It's that time of year again! It's time for Delta Delta Delta's annual philanthropy event, Smooch the Pooch. The event will take place on Wednesday, February 15th at the men's basketball game against Elon, beginning at 7 PM.

I am sending this email to ask if there any of y'all that would be willing to participate in our event?

For those of you who are wondering, Smooch the Pooch raises money for our partner philanthropy, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Delta Delta Delta nationally set a goal in 2006 of raising $10 million in 10 years. We reached that goal in 2010. Following that, in 2010 our national office set a goal of raising $15 million in 5 years. To date we have raised $5.2 million.

Now the way that our staff and professors can help is by agreeing to participate in our event. If you agree to participate we will place jugs in Burwell and Zach's, where students may donate money to the staff member or professor of their choice. The staff member with the most money by Monday, February 13th will have to kiss a Boston Terrier dog at halftime of the men's game.

If you would like to participate please email me back at eddyce@email.wofford.edu by Sunday February 5th. Thanks again for your continued support and I look forward to hearing from you.

Lost and Found

Lost: A large Wofford Tervis Tumbler was lost at the men's basketball game on Saturday. It was left in the wooden bleachers behind the Wofford bench on the side with the pep band. The cup has the Wofford logo on the side and an orange cap. It was a gift of sentimental value and it would be greatly appreciated if it was returned.

BURWELL NIGHT IN THE BEN JOHNSON ARENA!

The Wofford women’s basketball team will make only its second appearance on TV in the history of the program tonight at 6:00 pm as the Terriers host Samford inside the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

Tonight is Burwell Night - the evening meal for campus will be served on the West Concourse for Wofford students in support of the Terriers. Tonight’s game will be televised on ESPN3 as part of the SoCon Game of the Week package.

Tonight’s contest is our second “Pack the House Pink” event, all those wearing pink to the game will be able to get in free as will all children age 12 and under. The Fairforest Elementary Choir will sing tonight’s anthem and the “Pantherettes” cheerleaders from Pine Street School will cheer at halftime.

Come out and cheer on the Terriers tonight as our women’s basketball team takes to the court for the national TV cameras!

LET'S GO.
PLEASE DO NOT REPLY TO THIS EMAIL. If you wish to participate, or comment, please email Dan Mathewson at mathewsondb@wofford.edu.

Dear Faculty & Staff “Athletes” –

This is the official email wherein I rally the faculty & staff troops for the upcoming intramural season. Normally, such emails are full of laughable hyperbole about the inherent athletic abilities of the faculty and staff, along with delusional visions of upcoming intramural glory. I’m in no mood, however, to regale you with athletic fantasies at the moment. Mostly, I’m just angry about the disgraceful way that the recent intramural dodgeball season ended for the faculty/staff team: a decisive loss in the semi-finals, and a season-ending injury for yours truly.

I know you all share my anger, my frustration, and my wounded sense of athletic competence. I also know you share my desire for redemption.

The time has now come to channel our collective rage into the upcoming intramural basketball season! I will begin the season on the injured reserve list (a “lower body injury,” as they say in hockey), but rest assured, I will be an inexhaustible fount of vitriol that will nourish and sustain you as you unleash your basketball fury on our hapless undergraduate foes.

Occupy Andrews Field House! We shall be redeemed!

Who’s in? Send me an email if you are: mathewsondb@wofford.edu. Games start next Monday. We play one or two per week, all starting at 5pm (unless they start messing with the schedule).

Dan

WAC and AMS Present Trivia/Unplugged with Levi Stephens
Date/Time: 2/9/2012 6:30:00 PM
Location: Phase V Galleria
Cost: Free
Details: Come out tomorrow night to Phase V Galleria for Music Trivia and the sounds of singer songwriter Levi Stephens at Wofford UNPlugged! Free giveaways, $100 grand prize, raffle, and more! Discovering Levi Stephens' music is like enjoying a surprisingly great meal at the local cafe you've passed a thousand times before finally deciding to stop in. You thought you knew what you were getting into, but this is something more. It's refreshing --a pleasant surprise that a new artist in an industry plagued by dying creativity chooses to follow in the tradition of those classic singer-songwriters that came before. His debut album, “This Way” goes far beyond the confines of R&B and seamlessly melds a variety of genres, from soul to rock to gospel to folk while always remaining honest, clever and conversational.

