Wofford Football Announces 15 Signings

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford College football coach Mike Ayers announced on Wednesday the signing of fifteen student-athletes to National Letters of Intent for the upcoming season.

The 2007 Southern Conference Champions will welcome eight players on defense and seven players on offense. The student-athletes are from eight different states, including five from Georgia and four from North Carolina.

On defense, the eight players include three defensive ends, three linebackers and two defensive backs. On offense, the seven players include three offensive linemen, three running backs/halfbacks, and one wide receiver.

“I am very pleased with this year’s class of players,” said head coach Mike Ayers. “All of them are quality student-athletes who we feel will fit right in both academically and athletically at Wofford. The success we have had on the field the past couple seasons has contributed to being able to attract more top-line recruits to our campus.”

The defensive ends include Zach Bobb (Marietta, Ga.), Allen Smith (Columbia, S.C.) and Eric Eberhardt (Suwanee, Ga.). Linebackers are Ricco Braxton (Douglasville, Ga.), TeVon Boards (Bowling Green, Ky.) and Mike Niam (Hudson, Ohio). In the secondary, Bryan Youman (Montverde, Fla.) and Kendall Bratcher (Greensboro, N.C.) will join the Terriers.

On offense, the linemen are Calvin Cantrell (Dacula, Ga.), J.J. Miller (Buford, Ga.) and Jake Miles (Charlottesville, Va.). In the backfield, Lavadrick Farrar (Charlotte, N.C.), Eric Breitenstein (Valle Crucis, N.C.) and Derek Boyce (Knoxville, Tenn.) come aboard. At wide receiver, Brenton Bersin (Charlotte, N.C.) joins the Wofford offense.

In addition, the Terriers have one transfer for the upcoming season. Quarterback Robby Davis (Fayetteville, Ga.) spent the fall semester at the Naval Academy and enrolled at Wofford in January.

Last season the Terriers were 9-4 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA FCS Playoffs. In 2008, they will open the season August 30 against Presbyterian College at Gibbs Stadium. A full schedule will be released later in February. Spring practice will begin for the Terriers on February 29 and end March 22.

The eligibility of all student-athletes is contingent upon admission to Wofford College and compliance with all NCAA rules, including registration with the NCAA Clearinghouse. Additional student-athletes are expected to be added to the list in the next week.

Wofford Announces 2008 Football Schedule

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford College has announced the 2008 football schedule, which includes home games against in-state rivals The Citadel and Furman and a road contest at South Carolina.

The Terriers will open the season at home against Presbyterian. The game will mark the first meeting between the teams since the 1996 season. Wofford will then travel to Charleston Southern on September 6.

Following the first of two open dates, the Terriers will face South Carolina at Williams-Brice Stadium on September 20. In 2006, the Gamecocks defeated Wofford 27-20. It will mark the eighth time in the last nine seasons the Terriers will play a FBS team.

Opening the Southern Conference season, the Terriers will travel to Georgia Southern on September 27. After the second open date, Wofford hosts Chattanooga on October 11 at Gibbs Stadium for Homecoming.

The month of October will end with a trip to Elon. On November 1, Wofford will travel to Appalachian State to face the three-time defending National Champions. The Terriers and Mountaineers shared the Southern Conference title in 2007, with Wofford gaining the automatic bid to the FCS Playoffs by virtue of a 42-31 win.

After facing The Citadel at home on November 8, Wofford will play at Samford. This will mark the first season in the SoCon for Samford after moving from the Ohio Valley Conference. The Terriers will end the season by hosting Furman on November 22.

All dates and times are subject to change.

Aaron Johnson Joins Wofford Football Staff

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford College head football coach Mike Ayers announced on Tuesday that Aaron Johnson has joined the staff as running backs coach. Johnson was a four-year letterman at halfback for the Terriers from 2002-05.

“Aaron is a guy that understands our offensive system and also understands Wofford,” said head coach Mike Ayers. “He is a great addition to our staff and we are glad to have him.” In 2005 as a senior, Johnson played in all eleven games with 13 carries for 68 yards and a touchdown in the season opener against Georgetown (Ky.). He also added five receptions for 34 yards.

As a junior, he had 19 carries for 88 yards and a touchdown along with three catches for 67 yards and touchdowns against South Carolina State and The Citadel. Following his junior and senior seasons he was recipient of the Terriers’ “Unsung Hero Award.”

During his sophomore season, he ran for 186 yards on 47 carries as the Terriers won the Southern Conference Championship. Against Catawba he posted a career-high 92 yards with a touchdown. As a freshman he had a career-best 193 yards on 25 carries with a touchdown.

