Wofford, Longwood men's soccer play to double overtime draw

FARMVILLE, VA – Wofford and Longwood played to a double overtime 2-2 tie in men's soccer Thursday afternoon at Longwood's Lancer field. It was the first regular season contest of the season for each team.

Wofford took a 2-0 lead before the Lancers stormed back and scored the tying goal with just 12 seconds left in regulation.

Wofford scored its first goal in the 35th minute on a goal by Brandon Lowery, assisted by Jon Sekerak. The Terriers added to their lead three minutes later when Jesus Arroyo-Peco scored off a pass from Clark Powell.

Longwood's David Smith cut the Terrier lead to 2-1 when he controlled a loose ball and blasted a shot past goalkeeper Joey Taylor with 1:12 remaining in regulation. A free kick taken by sophomore goalkeeper Brandt Youmans with less than 45 seconds remaining resulted in a corner kick for Longwood. Freshman Miq Umar bent a corner kick into the box, which sophomore Todd Runey headed home to tie the game at the 89:48 mark.

The Lancers finished the game with 17 shots, including seven shots on goal, while the Terriers finished with seven shots, six of which were on goal. Youmans, who was starting his first collegiate game, finished the contest with four saves, while Taylor made five saves for Wofford. Longwood had a 9-2 advantage in corner kicks.

Each team is 0-0-1 on the season.

Wofford will play its home opener on Saturday, Sept. 3 when it hosts UNC Asheville a 1 p.m. at Snyder Field.

Wofford-UNC Asheville men's soccer match postponed

SPARTANBURG, SC – The men's soccer match scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 3 between Wofford College and UNC Asheville has been postponed until Sept. 28 due to travel restrictions imposed by North Carolina Governor Mike Easley.

The travel restrictions are in response to the gas shortage crisis in North Carolina caused by Hurricane Katrina. The two major pipelines that provide 90 percent of the gasoline to the state are currently operating at a limited capacity, supplying between 25 and 35 percent of their normal output. In response, the governor has put restrictions on state government travel.

The soccer match will take place at 6 p.m. on Sept. 28 at Wofford's Snyder Field.

The Terriers next scheduled match is at home against Lipscomb on Sept. 9 at 6:00.

Terrier men's soccer begins home slate this weekend
September 8, 2005

The Wofford men's soccer team will open its 2005 home schedule this weekend with a pair of matches at Snyder Field. The Terriers will welcome Lipscomb at 6 p.m. Friday and Belmont at 1 p.m. Sunday in nonconference contests.

"We have had a very good week of practice with the intensity and pace of play being very good," said head coach Matt Kern. "I think the guys will be excited about the chance to finally play at home this year.

"Both teams we are facing this weekend have improved over last year. Lipscomb has done a great job so far under their new coach. Belmont also comes in much improved.

"We are hoping to get quality results and put an attractive style of play on the field that will help attract fans, students and members of the community to our games."

Wofford began the season with a 2-2 double overtime tie at Longwood Sept. 1. After missing all of 2004 due to injury, senior Jesus Arroyo-Peco assisted on Brandon Lowery's first goal before tallying one of his own later in the first half.

The Terriers were slated to face UNC Asheville Sept. 3 in the home opener, but the match was postponed due to travel restrictions imposed by North Carolina Governor Mike Easley. Wofford and the Bulldogs will now square off Sept. 28 in Spartanburg, S.C.

Terriers blank Bison in men's soccer home opener
September 9, 2005

In its 2005 home debut, the Wofford men's soccer team blanked visiting Lipscomb, 3-0, Friday night at Snyder Field in Spartanburg, S.C. The Terriers tallied a pair of goals in the first half before adding their final score late in the second half. Senior Carter Ladd, who missed much of 2004 with an injury, returned to form tonight as he scored his first goal since the 2003 campaign with Wofford's first tally at 28:23 on an assist from Joel Kozak.

