To the Wofford Campus Community:

The Wofford campus extends its heartfelt sympathies to members and friends of Emanuel AME Church and the larger Charleston community.

Chaplain Ron Robinson reminds the campus that Mickel Chapel, located in Main Building, is open today and Friday for prayers.

A community prayer service will be held today from 5 until 5:30 p.m. in the chapel of the First Presbyterian Church in downtown Spartanburg.
2015 CAROLINA PANTHERS TRAINING CAMP
AT WOFFORD COLLEGE
CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

The Carolina Panthers return for the 21st year of training camp at Wofford College and Spartanburg on Friday, July 31, and we’re excited!

Once again, there will be lots of activities for the community – and lots of volunteer opportunities for you!

They include the Lowe’s Kickoff Party and Mayors Ball Run on Friday, July 31; Play 60 Day for children of all ages on Sunday, Aug. 2; and Panthers Pals kids program throughout camp (see dates/times below).

We’d love to have you volunteer! Please review the volunteer opportunities below and register for your preferred slots at:

www.wofford.edu/panthersvolunteerform

You will enter your name, age, email and cell number, and select the events/dates and shifts you wish to volunteer for. (In the cases of two available shifts for the same day/duties, you may volunteer for both.) You may select as many slots as you wish. Then, hit “submit” at the bottom of the form. You will be informed via email of your assignments and any special instructions.

Slots will be filled on a first-come basis and as needs necessitate. You are not guaranteed a slot. If your requested slots are filled, your name will be kept on a waiting list and you will be notified if a slot becomes available.

All volunteers must be at least 18 years of age. All volunteers will receive a volunteer T-shirt upon arrival at your first assignment.

Email questions to Laura Corbin at mailto:laura.corbin@wofford.edu.

As churches in Charleston, around South Carolina and the nation stand together Sunday in remembrance of the victims of the Emanuel AME Church shootings Wednesday, so will Wofford College.

The churches will ring their bells simultaneously at 10 a.m.

Wofford will ring the bell in Main Building’s bell tower as well as a show of solidarity and remembrance.

We are saddened by the news of the death of one of Wofford’s student-athletes, Jeremiah Tate, who drowned early this morning while serving as a camp counselor at Lake Wylie near Charlotte, N.C.

Jeremiah was a rising junior and a member of the men’s basketball team. He made an appearance for the Terriers in the 2014 NCAA Tournament against Michigan.

He was an accounting major, a Bonner Scholar, a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Pre-Law Society. He had served on Campus Union. He recently was one of 251 nominees for the Allstate Good Works Team.

Jeremiah was the son of Frank and Carole Tate of Columbia, S.C.

Jeremiah was a graduate of Lower Richland High School, where he was president of the student body and a member of the National Honor Society. In high school, he played basketball for three years and was named an Academic All-Star. He also ran the hurdles in track, earning All-Region and All-District honors. He was All-Region and All-District in cross country as well.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Greetings:

Wofford’s first FYI Summer Orientation Program will be held tomorrow, Saturday, June 27. We are expecting more than 500 students and parents.

The Student Affairs staff and the student Orientation staff will welcome our incoming students and their families this evening from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in The Commons in the Campus Life Building.

Please join us for some or all of this casual reception to meet and greet our newest students and their parents.

If you have any questions or would like an electronic copy of the program, please email me.

Thank you in advance for your support.
