We are saddened to have learned of the death last night of Mary Susan Lancaster, assistant director of admission, after an extended illness. She was the aunt of Amy E. Lancaster, assistant dean for international programs and academic administration.

Dr. Dunlap asked that we join in keeping Susan's family in our hearts and prayers. "Susan's death is a heavy loss for the whole Wofford community, especially for those many students who owed their very presence at the college to her patient and careful assistance. We will miss her."

Details of visitation and funeral arrangements have not been made; we will follow up with those details as they become known.

Susan was a 1978 graduate of Wofford and is survived by her husband, Jack Pyles; daughter, Morgan Pyles Page '01; son-in-law, Michael Page; grandson, Jack Michael Page; and mother, Ozelle Lancaster.

She was the sister-in-law of Susan M. Lancaster in the Admission/Financial Aid Office at Wofford, and the aunt of Amy E. Lancaster in the Office of International Programs and Academic Administration at Wofford.

Subject: SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT FROM DEAN DAVID WOOD: Environmental Compliance Officer
Date: July 14, 2009 at 9:32 AM
To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

To: Wofford Faculty and Staff

Tammy Cooper, our stockroom manager and adjunct faculty member in the Chemistry department, has taken on an expanded role at the College and is now our Environmental Compliance Officer. Ms. Cooper has been working for the past 12 months to ensure Wofford's compliance with all of the regulations required by the federal Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the state Department of Health and Environmental Control (DEHEC). Designation of an Environmental Compliance Officer is required in order to maintain EPA and DHEC compliance in the years ahead.

We are committed as an institution to a program of best practices with respect to the management of our chemical inventory and the proper use and disposal of chemicals across the campus. Our improved practices are also consistent with our Black, Gold and Green initiative.

Although the areas most immediately and visibly impacted by our new procedures will be the Natural Sciences, Environmental Studies and Physical Plant, the entire campus is now involved and many practices and functions fall within the scope of our compliance program. For example, Theater and Fine Arts are impacted by the disposal of paints and art supplies, Information Technology and the Business Office by toner disposal, and every employee who wants to dispose of a battery must now pause and inquire about our practice for such disposal.

All of us must change some habits and procedures and fortunately, due to the work of Ms. Cooper and others, most of the difficult transition is behind us. Going forward, protocols for the ordering and disposal of chemicals will be supervised by our Environmental Compliance Officer. In addition, regular inspections of various campus facilities (storerooms, labs, stockrooms, etc) are required. As a result, we all will now expect communication from Tammy Cooper on these matters and will need to respond to her requests. Please consult her for help and advice, as needed. She can be reached at coopertl@wofford.edu or ext. 4637.

Thank you.

Unfortunately, I must report that Samie Clowney '01, our director of multicultural affairs and leadership programs, has resigned. He has accepted the position as director of district strategy with the Teach for America Program in Charlotte, N.C. He is excited about the opportunity to work in the area of educational reform. Samie is engaged to be married in November, and his fiancé teaches in Charlotte, too. Samie has been a very strong member of the Student Affairs staff. The students appreciate his wise counsel, and they benefitted from the programs he created. He worked to improve our community, and we will miss him greatly. His last day in the office will be Wednesday, July 22. We will plan to honor him at a reception when the students return to the campus in September. His email address is clowneys@wofford.edu if you want to contact him.

Fall Internships

Details: WSPA will begin interviewing for fall internships next week. The Media General Television internship programs augment the educational development of those studying for careers in broadcasting. This is accomplished by creating opportunities for students enrolled in institutions of higher learning to gain experience in the station's day-to-day operations. Students participating in the internship program in the News Department become knowledgeable in many different aspects of the News operation. The interns will interact with the assignment editors researching stories, making police checks, and answering phones. Interns will observe the news edit area where stories are prepared for broadcast, video feeds are brought in from remote news coverage locations and news video archives are maintained. Interns will also have the opportunity to shadow reporters and photographers in the field, giving them a first-hand experience at the news gathering process. Additionally, interns will spend time with producers in the newsroom and the control room, learning how a newscast is assembled and broadcast. There will also be ample opportunity to interact with the Anchors of the newscasts as well. Please direct any interested students to email me with a resume and follow up with a phone call. We ask that each intern try to work at least one full shift a week so that he or she gets a well rounded view of how the editorial process works. That shift can be a weekday, weekend, day or night.
