Subject: SPECIAL EVENT: Release of Philip Stone's new pictorial history of Wofford, Tuesday, Aug. 31
Date: August 27, 2010 at 2:56 PM
To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu

To the Campus Community:

Join us in the Sandor Tetzler Library Gallery on Tuesday, Aug. 31, between 3:30 and 5 p.m. for the campus release of Phillip Stone's new pictorial history of Wofford. The book, part of Arcadia Publishing's Campus History series, documents the college's photographic history from 1854 to the present. Most of the images come from the college's archival collection, and many have never been published before.

Ben Wofford Books will be on hand with copies for sale and Phillip Stone will be there to sign copies. It's a beautifully done history of the College.

Subject: SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: Gibbes Patton memorial service 10 a.m. Saturday at Goodall Environmental Studies Center
Date: September 1, 2010 at 8:47 AM
To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu

A memorial service for Gibbes Patton, who taught botany at Wofford for 23 years, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 4, at Wofford's Goodall Environmental Studies Center at Glendale, S.C. He died on Saturday, Aug. 28.

Patton was active as an environmental activist both on campus and across the community, and he will be remembered as one of the pioneers in this endeavor.

Please keep the Patton family in your thoughts and prayers.

Below is the complete obituary:

Ernest Gibbes Patton

Ernest Gibbes Patton died on Saturday, August 28, 2010. He was born on November 30, 1924, in Greenville, SC to Margaret Mitchell Patton and Ernest Patton. A graduate of Yale University, he also earned degrees at the University of NC-Chapel Hill and Duke University. He taught botany at the University of Alabama-Tuscaloosa for ten years and at Wofford College for twenty-three years.

He was married for 59 years to the late Mildred Connor Read Patton and is survived by four children, Charlotte Patton Tinsley (David L. Tinsley), Ernest G. Patton, Jr. (Keiko Kohama Patton) of Arlington, VA, C. Read Patton and Stephen L. Patton (Penni Surratt Patton); their families; and sisters-in-law, Marilyn W. Patton of Greenville, SC and Charlotte M. Read of Danville, VA.

Memorials may be made to SPACE, 100 East Main Street, Suite 7B, Spartanburg, SC 29306 or to Spartanburg Regional Hospice House, 686 Jeff Davis Drive, Spartanburg, SC 29303.

Following a private burial service, the family will receive friends in the Parish Hall at Christ Church Episcopal, 10 North Church Street, Greenville, SC 29601 on Thursday, September 2, 2010, from 10:30 AM until noon.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, September 4, 2010, at 10:00 AM at Wofford College's Goodall Center for Environmental Studies at Glendale Shoals.

Subject: Join the new Video Services Department

The Wofford College Athletic Department is seeking interested and dedicated students to join our newly created Video Services Department or "TerrierVision". Each student will receive hands-on experience in operating state-of-the art HD equipment and assist in the operation of the new videoboard at Gibbs Stadium. This crew will also assist in covering various athletic and other on-campus events as part of a television crew.

Many of the events covered will be posted to the web and students will also have the opportunity to create their own resume tape for a future career in television.

We are putting our team together now and if you would like to be part of this new and exciting opportunity, contact Russ Bradley, Director of Video Services at BradleyRN@wofford.edu or 597-4145

Thank you.

Please know that there will be flow/pressure tests at at least two hydrants on campus this morning, Friday, September 3, 2010 between 9:00 and 11:00 am We anticipate that these tests will take place at hydrants located behind the Library and in front of Marsh Hall. We may test one on Evins Street near the Village walkway. These important tests are necessary before we begin construction on Phase V of the Village and continue with renovations in Shipp, DuPre, Greene and Marsh Halls.

We apologize for any inconvenience the work causes you.

Welcome back!

Beginning Monday, Sept. 6, the Office of Communications and Marketing (OCM) will resume distributing Daily Announcements via email each morning. This will be the primary means of communication for campus news. It is important to not only submit your information about programs and events for the Daily Announcements, but that you read them each day so that you can stay abreast of what's going on.

Also, remember that the Wofford Online Calendar is the official campus calendar. All campus events should be submitted to the calendar, to encourage participation as well as to assist in scheduling so that conflicts can be avoided.

The OCM also can help you in promoting your events, including creating posters for on-campus posting.

Attached to this email is a PDF with instructions for:

- Posting to Daily Announcements
- Posting to the Wofford Calendar
- Requesting Posters

We suggest that you save and/or print this file for future reference.

Also, you may go to <http://www.wofford.edu/newsroom/campusNews.aspx> for these instructions as well as for forms to submit Faculty/Staff Achievements and News Tips (suggestions for news releases or Web stories).

If you have questions about posting to the Wofford Calendar or to Daily Announcements, please email: WoffordNews@wofford.edu.

If you have questions about the procedures for posters, please email Janella Lane at lanejm@wofford.edu or call ext. 4184.

Thanks, and have a great year!

Subject: FACULTY AND STAFF: Special Service at noon today
Date: September 9, 2010 at 9:37 AM
To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

To the members of the faculty and staff:

I hope that all of you had a wonderful summer. As the students begin the academic year, I am very sad to note that one member of the Wofford family is not among us. As you may be aware, Karl “Tiny” Alexander, a member of the class of 2013, passed away over the summer due to heart complications.

