SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford had two players rush for over 100 yards each and the Terriers piled up 413 yards on the ground in posting a 34-24 win over NAIA-member Georgetown (Ky.) College on Saturday night in the season opener for both teams.

Michael Hobbs rushed for 115 yards, Gabriel Jackson added 104 yards and Corey Dunn ran for a pair of touchdowns in leading the Terriers to their fifth consecutive home-opening win. Dunn scored on a 3-yard run midway through the first quarter to stake Wofford (1-0) to a 7-0 lead. The Terriers extended the lead to 14-0 when Alex Love blocked a Georgetown (0-1) punt and Kyle Horne recovered in the end zone for a touchdown. Jackson rushed for 88 yards on four carries in the first quarter alone.

The Terriers extended their lead to 21-0 when Aaron Johnson scored on a 2-yard run with 9:49 remaining in the half.

Georgetown earned its first touchdown with 6:11 left in the second quarter when quarterback Jeff Smith hit David Penland on a 52-yard pass. The Terriers took the ensuing kickoff and drove 72 yards with Brandon Berry scoring on a reverse with 3:51 left in the half. Wofford kicker Nick Robinson missed the extra point to leave the Terriers with a 27-7 lead.

Georgetown cut the lead to 27-14 at halftime when Jeff Smith threw 20 yards to C.R. Rohrbough for a score with 37 seconds left.

The Tigers drew to 27-17 on their opening drive of the second half as Micah White converted a 33-yard field goal. Wofford was stopped on downs on each of its next three possessions, failing to convert on fourth down on each occasion.

Georgetown closed to within three points at 27-24 with 5:59 left in the game when Smith threw his third touchdown pass of the contest, hitting Adam Russell from 3 yards out.

The Terriers then drove 70 yards in 11 plays as Dunn scored on a 6-yard run with 1:43 left in the game. Dunn carried five times for 33 yards on the drive, including a crucial 7 yard run on a fourth and three from the Georgetown 31.

A desperation pass by Smith was intercepted by the Terriers' Brian Ford at Wofford's 8 yard line and the Terriers were able to run out the clock by taking a knee on the final three plays of the game.

Wofford quarterback Josh Collier, making his first career start, completed 4 of 17 passes for 35 yards. Smith finished 26 of 41 for 271 yards and three touchdowns. He was sacked twice and intercepted twice.

“We faced a heckuva football team,” said Wofford head coach Mike Ayers. “Those guys know how to win and they know how to play for championships. They tested us and that will make us better. We were challenged. We had opportunities that we wasted but I'm proud of our kids and proud of our effort. The coaching staff did a good job in getting the team ready to play.”

Wofford will travel to West Virginia to take on the Big East club next Saturday night at 6 p.m.

The Story Line: Wofford will visit West Virginia on Saturday, Sept. 10 for a 6 o'clock kickoff at Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium . . . Wofford enters the game ranked 22nd in the Sept. 5 NCAA Division I-AA poll by The Sports Network . . . The Terriers are coming off a season-opening 34-24 win over Georgetown, Ky. . . . West Virginia also won its opener, posting a 15-7 win at Syracuse on Sunday, Sept. 4.

The Coaches: Wofford head coach Mike Ayers (Georgetown, Ky. '74), the winningest coach in school history, is in his 18th season with the Terriers and has a record of 111-80-1 . . . He is in his 21st year as a college head coach with an all-time record of 122-101-2 that includes a three-year stint as the head coach at East Tennessee State from 1985-87 . . . Ayers has earned Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors five times in the last five years, being so honored by the league coaches in 2000 and 2003 and by the media in 2000, '02 and '03 . . . Over the last three years, Ayers has led the Terriers to a 29-8 overall record and an 18-5 league mark including a conference championship and an appearance in the Division I-AA national semifinals in 2003.

West Virginia head coach Rich Rodriguez (West Virginia '86) is in his fifth year with the Mountaineers and has a record of 30-21-0 . . . He is in his 13th year as a college head coach with a record of 74-57-2 . . . Rodriguez spent the 1988 season as the head coach at Salem College and posted a 2-8 record despite the fact that the college had announced it was dropping football at the end of the season . . . He then spent seven seasons as the head coach at Glenville State, posting a 43-28-2 record with four conference championships and two NAIA playoff appearances . . . Rodriguez was the offensive coordinator at Clemson in 1999 and 2000.

Series vs. West Virginia: This will be first meeting ever between Wofford and West Virginia.

Wofford Players of the Week: Offense: Corey Dunn, a 5-11, 205-pound senior from Lexington, KY (P.L. Dunbar) rushed 15 times for 94 yards and two touchdowns in leading Wofford to a 34-24 win over Georgetown on Saturday night . . . Dunn scored Wofford's first touchdown of the night on a three-yard run with 6:21 to play in the first quarter . . . He also tallied the last touchdown of the night on a six-yard run that cemented the win for the Terriers . . . With a slim 27-24 lead, The Terriers started at their own 30 and drove 70 yards in 11 plays . . . Dunn picked up seven yards on a crucial fourth-and-three during the drive . . . He carried five times for 39 yards on the drive . . . Defense: Jim Thurman, a 6-2, 214-pound senior inside linebacker from Hixson, TN (Red Bank), recorded seven tackles, a half-sack, forced one fumble and had a pass breakup against Georgetown on Saturday.

About West Virginia: Though Wofford and West Virginia have never met on the gridiron, the two schools do share a common history . . . While their tenures did not overlap, both teams have been members of the Southern Conference . . . West Virginia was a member of the SoCon from 1950-1967 and won eight conference championships . . . Wofford joined the SoCon prior to the 1997 season . . . The Terriers won the SoCon football title in 2003 . . . Among the top Mountaineers to have earned All-SoCon honors were Chuck Howley who went on to earn MVP honors in Super Bowl V, becoming the first defender and the first player from a losing team to earn the honor . . . Current WVU associate athletic Director Garrett Ford was a two-time All-SoCon running back . . . Former Mountaineer and Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Sam Huff is another WVU athlete who starred in the Southern Conference. . . . The Mountaineers are members of the Big East Conference and have won two straight Big East championships and played in a bowl game in each of the last three years and in seven of the last nine years . . . WVU dropped a 30-18 decision to Florida State in the 2005 Toyota Gator Bowl.

Noting the Georgetown game: Wofford opened its season with a 34-24 win over NAIA-member Georgetown College on Sept. 3 . . . Wofford rushed for 413 yards, the most in a season-opener since gaining 476 against Newberry in 2002 . . . Two Terriers cleared the 100-yard hurdle as sophomore Michael Hobbs gained a career-high 115 yards and Gabriel Jackson picked up 104 yards including 88 in the first half . . . Senior Corey Dunn collected 94 yards on 15 carries and scored twice including a six-yard run with 1:43 left in the game to cement the win . . . Sophomore quarterback Josh Collier made his first career start and completed four of 17 passes for 35 yards.

Hobbs exceeds '04 total: With 115 net yards in the season opener, sophomore Michael Hobbs exceeded his rushing total from his freshman season . . . Hobbs had 15 carries for 104 yards as a freshman . . . Against Georgetown, Hobbs picked up 115 yards on 21 carries.

Terrier Tales: Wofford's 17 pass attempts against Georgetown were the most by the Terriers in a game since Oct. 10, 2003, when WVU attempted 17 passes against Virginia Tech. The Terriers had 17 pass attempts in 2003.

12, 2002 when Wofford attempted 22 passes . . . It marked the most pass attempts in a span of 28 games . . . Wofford's 74 rushing attempts matched the 2004 season high of 74 set against Elon on Oct. 9 . . . Josh Collier completed four passes against Georgetown in his first career start . . . In 2004 as a reserve, he completed four passes the entire season . . . Left guard Derek Tiller led all Wofford offensive linemen with 29 knockdown blocks against Georgetown . . . He also graded out at 90.4 percent for the game . . . Inside linebacker Justin Bell led the Terriers with eight tackles against Georgetown . . . That is the same number of tackles he had during the 2004 season . . . Halfback Gabriel Jackson's 104 yards rushing against Georgetown marked his second career 100-yard game behind last year's career-best 170-yard effort against The Citadel.

Injury Report: Wofford came through the Georgetown game with no major injuries . . . DB Colby Harris missed the opener after suffering a concussion during training camp and is not expected to play this week . . . OT Davy Olmsted continues to recover from arthroscopic surgery on a knee during preseason camp and is getting closer to returning to the field. . . Senior free safety Shaun Bennett tore his right Achilles tendon early in an Aug. 21 scrimmage and is out for the year . . . Bennett was attempting a comeback from a torn left Achilles tendon that he suffered in last year's preseason and cost him the entire 2004 season . . . Junior halfback Demetrick Swindler, a 5-10, 175-pound junior halfback, suffered a torn ACL on Aug. 22 and will miss the 2005 campaign . . . TE Justin Pinckney had knee surgery before the season started and is not expected to play this year.

Bethay on Buchanan Watch List: Wofford senior nose tackle Katon Bethay (Milton, Wis.) is one of just 16 players in NCAA Division I-AA named to the preseason Buchanan Award Watch List . . . Bethay, a 6-2, 285-pound senior, was ranked by The Sports Network in the preseason as the number four defensive tackle in the nation . . . Bethay was fourth on the team with 71 tackles in 2004 while earning second team All-Southern Conference honors as well as CoSIDA Academic All-District accolades.

Terriers on TV: Wofford will make four TV appearances during the 2005 football season . . . The SoCon opener with Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 will be televised live from Gibbs Stadium on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS) . . . The Oct. 22 home game with Appalachian State will also be carried live by CSS . . . The Terriers will appear on South Carolina Educational TV on Oct. 29 when they visit The Citadel . . . The Nov. 12 contest at Furman will be carried live nationally by College Sports TV (CSTV).

Terriers in the polls: Wofford fell one spot in the Sept. 5 edition of The Sports Network I-AA poll . . . Ranked 21st in the preseason poll, the Terriers are #22 this week . . . This marks the 37th consecutive TSN poll in which the Terriers have been ranked, dating back to Oct. 21, 2002 . . . Wofford owns the SoCon's longest current streak of weeks in the rankings followed by Georgia Southern (19) and Furman (15) . . . Montana currently has the nation's longest streak at 92 consecutive weeks dating back to 1998 . . . Wofford's 413 yards rushing against Georgetown were the second-most by a SoCon team on opening weekend . . . Georgia Southern posted 474 yards rushing in a win at Northeastern.

Friends and Foes: Wofford safety Dan Tavani (Easton, Pa./Notre Dame-Green Pond) and West Virginia quarterback Adam Bednarik, from Bethlehem, Pa. Catholic, were high school opponents . . . Wofford freshman offensive lineman Ben Miller is a graduate of Cincinnati LaSalle High School as is Mountaineer redshirt freshman Ryan Stanichuk . . . Wofford has one West Virginia native, freshman offensive lineman Ben Quick from Athens, WV though he attended Worcester Academy prep school in Worcester, Mass. and the University of San Diego before matriculating to Wofford.

Wofford Football Illustrated: The weekly TV highlights show, hosted by WSPA-TV sports anchor Todd Summers and featuring Wofford head coach Mike Ayers, airs each Sunday at noon on WSAV, UPN 62 in the Upstate of South Carolina . . . Wofford Football Illustrated airs three times each week on Comcast Cable in Charleston, SC at 1 p.m. and 10 p.m. on Wednesdays and 9:00 p.m. on Thursdays.