WAC and AMS Present Trivia/Unplugged with Levi Stephens!
Date/Time: 2/9/2012 6:30:00 PM
Location: Phase V Galleria
Cost: Free
Details: Come out TONIGHT to Phase V Galleria for Music Trivia and the sounds of singer songwriter Levi Stephens at Wofford UNPlugged! Free giveaways, $100 grand prize, raffle, and more! Discovering Levi Stephens' music is like enjoying a surprisingly great meal at the local cafe you've passed a thousand times before finally deciding to stop in. You thought you knew what you were getting into, but this is something more. It's refreshing --a pleasant surprise that a new artist in an industry plagued by dying creativity chooses to follow in the tradition of those classic singer-songwriters that came before. His debut album, "This Way" goes far beyond the confines of R&B and seamlessly melds a variety of genres, from soul to rock to gospel to folk while always remaining honest, clever and conversational.

Wofford's Got Your Back
_Details: Located less than a mile from Wofford houses the second most impoverished student body in the state. At Cleveland Elementary, 88% of the children are on free or reduced lunch and many, according to Mr. Logan, come to school Monday "starving" and distracted from their work. For $9.50 YOU can help feed a child in need through our first ever weekend backpack program! On Feb. 24, 240 students at Cleveland will receive backpacks filled with non-perishable food items to help tie them over from their last lunch on Friday to their first breakfast on Monday! For just $9.50, you can sponsor a backpack from the month of February! Tax deductible checks can be made to Wofford College (subject line: Wofford's Got Your Back!) and sent to Brenda McGuire in the Development Office OR please feel free to contact me if you would like to assist with stuffing the backpacks (2/22) or purchasing the food yourself! Thank you so much!

College Bowl Volunteers Needed

On March 3, Wofford will be hosting its annual quiz bowl tournament for high schools. Quiz bowl is a team competition which rewards academic knowledge, both broad and deep. I’m writing to ask you to consider volunteering some time to help run this tournament. We need people to fill one of two roles: reading questions and keeping score. Training will be provided the week of the competition (one half-hour session should do it) for those who want it, and lunch will be provided the day of the competition. The day will be broken into morning and afternoon sessions; we need volunteers for each. Thank you for considering helping us out with this! This competition is proving to be a valuable recruiting tool for the College, and interaction between the competitors and our community members has been a vital part of that. Come be amazed by the knowledge these students exhibit! Contact Matt Cathey at catheyme@wofford.edu for more information, or to volunteer.
Room to Read at Wofford

After this morning’s convocation, we have been inspired by John J. Wood to explore the possibility of creating a Room to Read chapter on the Wofford campus. If you would like to be involved in establishing a chapter here, please contact either Shelley Sperka or Anna Zook at sperkash@wofford.edu or zookam@wofford.edu.

Thank you for your time.

Dear colleagues and friends,

You are cordially invited to join us to celebrate the Chinese New Year, the Year of the Dragon.

Thursday, February 16
5:00-7:00pm at Burwell Chinese food will be served.

All faculty and staff members have free admission, thanks to the generous support of Dean Wood and Dining Services. Our classes, the Chinese Club, and the Children’s Dance Group from the Greenville Chinese Culture Association will give performances, including singing, dancing, Taiji, sword dance and Chinese calligraphy. There will be prizes for those who come early: a traditional red envelope with chocolate coins. We hope to see all of you there.

World Film Series, "Berlin 36"
Date/Time: 2/15/2012 3:30:00 PM
Location: Olin Teaching Theater
Cost: Free
Details: Director: Kaspar Heidelbach Germany, 2009; 100 mins. In German with English subtitles
Based on the true story of Gretel Bergmann who unwittingly became the biggest threat to the Nazi Party in 1936. Berlin was hosting the summer Olympic Games and Gretel was one of Germany's best gold medal contenders. She was also Jewish. Her skill and ethnicity undermined the Nazi belief that Aryans were the superior race, so the German authorities schemed to replace Gretel with another woman -- but "she" had a secret that, if uncovered, could be even more embarrassing to the Nazis.

