Wofford Women's Tennis Announces 2003-04 Schedule
Sept. 1, 2003

Head Wofford tennis coach Rod Ray has announced the upcoming 2003-04 schedule for the women’s team. Although the collegiate season does not officially begin until the spring semester, the team will participate in five fall tournaments and invitationals in preparation for the season.

"This year should prove to be a remarkable year for Wofford Tennis,” said Ray. " Last year gave us tremendous progress and growth and provided a solid base for this year.”

The Terriers will face Georgia State Jan. 31 in their home opener. Other non-conference opponents at the Reeves Center this season will include Coastal Carolina, High Point and Charlotte.

"The women's team will be mature with two returning all-conference players (Ellen Rogers and Wendy Rohr) and both of last year's captains (Rohr and Lauren Marie Whisenhunt),” continued Ray. “Freshman Kristen Bowman will play an immediate role in the lineup. Overall, the fall tournament schedule should provide a good balance between outstanding competition and opportunity for success. The first dual match of the season will be Jan. 24 against Stetson.

As always, the Southern Conference will be strong as it continues to improve. The Lady Terriers have risen to the challenge and will be very competitive in the strong league.”

Lady Terrier Women’s Tennis Opens Season at the Gardner-Webb Tournament
Sept. 11, 2003

The Wofford women’s tennis team will embark on the 2003-04 season beginning this weekend at the Gardner-Webb Tournament in Boiling Springs, N.C. The Lady Terriers return to the court with two all-conference performers in Ellen Rogers and Wendy Rohr, as well as last season’s captains, Rohr and Lauren Marie Whisenhunt.

"Right now, we’re definitely excited," said Wofford head coach Rod Ray. "We’re going to have to work on our doubles play some and that will be one of our main emphasis from a strategic standpoint during the fall season. There will be a lot of different combinations trying out new tactics and playing an aggressive style of play. We have some young players that will have to mature quickly, and they will have to gain some confidence early. I’m hoping to come out of this weekend with some success."

Ray enters his fourth season at the helm of the Wofford tennis program. Last season, he guided the Lady Terriers to an 11-8 overall record, including a 5-4 mark in Southern Conference action for fourth place out of the 10 teams in the league.

Wofford Lady Terrier Tennis Team Fares Well in Season Opening Tournament
Sept. 17, 2003

In its season opening tournament this past weekend at the Gardner-Webb Invitational in Boiling Springs, N.C., the Wofford women's tennis team played itself into the finals against one another.

In singles competition, each of the four Lady Terrier players in the tournament, Ellen Rogers, Tara Hartness, Lauren Marie Whisenhunt and Kristen Bowman participated in the two A divisions. For each division, the singles flight final matched them up against one another.

The final in the doubles flight also featured an all-Wofford battle as the Lady Terriers continued their dominance in the tournament.

"This was a great start for us," said head coach Rod Ray. "We competed well, playing hard and making adjustments when necessary. Certainly, we feel we can improve from here, but this was a great start. We accomplished many of the things we set out to accomplish. The fall is a time of preparation and learning. As a team, we need to continue to improve for us to be successful in our league, and the team is eager to meet the challenge. At this point, I am extremely pleased and optimistic that we will do our best to meet the next challenge."

Wofford will continue its fall tournament slate by traveling to Chattanooga, Tenn., for the Chattanooga Tournament, Sept. 26-28.
Women’s Tennis Continues Fall Season in Chattanooga This Weekend
Sept. 25, 2003

Led by a return home trip for sophomore Ellen Rogers, the Wofford women's tennis team will travel to Chattanooga, Tenn., this weekend for the Steve Baras Memorial Fall Classic. Chattanooga, a Southern Conference rival, will serve as the host institution for the tournament.

Rogers has led the charge in practice lately and has garnered the recognition of her teammates and coaches, as the Lady Terriers prepare for their first real test of the 2003-04 season.

"Right now, this team is the best it has ever been," said head coach Rod Ray. "They are working hard and striking the ball very well for this time of year. We are in need of quality match play to really see where we are. It's no surprise to me to see Ellen's progress. She is a terrific young person that always gives 100 percent. Despite being a younger player, she is developing into one of the leaders for our team. She works hard all the time, and her presence makes the team as a whole better because if you are around Ellen, you better either pay attention or make sure you are out of the way. This weekend may be the perfect place for a breakthrough for her."

Wofford will continue its fall season with three more weekend tournaments before opening match play in January at Stetson.

Rogers Returns Home and Captures 'A' Singles Crown
Sept. 28, 2003

Junior Ellen Rogers returned home to Chattanooga, Tenn., this weekend and captured the A singles championship at the UTC Steve Baras Fall Classic. Rogers defeated Charlotte's Laura Swain in the final, 3-6, 6-2, 6-2. Her victory was one of many strong showings in the tournament for the Lady Terriers.

Also in the A singles, senior Wendy Rohr reached the quarterfinals before losing to Swain, 7-5, 4-6, 1-0 (5). In the opening round of the bracket, sophomore Tara Harntness fell 6-3, 7-5, to No. 3 seed Medina Bayrambasic of Coastal Carolina. Also in her first match of the tournament, junior Lauren Marie Whisenhunt dropped a 5-7, 6-2, 1-0 (7) decision to Georgia State's Ania Dolinska.

As the lone Lady Terrier competitor in the B singles, freshman Kristen Bowman reached the round of 16 before falling to Julia von Samson of UAB, 6-0, 6-2.

Hartness/Rogers teamed together in the A doubles bracket and fell in their opening round match against Glenny Cepeda/Carolina de Altube of Shorter, 8-3. Also in A doubles action, the duo of Bowman/Whisenhunt dropped an 8-4 decision to Femke de Boer/Annemieke Elsholz of UAB.

"We had a great showing this weekend," said head coach Rod Ray.

Wofford will continue its fall tournament season by participating in the N.C. State Invitational, Oct. 3-5, in Raleigh, N.C.

Wofford Women's Tennis Makes Stop in Raleigh This Weekend
Oct. 2, 2003

The Wofford women's tennis team will continue its season this weekend in Raleigh, N.C., at the N.C. State Invitational. In two fall tournaments thus far, the Lady Terriers have proven they are a name to recognize in the Southeast, as sophomore Ellen Rogers captured A Flight of the UTC Steve Baras Fall Classic in Chattanooga, Tenn., last weekend.

Other top performers in Chattanooga included Wendy Rohr, Kristen Bowman, Tara Hartness and Lauren Marie Whisenhunt.

"Right now, we are extremely excited about playing at N.C. State," said head coach Rod Ray. "We have had a very good fall in terms of overall improvement to date. As a team, we know we have a long way to go and lots of areas on which to improve, but the effort for this group of young women has been one of working hard and maintaining a high level of enthusiasm.

"This weekend will be a great test for us. Last weekend, we learned a great deal about ourselves. Hopefully, that will enable us to get better as a team. Obviously, we are thrilled with Ellen's results last weekend and hopefully, this weekend, the whole team will share in the rewards. This past week during practice, we worked hard on our doubles play, which will get the greatest test this weekend. That's one area we still need to improve."

Wofford opened its fall season by playing in the Gardner-Webb Tournament and will continue with two additional fall tournaments after Raleigh before opening its dual match season in January.