Wofford vs. Division I-A: Wofford will carry a 1-7 record against Division I-A teams into Saturday's contest at West Virginia . . . The Terriers last faced a I-A team in the 2003 season opener when Wofford lost 49-0 at Air Force . . . Wofford also dropped a 37-8 decision at Maryland in 2002 and lost to both Clemson and South Carolina in 2001 by identical 38-14 scores . . . The Terriers' win against a I-A team in the season finale in 2000 when Wofford scored a 24-6 win at Louisiana-Monroe . . . Wofford has also come tantalizingly close on two other occasions, losing 29-27 at Marshall in 1998, 37-34 in overtime at Louisiana-Lafayette in '99 and 52-42 at Middle Tennessee State, also in '99.

Around the SoCon: Southern Conference teams opened the season in grand style last week . . . Seven of the eight SoCon teams opened the year with wins . . . Second-ranked Furman won at Jacksonville State 37-35 on Sept. 1, scoring on a pass play with no time left on the clock . . . Western Carolina also opened the season Sept. 1 with a 21-7 win over Mars Hill . . . On Sept. 3 Appalachian State posted a 24-16 win at Eastern Kentucky

... with a 21-7 win over ... On Sept. 5, Appalachian State posted a 21-10 win at Eastern Kentucky, Georgia Southern won at Northeastern in overtime 41-38, The Citadel came from behind to defeat Charleston Southern 28-14, and Chattanooga used overtime to defeat Tennessee Tech 30-23 . . . The lone loss suffered by a SoCon team was Elon's 17-10 defeat at the hands of Coastal Carolina.

Love to block kicks: Wofford senior defensive back Alex Love blocked a punt that resulted in Wofford's second touchdown of the game . . . The block was the sixth of Love's career . . . In 2004, Love blocked a punt against Georgia Southern and a field goal attempt against Furman . . . In '03, the special teams standout blocked a punt that was recovered for a touchdown against South Carolina State in the season opener . . . He also added a blocked punt against Appalachian State . . . As a freshman in 2002 Love blocked a punt against Furman.

Sophomore quarterback Josh Collier made his first career start and completed four of 17 passes for 35 yards.

Hobbs exceeds '04 total: With 115 net yards in the season opener, sophomore Michael Hobbs exceeded his rushing total from his freshman season . . . Hobbs had 15 carries for 104 yards as a freshman . . . Against Georgetown, Hobbs picked up 115 yards on 21 carries.

Terrier Tales: Wofford's 17 pass attempts against Georgetown were the most by the Terriers in a game since Oct. 12, 2002 when Wofford attempted 22 passes . . . It marked the most pass attempts in a span of 28 games . . . Wofford's 74 rushing attempts matched the 2004 season high of 74 set against Elon on Oct. 9 . . . Josh Collier completed four passes against Georgetown in his first career start . . . In 2004 as a reserve, he completed four passes the entire season . . . Left guard Derek Tiller led all Wofford offensive linemen with 29 knockdown blocks against Georgetown . . . He also graded out at 90.4 percent for the game . . . Inside linebacker Justin Bell led the Terriers with eight tackles against Georgetown . . . That is the same number of tackles he had during the 2004 season . . . Halfback Gabriel Jackson's 104 yards rushing against Georgetown marked his second career 100-yard game behind last year's career-best 170-yard effort against The Citadel.

Injury Report: Wofford came through the Georgetown game with no major injuries . . . DB Colby Harris missed the opener after suffering a concussion during training camp and is not expected to play this week . . . OT Davy Olmsted continues to recover from arthroscopic surgery on a knee during preseason camp and is getting closer to returning to the field. . . Senior free safety Shaun Bennett tore his right Achilles tendon early in an Aug. 21 scrimmage and is out for the year . . . Bennett was attempting a comeback from a torn left Achilles tendon that he suffered in last year's pre-season and cost him the entire 2004 season . . . Junior halfback Demetrick Swindler, a 5-10, 175-pound junior halfback, suffered a torn ACL on Aug. 22 and will miss the 2005 campaign . . . TE Justin Pinckney had knee surgery before the season started and is not expected to play this year.

Bethay on Buchanan Watch List: Wofford senior nose tackle Katon Bethay (Milton, Wis.) is one of just 16 players in NCAA Division I-AA named to the preseason Buchanan Award Watch List . . . Bethay, a 6-2, 285-pound senior, was ranked by The Sports Network in the preseason as the number four defensive tackle in the nation . . . Bethay was fourth on the team with 71 tackles in 2004 while earning second team All-Southern Conference honors as well as CoSIDA Academic All-District accolades.

Terriers on TV: Wofford will make four TV appearances during the 2005 football season . . . The SoCon opener with Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 will be televised live from Gibbs Stadium on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS) . . . The Oct. 22 home game with Appalachian State will also be carried live by CSS . . . The Terriers will appear on South Carolina Educational TV on Oct. 29 when they visit The Citadel . . . The Nov. 12 contest at Furman will be carried live nationally by College Sports TV (CSTV).

Terriers in the polls: Wofford fell one spot in the Sept. 5 edition of The Sports Network I-AA poll . . . Ranked 21st in the preseason poll, the Terriers are #22 this week . . . This marks the 37th consecutive TSN poll in which the Terriers have been ranked, dating back to Oct. 21, 2002 . . . Wofford owns the SoCon's longest current streak of weeks in the rankings followed by Georgia Southern (19) and Furman (15) . . . Montana currently has the nation's longest streak at 92 consecutive weeks dating back to 1998 . . . Wofford's 413 yards rushing against Georgetown were the second-most by a SoCon team on opening weekend . . . Georgia Southern posted 474 yards rushing in a win at Northeastern.

Friends and Foes: Wofford safety Dan Tavani (Easton, Pa./Notre Dame-Green Pond) and West Virginia quarterback Adam Bednarik, from Bethlehem, Pa. Catholic, were high school opponents . . . Wofford freshman offensive lineman Ben Miller is a graduate of Cincinnati LaSalle High School as is Mountaineer redshirt freshman Ryan Stanicheck . . . Wofford has one West Virginia native, freshman offensive lineman Ben Quick from Athens, WV though he attended Worcester Academy prep school in Worcester, Mass. and the University of San Diego before matriculating to Wofford.

Wofford Football Illustrated: The weekly TV highlights show, hosted by WSPA-TV sports anchor Todd Summers and featuring Wofford head coach Mike Ayers, airs each Sunday at noon on WSAV, UPN 62 in the Upstate of South Carolina . . . Wofford Football Illustrated airs three times each week on Comcast Cable in Charleston, SC at 1 p.m. and 10 p.m. on Wednesdays and 9:00 p.m. on Thursdays.

Wofford vs. Division I-A: Wofford will carry a 1-7 record against Division I-A teams into Saturday's contest at West Virginia . . . The Terriers last faced a I-A team in the 2003 season opener when Wofford lost 49-0 at Air Force . . . Wofford also dropped a 37-8 decision at Maryland in 2002 and lost to both Clemson and South Carolina in 2001 by identical 38-14 scores . . . The Terriers' win against a I-A team in the season finale in 2000 when Wofford scored a 24-6 win at Louisiana-Monroe . . . Wofford has also come tantalizingly close on two other occasions, losing 29-27 at Marshall in 1998, 37-34 in overtime at Louisiana-Lafayette in '99 and 52-42 at Middle Tennessee State, also in '99.

Around the SoCon: Southern Conference teams opened the season in grand style last week . . . Seven of the eight SoCon teams opened the year with wins . . . Second-ranked Furman won at Jacksonville State 37-35 on Sept. 1, scoring on a pass play with no time left on the clock . . . Western Carolina also opened the season Sept. 1 with a 21-7 win over Mars Hill . . . On Sept. 3, Appalachian State posted a 24-16 win at Eastern Kentucky, Georgia Southern won at Northeastern in overtime 41-38, The Citadel came from behind to defeat Charleston Southern 28-14, and Chattanooga used overtime to defeat Tennessee Tech 30-23 . . . The lone loss suffered by a SoCon team was Elon's 17-10 defeat at the hands of Coastal Carolina.

Love to block kicks: Wofford senior defensive back Alex Love blocked a punt that resulted in Wofford's second touchdown of the game . . . The block was the sixth of Love's career . . . In 2004, Love blocked a punt against Georgia Southern and a field goal attempt against Furman . . . In '03, the special teams standout blocked a punt that was recovered for a touchdown against South Carolina State in the season opener . . . He also added a blocked punt against Appalachian State . . . As a freshman in 2002 Love blocked a punt against Furman.

Wofford 34, Georgetown, Ky. 24
Sept. 3, 2005 at Gibbs Stadium

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford had two players rush for over 100 yards each and the Terriers piled up 413 yards on the ground in posting a 34-24 win over NAIA-member Georgetown (Ky.) College on Saturday night in the season opener for both teams.

Michael Hobbs rushed for 115 yards, Gabriel Jackson added 104 yards and Corey Dunn ran for a pair of touchdowns in leading the Terriers to their fifth consecutive home-opening win.

Dunn scored on a 3-yard run midway through the first quarter to stake Wofford (1-0) to a 7-0 lead. The Terriers extended the lead to 14-0 when Alex Love blocked a Georgetown (0-1) punt and Kyle Horne recovered in the end zone for a touchdown. Jackson rushed for 88 yards on four carries in the first quarter alone.

Love's block was the sixth of his career.

Wofford's Tommie named SoCon Freshman of the Week
September 12, 2005

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- Wofford punter Chris Tommie today was named the Southern Conference Freshman of the Week for his performance against West Virginia University on Saturday, Sept. 10. Tommie averaged 44.3 yards on six punts against the Mountaineers and also was outstanding on kickoffs.

Four of Tommie's six punts went for at least 50 yards. He had punts of 50, 52, 56 and a career-long 60-yarder against the Mountaineers.

Tommie is a 6-0, 175-pound freshman from Greenwood, S.C. and a 2005 graduate of Emerald High School.

The Terriers host Georgia Southern on Saturday, Sept. 17 at Gibbs Stadium.

Last Meeting GSU 58-14 on Sept. 18, 2004

The Story Line: Wofford and Georgia Southern meet on Saturday night at Gibbs Stadium in the Southern Conference opener for each school . . . Wofford is coming off a 35-7 loss at West Virginia on Saturday night while Georgia Southern lost at home to McNeese State . . . Each club is 1-1 on the season entering Saturday night's game . . . Georgia Southern is ranked 14th in the nation by both The Sports Network and ESPN/SportsTicker . . . Wofford's streak of having appeared in 37 consecutive Sports Network polls came to end on Sept. 12 when the Terriers were ranked 28th and appear in the "also receiving votes" category . . . Each team has won a SoCon football title within the last two years . . . GSU shared the '04 title with Furman while Wofford won the 2003 championship outright with an 8-0 league record.

