Wofford rifle participated at the U.S. Army Marksmanship Invitational Sept. 22, 2004

Last weekend, Sept. 18 and 19, the Wofford rifle squad opened its second campaign as a varsity program by facing N.C. State and The Citadel at the U.S. Army Marksmanship Invitational in Fort Benning, Ga.

In action Saturday, Sept. 18, against N.C. State, senior Jennifer Ferguson (Duluth, Ga.) led the team with a 540 out of a possible 600. Junior Robert Merting (Walterboro, S.C.) posted a 408.

Rounding out the individual tallies were senior Leslie Gilbert (Inman, S.C.) with a 342 and sophomore Phillip King (Spartanburg, S.C.) with a 320.

Wofford recorded a team total of 1610 while the Wolfpack notched a total of 2266.

The second contest of the weekend was Sunday, Sept. 19, versus The Citadel. The Terriers increased their team score to 1857, but it was not enough as the Bulldogs fired a 2223.

Ferguson again led the squad in individual scoring with a 544, followed by sophomore Cadill Maharaj (Mt. Pleasant, S.C.) who registered a 450.

Merting recorded a 448 and Gilbert fired a 415 to round out the Wofford scores.

Under the direction of Lt. Col. Randy Hall, the Terriers will continue their season Oct. 23 when they open Southeastern Air Rifle Conference competition at Birmingham-Southern College in Birmingham, Ala.

Jennifer Ferguson of the Wofford rifle team has been selected to the 2005 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District 3 Women's At-Large First Team.

Ferguson is the first Wofford rifle student-athlete to receive a postseason honor. A senior from Duluth, Ga., Ferguson graduated earlier this month with a 3.95 GPA while majoring in biology.

Ferguson was instrumental in Wofford receiving Most Improved Team honors in the Southeastern Air Rifle Conference this season. She had a score of 529 at the SEARC Championship.

Ferguson had a 523 with 12 centers in a February sectional match in Charleston, S.C.