A native of Bowling Green, Kentucky, Johnson has spent the past two years in private business. He graduated from Wofford in 2006 with a degree in business economics.

The Terriers will begin spring practice on March 3 and the 2008 season will open on August 31 against Presbyterian.

Wofford Football Adds Two Signings

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford College football coach Mike Ayers announced on Thursday the additional signings of two student-athletes to National Letters of Intent for the upcoming season. Joining the Terriers' signing class are offensive lineman Josef Grommer and defensive lineman T.J. White.

Grommer, a 6-5, 265 pound offensive lineman, has played the last three seasons at Spartanburg High School. As a senior he moved to offensive line after two years at tight end. In 2007 he was a team captain for head coach Doc Davis and was named Best Offensive Lineman. He also has been a thrower for the track team for the past three seasons, recording top throws in the shot put and discus.

White, a 6-3, 270 pound defensive lineman, was a four-year letterman at Troy High School in Troy, Ohio. As a senior he earned first-team all-conference honors playing both offensive line and defensive line. He also is a four-year letterman in track and field, earning second-team all-conference honors in the discus. White lettered for two seasons as a center for the basketball team.

Wofford has now signed a total of seventeen student-athletes for the 2008 season. The 2007 Southern Conference Champions will welcome nine players on defense and eight players on offense. The student-athletes are from eight different states, including five from Georgia and four from North Carolina.

Last season the Terriers were 9-4 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA FCS Playoffs. In 2008, they will open the season August 30 against Presbyterian College at Gibbs Stadium.

The eligibility of all student-athletes is contingent upon admission to Wofford College and compliance with all NCAA rules, including registration with the NCAA Clearinghouse.

Wofford Honors Mike Ayers

Announces Commitments and Challenges of $13.2 Million in Support of Athletics

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – Wofford College honored Mike Ayers for his 20 seasons as head coach of the football team with a celebration dinner and roast on Saturday, March 15. The nearly 600 attendees from across the country included retired Air Force Academy football coach Fisher DeBerry (Wofford class of 1960), Appalachian State University head football coach Jerry Moore, Spartanburg High School head football coach Fred Brown (Wofford class of 1991) and numerous former players and friends.

In anticipation of Coach Ayers' 20th anniversary, a specific athletic endowment campaign was begun 18 months ago. During that time, $6.7 million has been committed to the athletic endowment. Wofford President Dr. Benjamin B. Dunlap's special announcement of a $1.5 million leadership challenge highlighted the evening. The challenge calls on friends and supporters to raise an additional $3 million in endowment, which if successful, could raise the total to $11.2 million.

Two gifts for athletic facilities, $1 million from Joe Taylor of Columbia, S.C. and $1 million from Jerry Richardson from Charlotte, N.C. were also announced at the celebration. The total amount of committed and potential funds announced for the support of Wofford Athletics is at least $13.2 million.

"The celebration honoring the career of this remarkable man was a very special evening," said director of athletics Richard Johnson. "For those of us who know Mike, the best way to honor him is to provide him with endowed scholarships and facilities to take the program to the next level."

"What's most remarkable and altogether typical of Mike Ayers is that he's not looking to negotiate a multi-million dollar contract for himself, replete with year-end bonuses and negotiate a multi-million dollar contract for himself, replete with year-end bonuses and buyout clauses,” said Dunlap. “The reward he’s hoping for is more scholarships and better facilities for his players. In that regard, he’s a throwback to the days of great selfless coaches like Knute Rocke, who also prepared their players for the game of life. He’s one of the finest teachers we’ve got.”

A $1.5 million challenge from Wofford College trustees Harold Chandler of Briarcliff Manor, N.Y., Ed Wile of Atlanta, Ga., and local philanthropists Jimmy and Martha Gibbs was announced. Wofford has been challenged to raise $3 million for endowed athletic scholarships, which will be matched by the $1.5 million. A focal point of the challenge will be contributions to the Mike Ayers Endowed Scholarship Fund.

The leadership challenge is the first step toward the long-term goal of endowing all athletic scholarships at Wofford. Football will be the area of initial emphasis but all sports are to be included.

This approach is patterned after the Reeves Challenge issued by trustee Ed Reeves of Summit, N.J. to endow professorships for distinguished faculty at Wofford.

