:12 en route to a 24-2 lead in an 84-65 victory (Dec. 18).
- The Terriers also had first-half runs of 26-5 and 20-2 in wins last month over Milligan (Nov. 22) and Bluefield (Nov. 27), respectively. Wofford had a 30-8 first-half spurt versus Toccoa Falls (Dec. 8).
Wilkerson named SoCon POTW (again)

Wofford men’s basketball standout Howard Wilkerson has been named the SoCon Player of the Week for the second straight week (Dec. 14).

A 6-foot-6, 250-pound junior from Eden, N.C., Wilkerson is the first Terrier to receive back-to-back Player of the Week honors since Wofford began SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign.

Wilkerson now has a Wofford record of three career SoCon Player of the Week awards.

Countdown to 1,000

Adrien Borders and Howard Wilkerson are looking to become the 36th and 37th players in Wofford history to reach the 1,000-career points milestone.

The projected total for Borders, a senior guard, would place him 28th on the Terriers’ career scoring chart. Wilkerson is in his junior season.

Wofford men’s basketball standout Howard Wilkerson has been named the SoCon Player of the Week for the second straight week (Dec. 14).

A 6-foot-6, 250-pound junior from Eden, N.C., Wilkerson is the first Terrier to receive back-to-back Player of the Week honors since Wofford began SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign.

Wilkerson now has a Wofford record of three career SoCon Player of the Week awards.

Master of Thievery

In just over a season, Wofford guard Greg Taylor has already moved into a tie for eighth place on the Terriers’ career steals list for the Division I era (1995-present):

1. Mike Lenzly 146 (1999-03)
3. Ian Chadwick 108 (1997-01)
4. Lee Nixon 104 (1999-03)
5. Adrien Borders 90 (2001-present)
6. Donald Davis 89 (1997-99)
7. Bishop Ravenel 80 (1997-01)
9. Howard Wilkerson 77 (2002-present)

Shulman a Former Terrier

First-year Chattanooga head coach John Shulman began his collegiate coaching career at Wofford and served two stints with the Terriers.

Shulman and Wofford coach Mike Young were first-year Terrier assistants under former coach and now athletic director Richard Johnson in the 1989-90 campaign.

Shulman then returned to Wofford for two seasons (1996-98) to serve another tenure with Young and Johnson.

Shulman was on the Terrier bench in Wofford's first-ever SoCon game, a 1997-98 contest at Chattanooga.

Wofford Media Love UGA

Sports anchors/reporters Ken Griner (WSPA-TV) and Kevin Holden (WHNS-TV) are University of Georgia graduates who cover Wofford for their respective stations.

A 1982 graduate and a former first baseman for the Bulldogs, Griner was known for his defensive skill. The speech communication major recorded a 1.000 fielding percentage (95 chances) his senior year while batting .317 as a lefthanded slugger.

In addition to his regular coverage of Wofford, Griner also provides features for the weekly Terrier football television show.

Holden has a 1995 degree in broadcast news and a 1996 degree in Spanish.

When Griner and Holden sat together at a recent Wofford basketball game, it represented the first time in school history that two Georgia graduates were seated side-by-side at press row of a Terrier home athletic event.

The Good Luck Charm

Matt Allen has a case for calling himself the good luck charm of the Terriers.

Allen is in his first season as an assistant coach at his alma mater as the Terriers (6-2, 1-0) are off to their best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level.

It’s Wofford’s top overall record after eight games since opening 7-1 in the 1993-94 campaign, Allen’s senior year and last time on campus before returning this summer.

Allen averaged a team-best 18.1 points in leading the Terriers to a 21-6 record and berth in the 1994 NCAA Division II Tournament.

Key Stats

Wofford tops the SoCon in assist/turnover ratio and field-goal percentage.

Wofford point guards Byron Fields and Drew Gibson have combined for a more than 3:1 assist/turnover ratio (67 assists, 22 turnovers).

The Terriers have shot over 50.0 percent in four straight games and in five of nine contests this season.

