Wofford set to host inaugural women's golf tournament March 5, 2004

For the first time in program history, the Wofford women's golf team will host a tournament with festivities for this year's event kicking off this weekend. The Lady Terrier Coca-Cola Intercollegiate will feature seven schools, including Wofford, from across the southeast at the Carolina Country Club in Spartanburg, S.C., March 6 and 7.

In addition to the Lady Terriers, The Citadel, East Tennessee State, High Point, Radford, South Carolina State and Tennessee Tech will be hitting the links. The two-day event will feature the 35 participants playing 18 holes each day.

"We are really excited and thrilled to have the opportunity to host a tournament of this magnitude," said head coach Randy Mahaffey. "It gives our program great exposure and the teams a chance to play on a great course.

"It will be good to get back into the swing of things as well. We have not played in a tournament setting since October, but I think the team will be ready to go."

The event kicks off a five-tournament spring schedule for the Lady Terriers concluding with the Southern Conference Championship, April 25-27, at the Starmount Country Club in Greensboro, N.C.

Women's golf enters conference championship this weekend

The Wofford women's golf team will hit the road for Greensboro, N.C., this weekend for the 2004 Southern Conference Championship. The three-day, three-round event will begin Friday, April 23 and conclude Sunday, April 25, at the Starmount Country Club.

The Lady Terriers are led by freshman Laura Parris with an 80.11 stroke average. The first-year player has led the team in scoring in five of the eight tournaments this season. The other three events saw junior Laura Robinson as the top Wofford scorer. Robinson is second on the team with an 80.55 stroke average.

Sophomore Lauren Stephenson, who recorded her career-best finish of 11th at the Lady Terrier Coca-Cola Intercollegiate in March, carries an 83.00 stroke average into the weekend. Rounding out the Wofford participants is senior Amber Franks. She holds a 87.67 stroke average this season, her final year in a Lady Terrier uniform.

"If we play the golf we are capable of and minimize the number of strokes we take, we have a chance to do well," said head coach Randy Mahaffey. "Behind the favorites Furman and Western Carolina, the field should be wide open. Hopefully the course will play in our favor and we'll be able to come out of the tournament in good shape."

Wofford will be looking to improve on its best finish of fifth at the tournament. The Lady Terriers recorded the fifth-place finish in their first season in the conference, 1998, when the event was held in Greenville, S.C.
