Wofford College, established in 1854, is a four-year, independent, residential liberal arts college located in Spartanburg, S.C. It offers a distinctive program with 25 major fields of study to a student body of 1,650 undergraduates.

Nationally known for the strength of its academic program, outstanding faculty, study abroad participation and successful graduates, Wofford ranks well in U.S. News & World Report, The Princeton Review, The Fiske Guide to College, Kiplinger's Personal Finance and the Open Doors Report on International Education Exchange, an organization that ranks Wofford #4 in the nation for study abroad participation.

Wofford has produced six Rhodes Scholars and is home to one of the nation's 283 Phi Beta Kappa chapters.

A leader in offering high-impact learning opportunities to students, Wofford encourages students to take advantage of all that Wofford, and through it the world, has to offer.

These opportunities include internships with scientific, corporate and non-profit organizations across the globe, undergraduate research opportunities, service-learning in the local community, international study abroad programming and a thriving host of co-curricular opportunities on campus.

One of those co-curricular offerings is the R. Michael James Fund, a student-managed and operated investment organization. The Space in the Mungo Center also prepares students for life after Wofford by offering professional development, career services and much more.

Student and residence life on campus include exciting Division I NCAA athletics, opportunities to participate in one of the college's Greek-letter fraternities or sororities, competitive intramurals, a diverse selection of clubs, student publications and a housing plan that helps students progress from first year through fourth in a close-knit community that builds independence. The residence life experience culminates in a final year in

The Village, beautiful, Charlestonian-style apartments designed to help transition students from college student to successful graduate.

Thanks to the generosity of alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson '59, the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts opened in May of 2017 and the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium to house new basketball and volleyball arenas opened in September of 2017. The new Greek Village was completed in the spring of 2016.

Additionally, a new state-of-the-art environmental studies building and Jerome Johnson Richardson Hall, a 150-bed residence hall, will open in the fall of 2020. Renovations to the library into an academic commons will be completed in the fall of 2019 and renovations to Burwell Dining Hall are expected to be completed in winter of 2021.

Wofford's entire 175-acre campus is a national arboretum, named the Roger Milliken Arboretum at Wofford College in honor of the late longtime trustee and benefactor.

Wofford offers distinctive learning opportunities that set it apart from other liberal arts colleges. A few of those high-impact educational experiences include:

The Interim, a January term that encourages students and faculty to explore new interests both on and off campus. A small sampling of on-campus programs include: Animal Cognition and Rat Basketball, Personal Finance, and Riding and Researching the Horse. Travel/study projects will take students to Australia, Cuba, China, Ireland, Germany, Japan and other sites around the world. Students also complete internships both locally and around the globe.

The Bonner Scholar program, a service-learning scholarship program that places deserving students in volunteer positions throughout the community.

The Space in the Mungo Center, a place where students can build upon their liberal arts education by adding professional skills desired by employers and graduate schools. The Space includes The Space to: Prepare (career services and professional development training); The Space to: Impact (a four-year scholarship program that empowers students to impact the world); The Space to: Launch (entrepreneurship support and competitions); The Space to: Consult (hands-on research, writing and problem-solving training within a consulting framework); and The Space to: Explore (indepth global study).

Environmental Studies provides a creative and supportive learning environment that helps students pursue their goals in the field of sustainability. It operates both on Wofford's campus and at the college's Goodall Environmental Studies Center at Glendale, S.C. The property where the center is located borders 19 acres of protected green space along Lawson's Fork

Neuroscience, a program that allows students to examine the nervous system and its regulation of behavior through an experimental approach, is offered jointly by the Departments of Psychology and Biology.

Computational Science, a fast-growing interdisciplinary field that is at the intersection of the sciences, computer science and mathematics, involves learning to store, retrieve, process and visualize massive amounts of information in web-accessed databases.

The Creative Writing Concentration, a program led by outstanding published faculty authors that provides additional opportunities for students to hone their creative writing skills, earn coveted prizes and become published writers. The Wofford Writers Series brings published writers to campus to augment the Creative Writing Concentration.

The Presidential International Scholar program offers an opportunity for an outstanding, intellectually gifted student to visit developing countries researching a specific academic area of interest. The student then returns to campus to share his or her experiences.