Consistency

Wofford has featured the same starting lineup in each game this season: Byron Fields, Adrien Borders, Eric Marshall, Howard Wilkerson and Sam Daniels.

Arena Anniversaries

Wofford is celebrating the 25th anniversary of playing its home games in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

The Terriers are 214-90 (.704) in their 3,500-seat facility that opened in January 1981.

Proving Them Wrong

The Terriers (7-2, 1-0) were picked by the league coaches and media to finish fifth out of six teams in the SoCon South Division this season.

2004-05: Continuing to bounce back from a career-threatening knee injury early in the 2002-03 season ... cartilage from a cadaver was placed in his right knee ... has totaled seven steals in the last three games ... has a 3:1 assist/turnover ratio (12-4) ... averaging 11 minutes per game ... equaled a season-high with eight points while grabbing a season-best four rebounds in the 84-65 win over Charleston Southern (Dec. 18) ... played a season-high 21 minutes against the Buccaneers ... a sprained ankle kept him sidelined for the Tennessee (Nov. 29) and Jacksonville State (Dec. 1) contests ... all eight of his points in the 99-44 win over Toccoa Falls (Dec. 8) came in the span of 56 seconds ... also recorded a team-best five steals in 14 minutes that night ... had three assists in just five minutes in the 67-64 loss at Miami (Nov. 20).

Did You Know: Stephens was a member of the 2001-02 All-SoCon Freshman team. In his first collegiate game, he outplayed heralded freshman and eventual NBA lottery pick Dajuan Wagner of Memphis. Stephens outscored Wagner (19-18) while totaling more assists (6-4) and blocks (1-0). He had the same number of steals (2) and rebounds (1) while recording one less turnover (2-3). Stephens was the subject of a Memphis Commercial-Appeal column which reported him to be the winner in the head-to-head battle with Wagner.

Keyed by 28 points from Howard Wilkerson, the Wofford basketball team’s bid for a second win over an SEC team fell short in a 93-89 overtime loss to Georgia this afternoon in Athens, Ga.

Wilkerson, the reigning two-time SoCon Player of the Week, was one point short of a career-high scoring performance. He added a game-best nine rebounds.

Wofford led by 13 points with 13:18 to play and by six with 43 seconds left before the Bulldogs rallied to snap the Terriers’ five-game winning streak.

Wofford (7-3) will now break for Christmas before returning to action Dec. 31 at South Carolina. It will be the fourth and final SEC opponent of the season for the Terriers, who defeated Auburn earlier this month (85-78, Dec. 5) in addition to dropping a 73-67 decision at Tennessee (Nov. 29).

The Terriers are off to their best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level.

Wofford shot just 57.9 percent (22-of-38) at the free-throw line, including 1-of-4 (25.0 percent) in overtime.

“Free-throws are just a part of the game,” Wofford coach Mike Young said. “We had the guys we wanted at the line. We just didn’t get the shots to go down.

“We didn’t play as intelligently as we needed to at times. We mishandled some things which opened the door for them, but we gave ourselves a chance to win in a game we feel we should have won against a very well-coached team.

”We can take a lot of positives out of this one. I really like our team and look forward to the second half of the season.”

Tyler Berg had 13 points off the bench to reach double figures for the second straight game. Adrien Borders scored 12 points while Byron Fields added 10.

Overtime was forced when Georgia’s Channing Toney hit a 3-pointer with seven seconds left to tie the game at 84-84. Toney topped the Bulldogs with 24 points while Levi Stukes added 21.

A 10-foot jumper by Borders bounced off the rim as the final buzzer sounded in regulation.

Trailing 91-89 with 2.5 seconds to play in overtime, Wofford had an opportunity to take the lead. However, Justin Stephens’ 3-pointer from the corner missed. Sundiata Gaines grabbed the rebound, was fouled and made both free-throws to provide the final margin.

The Terriers scored the game’s opening four points and took a 20-9 lead on a Fields layup.
The Terriers scored the game’s opening four points and took a 20-9 lead on a Fields layup just 5:13 into the contest.

The Bulldogs answered with a 15-6 run to close within 26-24 on a Stukes layup at the 7:43 mark.