Rogers Wins Third Straight Fall Tournament

Oct. 5, 2003

Wofford women's tennis junior Ellen Rogers won her third consecutive fall tournament by capturing the A2 singles flight at the N.C. State/Residence Inn North Fall Invitational this weekend in Raleigh, N.C.

In the finals of the A2 singles, Rogers defeated Jennifer Jassawalla of host N.C. State, 6-3, 6-1, to win the flight and add to her fall tournament winnings at the Gardner-Webb Invitational and the UTC Steve Baras Fall Classic.

Senior Wendy Rohr placed second in the A1 singles, falling to Coastal Carolina's Medina Bajrambasic in the championship, 6-2, 3-6, 6-2.

Competing in the A2 singles with Rogers was Lauren Marie Whisenhunt, who finished fourth in the bracket. She fell in the third place match to Kristin Munn of Western Carolina, 6-0, 4-6, 10-5.

In the B1 singles, freshman Kristen Bowman lost to Western Carolina's K. Hatch, 2-6, 6-0, 6-0, before defeating the Catamounts' Kristin Cotton, 6-2, 6-3, in another match that was not included in the flights. Tara Hartness also competed for the Lady Terriers in the B1 singles and advanced the quarterfinals before dropping a 6-1, 6-3, decision to Marie Matrka of Coastal Carolina.

Delaine Hare participated in the B2 singles, losing in the round of 16 to the host Wolfpack's Agustina Arachavelata, 6-1, 6-2, while freshman Taite Quinn concluded Wofford's participation in the singles flights, when she advanced to the quarterfinals of the C1 singles before losing to Allison Barry of N.C. State, 4-6, 6-1, 6-1.

In A doubles action, the duo of Whisenhunt/Bowman were knocked off in their round of 16 match against Elon's Prelac/Fulmer, 8-1, while Wofford's Rohr/Rogers fell in the quarterfinals to Matrka/Bajrambasic of Coastal Carolina, 9-8.

The Lady Terriers' lone team in the B2 doubles bracket, Hartness/Hare, advanced to the third place game to face Elon's Kristofak/Martin.

Rohr Roars Into Quarters at Indoor Championship
Oct. 26, 2003

Senior women's tennis player Wendy Rohr knocked off two top regional foes on her way to the quarterfinals at the ITA Southeast Regional Championship in Winston-Salem, N.C.

After picking up a 6-3, 6-3, win over Becky Gordon of Appalachian State in the opening round, Rohr defeated Grace Blakely of South Carolina, 6-3, 6-2. Next up was a match against North Carolina's Lee Bairos. Rohr used three sets to defeat Bairos (7-6 (6), 4-6, 6-2) to set up the quarterfinal match today against 14th-seeded Katie Martzolf of Wake Forest. As the only player in the quarters not from a ACC or SEC school, Rohr fell to Martzolf, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2.

In other singles action, sophomore Ellen Rogers dropped an opening round decision to second-seeded Danela Alvarez of Clemson, 7-5, 6-2. In the match, Rogers held three set points in the first set.

In the qualifying singles flight, Tara Hartness fell 6-2, 6-2, to Wake Forest's Elizabeth Proctor, while Lauren Marie Whisenhunt dropped a 6-2, 6-4, decision to Charlotte's Ashleigh Murray in opening round action.

Rohr and Rogers teamed to form the Lady Terriers' lone doubles entry. The duo picked up an opening round 8-6 victory over Jessica Irey/Sylwia Ziolkowska of East Tennessee State. Rohr/Rogers then faced the third-seeded team of Manon Kruse/Carien Venter of Middle Tennessee State only to fall, 8-2.

The Wofford women's tennis team will conclude its fall schedule with the USC Southern Collegiate next weekend in Columbia, S.C.

Lady Terriers Conclude Fall Season at Southern Intercollegiate Championship
Nov. 3, 2003

The Wofford women's tennis team concluded its fall tournament season this past weekend at the Southern Intercollegiate Championship in Columbia, S.C. It marked the fifth fall tournament in which the Lady Terriers participated.

Senior Wendy Rohr was the lone Wofford player in the A1 singles bracket, and she finished in fifth place. Included in her three wins were victories over the No. 1 singles player from the College of Charleston, Rachel Magory, 6-0, 6-0, and the No. 1 player from Furman, Mary Neill Hagood, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3. The triumph over Magory also was Rohr's first-ever over the opponent.

In the A2 singles, sophomore Ellen Rogers rebounded from an early loss to claim 13th place by defeating East Tennessee State's Jewel Aldea, 6-2, 6-1.

Tara Hartness claimed 11th place in the B1 singles draw after garnering a 6-4, 6-3, win over the College of Charleston's Lauren Stewart. Lauren Marie Whisenhunt dropped a 2-6, 7-5, 6-1 decision to Kristin Munn of Western Carolina to take 12th place in the B2 singles.

In other singles action, Delaine Hare picked up two victories before dropping a decision to the College of Charleston's Laure Garcon in the fifth-place match in the C1 singles flight. Meghan Turner competed in the C2 singles and claimed 12th place in the bracket and used a 6-1, 6-3, decision to defeat Aimee Villavicencio of East Tennessee State.

In doubles action, Rohr and Rogers teamed together and garnered two victories and a loss to claim third place with an 8-6 decision over Renata Barreto/Paula Takahashi of Winthrop in the A2 doubles.

In the B2 doubles, Hartness/Hare advanced to the fifth-place match before dropping an 8-2 decision to Rebecca Mitchell/Ania Dolinska of Georgia State to finish in sixth place.

The final doubles duo from Wofford was Turner and Whisenhunt, which finished eighth in the C1 doubles flight.

The Lady Terriers will resume match action Jan. 24 in their first dual match of the spring season at Stetson.

Lady Terrier Tennis Inks Two to National Letters of Intent
Nov. 17, 2003

After performing well during the fall tournament season and garnering a fourth-place finish in the Southern Conference standings a year ago, the Wofford women's tennis program has signed two players to National Letters of Intent it was announced Monday by head coach Rod Ray.

The first of the two women's players is Sarah Shelley of Myrtle Beach H.S. in Myrtle Beach, S.C. Shelley has been a Top 100 singles player nationally, placing as high as No. 99, and a Top 10 singles player in the South with a current standing at No. 7.

After playing at No. 2 singles her freshman year, Shelley has been the No. 1 singles player for her school each of the last two campaigns. A three-time 3-A state player of the year by the S.C. Coaches Association of Women's Sports, she has tallied a 73-7 singles record through her first three years.

She's also garnered All-State and All-Region honors for three years and has been a member of the 3-A state championship squads for three years. In 2000 and 2002, she was one of three girls chosen to be a Junior Davis/Federation Cup participant representing South Carolina. From 1996-2000 and in 2003, she was a member of the USTA Zonal Team Championship.

"She could be one of the most talented players to come out of S.C. in the past several years," noted Ray. "She's athletic, hard-working, has a positive attitude and experience on a national level. And with that, she has experienced success on the national level. She'll have an immediate positive impact on our program."

