Men's tennis drops close match to The Citadel March 5, 2005

After dropping the doubles point, the Wofford men's tennis team split the six singles matches only to lose, 4-3, at The Citadel Saturday afternoon in Charleston, S.C. The Terriers earned points at the No. 2, 3 and 5 singles positions.

At the No. 2 slot, senior Brett Johnson captured a 6-2, 6-3 victory over Ananda Sawmynaden. Junior Chris Barlow posted a 6-3, 7-5 triumph versus James Eason at the No. 3 seed. Wofford sophomore Alex Fridzon defeated Nicholas Medica at the No. 5 position, 6-2, 6-4, for his team-leading eighth win.

In doubles play, the No. 2 Terrier duo of Johnson and Barlow was victorious over Medica and David Lara, 8-3.

Wofford falls to 4-9 overall and 2-1 in the Southern Conference with the loss. The Bulldogs improve to 3-4 and 1-0 in league play.

The Terriers will return home Monday at 2 p.m. versus Charlotte in the first of back-to-back home contests.

Johnson and Fridzon win sixth straight in Terrier loss March 7, 2005

In a rain-shortened match, the Wofford men's tennis team fell to visiting Charlotte, 4-2, in nonconference action Monday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center. With the 49ers in front, the contest was called while the No. 3 singles match was being contested.

The Terriers garnered their two points in singles play. Senior Brett Johnson rallied to defeat Marlo Santoso, 4-6, 6-3, 10-7 at the No. 2 slot. The victory is his seventh in singles play this season.

Sophomore Alex Fridzon matched Johnson with six-straight wins by handing Jonathan Vencatachellum a 6-4, 6-1 loss at the No. 4 position. Fridzon paces Wofford with nine singles victories on the campaign.

In the No. 3 singles match which was called, Charlotte's Dorian Host held a 3-6, 6-1, 4-1 edge over junior Chris Barlow.

In doubles play, the Terriers managed a triumph at the No. 3 seed. Senior Alec Wilson and sophomore Jeff Muthig garnered an 8-5 victory against Zvi Lantsberg and Stuart Lynas.

Wofford drops to 4-10 with the loss, while the 49ers improve to 7-5.

The Terriers will close their nonconference slate at 2 p.m. Wednesday when they host Winthrop.

Fridzon continues hot streak for Terrier men's tennis March 9, 2005

Sophomore Alex Fridzon captured a come-from-behind victory in singles play and the Terriers won the doubles point, but it was not enough as Wofford dropped a 5-2 decision to visiting Winthrop Wednesday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center.

Fridzon rallied to earn the Terriers' lone point in singles action. He posted a 3-6, 7-6, 10-5 triumph over Jorge Padilla at the No. 4 slot for his seventh-straight win and his 10th overall this season. The 10 victories are the most by a Wofford player this season.

In doubles play, the Terriers garnered a win at the No. 2 position by junior Chris Barlow and senior Brett Johnson. The pair knocked off Thiago Barbosa and Vinicius Bortolato, 8-3.

Wofford also picked up an 8-2 triumph during the No. 3 doubles match by Jeff Muthig and Alec Wilson against Alejandro Portugal and Rodrigo Santos.

The Terriers fall to 4-11 with the loss, while the Eagles improve to 11-2.

With the nonconference slate complete, Wofford will finish its season with Southern Conference matches. The next contest on the slate is at 1 p.m. March 19 at College of Charleston.

Fridzon remains unbeaten in league play in Terrier loss April 2, 2005

Despite winning a pair of singles matches, the Wofford men's tennis team lost, 5-2, at Appalachian State Saturday morning in Boone, N.C. The contest was moved indoors to the Yonhalossee Racquet Club due to the threat of inclement weather.

Junior Chris Barlow posted a 7-6, 6-1 victory at the No. 3 position over Ryan Brookshaw. It was Barlow's sixth singles win of the season, including a 4-1 mark in SoCon play.

At the No. 4 slot, sophomore Alex Fridzon registered a come-from-behind 4-6, 6-3, 10-7 triumph versus Andrew Waters. Fridzon has now won nine-straight singles matches to improve his team-leading record to 12-5 overall and 5-0 against league foes.