The Terriers regained an 11-point lead, 40-29, after back-to-back 3-pointers from Stephens.

Wofford was hindered by foul trouble for most of the first half as Wilkerson and fellow starter Eric Marshall both had two fouls in the opening 10:28.

The Terriers were 7-of-11 (63.6 percent) from 3-point range in the opening 20 minutes, including three treys by Sam Daniels, to lead 45-37 at the half.

Wofford took its largest lead of the game at 57-44 on an offensive rebound and putback by Berg with 13:18 to play.

Trailing 59-48, Georgia received a lift when Gaines drilled a 3-pointer with the shot clock expiring to pull the Bulldogs within 59-51 with 11:34 remaining. It ignited a 14-5 Georgia spurt that trimmed Wofford’s advantage to 64-62 with 8:40 remaining.

Wilkerson then scored on a dunk off a behind-the-back pass from Drew Gibson before Gibson nailed a 3-pointer to build the Terrier lead back to 69-62.

Georgia countered with a 9-2 run, capped by a 3-pointer from Steve Newman, to tie the game at 71-71 with 5:14 left.

The Bulldogs took their first lead of the game at 74-73 on a Stukes 3-pointer with 3:57 to play.

A Wilkerson free-throw tied the game before the Terriers regained a 76-74 advantage on a pair of Fields free-throws with 2:52 remaining. A Fields jumper with 43 seconds to play extended the Terrier margin to 82-76.

Stukes was fouled on a 3-pointer and converted all three free-throws to bring the Bulldogs within 82-79 with 28 seconds remaining.

Borders hit 1-of-2 attempts at the line to extend the Terrier lead to 83-79 with 23 seconds to play.

A Gaines layup made it an 83-81 game with 16 seconds left.

After Borders again hit 1-of-2 free-throws, Toney connected on the trey that tied the game and forced overtime.

Wofford took an 89-88 lead in the extra period when Wilkerson scored on a layup with 56 seconds remaining. A Gaines bucket put the Bulldogs back on top for good at 90-89 with 38 seconds left.
The Terriers missed a pair of free-throws with 21 seconds remaining. Newman then hit 1-of-2 attempts to give Georgia a 91-89 edge before the final Wofford possession.

Georgia held a 48-38 rebounding advantage, including 19-12 on the offensive end. The Bulldogs were 9-of-19 (47.4 percent) from 3-point range in shooting 45.8 percent for the game. Wofford hit 47.5 percent of its shots while committing just 11 turnovers.

Wilkerson had all five of the Terrier points in overtime.
Wofford's Dec. 31 men's basketball game at South Carolina will be heard on SIRIUS satellite radio. Tip-off is 6 p.m. from the Colonial Center.

The Terriers and Gamecocks will be on SIRIUS Channel 112. The game will also be televised regionally on C-SET.

Wofford is idle until it returns to the court Dec. 31 in Columbia. The Gamecocks represent the Terriers' fourth and final SEC opponent of the season.

Off to its best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level, Wofford (7-3, 1-0) already has a win over Auburn before falling 93-89 in overtime Sunday at Georgia. The Terriers also dropped a 73-67 decision at Tennessee.
The Wofford men's basketball team is ranked 25th in this week's Mid-Major Poll by CollegeInsider.com.

It's the first-ever appearance in the poll for the Terriers.

The Mid-Major Poll is comprised of teams from the following conferences: America East, Atlantic Sun, Big Sky, Big South, Big West, Colonial, Horizon, Independents, Ivy, Metro Atlantic, Mid-American, Mid-Continent, Mid-Eastern, Missouri Valley, Northeast, Ohio Valley, Patriot, Southern, Southland, Southwestern, Sun Belt and West Coast.

Highlighted by an 85-78 win at Auburn (Dec. 5), Wofford (7-3, 1-0) is off to its best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level. The Terriers return to action Friday with a 6 p.m. game at South Carolina. It will be the fourth and final SEC opponent of the season for the Terriers.