Wofford alumnus and South Carolina Secretary of Commerce Joe Taylor has donated $1 million for the Joe E. Taylor Athletic Center. The Taylor Center will feature a 7,000 square-foot strength and conditioning facility and offices for athletic department staff. It will be located next to Gibbs Stadium with its renovations to begin this summer. The strength and conditioning facility will provide all student-athletes at Wofford the opportunity to develop physically and competitively in athletics and in their careers beyond.

Carolina Panthers owner and Wofford alumnus Jerry Richardson has made a $1 million donation that will be used for enhancing the Richardson Physical Activities Building. Numerous improvements will be made to the complex to ensure that it is one of the most advanced athletic facilities in the nation. The project will begin in April and will be completed this summer prior to the start of the Carolina Panthers training camp.

Wofford Football Completes Second Spring Scrimmage

SPARTANBURG, SC – The Wofford College football team completed the second of two scrimmages of spring practice on Saturday morning at Gibbs Stadium. The live scrimmage featured 80 plays, including special teams.

“Both sides did good things today,” said head coach Mike Ayers. “We are a little limited in numbers so some guys are out there a lot longer than they should be. We had 80 live, good reps. We took the gloves off the quarterbacks so they could be tackled. Overall, we had some big plays by some guys on offense and had guys that played really hard on defense. It was a beautiful day to work, we had fun and it was great to see so many people out in the stands.”

The first drive of the day with Ben Widmyer at the helm ended with a 20-yard field goal by Patrick Mugan. On the second series, James Mitchell and Tommy Irvin both came up with interceptions.

With the first team offense on the field with quarterback Travis Boyd, Anthony Naylor came up with a fumble recovery. But the offense got things moving, with a first down by Jeremy Marshall, a twenty-yard gain by Dane Romero and a first down reception by Fenn Allen. Mitch Allen took over at quarterback and the drive ended with a 35-yard field goal by Patrick Mugan. However the defense was strong on the drive, with another interception by Tommy Irvin and a sack by Mitch Clark.

After the halftime break, Mitch Allen completed a first down pass to Andrew Young and Dane Romero picked up another first down. Allen capped the drive with a 40-yard run for the touchdown.

Ben Widmver returned to quarterback and scored on a 17-yard run. Later in the series.

David Royster caught a 15-yard pass from Widmyer for the first down.

In the final ten plays of the scrimmage, Robbie Davis completed a 35-yard pass to Justice Joslin and Sean Lees scored on a four-yard run. Blake Beeler picked up a first down on a reverse as well. With the first team defense back on the field, Mitch Clark had a tackle for loss, Seth Goldwire recovered a fumble and Buck Brown intercepted a pass.

The Terriers were limited in personnel during the scrimmage. Ten players were either limited or held out of practice, including FB Arsenio Parks, HB Matthew Boggs, LB Keaton Thompson, LB David Babb, OL Ben Miller, OL Derek Wooten, WR Brian Mizelle, TE Johnson Richardson, TE Joseph Inman and DL John Starr.

Wofford has three remaining spring practice dates of the fifteen allowed by the NCAA, which will be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Wofford Football Finishes Spring Practice

SPARTANBURG, SC – The Wofford College football team completed the 15-day spring practice schedule on Wednesday afternoon with a short scrimmage at Gibbs Stadium. The team went through 60 plays in about 45 minutes.

“There were good plays and bad plays out there today,” said head coach Mike Ayers. “We were not quite as crisp as I would have liked us to be, but I think the numbers have affected what we could do.

“Overall this spring we have made progress but there is still a long ways to go. We could only have 15 practices, and we went all 15 which gives us a good feel for the team heading into the fall. There was a lot of give and take as the veterans did a good job and it took a while for the younger guys to get up to speed at times. As coaches and players we have improved from a knowledge standpoint. There were specific things we wanted to look at and address this spring and we have definitely helped ourselves in that area.”

To open the scrimmage, Ben Widmyer had a pass caught by Fenn Allen for a first down and Sean Lees rushed for a first down. Travis Boyd ran for a first down, as did Dane Romero. The first team defense came up with several big plays, as Gary Blount and Hunter Hobson both had tackles for loss.

For the offense, Devin Reed had two first down completions from Mitch Allen. Gary Blount came up big again when he stopped a reverse in the backfield for a loss of five yards. Mike Rucker added a rushing first down, as did Jeremy Marshall.

With Ben Widmyer back under center, Dane Romero rushed for a 15-yard gain. Mitch Allen completed a 35-yard pass to Sean Lees for the longest play of the day. Mychael Johnson had the day's first interception when he nicked off a halfback pass in the endzone. Hunter Hobson had the other interception for the defense when he grabbed a pass deep in the secondary. The defense ended the day with a combined tackle for loss by Layton Baker and Anthony Naylor.