The Coaches: Wofford head coach Mike Ayers (Georgetown, Ky. '74), the winningest coach in school history, is in his 18th season with the Terriers and has a record of 111-81-1 . . . He is in his 21st year as a college head coach with an all-time record of 122-102-2 that includes a three-year stint as the head coach at East Tennessee State from 1985-87 . . . Ayers has earned Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors five times in the last five years, being so honored by the league coaches in 2000 and 2003 and by the media in 2000, '02 and '03 . . . Ayers was the 2003 recipient of the Eddie Robinson Award as Division I-AA's National Coach of the Year and also earned the 2002 Division I-AA National Coach of the Year award from the College Sporting News (I-AA.org) in addition to being the runner-up for the Robinson Award . . . Between 2002-04, Ayers led the Terriers to a 29-8 overall record and an 18-5 league mark including a conference championship and an appearance in the Division I-AA national semifinals in 2003.

Georgia Southern head coach Mike Sewak (Virginia '81) is in his fourth season with the Eagles and has a record of 28-11 . . . He led GSU to SoCon championships in 2002 and '04 . . . Sewak was Georgia Southern's offensive coordinator from 1997-2001, helping the Eagles win national championships in 1999 and 2000 . . . Has also served as the offensive coordinator at Ohio University (1995-96) and spent eight seasons at Hawaii (1987-94) . . . Sewak is a 1981 graduate of the University of Virginia where he was a three-year letterman as an offensive lineman.

Series vs. Georgia Southern: Georgia Southern holds a 7-3 advantage in the series that started in 1982 . . . The Eagles won last year's meeting 58-14 in Statesboro, snapping a two-game winning streak by Wofford . . . The Terriers posted their first-ever win over the Eagles on Sept. 21, 2002 by a 14-7 score . . . Wofford scored back-to-back wins over the Eagles by adding a 20-14 victory at Gibbs Stadium on Sept. 20, 2003 . . . GSU head coach Mike Sewak is 1-2 in games against Wofford . . . Wofford head coach Mike Ayers is 2-6 against the Eagles while coaching the Terriers . . . Ayers is 2-7 lifetime vs. GSU including a loss while coaching at East Tennessee State . . . GSU is 3-1 against the Terriers in Spartanburg.

Terriers at home: Wofford has won 14 of its last 15 home games and is 18-2 in Gibbs Stadium since the start of the 2002 season . . . Since Gibbs Stadium opened on Oct. 5, 1996, the Terriers have amassed a 31-13 record (.705) . . . Wofford's record for the most consecutive wins at Gibbs Stadium is 13 from Sept. 6, 2003 through Nov. 6, 2004.

Wofford Players of the Week: Offense: Punter Chris Tommie . . . The 6-0, 175-pound freshman punter from Greenwood, SC/Emerald HS averaged 44.3 yards per punt against West Virginia . . . Four of his six punts were for 50 or more yards including a season-long of 60 . . . Defense: ILB Justin Franklin . . . The 6-1, 245-pound junior inside linebacker from Jacksonville, NC had a team high 13 tackles to lead the Terrier defense . . .

About Georgia Southern: Georgia Southern is the nation's most successful NCAA Division I-AA football program

About Georgia Southern: Georgia Southern is the nation's most successful NCAA Division I-AA football program . . . The Eagles have six national championships (1985, '86, '89, '90, '99 and 2000) . . . GSU is 38-8 all-time in postseason games, also an NCAA record, as is its eight championship game appearances . . . Since joining the Southern Conference prior to the 1993 football season, the Eagles have won or shared the conference championship in eight times in those 12 seasons . . . Those eight league titles are tied for third all-time in SoCon history behind Furman's 12 championships and Duke's 10.

Scouting The Eagles: Georgia Southern enters Saturday's game with a 1-1 record following a 23-20 home loss to McNeese State on Saturday . . . The Eagles won their season opener on Sept. 3 by posting a 41-38 overtime win at Northeastern . . . GSU scored the go-ahead touchdown with 1:08 remaining in the game against McNeese State but a holding call nullified the score . . . A subsequent sack pushed GSU out of field goal range and it was unable to convert a fourth-and-35 . . . Jermaine Austin rushed for 129 yards to mark his 25th career 100-yard rushing game . . . QB Jayson Foster added 108 yards on the ground . . . The Eagles are averaging 382.5 yards rushing per game and 430.5 total offense yards . . . The Eagles enter Saturday's game with the SoCon's top two rushers . . . Austin is averaging a league-best 164.0 YPG while Foster is rushing at a 125.0 clip . . . GSU's Dan Jordan leads the SoCon with a 41.7 punting average . . . LB John Mohring is second in the SoCon with 22 tackles through the first two games.

Wofford, Georgia Southern share 3-year supremacy: Over the last three years, Wofford and Georgia Southern have posted the Southern Conference's top records . . . Both teams are 18-5 in conference games over the last three years . . . Over that period, the Terriers are 29-8 overall and Georgia Southern is 27-10 . . . Furman is 24-12 (16-7 SoCon) over the last three years while Appalachian State is 21-13 (16-7 SoCon).

Terriers vs. nationally-ranked opponents: Since the start of the 2002 season, Wofford is 8-6 against nationally-ranked Division I-AA opponents . . . The highest ranked team the Terriers have defeated in that time period was #6 Georgia Southern by a score of 20-14 on Sept. 20, 2003 . . . Wofford also defeated the ninth-ranked Eagles 14-7 in 2002.

Last meeting vs. Georgia Southern: Eighth-ranked Georgia Southern posted a 58-14 win at home over third-ranked Wofford on Sept. 18, 2004 . . . The Eagles (2-1, 1-0) rushed for 313 yards in the game as Brandon Andrews rushed for 113 yards and three touchdowns while quarterback Chaz Williams rushed for one score and threw for two more . . . The Eagles jumped out to a 38-0 halftime lead snapped Wofford's 11-game regular season winning streak . . . It was the Eagles' first win over the Terriers since 2001 . . . The defeat was Wofford's first in the SoCon since Nov. 16, 2002 and just the third league loss since the start of the 2002 campaign . . . DB Alex Love blocked an Eagle punt in the third quarter for the fourth punt block of his career . . . It set up a 7-yard Mike Jones touchdown run to cap a 7-play, 50-yard drive . . . Wofford sophomore quarterback Josh Collier made his collegiate debut when he entered the game in the fourth quarter . . . He tossed a 15-yard touchdown pass to Colby Harris, who had three receptions for 45 yards in the game . . . Gabriel Jackson had a 47-yard run to set up the score . . . Terrier quarterbacks combined to complete 8-of-12 passes for 71 yards.

Hall of Fame Night: Saturday before the Georgia Southern game, three former Wofford athletic standouts will be inducted into the Wofford College Athletic Hall of Fame . . . Former Wofford basketball standouts Stephon Blanding '90 and Brenda Jackson '94, as well as All-America golfer Darrell Brown '86, have been selected by a committee of the Terrier Club Board of Directors as the 2005 inductees into the Hall of Fame . . . Also being inducted are Gordon Orr as an honorary letterman and Cleveland Harley '50 as the Distinguished Serve Award recipient . . . The ceremony will take place at halftime of Saturday night's game.

Noting the West Virginia game: Wofford dropped a 35-7 loss at West Virginia on Sept. 10 . . . The Terriers trailed 28-0 before Michael Hobbs scored on a one-yard run with 2:05 to play in the third quarter . . . The score was setup by a 48-yard pass from Josh Collier to Shiel Wood that gave the Terriers a first and goal at the WVU 13 . . . OLB Derek Newberry suffered a grade 3 concussion less than two minutes into the game and was taken off the field on a stretcher . . . Newberry remained overnight in Morgantown for observation and is expected to miss the Georgia Southern game on Sept. 17 . . . Freshman punter Chris Tommie averaged 44.3 yards on six punts with four of those punts covering 50 or more yards including a season-long 60 yarder . . . The Terriers were held to 78 yards rushing, marking the fewest rushing yards in a game since being held to 88 yards by Air Force in the 2003 season opener.

SoCon Stat Leaders: Wofford's Michael Hobbs is fourth in the SoCon with 77.5 yards rushing per game . . . Brian Kemp is second in the conference in kickoff return average at 21.0 per game . . . Chris Tommie's 40.7 punting average is third-best in the SoCon . . . Brian Ford's 17 tackles is tied for eighth in the league . . . Derek Newberry is tied for the league lead with one fumble recovery.

Injury Report: RB Gabriel Jackson did not play against West Virginia while nursing a sore hamstring . . . He is expected to be back at full strength against Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 . . . Derek Newberry will miss the GSU game after suffering a grade 3 concussion against West Virginia . . . OT Davy Olmsted dressed for the West Virginia game but did not see action . . . He should be available this week against Georgia Southern as he continues to recover from arthroscopic surgery on a knee during preseason camp and is getting closer to returning to the field. . . Senior free safety Shaun Bennett tore his right Achilles tendon early in an Aug. 21 scrimmage and is out for the year . . . Bennett was attempting a comeback from a torn left Achilles tendon that he suffered in last year's preseason and cost him the entire 2004 season . . . Junior linebacker Demetrick Swindler, a 5-10, 175-pound junior linebacker, suffered a torn ACL on Aug. 22 and will miss the 2005 campaign . . . TE Justin Pinckney had knee surgery before the season started and is not expected to play this year.

Bethay on Buchanan Watch List: Wofford senior nose tackle Katon Bethay (Milton, Wis.) is one of just 16 players in NCAA Division I-AA named to the preseason Buchanan Award Watch List . . . Bethay, a 6-2, 285-pound senior, was ranked by The Sports Network in the preseason as the number four defensive tackle in the nation . . . Bethay was fourth on the team with 71 tackles in 2004 while earning second team All-Southern Conference honors as well as CoSIDA Academic All-District accolades.

Terriers on TV: Wofford will make four TV appearances during the 2005 football season . . . The SoCon opener with Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 will be televised live from Gibbs Stadium on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS) . . . The Oct. 22 home game with Appalachian State will also be carried live by CSS . . . The Terriers will appear on South Carolina Educational TV on Oct. 29 when they visit The Citadel . . . The Nov. 12 contest at Furman will be carried live nationally by College Sports TV (CSTV).

Terriers in the polls: Wofford was included in the "also receiving votes" category of both The Sports Network and the ESPN/SportsTicker poll on Sept. 12 . . . That ended a string of 37 consecutive weeks that Wofford had been ranked among the nation's top 25 football teams . . . The Terriers were ranked 21st in the preseason poll and #22 on Sept. 5 . . . Wofford's streak started on Oct. 21, 2002 . . . Wofford's 37-week streak was the SoCon's longest . . . Georgia Southern (20 weeks) and Furman (16 weeks) now own the league's longest streaks . . . Montana currently has the nation's longest streak at 93 consecutive weeks dating back to 1998.

Wofford Football Illustrated: The weekly TV highlights show, hosted by WSPA-TV sports anchor Todd Summers and featuring Wofford head coach Mike Ayers, airs each Sunday at 12:30 p.m. on WASV, UPN 62 in the Upstate of South Carolina . . . Wofford Football Illustrated airs three times each week on Comcast Cable in Charleston, SC at 1 p.m. and 10 p.m. on Wednesdays and 9:00 p.m. on Thursdays.