Just under 40 seconds later, fellow senior Jesus Arroyo-Peco found the back of the net behind Bison goalkeeper J.D. Murphy on a Callum Easter assist at the 29:02 mark. Easter, a freshman from Dunbar, Scotland, made his Terrier debut in the contest tonight.

Wofford (1-0-1) entered the lockerrooms at the half holding a 9-4 edge on shots.

The Terriers continued the put pressure on the Lipscomb (1-1-1) cage in the second half but only found the back of the net once. Sophomore Reed Blair dribbled down the right-hand side and crossed it to Arroyo-Peco, who flicked it back to a streaking Brandon Lowery directly in front of the goal for the game's final tally at the 81:17 mark.

The Bison managed to close the gap in shots in the second half; however, most of their attempts were from 25-to-30 yards out and were not on goal.

It marked the second-straight contest in which Arroyo-Peco posted a goal and assist, while Lowery's goal was his second in as many games this season.

Sophomore Joey Taylor registered seven saves for his first shutout of the season. Murphy collected three saves in goal for Lipscomb.

Wofford will continue its season at 1 p.m. Sunday when it plays again at home versus Belmont, the second-straight Atlantic Sun institution hailing from Nashville, Tenn., on this year's schedule.

Two goals separated by just over two minutes in the opening half were enough as the Wofford men's soccer team held on to defeat visiting Belmont, 2-1, Sunday afternoon at Snyder Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

After the early scoring, the Bruins closed the gap later in the first stanza and maintained the momentum after halftime but could not find the back of the net again.

Terrier senior forward Jesus Arroyo-Peco netted his third goal in as many games to open the scoring at 11:11. Arroyo-Peco took a free kick from 30 yards out on the right side and found the back of the net behind Belmont (1-2-1) keeper Kyle Roelke for his team-leading eighth point of the season.

A short time later, senior R.P. Benik found junior Joel Kozak down the left flank, who then fed the ball towards the goal where classmate Brandon Lowery redirected the pass for Wofford's second tally at 13:20.

The Bruins added to the scoring at the 28:04 mark when Drew Ducker intercepted a bad pass in the Terrier defense and beat Wofford (2-0-1) goalkeeper Joey Taylor on a breakthrough.

After the half, Belmont continued its constant pressure in the Terrier half of the field and outshot Wofford in the final 45 minutes, 15-4. Taylor collected a season-high nine saves, while Roelke posted one stop in the cage for the Bruins.

Ducker led all players with six shots, while Arroyo-Peco, senior Carter Ladd and sophomore Kyle Walker each notched a pair of shots for the Terriers.

Wofford will hit the road for a 5:30 p.m. contest at Liberty Friday before returning home to Snyder Field for the start of a four-match homestand at 6 p.m. Sunday versus North Florida.

Furious Terrier rally leads Wofford past North Florida
September 18, 2005

A three-goal rally with under 10 minutes left in regulation put the Wofford men's soccer team on top of visiting North Florida, 3-2, Sunday at Snyder Field in Spartanburg, S.C. Two of the three goals were on penalty kick situations.

After trailing 2-0 at the break, the Terriers stepped up their pressure in the second half and forced numerous Osprey fouls. With just under 14 minutes remaining, at 76:49, freshman Callum Easter fired a shot to the upper left corner of the North Florida goal. The attempt was deflected wide by the hands of an Osprey defender. The action resulted in a red card, automatic ejection and penalty kick situation for Wofford. Senior Carter Ladd's PK attempt was pushed wide left by a diving Michael Frost.

With UNF a man down, the Terriers (3-1-1) maintained their aggressive attack and forced a foul inside the 18-yard box resulting in another PK. This time, junior Brandon Lowery stepped to the line and found the back of the net for Wofford's first goal at 82:40.

A short time later, another Osprey foul inside the box produced the third penalty kick situation of the contest. Senior Jesus Arroyo-Peco tied the game at 86:28.