The second women's player Wofford signed to a National Letter of Intent is Laura Lynn Williams of Knoxville, Tenn. Williams is a two-time Tennessee doubles champion and has garnered a ranking of No. 7 in the South for doubles. In singles action, she has recorded a ranking of No. 244 nationally.

Williams has garnered four letters while playing at West H.S. She has earned All-Conference honors for three years and is a two-time singles district and regional champion. In singles, she also reached the state semi-finals once. After being crowned a district and regional champion in doubles, her duo was a state finalist.

"She's steady, mature, well-rounded and very consistent," said Ray. "She comes from a great tennis background and has an understanding of what college is all about."

The Lady Terriers will open their dual match season against Stetson Jan. 24 in Deland, Fla.
Rohr Garners All-Southeast Regional Ranking
Dec. 8, 2003

Wofford senior women's tennis player Wendy Rohr is ranked 25th in Southeast Regional singles rankings according to the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA).

After completing a 9-5 singles record this past fall, Rohr has garnered the program's first-ever ranking since moving to the Division I level in 1995-96. Her best finish of the season was a second-place effort at the N.C. State/Residence Inn Fall Invitational in Raleigh, N.C.

"It's an unbelievable accomplishment when you look at the other players in the region," said head coach Rod Ray. "She has worked hard over the last few years and will only continue to improve as she enters her final season as a Lady Terrier."

Rohr is the highest-ranked Southern Conference player and is one of two players not from an ACC or SEC school in the region's top 25.

Florida awaits Lady Terrier tennis squad this weekend
Jan. 22, 2004

After coming off a strong showing during the 2003 fall tournament season and a third-straight 10-plus victory season in 2002, the Wofford women's tennis program will open its 2004 campaign in sunny Florida this weekend.

On the agenda for the weekend, the Lady Terriers will open their season at Stetson 11 a.m. Sunday before traveling to Jacksonville for a 10 a.m. match Sunday against JU.

Senior Wendy Rohr finished the 2003 fall campaign as the only Wofford player to garner a regional ranking since the program attained the Division I level. She is ranked 25th in the Southeast region according to the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) and is one of two players in the top 25 not from an ACC or SEC school.

"The team has really been working hard and is dedicated to getting better," said assistant coach Kavan Hahn. "We are looking for a lot of success at different positions throughout the lineup. Everyone seems to be really coming together at the right time. This past week has been our best week of practice thus far."

Five starters and eight letterwinners return to head coach Rod Ray's squad this spring after an 11-8 overall and 5-4 Southern Conference season a year ago. Seniors Rohr and Lauren Marie Whisenhunt will serve as the team's captains for the second-straight year.
Lady Terrier tennis opens season with victory over Stetson
Jan. 24, 2004

Guided by triumphs at the No. 1 and No. 2 singles positions, the Wofford Lady Terrier tennis team knocked off Stetson, 5-2, in its season opener in DeLand, Fla.

Senior captain Wendy Rohr picked up her first victory of the season at the No. 1 singles slot with a 6-2, 6-2 defeat over the Hatters’ Mili Milovanovic. Sophomore Ellen Rogers used three sets to defeat Beth Hayden at No. 2 singles, 5-7, 6-1, 6-2.

Also garnering singles victories for Wofford were junior Delaine Hare at the No. 5 slot with a 6-3, 6-4, victory over Jen Wisnoski and freshman Kristen Bowman with a 4-6, 6-2, 6-0, win over Ashley Eville in her first collegiate match.

Rohr and Rogers teamed to score an 8-6 win over Milovanovic and Marina Levin at the No. 1 doubles. Bowman also picked up a doubles win with senior captain Lauren Marie Whisenhunt, as the duo tallied an 8-3 defeat over Danielle Mollman and Wisnoski.

With the victory, Wofford improves to 1-0 while the Hatters drop to 0-1. The Lady Terriers will be back in action tomorrow morning as they play at Jacksonville at 10 a.m.

Lady Terriers kick off home slate Saturday
Jan. 30, 2004

The Wofford women's tennis team will open its 2004 home spring schedule with an 11 a.m. contest Saturday against Georgia State. The Lady Terriers return to the Reeves Tennis Center after a 1-1 showing last weekend in Florida against Stetson and Jacksonville.

Entering tomorrow's match, the squad has posted strong opening singles record, including a 2-0 mark at the No. 2 slot by sophomore Ellen Rogers. Four other starters have started the year at 1-1.

In doubles play, Rogers has teamed with senior co-captain Wendy Rohr to register a 2-0 mark in the first two matches of the season.

"It should be a great match," said head coach Rod Ray. "If we play well, we will be successful."

Wofford is coming off an 11-8, 5-4 SoCon campaign a year ago which gave the program its third-straight season with at least 10 victories.

Rohr's three-set win seals victory for Lady Terriers Saturday
Jan. 31, 2004

Senior captain Wendy Rohr garnered a three-set match over Annamaria Forgacs at the No. 1 singles position to give the Wofford Lady Terrier tennis team a 4-3 win over Georgia State Saturday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center. Rohr won her match 6-4, 6-7, 7-5 to give Wofford a win in its home opener.

In other singles action, Tara Hartness picked up a 6-3, 2-6, 6-4 decision over Ania Dolinska at the No. 3 slot and at the No. 5 seed, Delaine Hare registered a 2-6, 6-2, 6-2 victory over Karmelina Rivera.

Rohr teamed with Ellen Rogers, and the duo defeated Anne Breiholtz and Simona Foltyn, 8-6, at the No. 1 doubles slot. Hartness and Hare provided the Lady Terriers with the doubles point after an 8-6 triumph over Forgacs and Rivera at the No. 2 seed.

"We have played three great teams so far this season, including today which we knew was going to be a tough match," said head coach Rod Ray. "Today was a total team effort. In each of our singles wins, we were strong in winning each in three sets."

With the victory, the Lady Terriers improve to 2-1 on the season. They will next travel to Macon, Ga., for a 1 p.m. match Monday against Mercer.

Florida Trip Journal

Senior co-captain Lauren Marie Whisenhunt kept a journal for the Wofford athletic website detailing the teams’ trip to Florida, Jan. 23-25.

On Friday, Jan. 23 the men and women’s tennis teams all met to leave for a trip to Florida. People arrived 30 minutes early to ensure they received a good seat on the bus. After many hours of talking, watching movies and playing cards, we arrived in DeLand, Fla., to practice at Stetson University. It begins to get dark quickly, and the lights that we were told would automatically turn on were not coming on. We continued to hit as it was getting dark while Coach Pinson played with the breaker box. He finally realized the lights would remain on as long as he leaned up against the switches. After we got in a good workout, we all went to eat dinner and checked into the hotel to get rest for our first big match of the season against Stetson.

On Saturday morning we woke up early to eat breakfast. Everyone was excited and looking forward to our first match of the season. The nerves that we all felt quickly turned into adrenaline after clinching the doubles point. We went on to win four singles matches making the final score 5-2. We were thrilled to bring home a victory for our first match! The men’s team began its match after we finished, and after a quick lunch, the girls all went for a team bonding experience in Stetson’s fitness center. After the men won their match, we all loaded back into the bus and drove to Jacksonville. The energy everyone had after winning was great! We ate dinner on the way and then arrived at the hotel. Everyone was exhausted from the long day so we all got rest for another exciting day of tennis against Jacksonville University.