Presidential Seminar, a weekly seminar for outstanding seniors hosted by Wofford President Nayef H. Samhat. Seminar participants explore interdisciplinary subjects of current significance. The college now has a similar program for juniors.

Liberty Fellowship is a two-year leadership experience for young citizens of South Carolina with exemplary promise for societal achievement. The Liberty Fellowship is housed at the college and offered in partnership with South Carolina businessman Hayne Hipp and the Aspen Institute.

THE RICHARDSON BUILDING

The home of the Wofford College Athletic Department since 1996 is the Richardson Physical Activities Building. The facility includes offices for the administration, football, baseball and other sports on the second floor. Also included on the second floor is an aerobic dance room, team meeting room, racquetball courts and a student-athlete lounge. Locker rooms for football, men's and women's cross country/track and field, men's and women's soccer and a training room are located on the first floor.

Wofford alumnus Jerry Richardson made donations in 2008 and 2018 that were used for enhancing the Richardson Building. Numerous improvements were made in the facility to ensure that it is one of the most advanced athletic facilities in the nation.

The most recent renovations to the building include a 1,200 square foot addition to house a new state of the art hydrotherapy suite which includes a Hydroworx aquatic therapy pool with underwater treadmill. The existing training room was relocated to adjoin the new hydrotherapy suite, which results in a much-needed increased size for the new training room. Supporting the training area are three staff offices, exam room, and state-of-the-art x-ray room. The new team meeting room is equiped with the latest video technology and a media backdrop for postgame press conferences.

The existing football locker room was expanded and upgraded. The upgrades included new paint, carpet, ceilings, and lighting. The equipment room has been reconfigured, and a new high-density storage system was purchased to increase capacity and improve efficiency in the handling of equipment. In addition to the visible improvements a new supplemental mechanical unit to control moisture and improve indoor air quality was installed, along with new HVAC controls in the entire building.

With the campus fitness center relocated to the Benjamin Johnson Arena, renovations were also made to the second floor. A second team meeting room was created with sliding glass walls to provide flexibility for a variety of uses. A student-athlete lounge was built near the racquetball courts which includes two 70-inch monitors.

The building also includes the Harley Room, a large multipurpose area overlooking Gibbs Stadium. The area hosts a wide variety of campus events during the year. On the patio, a sculpture of Jerry Richardson was dedicated on May 12, 2014 to honor him and recognize the 20th anniversary of the Carolina Panthers summer training camp being held on campus. The sculpture, created by noted California artist Todd Andrews, depicts Richardson seeming to be ready to walk over to Gibbs Stadium to watch the Terriers — for which he also played — take on the next worthy opponent.

THE JOE E. TAYLOR CENTER

Wofford alumnus and former South Carolina Secretary of Commerce Joe Taylor donated $1 million for the renovation of the Curry Building into the Joe E. Taylor Athletic Center. The Taylor Center features a 7,000 square foot weight room and offices for athletic department staff. The building, located next to Gibbs Stadium, was completed in June of 2009.

The weight room facility is equipped with a total of 24 racks with built-in pull-up bars and nearly 25,000 pounds of plates, dumbells and olympic weights. The 24 racks are divided, with twelve used with platforms and twelve used with benches. Additional equipment includes four pulldown machines, four low row machines, five power runners, six glute/ham machines, two decline ab machines, a leg press and exercise bike. Also included is a large area of Mondo track flooring, which is used with the step-up boxes, plyo boxes and hurdle sets in speed development.

The Taylor Center also provides offices for administration and numerous sports, including women's soccer, men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis and cross country and track and field. A conference room and several work areas give the coaching staff much needed space.

RICHARDSON INDOOR STADIUM

A new era at Wofford began in 2018 with the opening of the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. The new home of basketball and volleyball is adjacent to the north end of Gibbs Stadium, where the Terriers play football.

Wofford alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson, Class of 1959, provided the gift to fund the facility that includes a 3,400-seat basketball arena and a 350-seat volleyball competition venue as well as offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, training rooms and special fan areas, including several open-air suites. The facility replaces Benjamin Johnson Arena, which will continue to be used as a first-rate gymnasium for intramural and campus recreational activities.

The facility has already been able to attract top opponents for the basketball teams, including South Carolina, North Carolina, Harvard and Georgia Tech.

The Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium also has a seating capacity for non-athletics functions, such as commencement and concerts, of 4,500. The facility includes "Club 51" for club seat holders, the "Boneyard" lounge in the student section, state of the art sound system and acoustical design, along with electronic charging stations throughout the building.

BENJAMIN JOHNSON ARENA

When the campus community bid farewell to the Benjamin Johnson Arena as the home of Wofford basketball and volleyball in 2017, it created new possibilities for student recreation and wellness. The renovated Benjamin Johnson Arena student fitness center opened in January of 2018.

"The Benjamin Johnson Arena, which opened in 1981, holds a lot of history for Wofford College, and we're glad we are able to continue to use the facility as a larger, better fitness center for our students, faculty and staff," President Nayef Samhat says. "The addition of the new Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium provides us with this terrific opportunity to give our community a place in the Benjamin Johnson Arena to exercise both their bodies and their minds."

The lower level of the arena (once basketball and volleyball courts and bleachers) houses a new multi-sport playing surface with three courts. A walking track surrounds the perimeter of the courts. The locker rooms were completely renovated. The concourse areas have become the new student fitness center with the installation of a variety of equipment and machines.

The east concourse has weight equipment, including free weights, benches and machines. The other concourse has cardio equipment, including treadmills, stationary bikes and elliptical machines. The concourses also have open locker storage and new audio-visual equipment.

In addition to the fitness activities, Benjamin Johnson Arena is home of a comprehensive intramural, recreation, and club sports programs that encompass team sports, individual sports, fitness classes, club sports, as well as various other programs. Highlights include intramural basketball and softball, equestrian club, men's club lacrosse, club ultimate frisbee and an outdoors club.

The arena is named after Benjamin O. Johnson '30 who was a Spartanburg textile executive associated with Spartan Mills. Mr. Johnson was also a trustee of Wofford College as well as a benefactor. Wofford moved into the Benjamin Johnson Arena in 1981 after playing in adjacent Andrews Field House for 50 years. The $4.5 million arena is part of the Campus Life Building, which was designed to serve as the center of athletic, social and cultural activity on campus.

The first men's basketball contest was held on January 22, 1981, as The Citadel scored a 65-64 win over Wofford. The Terriers first win in the arena was on January 26, 1981. The men had an overall record of 334-131 in 37 seasons in the facility.

The Wofford women's basketball team fielded its first varsity team in the 1980-81 season, moving into Benjamin Johnson Arena in 1981 after playing in Andrews Fieldhouse for the first half of the season. The first women's basketball game was held on January 22, 1981, with Wofford defeating Sacred Heart 74-25.

NCAA COMPLIANCE

The importance of following all NCAA rules and regulations is imperative to maintaining the integrity of Wofford College and intercollegiate athletics. We ask all who are associated with the institutions athletics programs to help the College protect the spirit of competition, the athletics eligibility of our student-athletes and the reputation of the College by adhering to the rules and regulations of the NCAA and by contacting the Compliance Office or the NCAA with all questions. If you have any questions about NCAA rules, please contact Elizabeth Rabb at (864) 597-4090, the Wofford website woffordterriers.com and click on 'Compliance,' or the NCAA at www.ncaa.org.

Furthermore the NCAA states that it is possible for a person to be a representative of more than one institution at the same time. A representative of athletics interest may not:

- Contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an effort to evaluate a prospect
- Visit the prospect's institution to pick up film or transcripts
- Contact a prospect, his/her parents, legal quardians or spouse on or off campus

WOFFORD 53, ARKANSAS 56

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. —The 12th-seeded Wofford Terriers lost a heartbreaker in their second-round opener of the NCAA tournament, 56-53, at the hands of 5th-seeded Arkansas Thursday night at Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena.

After leading for over 20 minutes, Wofford found itself down three with the final possession of the game. A 3-point attempt by senior quard Karl Cochran rimmed out, but junior forward Spencer Collins ripped down the offensive board. Sophomore Eric Garcia gave one last heave to try and tie the game, but the deep ball rattled out as the final buzzer sounded.

"I'm so proud of this team and all they have accomplished," said head coach Mike Young. "I'm just disappointed we're not coming back Saturday. It's been a magic carpet ride."