Around the SoCon: After an 8-1 week of non-conference play on the first weekend of the season, SoCon teams met with less success this past weekend . . . Wofford, Appalachian State and The Citadel all lost to NCAA Division I-A opponents . . . Elon defeated Savannah State and Chattanooga moved to 2-0 with a 21-18 win over #21 Jacksonville State . . . Western Carolina leaped into first place in the SoCon with a 41-21 win over Furman.

Love to block kicks: Wofford senior defensive back Alex Love blocked a punt against Georgetown that resulted in Wofford's second touchdown of the game . . . The block was the sixth of Love's career . . . In 2004, Love blocked a punt against Georgia Southern and a field goal attempt against Furman . . . In '03, the special teams standout blocked a punt that was recovered for a touchdown against South Carolina State in the season opener . . . He also added a blocked punt against Appalachian State . . . As a freshman in 2002 Love blocked a punt against Furman.

About Georgia Southern: Georgia Southern is the nation's most successful NCAA Division I-AA football program . . . The Eagles have six national championships (1985, '86, '89, '90, '99 and 2000) . . . GSU is 38-8 all-time in postseason games, also an NCAA record, as is its eight championship game appearances . . . Since joining the Southern Conference prior to the 1993 football season, the Eagles have won or shared the conference championship in eight times in those 12 seasons . . . Those eight league titles are tied for third all-time in SoCon history behind Furman's 12 championships and Duke's 10.

Scouting The Eagles: Georgia Southern enters Saturday's game with a 1-1 record following a 23-20 home loss to McNeese State on Saturday . . . The Eagles won their season opener on Sept. 3 by posting a 41-38 overtime win at Northeastern . . . GSU scored the go-ahead touchdown with 1:08 remaining in the game against McNeese State but a holding call nullified the score . . . A subsequent sack pushed GSU out of field goal range and it was unable to convert a fourth-and-35 . . . Jermaine Austin rushed for 129 yards to mark his 25th career 100-yard rushing game . . . QB Jayson Foster added 108 yards on the ground . . . The Eagles are averaging 382.5 yards rushing per game and 430.5 total offense yards . . . The Eagles enter Saturday's game with the SoCon's top two rushers . . . Austin is averaging a league-best 164.0 YPG while Foster is rushing at a 125.0 clip . . . GSU's Dan Jordan leads the SoCon with a 41.7 punting average . . . LB John Mohring is second in the SoCon with 22 tackles through the first two games.

Wofford, Georgia Southern share 3-year supremacy: Over the last three years, Wofford and Georgia Southern have posted the Southern Conference's top records . . . Both teams are 18-5 in conference games over the last three years . . . Over that period, the Terriers are 29-8 overall and Georgia Southern is 27-10 . . . Furman is 24-12 (16-7 SoCon) over the last three years while Appalachian State is 21-13 (16-7 SoCon).

Terriers vs. nationally-ranked opponents: Since the start of the 2002 season, Wofford is 8-6 against nationally-ranked Division I-AA opponents . . . The highest ranked team the Terriers have defeated in that time period was #6 Georgia Southern by a score of 20-14 on Sept. 20, 2003 . . . Wofford also defeated the ninth-ranked Eagles 14-7 in 2002.

Last meeting vs. Georgia Southern: Eighth-ranked Georgia Southern posted a 58-14 win at home over third-ranked Wofford on Sept. 18, 2004 . . . The Eagles (2-1, 1-0) rushed for 313 yards in the game as Brandon Andrews rushed for 113 yards and three touchdowns while quarterback Chaz Williams rushed for one score and threw for two more . . . The Eagles jumped out to a 38-0 halftime lead snapped Wofford's 11-game regular season winning streak . . . It was the Eagles' first win over the Terriers since 2001 . . . The defeat was Wofford's first in the SoCon since Nov. 16, 2002 and just the third league loss since the start of the 2002 campaign . . . DB Alex Love blocked an Eagle punt in the third quarter for the fourth punt block of his career . . . It set up a 7-yard Mike Jones touchdown run to cap a 7-play, 50-yard drive . . . Wofford sophomore quarterback Josh Collier made his collegiate debut when he entered the game in the fourth quarter . . . He tossed a 15-yard touchdown pass to Colby Harris, who had three receptions for 45 yards in the game . . . Gabriel Jackson had a 47-yard run to set up the score . . . Terrier quarterbacks combined to complete 8-of-12 passes for 71 yards.

Hall of Fame Night: Saturday before the Georgia Southern game, three former Wofford athletic standouts will be inducted into the Wofford College Athletic Hall of Fame . . . Former Wofford basketball standouts Stephon Blanding '90 and Brenda Jackson '94, as well as All-America golfer Darrell Brown '86, have been selected by a committee of the Terrier Club Board of Directors as the 2005 inductees into the Hall of Fame . . . Also being inducted are Gordon Orr as an honorary letterman and Cleveland Harley '50 as the Distinguished Serve Award recipient . . . The ceremony will take place at halftime of Saturday night's game.

Noting the West Virginia game: Wofford dropped a 35-7 loss at West Virginia on Sept. 10 . . . The Terriers trailed 28-0 before Michael Hobbs scored on a one-yard run with 2:05 to play in the third quarter . . . The score was setup by a 48-yard pass from Josh Collier to Shiel Wood that gave the Terriers a first and goal at the WVU 13 . . . OLB Derek Newberry suffered a grade 3 concussion less than two minutes into the game and was taken off the field on a stretcher . . . Newberry remained overnight in Morgantown for observation and is expected to miss the Georgia Southern game on Sept. 17 . . . Freshman punter Chris Tommie averaged 44.3 yards on six punts with four of those punts covering 50 or more yards including a season-long 60 yarder . . . The Terriers were held to 78 yards rushing, marking the fewest rushing yards in a game since being held to 88 yards by Air Force in the 2003 season opener.

SoCon Stat Leaders: Wofford's Michael Hobbs is fourth in the SoCon with 77.5 yards rushing per game . . . Brian Kemp is second in the conference in kickoff return average at 21.0 per game . . . Chris Tommie's 40.7 punting average is third-best in the SoCon . . . Brian Ford's 17 tackles is tied for eighth in the league . . . Derek Newberry is tied for the league lead with one fumble recovery.

Injury Report: RB Gabriel Jackson did not play against West Virginia while nursing a sore hamstring . . . He is expected to be back at full strength against Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 . . . Derek Newberry will miss the GSU game after suffering a grade 3 concussion against West Virginia . . . OT Davy Olmsted dressed for the West Virginia game but did not see action . . . He should be available this week against Georgia Southern as he continues to recover from arthroscopic surgery on a knee during preseason camp and is getting closer to returning to the field . . . Senior free safety Shaun Bennett tore his right Achilles tendon early in an Aug. 21 scrimmage and is out for the year . . . Bennett was attempting a comeback from a torn left Achilles tendon that he suffered in last year's preseason and cost him the entire 2004 season . . . Junior halfback Demetrick Swindler, a 5-10, 175-pound junior halfback, suffered a torn ACL on Aug. 22 and will miss the 2005 campaign . . . TE Justin Pinckney had knee surgery before the season started and is not expected to play this year.

Bethay on Buchanan Watch List: Wofford senior nose tackle Katon Bethay (Milton, Wis.) is one of just 16 players in NCAA Division I-AA named to the preseason Buchanan Award Watch List . . . Bethay, a 6-2, 285-pound senior, was ranked by The Sports Network in the preseason as the number four defensive tackle in the nation . . . Bethay was fourth on the team with 71 tackles in 2004 while earning second team All-Southern Conference honors as well as CoSIDA Academic All-District accolades.

Terriers on TV: Wofford will make four TV appearances during the 2005 football season . . . The SoCon opener with Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 will be televised live from Gibbs Stadium on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS) . . . The Oct. 22 home game with Appalachian State will also be carried live by CSS . . . The Terriers will appear on South Carolina Educational TV on Oct. 29 when they visit The Citadel . . . The Nov. 12 contest at Furman will be carried live nationally by College Sports TV (CSTV).

Terriers in the polls: Wofford was included in the "also receiving votes" category of both The Sports Network and the ESPN/SportsTicker poll on Sept. 12 . . . That ended a string of 37 consecutive weeks that Wofford had been ranked among the nation's top 25 football teams . . . The Terriers were ranked 21st in the preseason poll and #22 on Sept. 5 . . . Wofford's streak started on Oct. 21, 2002 . . . Wofford's 37-week streak was the SoCon's longest . . . Georgia Southern (20 weeks) and Furman (16 weeks) now own the league's longest streaks . . . Montana currently has the nation's longest streak at 93 consecutive weeks dating back to 1998.

Recent Wofford-Georgia Southern Results

Georgia Southern 58, Wofford 14 Sept. 18, 2004; Statesboro, Ga.

Wofford saw its 11-game regular-season winning streak, spanning more than a calendar year, come to an end with a loss at Georgia Southern. It was the Eagles' first win over the Terriers since 2001.

It was also Wofford's first SoCon defeat since Nov. 16, 2002. The Terriers even saw their perfect record on FSN South come to a close. Wofford had been 5-0 all-time in games televised by the network.

Wofford free safety Alex Love blocked a third-quarter punt to set up the Terriers' first score. It was the fourth career punt block for Love.

Terrier quarterbacks Trey Rodgers, Jeff Zolman and Josh Collier combined to complete 8-of-12 passes for 71 yards. Collier made his collegiate debut and had a 15-yard touchdown toss to Colby Harris, who had three receptions for 45 yards. Five other Wofford players had at least one catch.

Gabriel Jackson was the Terriers' top ground gainer with 55 yards on four attempts.

Wofford 20, Georgia Southern 14 Sept. 20, 2003; Spartanburg, S.C.

True freshman Kevious Johnson scored three touchdowns, the last on a 24-yard pass from Trey Rodgers with 1:47 to play, as Wofford rallied for two touchdowns in the final 8:19 for a 20-14 victory over Georgia Southern at Gibbs Stadium in Spartanburg, S.C.

The Terriers became the first SoCon team to post consecutive victories over the Eagles since Appalachian State in the 1996-97 campaigns. Wofford also handed Georgia Southern its first back-to-back defeats in the same season since 1996.

In front of a regional television audience on FOX Sports Net South, Johnson made his first collegiate start as he filled in at fullback for an injured J.R. McNair.

Johnson opened the game's scoring on a 2-yard run with 7:49 to play in the first quarter. He totaled 81 yards rushing in addition to the touchdown grab in which he bulldozed a pair of Eagle defenders the final five yards into the end zone. It capped a nine-play, 67-yard drive.

On Wofford's previous series, Johnson ran up the middle from five yards out to even the game at 14-14 with 8:19 remaining. The Terrier defense, with All-America free safety Matt Nelson making the tackle on each play, then forced a three-and-out from the Eagles to set the stage for the game-winning drive.

Wofford 14, Georgia Southern 7 Sept. 21, 2002; Statesboro, Ga.

Jesse McCoy rushed for a game-high 114 yards and scored both Terrier touchdowns, the last on a 4th-and-goal carry from the 1-yard line, to lift Wofford to a 14-7 victory over No. 8 Georgia Southern.

The Terriers' first-ever win at Paulson Stadium also snapped a string of 29 consecutive regular season home wins and 20 straight Southern Conference home victories for the Eagles, who last dropped a league contest Nov. 2, 1996 to East Tennessee State.