2004-05 Wofford College Basketball

Dec. 31, 2004, at South Carolina, Colonial Center (18,000), Columbia, S.C.; 6 p.m. (C-SET)

Inside the Game

• The Wofford basketball team returns to action for the first time since Dec. 19 when it faces South Carolina.

The Gamecocks represent the Terriers' fourth and final opponent from the SEC this season. Wofford has already defeated Auburn (85-78, Dec. 5) while suffering close losses to Tennessee (73-67, Nov. 29) and Georgia (93-89, OT, Dec. 19).

• Wofford senior guard Greg Taylor will be facing his former school. Taylor played his first two years at South Carolina. Per NCAA transfer rules, he sat out the 2002-03 campaign and is now in his second season with the Terriers.

• For the eighth time in their 10 seasons on the Division I level, the Terriers are facing USC. Wofford has dropped 19 consecutive decisions to the Gamecocks with its last win coming in 1938-39 (33-31).

• The Terriers have already defeated a Gamecock squad this season, posting an 81-76 win over Jacksonville State (Dec. 1).

• Wofford will have played just two games in the last 19 days when it takes the court at USC. After defeating Appalachian State (Dec. 11), the Terriers took a week off for final exams. Wofford then played consecutive days at Charleston Southern and Georgia (Dec. 18-19) before breaking for Christmas.

Worth Noting

With an enrollment of 1,100, Wofford is the second-smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (850 students) is smaller. Wofford actually has a higher SAT average (1247) than enrollment (1,100).

Meet the Head Coach

Mike Young is in his 16th year at Wofford and third as head coach. He was previously a Terrier assistant for 13 seasons under former coach and now athletic director Richard Johnson.

Johnson was promoted to athletic director on Dec. 3, 2001 with the announcement that he would coach just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season. His first head coaching hire, made that same day, was the elevation of Young effective at the close of the campaign.

In his debut as a head coach in 2002-03, Young led the Terriers (14-15, 8-8) to a third-place finish in the SoCon South Division after his team was picked fifth. Highlighted by a win at Virginia Tech, Wofford equaled its most victories in eight years on the Division I level while facing a non-conference schedule that was officially ranked as the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagarin Ratings.

A native of Radford, Va., and a 1986 graduate of Emory & Henry (Va.), Young helped guide Wofford from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent status in 1995-96 and the SoCon in 1997-98.

He was honored in 2001 as America's Best Dressed Assistant Coach in a national contest conducted by www.collegeinsider.com.

Terrier Tidbits

• With a 7-3 record, the Terriers are off to their best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level. Overall, it’s Wofford’s top mark after 10 games since a 9-1 record in 1993-94.

• Terrier forward Howard Wilkerson has received SoCon Player of the Week honors twice this season. In four games against SEC and ACC competition, Wilkerson is averaging 23.3 points and 9.8 rebounds.

• Wofford is ranked 25th in this week’s Mid-Major poll by CollegeInsider.com.

• The Terriers top the SoCon in scoring (82.4 points per game), field-goal percentage (49.0) and assist/turnover ratio (1.4).

Wofford sets the pace in graduation rates

Since 1997, Wofford is the only football-playing member of the SoCon to win the league’s graduation rate trophy for all student-athletes. Wofford has won the award four times.

1247 vs. 1100
Wofford College has a higher SAT average (1247) than enrollment (1100).

"There are no junk courses at Wofford that we could see, and we would certainly match its course study with that of any school in the Ivy League."

National Review's Guide to the Best Liberal Arts Colleges, "America's Top 50 Liberal Arts Schools"

Sheehan receives SoCon Student-Athlete Award
Wofford sophomore guard and Columbia, S.C., native Adam Sheehan was named the TIAA-CREF SoCon Student-Athlete of the Week for Dec. 15.

A Cardinal Newman High School graduate, Sheehan scored a career-high 15 points, connecting on five-of-six 3-pointers, in the Terriers’ 99-44 win over Toccoa Falls (Dec. 8). His five treys came in a span of just 3:36. The Columbia, S.C., native also added an assist, a rebound and steal with no turnovers in 12 minutes of action.

Sheehan carries a 3.49 grade-point average.