Wofford (28-7) never trailed by more than three points and had Arkansas (27-8) on the ropes the whole way. The nationally-ranked Razorbacks squad never led by more than three, but held that lead when the final horn sounded.

The Terriers led 51-49 with 3:30 to play before Arkansas tied it up. SEC Player of the Year Bobby Portis gave the Razorbacks the lead, but the Terriers answered. Sophomore Eric Garcia hit a jumper that brought the game to its 10th tie with 1:50 left.

Arkansas quickly came down the floor to retake the lead. Alandise Harris was fouled on his drive to the basket and converted the 3-point play.

Wofford ran out of magic. Collins missed a triple with just over a minute left. After defending Arkansas next possession, Wofford ran down the clock looking to send the game to overtime, but came up empty.

WOFFORD 84, SETON HALL 68

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - The No. 19 Wofford men's basketball team recorded its first ever win in the NCAA Tournament on Thursday night as Fletcher Magee drained seven 3-pointers to break the all-time record for career 3-pointers in Division I history and lead the Terriers to an 84-68 win over Seton Hall.

Magee scored a team-high 24 points, going 7-for-12 from 3-point range, breaking Travis Bader's (Oakland, 504) record for career threes in the process. Magee, who now has 509 career 3-pointers hit 5-of-7 in the second half, propelling Wofford to the 16-point victory.

"Yeah, I was aware of it just from the media and everyone texting me and stuff, and saying I had three more, Magee said of breaking the record. "So when I hit it, I definitely noticed the crowd was louder than just the normal three in the second half."

"Proud of my boys," said Wofford head coach Mike Young. "Look forward to coming back over tomorrow and practicing with this team, I can't tell you how enjoyable that has been for me, and the thought of Wofford coming back on Saturday to face off against one of the great programs in our country in the Kentucky Wildcats, that's pretty cool stuff."

Nathan Hoover lit it up from 3-point range as well, totaling 18 points on four 3-pointers while Cameron Jackson recorded a double-double, scoring 14 points and grabbing a game-high 10 rebounds. As a team, Wofford shot 48.1 percent from the field and 46.4 percent from downtown scoring 20 points off Seton Hall turnovers.

"Oh, it means a lot to all of us, but we know we can't get caught up in the moment," said Hoover of picking up the program's first win in the NCAA Tournament.

Near the midway point of the first, Jackson began to take over, hitting back to back buckets before grabbing an offensive rebound and finding Storm Murphy for a 3-pointer to put Wofford ahead 23-16.

The bigs continued to put the work in as Jackson scored again and then found Chevez Goodwin for a slam that pushed the lead to 13. Moments later, Magee rose up from the top of the key and drained his 504th career 3-pointer while getting fouled to make it 34-18 in favor of the Terriers. The Pirates responded, going on a 9-0 run until a jumper from Murphy ended the cold streak for Wofford. With time winding down on the shot clock, a broken play turned into a dunk from Keve Aluma to end the half with Wofford's biggest lead at the break in its five tournament games (40-30).

Magee wasted no time making history in the second, knocking down a 3-pointer to open the scoring in the half and move past Oakland's Travis Bader for most career threes in NCAA Division I history with 505.

"I feel like I didn't caught too caught up in it. It was a close game," Magee said of the record-breaking shot. "I was just focused on doing whatever I could to help us continue to stretch our lead and win."

With Seton Hall fighting back and cutting the lead to eight, Magee knocked down his fourth 3-pointer of the night to make the score 53-42 with 13:39 to play in the second. Led by Myles Powell's back to back 3-pointers, Seton Hall took its first lead of the second half with 10:52 to play (54-53).

The two sides traded buckets, but Magee continued to be red hot from beyond the arc, putting Wofford ahead 67-62 with just over five minutes to play after knocking down two more threes. Hoover made his presence felt, draining a pair of 3-pointers to put Wofford up by six before Magee's seventh 3-pointer of the night made it 76-66 with three minutes left to play.

Jackson helped seal the game for the Terriers, drawing a charge and converting in the paint with 1:30 to push the Wofford lead to 14 as a layup from Murphy capped off the historic night.

WOFFORD 56, KENTUCKY 62

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — The No. 7 seed Wofford men's basketball team had the best season in program history come to an end on Saturday, falling to the second-seeded Kentucky Wildcats in the second round of the NCAA Tournament 62-56.