We woke up early again on Sunday to get ready for another big match. This time the men and women played at the same time. This created even more energy and excitement! The weather was beautiful and everything was just right for a good day of tennis! We began by clinching the doubles point, but then won only two of the singles matches, losing to Jacksonville, 4-3. Even after the loss everyone was still positive about our effort and looking forward to the season!

As we headed home we began to hear stories about how the roads were getting real icy back in Spartanburg. We were all nervous about whether or not we would be able to make it all the way back. When we got close to Spartanburg the bus had to drive slowly because of the dangerous roads; nevertheless, we all made it back safely. When we got out of the bus the 13-degree wind chill was a huge shock compared to the sunny 75-degree weather we had just left in Florida. Overall, I felt like this was a super trip and a great way to start the season. I know that everyone is looking forward to a fun and successful year!
Women's tennis back in action Saturday
Feb. 6, 2004

The Wofford women's tennis squad will resume its 2004 spring schedule by hosting non-conference foe Coastal Carolina Saturday at 12 p.m. at the Reeves Tennis Center.

Senior Wendy Rohr, the No. 1 singles player for the Lady Terriers, has started the season 2-1 including a dramatic three-set victory in her last match against Georgia State which clinched the Wofford victory. She finished the fall listed No. 25 in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA)'s Southeast Region rankings, the first Wofford player ever to garner such recognition and only one of two competitors in the top 25 not from an ACC or SEC institution.

Also starting the season well for the Lady Terriers have been Ellen Rogers at No. 2 singles, Tara Hartness at No. 3 and Delaine Hare at No. 5. Each of them have also posted 2-1 marks in the opening three matches of the year.

"We know Coastal Carolina has a great team this year, and it presents us with a terrific challenge," said head coach Rod Ray. "At the top of their lineup, they are as strong as any team we'll face this year. Their roster includes last season's Big South Player of the Year as well as several other dynamite players. To date, we have faced three very good teams and Coastal gives us no chance to catch our breath. We anticipate an outstanding and very contested match."

Wofford has garnered a 2-1 record on the young 2004 campaign, which has included wins over Stetson and Georgia State.

Bowman clinches women's tennis victory Saturday for Lady Terriers
Feb. 7, 2004

With the team needing one last singles win for a team victory, freshman Kristen Bowman pulled through with a 6-4, 7-5 victory over Stephanie Koot at the No. 6 singles slot to give the Wofford women's tennis team a 4-3 triumph over Coastal Carolina Saturday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center.

The Lady Terriers started the day by losing the doubles point, despite an 8-4 victory at the No. 2 position from Tara Hartness and Delaine Hare against the Chanticleers' Virginie Dinh and Nicole Lemmerer.

Wofford then rallied to win four out of the six singles matches for the victory. Wendy Rohr won 6-4, 6-3 at the No. 1 position over Medina Bajrambasic and Ellen Rogers picked up a 7-6 (1), 6-2 win at No. 2 over Marie Mattrka.

Hare tied the contest at 3-3 as she the Lady Terriers' another singles victory with a three-set, 7-5, 2-6, 7-6 triumph over Lemmerer at the No. 5 seed.

"A freshman clinched it for us today, which is certainly going to give her some confidence," said head coach Rod Ray. "We picked up a pair of great wins at the No. 1 and No. 2 singles positions. Coastal is a great team, and I give them a lot of credit. Right now, we are playing like a high-level Southern Conference squad should."

With the victory, the Wofford improves to 3-1 while the Chanticleers fall to 0-1. The Lady Terriers will be back in action Thursday afternoon at Gardner-Webb in Boiling Springs, N.C.

Pair of weekend matches up next for Lady Terriers
Feb. 13, 2004

Coming off back-to-back home wins to raise its season record to 3-1, the Wofford women's tennis squad will return to the court this weekend with a pair of matches.

The Lady Terriers will travel to Rock Hill, S.C., Saturday for an 11 a.m. contest against Winthrop. With potential weather looming, the match was moved up one hour from its original starting time of noon.

Reeves Tennis Center welcomes Wofford back to its courts Sunday for a 1 p.m. match against Southern Conference newcomer Elon. It marks the opening of league season for the Lady Terriers.

At 3-1, Wofford is off to its best start in school history since the Lady Terriers joined the Division I ranks in 1995-96.

The Wofford women's tennis team improved to 4-1 on the season with a 7-0 sweep at Gardner-Webb in Boiling Springs, N.C., Wednesday afternoon.

The Lady Terriers swept all six singles matches, including a 6-2, 6-0, win by Wendy Rohr over Melissa DeJong at the No. 1 position. Ellen Rogers garnered a 6-0, 6-2, triumph at the No. 2 seed by defeating Molly Hoeffner. Tara Hartness used three sets but held on for a 6-0, 4-6, 10-4 victory over Lorielle Ferlita in the No. 3 match.

Lauren Marie Whisenhunt notched her first singles victory of the season with a 6-1, 6-1, handling over Krystina Sigmon during the No. 4 singles match while Delaine Hare garnered a 6-2, 6-1, triumph over Sara Zirnhold at the No. 5 slot. Wofford closed out the singles competition with a 6-1, 6-3, win at the No. 6 position by Kristen Bowman over Elena Iltcheva.

In doubles action, Rohr and Rogers posted an 8-0 win at the No. 1 slot over Hoeffner and Ferlita. In the No. 2 match, Hare and Hartness defeated DeJong and Sigmon, 8-4. Bowman and Whisenhunt tallied an 8-2 win at the No. 3 seeded match over Zirnhold and Carrie Yerkes.

"Today was a great win," said head coach Rod Ray. "Today was a key match since we've lost a lot of competition time recently because of the weather."

The Lady Terriers will resume action Friday at 1 p.m. in a non-conference match against High Point at the Reeves Tennis Center.

Women’s tennis knocks off Panthers, 6-1, Friday afternoon
Feb. 20, 2004

After sweeping the three doubles matches, the Lady Terrier tennis team picked up five out of the six singles matches to post a 6-1 win over visiting High Point Friday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center.

Wendy Rohr and Ellen Rogers started Wofford off with a 7-6 triumph at the No. 1 doubles match over the Panthers’ Suzie King and Jenny Rabanal. During the No. 2 doubles match, Delaine Hare and Tara Hartness defeated Suzanne Celensu and Ann-Charlott Talus, 8-3. The Lady Terriers garnered the sweep with an 8-4 decision by Kristen Bowman and Lauren Marie Whisenhunt over Sheena Bharti and Connie Wicks.

In singles play, Rohr defeated King at the No. 1 seed, 6-4, 6-0 while Rogers tallied a 6-0, 6-3 win at No. 2 over Celensu.

Whisenhunt notched her second-straight win at the No. 4 position by defeating Rabanal. Hare battled back after losing the first set to Bharti during the No. 5 match to take a three-set, 3-6, 6-2, 10-7 triumph. Bowman closed the day for Wofford with a 6-1, 6-2 defeat over Wicks at the No. 6 slot.