About Wofford
• Located in Spartanburg, S.C., Wofford is one of only five independent colleges and universities to have a Phi Beta Kappa chapter in the Carolinas (Davidson, Duke, Furman and Wake Forest are the others).
• Wofford is one of just three Division I colleges or universities to have the nickname Terriers. The others are Boston University and St. Francis (N.Y.).
• Founded in 1854, Wofford has an enrollment of 1,100 which makes it the smallest school in NCAA Division I-A or I-AA football.
• With 1,100 students, Wofford is the second smallest school in Division I. Only Centenary (La.) is smaller with 850 students. However, the Gentlemen do not field a football team.
• Famous Wofford graduates include Carolina Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson and Air Force football coach Fisher DeBerry.
• Wofford ranks No. 1 among national liberal arts colleges in "operating efficiency," providing a quality education while spending relatively less.

In a recent NCAA Division I Graduation Rates Report, Wofford was the only school in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in all four categories: overall student-athlete graduation rate as well as those for the football, men’s basketball and women’s basketball teams.

Wofford and the NFL
Wofford College is the summer training camp site for the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Panther owner and founder Jerry Richardson is a 1959 Wofford graduate and a former All-America wide receiver for the Terriers.
The Staff

The following is an inside look at Wofford coach Mike Young's three assistants:

• Former Terrier standout Matt Allen is in his first season as an assistant coach at his alma mater. Allen ranks 29th on Wofford's career scoring list with 1,057 points.

He was an assistant last season at Western Carolina, where he coached Sacramento Kings' first-round draft pick Kevin Martin.

Allen has also had stints at Dartmouth, Campbell and Wingate.

• Dustin Kerns is in his first year with the Terriers after working with Buzz Peterson and the University of Tennessee last season.

He has also been on the staffs of Tennessee Tech and Clemson.

• Jackson Payne is also in his first season at Wofford. Payne coached Terrier freshman Drew Gibson at St. Thomas More Prep School last year.

As a freshman, Payne lettered under Mike Jarvis at George Washington. He then transferred to Christian Brothers where he was a prolific 3-point shooter.

A Youthful Staff

With an average age of 31.0, the Wofford men's basketball coaching staff is the fourth youngest in the nation, ranking behind only Lehigh (29.0), Mount St. Mary's (29.0) and High Point (30.8).

Head coach Mike Young is 41 and the graybeard on the staff. Assistant coaches Matt Allen (32), Jackson Payne (27) and Dustin Kerns (24) are next in line.

Seasoned Terriers

After having just one senior on last year's roster, the 2004-05 Wofford squad features five seniors: Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Justin Stephens, Jeff Tarr and Greg Taylor.

The Fork Union Pipeline

Wofford coach Mike Young played at Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy and refers to longtime FUMA coach Fletcher Arritt as one of his coaching mentors.

Current Terriers Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson are two of six former FUMA players at Wofford during Young's 16 seasons on campus.

Schedule Difficulty

• Wofford is once again facing a challenging non-conference schedule. Following a season-opening trip to Miami (Fla.), the Terriers became an honorary member of the SEC with games at Tennessee (Nov. 29), Auburn (Dec. 5), Georgia (Dec. 19) and South Carolina (Dec. 31).

• Last year's Wofford slate included road dates at Tennessee, Clemson, Texas, Vanderbilt, Dayton and Minnesota.

• The 2002-03 RPI and Sagarin Ratings ranked Wofford's non-conference schedule as the most difficult in the nation out of 327 Division I programs.

The Terriers played at Auburn, Clemson, Virginia Tech, West Virginia, South Carolina, N.C. State and Virginia.

• In their opening 12 games in 2001-02, the Terriers played at Memphis, Clemson, Nebraska, N.C. State and Georgia Tech. Wofford also played host to South Carolina.

• The RPI rankings, which take into account Division I games only, determined that Wofford's pre-Christmas schedule in 2000-01 was the most difficult in the nation. The Terriers had road games at Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Boston College, Alabama, Clemson and Vanderbilt.

Wofford was also home for William & Mary.

