Troubadour Series Presents Grammy Nominee Ronn McFarlane

Date/Time: 1/9/2009 7:00:00 PM

Location: Spartanburg Memorial Auditorium

Cost: Free; Seating limited to 200 people

Details: One of the most outstanding lutenists performing today, Ronn McFarlane is largely responsible for bringing the transcendent charm and timeless quality of the lute into the musical mainstream and making it accessible to a larger audience. Born in West Virginia, Ronn spent most of his early years in the neighboring state of Maryland where he developed an interest in music at an early age. As a teenager, he taught himself to play on what he describes as a "cranky sixteen dollar steel string guitar." He went on to develop his talent, and combined blues and rock music on the electric guitar with studies on the classical guitar. Ronn graduated with honors from Shenandoah Conservatory and continued studies at Peabody Conservatory before turning his full attention and energy to the lute in 1978. The following year, Ronn performed his first solo recitals on the lute and became a member of the Baltimore Consort. Since that time, he has toured extensively throughout the United States, Canada and Europe with the Baltimore Consort and as a soloist. Ronn was a faculty member of the Peabody Conservatory from 1984 to 1995, teaching lute and lute-related subjects. In 1996, he was awarded an honorary Doctorate of Music from Shenandoah Conservatory for his achievements in bringing the lute and its music to the world. Ronn has numerous recordings on the Dorian label including solo recordings, lute song recordings with Julianne Baird, soprano and Frederick Urrey, tenor, over ten CDs with the Baltimore Consort and ballad recordings with Custer LaRue and members of the Baltimore Consort. Recently, Ronn has been engaged in composing new music for the lute, building on the tradition of the lutenist/composers of the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. This new music is the focus of his new solo CD, Indigo Road.

From: WoffordNews WoffordNews@Wofford.Edu
Subject: Wofford Emergency Alert Test this week
Date: January 8, 2009 at 9:18 AM
To: Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

To the Wofford Campus Community:

At about 3 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 6, we conducted a test of the Wofford Emergency Alert System. The system is tested at this same time – 3 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month – during the academic year.

This week's test generated a message delivered to REGISTERED cell phones, PDA, pagers, e-mails and Web browsers. You must be registered and validated through the Wofford Emergency Alert System (through e2Campus) to have received the message.

- If you are registered and received the message on all registered devices, NO RESPONSE is needed.
- If you received the message, but it was delayed by more than 15 minutes, please e-mail Laura Corbin (laura.corbin@wofford.edu) and indicate the time you received the message and your service provider.
- If you are registered, but DID NOT receive the message on all registered devices, please log into your e2Campus account and check your "status." If your device has not been validated, you will not receive messages. Please validate your device. If you have problems with validation, or if you are registered and validated, but still did not receive the alert, please contact Laura Corbin at laura.corbin@wofford.edu. Please put "Emergency Alert System" in your subject line.
- If you are registered and validated, but still did not receive the message, please check your EXPIRATION DATE. If your registration has expired, you can simply change the expiration date. (Those studying abroad may temporarily suspend their accounts by using the expiration date function, then reactivate when they return.)
- If you have NOT REGISTERED to receive these messages, you are STRONGLY URGED to do so immediately at <http://www.wofford.edu/campusSafety/content.aspx?id=33330>.

Wofford's Emergency Alert System is an instant, mass notification system that enables students, parents, and members of the faculty and professional staff to receive updates and alerts via cell phones, personal data assistants (PDAs), e-mail accounts, and personal Web pages (such as Google, AOL, or Yahoo).

This service is part of our larger strategy to enhance communications during an emergency. Our goal is to increase safety on the Wofford College campus.

Wofford College Emergency Alert System is a completely voluntary service provided to the college community and is powered by Omnilert Network e2Campus. No advertisements or non-emergency alerts will be sent to you. You must sign up for the service in order to receive alerts. Because this is a voluntary service, you may choose to opt-in or opt-out of the service at any time.

You only have to register one time. Use either the cell phone or the e-mail sign up page, not both. Once you have an account, you can add to, or change, how you receive your messages. Links on the page take you to the appropriate sign up page.

If you have problems or questions, contact Laura Corbin at x4180 or laura.corbin@wofford.edu.

Subject: Student and Staff Ticket Policy for Davidson Game
Date: January 9, 2009 at 8:43 AM
To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu

Due to ticket demand the Athletic Department has announced that a limited number of tickets will be available to Wofford students, faculty and staff for the Wofford men's basketball game vs. Davidson on Thursday, February 12 at 7:00 p.m.

Beginning MONDAY, JANUARY 12, Wofford students may pick up a free ticket for the game by coming to the Athletic Administration Office in the Richardson Building between the hours of 9 am and 5 pm (Monday-Friday). 300 student tickets will be available in section West 4. You must have a ticket to come to this game.

