HAPPY NEW YEAR HOOPS PARTY – Thursday night! Terriers vs. College of Charleston

The Terriers have started the new year off right with a big road win on Monday at Wake Forest! Now they look to continue that momentum Thursday night as we host the College of Charleston at 8:00 p.m.!

STUDENTS – Beginning at 7 p.m. enjoy the Hot 98.1 Happy New Year Hoops Party with Hot 98.1!

- Hot 98.1 van outside the Arena with music and live on-air call-ins
- Interactive games including a Wii
- And the opportunity for you to win prizes!

YOUNGSTOWN: As always students can enjoy the free Coca-Cola and popcorn in “Youngstown” AND all students who have 27 or more student rewards points from the fall can pick up a Wofford drawstring backpack at the game!

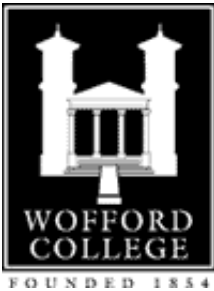

HALFTIME - stick around for a fan favorite – the Spartanburg Martial Arts Demo Team!

Make sure you’re at the first home event of 2012 and celebrate the return of Wofford basketball Thursday night!

Wofford basketball.
LET’S GO.

To: Faculty/Staff conducting or overseeing Interim courses or projects
From: Laura Corbin, director of news services
Re: News coverage of courses/projects

We have a lot of interesting and exciting Interim courses and projects that could be of interest to the news media, and the News Services office is working to generate such interest among the local, regional and even national media.

We are happy to help you and your students contact the news media regarding your Interim courses or projects. If you have a need or think you have an interesting course or project that may warrant media coverage as a feature story, please contact me (597-4180 or laura.corbin@wofford.edu) and I will help you in any way I can.

Please note that faculty, staff and students should not contact the news media directly; all contact should go through the News Services office. Please make sure your students understand that they must go through the News Services office rather than directly contacting the news media.

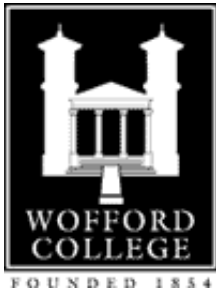

Also, should you or your students receive a media inquiry regarding a course or project, please contact me and I will help facilitate interviews and/or photos/video.

Thanks.

Washington Then and Now: Beltway Politics and Careers in Public Administration

Billy Webster will speak on the experience of working in the White House and give advice on pursuing careers in Public Administration. Much of the job opportunities for college graduates today are in the public sector. Come hear about the kind of work and opportunities that are available in the national government.

Billy Webster is a native of Greenville, SC, holds a Bachelor's degree from Washington and Lee University where he graduated summa cum laude and was chosen as a Fulbright Scholar, and is a graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law. In 1992 he was recruited to join and lead the staff of U. S. Secretary of Education Richard Riley during the early part of Secretary Riley's term and later served President Bill Clinton as Assistant to the President and Director of Scheduling and Advance.

To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

If you like to play basketball AND you don't mind playing in front of a crowd, then I have an opportunity for you! At halftime of next Thursday's men's basketball game vs. App State, I am putting together a team from Wofford to compete against the Spartanburg Pistons Wheelchair Basketball team.

We have done this before, although it has been about 3 years. For the Wofford team I am putting together, I am hoping to find representatives of the faculty and student body to hold down at least two chairs. Members of the athletic department (staff/coaches) are going to hold down two chairs and I'm hopeful that I can get a former basketball player who lives locally to be member number 5.

Some basketball skill is preferred In three previous meetings the Pistons hold a collective 30-0 lead, so the goal for the Wofford "Generals" is to simply score this time around.

If you are interested in participating, please e-mail me back as soon as possible and I will get you further details.

Thank you!

Faculty, staff and students:

We respectfully ask that you refrain from using the Admission Visitors parking spots during the work day. In addition to information sessions/tours, we also have many families who drop in to discuss financial aid and/or pay their deposits to attend Wofford throughout the month of January. In the last week, we have had several visitors drive in to find all of the visitors spots taken.

In addition, Monday's morning and afternoon visits are full to capacity as it is Martin Luther King, Jr. Day and high schools are closed. We appreciate your patience in understanding that ALL of the spots on the admission visitors row will be reserved for prospective students for the entirety of the day.

Thank you in advance,

Success Initiative • Career Services • Sophomore Experience • Venture
Boston Terrier Consulting Group • Institute for Professional Development

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN FOR THE
2012 INSTITUTE FOR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
AT WOFFORD COLLEGE

Do you know a college student who could benefit from learning the tools and skills that lead to professional success after graduation?

The Institute for Professional Development is an intense five-week summer program that teaches professional basics to rising college sophomores, juniors and seniors in any major.

Institute students learn skills in a broad range of critical areas, including:

- leadership development
- project management
- public speaking
- professional presentations
- networking
- creative problem-solving
- management communications.

All of these skills are valued by employers. Demonstrated experience in these areas will help students stand out during job and graduate school interviews, and excel in their professional lives.

What differentiates the Institute from other professional skills programs is the completion of a real-world consulting project.

Students will work in teams to develop an innovative solution for a corporate client. They'll gain marketable experience for their resumes and a significant advantage over the competition.

The Institute also includes a track specifically for healthcare majors that features a healthcare consulting project, plus graduate school preparation and application assistance.

This is what Kariesha Drayton, a 2009 graduate, says about her Institute experience:

"The Institute is more than a resume builder; the program is a dose of reality crunched into one summer session. This program challenges you emotionally and jump starts your professional growth. I learned how to work with and manage teams dealing with complex issues. I learned how to express my opinion effectively with passion. I learned ways to maximize my personal strengths to move the team forward and leverage others to shore up my weaknesses, which is the essence of teamwork. Lastly, and most importantly, the program helps build confidence in presenting information and in team leadership."