The seven points was the lowest scoring total for a Georgia Southern team at Paulson Stadium since being shutout 21-0 by Troy State on Nov. 14, 1992 -- a span of 67 home contests.

The Wofford defense limited the Eagles to 234 yards rushing and 257 total.

McCoy's 30-yard touchdown run with 4:08 left in the first quarter gave Wofford a 6-0 lead that stood until the fourth quarter.

Zolman added 74 yards on the ground, 54 coming on a pivotal 3rd-and-3 play from the Wofford 43-yard line midway through the fourth quarter to highlight the Terriers' game-winning 10-play, 81-yard drive.

Zolman had a 20-yard completion to Isaac Goodpaster on a 3rd-and-13 from the Terrier 16 earlier on that series. He later added his keeper to set up McCoy's go-ahead score. Zolman then ran for the two-point conversion to extend the Terriers' lead to 14-7.

Georgia Southern took a 7-6 lead at the beginning of the fourth quarter when Zzream Walden scored from two yards out on a 4th-and-goal play with 14:20 remaining.

Wofford 34, Georgetown, Ky. 24 Sept. 3, 2005 at Gibbs Stadium

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford had two players rush for over 100 yards each and the Terriers piled up 413 yards on the ground in posting a 34-24 win over NAIA-member Georgetown (Ky.) College on Saturday night in the season opener for both teams.

Michael Hobbs rushed for 115 yards, Gabriel Jackson added 104 yards and Corey Dunn ran for a pair of touchdowns in leading the Terriers to their fifth consecutive home-opening win.

Dunn scored on a 3-yard run midway through the first quarter to stake Wofford (1-0) to a 7-0 lead. The Terriers extended the lead to 14-0 when Alex Love blocked a Georgetown (0-1) punt and Kyle Horne recovered in the end zone for a touchdown. Jackson rushed for 88 yards on four carries in the first quarter alone.

Love's block was the sixth of his career.

West Virginia 35, Wofford 9 Saturday, September 10, 2005

MORGANTOWN, W.V. – West Virginia gained 511 yards of total offense while holding Wofford to 154 as the Mountaineers posted a 35-7 win at Mountaineer Field.

The Terriers were held to 78 yards rushing, marking the first time they failed to hit the century mark in a game since Air Force limited Wofford to 88 net yards in the 2003 season opener.

The game was delayed for approximately 10 minutes in the first quarter when senior outside linebacker Derek Newberry was injured and taken off the field on a stretcher. Newberry received a grade three concussion and remained in Morgantown overnight for observation.

Michael Hobbs scored Wofford's first touchdown with 2:05 left in the third quarter when he scored on a 1-yard run. The drive was highlighted by a 48-yard pass from Collier to wide receiver Shiel Wood who made an over the shoulder catch before being dragged down at the Mountaineer 13.

Freshman punter Chris Tommie was a bright spot for the Terriers. Tommie averaged 44.3 yards on six punts including a long of 60.

Blanding, Brown and Jackson selected to Wofford Athletic Hall of Fame; Orr and Harley receive special awards

Former Wofford basketball standouts Stephon Blanding '90 and Brenda Jackson '94, as well as All-America golfer Darrell Brown '86, have been selected by a committee of the Terrier Club Board of Directors as the 2005 inductees into the Wofford College Athletic Hall of Fame.

Gordon Orr is this year's Honorary Letterman while Cleveland Harley '50 is the Distinguished Service Award recipient.

Induction ceremonies will take place Sept. 17, prior to the Wofford football team's 7 p.m. home game versus Georgia Southern.

The Hall of Fame recognizes "those former athletes and coaches who, by outstanding athletic achievements and service, have made lasting and significant contributions to the cause of sports at Wofford College, the Spartanburg community, South Carolina and the nation."

Blanding places 12th on Wofford's career scoring list with 1,454 points. He was a four-year starter and three-year team captain.

A native of Sumter, S.C., Blanding ranked fourth nationally in Division II when he averaged 13.1 rebounds as a junior in the 1988-89 campaign. He led Wofford in scoring, rebounding and field-goal percentage as a sophomore. Blanding was named the NAIA District Six Player of the Week after averaging 27.3 points and 11.6 rebounds in leading the Terriers to a 3-0 record.

Blanding averaged a team-best 10.9 rebounds while scoring at a 12.1 clip his freshman year. He also topped the Terriers that season in blocked shots (38), field-goal percentage (61.0) and free-throw percentage (76.3).

Blanding closed his Wofford athletic career as a defensive end for the football team in the 1990 season, helping lead the Terriers to the NCAA Division II playoffs.

Brown was a two-time NAIA All-America and a three-time participant in the NAIA National Championships, placing fifth as a sophomore and third his senior year. The Woodruff, S.C., native was the 1985 and 1986 NAIA District 6 Medalist. He helped lead Wofford to the 1986 District 6 title.

Jackson is the Wofford women's basketball career rebounding leader (1,076) and No. 5 all-time scorer (1,537 points). She's the lone Wofford player to reach the 1,000 mark in both career points and rebounds. In fact, no other Terrier women's player has 1,000 boards. Jackson also ranks second in career steals (237).

A native of Abbeville, S.C., Jackson tied the Wofford single-game rebounding record with 20 against Newberry (Jan. 8, 1992). Her career rebounding average of 10.3 is nearly a full board better than the next closest player (Wofford Hall of Fame member Meg Hunt, 9.4, 1980-84). Jackson posted three of the top five single-season rebounding averages in Terrier history.

Jackson ranks fifth in career scoring average at 14.8 points, including a career-best 16.4 her senior year when she helped lead Wofford to the 1994 NCAA Division II Tournament. The Terriers had a 71-35 record in her four years on campus.

The Honorary Letterman Award recognizes those non-lettermen who through their dedicated service and loyal support have been instrumental in the growth and development of Wofford's athletic program.

Orr has become a fixture at Terrier home athletic events with his Carolina Trader line of Wofford apparel. Proceeds from each sale are earmarked for the Terrier Club. Over $100,000 has been raised in scholarship support for Wofford student-athletes through Orr.

Also a 1989 Honorary Letterman, Harley is just the second individual to receive both special awards from the Wofford Athletic Hall of Fame. He has been an enthusiastic volunteer and generous supporter of Wofford for over 50 years.

In 1946, Harley was one of the founding members of the Terrier Club. He served the longest tenure of any Terrier Club president when he held office from 1962-70.

Harley and his wife, Curtis, created the Cleveland S. and Curtis R. Harley Endowed Scholarship Fund in 1997.

Wofford 21, Georgia Southern 17 Saturday, September 17, 2005

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford fullback Michael Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and two touchdowns and the Terriers gained 354 yards on the ground in defeating Georgia Southern 21-17 Saturday night at Gibbs Stadium.

Wofford (2-1, 1-0) became the first team in 59 games, dating back to November, 2000, to rush for over 300 yards against the Eagle defense.

Wofford quarterback Josh Collier rushed for a career-high 91 yards and scored his first career touchdown. Georgia Southern (1-2, 0-1), which rushed for 292 yards, was led by quarterback Jayson Foster who carried 15 times for 121 yards and one touchdown. Jermaine Austin, Georgia Southern's fullback, was held to 87 yards rushing, ending a streak of six straight 100-yard games dating back to last season. Austin also lost three fumbles on the night.

Georgia Southern scored on its first possession, taking the ball at the Wofford 32 following a minus-1 yard punt by the Terriers. GSU's Lynon Jefferson scored on an 11-yard run to put the Eagles up 7-0.

Georgia Southern's ensuing kickoff went out of bounds and the Terriers started at their own 35-yard line. The Terriers tied the game at 7 when Hobbs scored on a 4-yard run with 6:23 left in the half. The touchdown was the first of Hobbs' career.

Georgia Southern's Jayson Foster put the Eagles back in front 14-7 with 4:10 to play in the half when he scored on a 1-yard plunge.

Wofford tied the game early in the second half. Georgia Southern's Jermaine Austin fumbled on the second play of the half and Wofford defensive end Erik Hutchinson recovered at the GSU 40. Wide receiver Brandon Berry carried for 37 yards down to the 3 before being knocked out of bounds. Two plays later, Collier pushed the ball over from the 1 to tie the game at 14 with 13:28 to play in the third quarter.

The Terriers took a 21-14 lead with 7:41 to play in the third. Hobbs scored his second touchdown of the game on a three-yard run. Collier had kept the drive alive when he raced 27 yards on a third and two from his own 38.

Georgia Southern's Jonathan Dudley converted a 37-yard field goal with 7:50 to play in the game to pull the Eagles within four at 21-17.

With 6:03 left in the game, the Eagles appeared to have the Terriers stopped as Collier was dropped for a 1 yard loss on a 3rd and 3. But Georgia Southern was whistled for a personal foul that gave the Terriers a first down at the GSU 31. A.J. Bryant ended the drive when he intercepted a Collier pass with 4:50 to play, giving the Eagles the ball at their own 11.

Georgia Southern advanced across midfield but Wofford's Josh Smith forced a fumble from Austin with 2:04 left, giving the ball back to the Terriers.

Wofford drove to the GSU 34 before the Eagles stopped Collier on a fourth and inches and took over with 58 seconds left in the game. Foster completed one pass and took the Eagles to midfield but was sacked by Kyle Horne with 18 seconds left. Georgia Southern was able to get off one final pass that was incomplete.

Wofford's Katon Bethay named SoCon Defensive Player of the Week

Wofford nose tackle Katon Bethay, a 6-2, 285-pound, senior from Milton, Wisc. was named the Southern Conference's Defensive Player of the Week on Monday, September 18. Bethay recorded a career-high 11 tackles in the Terriers' 21-17 win over #14 Georgia Southern on Sept. 17. He had six solo stops and five assisted tackles while forcing and recovering a fumble. That fumble came with 23 seconds left in the first quarter and Georgia Southern threatening to score. The Eagles had taken possession at the Wofford 32 following a blocked punt. With a first and goal at the five, Bethay hit GSU fullback Jermaine Austin to force the fumble and he recovered it at the Wofford 7 yard line.

Bethay's previous career-best had been nine tackles against Georgia Southern in 2002 as a freshman.

The Story Line: Wofford makes its first Southern Conference road trip of the season as the Terriers visit Chattanooga on Saturday at 4 p.m. . . . The Terriers are ranked 22nd in The Sports Network poll of Sept. 26 and 21st in the ESPN/SportsTicker poll . . . The Terriers (2-1, 1-0 SoCon) are coming off an open date on Sept. 24 following a 21-17 win at home over Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 . . . The Mocs (2-2, 0-1 SoCon) have lost two straight including a 48-10 defeat at Georgia Southern Saturday.

The Coaches: Wofford head coach Mike Ayers (Georgetown, Ky. '74), the winningest coach in school history, is in his 18th season with the Terriers and has a record of 112-81-1 . . . He is in his 21st year as a college head coach with an all-time record of 123-102-2 that includes a three-year stint as the head coach at East Tennessee State from 1985-87 . . . Ayers has earned Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors five times in the last five years, being so honored by the league coaches in 2000 and 2003 and by the media in 2000, '02 and '03 . . . Ayers was the 2003 recipient of the Eddie Robinson Award as Division I-AA's National Coach of the Year and also earned the 2002 Division I-AA National Coach of the Year award from the College Sporting News (I-AA.org) in addition to being the runner-up for the Robinson Award . . . Between 2002-04, Ayers led the Terriers to a 29-8 overall record and an 18-5 league mark including a conference championship and an appearance in the Division I-AA national semifinals in 2003.