In doubles action at the No. 1 seed, Barlow and freshman Andrew Stubbs forced a tiebreaker with Andrew Taylor and Alex Probst before falling, 9-8.

The Terriers fall to 4-13 overall and 2-3 in Southern Conference play. The Mountaineers improve to 7-9 overall and 3-3 in the SoCon.

Wofford will return to action tomorrow when it hosts Georgia Southern at the Reeves Tennis Center at 1 p.m.

Barber clinches comeback victory for Wofford men's tennis April 3, 2005

After dropping a hard-fought doubles point to the Georgia Southern Eagles, the Wofford men's tennis team rallied by winning 4-of-6 singles matches for a 4-3 victory over the visitors Sunday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center.

In doubles action, the Eagles took the No. 2 and No. 3 matches by 8-5 and 9-8 scores, respectively. In the No. 3 match, the Terrier duo of sophomores Alex Fridzon and Michael Barber forced the tiebreaker against Tom Green and Charles-Henri Trotter.

Another tiebreaker was contested in the No. 1 position as junior Chris Barlow and freshman Andrew Stubbs knocked off Vincent Patry and Danie Van Den Heever, 9-7.

Stubbs continued his winning afternoon with a 6-4, 6-2 triumph over Patry at the No. 1 singles slot. At the No. 2 seed, senior Brett Johnson garnered a 6-2, 6-4 win versus Van Den Heever.

Fridzon won his 10th straight singles match and remained unbeaten in SoCon play with a 6-4, 6-1 victory against Germano Knorr during the No. 4 contest. Fridzon improved his overall record to a team-best 13-5 on the season.

Barber won his first career league match by defeating Nathan Tingen, 6-3, 6-1 at the No. 6 slot. His victory provided the winning margin for the Terriers.

Wofford improves to 5-13 overall and evens its SoCon mark to 3-3 with the victory. Georgia Southern falls to 3-14 overall and 2-4 in league action.

The Terriers will take a few days off for spring break before returning to action at 2 p.m. Saturday when they host UNC Greensboro. GSU will also play again Saturday at East Tennessee State in Johnson City, Tenn.

Wofford men's tennis records win over UNCG April 9, 2005

After sweeping through doubles action, the Wofford men's tennis team split the six singles matches to garner a 4-3 victory over Southern Conference foe UNC Greensboro Saturday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center.

The Terriers started the doubles action with an 8-4 triumph by freshman Andrew Stubbs and junior Chris Barlow over the Spartans' Greg Levy and Marc Ladouceur at the No. 1 position. At the No. 2 slot, Wofford's pair of senior Brett Johnson and sophomore Jeff Muthig defeated Jason Steinhorn and Chris Magnone also by an 8-4 score.

Sophomores Alex Fridzon and Michael Barber clinched the point for the Terriers with an 8-2 decision versus Adriano Salucci and Baxter Hufham at the No. 3 seed.

In singles play, Stubbs rallied to earn a three-set, 4-6, 6-2, 7-5 triumph against Levy at the No. 1 slot. Barlow posted a 6-3, 6-1 victory over Magnone during the No. 3 match.

Fridzon won his 11th match in a row and remained unbeaten in SoCon play, improving his record to 7-0 in the league and 14-5 overall, with a 6-3, 6-4 win against Daniel Bustamante.

The Terriers improve to 6-12 overall and 4-3 in SoCon play this season with the victory. UNCG falls to 3-18 overall and 1-7 against league competition.

Wofford will return to action tomorrow at 1 p.m. when it hosts Davidson in the next-to-last home contest of the season.

Stubbs tabbed SoCon Player of the Week
April 12, 2005

Andrew Stubbs of the Wofford men's tennis team has been recognized as the April 12 Southern Conference Player of the Week.

His honor is the third overall for the Terrier tennis programs this fall, following women's honors to freshman Sarah Shelley and junior Ellen Rogers.

Stubbs becomes the first freshman in Wofford men's tennis history to garner the award.

Last week, he posted a 2-0 mark in league action to improve his overall SoCon mark to 5-3. Overall, he has won three matches in a row.

He began with a 4-6, 6-2, 7-5 come-from-behind triumph over Greg Levy of UNC Greensboro. The next day, he handed Davidson's Donald Miles a 6-2, 6-2 defeat.