"I thought we played really well today," said head coach Rod Ray. "We certainly had a good day across the board. Rogers played awesome, Whisenhunt kept her streak alive and Bowman, who is our only freshman in the lineup, played as well as she has in a long time."

The Lady Terriers improve to 5-1 with the victory while High Point drops to 1-3.

Wofford will next play at Winthrop Wednesday afternoon in Rock Hill, S.C.

Lady Terriers face Division III power Emory Sunday
Feb. 28, 2004

The Wofford women's tennis team will hit the road for Atlanta Sunday for a 1 p.m. match up against Division III power Emory. The Eagles are currently ranked No. 1 in its division by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association and are the defending national champions.

Wofford enters the contest with a 5-1 mark, including four straight victories. The Lady Terriers have not played since a Feb. 20 match at home against High Point in which they garnered a 6-1 triumph over the Panthers.

"This match will be a great challenge to us because Emory is such a great program," said assistant coach Kavan Hahn. "It will be a good measuring stick for us at this point in the season. One interesting match to watch will be Wendy (Rohr) taking on an old high school friend at the No. 1 singles position. Also, since we haven't played in over a week, it will just be nice to get out and compete."

Rohr, the Lady Terriers' top singles player, will battle Mary Ellen Gordon. Gordon captured four individual national titles last season as a junior.

Sunday's match will be the first of three consecutive road matches for Wofford before the squad returns home to the Reeves Tennis Center for a Southern Conference match against East Tennessee State March 23 at 2 p.m.

Rohr defeats defending national champion Sunday afternoon
Feb. 29, 2004

Senior co-captain Wendy Rohr garnered a three-set victory at No. 1 singles to provide the Lady Terrier tennis team its lone point against Division III power Emory Sunday afternoon in a 6-1 loss in Atlanta. Rohr rallied after losing the first set to take the final two sets against multi-time national champion and All-America selection, Mary Ellen Gordon, 0-6, 7-5, 6-4. The win snapped Gordon’s 29 match winning streak which dated back to Oct. 20, 2002.

Also taking an Eagles player to three sets was sophomore Ellen Rogers at the No. 2 slot. Rogers fell in the first set before winning the second and hanging tough in the third in a 4-6, 7-5, 5-7 defeat to Jolyn Taylor who also earned All-America status last season.

During the No. 4 singles match, senior co-captain Lauren Marie Whisenhunt battled in three sets before dropping a 2-6, 6-2, 3-6 decision to Richelle Marasigan.

Freshman Taite Quinn saw her first collegiate action at the No. 6 singles slot and fell 0-6, 1-6 to Jamie Chan.

Rohr and Rogers combined to provide Wofford its best doubles match as they dropped an 6-8 decision to Gordon and Taylor.

"We played a great team today," said head coach Rod Ray. "What you get out of these types of matches is that some of your weaknesses are exposed. However, we now have two weeks to prepare for our next match and work on some things in practice until then. It's great for us to play a quality program like this, especially in non-conference play because it will prepare us for the conference season."

With the loss, the Lady Terriers drop to 5-2 on the season while Emory improves to 5-0.

Wofford will return to action March 14 in its Southern Conference opener at Chattanooga.

Lady Terrier tennis earns conference win versus the Spartans
March 21, 2004

The Lady Terrier tennis team earned its first Southern Conference victory of the season with a tight, 4-3, decision over UNC Greensboro Sunday afternoon in Greensboro, N.C.

After losing the doubles point, Wofford rallied to win four of the six singles matches to take the victory. Wendy Rohr and Ellen Rogers captured the squad’s lone doubles triumph with an 8-4 decision over Carlin Kannan and Lindsey Peel at the No. 1 slot.

Rohr continued her strong play during singles, earning a 6-0, 6-1 win against Kannan during the No. 1 match. Delaine Hare garnered the Lady Terriers’ other straight-set singles win as she posted a 6-2, 6-1 victory over Sophie Rychlik at the No. 5 seed.

Wofford garnered its other two singles wins in three sets. During the No. 3 position match, Tara Hartness responded after losing the first set to earn victories in the last two sets to take a 4-6, 6-3, 6-1 triumph against Kate LaCoste. In the other three-set win, Kristen Bowman garnered a 6-3, 3-6, 6-4 decision against Lourdes Moran at the No. 6 position.

With the win, the Lady Terriers improve to 6-3 overall and 1-1 in the league. Up next for Wofford is a stretch of three home conference matches in four days beginning Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. against East Tennessee State.

Women's tennis returns home to face ETSU Tuesday
March 22, 2004

The Wofford women's tennis team will return home to the Reeves Tennis Center to open a three-match homestand beginning Tuesday against East Tennessee State. The contest against the Lady Bucs is the first of three-straight Southern Conference matches for the Lady Terriers this week at home.

Wofford enters the match coming off a thrilling, 4-3 win at UNC Greensboro Sunday. The Lady Terriers took four of the six singles matches to claim the victory.

"ETSU appears to be very much improved from last year," said head coach Rod Ray. "It's record is excellent, and we know they have had some quality doubles results. I anticipate both teams will play well, and that it will be an outstanding match. If we are to be successful, we will need a great team effort."

Leading the Lady Terriers will be senior Wendy Rohr, the recipient last week of the TIAA-CREF Southern Conference student-athlete of the week. She increased her singles record this weekend to 8-1, including a perfect 2-0 in league play while playing as the No. 1 seed. Teaming with sophomore Ellen Rogers, the duo has garnered a 7-2 overall and 2-0 conference mark as Wofford's No. 1 doubles team.

Rogers has also been strong this spring for the Lady Terriers, maintaining a 6-3 singles mark at the No. 2 position while junior Delaine Hare has notched a 6-2 record as the No. 5 singles player.

Women’s tennis earns SoCon victory Tuesday
March 23, 2004

Returning home for the first time since Feb. 20, the Wofford women's tennis team garnered a 5-2 victory over East Tennessee State Tuesday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center.

The Lady Terriers started the match off strong by picking up the doubles point. At the No. 1 slot, Wendy Rohr and Ellen Rogers earned an 8-3 win over Sylwia Ziolkowska and Mariya Ilyina. Wofford also won the No. 2 seeded match when Tara Hartness and Delaine Hare posted an 8-3 decision against Courtney McInnis and Jewel Aldea.

In singles play, Rohr continued her dominant season by winning 6-1, 6-1 over McInnis at the No. 1 position. Rohr now holds a 9-1 singles record while nearly matching it with an 8-2 doubles mark with Rogers. Rogers used three sets to defeat Gemma Halim, 6-4, 5-7, 10-6 at the No. 2 slot.

Hare picked up the deciding point for the Lady Terriers during the No. 5 singles match. She also went three sets and came out victorious over Ilyina, 6-1, 5-7, 6-0. Kristen Bowman sealed the triumph with a 7-6, 6-3 win at No. 6 singles against Aldea.

With the victory, Wofford improves to 7-3 overall and 2-1 in the Southern Conference. The Lady Bucs drop to 11-7, 2-1 in the league.

The Lady Terriers will be back in action tomorrow, Wed., March 24 against Appalachian State. The contest is slated to begin at 2:30 p.m. at the Reeves Tennis Center.

