We are saddened to inform you of the death of Ethan Humphries, who had worked in the kitchen in Burwell until recently leaving with plans to move to Tennessee for another job. Ethan, whose mother, Elizabeth Humphries, also works for Aramark in the Galleria in the Michael S. Brown Village Center, was killed in a single-car accident on Friday, June 6.

He will be remembered as always pleasant and friendly with his co-workers, other staff members and students.

Visitation will be tonight (Monday, June 9) from 7 to 9 p.m. at Eggers Funeral Home, 815 S. Alabama St., Chesnee, S.C.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow (Tuesday, June 10) at Eggers Funeral Home.

Please keep Elizabeth and Ethan’s family and friends in your thoughts and prayers.

Dear Faculty and Staff Members,

In preparation for the fall back-to-school season, Follett (operator of the Wofford College Bookstore) will be launching extensive eFollett.com upgrades aimed at enhancing the shopping experience for all campus customers. While implementing these updates, eFollett.com and the Faculty Online Adoption tool will be unavailable from 7:00 p.m. CST Friday, June 13, to 10:00 p.m. CST Sunday, June 15. All eFollett.com and Online Adoption visitors will be prompted with an outage message, including contact information for eFollett.com customer service. Please know that the Wofford College Bookstore will remain fully operational during its normal business hours to ensure minimal impact to the Wofford College campus community.

Follett looks forward to unveiling the new site upgrades and will provide additional details as the process is completed. In the meantime, please direct any questions to Rebecca Liakos at 864-582-6514 or LiakosRM@wofford.edu.

I thank you in advance for your assistance. Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Rebecca

HUB-BUB and the University of South Carolina Upstate present the third annual Expecting Goodness Short Film Festival, sponsored by Contec Inc.

The film festival will take place Saturday, June 14, at the Chapman Cultural Center Theater at 200 East St. John Street in Spartanburg, South Carolina. This festival is the only one of its kind in the world, pairing acclaimed short stories by South Carolina authors with regional filmmakers who adapt the stories into short films. This year’s festival includes stories written by authors Ron Rash, Brett Lott, George Singleton, Pam Durban, and many more.

Wofford College film professor Julie Sexeny swept the awards at last year’s festival with her film “Reagan in Kabul,” shot largely on the Wofford campus. She has returned this year with “Perfect Attendance,” adapted from a short story by George Singleton. Wofford graduate Kameron Union has a film in the festival as well, as does current Wofford student Chelsea Smith.

The judges for the festival are actress Celia Weston, film critic Michael Dunaway, and writer Scott Gould. We are especially delighted to welcome New York actress and Spartanburg native Celia Weston. Nominated for a Tony award for Best Actress, Weston is well-known on the screen from the films Dead Man Walking, The Talented Mr. Ripley, Far From Heaven, Junebug, and many more.

Tickets for the Expecting Goodness Short Film Festival can be purchased at the Chapman Cultural Center box office, by phone at (864) 542-2787, or online by clicking “Purchase Tickets” at expectinggoodness.com.

The Premiere Awards Screening is at 7 p.m., and tickets are $20. The Matinee Judges’ Screening is at noon, and tickets are $10. The Indie Grants works-in-progress films will screen at 4 p.m., and admission is free.

For more information about the festival, visit www.expectinggoodness.com or contact Peter Caster at (864) 503-5677.

Other sponsors include Unified AV, the Spartanburg Film Commission, and members of the larger upstate community. This program is funded in part by The Arts Partnership of Greater Spartanburg, its donors, the County and City of Spartanburg and the South Carolina Arts Commission which receives support from the National Endowment for the Arts and the John and Susan Bennett Memorial Arts Fund of the Coastal Community Foundation of SC.

It is with great sadness that we report the death of Dean of Students Emeritus J. Michael “Mike” Preston ’63. Dean Preston died last Sunday, June 15, at his home in Brevard, N.C., where he had been living with his wife, Jane, for several years. Dean Preston was a 1963 graduate of Wofford who joined the staff in 1968. He served various roles in Admission and in Development before being named Dean of Students in 1973, where he served until 1995. Faculty/staff colleagues and alumni of that era fondly remember Dean Preston as a deeply caring advocate for students whose engaging personality and quick wit made him a friend to many. He and Jane are the parents of three children, two of whom, Beth ’86 and Angela ’88, are Wofford alumnae.

A memorial service for Dean Preston will be held on Saturday, June 28, at 2 p.m. at Holy Cross Episcopal Church, 150 Melrose Avenue, Tryon, N.C. 28782. A reception will immediately follow the service in the Parish Hall of the church.

The family has requested that memorial gifts be made to Wofford College, c/o Office of Development, 429 N. Church St., Spartanburg, S.C. 29303-3663.

Condolences may be expressed to Mrs. (Jane) Preston and the family at 2361 Greenville Highway, Brevard, N.C. 28712.

Greetings,

Wofford’s first FYI Summer Orientation Program will be held this Saturday, June 28th. We are expecting almost 700 students and parents. Beth Wallace and I are pleased that our annual dessert reception which is held on Friday night from 7:00-9:00 p.m. will be held on campus this year in the Great Oaks Hall in the Roger Milliken Science Center for our incoming students and their families.

We invite you to stop by the reception to meet and greet our incoming students. If you are trying to connect with someone on Saturday, you can find the schedule for the day posted on our web site.

Thanks

Roberta Hurley Bigger