Fun Funds Needs Your Help
Details: Fun Funds allocates $5,000 each year to Campus Union to encourage and support student-sponsored events! So far this year, none of the funds have been utilized. If you have a great idea for an exciting, campus-wide event, but are in need of money to make it a reality, then please contact Fun Funds (funfundscommittee@gmail.com). Maybe you want to have a barbeque at Phase V. Maybe you want to bring in a local band for a show on the Seal. Or maybe you want to host an outdoor movie night. As long as your idea is fun and open to all students, then we can help make it happen! So get creative and send us your ideas! We look forward to working with you!

To: Wofford Community
From: Dr. Stacey Hettes

Have you ever heard of a space archeologist? How about a science evangelist? Ever wonder who the creative genius behind the Toy Story movies is? Have you met a 2011 Nobel Laureate, the mayor of Rio De Janeiro, or the director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art? Was Bill Nye the Science Guy your childhood hero?

Don’t miss this opportunity to hear what they ALL (and many more) have to say when the 2012 TED conference will be broadcast LIVE at Wofford. All sessions will be held in the AAAS Room located downstairs in the Burwell Building.

Session 1 begins Tuesday, Feb. 28, at 2 p.m. EST and runs through Session 12 on Friday, March 2, at 2 p.m. EST.

Please take a moment now to review the entire program schedule (attached) and plan your TED. Whatever your interests, there is a TED session for you. All members of the college and community are welcome to attend. Please feel free to forward this email to others whom you think might be interested in attending. Professors, if you would like to reserve space for one of your classes at a session, please contact Dr. Hettes.

Attached you will find the full schedule of sessions with times listed in Eastern Standard time. (NOTE: this is a live webcast from Long Beach, Calif. Times listed on the TED website are Pacific Time).

Admission Parking Lot to be closed Monday, February 20

The Admission Parking Lot on the front of the Wofford campus will be closed to all faculty, staff and students this Monday, February 20, 2012, beginning at 7:30 am. Monday is the Presidents’ Day holiday, and consequently, we are expecting over 40 Admission visitors throughout the day. The Board of Trustees also begins two days of meetings on Monday as well. The only way to accommodate these guests on the campus for parking is to make that parking lot exclusive for their use.

Please pardon the inconvenience; that lot should be accessible by the afternoon on Monday, and only a portion of it will be reserved for the trustees on Tuesday, February 21.

Faculty and students are going to start a Room to Read chapter on Wofford's campus. Room to Read is the organization Dr. Wood started after leaving his high-powered career at Microsoft. The organization seeks to help children pursue a quality education in order to reach their full potential and contribute to their community and the world. Students involved in the chapter would raise awareness of the organization and fundraise to build libraries and schools in various countries (hopefully Rwanda). For more information about Room to Read visit www.roomtoread.org. The process of starting the chapter is only in the beginning stages, but we need student interest to continue. If you are interested in participating in a Room to Read chapter at Wofford, or have any questions please email Keely Blake (blakekm@email.wofford.edu) or Allison Tolbert (tolbertak@email.wofford.edu) before Thursday, Feb 23.

IT IS A PLEASURE TO ANNOUNCE THIS EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITY FROM JENNY JOHNSON

Can we help you file your taxes? Here at Wofford, the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program is available to help qualified individuals file federal and state tax returns free of charge. VITA is conducted in partnership with the United Way of the Piedmont and the Internal Revenue Service. All volunteers are trained and certified by the IRS, and can help with special tax credits such as the Earned Income Credit and Child Tax credit.

In order to qualify, your household income must be less than $50,000. In addition to free tax preparation, we also offer free electronic filing of your tax returns.

If you are interested, please contact Jenny Johnson at 597-4469 or johnsonjb@wofford.edu for more information.