Wofford then was able to draw another foul on North Florida (0-3-1) just outside the box. Arroyo-Peco took the free kick and found the head of Lowery, who redirected it past the Osprey defense for the game-winning goal at 87:42.

UNF had taken a 2-0 lead at the intermission on a pair of quick tallies in the first half. Rohan Culley scored the opening goal of the game at 13:03 off a Matt Williams assist. Shareef Rajkumar added the Ospreys' second tally at 14:40 on an unassisted score.

Arroyo-Peco led all players with seven shots. His total equals 25 percent of the Terrier team sum, as Wofford managed 28 during the match. Lowery and Ladd each added five.

Culley and Martin Petterson led North Florida with four shots apiece.

Both goalkeepers, Frost and the Terriers' Joey Taylor, each stopped five shots in playing the full 90 minutes.

Wofford will return to action at 6 p.m. Friday when it hosts Cornell in the second contest of the day of the second annual Wofford/adidas Invitational. The tournament will kick off at 3:30 p.m. Friday as Georgia State and Furman hit the field. The event will conclude with a pair of matches Sunday.

For the second-straight season, the Terrier men's soccer team will serve as the host for the Wofford/adidas Invitational at Snyder Field. This year's field for the Sept. 23 and 25 event will feature Cornell, Furman and Georgia State in addition to Wofford.

"We are really excited about the tournament," said head coach Matt Kern. "This year's event features a great field. Cornell will be a difficult test for us and Georgia State is extremely technical and dangerous."

Competition will begin at 3:30 p.m. Friday with a neutral site match between Georgia State and Furman. The Terriers play their first contest at 6 p.m. versus Cornell.

The event will conclude Sunday starting with a 1 p.m. neutral site meeting between Furman and Cornell, followed at 3:30 p.m. by Wofford and Georgia State.

"Starting this weekend, our schedule will pick up in terms of the level of competition. We will need to adjust accordingly."

The Terriers are 3-1-1 on the season entering the weekend. Wofford tallied a 3-2 comeback victory against North Florida last Sunday in Spartanburg, S.C., in which the Terriers scored their three goals in the final 10 minutes to win the match.

A Terrier goal with just over three-and-a-half minutes remaining in regulation capped a comeback and forced a tie versus Cornell Friday night at Snyder Field at the Wofford/adidas Invitational in Spartanburg, S.C. Senior Jesus Arroyo-Peco netted his team-high tying fifth goal of the season with 86:23 showing on the clock off a Carter Ladd corner kick. Wofford (3-1-2) had earlier taken the early lead and halftime advantage with a Joel Kozak tally at 31:47 following a flurry of activity near the Big Red cage. Cornell then rallied for a pair of goals in the second stanza, including a breakaway shot from Tom Marks at 50:12. The Big Red took the lead, 2-1, at 66:02, when Jarid Siegel found Kyle Lynch's head off a corner kick. In the overtime, Cornell (1-3-2) seemed to control much of the first session before the Terriers held possession during most of the second extra period. Both goalkeepers, Wofford's Joey Taylor and the Big Red's Steve Lesser, each collected six saves in playing the full 110 minutes. Arroyo-Peco led all players with eight shots, as he had one-half of the Terriers' attempts. Cornell was led by three shots from Kuda Wekwete. The contest was the second of the day at the second annual Wofford/adidas Invitational. In the earlier contest, Furman topped Georgia State, 1-0, on a first half goal by Kevin Norman on a Eliot Paschalis assist from nearly 40 yards out. Norman's rocket appeared to be going high until the final second when it dropped into the upper left corner of the goal for the game's only tally. The Paladins' Bryan Amos registered two saves for the shutout, while the Panthers' Filipe Carvalho stopped 13 Furman shots. The tournament will conclude with a pair of matches Sunday. The first contest will pit Furman versus Cornell at 1 p.m., followed by Wofford and Georgia State at 3:30 p.m. At the conclusion of play Sunday, an all-tournament team will be announced along with Offensive and Defensive MVP awards.