Chattanooga head coach Rodney Allison (Texas Tech '80) is in his third year with the Mocs and has a record of 7-20 including a 2-2 mark this season . . . In SoCon games, Allison has a career mark of 5-11 . . . Allison was an All-Southwest Conference quarterback for the Red Raiders, leading Texas Tech to three bowl games . . . He has been an assistant coach at Texas Tech, Duke, Southern Miss, Auburn and Clemson . . . While at USM as the quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator, Allison mentored Brett Favre . . . Allison coached defensive ends at Clemson from 1999-2002.

Series vs. Chattanooga: Chattanooga holds a slim 6-5 lead in the all-time series with Wofford that dates back to 1927 . . . After the Mocs claimed a 38-7 win in that first meeting, the two teams did not meet again until 1968 . . . The Terriers have won three straight and five of the last six from UTC . . . Since joining the Southern Conference in 1997, Wofford holds a 5-3 series lead . . . Chattanooga holds a 4-2 advantage in games played in Chattanooga . . . Last year's 56-21 Terrier win was the largest margin of victory by either team in the series . . . Mike Ayers is 7-4 lifetime against the Mocs including a 5-3 record with the Terriers . . . He was 2-1 vs. UTC while serving as head coach at East Tennessee State . . . UTC's Rodney Allison is 0-2 vs. the Terriers.

Wofford-Chattanooga Connection: Chattanooga defensive coordinator Billy Taylor is in his first year with the Mocs after spending the 2004 season at Elon . . . Prior to that, Taylor was an assistant coach at his alma mater, East Tennessee State . . . Taylor served as an assistant coach at Wofford, coaching the linebackers and serving as recruiting coordinator for six seasons from 1991-96 . . . Taylor played for head coach Mike Ayers at ETSU from 1985-87.

1-0 In The SoCon: Wofford has won its SoCon opener for the third time in the last four years . . . The Terriers have opened conference play with Georgia Southern in each of the last four seasons.

Terriers at home: Wofford has won 15 of its last 16 home games and is 19-2 in Gibbs Stadium since the start of the 2002 season . . . Since Gibbs Stadium opened on Oct. 5, 1996, the Terriers have amassed a 32-13 record (.711) . . . Wofford's record for the most consecutive wins at Gibbs Stadium is 13 from Sept. 6, 2003 through Nov. 6, 2004.

Wofford Players of the Week: Offense: FB Michael Hobbs (5-10, 195, So., Andalusia, Ala./Straughn) . . . Hobbs led Wofford in rushing with 114 yards on 26 carries in Saturday's 21-17 win over 14th-ranked Georgia Southern . . . He scored Wofford's first touchdown of the game on a 4-yard run that tied the game at 7 . . . He also scored Wofford's go-ahead touchdown on a 3-yard run with 7:41 to play in the third quarter . . . The two touchdowns marked the first scores of his career . . . Six of his carries resulted in first downs . . . Hobbs also tied his career-long with a 24-yard run against the Eagles . . . Defense: NT Katon Bethay (6-2, 285, Sr., Milton, Wisc.) . . . Bethay recorded a career-high 11 tackles in the win over #14 Georgia Southern . . . He had six solo stops and five assisted tackles . . . He forced one fumble, and also recovered it . . . That fumble came with 23 seconds left in the first quarter and Georgia Southern threatening to score . . . Georgia Southern had taken possession at the Wofford 32 following a blocked punt . . . With a first and goal at the five, Bethay hit GSU fullback Jermaine Austin to force the fumble and he recovered it at the Wofford 7 yard line . . . Bethay's previous career-best had been nine tackles against Georgia Southern in 2002 as a freshman.

Scouting The Mocs: Chattanooga started the season 2-0 with an overtime win at home against Tennessee Tech in the season opener and a 21-18 win over #21 Jacksonville State in Week 2 . . . The Mocs have since lost to I-A Memphis 59-14 on Sept. 17 and then dropped their SoCon opener at Georgia Southern 48-10 this past Saturday . . . Chattanooga is 116th of 116 teams in Division I-AA in rushing defense, allowing 326.0 yards per game . . . The Mocs are also 116th in total defense with an average yield of 496.3 YPG . . . Offensively, the Mocs average 193.5 YPG rushing and 161.8 yards through the air . . . Lironnie Davis led UTC with 117 yards rushing against Georgia Southern . . . QB Antonio Miller completed 14 of 27 passes for 176 yards . . . Emanuel Hassell, UTC's leading receiver with 26 catches through the first four games, had nine receptions for 133 yards vs. the Eagles . . . Hassell leads the SoCon in receptions per game at 6.5.

National Statistical Rankings: Through games of Sept. 24, the Terriers rank fifth in the nation in rushing with 281.7 yards per game . . . Brian Ford is 20th in the nation in interceptions with .67 per game (2 in 3 games) . . . FB Michael Hobbs is 30th nationally in rushing with 89.7 yards per game.

SoCon Stat Rankings: Brian Kemp is the SoCon's top kickoff returner with a 23.6 average . . . FB Michael Hobbs ranks fourth in rushing yards per game at 89.7 . . . Brian Ford is third in the league in interceptions with two.

Wofford, Georgia Southern share 3-year supremacy: Over the last three years, Wofford and Georgia Southern have posted the Southern Conference's top records . . . Both teams are 18-5 in conference games over the last three years . . . Over that period, the Terriers are 29-8 overall and Georgia Southern is 27-10 . . . Furman is 24-12 (16-7 SoCon) over the last three years while Appalachian State is 21-13 (16-7 SoCon).

Wofford's Schedule Fifth-Most Difficult: According to the NCAA, Wofford's schedule to date has been the fifth-most difficult in Division I-AA . . . Wofford's NCAA opponents, minus their game against the Terriers, are 5-1 on the season . . . West Virginia is 4-0 overall (3-0 excluding the Wofford game) while Georgia Southern is 2-2 (2-1 minus Wofford) . . . That .833 winning percentage ranks fifth nationally . . . When based upon past and future competition, the Terriers rank ninth in I-AA on difficulty of schedule . . . Wofford's upcoming opponents are a combined 13-12 against NCAA opponents . . . Wofford's season-opening opponent, Georgetown (Ky.) was ranked fifth in the most recent NAIA poll.

Last Meeting vs. Chattanooga: Keivious Johnson rushed for a career-high 156 yards to go with two touchdowns on just 10 carries in the Terriers' 56-21 win over the Mocs on Oct. 2, 2004 . . . The Terriers ran for 489 yards, an 8.4 per carry average . . . Wofford totaled 517 yards of offense and did not punt during the game . . . The Terriers were 4-of-4 on fourth downs, including a pair of first-half touchdowns on 4th-and-goal plays from the 4 and 8-yard lines . . . The Terriers led 21-14 at the half before breaking the game open by scoring four touchdowns in under 11 minutes of the third quarter . . . QB Jeff Zolman rushed for 94 yards on 10 carries while also completing 4-of-5 passes for 28 yards, including a 4-yard touchdown toss to Adam Regenthal . . . The Terrier offense set the tone on their first series when they drove 84 yards in just six plays to take a 7-0 lead on a 17-yard Corey Dunn run . . . Five of Wofford's eight scoring drives came in six plays or less . . . The Terrier defense forced three turnovers and held Chattanooga to a 3-of-11 mark on third-down conversions.

Noting the Georgia Southern game: Wofford posted a 21-17 win over #14 Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 . . . Fullback Michael Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and two touchdowns to highlight the Terrier offense . . . Nose tackle Katon Bethay earned Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors after making 11 tackles against the Eagles . . . Quarterback Josh Collier posted a career-high with 91 rushing yards and added a touchdown run . . . Wofford's offense rushed for 354 yards, making the Terriers the first team in 59 games, dating back to 2000, to post a 300-yard game on the Eagle defense . . . The win ended Wofford's four-game skid against ranked opponents . . .

Noting the West Virginia game: Wofford dropped a 35-7 loss at West Virginia on Sept. 10 . . . The Terriers trailed 28-0 before Michael Hobbs scored on a one-yard run with 2:05 to play in the third quarter . . . The score was setup by a 48-yard pass from Josh Collier to Shiel Wood that gave the Terriers a first and goal at the WVU 13 . . . OLB Derek Newberry suffered a grade 3 concussion less than two minutes into the game and was taken off the field on a stretcher . . . Newberry remained overnight in Morgantown for observation and is expected to miss the Georgia Southern game on Sept. 17 . . . Freshman punter Chris Tommie averaged 44.3 yards on six punts with four of those punts covering 50 or more yards including a season-long 60 yarder . . . The Terriers were held to 78 yards rushing, marking the fewest rushing yards in a game since being held to 88 yards by Air Force in the 2003 season opener.

Around the SoCon: Four SoCon teams are ranked in the Top 25 this week . . . Furman is seventh in The Sports Network poll followed by Appalachian State (17th), Western Carolina (18th) and Wofford (22nd) . . . Georgia Southern is ranked 29th in the also receiving votes category . . . Seven of the eight teams in the Southern Conference own overall records of .500 or better . . . Only The Citadel (1-2) is below .500.

Terriers on Turf: Chattanooga installed an artificial surface at Finley Stadium during the offseason . . . This will be Wofford's second game on carpet this season after having played at West Virginia on Sept. 10 . . . The Terriers will also play on an artificial surface at Western Carolina on Nov. 5 . . . Entering the 2005 season, Wofford had won three of its last four games on artificial turf, having lost at Appalachian State in 2004 and posting wins at Western Carolina in 2003 and at Appalachian and East Tennessee State in 2002.

Injury Report: RB Gabriel Jackson returned to action against Georgia Southern after missing the West Virginia game while nursing a sore hamstring . . . Derek Newberry continues his recovery after suffering a grade 3 concussion against West Virginia and missing the Georgia Southern game . . . OT Davy Olmsted continues to recover from arthroscopic surgery on a knee during preseason camp and is available for action this week . . . Senior free safety Shaun Bennett tore his right Achilles tendon early in an Aug. 21 scrimmage and is out for the year . . . Bennett was attempting a comeback from a torn left Achilles tendon that he suffered in last year's preseason and cost him the entire 2004 season . . . Junior halfback Demetrick Swindler, a 5-10, 175-pound junior halfback, suffered a torn ACL on Aug. 22 and will miss the 2005 campaign . . . TE Justin Pinckney had knee surgery before the season started and is not expected to play this year.

Bethay on Buchanan Watch List: Wofford senior nose tackle Katon Bethay (Milton, Wis.) is one of just 16 players in NCAA Division I-AA named to the preseason Buchanan Award Watch List . . . Bethay, a 6-2, 285-pound senior, was ranked by The Sports Network in the preseason as the number four defensive tackle in the nation . . . Bethay was fourth on the team with 71 tackles in 2004 while earning second team All-Southern Conference honors as well as CoSIDA Academic All-District accolades.