The game came right down to the wire, with Keve Aluma pulling Wofford to within two points with under 40 seconds to play, but Kentucky held on, hitting four free throws to take the game.

"I'm struggling here, pardon me, said Wofford head coach Mike Young of the game. "I applaud Coach Calipari and the Wildcats."

As a team, Wofford led for nearly 19 minutes, shooting 37.5 percent from the floor and holding Kentucky without a field goal in the last 5:12 of play.

Nathan Hoover finished his season in strong fashion, leading the Terriers with a game-high 19 points on 6-of-9 shooting. Cameron Jackson scored 11 points and grabbed eight rebounds while Fletcher Magee totaled eight and Aluma added seven, grabbing a team-high 11 rebounds in the process.

The Terriers complete their season with an overall record of 30-5, setting the program record for wins in a season and regular-season wins (26), while picking up Wofford's first NCAA Tournament victory (Seton Hall, 84-68). The 2018-19 season also saw the Terriers register their first ever Associated Press Top 25 Poll ranking, being ranked No. 24 on February 25 and moving up to No. 19 in the season-ending AP Poll.

Earning a seven seed, Wofford was the highest-rated Southern Conference team since 1979 and picked up the league's first NCAA Tournament victory in 11 years.

The Terriers came out swinging in the first, with Hoover hitting a jumper off a screen and Jackson rattling home a 3-pointer. Kentucky would even the score at 11 apiece but a 3-pointer from Donovan Theme-Love and a hook shot from Pegram made it 16-11.

After the Wildcats cut the lead to one, Hoover drained a 3-pointer as time expired and Magee found Aluma in transition as the Terriers took a 21-15 lead, forcing a Kentucky timeout. The Wildcats would go on an 11-3 run, taking a two-point lead before Magee knocked down an elbow jumper to knot the game up at 26. Kentucky would hit a pair of free throws and take the 28-26 lead into the break.

Jackson, Hoover and Magee scored on consecutive possessions to open up the second, and a jumper from Magee put Wofford ahead 35-32. Kentucky responded with a 10-2 run to take their biggest lead of the game, making it 45-37. The Terriers would cut the lead in half, but the Wildcats pushed it to nine with 8:42 to play.

It was Wofford's turn to rally, getting free throws from Jackson and a 3-pointer from Hoover to cut the deficit to just three (54-51) with 5:42 to play. After Kentucky responded with a three of its own, Storm Murphy connected on second trey of the night to keep the deficit just three.

Aluma came up big on the next two possessions, swatting a shot away and converting a tip-in to make the score 58-56 with 37.9 seconds to play in the game. Wofford would run out of time however, as Kentucky was able to clinch the game from the free throw line.

"Didn't happen for us today, but certainly this group, this team has done enormous things, great things for not only our basketball program but for our great college and for the wonderful city of Spartanburg," Young said. "This has been all-timers, all-timers and such a treat to have been a part of it."

JAY McAULEY

HEAD COACH FIRST SEASON GEORGIA '06

Wofford College announced on Sunday, April 14, 2019, the hiring of Jay McAuley as head men's basketball coach. McAuley has spent the past two years as the associate head coach of the Terriers.

"I am truly honored to be the next men's basketball coach at Wofford College," said McAuley. "I would like to thank President Samhat, Athletic Director Richard Johnson and the many supporters who believe in my ability to continue the championship tradition that is firmly in place here. While this is a new and exciting chapter for both my family and the Terrier faithful, the mission remains the same: recruit and graduate first-class student-athletes, showcase an exciting brand of basketball, and win championships."

"When we began the search process six days ago, we thought Jay McAuley would be a good choice," said Wofford Director of Athletics Richard Johnson. "As we progressed through the process, it became clear that he was a great choice. He has been a valuable member of the coaching staff at Wofford and has great experience with coaches such as Chris Holtmann and Niko Medved. We are excited to have him lead our team."

"We are fortunate to have such a talented coach ready to continue our incredible momentum and lead our basketball program," said Wofford President Dr. Nayef Samhat. "On behalf of the Wofford family I want to welcome Jay as our new head coach, and we are delighted that he and his wife Sallie and their daughter Addie will continue to be a part of the Spartanburg community."