The average employer spends only 10 seconds looking at a resume. In that 10 seconds, your future is decided. If your resume doesn't make a good first impression, you'll never get the interview.

Most people spend years building their education and work experience, yet devote almost no time to drafting a document that communicates their value. Don't make that mistake! Whether you're a career veteran or just starting out, a polished, clear and concise resume is a must-have for everyone -- not just the job-seekers.

In the third installment of the "how to" series, Scott Cochran, Dean of the Center for Professional Excellence and a 20-year business veteran, will discuss how you can create the perfect resume.

how to: create the perfect resume

Introducing the Mentoring Network
Date/Time: 2/22/2012 11:15:00 AM
Location: Conference Room, Center for Professional Excellence, Phase V
Cost: Free
Cost: Free

Details: Would you like to work with an alumni mentor? A mentor is a person who already has experience in your planned career field and who can share his/her wisdom and knowledge about how to best prepare for that career. Whether you've already chosen a field or are still trying to decide, alumni mentors can give you first-hand advice and tips on whether or not it's right for you. Mentoring relationships can happen in person or via email, telephone, text, Skype, etc. Come find out more about the Mentoring Network at a training session. Students must complete the session to be paired with mentors.

Want to Help Improve Education around the World?
Details: Following the undeniably inspirational convocation speech given by Dr. John Wood, a group of faculty and students are going to start a Room to Read chapter on Wofford’s campus. Room to Read is the organization Dr. Wood started after leaving his high-powered career at Microsoft. The organization seeks to help children pursue a quality education in order to reach their full potential and contribute to their community and the world. Students involved in the chapter would raise awareness of the organization and fundraise to build libraries and schools in various countries (hopefully Rwanda). For more information about Room to Read visit www.roomtoread.org. The process of starting the chapter is only in the beginning stages, but we need student interest to continue. If you are interested in participating in a Room to Read chapter at Wofford, or have any questions please email Keely Blake (blakekm@email.wofford.edu) or Allison Tolbert (tolbertak@email.wofford.edu) before Thursday 2/23/12.

Lost and Found

Missing Again!
Lost: My flag was stolen Fri/Sat this weekend inside the locked gate at the back of Black Science Annex outside my office! This time the flag was the historic “Join or Die” serpent that Ben Franklin coined when the southern states were threatening succession. Again the flag and pole are gone. Whoever “finds” it please return to Campus Safety…NO QUESTIONS ASKED. Thank you!

ATTENTION: Scholarship Opportunity for Pre-Med and Psychology Majors
Details: The 2013 Medical Professionals of Tomorrow Scholarship application process is now accepting applications! US Medical Supplies, in Raleigh, NC, a top online retailer of medical supplies and mobility aids such as life chairs, mobility scooters, stair lifts, and wheelchair lifts, is excited to bring back the Medical Professionals of Tomorrow Scholarship! As an industry leader, US Medical Supplies recognizes the importance of education and the incredible potential of tomorrow's medical professionals, and rewards this scholarship to a student every year. The Medical Professionals of Tomorrow Scholarship is available to full-time college students who are pursuing a course of study in a medical field, including those studying to become a doctor, nurse, physical therapist, anesthesiologist, radiologist, and all those who are pursuing other medical fields! One applicant will be selected, out of the many, to receive this $5,000 scholarship award. With this award, US Medical Supplies hopes to contribute to the future of the medical field by offering the winning student financial assistance to help cover the expenses of tuition and books. To receive this scholarship each applicant must answer the following question in 500 words or more: What person and/or event inspired you to pursue a career in a medical field, and how do you plan on capitalizing upon this experience in your field? You must also meet the following requirements: • You must be enrolled in an accredited two-year, four-year school, or a graduate program in the United States. • Must have one year of college experience. • You must be enrolled as a full-time student. • You must be enrolled in an educational program that is related to the medical field. • You must be a legal resident of the United States. • You must complete the application and submit your response to the essay question by December 31st, 2012. • Your response to the essay question must be at least 500 words in length. • You must like us on Facebook. For complete scholarship information and the application process, please go to http://www.usmedicalsupplies.com/scholarship/.