The Terriers, who have won a school single-season record five contests in league play this spring, will continue their season Friday at East Tennessee State in Johnson City, Tenn.

Terrier men's tennis knocked off by ETSU April 15, 2005

Senior Brett Johnson provided the lone point Friday afternoon for the Wofford men's tennis team as it fell, 6-1, at East Tennessee State in Johnson City, Tenn.

Johnson defeated Fernando Fiuri at the No. 2 singles slot, 7-6, 6-2 for his 10th victory of the season. He joins sophomore Alex Fridzon as the only Terriers with double-digit wins this season. He now has also reached the plateau in each of the last two campaigns.

Freshman Andrew Stubbs, playing at the No. 1 seed, fell to No. 51-ranked Oscar Posada, 6-4, 6-0.

In doubles action, Johnson teamed with sophomore Jeff Muthig to force a tiebreaker at the No. 2 position. The pair lost to Daniel Escobedo and Lisandro Picardo, 9-7.

The loss drops Wofford's record to 7-14 overall and 5-4 in Southern Conference play. The Bucs improve to 17-3 overall and a perfect conference mark of 10-0.

The Terriers will return home Sunday at 2 p.m. for their final regular-season contest. Wofford will host Furman at the Reeves Tennis Center with Johnson and Alec Wilson being honored prior to the match as part of Senior Day ceremonies.

Terriers drop hard-fought men's tennis match on Senior Day April 17, 2005

In a match which came down to the No. 1 singles contest, the Wofford men's tennis team closed its regular season with a hard-fought 4-3 loss to Furman Sunday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center. Prior to the contest, the Terriers recognized seniors Brett Johnson and Alec Wilson who were playing in their final home matches of their careers.

The Paladins claimed the early 1-0 lead after winning two of the three doubles contests. All three were close contests with Wofford picking up its victory during the No. 1 match. Junior Chris Barlow and freshman Andrew Stubbs handed Will Kieffer and Allen Simmons an 8-5 defeat.

In singles play, Furman maintained its momentum by picking up wins at the No. 5 and No. 6 slots.

The Terriers then rallied to tie the match, winning at No. 2, No. 3 and No. 4. Johnson picked up his 11th victory of the campaign with a 6-4, 6-4 decision over Ben Pauluhn at the No. 2 slot. The contest proved to be the match-tying point.

At No. 3, Barlow knocked off Brennen Phippen, 6-2, 7-5, while sophomore Alex Fridzon captured his team-leading 16th triumph by recording a 6-4, 6-3 victory versus Stephen Nash.

With the contest tied at 3-3, Stubbs battled Simmons during the No. 1 contest. Simmons won the first set before Stubbs played tougher in the second set forcing a tiebreaker. In the end, the senior Simmons held on for a 6-4, 7-6 win against the freshman Stubbs.

The loss drops Wofford's record to 7-15 overall and 5-5 in the Southern Conference. The five victories in the league are a school record for a single season.

Furman concludes its regular season with a 16-11 overall mark and 9-1 record in the SoCon.

Both teams will wait for their seeding and placement at the upcoming Southern Conference Tournament, which begins Thursday in Charleston, S.C.

Terrier tennis matchups set for SoCon Tournaments
April 18, 2005

After finishing their regular-season competition Sunday, the Wofford men's and women's tennis teams learned Monday of their fate for the upcoming Southern Conference Tournaments in Charleston, S.C.

The men's team earned a bye as the No. 5 seed and will open play at 10 a.m. Friday versus No. 4 The Citadel.

During the regular season, the Terriers recorded five league wins, its most in the program's Division I history in a single year.

The women's squad enters the field as the No. 7 seed against No. 10 Appalachian State in a 12:30 p.m. contest Thursday.

The Terriers began the conference season with a 3-0 mark with wins over Elon, Chattanooga and Western Carolina.

Both matches will be played at the City of Charleston Farmfield Courts.

The tournament opens Thursday and continues through Sunday's championships contests.

Stubbs named to All-Southern Conference first team
April 22, 2005

Freshman Andrew Stubbs was named to the All-Southern Conference first team singles squad it was announced by the league office.

Stubbs becomes the first Terrier freshman men's player to earn the honor.