Please join the Campus Union, the brothers of our Kappa Sigma Chapter, and the Alexander family in a commemorating the life of Karl in a service today, September 9, at noon in Leonard Auditorium. We will be celebrating Karl’s infectious personality and the many lives that he touched during his time at Wofford College.

Please know that the service will end by 12:45 for students and faculty who have a 1:00 pm class.

Respectfully,

Claudia

The Wofford Community:
Free Concert at Chapman Cultural Center tomorrow evening,

Montana Skies, Classical Guitar and Electric Cello
Tuesday, Sept. 21, 2010, 7:00 p.m.
Chapman Cultural Center, 200 East St. John Street, Spartanburg

Jennifer and Jonathan Adams create a “new acoustic” sound with their pairing of cello, six-string electric cello, Spanish/classical guitar, and steel string guitar. These award winning musicians delve into music from Pink Floyd and Rush to Vivaldi, House of the Rising Sun, and Bach, as well as their own originals that have been featured everywhere from NPR to the Travel Channel. Using a wide range of effects, Jennifer Adams’ blazing electric cello and Jonathan Adams’ guitar wizardry combine to create a sound that is truly remarkable. If you would like additional information, check out their site at montanaskiesmusic.com.

The Chapman Cultural Center is located on East St. John Street, approximately 4 blocks or a ten-minute walk from campus. After the recital you might also enjoy strolling to nearby Morgan Square. Members of the Wofford community will be admitted free; however, we have reserved only 300 seats for Wofford, so plan to arrive a few minutes early.

Cost: Free

Details: Students are invited to join interested faculty and staff members in reading and discussing a series of graphic novels. This symposium will discuss four works of literature unified by the common theme of identity and their graphic novel format. Discussions will take place each time in the McMillan Theater from 4 - 5 p.m., and will be held approximately two weeks apart. The Library is providing copies of the works. There is no cost for the books, except the promise to read and be on hand to discuss. The first work is MAUS, to be discussed Tuesday, Sept. 28, 4 p.m. The book by Art Spiegelman alternates between a holocaust memoir of the author's father, and their present-day difficult relationship. Throughout MAUS, the author employs various animals to represent different nationalities and races, often with super-imposed masks to hide true identity. Wofford professor Joseph Sloan will lead the discussion. A copy of the book may be picked up from Mrs. Cathey in the Library. The next work, BATMAN, THE DARK KNIGHT RETURNS, will be available at the Sept. 28 discussion. For more information on the series, consult the printed fall calendar of cultural events. I hope to see you at the discussion as we explore this exciting combination of written work and visual arts.

'Tarball Chronicles' to lead off Santee Cooper Lecture Series

Author David Gessner guest speaker at Sept. 27 program

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – "The Tarball Chronicles," a look at the Deepwater Horizon oil disaster in the Gulf of Mexico featuring a talk by nationally renowned environmental author David Gessner, will lead off the 2010-11 Santee Cooper Lecture Series at Wofford College on Monday, Sept. 27.

The program, which is free and open to the public, will be held at 1:05 p.m. in the AAAS Room in the Burwell Building on Wofford's campus.

Wofford and Santee Cooper, the state-owned utility, began the Santee Cooper Lecture Series in 2009 to provide the college and the Spartanburg community with "a powerful forum for meetings and discussions with some of the leading thinkers in the world on the issues of energy and sustainability," according to John Lane, director of the Wofford's Goodall Environmental Studies Center and an associate professor of English. The series is being hosted by the college's Environmental Studies Program.

The second lecture in the series will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday, Oct. 28, in Leonard Auditorium in Main Building. Former Austin, Texas, mayor Will Wynn will speak on "Sustainable Cities."

David Gessner will speak on his insights on the Deepwater Horizon oil disaster based on his recent blog "Into the Gulf." Gessner is the author

Study and Intern Abroad in Rwanda

Details: We are pleased to announce a new exciting study abroad and internship program in Rwanda this spring. As part of the Rwanda Presidential Scholars Program Consortium, Wofford students can participate in this immersive SIT program examining development efforts in Rwanda. Students will investigate microfinance initiatives in relation to poverty reduction and financial self-autonomy and also consider the impact key ecological policies and practices can have on development. The program also culminates in a 3 month internship with a Rwandan NGO or government institution. A detailed program description is available online at <http://www.sit.edu/hendrixrwanda>. Application deadline: Oct. 14
Program Dates: Jan. 4 - May 31, 2011. Program cost: $11,000 + airfare, books, and visa costs (this program has a reduced fee through a special partnership with the William J. Clinton Foundation). Interested students should contact Sara Milani for questions and application instructions.

Details: We are pleased to announce a new exciting study abroad and internship program in Rwanda this spring. As part of the Rwanda Presidential Scholars Program Consortium, Wofford students can participate in this immersive SIT program examining development efforts in Rwanda. Students will investigate microfinance initiatives in relation to poverty reduction and financial self-autonomy and also consider the impact key ecological policies and practices can have on development. The program also culminates in a 3 month internship with a Rwandan NGO or government institution. A detailed program description is available online at <http://www.sit.edu/hendrixrwanda>. Application deadline: Oct. 14
Program Dates: Jan. 4 - May 31, 2011. Program cost: $11,000 + airfare, books, and visa costs (this program has a reduced fee through a special partnership with the William J. Clinton Foundation). Interested students should contact Sara Milani for questions and application instructions.