• According to the Sagarin Ratings in the 1999-00 season, Wofford played the nation's third toughest pre-Christmas schedule. Only Iowa and Temple faced more difficult slates.

Keeping Busy

• Adrien Borders, Sam Daniels, Curtis Ingram, Jeff Tarr and Howard Wilkerson were employed as line judges and ball boys this fall at Wofford home volleyball matches in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

• While sitting out the 2002-03 season per NCAA transfer rules, Greg Taylor served as the color analyst on WSPA-Radio for a Terrier home game versus Virginia Intermont.

• Wofford guard Justin Stephens has previously been employed as operator of the computerized sound system for Terrier home football games in Gibbs Stadium. He also served as the official scorer, wearing the referee shirt, at home women's basketball games.

The Trickle Down

The SoCon hiring a new commissioner in December 2001 resulted in Wofford naming a new head basketball coach.

When Danny Morrison left his Wofford senior vice-president position to become the SoCon commissioner, David Wood was promoted from athletic director to Morrison's vacated role on campus.

Head basketball coach Richard Johnson was then promoted to athletic director with the announcement that he would coach the Terriers just through the remainder of the 2001-02 season.

In his first official day as athletic director, Johnson made his first coaching hire. He tabbed longtime assistant Mike Young to take over the head coaching duties effective at the close of the campaign.

Morrison hired Johnson to be Wofford's basketball coach in 1985.

Football Anyone?

Wofford is the smallest school in Division I-A or I-AA football.

With 95 players on the roster and 550 males on campus, nearly one out of every five men at Wofford is on the football team. If Ohio State had the same ratio, the Buckeye football roster would have 4,233 players.

The Terriers were 8-3 this season and are the SoCon's winningest football team over the last three years with a 29-8 overall record (.784) and 18-5 league mark (.783).

Wofford is currently tied for second in the most consecutive appearances (36) in the Division I-AA Top 25 poll.

The 2003 Terrier squad (12-2-8-0) captured the SoCon championship and advanced to the national semifinals.

The Surge

Wofford has made a habit of posting big runs to close the first half of games this season. In each case, the Terriers were trailing by double figures at the time of their spurt.

*Wofford took a 36-33 lead with a 20-7 run before Appalachian State scored the next six points to regain a 39-36 edge at the break.

• After Charleston Southern scored the game's opening basket, Wofford answered with a 24-0 run over the next 8:12 en route to a 24-2 lead in an 84-65 victory (Dec. 18).

• The Terriers also had first-half runs of 26-5 and 20-2, respectively, in wins last month over Milligan (Nov. 22) and Bluefield (Nov. 27). Wofford had a 30-8 first-half spurt versus Toccoa Falls (Dec. 8).
Wilkerson named SoCon POTW (again)

Wofford men’s basketball standout Howard Wilkerson was named the SoCon Player of the Week for the second straight week (Dec. 14).

A 6-foot-6, 250-pound junior from Eden, N.C., Wilkerson is the first Terrier to receive back-to-back Player of the Week honors since Wofford began SoCon play in the 1997-98 campaign.

Wilkerson now has a Wofford record of three career SoCon Player of the Week awards.

Countdown to 1,000

Adrien Borders and Howard Wilkerson are looking to become the 36th and 37th players in Wofford history to reach the 1,000-career points milestone.

The projected total for Borders, a senior guard, would place him 28th on the Terriers’ career scoring chart. Wilkerson, in his junior season, would finish the year in a tie for 32nd.

For its Nov. 29 contest at Tennessee, Wofford did not depart for the three-hour bus ride to Knoxville until 10:45 a.m. on game day so the Terrier players could attend 8:30 and 9:30 a.m. classes.

Wins and Streaks

•With a 7-3 record, Wofford is off to its best start in 10 years of Division I play.

Overall, the Terriers are enjoying their best opening to a season since a 9-1 record after 10 games in 1993-94. That team eventually was 13-1 en route to Wofford’s last postseason appearance, a trip to the 1994 NCAA Division II Tournament.

•Wofford recently had a five-game winning streak (Dec. 1-18) for the first time in its Division I era.