Lady Terriers rally to defeat Appalachian State
March 24, 2004

The Wofford women's tennis team rallied to claim four out of the six singles matches to take a 4-3 win over Appalachian State Wednesday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center. It marks the third straight victory for the Lady Terriers, all in conference play.

In doubles play, the Lady Terriers lost the point despite Wendy Rohr and Ellen Rogers picking up their ninth win on the season by recording an 8-3 triumph over Tammy Beaulieu and Becky Gordon at the No. 1 seed. Wofford's top duo raised its season record to 9-2, including a 4-0 ledger in Southern Conference play. The Lady Terriers lost the other two doubles matches by 9-8 scores.

Rohr became the first Wofford women's tennis player this spring to garner 10 singles victories as she defeated Gordon at the No. 1 slot with a 6-4, 6-2 victory. She now stands at 10-1 and 4-0 in the league.

Rogers also picked up a singles win, at the No. 2 position, handing Anja Gugger a 6-3, 6-3 defeat. The Lady Terriers closed out the singles side with wins during the No. 5 and No. 6 matches. Delaine Hare earned a three-set, 6-1, 0-6, 6-0 triumph over Lyndsey Free at No. 5 while Kristen Bowman notched a 7-5, 6-2 win against Elena Berger at No. 6.

With the victory, the Lady Terriers improve to 8-3 overall and 3-1 in the Southern Conference. Appalachian State drops to 6-6 and 1-3 in the league.

Wofford will conclude its three-match homestand Friday against the College of Charleston at 1 p.m.

Wofford wraps up homestand with College of Charleston
March 25, 2004

The Lady Terrier tennis team will play its third match in four days, all at home, Friday against the College of Charleston at 1 p.m. Wofford is in the midst of a six-match, eight-day stretch against Southern Conference opponents.

The Lady Terriers (8-3, 2-1 SoCon) have won three straight matches entering tomorrow's competition against the Cougars who tied with Furman as the preseason league favorites.

The squad is paced by senior Wendy Rohr, who has recorded a 10-1 singles mark, including a 4-0 ledger in conference play. Her lone loss came in the second match of the season, at Jacksonville, and she run her consecutive winning streak to nine matches.

She has also teamed with sophomore Ellen Rogers to post a 9-2 doubles mark. Rogers owns an 8-3 singles record in her second season with the Lady Terriers.

Cougars clip Lady Terriers in tennis Friday
March 26, 2004

Despite splitting the six singles matches, the Wofford women's tennis team was not able to overcome the Southern Conference leading College of Charleston Cougars in a 4-3 loss Friday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center.

Wofford garnered a win in one of the three doubles matches as the No. 3 duo of Kristen Bowman and Lauren Marie Whisenhunt handed Whitney Malina and Ashley Willis a 9-7 defeat.

In singles play, Wendy Rohr won her 10th straight match with a 6-3, 6-2 triumph over Rachel Magory at the No. 1 slot. Ellen Rogers also continued her strong spring with a 6-4, 6-3 win against Gabriela Moreira at the No. 2 position.

The Lady Terriers earned their final point of the match as Bowman used three sets to rally and knock off Lauren Stewart, 2-6, 6-3, 6-2.

With the loss, Wofford drops to 8-4 overall and 3-2 in the league. The Cougars improve to 12-5 overall and 6-0 in the SoCon.

The Lady Terriers will hit the road for their next contest. Tomorrow at 1 p.m. Wofford will square off against Western Carolina in Cullowhee, N.C.

Women's tennis defeats Western Carolina
March 27, 2004

The Wofford women's tennis team earned its fourth Southern Conference victory of the season with a 6-1 win Saturday at Western Carolina. The Lady Terriers now stand 4-2 in the league and 9-4 overall.

Wofford started off the day by sweeping the three doubles matches. Wendy Rohr and Ellen Rogers garnered an 8-0 win at the No. 1 position over Rocio Perez and Erin Johnson while the No. 3 duo of Kristen Bowman and Lauren Marie Whisenhunt also posted an 8-0 victory, defeating Katie VanEwyk and Elysa Montgomery. The other Lady Terrier doubles win came from Delaine Hare and Tara Hartness at the No. 2 slot as they knocked off Kristin Cotton and Kristin Munn, 8-1.

In singles play, Rohr defeated Perez at the No. 1 slot, 6-0, 6-2 while Rogers handed Munn a 6-1, 6-1 loss at the No. 2 seed. Hartness continued the Wofford showing by registering a 6-3, 6-2 decision over Johnson during the No. 3 match.

Hare garnered a 6-1, 6-0 triumph against VanEwyk at the No. 5 position, and Bowman tallied a 6-0, 6-0 win against April Yount at the No. 6 slot to close the match.

The loss drops the Catamounts to 5-9 overall and 0-6 in the Southern Conference.

Wofford will play again tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Greenville, S.C., against Furman.

Lady Terrier tennis falls at Furman Sunday
March 28, 2004

Playing its sixth match in eight days, the Wofford women's tennis team suffered a 4-3 loss at Furman Sunday afternoon in Greenville, S.C. The Lady Terriers bounced back to win three of the six singles matches after being swept in doubles play.

Sophomore Ellen Rogers knocked off Shannon Moore at the No. 2 slot, 6-2, 6-3.

At the No. 5 position, junior Delaine Hare garnered her 10th singles victory of the year with a 7-6, 6-3 decision over Marti Morris. Also earning her 10th singles victory of the year was freshman Kristen Bowman. She handed Lauren Welch a 6-2, 7-6 defeat at the No. 6 seed.

With the loss, Wofford drops to 9-5 overall and 4-3 in the Southern Conference. The SoCon-leading Lady Paladins improve to 10-7 overall and 5-0 in the league.

The Lady Terriers will take two days off before resuming action Wednesday at Winthrop. The match against the Eagles is a make-up from a rain out earlier this spring.

Rogers named SoCon women's tennis player of the week
March 30, 2004

Sophomore Lady Terrier tennis player Ellen Rogers, a native of Lookout Mountain, Ga., was named the Southern Conference's women's tennis player of the week it was announced by the league office. She becomes the first Wofford men's or women's tennis player to earn the honor this season.

As the No. 2 singles player, Rogers boasts an 11-3 overall record, including a 6-1 mark in league play. This past week, she registered wins in each of the Lady Terriers' matches for a 5-0 record.

She started off the week with a three-set victory (6-4, 5-7, 10-6) over Gemma Halim of East Tennessee State before defeating Appalachian State's Anja Gugger the following day, 6-3, 6-3.

The weekend saw Rogers in action three-straight days as she started it with a 6-4, 6-3 triumph over the College of Charleston's Gabriela Moriera Friday. Rogers continued her dominant week with a 6-1, 6-1 win over Kristin Munn of Western Carolina Saturday before wrapping up the weekly competition with a 6-2, 6-3 win against Shannon Moore of Furman Sunday.

Rogers also teams with senior Wendy Rohr to form Wofford's top doubles duo. As a team, the twosome holds a 10-4 mark, including 5-2 in the Southern Conference.

With her contributions, the Wofford women's tennis team carries a 9-5 overall record and 4-3 league mark into the final five regular-season matches before the conference tournament. The Lady Terriers are aiming for their 10th victory of the campaign, a feat they have attained each of the last three seasons.