For the past two years, he has been associate head coach at Wofford. This past season the Terriers posted a 30-5 overall record, including a perfect 18-0 mark in Southern Conference play. They won the Southern Conference Tournament title, the second for McAuley at Wofford. In the NCAA Tournament, the Terriers were a seventh-seed — the highest by a team from the Southern Conference since the field expanded to 64 teams. A win over Seton Hall sent Wofford to the second round, the league's first NCAA Tournament victory in 11 years. They were defeated by second-seeded Kentucky 62-56 to end the season.

The team was ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time ever, ending the season at #19. They were also ranked #18 in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. Fletcher Magee was named Southern Conference Player of the Year, along with honorable mention All-America recognition and Lou Henson National Player of the Year recipient as the top mid-major player in Division I. Cameron Jackson joined Magee on the first team All-Southern Conference team by both the media and coaches.

During the 2017-18 season the team was 21-13 overall and 11-7 in the Southern Conference to finish tied for fourth. Highlights included a win in Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium and on December 20, Wofford went into the Dean E. Smith Center and upset No. 5 North Carolina, the defending national champions. The team played in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT). Fletcher Magee was named the Malcolm U. Pitt Player of the Year (Media) and was a first team All-SoCon selection, while Cameron Jackson earned second team honors and Storm Murphy was placed on the All-Freshman team.

In four seasons on the coaching staff at Furman, he helped guide the Paladins from a seven-win squad prior to his arrival and led it to improved records each season. The run culminated in a 23-11 record in 2016 that earned a share of its first SoCon regular season championship since 1990-91. The team reached the semifinals of the CIT postseason tournament in 2016-17, its second consecutive season in the CIT. He coached All-Southern Conference players Stephen Croone and Devin Sibley, Jr., along with All-Freshman Team members Jordan Lyons, Daniel Fowler and Matt Rafferty.

He spent three seasons at Gardner-Webb University on Chris Holtmann's staff. After a 23-41 mark in the first two seasons, in the 2012-13 season he helped lead the Runnin' Bulldogs to a 21-13 overall mark. ## SOCON TOURNAMENT

MARCH 6-9, 2020 ASHEVILLE, N.C.

The Southern Conference Tournament is back in Asheville in 2020 after a successful return to the city in 2012. Since joining the Southern Conference, the Terriers are 21-16 all-time in tournament games. In Charlotte in 2010, the Terriers reached the finals for the first time and defeated Appalachian State to win the title and the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. In 2011 in Chattanooga, Wofford reached the finals again and with a victory over College of Charleston won back-to-back titles. The 2018-19 was the first SoCon Team to run the table, sweeping both the regular season (18-0) and SoCon Tournament (3-0) since Steph Curry's Davidson squad in 2009-10. The team also garnered the first NCAA Tournament victory in school history and the first by a Southern Conference team in 11 years, defeating Seton Hall 84-68 in Jacksonville.

The City's origins predate the Revolutionary War. Spartanburg was named for a unit of American Revolution forces called the "Spartan Rifles" who helped defeat the British at the Battle of Cowpens in 1781, under the leadership of General Daniel Morgan.

The town of Spartanburg was incorporated in 1831 and later as a city in 1880 by the 13 Original States and Tennessee. During this time Spartanburg was booming due in large part to the rapidly expanding textile industry.

In the 1870s, Spartanburg became a railroad "hub city," with mainline railroads extending from Magnolia Street depot in all directions, taking passengers and freight to Charleston, Augusta, Atlanta, Asheville, Charlotte and points beyond. As many as 90 trains per day could be seen and heard operating in Spartanburg during the golden age of the American railroad, 1900-20.

During the 1920s, Spartanburg built South Carolina's first municipal airport and claimed the state's first commercial radio station (WSPA). Its leadership in the state was reflected by the election of several residents as governor.

Thousands of U.S. soldiers bound for overseas service in World Wars I and II trained at camps in Spartanburg. The post headquarters for Camp Wadsworth (1917-19) was located at the present site of WestGate Mall, and the Camp Croft (1940-45) was located south of the city.

Much of that military reservation has become Croft

After World War II, Spartanburg made a concerted effort to promote its location at the junction of Interstates 85 and 26 to international business. One of the greatest successes of this campaign was the development of the BMW manufacturing center near the Greenville-Spartanburg Airport.