Terriers on TV: Wofford will make four TV appearances during the 2005 football season . . . The SoCon opener with Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 will be televised live from Gibbs Stadium on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS) . . . The Oct. 22 home game with Appalachian State will also be carried live by CSS . . . The Terriers will appear on South Carolina Educational TV on Oct. 29 when they visit The Citadel . . . The Nov. 12 contest at Furman will be carried live nationally by College Sports TV (CSTV).

Terriers in the polls: Wofford was included in the "also receiving votes" category of both The Sports Network and the ESPN/SportsTicker poll on Sept. 12 . . . That ended a string of 37 consecutive weeks that Wofford had been ranked among the nation's top 25 football teams . . . The Terriers were ranked 21st in the preseason poll and #22 on Sept. 5 . . . Wofford's streak started on Oct. 21, 2002 . . . Wofford's 37-week streak was the SoCon's longest . . . Georgia Southern (20 weeks) and Furman (16 weeks) now own the league's longest streaks . . . Montana currently has the nation's longest streak at 93 consecutive weeks dating back to 1998.

Wofford Football Illustrated: The weekly TV highlights show, hosted by WSPA-TV sports anchor Todd Summers and featuring Wofford head coach Mike Ayers, airs each Sunday at 12:30 p.m. on WASV, UPN 62 in the Upstate of South Carolina . . . Wofford Football Illustrated airs three times each week on Comcast Cable in Charleston, SC on cable channel 78 on Wednesdays and Thursdays at 8 pm . . . In Summerville, WFI can be seen at 9:30 on Wednesday and 8:30 on Thursday.

Love to block kicks: Wofford senior defensive back Alex Love blocked a punt against Georgetown that resulted in Wofford's second touchdown of the game . . . The block was the sixth of Love's career . . . In 2004, Love blocked a punt against Georgia Southern and a field goal attempt against Furman . . . In '03, the special teams standout blocked a punt that was recovered for a touchdown against South Carolina State in the season opener . . . He also added a blocked punt against Appalachian State . . . As a freshman in 2002 Love blocked a punt against Furman.

The Story Line: Wofford makes its first Southern Conference road trip of the season as the Terriers visit Chattanooga on Saturday at 4 p.m. . . . The Terriers are ranked 22nd in The Sports Network poll of Sept. 26 and 21st in the ESPN/SportsTicker poll . . . The Terriers (2-1, 1-0 SoCon) are coming off an open date on Sept. 24 following a 21-17 win at home over Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 . . . The Mocs (2-2, 0-1 SoCon) have lost two straight including a 48-10 defeat at Georgia Southern Saturday.

The Coaches: Wofford head coach Mike Ayers (Georgetown, Ky. '74), the winningest coach in school history, is in his 18th season with the Terriers and has a record of 112-81-1 . . . He is in his 21st year as a college head coach with an all-time record of 123-102-2 that includes a three-year stint as the head coach at East Tennessee State from 1985-87 . . . Ayers has earned Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors five times in the last five years, being so honored by the league coaches in 2000 and 2003 and by the media in 2000, '02 and '03 . . . Ayers was the 2003 recipient of the Eddie Robinson Award as Division I-AA's National Coach of the Year and also earned the 2002 Division I-AA National Coach of the Year award from the College Sporting News (I-AA.org) in addition to being the runner-up for the Robinson Award . . . Between 2002-04, Ayers led the Terriers to a 29-8 overall record and an 18-5 league mark including a conference championship and an appearance in the Division I-AA national semifinals in 2003.

Chattanooga head coach Rodney Allison (Texas Tech '80) is in his third year with the Mocs and has a record of 7-20 including a 2-2 mark this season . . . In SoCon games, Allison has a career mark of 5-11 . . . Allison was an All-Southwest Conference quarterback for the Red Raiders, leading Texas Tech to three bowl games . . . He has been an assistant coach at Texas Tech, Duke, Southern Miss, Auburn and Clemson . . . While at USM as the quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator, Allison mentored Brett Favre . . . Allison coached defensive ends at Clemson from 1999-2002.

Series vs. Chattanooga: Chattanooga holds a slim 6-5 lead in the all-time series with Wofford that dates back to 1927 . . . After the Mocs claimed a 38-7 win in that first meeting, the two teams did not meet again until 1968 . . . The Terriers have won three straight and five of the last six from UTC . . . Since joining the Southern Conference in 1997, Wofford holds a 5-3 series lead . . . Chattanooga holds a 4-2 advantage in games played in Chattanooga . . . Last year's 56-21 Terrier win was the largest margin of victory by either team in the series . . . Mike Ayers is 7-4 lifetime against the Mocs including a 5-3 record with the Terriers . . . He was 2-1 vs. UTC while serving as head coach at East Tennessee State . . . UTC's Rodney Allison is 0-2 vs. the Terriers.

Wofford-Chattanooga Connection: Chattanooga defensive coordinator Billy Taylor is in his first year with the Mocs after spending the 2004 season at Elon . . . Prior to that, Taylor was an assistant coach at his alma mater, East Tennessee State . . . Taylor served as an assistant coach at Wofford, coaching the linebackers and serving as recruiting coordinator for six seasons from 1991-96 . . . Taylor played for head coach Mike Ayers at ETSU from 1985-87.

1-0 In The SoCon: Wofford has won its SoCon opener for the third time in the last four years . . . The Terriers have opened conference play with Georgia Southern in each of the last four seasons.

Terriers at home: Wofford has won 15 of its last 16 home games and is 19-2 in Gibbs Stadium since the start of the 2002 season . . . Since Gibbs Stadium opened on Oct. 5, 1996, the Terriers have amassed a 32-13 record (.711) . . . Wofford's record for the most consecutive wins at Gibbs Stadium is 13 from Sept. 6, 2003 through Nov. 6, 2004.

Wofford Players of the Week: Offense: FB Michael Hobbs (5-10, 195, So., Andalusia, Ala./Straughn) . . . Hobbs led Wofford in rushing with 114 yards on 26 carries in Saturday's 21-17 win over 14th-ranked Georgia Southern . . . He scored Wofford's first touchdown of the game on a 4-yard run that tied the game at 7 . . . He also scored Wofford's go-ahead touchdown on a 3-yard run with 7:41 to play in the third quarter . . . The two touchdowns marked the first scores of his career . . . Six of his carries resulted in first downs . . . Hobbs also tied his career-long with a 24-yard run against the Eagles . . . Defense: NT Katon Bethay (6-2, 285, Sr., Milton, Wisc.) . . . Bethay recorded a career-high 11 tackles in the win over #14 Georgia Southern . . . He had six solo stops and five assisted tackles . . . He forced one fumble, and also recovered it . . . That fumble came with 23 seconds left in the first quarter and Georgia Southern threatening to score . . . Georgia Southern had taken possession at the Wofford 32 following a blocked punt . . . With a first and goal at the five, Bethay hit GSU fullback Jermaine Austin to force the fumble and he recovered it at the Wofford 7 yard line . . . Bethay's previous career-best had been nine tackles against Georgia Southern in 2002 as a freshman.

Scouting The Mocs: Chattanooga started the season 2-0 with an overtime win at home against Tennessee Tech in the season opener and a 21-18 win over #21 Jacksonville State in Week 2 . . . The Mocs have since lost to I-A Memphis 59-14 on Sept. 17 and then dropped their SoCon opener at Georgia Southern 48-10 this past Saturday . . . Chattanooga is 116th of 116 teams in Division I-AA in rushing defense, allowing 326.0 yards per game . . . The Mocs are also 116th in total defense with an average yield of 496.3 YPG . . . Offensively, the Mocs average 193.5 YPG rushing and 161.8 yards through the air . . . Lironnie Davis led UTC with 117 yards rushing against Georgia Southern . . . QB Antonio Miller completed 14 of 27 passes for 176 yards . . . Emanuel Hassell, UTC's leading receiver with 26 catches through the first four games, had nine receptions for 133 yards vs. the Eagles . . . Hassell leads the SoCon in receptions per game at 6.5.

National Statistical Rankings: Through games of Sept. 24, the Terriers rank fifth in the nation in rushing with 281.7 yards per game . . . Brian Ford is 20th in the nation in interceptions with .67 per game (2 in 3 games) . . . FB Michael Hobbs is 30th nationally in rushing with 89.7 yards per game.

SoCon Stat Rankings: Brian Kemp is the SoCon's top kickoff returner with a 23.6 average . . . FB Michael Hobbs ranks fourth in rushing yards per game at 89.7 . . . Brian Ford is third in the league in interceptions with two.

Wofford, Georgia Southern share 3-year supremacy: Over the last three years, Wofford and Georgia Southern have posted the Southern Conference's top records . . . Both teams are 18-5 in conference games over the last three years . . . Over that period, the Terriers are 29-8 overall and Georgia Southern is 27-10 . . . Furman is 24-12 (16-7 SoCon) over the last three years while Appalachian State is 21-13 (16-7 SoCon).

Wofford's Schedule Fifth-Most Difficult: According to the NCAA, Wofford's schedule to date has been the fifth-most difficult in Division I-AA . . . Wofford's NCAA opponents, minus their game against the Terriers, are 5-1 on the season . . . West Virginia is 4-0 overall (3-0 excluding the Wofford game) while Georgia Southern is 2-2 (2-1 minus Wofford) . . . That .833 winning percentage ranks fifth nationally . . . When based upon past and future competition, the Terriers rank ninth in I-AA on difficulty of schedule . . . Wofford's upcoming opponents are a combined 13-12 against NCAA opponents . . . Wofford's season-opening opponent, Georgetown (Ky.) was ranked fifth in the most recent NAIA poll.

Last Meeting vs. Chattanooga: Kevious Johnson rushed for a career-high 156 yards to go with two touchdowns on just 10 carries in the Terriers' 56-21 win over the Mocs on Oct. 2, 2004 . . . The Terriers ran for 489 yards, an 8.4 per carry average . . . Wofford totaled 517 yards of offense and did not punt during the game . . . The Terriers were 4-of-4 on fourth downs, including a pair of first-half touchdowns on 4th-and-goal plays from the 4 and 8-yard lines . . . The Terriers led 21-14 at the half before breaking the game open by scoring four touchdowns in under 11 minutes of the third quarter . . . QB Jeff Zolman rushed for 94 yards on 10 carries while also completing 4-of-5 passes for 28 yards, including a 4-yard touchdown toss to Adam Regenthal . . . The Terrier offense set the tone on their first series when they drove 84 yards in just six plays to take a 7-0 lead on a 17-yard Corey Dunn run . . . Five of Wofford's eight scoring drives came in six plays or less . . . The Terrier defense forced three turnovers and held Chattanooga to a 3-of-11 mark on third-down conversions.

Noting the Georgia Southern game: Wofford posted a 21-17 win over #14 Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 . . . Fullback Michael Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and two touchdowns to highlight the Terrier offense . . . Nose tackle Katon Bethay earned Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors after making 11 tackles against the Eagles . . . Quarterback Josh Collier posted a career-high with 91 rushing yards and added a touchdown run . . . Wofford's offense rushed for 354 yards, making the Terriers the first team in 59 games, dating back to 2000, to post a 300-yard game on the Eagle defense . . . The win ended Wofford's four-game skid against ranked opponents . . .