The attached brochure includes registration details, program dates, and fees. Only 13 of 25 seats are still available, and the registration deadline is March 30, 2012.

If you know a student who would benefit from this program, or you have friends or family members with students, please take a moment to forward this message or download the brochure and pass it on.

You can also learn more at our website.

Thank you for your time. If you or your student have questions about the Institute, I'm more than happy to talk with you. Please contact me at 864-597-4260 or cochranws@wofford.edu.

Scott Cochran

To the Campus Community:

Two events with national exposure for Wofford will take place on campus tomorrow, Wednesday, Jan. 18.

C-SPAN Campaign 2012 Bus

8:30 to 11:30 a.m. – The C-SPAN Campaign 2012 Bus, on its “Road to the White House” tour through South Carolina, will be parked on Campus Drive near the Sandor Teszler Library (note the location change from previous information).

From 8:30 to 9:15 a.m., eight selected Wofford students will participate in a live Skype call-in on C-SPAN’s morning program “Washington Journal.”

From 10 to 11:30 a.m., the Campaign 2012 Bus will be available for tours for the campus community as well as the general public.

Mitt Romney Campaign Rally

11 a.m. – Mitt Romney’s Campaign will hold a rally on campus in the gymnasium of the Andrews Field House. Gov. Romney is expected to take the stage at about 11:30 a.m.

The campus community is invited to attend and the event is open to the public. The campaign expects about 500 people, along with national media, to attend.

Attached is a flier with information on the rally.

Subject: NOTE FROM DAN MATHEWSON: Unleashing of the Clowns
Date: January 23, 2012 at 3:22 PM
To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

PLEASE DO NOT REPLY TO THIS EMAIL.

If you will allow the clowns to visit your classroom or administrative office, please email Dan Mathewson at mathewsondb@wofford.edu.

Dear Colleagues –

On Friday, January 27th, from 10am until noon, the 28 clowns of the Circus Interim (26 students + 2 professors) will be unleashed on the Wofford campus. The clowns hope to visit as many classes and administrative offices as will have them, in order to engage in several minutes of buffoonery at each location. If you will allow the clowns to visit your classroom or administrative office for a few minutes, please send an email to Dr. Dan Mathewson (aka. “Hockey the Clown”) indicating as much (mathewsondb@wofford.edu).

Note: while it is impossible to schedule a precise time on Friday morning for the clowns to visit your classroom/office, you may indicate a time when it would be inappropriate for the clowns to come barging in.

At noon, the clowns will gather in the upstairs of Burwell for the performance of “Barnum and Bernie Presents: The Second Greatest Show on Earth,” a 30-minute clown performance and circus variety act. After the performance upstairs, the clowns will head downstairs to the Faculty Dining Room for a repeat performance.

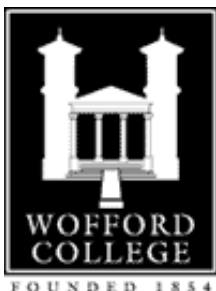

Sincerely,
Hockey the Clown

Pup Art Show

Details: Just a reminder that submissions for the art show featuring the talents of the children of Wofford Staff and Faculty members should be submitted by 5:00 p.m. tomorrow. Pieces can be left with Paul Jones at the circulation desk. Framed pieces are welcome. Thank you. Details: We are mounting an exhibit of children's art in the Sandor Teszler Library Gallery. We invite submissions from all interested faculty and staff members with children age 12 and under for display. The show will open on January 30, 2012 and will be on display through Feb. 6. There will be an opening reception for children, parents and visitors on Monday, Jan. 30 from 4 – 6 p.m. with refreshments. Art must be framed or mounted on cardstock or other backing strong enough to hold Velcro tape without damaging the piece. Please include your child's name and age, your name(s) and the title of the piece. You are limited to two pieces per artist. Please bring your submissions to the library's circulation desk and leave them with Paul Jones. Submissions must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 25.

From: WoffordNews WoffordNews@Wofford.Edu
Subject: Next Thursday Sandor Teszler Award Convocation
Date: January 31, 2012 at 11:59 AM
To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu

To: The Wofford Community
From: President Dunlap

Next Thursday, February 9th at 11:00, Wofford will celebrate the fifth annual Sandor Teszler Award Convocation. Our honoree will be John Wood, founder and CEO of Room to Read, the most successful organization of its kind ever created. To date, it has built more than 12,000 libraries in ten developing countries, distributed more than 10 million books, built more than 1,400 schools, established more than 13,000 scholarships for girls who would otherwise be unable to continue their schooling. To give you some sense of what John Wood himself is like, I am appending the internet address of a New York Times essay by Nicolas Kristof (<http://www.nytimes.com/2011/11/06/opinion/sunday/kristof-his-libraries-12000-so-far-change-lives.html>) and the opening chapters of John Wood's best-selling book, Leaving Microsoft to Change the World. If you Google "John Wood Room to Read," you will find a great deal more, including interviews with Oprah Winfrey and others.

Needless to say, this occasion, commemorating our bond to Sandor Teszler himself, is a celebration of the college's highest ideals—one of three occasions in the year when our faculty process in full academic regalia and the entire college community is urged to attend. As with previous recipients Paul Farmer, Marian Wright Edelman, Jacqueline Novogratz, and Vernon Baker, a chance to hear and interact with John Wood himself is potentially life-changing for every one of us. Do not miss it.