Spartanburg's downtown, which always has been anchored by the campuses of Wofford and Converse Colleges, has been undergoing a major revival since the mid-1990s. In addition to the corporate headquarters for Denny's, Advance America, QS-1 and several other companies, the city has acquired a magnificant public library, the Marriott Hotel at Renaissance Park and most recently, the Chapman Arts Center and the USC Upstate George Dean Johnson School of Business. The area surrounding Morgan Square gradually is redeveloping with a variety of interesting restaurants and urban apartment-style housing.

Throughout the 20th century, textile manufacturing companies formed the backbone of the Spartanburg economy. The most significant of these companies still in operation is internationally respected Milliken & Company.

Blessed by geography and climate as well as by energetic and well-educated citizenry, Spartanburg is emerging as one of the centers of a 21st century metroplex that extends along the South Carolina portion of

At the end of the last academic year, there were approximately 2,000 four-year colleges in the United States. Only 262 of them have the right to induct their graduates into Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's most prestigious liberal arts honor society. There are five independent Phi Beta Kappa colleges and universities in the Carolinas: Wofford, Davidson, Duke, Furman and Wake Forest.

Founded at the College of William and Mary in December 1776, Phi Beta Kappa was the first of the Greek letter fraternities and adopted such rituals as the badge, the secret oath, and the special handclasp from the various secret societies of the day.

Phi Beta Kappa, however, was also devoted to the principles of "friendship, morality, and literature (or learning)," and these characteristics gradually attained the greatest emphasis. John Quincy Adams, Edward Everett and Joseph Story, members of the Harvard chapter, are credited with making the fraternity a public literary and honor society for undergraduates in the 1830's. Women were first admitted to Phi Beta Kappa in 1875 at the University of Vermont.

Wofford received its chapter at the 1940 triennial meeting, bringing to fruition more than ten years of work by three Phi Beta Kappa members who were then serving on the faculty: President Henry Nelson Snyder, Dr. David Duncan Wallace, class of 1894, and Dr. John West Harris '16, a brash and brilliant young English professor not afraid to campaign vigorously in the conviction that his alma mater deserved membership. (Dr. Harris later founded the National Beta Club, which still has its headquarters in Spartanburg).

With about 350,000 members across the country, Phi Beta Kappa today sponsors numerous programs to encourage scholarship and learning, including the Phi Beta Kappa Book Awards and the visiting scholar, academic fellowship and leadership programs.

address issues facing intercollegiate athletics. From establishing the first postseason college basketball tournament (1921), to tackling the issue of freshman eligibility (1922), to developing women's championships (1984), to becoming the first conference to install the 3-point goal in basketball (1980), the Southern Conference has been a pioneer.

The Southern Conference is the nation's fifth-oldest NCAA Division I collegiate athletic association. Only the Big Ten (1896), the Missouri Valley (1907), the Pac-12 (1915) and the Southwestern Athletic (1920) conferences are older in terms of origination.

Academic excellence has been a major part of the Southern Conference's tradition. Hundreds of Southern Conference student-athletes have been recognized on CoSIDA Academic All-America and all-district teams. A total of 20 Rhodes Scholarship winners have been selected from conference institutions, most recently in 2012-13, when former Wofford volleyball player Rachel Woodlee earned the prestigious award.

The Southern Conference offices are located in the historic Beaumont Mill in Spartanburg, S.C. A textile mill that was in operation from 1880 until 1999, Beaumont Mill was renovated in 2004 and today offers the league first-class meeting areas and offices as well as a spacious library for storage of the conference's historical documents.

MEMBERSHIP HISTORY

On Feb. 25, 1921, representatives from 14 of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association's (SIAA) 30 members met at Atlanta's Piedmont Hotel to establish the Southern Intercollegiate Conference. On hand at the inaugural meeting were officials from Alabama, Alabama Polytechnic Institute (Auburn), Clemson, Georgia, Georgia School of Technology (Georgia Tech), Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi A&M (Mississippi State), North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Polytechnic Institute (Virginia Tech) and Washington & Lee.