He played at the No. 1 position all season, garnering a 5-5 league mark and 7-14 record overall. He faced four nationally-ranked opponents, including league player of the year Oscar Posada of East Tennessee State.

In doubles play, he added seven victories playing alongside senior Alec Wilson, freshman and roommate Richard Cahi and junior Chris Barlow.

After defeating opponents from UNC Greensboro and Davidson, he was named the SoCon Player of the Week for April 12.

Wofford opens play in the Southern Conference Tournament today as the No. 5 seed versus No. 4 The Citadel. The Terriers garnered a school record five conference wins in 2005.

Men's tennis nipped by Bulldogs at SoCon Tournament April 22, 2005

Despite splitting the six singles matches, the Wofford men's tennis team saw its season come to a close with a 4-3 loss to The Citadel Friday afternoon at the Southern Conference Tournament in Charleston, S.C.

The Terriers, seeded fifth, earned a program season-best five league victories during the regular season. It was the first time in program history Wofford had received a bye into the second round.

The No. 4-seeded Bulldogs posted wins at the No. 1 and No. 3 doubles slots to earn the doubles point. The No. 2 contest was not finished.

In singles action, Wofford responded by capturing triumphs at the No. 2, No. 3 and No. 4 positions.

Senior Brett Johnson closed his Terrier career with a 6-1, 6-0 win against Ananda Sawmynaden during the No. 2 contest. His 12 victories on the season were second only to sophomore Alex Fridzon's 17.

Fridzon garnered win No. 17 with a 6-4, 7-5 decision over David Lara at the No. 4 slot.

Junior Chris Barlow became the third Wofford player to reach double-digit wins on the campaign with a come-from-behind 6-7, 6-2, 6-1 victory against James Eason at the No. 3 position.

The Terriers' All-Southern Conference selection, freshman Andrew Stubbs, fell in three sets at the No. 1 slot to league freshman of the year, Daniel Dossetor, 7-5, 0-6, 6-4.

Wofford ends its season with a 7-16 overall mark. The Bulldogs improve to 10-11.

Wofford men's tennis standout Andrew Stubbs won the singles championship in addition to combining with Terrier teammate Chris Barlow for a doubles title in an ITA Summer Circuit stop at the University of Florida.

With court temperatures reaching 110 degrees, Stubbs played a total of nine matches in 2 1/2 days. The Hilton Head, S.C., native was a first-team All-SoCon selection as a freshman this spring.

Stubbs recorded a 6-2, 6-1 victory over Konstantin Lazarov (Embry-Riddle) in the championship singles match.

Stubbs posted earlier victories over Stefan Shaw (Florida State), Alex Vuckovic (Princeton), Leonard Gullan (North Carolina) and Scott Blackmon (Georgia Tech).

Stubbs and Barlow defeated Zach Ganger (Utah) and Donald Miles (Davidson), 9-7, for the doubles title.

Stubbs and Barlow, a senior from Roswell, Ga., posted a 3-4 doubles mark for the Terriers this spring.

The 2005 Wofford men's tennis team set a single-season school record with five SoCon victories. The Terriers placed in a tie for fourth in the league standings after being predicted to finish eighth.

The Wofford women's tennis team received an ITA All-Academic Team award for its cumulative grade-point average, while Adriane Hodges and men's player Jeff Muthig garnered Scholar-Athlete honors.

The ITA All-Academic Team award recognizes programs that have a cumulative team GPA of 3.2 or above (on a 4.0 scale).

In order to earn ITA Scholar-Athlete status, a player must be a varsity letterwinner, have a GPA of at least 3.5 (on a 4.0 scale) for the current academic year and be enrolled at their present school for at least two semesters.

Hodges is a sophomore from Peachtree City, Ga. She posted a 7-7 record in both singles and doubles as a freshman. In SoCon play, she was 3-3 in singles and 4-3 in doubles. Hodges had a singles victory in a SoCon Tournament match versus Appalachian State.

A junior from Columbia, S.C., Muthig totaled five doubles victories with three different teammates.

Muthig was instrumental in the Terriers setting a single-season school record with five SoCon wins. Wofford placed in a tie for fourth in the league standings after being predicted to finish eighth.