For Wofford faculty and staff, 150 general admission tickets will be available and you are asked to come to the Athletic Administration Office in Richardson to pick your tickets up as well. Wofford faculty and staff will need to show ID will receive the complimentary ticket plus one additional upon request.

We expect this game to sell-out, so please make plans now to pick up your tickets and attend so we can create a great home-court atmosphere. Reserved seat tickets for the game are already sold out. Athletics is holding the reserved seats in West 4 (student section) as part of the 300 tickets for students.

Thank you,

Subject: Wofford 2009 Martin Luther King, Jr. Events and the Presidential Inauguration
Date: January 9, 2009 at 8:48 AM
To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. often spoke of hope: "If you lose hope, somehow you lose the vitality that keeps life moving, you lose that courage to be, that quality that helps you go on in spite of it all. And so today I still have a dream."

"Everything that is done in the world is done by hope."

For Dr. King, hope was the requisite, driving force in the fight for justice, equality, and peace. "Change" and "hope" have been major themes in this election year. For this reason, we thought it appropriate to explore them in a celebration of Dr. King's Legacy. Our theme this year is AN INFINITE HOPE, taking from Dr. King's quote: "We must accept finite disappointment, but we must never lose infinite hope." With the current wars and economic recession, this quote seems very timely.

Wofford's Martin Luther King, Jr Celebration: M.L.K. Unity Breakfast

The annual breakfast will consist of reflections by Wofford faculty and students, a commemorative multimedia presentation, and a selection by the Gospel Choir. It will begin at 7:30 a.m. on Jan. 19 in the Montgomery Room of the Burwell Building on Wofford's campus. This event is open only to Wofford students, faculty, and staff. Those who wish to attend must RSVP to clowneys@wofford.edu by Thursday, Jan 15, 2009

Presidential Inauguration

The Office of Multicultural Affairs along and several student organizations will host a special screening of the U.S. Presidential Inauguration. A historic moment for our nation, the inauguration will be a powerful milestone in the fight for civil rights for which Dr. King gave his life. The screening will begin at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 20 in the Harley Room on the first floor of the Richardson Building. We will begin with a reception and then the showing of the Inauguration at 11:30 a.m. Immediately following the news broadcast, members of the Spartanburg and Wofford Community will share personal reflections until 12:30 p.m. This event is free and is open to members of the Wofford community and their families.

To the Wofford Community,

My team and I cannot thank you enough for your attendance last night against the College of Charleston. Your enthusiasm was felt by our team and it's not a cliché to say that you made a difference for us and created a tremendous atmosphere. We have 8 more of these SoCon battles left at home and we hope you will be there in force for us like that beginning tomorrow night at 7 p.m. against The Citadel.

Thanks again and I look forward to seeing you tomorrow.

Date: January 19, 2009 at 3:25 PM
To: Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

This is a reminder of Wofford College's Inclement Weather Policy:

Wofford College ordinarily DOES NOT close because of weather that brings snow and ice to the area. Every effort will be made to hold classes and to have offices open. Commuting students, faculty and staff should understand that campus is open and classes are held, but that they are to run no unreasonable risk to get to the campus. Students will be permitted to make up work they miss. (If an exception is made to this policy, Upstate area radio and television stations will be notified. Otherwise, it is safe to assume that the college is open and conducting classes as usual.)

To the Campus Community:

Please be aware that the City of Spartanburg will have police/public safety officers training on our campus tomorrow and Sunday (Jan. 24 and 25). They will be in civilian clothing, wearing gun belts and body armor.

These officers, including three of Wofford's Campus Safety offices, will be in the Anna Todd Wofford Center beginning at 8:30 a.m. Saturday and will train here until about 3 p.m., when they will go to the shooting range for training. Sometime during the morning on Saturday, they will conduct a building-clearing exercise of the Daniel Building.

The officers will return Sunday morning.

Please do not be alarmed by these officers' presence. These officers, both the Campus Safety officers and the City of Spartanburg officers, are the very ones who would respond to any emergency on our campus. We are pleased to host them for this very important training.

RecycleMania Begins

Details: RecycleMania started in 2001 with a friendly competition between several colleges. It is estimated that roughly half of all trash on a College campus is collected in the residence halls. Furthermore, studies have shown that 50% of that trash could have been recycled. RecycleMania has grown in seven years to over 400 US colleges competing to see how we each can reduce our trash. Please participate in these important efforts by: • Collect your paper, plastic and aluminum cans • Bring these materials to the recycling containers between the back of the library and Campus Life parking lot. Students will be weighing all recyclables on Monday and Thursday from 2-4 p.m.

Life parking lot. Students will be weighing all recyclables on Monday and Thursday from 2-4 p.m.
The competition will run through March 27. We're excited to see just how Green Wofford can be!