Dr. S.V. Sanford of Georgia was chosen as acting chairman and N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee was named secretary. The decision to form a new athletic conference was motivated by the desire to have a workable number of conference games for each league member. With 30 schools in the SIAA by the early 1920s, it was impossible to play every school at least once during the regular season and many schools went several years between playing some conference members. In addition, in 1920, the SIAA voted down proposed rules that an athlete must be in a college a year before playing on its teams and refused to abolish a rule permitting athletes to play summer baseball for money.

Play began in the fall of 1921, and a year later, six more schools joined the fledgling league, including Tulane (which had attended the inaugural meeting but had elected not to join), Florida, Louisiana (LSU), Mississippi, South Carolina and Vanderbilt. VMI joined in 1925 and Duke was added in 1929.

By the 1930s, membership in the Southern Conference had reached 23 schools. C.P. "Sally" Miles of Virginia Tech, president of the Southern Conference, called the annual league meeting to order on Dec. 9, 1932, at the Farragut Hotel in Knoxville, Tenn. Georgia's Dr. Sanford announced that 13 institutions west and south of the Appalachian Mountains were reorganizing as the Southeastern Conference. Members of the new league included Alabama, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Florida, Georgia, Georgia School of Technology, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Mississippi A&M, University of the South, Tennessee, Tulane and

According to the minutes of the meeting, Dr. Sanford stated that the division was made along geographical lines. Florida's Dr. J.J. Tigert, acting as spokesman for the withdrawing group, regretted the move but believed it was necessary as the Southern Conference had grown too large. The resignations were accepted and the withdrawing schools formed the new league, which began play in 1933.

The Southern Conference continued with membership of 10 institutions, including Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina, Virginia, VMI, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee.

The second major shift occurred some 20 years later. By 1952, the Southern Conference included 17 colleges and universities. Another split occurred when seven schools — Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest — departed to form the Atlantic Coast Conference, which began play in 1953. The revamped Southern Conference included members The Citadel, Davidson, Furman, George Washington, Richmond, VMI, Virginia Tech, Washington & Lee, West Virginia and William & Mary.

A third major shift occurred in 2012-13, when five members announced their departures and three schools were added. College of Charleston announced its decision to leave for the Colonial Athletic Association following the 2012-13 season, while Appalachian State (Sun Belt), Davidson (Atlantic 10), Elon (Colonial) and Georgia Southern (Sun Belt) announced they would depart following the 2013-14 campaign. At the Southern Conference's 2013 spring meetings in Hilton Head Island, S.C., the league officially extended invitations to former members ETSU and VMI, as well as Mercer, to join the league for the 2014-15 academic year.

Today, the league continues to thrive with a membership that includes 10 institutions and a footprint that spans six states: Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. Current league members are The Citadel, ETSU, Furman, Mercer, UNCG, Samford, Chattanooga, VMI, Western Carolina and Wofford.

FOOTBALL

The Southern Conference has also excelled as the premier Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) conference. Former Southern Conference member Appalachian State won the three consecutive FCS titles from 2005-07, becoming the first team to do so. The league boasts more than 250 players who have garnered All-America recognition and numerous national player or coach of the year awards. The conference had at least one team in the top 10 of the final FCS poll for 28 consecutive years (1985-2012), with at least two teams finishing in the final poll in every season from 1982-2013. Two SoCon teams — ETSU and Wofford — finished in the top 25 in 2018.

The conference has placed multiple representatives in the FCS Playoffs in 30 of 35 seasons, with 16 championship game appearances and eight national titles.

DR. NAYER SAMHAT

PRESIDENT

The Wofford College Board of Trustees elected Dr. Nayef H. Samhat as president of the college on Tuesday, May 14, 2013. He began his duties at Wofford on July 1, 2013.

Samhat had served as provost and professor of political science and international studies at Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio, since 2009.

"We conducted a thorough, national search for the 11th president of Wofford College," said J. Harold Chandler (Class of 1971), chair of the Wofford Board of Trustees. "Our search committee was led by an able and accomplished individual and its 12 members have done their job in a thoughtful and comprehensive manner. The board of trustees, led by its Human Resources Committee, has completed its review and have voted to accept the mutual recommendation of the Search Committee and the Human Resources Committee in the naming of Dr. Nayef H. Samhat as the next president of Wofford College. We are honored that Dr. Samhat has accepted our call and we are excited and ready to begin our important work together."