The streak, which came to an end with a Dec. 19 overtime loss at Georgia, was the Terriers’ longest since a run of 10 straight wins in 1994-95 -- the last season in Division II.

Waiting in the Wings

•Shane Nichols, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year while playing for Saint Peter’s College last season, transferred to Wofford and will have three years of eligibility for the Terriers.

Per NCAA transfer rules, Nichols will sit out the 2004-05 season.

A 6-foot-0 guard from Radford, Va., Nichols averaged 10.6 points while connecting on 68 3-pointers in helping lead Saint Peter’s to a 17-12 record in the 2003-04 campaign. He started 28 of the Peacocks’ 29 games.

Nichols’ teammate at Saint Peter’s, Keydren Clark, was the Division I scoring leader with a 26.7 points per game average.

•Tony Nicholson, a 6-foot-6 freshman is taking a redshirt season this year. He’ll have four years of eligibility remaining.

Separated at Birth?

Wofford media have commented on the striking facial resemblance between a pair of Terriers and some well-known celebrities.

Wofford center Sam Daniels has been referred to as a look-a-like of NFL quarterback Peyton Manning, while guard Byron Fields is being called a double for music's Usher.

The Good Luck Charm

Matt Allen has a case for calling himself the good luck charm of the Terriers.

Allen is in his first season as an assistant coach at his alma mater as the Terriers (7-3, 1-0) are off to their best start in 10 seasons on the Division I level.

It’s Wofford’s top overall record after 10 games since opening 9-1 in the 1993-94 campaign, Allen’s senior year and last time on campus before returning this summer.

Allen averaged a team-best 18.1 points in leading the Terriers to a 21-6 record and berth in the 1994 NCAA Division II Tournament.

A Shooter's Touch

Wofford tops the SoCon and ranks 34th nationally in field-goal percentage at 49.0.

The Terriers have shot 50.9 percent or better in four of their last five contests, including a 53.6 effort in the 85-78 win at Auburn.

Wofford has improved on its 44.9 percentage from last season. With five 50.0 field-goal performances in the opening 10 games, the Terriers have equaled their total from last year.

Consistency

Wofford has featured the same starting lineup in each game this season: Byron Fields, Adrien Borders, Eric Marshall, Howard Wilkerson and Sam Daniels.

Exciting Terriers

Listed below are the results from a recent Wofford web site poll question that asked, "Who's the most exciting player to watch on the Wofford men's basketball team?"

Sam Daniels - 37.3%
Adrien Borders - 25.0%
Howard Wilkerson - 24.5%
Drew Gibson - 3.9%
Eric Marshall - 3.4%
Greg Taylor - 2.9%
Tyler Berg - 2.0%
Byron Fields - 1.0%

Arena Anniversaries

Wofford is celebrating the 25th anniversary of playing its home games in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

The Terriers are 214-90 (.704) in their 3,500-seat facility that opened in January 1981.

Proving Them Wrong

The Terriers (7-3, 1-0) were picked by the league coaches and media to finish fifth out of six teams in the SoCon South Division this season.

Master of Thievery

In just over a season, Wofford guard Greg Taylor has already moved into ninth place on the Terriers’ career steals list for the Division I era (1995-present).

Three current Terriers rank among the Top 10.

1. Mike Lenzly 146 (1999-03)
3. Ian Chadwick 108 (1997-01)
4. Lee Nixon 104 (1999-03)
5. Adrien Borders 91 (2001-present)
6. Donald Davis 89 (1997-99)
7. Bishop Ravenel 80 (1997-01)
8. Howard Wilkerson 79 (2002-present)

Shulman a Former Terrier

First-year Chattanooga head coach John Shulman began his collegiate coaching career at Wofford and served two stints with the Terriers.

Shulman and Wofford coach Mike Young were first-year Terrier assistants under former coach and now athletic director Richard Johnson in the 1989-90 campaign.

Shulman then returned to Wofford for two seasons (1996-98) to serve another tenure with Young and Johnson.

Shulman was on the Terrier bench in Wofford's first-ever SoCon game, a 1997-98 contest at Chattanooga.
