Quest. 9. Who have died this year?
1. Thos. Weatherford,—an European, advanced in grace, aged fifty-six: upward of four years a labourer in the vineyard of the Lord: of slender system, unfit to our changing climes. What was the best of all, he lived the gospel, and died triumphant in the Lord.

2. Peter Massie,—under the profession of religion for some years. He felt some declusion in the spirit and practice of religion for a season, but was afterward restored. He laboured faithfully in the ministry upward of three years, confirmed and established in the grace of God, and united to an afflicted man, who desired and obtained a sudden death, by falling from his seat, and expired, Dec. 19, 1791, in the morning, about nine o'clock, at Cumberland, on the western waters.

3. George Browning,—two years and a half in the field of labour: a serious devoted man, who died in peace, and was afterward restored. He laboured faithfully in the ministry upward of three years, confirmed
falling from his seat, and expired, Dec. 19, 1791,
in the morning, about nine o'clock, at Cumberland, on the western waters.