Wofford will continue its season tomorrow at Winthrop. The match is slated to begin at Noon in Rock Hill, S.C.

Terrier tennis program announces two time changes
April 1, 2004

The Wofford tennis program has announced two time changes for upcoming matches.

The women's match against Charlotte scheduled for Sunday has been moved to 1 p.m.

Also, the men's match Monday versus Southern Conference opponent East Tennessee State has been rescheduled for 1 p.m.

Both matches will take place at the Reeves Tennis Center.
Lady Terriers to play two at home this weekend
April 2, 2004

The Wofford women's tennis team will return to the Reeves Tennis Center for a pair of matches this weekend, including a Southern Conference contest Saturday at 1 p.m. against Georgia Southern. The Lady Terriers will also step out of league action for the final time this season and play Charlotte Sunday at 1 p.m.

Entering the weekend, Wofford holds a 9-5 overall record and 4-3 mark in the SoCon. With one more victory, the squad will attain 10 victories for the fourth-straight season, all under head coach Rod Ray.

"This match is big," said Ray. "It should be exciting and close to the end. I believe we are in a good place emotionally, mentally and physically and that we will play hard and intelligently."

Individually, the Lady Terriers are paced by four players who have tallied at least 10 singles wins. At the No. 1 slot, senior co-captain Wendy Rohr holds a 12-2 mark, including a 6-1 ledger in conference play. Matching her 6-1 league mark is No. 2 player sophomore Ellen Rogers. Rogers' overall record is 11-3 and she was named the Southern Conference women's tennis player of the week after posting a 5-0 showing last week, all against league opponents.

Junior Delanie Hare carries a 10-3 overall and 5-2 SoCon mark at the No. 5 singles position while freshman Kristen Bowman also has reached double figures in wins with a 10-4 overall record and 6-1 ledger against the league while playing the No. 6 seed.

The assistant coach for Georgia Southern is former Wofford standout, Louise Todd (Maynard). A graduate of the class of 1996, she is the only women's tennis player to be inducted into the Wofford Athletic Hall of Fame.

Throughout her career, she was a four-time team MVP and played at the No. 1 singles and doubles positions in every match over her four years. She was also a team captain and earned 58 singles victories. Maynard also received a top 40 ranking in Division II. She was nominated as Wofford's nominee for the NCAA Woman of the Year award in 1996.
Wofford earns 10th victory for fourth straight season in women's tennis
April 3, 2004

The Wofford women's tennis team earned its 10th victory of the season as it knocked off visiting Georgia Southern, 5-2, Saturday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center. The triumph gives the Lady Terriers 10 wins in each of the last four years, all under head coach Rod Ray. The team has also reached the double-digit plateau in five out of the last six seasons.

Wofford started off the contest with victories in two of the three doubles matches. At the No. 1 seed, Wendy Rohr and Ellen Rogers, last week's SoCon women's tennis player of the week, earned an 8-6 decision over Ciara Finucane and Szilvia Zsakay. The Lady Terriers picked up the point following a triumph at the No. 2 position when Delaine Hare and Tara Hartness combined for an 8-4 victory against Amy Pazahanick and Kimberly Wollett.

In singles play, the Lady Terriers started off by winning each of the top three slots. During the No. 1 match, Rohr handed Finucane a 6-2, 6-2 loss while Rogers picked up a 6-2, 7-5 victory over Charlotte Bruneteaux at the No. 2 slot.

Hartness garnered a 6-2, 6-3 triumph over Krystel Sauvageau at the No. 3 position. Wofford concluded the match by winning at the No. 6 seed as Kristen Bowman knocked off Heather Reynolds, 7-5, 6-1.

With the win, the Lady Terriers improve to 10-5 overall and 5-3 in the Southern Conference. The Eagles drop to 9-10 overall and 4-5 in the league.

Wofford will be back in action tomorrow at 1 p.m. against Charlotte at the Reeves Tennis Center.

Rogers claims lone point in final non-conference match
April 4, 2004

Sophomore Ellen Rogers garnered the Wofford women's tennis team's lone point Sunday as the Lady Terriers dropped a 6-1 decision to visiting Charlotte at the Reeves Tennis Center. The match signaled the end of the non-conference slate for Wofford this season.

Rogers, playing at the No. 1 singles position, defeated the 49ers' top player, Laura Swain in straight sets, 6-0, 6-3.

Charlotte dominated much of the match and the only singles contest to reach three sets was at the No. 2 slot. The Lady Terriers' Tara Hartness squared off against Ofra Friedman but fell, 3-6, 6-4, 6-1.

Wofford's record now stands at 10-6 while Charlotte improves to 11-6.

The Lady Terriers will take a week off for spring break before returning to the court April 15 at Davidson in their final away match of the season.

Women's tennis prepares for final road match
April 14, 2004

The Wofford women's tennis team will hit the road Thursday for its final road match of the season as it travels to Davidson, N.C., to take on the Davidson Wildcats at 3 p.m.

The Wildcats are currently in second place in the Southern Conference standings, two spots ahead of the Lady Terriers. Wofford owns a 5-3 league mark while Davidson is 7-1 with its lone loss coming to third-place College of Charleston.

Four Lady Terriers have reached the double-digit win plateau this season, including senior co-captain Wendy Rohr and sophomore Ellen Rogers, who have each tallied a team-high 13. In league play, both players are 7-1, matched by freshman Kristen Bowman. Bowman also owns an overall mark of 11-5. Junior Delaine Hare is the other Wofford player with at least 10 wins as she carries a 10-5 record into the match.

Rohr earns win in Lady Terrier loss at Davidson
April 15, 2004

Wofford senior co-captain Wendy Rohr garnered the Lady Terriers' lone point in a 6-1 loss at Davidson Thursday afternoon in Davidson, N.C.

Rohr captured the No. 1 singles match with a 6-1, 3-6, 10-6 victory over the Wildcats' Kelly Fillnow.

Her victory gives her a team-best 14-2 mark this season, including an 8-1 record in Southern Conference play.

In doubles play, the closest Wofford came was a 9-8 loss at the No. 2 seed. Tara Hartness and Delaine Hare lost the contest to Meggie Patterson and Lindsey Powel.

Wofford drops to 10-7 overall and 5-4 in the league with the loss.

The Lady Terriers will close out their regular season with a home match Saturday versus Elon at 1 p.m. Prior to the contest, the program will honor its three seniors on this year's squad: Rohr, Mary Wallace DeBerry and Lauren Marie Whisenhunt.

Wofford women's tennis to close regular season Saturday
April 16, 2004

With only one regular season match remaining, the Wofford women's tennis team will host Elon Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Reeves Tennis Center. Prior to the contest, the Lady Terriers will honor their three seniors as part of Senior Day ceremonies. Playing in their final home match will be Mary Wallace DeBerry, Wendy Rohr and Lauren Marie Whisenhunt.

DeBerry is a Florence, S.C., native who posted her best season as a sophomore when she tallied a career-high 13 singles victories. A year ago, she recorded a pair of wins while playing doubles.