Noting the West Virginia game: Wofford dropped a 35-7 loss at West Virginia on Sept. 10 . . . The Terriers trailed 28-0 before Michael Hobbs scored on a one-yard run with 2:05 to play in the third quarter . . . The score was setup by a 48-yard pass from Josh Collier to Shiel Wood that gave the Terriers a first and goal at the WVU 13 . . . OLB Derek Newberry suffered a grade 3 concussion less than two minutes into the game and was taken off the field on a stretcher . . . Newberry remained overnight in Morgantown for observation and is expected to miss the Georgia Southern game on Sept. 17 . . . Freshman punter Chris Tommie averaged 44.3 yards on six punts with four of those punts covering 50 or more yards including a season-long 60 yarder . . . The Terriers were held to 78 yards rushing, marking the fewest rushing yards in a game since being held to 88 yards by Air Force in the 2003 season opener.

Around the SoCon: Four SoCon teams are ranked in the Top 25 this week . . . Furman is seventh in The Sports Network poll followed by Appalachian State (17th), Western Carolina (18th) and Wofford (22nd) . . . Georgia Southern is ranked 29th in the also receiving votes category . . . Seven of the eight teams in the Southern Conference own overall records of .500 or better . . . Only The Citadel (1-2) is below .500.

Terriers on Turf: Chattanooga installed an artificial surface at Finley Stadium during the offseason . . . This will be Wofford's second game on carpet this season after having played at West Virginia on Sept. 10 . . . The Terriers will also play on an artificial surface at Western Carolina on Nov. 5 . . . Entering the 2005 season, Wofford had won three of its last four games on artificial turf, having lost at Appalachian State in 2004 and posting wins at Western Carolina in 2003 and at Appalachian and East Tennessee State in 2002.

Injury Report: RB Gabriel Jackson returned to action against Georgia Southern after missing the West Virginia game while nursing a sore hamstring . . . Derek Newberry continues his recovery after suffering a grade 3 concussion against West Virginia and missing the Georgia Southern game . . . OT Davy Olmsted continues to recover from arthroscopic surgery on a knee during preseason camp and is available for action this week . . . Senior free safety Shaun Bennett tore his right Achilles tendon early in an Aug. 21 scrimmage and is out for the year . . . Bennett was attempting a comeback from a torn left Achilles tendon that he suffered in last year's preseason and cost him the entire 2004 season . . . Junior halfback Demetrick Swindler, a 5-10, 175-pound junior halfback, suffered a torn ACL on Aug. 22 and will miss the 2005 campaign . . . TE Justin Pinckney had knee surgery before the season started and is not expected to play this year.

Bethay on Buchanan Watch List: Wofford senior nose tackle Katon Bethay (Milton, Wis.) is one of just 16 players in NCAA Division I-AA named to the preseason Buchanan Award Watch List . . . Bethay, a 6-2, 285-pound senior, was ranked by The Sports Network in the preseason as the number four defensive tackle in the nation . . . Bethay was fourth on the team with 71 tackles in 2004 while earning second team All-Southern Conference honors as well as CoSIDA Academic All-District accolades.

Terriers on TV: Wofford will make four TV appearances during the 2005 football season . . . The SoCon opener with Georgia Southern on Sept. 17 will be televised live from Gibbs Stadium on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS) . . . The Oct. 22 home game with Appalachian State will also be carried live by CSS . . . The Terriers will appear on South Carolina Educational TV on Oct. 29 when they visit The Citadel . . . The Nov. 12 contest at Furman will be carried live nationally by College Sports TV (CSTV).

Terriers in the polls: Wofford was included in the “also receiving votes” category of both The Sports Network and the ESPN/SportsTicker poll on Sept. 12 . . . That ended a string of 37 consecutive weeks that Wofford had been ranked among the nation’s top 25 football teams . . . The Terriers were ranked 21st in the preseason poll and #22 on Sept. 5 . . . Wofford’s streak started on Oct. 21, 2002 . . . Wofford’s 37-week streak was the SoCon’s longest . . . Georgia Southern (20 weeks) and Furman (16 weeks) now own the league’s longest streaks . . . Montana currently has the nation’s longest streak at 93 consecutive weeks dating back to 1998.

Wofford Football Illustrated: The weekly TV highlights show, hosted by WSPA-TV sports anchor Todd Summers and featuring Wofford head coach Mike Ayers, airs each Sunday at 12:30 p.m. on WASV, UPN 62 in the Upstate of South Carolina . . . Wofford Football Illustrated airs three times each week on Comcast Cable in Charleston, SC on cable channel 78 on Wednesdays and Thursdays at 8 pm . . . In Summerville, WFI can be seen at 9:30 on Wednesday and 8:30 on Thursday.

Love to block kicks: Wofford senior defensive back Alex Love blocked a punt against Georgetown that resulted in Wofford’s second touchdown of the game . . . The block was the sixth of Love’s career . . . In 2004, Love blocked a punt against Georgia Southern and a field goal attempt against Furman . . . In ‘03, the special teams standout blocked a punt that was recovered for a touchdown against South Carolina State in the season opener . . . He also added a blocked punt against Appalachian State . . . As a freshman in 2002 Love blocked a punt against Furman.

Wofford 42, Chattanooga 14 Oct. 4; Chattanooga, Tenn.

After missing the two previous games due to injury, senior fullback and student body president J.R. McNair returned to action and tied Wofford and SoCon single-game records with five rushing touchdowns as the Terriers routed Chattanooga, 42-14.

McNair also equaled a SoCon mark for most touchdowns in a half as he scored three times in the second half while totaling 126 yards rushing. It was his third career 100-yard game and third in his last six contests dating back to last season.

The Terriers took a 7-0 lead on their opening possession of the game as a 1-yard McNair run capped an 8-play, 48-yard drive. McNair's second score, a 2-yard run to give the Terriers a 14-7 lead with 5:15 to play in the first half, was set up by Matt Nelson interception.

The second half was marked by big plays as the Terriers recorded their three longest plays from scrimmage this season. A 59-yard pass from Jeff Zolman to Shiel Wood set up a 9-yard McNair touchdown on the first series of the second half, increasing Wofford's lead to 21-7.

The Terriers' final score came when Timmy Thrift set a school record while tying SoCon and NCAA marks with a 100-yard interception return. Wofford forced four turnovers.

Jesse McCoy scored on a 12-yard run in overtime, his third touchdown of the day, to lead Wofford to a 27-21 victory over Chattanooga.

McCoy had 121 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 13 carries in addition to catching a 45-yard touchdown pass from Trey Rodgers.

On Chattanooga's opening possession of the overtime, Wofford inside linebacker LaRay Benton's hit forced a Mario Hain fumble on second down from the 22-yard line. Terrier freshman Jim Thurman fell on the loose ball for his second fumble recovery of the game.

McCoy's game-winning touchdown came on the fourth play of Wofford's overtime possession.

Trailing 21-7, Chattanooga scored twice in a 3:23 span of the fourth quarter to even the game at 21-21.

Wofford took a 7-0 lead with 7:56 left in the first half when McCoy's three-yard scoring run capped a 15-play, 80-yard drive.

The Terriers went 76 yards in two plays to take a 13-0 lead when Rodgers hit a streaking McCoy down the left sideline with the 45-yard scoring pass. Melvin Jones, who rushed for 135 yards, had a 31-yard gain on the previous play.

Chattanooga 29, Wofford 26

Sept. 29, 2001; Chattanooga, Tenn.

Wofford staged a furious fourth-quarter comeback only to see UTC rally for a 29-26 victory.

With the Mocs holding a 22-11 fourth-quarter lead, Wofford scored a pair of touchdowns in a 5:43 span to move ahead 26-22 with 1:14 left.

The Terrier comeback began with a 13-play, 76-yard drive. Travis Wilson capped the possession with an eight-yard scoring pass to Curtis Nash. The Terriers converted the 2-point play to cut the deficit to 22-19.

Following a defensive stop, the Terriers took control of the ball at the Chattanooga 40 with 5:49 to play. After driving to the Moc 21, Wofford faced a 4th-and-4 with 2:49 left. Ben Foster then carried for seven yards and a first down. Four plays later, a two-yard J.R. McNair run gave Wofford a 26-22 lead.

However, Chattanooga drove 83 yards in six plays to score the winning touchdown on a 21-yard pass from Chuck Spearman to Jason Jones with 20 seconds remaining in the contest.

The Terriers' first points of the game came on an Hondre McNeil sack of Moc quarterback Cos DeMatteo in the end zone for a safety. McNeil then sacked DeMatteo on Chattanooga's first two plays of the ensuing series to give him three sacks on the night.

Wofford 34, Georgetown, Ky. 24 Sept. 3, 2005 at Gibbs Stadium

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford had two players rush for over 100 yards each and the Terriers piled up 413 yards on the ground in posting a 34-24 win over NAIA-member Georgetown (Ky.) College on Saturday night in the season opener for both teams.

Michael Hobbs rushed for 115 yards, Gabriel Jackson added 104 yards and Corey Dunn ran for a pair of touchdowns in leading the Terriers to their fifth consecutive home-opening win.

Dunn scored on a 3-yard run midway through the first quarter to stake Wofford (1-0) to a 7-0 lead. The Terriers extended the lead to 14-0 when Alex Love blocked a Georgetown (0-1) punt and Kyle Horne recovered in the end zone for a touchdown. Jackson rushed for 88 yards on four carries in the first quarter alone.

Love's block was the sixth of his career.

West Virginia 35, Wofford 9 Saturday, September 10, 2005

MORGANTOWN, W.V. – West Virginia gained 511 yards of total offense while holding Wofford to 154 as the Mountaineers posted a 35-7 win at Mountaineer Field.

The Terriers were held to 78 yards rushing, marking the first time they failed to hit the century mark in a game since Air Force limited Wofford to 88 net yards in the 2003 season opener.

The game was delayed for approximately 10 minutes in the first quarter when senior outside linebacker Derek Newberry was injured and taken off the field on a stretcher. Newberry received a grade three concussion and remained in Morgantown overnight for observation.

Michael Hobbs scored Wofford's first touchdown with 2:05 left in the third quarter when he scored on a 1-yard run. The drive was highlighted by a 48-yard pass from Collier to wide receiver Shiel Wood who made an over the shoulder catch before being dragged down at the Mountaineer 13.

Freshman punter Chris Tommie was a bright spot for the Terriers. Tommie averaged 44.3 yards on six punts including a long of 60.

Wofford 21, Georgia Southern 17 Saturday, September 17, 2005

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford fullback Michael Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and two touchdowns and the Terriers gained 354 yards on the ground in defeating Georgia Southern 21-17 Saturday night at Gibbs Stadium.

Wofford (2-1, 1-0) became the first team in 59 games, dating back to November, 2000, to rush for over 300 yards against the Eagle defense.

Wofford quarterback Josh Collier rushed for a career-high 91 yards and scored his first career touchdown. Georgia Southern (1-2, 0-1), which rushed for 292 yards, was led by quarterback Jayson Foster who carried 15 times for 121 yards and one touchdown. Jermaine Austin, Georgia Southern's fullback, was held to 87 yards rushing, ending a streak of six straight 100-yard games dating back to last season. Austin also lost three fumbles on the night.

The Terriers took a 21-14 lead with 7:41 to play in the third. Hobbs scored his second touchdown of the game on a three-yard run. Collier had kept the drive alive when he raced 27 yards on a third and two from his own 38.