The Terriers were limited in personnel during the scrimmage. Thirteen players were either limited or held out of practice, including FB Arsenio Parks, LB Matt Norcia, LB Keaton Thompson, LB David Babb, LB Monier Abusoft, OL Ben Miller, OL Derek Wooten, WR Brian Mizelle, TE Johnson Richardson, TE Joseph Inman, DL Mitch Clark, DL Ryan Young and DL John Starr.

The Terriers will take part in the strength and conditioning program upon returning from spring break. The 2008 season begins on August 30 when Wofford hosts Presbyterian at Gibbs Stadium.

Wofford Football Adds Three Signings

SPARTANBURG, SC – Wofford College football coach Mike Ayers announced on Monday the signings of three additional student-athletes to National Letters of Intent for the upcoming season. Joining the Terriers' signing class are defensive back Trey Diller, defensive lineman Alex Goltry and defensive lineman Ameet Pall.

Diller, a 6-2, 198 pound defensive back, played for three seasons at The Woodlands College Park High School. In 2007, he earned first-team all-district and first team all-county honors at wide receiver and also earned first-team all-district honors as a return specialist. Overall he had 59 catches for 1,046 yards and 23 touchdowns, three punt return touchdowns, two interceptions and two sacks. He also averaged 31 yards per kickoff return and 18 yards per punt return. As a junior he was first-team all-district and first-team all-county as a wide receiver. He also runs track, competing in the 4x100, 4x200 and 4x400 relays and the triple jump.

Goltry, a 6-1, 220 pound defensive lineman, played for Bearden High School in Knoxville, Tennessee. In 2007 he was named All-Region as an offensive lineman and a defensive tackle. He made 78 tackles - 31 for loss - and nine sacks in leading the Bulldogs to a district championship and the Class 5A state semifinals as a senior. In three seasons, he posted 129 tackles and 13 sacks.

Pall, a 5-11, 235 pound defensive lineman, played the last two seasons at Vanier College in Montreal, Quebec. In 2007, the team won their second straight Bol d'Or trophy, which goes to the champion of the CEGEP Triple-A football league. Pall was named MVP of the Bol d'Or in both 2006 and 2007 and also received all-league honors. He holds the school's all-time and single season sack records. Vanier College also produced former Carolina Panther Tshimanga Biakabutuka.

Wofford College, 1000 Wofford College Drive, Spartanburg, SC 29308-1000, Phone: 803/656-1000

Wofford has now signed a total of twenty student-athletes for the 2008 season. The 2007 Southern Conference Champions will welcome twelve players on defense and eight players on offense. The student-athletes are from nine different states and Canada, including five from Georgia and four from North Carolina.

Last season the Terriers were 9-4 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA FCS Playoffs. In 2008, they will open the season August 30 against Presbyterian College at Gibbs Stadium.

The eligibility of all student-athletes is contingent upon admission to Wofford College and compliance with all NCAA rules, including registration with the NCAA Clearinghouse.

Wofford-Appalachian State Football Game To Air On ESPN2

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – The football game between Wofford College and Appalachian State, originally scheduled for November 1, has been moved to Friday, October 31 to accommodate a live national broadcast on ESPN2. Kickoff is set for 8 p.m. at ASU's Kidd Brewer Stadium.

The contest pits the defending Southern Conference co-champions and is the first between the two teams since Appalachian had its 17-game winning streak snapped by Wofford, 42-31, last September 22 in Spartanburg, S.C. ASU rebounded from the loss to claim its third-straight NCAA Division I national championship, while Wofford earned the SoCon's automatic postseason bid and advanced to the national quarterfinals after a win at Montana in the first round.

The Mountaineers and Terriers are among the Carolinas' and SoCon's winningest programs in this decade. Appalachian has the best record of any Division I institution in North or South Carolina at 79-27 (.745) and the best SoCon record of any conference member (46-14, .767) since the beginning of the 2000 season. Wofford ranks third overall in the Carolinas (62-32, .659) and fourth in the SoCon (39-21, .650) during the same stretch. This will mark the second time that Wofford football has appeared on ESPN2. The first appearance was on December 13, 2003 against Delaware in the national semifinals. The Terriers men's basketball team faced Wisconsin on ESPN2 this past season as well. The Terriers will open the 2008 season on August 30, hosting Presbyterian College at 7:00 pm at Gibbs Stadium. For season ticket information, please call 854-597-4090.