Arguably the top player in the Division I era for Wofford, Rohr, from Lawrenceville, Ga., enters the match with a 14-2 overall record, including a 8-1 mark in SoCon play this season. She earned the program’s first regional ranking in the Division I era last fall when she was No. 25 in the Southeast and is a two-time all-conference player. She not only excels on the court, but also in the classroom as evidenced by a 3.83 g.p.a. as a Spanish and business economics double major and by being rewarded as a SoCon TIAA-CREF Student-Athlete of the Week last month.

Whisenhunt joined Rohr as the squad's co-captains for the second straight year. Following a strong 9-5 mark in singles her freshman campaign, she was named the team's MVP. She originally hails from Florence, S.C.

"In what has been an up-and-down year for us, we remain optimistic heading into our last conference match of the year," said head coach Rod Ray. "Elon presents us with a formidable challenge. We need to play our best and challenge ourselves in every way. Several of our players have shown recent improvement, and in this match, we need everyone to give 100 percent."

The Lady Terriers will be looking to improve on their 10-7 overall and 5-4 league records. With one more victory, the team would match its win total from each of the previous two seasons.

Lady Terrier tennis closes regular season with triumph over Elon
April 17, 2004

The Wofford women's tennis team concluded its regular season with a 5-2 victory over visiting Elon Saturday afternoon at the Reeves Tennis Center.

The Lady Terriers earned the doubles point after picking up victories in the No. 1 and 2 matches. In the No. 1 contest, Wendy Rohr and Ellen Rogers combined for an 8-3 decision over Evin Prelec and Jennifer Fulmer. Tara Hartness and Delaine Hare gave Wofford the decisive point with an 8-2 win against Alli Benton and Kelly Fleck during the No. 2 match.

In singles play, Rohr closed out her final match at the Reeves Tennis Center with a 6-3, 6-3 triumph over Prelec at the No. 1 seed. Rogers also garnered a singles victory, playing at the No. 2 position, defeating Fleck in three sets, 6-0, 4-6, 6-4.

Also earning a win in her final home match was Lauren Marie Whisenhunt. She defeated Elizabeth Kernodle at the No. 4 slot, 6-3, 6-1. Hare gave the Lady Terriers the victory with a come-from-behind, three set triumph over Elizabeth Kristofak, 1-6, 6-2, 6-2 in the No. 5 seeded contest.

The Lady Terriers improve to 11-7 overall and 6-4 in the Southern Conference with the victory while the Phoenix drop to 3-11 and 2-8 in the league. The 11 victories this season for Wofford match the win total the squad has attained the last two years, with a chance to earn the most wins since the program moved to the Division I level.

Wofford will compete next at the Southern Conference Tournament Thurs., April 22, against an opponent to be determined. The event, in Charleston, S.C., runs Thurs. through Sunday.

Terrier tennis teams learn of opponents in SoCon Tournament

April 19, 2004

The Wofford tennis teams learned today which schools they will face first in the upcoming Southern Conference Tournament in Charleston, S.C., as the league office announced the brackets.

On the men's side, the Terriers will open the tournament as the No. 11 seed and face No. 6 seed Elon in the third match Thursday, April 22. Wofford and the Phoenix are set to play at 12:30 p.m. at the City of Charleston Farmfield Courts. The two schools met in the regular-season finale Saturday in Spartanburg, S.C., with Elon coming away victorious, 4-3.

The Lady Terriers will open the tournament Friday, April 23, after earning the No. 5 seed and receiving a bye into the second day. Wofford will face Chattanooga in the 10 a.m. match at the City of Charleston Farmfield Courts. The two teams met earlier this season, March 14, in Chattanooga, Tenn., with the Lady Mocs garnering a 5-2 triumph.

The SoCon event runs through the championship matches Sunday, April 25, and is a double-elimination format.

Rohr named SoCon women’s tennis player of the week
April 20, 2004

Senior co-captain Wendy Rohr of the Lady Terrier tennis team was named the Southern Conference women's tennis player of the week it was announced by the league office today.

Rohr compiled a 2-0 record at No. 1 singles last week as Wofford split its two matches. At Davidson, she won 6-1, 3-6, 10-6 over the Wildcats’ Kelly Fillnow to earn the team's lone point in the match. She concluded her regular-season career with a 6-3, 6-3 triumph Saturday against Evin Prelac of Elon.

Entering the Southern Conference Tournament this week in Charleston, S.C., she carries a 15-2 overall record, including a 9-1 mark against league foes.

Wofford will open the league tournament as the No. 5 seed against No. 4 seeded Chattanooga Friday, April 23, at 10 a.m. at the City of Charleston Fairfield Courts.

Lady Terriers travel to Charleston for conference tournament
April 22, 2004

Led by four players with double-digit singles wins, the Wofford women's tennis team will enter the Southern Conference tournament in Charleston, S.C., as the No. 5 seed Friday. The Lady Terriers open the tournament against No. 4 seed Chattanooga at 10 a.m. at the City of Charleston Farmfield Courts.

Senior co-captain Wendy Rohr, the reigning SoCon women's tennis player of the week, leads Wofford with a 15-2 overall mark. During the regular season, she garnered a 9-1 mark against league foes while playing at the No. 1 singles slot. Her doubles partner, sophomore Ellen Rogers, notched a 14-4 overall record and 8-2 league mark this season while playing No. 2 singles.

Also earning at least 10 wins this season were junior Delaine Hare and freshman Kristen Bowman. Hare, who played primarily at the No. 5 position, registered an 11-6 overall ledger while Bowman tallied an 11-5 record at the No. 6 seed.

"Chattanooga has a very good team," said head coach Rod Ray. "When we played them earlier in the year, they beat us easily. Ironically, we are looking forward to the match as we feel we have improved since that match. Obviously, we are the underdog, but we are grateful for the opportunity to play a great team in the first round. Our focus will be on doing the things well that we can do and on competing to the best of our ability."

The field features each of the 11 playing institutions in the conference and it began this morning.

Three Lady Terrier tennis players named All-SoCon
April 22, 2004

The Wofford women's tennis team had three representatives on the 2004 All-Southern Conference teams it was announced by the league office.

Senior co-captain Wendy Rohr earned all-league accolades on the first team singles squad. It marks the third straight season, and the second time in singles, she has garnered the honor. This season, she led the Lady Terriers with a 15-2 overall record, including a 9-1 mark against league foes, playing at the No. 1 singles seed. She also earned All-SoCon honors in singles her sophomore season of 2002.

Sophomore Ellen Rogers also placed on the first team singles squad. She tallied a 14-4 overall and 8-2 league mark this season playing at the No. 2 position. It marks the second straight season Rogers has garnered all-league credentials.

In addition to their singles honors, the doubles duo of Rohr and Rogers also earned a spot on the first team doubles squad. The pair were also all-conference performers a year ago in doubles.

Also a member of the all-league teams was freshman Kristen Bowman. Playing at the No. 6 singles slot, she registered an 11-5 overall mark, including a 7-1 ledger against conference foes. She was named to the second team singles, and the honor is the first of her career.

Rohr, Rogers and Bowman will help lead the Wofford women's tennis team in the Southern Conference Tournament this weekend in Charleston, S.C. The trio and the rest of the Lady Terriers, who are seeded fifth, will battle fourth-seeded Chattanooga tomorrow, April 23, at 10 a.m.
